AROUND THE COUNTY

ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

The Ethicon Corporation of San Angelo was the host for the noon meal at the District Seven 4-H Council meeting in San Angelo Saturday. Larry Krampert, personnel manager for the company, spoke briefly at the noon meal. He has lived in San Angelo about one year, coming there from New Jersey. He told the group that in New Jersey the 4-H Club was not nearly as well known as it is in Texas. The appearance of the boys and girls at the meeting and their ability and determination was most impressive, said Krampert. Attending from Sterling, County were Tommy Foster, Rosanne Foster, David Foster and Jeanie McDonald.

The next meeting of the council will be held in May at the District Camp at Lake Brownwood, May 26-28. Council members Saturday made plans for the camp, the district elimination contests on May 1 at San Angelo College, and the District Gold Star Luncheon in December.

The meeting at the Rocker B ranch next Thursday, March 18, should be of interest to all beef cattle producers. Speakers at the meeting will be Dr. Jan Bonsma of the University of Pretoria in South Africa. Lunch will be served at a small cost at noon and the meeting will get under way immediately after lunch. Everyone is invited to attend. Dr. Bonsma has been the subject of much publicity during his year in Texas. He was brought to Texas under a grant from the Wortham Foundation after receiving much world wide publicity for his observations and techniques used in determining fertility of beef cattle.

Dr. Bonsma uses visual means to determine the past and future fertility of beef cows and bulls. Some of the points are hair, size of the dewlap, fat covering, head and other points. By these means, he has developed a technique whereby he can tell how many calves a cow has produced and what she should produce. In many meetings of the type to be held at Barnhart, Dr. Bonsma has demonstrated these points and then given the number of calves produced by the animal. Then, the rancher has checked the records to determine the actual number. Thus far, Dr. Bonsma has been better than ninety per cent correct.

At a meeting in Marfa several months ago, forty-eight cows were used. Bonsma's estimated number of calves for the cows over a four year period was 162. From performance records, the rancher said the cows had produced 166 cows. At the Barnhart meeting, 175 head of registered cows will be used to demonstrate the points and methods.

Twenty-one 4-H Club members are exhibiting fifty-eight head of sheep and lambs and one horse at the San Angelo Show this week. This is the largest number of exhibitors from the local club to take part in the San Angelo show in several years.

The fifty-eight head of sheep are broken down like this: twenty-three head of fine-wool lambs, fourteen head of crossbred lambs, twelve head—four groups of range ewe lambs, and nine head of registered Rambouillet in the Junior Rambouillet show. The one horse is a 1964 filly colt.

In addition to the 4-H Club members, a number of FFA members will be competing in the show. Several adult exhibitors from Sterling County will also be taking part in the show.

The club members taking part in the show were named in last week's column. If you Lubbock, Texas — Steve Whitley of Sterling City is among the 572 students who have enrolled for the spring semester at Lubbock Christian College, Lubbock, Texas.

This total surpasses all previous records set in the spring. The enrollment is an increase of 12 per cent over the 1964 spring enrollment.

LCC has students from 28 states, 236 cities, and 13 foreign countries. Foreign countries include Canada, Canal Zone, China, Cuba, Iran, Israel, Japan, Okinawa, Puerto Rico, Saudi Arabia, Scotland and Thailand.

Whitley is a sophomore music major at LCC where he participates in A Cappella Chorus, Meistersingers and drama. He is a 1962 graduate of Iranian High School. There he was active in football, chorus and track.

One-Act Play Being Worked Up

Sterling High School is entering the one-act play contest this year with the play—"A Storm Is Coming", a story of a young girl who feels she must protect an insignificant insect and has problems with the man who feels he must protect her. The story or play is by Jim Damico.

The first dress rehearsal is to be presented here at the school auditorium March 23, and the public is cordially invited to attend—free. Then, on the 25th the play will be in district competition at the Bronte school. Should they win there, they would be in regional competition in Big Spring, said coach Fred McDonald.

As characters the part of the man is played by Royce Sparks; the Girl is played by Jeanie McDonald; the Woman and the Voice by Shirley Price; the Gang by Drew Durham and Janie Copeland. The stage and prop managers are Rosanne Foster and Nelwyn King.

Mr. McDonald said he would like for a good crowd to come out and see the play on the night of March 23. The players need a good audience.

