With the coming of the Christmas season, many homes are being decorated to make the holiday season a little gay. Precautions should be taken though to try and insure a season of joy rather than a season of sorrow because of accidents or fire.

Each year, a number of fires are charged to Christmas tree lighting. Make sure your lights are all in good working condition and the cords are not frayed or have breaks in the insulation. Keep the cords out of the traffic pattern so there is no danger of someone tripping over them.

Live trees can be kept fresher and prettier longer if they are placed in pots with wet sand. Here, you should be certain that there is no possibility of the wet sand causing a short in the wire and a possible fire. Never leave the house with the tree lights burning.

Many utilities companies are now warning against the use of lights on artificial trees. It would be well to check on this if you are using, or planning to use, an artificial tree.

As the beginning of a new year approaches, the economic forecasts begin to make their appearance. John G. McHaney, Extension Economist, has just released his general outlook for 1966.

McHaney sees another good year for Texas agriculture. Realized net farm income (income above production expenses) in the United States has been estimated at $14 billion dollars for 1965, the highest since 1952. The year 1966 may very well be higher and may be from one-quarter to one-half billion above the 1965 level.

Realized net incomes per farm or ranch and per capita incomes for the farm population were at record highs in 1965 and also may be even higher in 1966.

According to McHaney, the factors contributing to a favorable year in 1966 are:

1. The production and price outlook again looks favorable for livestock producers.
 2. The new food and agricultural act of 1965 will provide some increase in income, especially for crops.
 3. Domestic demand and exports will continue to expand.
- Net income per farm in the U.S. was estimated at $4,000 in 1965. This is ten percent higher than 1964 and 40% above 1960. Prospects for a further rise in incomes in 1966 will push per farm and per capita incomes for farm people to new highs. This will come about because of the decline in the number of farms and farm people.

The biggest increase in exports will be in feed grains and wheat. Cotton export will increase some also. The industrialized countries such as Japan, Canada, and Western Europe are increasing their demand for livestock products, feed grains, soybeans, and protein meals. The Food for Peace Program will cause more food to be shipped abroad and result in increased exports there.

With all the forecasts of increased dollars, there is one forecast that will offset some of the gains. McHaney says that the production expenses will continue to increase and offset some of the indicated gains in gross farm income. Farmers will pay more for the commodities they purchase; interest rates, taxes, and wage rates will also climb. Farm debts will also increase.

In spite of these, the producer should see a slight increase in his net income. These forecasts and their eventual outcome a year from now will, of course, depend on the world situation.

FHA Meetings

On November 30 the FHA meeting was held in the school auditorium. The program was titled "Granny, This Isn't 1890" Project for the year was discussed—it was decided to clean up in Sterling.

The group also decided to go caroling Wednesday night, December 15.

Hostesses for the meeting were Linda Turner and Elizabeth Gonzales.

On December 6 the meeting was held at the F.S. Price home. The program title was "Citizenship Challenges You." Slides of the national convention in Philadelphia were shown.

The devotional was given by Ann Lawson. Members also drew names for the Christmas party.

Hostesses were Elaine Price and Helen Hays.

Football-Pep Squad Banquet Held

The annual Sterling City football-pep squad banquet was held in the community center last Saturday evening. Mr. Grant Teaff, head coach at McMurry College of Abilene, was the guest speaker. The banquet was put on by the high school mothers' club. Larry Stewart acted as master of ceremonies. Marion Hays gave the invocation. Mrs. J. Q. Foster, president of the mothers club, gave the welcome and responses were given by Elaine Price and Frank Balaban.

The pep squad girls sang special music. Their sponsor, Mrs. Lynn Glass, told of the year's activities. Coach J. R. Dillard gave the highlights of the 1965 football year. School superintendent O.T. Jones introduced the guest speaker.

Gifts were presented to various ones—to football sweetheart Rosanne Foster by Larry Stewart, to Larry Stewart, football hero by Rosanne Foster, to coach Dillard by Mike Foster, to coach George White by Dusty Dillard, to superintendent Jones by James Morgan, to Mrs. Lynn Glass by Jeanie McDonald, and to high school principal Earl Seago by Jack Clark.

The senior class parents had charge of the dinner. On the menu was ham, baked potato, green beans, fruit salad, rolls, butter cherry tarts and coffee or tea.

1966 FHA Project

The State FHA project for 1966 is "Beautifying Texas". The Sterling City Chapter has planned a "Beautify Sterling" project. They plan to start on main street and work from there. Anyone who has a lot or anything that needs cleaning up may contact a member of the FHA and they will be glad to clean it up for you.

