

News of Baird PEOPLE & THINGS By E. M.

THE TEXAS OUTLOOK is the official publication of the Texas State Teachers Association, and goes to about 80,000 subscribers over the state. It is the voice of the Texas teacher and a very fine and attractive monthly magazine. In the June issue is an article by Roberta Ross, a teacher in the Baird Elementary School. It isn't easy to get an article in the Outlook. It has to be submitted; then it is screened by the editorial staff to determine its worth. If it is decided by the staff to be of interest and value to the teaching profession, it is printed. The article by Mrs. Ross is an inspiring one, and we believe everyone here should be able to read it, so here it is:

"You're a Teacher, Aren't You?"
There I was, riding on a train, sitting in the diner waiting for my order. A middle-aged woman quietly seated herself opposite me and placed her order, too. As we rode along on the singing rails, the swift changing scenery occupied my attention as I slowly ate my food. Suddenly, my thoughts were abruptly halted as I heard a voice say to me, "You're a teacher, aren't you?" "Yes, I am," I slowly replied. "How did you know?"

"Oh, I could tell by looking at your face," came the reply. What did she see there that spoke so vividly? What lines were there? What mannerisms were so self-evident? I began to wonder what time and experience had done to place such a definite mark on my face. There were lines there, I knew. A few of them turned up at the corners of my mouth when I smiled and remembered little Joe, the slow one, and how happy I had been when he finally learned to form his letters correctly.

Yes, there had been many occasions to smile, as each child in his own way achieved some sort of success. Yes, their simple jokes and antics at play brought other smiles, too. But there were frowns in my brow as well. There were the many times when I had been called upon to help with advise, and to make decisions, and to wonder if the course I had followed was right. There were the physical hurts of small children, accidentally hurt at play; and the hurts of unkind words heedlessly spoken by their friends.

Perhaps there was still some wonderment left in my eyes over a bird with a broken wing that had learned to fly again, a shiny new marble, a last year's bird nest, and a butterfly's wing proudly brought to the science table. Children still have that wonderful gift of knowing and loving the tiny simple things of life and I suppose those teachers who guide these small souls are granted the privilege of sharing their world and remaining young in heart along with them.

The pay for being a teacher may be large or small, but if a teacher has so lived and loved and shared the lives of children until it shows in her face, she can be proud and grateful that God has granted this privilege. This question, "You're a teacher, aren't you?" may be the greatest pay ever received.

IN ORDER TO GET the full measure of the article, you should get a copy of the Outlook. It was attractively illustrated by Atrell Dill who is an illustrator with great talent and love for our schools. Both Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Dill have for many years spent a great amount of time preparing teaching aids for Baird teachers and teachers everywhere.

IT WAS HAPPY BIRTHDAY Friday, June 7, for attractive Miss Julie Beth Goble, daughter of the Fred Gobles. She was eight years old, and bet you couldn't guess what she wanted for her birthday. She wanted a baseball glove and a basketball

City Buys New Spray Machine

Members of the Baird city council voted at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night to purchase a new spraying machine for use in combatting mosquitoes and other insects during the summer months.

The new machine, which can be pulled behind a car or pickup, can be used with either dry or liquid insecticide.

Charles E. Martin met with the council and demonstrated the equipment Tuesday night. It is a Dust-Mist Spray Unit and is manufactured in Corpus Christi. Selling price was $1,505 delivered in Baird within two weeks. Plans call for putting it in operation as soon as it arrives.

In other action, the council voted to contribute $30 to the Chamber of Commerce fund for the purchase of a litter receptacle to be placed in the downtown area.

and basketball goal. The basketball and goal were fine, said mother and daddy, but the glove was something else. They gave her the ball and goal, and Julie bought her own baseball glove. What with vacation Bible School, etc., things were a little rushed for a party, so the family just got together for cake and ice cream. Happy Birthday, Julie.

THE C. Z. ANDERSONS of Baird were married 50 years ago Tuesday, and over the week end they had as their guests their children and grandchildren. Will try to get a complete story on the affair this week. Joe Lynn Ault, a spring graduate of Abilene Christian College, is spelling off his dad at the Star this week while Lynn and Eulala spend a few days at Lake Cisco taking it easy. Joe Lynn has accepted employment with American Insurance Company in Galveston, and plans to begin a career in insurance about July 1.

Pilot Uninjured In Plane Crash

James W. Brown, 27 year old pilot for Best Insect Control Co. of Coleman, escaped serious injury early Sunday when the small engine Calair agriculture plane he was operating crashed near here.

