Local WTU Manager Wins Trip to Dayton

Albert McGinnes, local manager for West Texas Utilities Company in Sterling City, was honored in Dayton, Ohio recently as one of the top appliance servicemen in the nation.

McGinnes won an expense-paid, twoday visit to the Frigidaire Division of General Motors when he was selected as one of six WTUs to represent the Company's 110 accredited technicians.

While in Dayton, the servicemen toured Frigidaires manufacturing, engineering and quality control operations and participated in technical sessions and customer relations and service seminars.

The Accredited Technician Program was begun in 1963 by Frigidaire to recognize individual servicemen who meet high standards in workmanship, experience, training, attitude and customer relations. The Master Accredited Technician rating, introduced by Frigidaire in 1969 requires the same high standards necessary for the basic accreditation rating. In addition however the master technician candidate must pass a two-hour written exam.

Social Security Tips

Social security checks should be cashed within a reasonable time to prevent loss or theft, even though there's no time limit on cashing them, according to social security officials here.

'If your check is lost or stolen, get in touch with your nearest social security office at once,' a spokesman said. 'The check can be replaced, but it takes time. Handle your check carefully when you get it and you won't have to wait while it's being replaced.'

Social security pays over $4 billion a month in benefit checks to almost 29 million people—eligible retired and disabled workers and their families and families of deceased workers who worked long enough under social security.

For further information contact the Social Security office at 3000 W. Harris Avenue, San Angelo, Texas 76901 or call 949-4608.

Amy Hodges Tours National Capital

Amy Hodges returned last week from Washington, D.C., where she attended a Citizenship Short Course at the National 4-H Center. Amy was one of 133 delegates from Texas to participate in the course and a Texas sponsored Heritage Tour. The week she was in Washington over 600 delegates from eight different states were at the Center. During the summer more than 6,000 teenage 4-H members from 42 states will attend.

The short course is designed to develop a greater understanding of the individual responsibilities of citizenship. The one week session was filled with listening, learning and sharing. Special sessions were held on understanding yourself and others, community development, government and heritage.

(Story by Amy)

Each of the Texas delegates paid their own way on the two week tour and we all agreed that it was easily worth the price. We were able to see and do things most people never have a chance to see or do.

The delegates who were from Texas met in Dallas on June 25th. We had our orientation meeting that night. Early on the morning of June 26 we loaded all our luggage and ourselves onto the four buses. We planned to go straight through to Memphis Tennessee except for a stop at lunch but one of the buses broke down so we waited three hours on it. That sounds like a bad start but after that we had no big problems.

On June 27 we toured the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville. We had some excitement at the cafeteria where we ate lunch because Archie Campbell and part of the Hee Haw cast were just through eating lunch. They sang a song and posed for a few pictures. That afternoon we saw the Nuclear Science museum at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

I'd always thought that science museums were dull but this one had computers that played games static electricity machines that made peoples hair stand on end or shocked them, and several other fun things.

We just traveled from Knoxville, Tennessee to Chester, Virginia on the 28th. I saw some beautiful country there. The 29th we rode the Jamestown ferry and toured colonial Williamsburg, Virginia. Williamsburg was really great; it made me feel like I had really gone back in time.

The 30th we arrived at the National 4-H Center in Washington. We went on a night bus tour of Capitol hill and the surrounding monuments, and memorials. This night tour was really beautiful and something I'll never forget. The foreign embassies were also very impressive.

During the rest of the week we had our short course sessions and state huddles in between touring the various historic places.

July 1st we toured the Kennedy Center and ate lunch on the rooftop terrace of the center. After lunch we went to Arlington Cemetery, saw the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and other famous gravesites. We toured the Custis-Lee mansion; also saw the National Cathedral which was enormous and beautiful. The 2nd we toured Alexandria, Fort Hunt, and Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington.

