GENERAL FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Yokohoma, February 7.—Foreign trade is momentarily paralyzed. It is supposed to be in consequence of speculation by holders of Mexican dollars, or which there are but few in the market, their prices being unreasonably high. Native merchants decline all transactions in which they serve as the machine. Nashville, March 5.—The American will publish to-morrow the following information from Coffee county, this state: "On Saturday night about 10 o'clock, a party of six or eight masked men called at the cabin of an old negro, Abe Wooten, living in Night's district, eight miles from Manchester, and demanded admittance, which being refused they set fire to the cabin in two or more places. Finding that he and his family, a wife and four children, would be burned if they remained, the old man rushed out, and was seized by the maskers, who carried him one hundred yards or so, and shot him to death.

Extensive preparations for Gen. Grant's reception is being made.

In 1876 the Japanese finance minister first introduced the western system of preparing annual estimates of revenue and expendi-tures. Severe criticism has been made because these estimates were never followed by reports of actual income and outlay, and it was charged that the government feared to reveal the truth, and that a disclosure of the real finances would overthrow the ad-ministration. On the 7th a complete state-ment was issued for the fiscal years 1875. ment was issued for the nearly sears. 1812, and 1876. It now appears that the delay was caused solely by difficulties resulting from a radical change in the collection of returns throughout the empire. The estimated revenue and disbursements are less by one million dellars each than actual. The by one million dollars each than actual. The revenue foots up sixty-nine millions plus and the expenditures sixty-six millions. This announcement caused universal surprise, and the finance minister was congratulated.

Disappointment at the nullifying of the clause in the new treaty between the United States and Japan is loudly expressed by all sections of the native community.

Hong Kong, February 6.—The anti-Russian spirit is increasing in government circles. If difficulties are placed in the way of a change of the present minister at St. Peteraburg, it is expected that an immediate war will be declared at Pekin. Confident reports come from the interior army under Iso, whose forces are said to outnumber the Russians ten-fold. The party of moderate councils is wholly in subjection to the majority.

Burlingsme treaty! The heads of the Six Boards have "half at the foot of the throne" a proclamation against the "red-haired foreign devile" couched in this offensive style. Wagonseller then came to Philadelphia to stop at his sister's house to receive treatment frem her physician, Dr. Stewart, of No. 1,840 Green street.

Boards of the Empire of Heaven have been unsaled brious because of the Brother of the Sun and Moon of red-haired foreign devils Yankeer, Medican men, Sams, who do not cat dog or drink seld, but defile their tea with the milk of state of the six with the might of white-breathing devils torm-ented in Iron boxes, introducing postilences and neglecting the worship of the deal and the progenitors:

His hands became horrible to look at by reason of their loss of flosh. Strangely enough, too, all this time the man, who was perfectly conscious and rational, had no appetite, no craving for food. The smell of victuals, he said, made him sick. From the time he went to his sister's house, four days after the accident, he had not stood on his feet, lying alternately on a bed and in an invalid's chair. This posture he kept, at the recommendation of his physician, until from lack of food he become so weakened that there was no option in the matter and he had to lie all the time. Operation with an instrument was suggested by his physician, but this his sister would not consent to, unless assurance could be given that it would result in saving his life. This, of course, the physician could not promise, and so no such operation was tried.

After being for over seven weeks without tood Wagonseller died, death resulting from inantitos, or, in other words, starvation. To the very last he had no appetite for food. The day before his death he began to get short of breath and told his relatives that he felt himself dying. Up to the last hour he retained his senses and talked freely about his case, instructing his relatives to have a post mortem examination made upon his body. In accordance with his request the examination was made by Drs. Stewart and Agnew. The plate, with the teeth in it, was found about one inch and a half above the entrance to the stomach, the hooks imbedded in the felts. There were marks at certain intervals in the throat, showing the progress of the plate as it passed downward, the prints of the teeth being in several places plainly visible. Had the plate, which was about two inches long and an inch wide, passed into the stomach, in the opinion of the physicians it would have dissolved and the marks if boom saved. As it was, the plate passed down the throat in a transverse form, and once lodge at the furthest point, displacement was impossible.

In Judge Dell's letter of February 22d, 1879, occurs the following: "I will simply may that if Mr. W. A Saylor and his fellow jurymen had been as ready to inquire into ofthe foreman the following: "In one or interested in the costs," etc. Both these sentences probably refer to the same case, in which it took his honor about fifteen days to decide, placing the defendant under an absurdly high bond for his appearance at Austin.

It seems quite natural that the grand more would refer to the matter, indirectly, at least, when it took them, twenty odd good clitzens, on their oaths, less than one minute to decide that no infraction of the law had been committed, and they saw a cost of the commissioner.

It was not for the lack of evidence, for there were volumes—too much—the accumulation of fifteen days' hard seork, at a cost to the government of $75 in commissioner's fees alone, to say nothing about that of the attorney employed especially for this case, and the marshal's. And it is not strange, that Judge D. thinks they did not "inquire into all my proceedings."

It is a little "thin" for his honor to try and shirk the responsibility, and put it on "one U. 8. deputy marshal." but it is frank in him to admit that said case, upon proper and he knows perfectly well the case records.

The judge should not beg time question when he knows perfectly well the case records.

The judge should not beg time question when he knows perfectly well the case records.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected coids, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Bosche's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages. Pneumonia, Bevere Coughs, Oroup, or any other diseases of the Throat or Langs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial, 10c.; regular size, 75cts.