The plane with an estimated value of $12,500, was a total loss, according to John Elliott, owner of the firm and manager of Coleman Municipal Airport.

The mishap happened about 7 a.m. about 10 miles south of Baird on U. S. Highway 283 on the Vida Hill ranch after the plane hit telephone lines while spraying, Elliott reported.

Elliott said he and about five other workmen were on the scene of the accident shortly after the crash, but did not witness the actual smashup.

The pilot was alone in the plane and sustained his first crackup while an employee of the Coleman firm, Elliott said.

Federal Aviation Agency and Civil Aeronautics Board officials were notified of the crash, Elliott said, and granted permission to begin dismantling the plane from the mishap scene.

Elliott described Brown as an "excellent pilot" and said that Brown had 1,200 to 1,500 hours to his credit in the air. Brown took off about 6:50 a.m. and crashed about 10 minutes after takeoff, the Coleman official said.

He was born April 8, 1886, at McClouth, Kan. Mr. Wise farmed and ranched at Winchester, Kan., until 1912, moving to Del Norte, Colo., that year.

He married Nora Nell Krepps March 17, 1918 at Del Norte. They moved to Espanola, N. M., in 1930, where he farmed and ranched until 1947. He was a charter member of the Espanola Baptist Church.

He moved to Abilene for a short time, then to Baird about 1954. Survivors are one sister, Mrs. Leslie O. Trower of Harrison, Ark.; two sons, Dr. Fred E. Wise of Espanola, N. M., and Harvey P. Wise of Abilene; 3 grandchildren, Fred Wise Jr., of San Francisco, Calif., Darla Kay and Danna Wise of Abilene.

Lions Club Changes Time For Meetings

Members of the Baird Lions Club have voted to change their regular meeting nights from Tuesday to Wednesday, it was announced this week by Lion President, John T. Towler. The time of meeting was changed from 6:15 to 6 p.m.

The meeting change will go into effect with the meeting of July 10. There will be no meeting of the club on July 3, because of the July 4 holiday.

The meeting date was changed to eliminate several conflicts. Plans call for dismissing the meeting in time for those who wish to attend mid-week church services to do so.

The announcement of the change was made at the Tuesday night meeting. Claud Holley, new Baird Chamber of Commerce manager, was a guest at the meeting.

Swimming Class To Begin On Monday

More than 35 young Baird area swimmers graduated to Intermediate Swimmers at the conclusion of the first swimming course at the local pool, it was reported this week by Winn Talley, pool manager.

The school was so well received that pool officials have decided to begin a new series of lessons Monday, June 17.

Those desiring to enroll in the new classes were asked to do so prior to the beginning of the Monday classes. Enrollment is being made at the pool office. There will be no charge for the course, other than regular admission charges.

Manager Talley said that the city of Baird had installed a new diving board, and that swimmers were enjoying the pool facilities more and more as hot weather continues.

The new swimming classes will be open to children from six up and to adults. Competent instructors will be on hand for the instruction.

Five More Litter Containers Ordered

Five additional litter receptacles have been purchased for installation on street light poles on Market Street as contributions to the Chamber of Commerce sponsored project continue to come in, it was reported by James Eubanks, who is handling the details.

The City of Baird, the Lions Club, the Luncheon Club, the Corrine Blackburn Study Club each contributed $30 for the purchase of one container and the Jr. Wednesday Club and the Garden Club contributed $15 each.

A few additional containers could be used, Eubanks said. Anyone wishing to contribute to the fund to purchase the receptacles may leave it with him at the Bank. He pointed out that people were beginning to use the containers and the improvement was very noticeable. Everyone was urged to put trash in the containers in order to keep the streets more attractive.

He moved to Baird in 1901 and began a practice of law which lasted until his retirement some two years ago. On February 15, 1905, he was married to Miss Corrine Trent in Baird. Mrs. Blackburn died on June 13, 1961. During his 62 years in Baird, Judge Blackburn was active in all civic affairs and was always a booster for his community. He

Loaders Bought By County Court

New power loaders for Precincts 1, 2 and 4 were purchased Monday as the Callahan County Commissioners met in the Callahan County Court House for the regular monthly meeting.

The three front end loaders were purchased on bids. Treanor Equipment Company of Abilene was the successful bidder on the loader for Precinct 1 and Western Machinery Company of Abilene was successful on their bid for loaders for Precinct 2 and 4.

In other business the commissioners instructed Tax Assessor Albert Lovell to add to the tax rolls all automobiles registered in Callahan County which were not already on the lists.