On July 3rd, we went to Capitol Hill and the 13 delegates from his congressional district met with Congressman O. C. Fisher. He had a picture of us all taken with the capitol build-

Mrs. Namon Mitchel Dead

Mrs. Namon (Lola) Mitchel, 61, died last week in a Menard hospital.

Services were held Wednesday of last week there with burial in Cox Cemetery near Mercury. She was born Aug. 4, 1912 in Mercury. She was married to N. Mitchel August 4, 1928 in Mercury. She had lived in Menard County for seven years.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Oleta Reed of Ozona; two sons, Rev. Loy Mitchel of Maryneal and Arvin Mitchel of Menard; three sisters. Mrs. Eula Mitchel of Sterling City, Mrs. Mamie Farris of Mercury and Mrs. Lela Woods of Brady.

Mrs. Burt Kinard of Casa Grande, Arizona visited her sister, Mrs. Aileen Glass here last week.

Jill and Jan Bauer of Fort Worth are here spending two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer.

ing in the background and sent a copy to each of us. He answered our questions, read us some of his current letters, took us all out to lunch, and gave us a personal tour of the House of Representatives. Later his intern took us through the Rayburn house, the Library of Congress, on the subway between the Rayburn House and the Capitol and on a tour of the capitol building. That night we saw a terrific show put on by the Old Guard of the U.S. Army, called "Torchlight Tattoo" in front of the Jefferson Memorial. This was one of the most exciting days of the tour.

July 4th we toured the National Archives and saw the Constitution and Declaration of Independence. Saw part of the Smithsonian Institute and that night we saw the play, I DO, I DO, starring Rock Hudson and Carol Burnett at the Kennedy Center. We also saw a fireworks display from the rooftop terrace of the center. The fireworks were set off near the Washington monument and were really too wonderful to describe.

Friday, July 5th was our last whole day in Washington. That morning the Texas delegation split up, one bus went to the National Zoo while the rest of us went to the Washington monument, walked down all the stairs and went through a little more of the Smithsonian. We all met back at the 4-H Center for lunch and afterwards attended group sessions. There was a farewell dance and candlelight service that night.

July 6th we left the Center, toured Thomas Jefferson's home at Monticello. July 7th we went by Fort Knox and toured the George S. Patton museum. July 8th we went through the Dixie Gun Works and old car museum. The car museum had lots of working horns and motors. It nearly ruined my ears, but was lots of fun, too. That night we stayed in Hot Springs, Arkansas where we had a farewell party and dance.

July 9th we arrived in Dallas. I was happy to be in Texas again but sad, too, because I would be leaving all my new friends.

The National 4-H Citizenship Short Course and Heritage Tour is held each summer and any one interested should contact County Agent Arthur Barlemann for more details.

GOLF TOURNEY WINNERS TOLD

Winners of the Sterling Golf Tournament here last Saturday were Randy Peel and Steven Foster. They had an 80 on 24 holes. This was four over par.

Roland Lowe and Reynolds Foster took second place with an 85. Third place winners were Ricky Hopkins and Leslie Cole with 86.

The longest ball prize went to Randy Peel and the closest to the hole prize went to R. V. Hamilton. This was an AB tournament. The next tourney is set for the 3rd of August, said Jack Peel. Eighteen players were entered in last Saturday's tournament.

Joint V.B.S. Set

The annual joint Presbyterian—Methodist Vacation Bible has been set for July 29 to Aug. 2. Mrs. Clinton Hodges is to be superintendent of the joint VBS. Mrs. Larry Glass will be in charge of the music for both groups.

Age group classes will be conducted for children four years old through the fifth grade.

The kindergarten age group will meet in the Methodist Church and children in the first through fifth grades will meet in the Presbyterian Church, said Mrs. Hodges.

Baptist Vacation Bible School

Due to a number of conflicts and such the date for the local Baptist Vacation Bible School has been changed to July 22—26, said Mrs. Troy Templin last week. Hours for the school are to be 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

All children of Bible school age are invited, said Mrs. Templin.

