Six 4-H Club members have lambs entered in the Abilene Stock Show next week. Club members with lambs entered are Marilyn Foster, Tommy Foster, Bobby Bynum, Janis Igo, Billy Blaneck and Kenny Blaneck. The lambs will leave here Sunday morning; they will be weighed in Sunday at the show.

Judging in the regional lamb show gets under way at 8:00 a.m. Monday morning. Sifting of the lambs is scheduled for 7:30 a.m. Monday morning. The regional show continues through Wednesday when the top seventy lambs, fifty steers, fifty hogs, and rabbits, capons, broilers and turkey broilers are auctioned off in the sale.

How many hours labor is required per hundred pounds of beef produced? A recent USDA report shows that about 12 hours labor annually is required per cow or 3.6 hours per hundred pounds of beef produced. This is for the state of Texas. Broken down still further, the report shows that it requires about ten hours per cow in West Texas, fourteen hours in the Grand Prairie farm region, and eighteen hours on blackland farms and in the Northeast Texas region.

A comparison of states shows that the mountain states require ten hours per cow, or 2.4 hours per hundred pounds of beef. The Delta states of Mississippi, Arkansas, and Louisiana require 15 hours per cow. The report shows Texas compares favorably with the other states. All states and their agricultural economy face competition with other industries for the available labor. This is one of the factors affecting agriculture and it will continue to be a problem.

Texas ranchers and farmers with the necessary resources, land, labor, capital and the managerial ability to combine them into an efficiently operating unit—should have a good year in 1964 believes John McHaney, economist with the Agricultural Extension Service.

McHaney's reasons for his belief are these: Economic activity for the nation is expected to continue at a high level during 1964. Consumer incomes after taxes are running about five percent above 1962 and further gains are expected in 1964. Automobile sales, home sales, home building and appliance sales are expected to be higher.

Expenditures for new plants and equipment is expected to climb. Federal, state and local government expenditures for goods and services will increase in 1964; these expenditures now account for about one-fifth of the gross national product.

McHaney reminds all that the general economic activity will depend to a great extent on the timing and extent of the proposed tax cut.

The domestic market for agricultural products looks good. The immediate outlook for agricultural export is about the best ever. Total exports of farm products for 1963-64 is likely to be near the $6 billion mark if the proposed wheat sale to Russia materializes.

Agricultural output continues to rise and 1963 is expected to set a record high for the sixth consecutive year. With average growth conditions, 1964 will see output remain high and probably set a new record. The cost price squeeze will still be an important factor in farm income but in many areas, farmers are doing much off-farm work and the per capita income from all sources will approach the 1963 record level. Farm assets will increase due to the continued increase in farm land values. Farm debts will continue to increase but the equities of the owners are increasing at a faster rate than the debts according to the economist.

All these things are based on the assumption that conditions will not change too radically during 1964. A drastic change in the world situation, or in the national situation, could change the entire picture. Only time can determine that part of the picture—in January 1965, it will be possible to evaluate the prediction.

Cantrell Seeking Reelection

Jim Cantrell has announced that he would be a candidate for reelection to the office of sheriff, tax assessor-collector of Sterling County, subject to action of the Democratic Primary in May. Jim is now serving his first term in that office here.

Sheriff Cantrell was serving in the highway patrol before he announced for the office four years ago. Soon after he was elected, Bill Green resigned the office and moved to Arkansas, and Cantrell went into the office about a half a year ahead of time.

Cantrell has served as chief deputy of Parker County and was a highway patrolman following his training at Camp Mabry, Austin. He and Mrs. Cantrell have two children, Jeffrey, a first grader and Loren, a preschooler.

Cantrell said that if reelected to the office he would treat everyone fairly and do his best to carry out the duties of his office.

Donalson Out for Reelection

Horace Donalson has announced that he would run for reelection to the office of Sterling County Commissioner Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in May. He is just finishing out his first term in that office.

Donalson was for many years the Santa Fe Agent here until he was retired (when the rail road was moved out.) He owned and operated the Palace Theater here for many years. He served as city councilman, and resigned that spot to run for County commissioner four years ago.

Donalson said that he would continue to carry out the duties of the office to the best of his ability if reelected.

C.J. Copeland Out For Reelection

C. J. Copeland announced this week that he would be a candidate for reelection to the office of Sterling County Commissioner, Prec. No. 3 subject to action of the Democratic Primary on May 2.

C. J. has served two terms as commissioner from his precinct and he is respectfully asking the voters for another term in that office.

Skills and Efforts Combine to Win 4-H State Honors

A showman of champion beef cattle and swine from Lubbock, and an outstanding 4-H junior leader from Corpus Christi are winners of Lone Star State 4-H achievement awards.

