Buffalo, N. Y., September 25.—The details of a bold attempt at abduction here has just come to light. A young man named Charles E. Schuyler, felegraph operator, caffed on a sixteen year old daughter of one of our most prominent citizens on Tuesday, while she was attending school, representing that he was employed in her father's office; that her father had been injured by the fall of a building, and that he was sent by him to bring her to him. She accompanied Schuyler to a piace where it was represented that her father was laying. On entering the room Sohuyler locked the doors, seized the young lady, and telling her of his purpose to keep her a prisoner until a certain sum of money had been paid forced her to copy the following part of a letter to her father, which he had written: "Dear Papa—I ask you to give this man fixehundred dollars, for unless he raises that sum within a week, he is ruined. He pledges you his word and honor that it shall be returned to you in sixty days. For this loan he has no security to offer you except we had been as a security to offer would release him on the payment of five thousand dollars. If the sum was not forth-soming, the child would be drowned. Schuyler was held to ball in five thousand dollars for trial. The names of a number of children of wealthy residents, with their homes, was also found on his person.

OFINIONS AS TO HOW TO FIND THE REMEDY. SAN ANTONIO way-That's the Question.

The Express reporter yesterday took it into his head to make a stroll about among the merchants and men interested in the business of the city to obtain their views upon the question of seeking redress from the present and the freight rates of the Pelice valley? A proposition had been abstituted to the board of trade the evening presents of the proposition had been abstituted to the board of trade the evening presents of the proposition had been abstituted to the board of trade the evening presents of the proposition of the same contemporary gaage road to the coast, and also looking to the appointment of a committee from the members of the board to which should be entrusted the matter of securing a reduction of the freight rates to this city and section at once. The reporter endeavored to ascertain how the business men stood upon both of those vital matters, and furnishes the section day for day, or as opportunity offers.