Members of the commissioners court met as a board of equalization Tuesday and were to remain in session for four days from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Tuesday some 25 people were heard before noon. Many valuations were raised by the board of equalization when they set a minimum of $6 per acre for land in the county.

It was pointed out that the $6 was a minimum figure and that much of the land was valued at a higher rate. County Judge Bryon Richardson said that the raise in valuations of real properties was necessitated by a decrease in values of oil and utility properties.

Area Farmers Asked To Plant New Cash Crop

An effort is being made in this area to locate farmers interested in producing guar, a drought resistant legume that has been planted to varying degrees in Texas and Oklahoma for several years.

John W. Stewart, field representative for General Mills' guar plant in Kenedy, Texas, has been contacting farmers in the area for the past several days to get them to devote a substantial acreage to guar.

Mr. Stewart said, "The new cash crop push for guar as a bean producing crop is based on a break through in industrial processing techniques which minimizes the risk of crop damage from exposure to extended fall rains during harvest season." Bean color is no longer a critical factor in marketing so long as the beans are fully developed and plump.

Not only does guar present good earning potential from the sale of the beans, but it is considered an excellent soil improving crop, according to D. C. Cox of the Soil Conservation Service in Baird.

According to Mr. Stewart, the guar plant in Kenedy was established in 1951 and operates on a year round basis. Not enough of the beans are produced in Texas and Oklahoma so that some are imported each year from Pakistan and India.

The Kenedy plant extracts vegetable gum from the beans. The gum is used in a number of industrial processes such as mining production, petroleum drilling mud compounds, manufacture of paper, printing pastes and other specialized uses.

The major product recovery from guar bean processing is a 35 per cent protein supplement animal feed widely used by cattle feeders and feed manufacturers in Texas.

Farmers in the area who plant guar can expect yields of from 400 to 800 pounds per acre. The crop will sell for $4.00 per hundred, F.O.B., Kenedy, Grade no. 1.

Mr. Stewart said that one of the principal reasons guar has failed to produce sufficient beans in this area is because it has been planted too early. It should be planted in late spring.

The guar plant grows to about three to five feet in height and the beans can be harvested with a standard grain combine.

Warning Issued On Screwworms

All livestock producers should be especially watchful for screwworms now following the discovery of three more screwworm cases in the county.

Cases were reported in the Putnam, Clyde and Cross Plains areas.

The cattle where the screwworms were found in the Clyde and Putnam area were sprayed Tuesday, June 11, 1963. Livestock will be sprayed in the Cross Plains area this week.

Sterile flies have been released in all three locations. Continued vigilance by livestock producers can wipe out this serious pest shortly. Remember to inspect animals frequently, treat infestations and wounds collect samples from infested wounds, and report them to the County Agent immediately. Spraying every two or three weeks with Co-Ral or Korlon will prevent the development of screwworm cases that could be a source of further outbreaks.

Wheat Program For 1964 Is Outlined

The farmers' choice on May 21 to reject national marketing quotas for the 1964 wheat crop "means that for the next year unlimited wheat production with no price support is an option to every American farmer," Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has said.

"It is the earnest hope of the Secretary of Agriculture and this Administration that wheat farmers and our agricultural economy in particular and our national economy in general will benefit from this decision freely made by American farmers at the ballot box," he declared. "We will do everything in our power to that end. There will be no dumping of CCC wheat..."

"Since 1938 Congress has widely provided an alternative to acreage allotments and marketing quotas, to be effective if marketing quotas are not approved by law will be in effect for the 1964 crop.

"The 1964 wheat program provides price supports at 50 percent of parity for producers who voluntarily choose to comply with the acreage allotments applicable to their farms. Such farmers will be eligible for price support loans on the 1964 crop at about $1.25 a bushel.

"This program then will be in effect for the 1964 wheat crop if it works satisfactorily and farm income is maintained and wheat supplies are not excessive, as those who urged a "no" vote in the referendum confidently predicted, no further program will be necessary. In any event, this point of view which prevailed in the referendum is entitled to a full and fair trial. Only when we see what happens can we be certain what program is the best.

"If, however, supplies of wheat in 1963-64 prove to be excessive, the Secretary of Agriculture under the law must proclaim a national marketing quota and a national acreage allotment for the 1965 crop of wheat prior to April 15, 1964. And a referendum must by law then be held within 60 days... to determine if two-thirds of the wheat farmers support quotas. This means that should the program voted in on May 21, 1963, not succeed that a referendum will be held for the 1965 crop prior to June 13, 1964..."