Well on Hildebrand Flows 415 Barrels

Texas taxpayers will be helping pay for a mammoth WPA-type welfare program in 11 states, costing $1.1 billion the first year, as provided by a bill enacted last week. Known as the Appalachia Aid Bill, the measure was endorsed by 12 Texas Congressmen, with 11 of us recorded against it.

Eleven states—Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, will now become eligible to board this gravy train from Washington. This will be in the form of grants to build more roads, hospitals, public facilities, rehabilitate old coal mines, improve agricultural land, and a multitude of other projects.

Uncle Sam will now pay up to 80% of the cost of making farm land in these favored states more productive—in addition to the present SCS, soil conservation, and other farm programs already in effect.

One oddity in the line-up of votes saw all Virginians in the House except one, and both U.S. Senators from that state, voting against it, even though Virginia is one of the "poverty-stricken" States that will be eligible for these extra special Federal hand-outs.

The Appalachia project will not end in one year. Portions of it are designed to run for five years. Federal programs have a way of being extended year after year, once they get started. And they usually get bigger each year.

It is reported that the planners are preparing perhaps a dozen other similar programs for other regions. Rumor has it that a big Ozark project, fashioned after Appalachia, will be presented later, and that "poverty-stricken" Texas may get in on that one.

This new Federal spending project will be superimposed

Sterling County gained a discovery last week in a Fusselman pay.

W. A. Moncrief and Champlin Petroleum Co., Ft. Worth, No. 1 Fay Hildebrand, Sterling County Fusselman discovery, 15 miles south-southwest of Sterling City and six miles south of the depleted 1 well WAM (Wolfcamp) field, was finaled for a daily flowing potential of 415.13 barrels of 49 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio unreported.

Production was through a 28-64-inch choke and perforations between 8,661-77 feet, which had been acidized with 5,000 gallons. Tubing pressure was 140 pounds.

Drilled to 8,790 feet, 4 1/2-inch casing was set at that depth.

Location is 660 feet from the south and west lines of 45-A-GC&SF.

on more than 30 other Federal welfare programs already in effect, including the anti-poverty catch-all measure now being expanded.

One feature of this new venture will allow Uncle Sam to pay up to 80% of the cost of a hospital if built in one of the favored States, and permit the Federal government to equip, staff and practically operate it. This feature drew strong support from those members who favor socialized medicine. It is argued that if it is good for these 11 States then it will spread and be good for all 50 states.

Approved by a margin of 257 to 165, the Appalachia Aid Bill provides an indicator that the House will approve almost any spending program that is requested this year.

FAMILY LIFE, says the Population Reference Bureau, is more popular than ever. Nine out of 10 Americans—177 million out of 190 million—live in the country's 47 million families. (The Bureau of the Census defines a family as two or more people living together related by blood, marriage or adoption.) Average family size in 1960 was 3.7 persons, up from 3.5 in 1950 and reversing a downward trend of more than 150 years' duration.

PHOSGENE, a colorless gas that smells like new-mown hay, plays an important role in the manufacture of polyurethane foams which have rapidly growing insulating and cushioning applications, reports Chemetron Chemicals, Chicago, a major phosgene producer. The name comes from the Greek words for "light" and "to produce" since it was first made in 1812 by the action of light on a mixture of carbon monoxide and chlorine.

HARDENING of the arteries is being studied in hogs by the University of Illinois because a swine's circulatory system is similar to man's. Half a group of hogs get regular workouts on a treadmill; the others do not. Theory being tested: exercise increases the size of certain blood vessels reducing the danger of arterial disease.

Social Security Tips

Will your social security monthly retirement check be $100 or $120? If your wife claims her payments when she's 62, will they increase when she reaches 65? These are some of the questions you might like to have answered before you retire. Floyd B. Ellington, District Manager of the office in San Angelo said it's a good idea to visit their office about three months before that date. There is an advantage of your applying well ahead of time. Most applications go through without any trouble, but every once in a while someone has trouble proving his age or providing some other form of needed evidence. When that happens everything grinds to a stop until a satisfactory age or birth record or other proof is supplied. If you wait until you retire to make your claim, and you don't have the records you need, your first check may be delayed. If you don't need your social security right away, it won't matter, but most folks count on that first check as part of their post-retirement budget.

