NEW LEGISLATION TO HELP STERLING COUNTY FAMILIES OBTAIN HOUSING

The U.S. Departments of ntered November 10, 1902, Agriculture's Farmers Home the Sterling City postoffice Administration is better equipped to handle the housing credit needs of low and moderate income Sterling County families as a result of legislation recently signed into 3.50 A YEAR IN STATE law, according to Patrick F. 400 A YEAR OUT STATE Sullivan, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor.

Sullivan said the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act, signed last month by President Johnson, makes it possible for a broader assified ads are charged for range of Sterling County families to qualify for housing loan authorities of the Farmers Home Administration.

The new legislation Sullivan continued, makes more mortgage credit available to low and moderate income families in Sterling County by increasing the level of activity of the Agency's rural housing loan program.
