MEMORIALS OF THE HOUSE

Philadelphia, May 12.—To-day thirty-four men were put to work on the Brooklyn Elevated railroad, but the Brooklyn city authorities not having given permission, the elevated railroad company, contractor Jones and thirty-five workmen were arrested and taken to court released on bail.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The resolution recently introduced in the house by Garfield authorizing the secretary of war to issue rations to the colored refugees in Kansas, was called up for action by the appropriate committee by Mr. Monroe, and a proposal to report the measure to the house with favorable recommendation was rejected.

AN INTERESTING MISCEGENATION CASE.
Richmond, Va., May 12.—The miscegenation case of Edward Kennedy, colored, and Mary Susan Hall, white, who are confined in the Virginia penitentiary for a violation of the state statute prohibiting white and colored citizens to marry, was called up for action by the United States court today.

FIRE AT IRVINGTON, PA.
Cleveland, O., May 12.—Several hotels and other buildings near the railroad depot at Irvinton, Pa., on the Philadelphia and Erie railroads, were this morning, the fire is still raging, and the entire town is threatened with destruction.

MASTER MECHANICS CONVENTION.
Cincinnati, May 12.—The twelfth annual convention of the American railway master mechanics' association began its session today at the Grand hotel. The number of delegates was very large.

ASA PACKER DANGEROUSLY ILL.
Philadelphia, May 12.—Judge Asa Packer, who has been ill at his city residence, is in a very critical condition today. He had a relapse last night, and no change for better has been apparent since.

PARIA PLEADS NOT GUILTY.
Philadelphia, May 13.—Edward Parr, charged with the murder of his daughter Susan Lewis, was arraigned today and pleaded a plea of "not guilty."

GENERAL FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.
LONDON, May 13.—Rev. Dr. J. H. Henry Newman, replying to a complimentary message from the British government, made a long speech, most of which was to the effect that he would hereafter, as another, and this is a teaching which is the spirit of liberalism in religion.

LOUISIANA CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.
New Orleans, May 12.—The constitutional convention adopted a section relative to the limitations of the power of the government prohibiting the legislature from passing laws which shall be in effect retroactive, and which shall include remission of fines, penalties and forfeiture of money lawfully paid.

A CONFEDERATE MONUMENT UNVEILED.

THE EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE. The special session from Austin, published yesterday, presents what purports to be a list of the messages designated by the governor...

THE BIRD CAGES. The second veto message of the president is a weaker document, if possible, than the first. It is framed so as to avoid the palpable inconsistency of disapproving a bill to prevent military interference...

LADIES. Do you want a pure, blooming complexion? If so, a few applications of Hagar's MAGNOLIA BALM will gratify you to your heart's content. It does away with Salubrity, Redness, Pimples, Blisters, and all diseases and imperfections of the skin...

WANDERERS IN WEST TEXAS
MAYNARD AND CALVERT
SOMEWHERE IN WEST TEXAS
A VERTICALLY ANOMALOUS TEXAS

"There's an end for the wanderers," I think to myself as I begin to write. I know I'm not a wanderer, but I've been wandering around in my mind for some time. I've been thinking about the future, about the people who are wandering in the West Texas region. I've been thinking about the people who are wandering in the West Texas region. I've been thinking about the people who are wandering in the West Texas region.