"In the world market, we can and will continue to fulfill our obligations under the International Wheat Agreement despite the current price and production uncertainty... Sales for export will be handled in normal channels of trade to the maximum extent possible consistent with the fulfillment of our international obligations. There will be no dumping of U. S. Wheat in world markets."

WHEAT AGREEMENT
The President, on May 23, 1963, delegated to the Secretary of Agriculture the authority vested in the President by the Congress under the International Wheat Agreement Act of 1949 as amended. Copies of the Executive Order were made available by the White House. This action is necessary for the United States to exercise the rights, obtain the benefits, achieve the objectives and fulfill the obligation of the International Wheat Agreement because of uncertainties introduced into domestic and world markets by disapproval of marketing quotas in the May 21 wheat referendum.

If U. S. farmers should produce a crop far in excess of normal domestic and export needs in 1964, wheat prices in the United States are expected to fall below the levels equivalent to the minimum prices specified for sales under the International Wheat Agreement. This will not be permitted.

Sales by the United States to member countries at prices at or near 1962-63 levels remain our goal for 1964. All available authority will be utilized to insure the achievement of this goal.

The key provisions of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under this executive order are:

"To make available or cause to be made available, through the Commodity Credit Corporation, such quantities of wheat and wheat-flour and at such prices as are necessary to exercise the rights, obtain the benefits, achieve the objectives, and fulfill the obligations of the United States under the International Wheat Agreement.

"To prohibit or restrict the importation of wheat or wheat-flour and issue such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary in the implementation of the International Wheat Agreement.

"To take such other action as may be necessary in his judgment in the implementation of the International Wheat Agreement.

There are benefits as well as obligations under the International Wheat Agreement. The benefits to exporters include the obligation of importing countries to purchase specified shares of their requirement at prices within the Agreement range of $1.62½ to $2.02½ for No. 1 Northern Spring wheat in store at Fort William/Port Arthur, Canada.

The United States expects not only to fulfill its obligations by not exporting at prices below the minimum, but also to continue to realize the benefits of the Agreement by exporting at prices in line with prices at which other IWA exporting countries are selling wheat. In the past year, U. S. sales under the IWA have been made at prices near the middle of the IWA range.

Prior to the referendum, the Department of Agriculture indicated that in the event marketing quotas were not approved, special arrangements would be made for exports under the International Wheat Agreement. It was indicated also that commercial sales by the U. S. to non-member countries would have to be made at prices within the IWA range in order not to impair the successful operation of the agreement.

Commercial exports to countries which are not parties to the International Wheat Agreement account for about 25 percent of total U. S. commercial wheat exports. Such sales would probably break the Agreement if they were made at prices outside the IWA range. Thus, sales to nonmember countries will be limited to the IWA price range in 1964.

Under the Executive Order, the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to consult with the Secretary of State, the Special Representative for Trade Negotiations and with other officers or agencies of the Government as he determines necessary.

The Department of Agriculture will initiate talks within the Government immediately to further establish the procedures which would operate for wheat exports in 1964. At an early date, the Department will hold discussions with farm groups and the grain industry in order that a full understanding may be reached, and procedures for export operations announced well in advance of the 1964 marketing year.

Oplin Observations

By Daphne Floyd

The homecoming at Oplin last Sunday, June 9, was a red letter day! It has been a long time since we Oplinites have seen so many cars parked around the old school house, which now serves as a community center. There were about 280 people that registered and at least a hundred that failed to get near the registering booth. The old school building was packed with people, you can't imagine the hugs, kisses, backslapping and "how-ya-alls" that went on and I quote an unknown visitor who said, "Where else but Oplin could you find such good food and so much of it."

When Mrs. Ray Floyd went to the pasture last Wednesday afternoon to check on their cows, she found a note taped on the gate that read, "Ray — Daphne came to see our Shetland Pony." It was signed, Roberta, Dicy and Kathy Scott. The Scott sisters are the proudest things of the new pony and have named him Silver.

Mrs. M. C. Miller will be visiting in Midland for about ten days to supervise the household chores of her grandchildren, Darlene, Shirley, Karen, Marilyn and Mike while their mother, Mrs. Jack Irby attends a cooking class for lunchroom supervision.

Mrs. Beulah Grantham of Falfurrias will be visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Clarice Poindexter will be visiting this week in Austin with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Hopkins. A. D. McWhorter was hospitalized last week due to a congestion in his lungs, but was dismissed on Monday of this week. Paula Windham sure had a long vacation for school was out at Carlsbad where she taught the past year on Thursday, she got home on Friday and on Monday of the next week, she enrolled at Hardin-Simmons for summer classes. Now that is a school marm's life for you.
