It is at bost but a dreary consolation for democrats to comfort themselves with, over the loss of the states of Maine and California in last week's elections to say, "ah, well, it was owing only to the want of proper generalship." No, defeat there has a different cause, and should correspondingly teach a different lesson to the party. Within a few days the voters of the great state of Ohio will Maine has gone, and return for the republican party a majority, we ought to look a little behind the scenes to discover the true cause of this not unexpected result. Is it not easy to now understand it? Will it not be because in that state those who claim to represent the democratic faith have in truth parted from the old moorings of the party, and have drifted to waters foreign, unknown and treacherour? Never was a party more absolutely pledged to any principle than the democratic party of Jefferson and Jackson, and Benton and Wright, is pledged to "hard money." Never has that party in the days of the grand old past inscribed upon its banners, one line or motto which taught a faith in other than the money of the constitution, yet, to-day, in defiance of all those time honored teachings, in contradicton of so well lowing, and which could eventuate in nothtion.

BEST ROUTE

NORTH and EAST The best route to the North and East is by way

Louisville & Great Southern R. R. From all points in Southern and Southwestern Texas, it is over one hundred and fifty miles shorter, and many hours quicker, to Louisville than by way of St. Louis.

It is also shorter and quicker, and has the most felicitons arrangement of Pallman Palace Sleeping Care that can be offered, to Cincinnati and all points beyond. It is the only rough by which we had table in the Grant Manmoch Laws of Austrocky. The seemery is levely, the equip-