Don Meador, 17, whose Hereford and Black Angus steers raised in 4-H projects have won many ribbons, and Dorsey Ewing, 19, winner of the Texas state leadership award last year, were named recently by the Cooperative Extension Service for the achievement honors.

The National 4-H Achievement program, sponsored by the Ford Motor Company Fund, aims at developing leadership talents and a broader knowledge of 4-H agricultural and home economics projects.

Meador, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Meador of Lubbock, is a nine-year 4-H veteran of projects in beef and dairy cattle, swine, electricity, grain sorghum, cotton, tractor maintenance, home improvement, poultry and recreation. In 1961 he and his sister Judy won Lubbock County Gold Star awards.

Miss Ewing is a blue ribbon winner in county and district dress revues. In addition she has a long list of achievements in leadership at local through state levels, and participated extensively in various 4-H events.

As state leadership winner last year, "my real dream came true," she said, because she attended the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

The 10-year 4-H member, who plans a career in home demonstration and 4-H leadership, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Ewing of 5837 Hampshire in Corpus Christi. She attends Del Mar Junior College.

AEROSPACE products—planes and missiles—cost about $10 a pound during World War II, a period of very high production, says Aeraspace Industries Association of America. In the 1950's cost went to $100 a pound. Today it's rocketed to $1,000.

MODERN canning techniques are far removed from the way Grandma put up preserves, reports Voxator, Louisville; rotary-piston fillers can fill from a few dozen to 1,200 glass, metal or plastic containers a minute.

APPROXIMATELY 560 meteorites, some as big as 60 tons, hit earth each year, says Dr. Harrison Brown of the California Institute of Technology, but most are too small to do any damage. Only about 10 per year are ever found. "Falling stars" which burn up before reaching earth are called meteors; the ones that get here are meteorites.

Wool Applications

January 31 is the Deadline for filing 1963 Wool Applications at ASCS Office.

Ranchers have until the end of January to file applications for 1963 marketing year payments under the National Wool Act, Charles Cunningham, ASCS Office Manager, reminded producers today. He emphasized that January 31, 1964 is the last day for accepting payment applications in connection with marketings of either wool or lambs during 1963.

Since this is several months earlier than under previous wool programs, the ASCS Office urges that producers avoid possible confusion by filing their applications on completed sales as soon as possible.

The 1963 marketing year under the wool program ended December 31, 1963. Future wool marketing years will be announced. Congress authorized the National Wool Act in 1917 with the calendar year order to encourage the domestic production of wool.

for filing 1963 applications is in line with normal program procedure of continuing to accept such applications for one month following the end of the marketing year.

The 1963 program payments—which probably will begin in April—will cover shorn wool and unshorn lambs marketed during the 9 month period April 1, 1963 through December 31, 1963. Later marketings will be eligible for payments for the 1964 marketing year, which began January 1, 1964.

The necessary sales records accompanying the applications will be the basis for calculating the national average price received by ranchers for wool during the 1963 marketing year. When the average price can be determined, the payment rates for shorn wool and unshorn lambs sold during the 1963 marketing year will be announced. Congress authorized the National Wool Act in 1917 with the calendar year order to encourage the domestic production of wool.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

The 2nd session of the 87th Congress began with the President's State of the Union message. Featuring a welcome stress on economy, the message also bristled with a call for many new welfare programs which could rub out much of the savings promised on defense, personnel and other areas. It is recalled that the late President Kennedy in his message to Congress last January, promised a balanced budget, then ended up with a deficit of nearly $9 billion, according to estimates.

President Johnson, however, was firm in his estimates, and promised a frugal administration which may influence the Congress to go slow on some of the expensive welfare proposals which he envisions.

While it appears that the President's motivations are lofty, it is feared that the proposed expansion of welfare relief for the Nation's needy will tend to further invade the role traditionally played by the Red Cross, Community Chest, and other locally financed agencies which ordinarily carry the ball in ministering to America's unfortunates.

Experience has shown that when the Federal government invades the welfare field all sorts of headaches develop. There are a lot of free-riders and chislers who are content to live on relief, and make it a business of it. Rackets and scandals have recently been uncovered in the present multi-billion dollar federally-financed welfare programs that are already in effect. Only last year it was revealed that 60% of welfare for dependent children here in the District of Columbia was paid to ineligible, and similar practices have been reported in many states.

We already have five categories of federal aid of this kind, and the rackets extend to most of them. The welfare state should be advanced with care and caution, with emphasis on local responsibility in this field. This method tends to discourage graft and racketeering.

Abe Lincoln hit the nail on the head when he said: "You cannot permanently help a man by doing for him that which he can do and should do for himself."