BIG EATERS will have trouble keeping up with a cold-cut slicer produced by All-Bright-Nell, Chicago. The gourmand's dream can slice up to 2,500 lbs. of cold-cuts, frozen meats and cheeses an hour.

IF YOU WANT A SUPERIOR CAT, treat your kitten with tender loving care. Pampered kittens tend to react more adequately to later "stressful situations," say Pennsylvania State University scientists.

TRAFFIC CONGESTION in the airways is a problem, particularly at the 4,000-4,999-foot altitude, according to the Federal Aviation Agency. Air traffic control facilities of the FAA assigned this segment of the sky more frequently than any other last year.

SOCIAL SECURITY

"You don't have to retire completely to get social security benefits," Floyd B. Elling-ton, social security district manager in San Angelo said today.

"If you earn $1200 or less in a year, you are considered to be completely retired and would be entitled to all your benefits," he added.

If you earn over $1200 in a year, you may be considered partly retired and entitled to part of your social security benefits. For example, a worker would have only one dollar in benefits withheld for every two dollars earned between $1200 and $1700. For earnings

Top State Awards for '65 Claimed by 4-H Members

A Coleman County lad who's had a peek behind the Iron Curtain and a poised young woman from Edcouch in Hidalgo County have won state 4-H public speaking honors.

Joe Pat Hemphill, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Hemphill of Coleman, won the boy's award with a talk on "A World Without 4-H," which recounted his 1964 summer trip to East Berlin, Hungary and Czechoslovakia. Hemphill will receive a wrist watch from The Pure Oil Company.

Lynda Bowers, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bowers, spoke on "Citizenship—Our Heritage and Our Responsibility" to win the state contest for girls. She will receive a chest of silverware from Pure Oil, the program sponsor.

Andy Scott, 17, of Childress, won the 4-H Dog Care and Training award. He'll get a watch from the sponsor, Ralston Purina Company.

The 4-H'er with the best project in dairy foods was 16-year-old Joanna Lewis of Murchison. Carnation Company will give her a wrist watch.

Hemphill, born and raised on a ranch of more than 9,000 acres, had ample material for his many speeches on conservation and cattle. However, he also has spoken on "Democracy in Action" and read a dress revue script while Coleman County 4-H lovelies paraded their home-stitched fashions. Hemphill has been before TV cameras and on many radio shows.

In his "World Without 4-H" speech Hemphill characterized life in Czechoslovakia as dull and uninspiring.

"Our trip was very short," said Hemphill, "but it was enough to convince us that Communism is not progress."

Miss Bowers has given 24 speeches and appeared on radio and television. As president of her senior high school class she delivered the welcome address at graduation.

Public speaking, she says, has helped her gain poise and self-confidence. Miss Bowers attends Pan American College.

A profit of more than $1,000 over six years tells how seriously Andy Scott has taken the Chihuahua-raising business.

Scott, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Scott, chose dog care as his main 4-H project, he says, because "it is one suited to a city boy." (Actually, 22 per cent of the 2.5 million 4-H'ers come from urban homes.) In all, Scott has sold 97 Chihuahua pups and has given away 10.

Scott gave four pups to a deaf mute woman because he felt dog raising would make life more enjoyable for her and help her financially. He says, he himself, would never have started his dog project without financial aid from his parents.

Dairy foods expert, Joanna Lewis, says she is "thoroughly familiar with milk" because she has lived all her life on a dairy farm.

Miss Lewis has been an asset to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Lewis, by helping out with every dairy operation. She feeds calves, flushes lines, washes out the 700-gallon tank, gets cows from the pastures, and milks them.

In addition, she churns her own butter and makes cottage cheese and sour milk.

The awards were announced by the Cooperative Extension Service.

NEW CIVIL SERVICE

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced two new examinations this week, for Technician and Social Worker.

The Engineering and Scientific Technician examination covers a wide range of positions principally in the Washington, D. C. area. These technicians act as non-professional assistants to engineers, mathematicians, and other scientists such as chemists, physicists, astronomers, geologists, metallurgists, electronic scientists, and the like. The salary ranges from $4,480 to $10,250 a year. Varying amounts of non-professional technician experience are required, increasing with the grade of position. Study in college or technical institutes can be substituted for some experience.

The new Social Worker examination covers professional social worker positions and related positions known as Social Work Associate and Social Service Representative for work in Washington, D. C. and throughout the country. Salaries range from $6,050 to $16,460 for Social Worker and $6,630 to $10,250 for the other positions. Professional Social Workers are required to have completed graduate study in Social Work with professional experience in addition for the higher grades. The Associate and Representative positions require experience in welfare activities although appropriate education may be substituted for some of the needed required experience.

Announcements and appropriate application forms may be obtained from most post offices located throughout the country or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. 20415.