Each night of July 22-25 the youth from junior high age and up are invited to the city park from 8 to 9 for a get-together with the Rev. Traugott Vogel in charge. All youth of the city will be welcome.

Directions for Packing and Shipping Heads from Suspected Rabid Animals to the Laboratory

Increasing difficulty to confirm a diagnosis of rabies is being experienced with the submission of animal heads for rabies examination when shipment by air takes as long as four days between shipping date and receipt. If at all possible, we recommend to those who use the State Department of Health laboratory service in Austin, that they USE THE VARIOUS BUS COMPANIES. Pack the animal head in a leakproof plastic bag. Enclose a second leak-proof plastic bag filled with ice or use water frozen in plastic bottles. An outside container of sturdy construction (styrofoam serves nicely and is inexpensive) must be used. Also, use packing material to absorb water in the event of leakage. The box should be securely taped down and marked, KEEP UPRIGHT—PLEASE. A note to telephone the Health Department Laboratory (454-3781 Ext. 313) on arrival, should be prominently displayed.

Contract Awarded for New Post Office at Garden City

Midland, Texas — McKinney Construction Co. of Jones, Okla., has been awarded a contract for the construction of a new post office at Garden City, Texas.

Postmaster/SCF Manager David E. Holster of Midland, and Robert L. McCoy, manager, San Antonio Postal District, said the firm was the lowest of five bids received recently.

The contract calls for the construction of a building to contain 1,045 sq. feet of interior floor space to be built on a site containing 19,500 sq. feet on State Highway 158. The Postal Service obtained an option to the property from its owners Felix and Mrs. Elizabeth Cox of Midland.

Postmaster V. M. Gill, of Garden City, said the building is to be completed in five to eight months, and will lease it to the postal service for a basic period of ten years, with options on 20 additional years.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT THE WAY IT WORKS?

Editor, The Wall Street Journal:
A familiar pattern of events has occurred in American politics, economics and government these last four decades.

First, the need for legislation and regulation is found by some do-gooder or crusader.

Second, a government bureau is established to regulate and its budget is steadily increased.

Third, the regulated industry soon experiences corruption, scarcities or shortages.

Fourth, a crisis develops and the same government that created the problem now rushes forth with a solution.

The solution, of course, is still more regulation and more government.

Every crisis always results in crisis legislation. The result is that the politicians at the top get more power and the naive, gullible citizens at the bottom get less freedom, less for their money in the marketplace and more taxes.

THE LANGUAGE OF FOREIGN MARKETS

Called "dinero" in Spanish, "argent" in French, and "gelt" in German, money is luring increasing numbers of American executives to visit distant lands in search of business.

Progressive companies are realizing that the demand for the bilingual executive is growing. They have, therefore, begun adopting language training programs for their personnel.

Previously, training of employees was done in classroom groups. But most companies have found that the busy businessman couldn't be tied down to a 10:30 class twice a week—and preferred an individualized approach to learning.

Employees of Control Data Corporation had an even more troublesome "time" problem. Twenty-five employees of this computer company were being sent to Germany to set up a system for Volkswagen. They wanted to learn German but couldn't be pinned down to a schedule, since they were needed whenever computer time was available.

The Sullivan Language Schools, a nationwide network of centers with headquarters in Palo Alto, Calif., solved their problem by setting up an individualized "school" on their premises. The unique Sullivan method was developed under a Carnegie Foundation Grant by the noted linguist Dr. M. W.

The Sullivan Language Schools have also helped Sears, Roebuck and Co. fashion buyers to learn French and the Latin American Section of A.B. Dick Co. to learn Spanish. The ambitious Japanese of Mitsui Corp. who already speak English are moving on to French, German and Spanish.

Even if their employees are not assigned to overseas duty, some large firms are offering language lessons as a fringe benefit. Companies with plants in Spanish-American districts sponsor courses in Spanish so that their people can better relate to the community.

All in all, the executive who says, "I don't need a second language—there's always someone who speaks English" may become obsolete.
