

OHIO AND THE PRESIDENT

All eyes have been turned to Ohio, where Sherman has been making certain moves on the political chessboard which are regarded as having an important bearing upon the game of the presidency in 1920. He has been making a speaking-making tour in the great West, which is to be the basis of his campaign, which is to be the basis of his campaign for the presidency in 1920. A PROPER CHECK

Under this head the Columbus (O.) Times, referring to the late trial of Cox for the murder of A. J. Sells, has some timely remarks which are worth repeating. The trial of Cox was a landmark in the history of the state, and it is a proper check on the power of the judiciary.

THE MERECEDES ENEMIES OF THE COLORED PEOPLE

The colored man has been the greatest political capital of the republicans ever since the organization of that party. They have kept their ranks well filled with the aid of the colored man, and they have done so by making the colored man their enemy.

LOGAN'S SUCCESSORS

The question of Logan's successors is a matter of great importance to the state. It is a matter that has been discussed for many years, and it is a matter that will continue to be discussed for many years to come.