When you visit the social security office three months before retirement, there are some records you'll need to take. The best way to find out what you should take is to phone ahead. In addition to a record of your age, you may need to taken your last withholding tax statement. If your wife is 62 and wants to apply for benefits also, she'll need a record of her age. If you call the social security office before you pay the pre-retirement visit, they can tell you exactly what you'll need. If there's some record you don't have, they can usually help you get it. Helping people with retirement claims is their business. For example, they know the best, and quickest way to get a record of your age.

Some people delay a trip to the social security office because they think a social security claim will be a lot of trouble. It isn't an automatic thing, but highly trained people will do everything to help you. There are three things to remember. First, plan ahead for your retirement. Second, call the social security office.

OPPORTUNITY AND HOUSING LOANS AVAILABLE

Residents of Sterling County who meet eligibility requirements may receive Economic Opportunity Loans if the loans will help them earn more income through their own enterprises, according to Patrick F. Sullivan, Farmers Home Administration County Supervisor of San Angelo. These loans may be made to low-income farmers and non-farmers. The maximum loan to any one borrower is $2500; the interest rate is 4 1-8 per cent; up to 15 years to repay. The borrower must be unable to obtain credit elsewhere on reasonable terms.

Loans to farmers may be made to finance farm operating expenses, improvements and development, including purchase of land or equipment, machinery, and buildings.

Loans to rural residents, including Sterling City and to farmers, may be made to finance a small business, trade, or service that will increase the income of the applicant.

Rural Housing Loans are available to eligible applicants of sufficient repayment ability if credit cannot be obtained from other sources on reasonable terms. This loan may be used to finance new dwellings and to improve and repair dwellings. The maximum living space should not exceed 1400 square feet. These loans bear 4 per cent interest with up to 33 years to repay.

Housing loans up to $1,000 may be made to eligible applicants with lower repayment ability to add a room in justified cases, for repairs and improvements, and to provide toilet facilities.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting or writing the Farmers Home Administration, Box 1670, San Angelo, Texas, located in the Cactus Hotel Building.

For Social Security

Floyd B. Ellington, district manager of social security in San Angelo, issued a reminder today to all persons who are receiving social security benefits that they must notify the Social Security Administration whenever something happens that might affect the payment of their benefits. Some of the events which must be reported are:

1. Earnings from all types of work if the beneficiary is under age 72 and expects to earn more than $1200 during the year.
2. Death of a beneficiary.
3. Change in marital status—unless the beneficiary is receiving payments as a retired worker.
4. Change of custody of a child or other person for whom you are receiving benefits.
5. Change in address.

"Social security beneficiaries received a list of these and other events that must be reported with this check earlier this year," Ellington said. "If they do not have this list, they may pick up another at the social security office."

"In fact, anyone who has a question about social security should get in touch with us to get correct information."

Woolly Gifts from the U.S.

In a people-to-people airlift nearly halfway around the globe, 400 prize sheep were recently flown in two chartered cargo planes from Texas to India. The flying American sheep will be used to upbreed wool flocks on the Asian subcontinent.

The 300 Rambouillet ewes and 100 rams were part of America's contribution to the Freedom from Hunger Campaign of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO).

The 8000-mile flight represented a cooperative effort sponsored by Heifer Project, Inc., of Upper Darby, Pa., a voluntary agency organized to help underdeveloped countries to upgrade livestock strains.

The sheep were purchased from Texas breeders as a gift from the Councils of Churches of Elkhart and St. Joseph Counties, Ind., to the Indian Freedom from Hunger Campaign committee. India's government paid transport costs. FAO arranged the shipments.

The sheep, airlifted from Houston to Jaipur, were consigned to the Malapura Sheep and Wool Institute. Crossed with local flocks, they are expected to produce three to five times as much wool as Indian breeds yield.

ARIZONA is the site of what may be the oldest human dwellings in the United States. A University of Chicago expedition uncovered the remains of an Indian village dating between 4000 B.C. and 100 A.D. in northern Arizona. The round dwellings were built of cedar saplings.

FOUR JET ENGINES roar into action periodically in Louisville, Ky. but never move an inch. The city's electrical utility harnesses their combined 60,000 horsepower to generate short-time "peaking capacity," current needed when demand exceeds normal supply. The engines burn natural gas at the rate of 624,000 cubic feet an hour, reports Tube Turns, which forged the hundreds of fittings for the all-welded gas-supply system. That's enough gas to operate a home furnace for about five years.
