One night, in 1801, a little girl about one year old was deposited in the drawer of the foundling hospital at Brest. She was dressed with much fluery, and a note, attached to her skirts, told that her name was Solange, and that she would be reclaimed by her father. The she would be reclaimed by her reets to sell flowers, and her beauty and nodesty attracted many people's good will, ut she grew weaker and weaker, and at last as died. According to French custom, she winter and the soil was frozen, she was laid and, -pushing the sand away, she except out from the grave. Not exactly understanding what had taken place, she was not so very much frightened; but, in crossing the glacis between the cemetery and the fortifications, she was suddented by the context. Out wire and in crossing the glacis between the tery and the fortifications, she was suddenty stopped by the outery, "Qui vive," and as she did not answer; the sectined fired, and she fell to the ground. Brought into the guard-house, her wound was found to be very slight, and she soon recovered, but the elegant Pullman cars of that road which run into the great union depot at Bt. Louis. The Cheinnati Enquirer says: "Mr. Sherman is now on a presidential raid. He is about to devastate Blaine's country and kill Blaine himself, and as he returns he will probably stop in New York long-enough to see if Conkling "stays dead." Then he has, still some killing business to attend to in Ohio, where be has the senatorial as well as the presidential interest at stake. The bodies of Garfield, Matthews, Taft and others must be in his graveyard before the middle of next Jauuary, else his plans will be less than half fulfilled. Altogether, this is going to be a busy year for John."

A provident goat, being desirous of arranging for the confort of his kids after his death, was about to betake himself to the office of an established life insurance company, when he chanced to fall in with a benevolent anaconda, to whom he confided his pany, when he chanced to fall in with a benevolent anaconda, to whom he confided his purpose. "My misguided friend," cried the anaconda, "why will you waste your money in supporting hordes of pampered goatsuckers, who occupy their bloated nests in the sweat of the policyholdors' premiums?
Rather let us organize as granger mutual company, so that when you are no more your family may fare sumptnously on oyster cans and circus posters every day. I will be the board of directors, and as I fast for eighteen months at a time, the operating expenses of the company will be abnormally low." The silly goat chiming in with this proposition, the anaconda said: "I will now proceed to make assessment No. 1, owing to ed to make assessment No. 1, owing to of New Zealand, is extinct," and he embraced the goat in his coils with such ear The New Orleans Democrat, however, that he has never made much demand upon nestness that the poor creature's cries could mee to the rescue of the reputation of its the administration for favors. he Particulars of the Shocking Dec as Learned by an Expre Reporter on the Ground

Learning of the shooting of John T. Ba-ker on last Monday night, near Seguin, an Express reporter was immediately dispatch-ed to the scene of the tragedy and learned ed to the scene of the tragedy and learned the following facts:

Our readers will remember that on Monday night, January 27th, the usually quiet town of Seguin was horror stricken at the news that one of her most exemplary young men, Exum Hollamon, had been waylaid in the road and foully nurdered by having his brains brutally beaten out with a club. Then a young man who stood equally well in the community was arrested for the fearful deed and finally admitted to bail to answer the charge of eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth"— which on last Monday night, July 28th, and just six months to a day, taking the day of the week, at almost the very hour and minute as far as known, John T. Baker's soul was sent into the presence of his maker, there to answer for all his earthly deeds.

THE TURNERS' NEW HALL.

'inished by the Contractor and Turn-ed Over to the Organization.

After a long and carness struggle, the San Antonio Turners' Association has secured a fine, large and formomodious hall. The work has just been completed in a most excellent manner by the contractor, Mr. Henry Pauly, and yesterday afternoon the hall was tormed to the benefit of the contract of the con the feet long, respectively, and are twenty feet in width.

The main hall has been given a very neat appearance, though the work is plain. The walls are calcemined. The roof has a much wider span than any other roof in the city, and is self-supporting. As the hall will be opened to the public for general entertainments, special attention has been given to its accoustics, the ceiling being arched to its accoustics, the ceiling being arched to smoothen the spread and softness of sound. The turners were very busy yesterday arranging their apparatus in the main hall for the occasion of the festivities of next Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The hall will be lighted by two sun-burners, each of seventy flames, fastened to the ceiling.

Mr. C. H. Mueller has charge of the stage paintings and decorations, which will differ materially from those of the stages of other material stages.

Sheriff Patterson, of Uvalde county, arrived last evening with P. S. Nohan and Ed. Swift, charged with the nurder of a man named "Sandy," on the Bablual, in Uvalde county, last April. The two men will be confined in our jail for safe-keeping, laying been refused bail. Referring to their examination, the Uvalde Hesperian says:

The trial was upon writ of habers corpus, the state being represented by W. R. Waillace, of Castroville, district attorney; and Messrs. John C. Sullivan, of Castroville, W. T. Merriweather, of Friotown, and Eugene Archer, of Uvalde, appearing for the delayed and the safe children was in safe lands.

After a full hearing of the evidence, consuming the greater part of the day on Monday, and the arguments of the counsel at night upon the case of Ed Swift, the judge reserved decision until Tuesday morning and upon calling of court announced that ball would not be granted; the defense gave notice of appeal.

In the case of Nolan the same evidence taken in Swift's case was substituted and
