Special Disjustch to the Daily Express.

Eagle Pass, September 20—The story told by the woman Hawkins in regard to the assault on her person by the soldier, Lafay-site Harris, to which she made affidavit before a justice of the peace, is discredited by many, and the rumor of Harris having been a marrow-gauge line, return into themselves are in Piedras Negras proving unfounded, a sharp watch was kept on the river, on the and of this the empress has long had abundance. It is estimated in Paris that she is a ring-shaped ourve. The length is about 300 metres. In the middle is an isolated third line, consisting of an upright continuous iron plate. The locomotive carries two rollers, with which it stands in connect two rollers, with which it stands in connect two middle line. The consensual portion of the locomotive is formed by an electro-dynamical machine, one pole of which is connected with the middle line, the other wheels. Similarly the machine which produces the current stands in the machine-room in connection through the other pole with the middle line and through the other pole with the outer pair of rails. When, therefore, the dynamical machine in the locomotive is on the railsway, the electric current produced in the machine soon runs through it and causes it to rotate and to impart its religious parties religious to the press whilst yet she had a son to live part its religious the wheels of the press in part its religious and scheme for.
