OUR READERS are the most considerate anywhere. We have first columnar effort in the Star. and all have been good. No one has called to cancel a subscription, and we are assuming that all is well on the column writing of the front, so we will continue writread it and to all who have been generous in praising it. Possibly we can, with your help, improve

WHILE WE ARE on the subject of improvements, have you driven by Wylie-Godfrey Funeral Chapel lately? If you haven't, go by and see the improvements that have been made. A couple of coats of paint have been spread on the outside walls and the trim has received frepairs and some new paint. It adds a lot to the general attractiveness of the town. And while we are on the subject of attractiveness, we'll report that the Chamber of Commerce and the City of Baird are working out details of the annual Spring Clean-up Campaign. Plans will be announced by Elton Ables, C of C manager

MANAGER ABLES, incidentally, is beginning a once a month Chamber of Commerce report in the Star. It will be in column form under his by line. The first release is to be in this issue, if things work out as planned Read it well, the Chamber of Commerce is one of Baird's most important organizations, and it deserves our support.
