The Express desires to congratulate the people of San Antonio upon the successful progress made in revising the board of trade of this city, which had so long lain dormant. It now has a large active membership, and the deep interest taken in its reorganization by the election of new officers on Tuesday evening last was a most encouraging sign and augured well for its power and usefulness in the future.

Amperson seems to prevail among a few that the object of the board is simply to present opposition to the railroad company, but there is no ground for such a belief. It is true, the excessive freight rates charged by the railroad company proved a strong incentive to the action that has culminated in the reorganization of the board.

The board is strictly a business organization, and should be actuated by business interests alone. Among other great objects to be achieved are to reduce the rates on grain and other products from the producing street-hauling depot, and by carrying it on through a well regulated exchange give greater protection to both buyers and sellers, and establish a more reliable market, offer greater inducements to producers to visit us, and simplify and render more convenient in exchange between our own merchants and those of other cities.

LETTER CARRIERS SYSTEM

We notice that the postal delivery system has been extended to a large number of cities under the law of the last regular session of congress, which enables all cities having a population of 20,000 inhabitants, or whose postal business aggregates $25,000 per annum, to secure such service. San Antonio would be entitled to a letter carrier under other stipulations, and we think an effort should be made to have the system extended to this city.

A co-operative association in New York has proposed on thousands of acres of land on Long Island, where its members intend to erect factories and build houses in a peculiar plan. Each member pays fifty cents a month, and when there is a thousand dollars in the treasury there is a drawing for that amount. The lucky member is then obliged to use that money to build a house on the land purchased.

At the trial of the trouble, trials and tribulations surrounding the chief executive of the state, amid all the abuse heaped upon him, and vilipendments hurled against him, he can turn to Galveta's consolation, and find that the public schools are still closed, and the poor children of that city are still wandering about the streets free from the "pernicious influence" of free schools.

The Victoria Advocate will please let the Austin Statesman alone. The Statesman is at all right now, and should not be "attacked" by the Victoria Advocate. It is a fair and honest paper, and should be treated as such.

The chairman of the state democratic executive committee advised the report that the committee had decided Dallas as the place for holding the next state convention. He says the committee has not considered the subject, and that he is decidedly in favor of Dallas as the place.

It is announced that the widow Olive has abandoned the lecture field and gone to the poor-house. This is a sad case, and it is to be hoped that the state will take some steps to prevent such a recurrence.

Ladies

Do you want a pure, blooming complexion? If so, a few applications of Hagan's MAGNOLIA BALM will gratify you to your heart's content. It does away with sallowness, redness, pimples, blotches, and all diseases and imperfections of the skin. It overcomes the flushed appearance of heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes a lady of THIRTY appear but TWENTY; and so natural, gradual, and perfect are its effects, that it is impossible to detect its application.

The Hamilton County of Wednesday contains an account of the resignation of the presidential traveling party to this city on Tuesday night, which is omitted in the press dispatches. The travelers arrived at the depot at 10 p. m. and, according to the Courier's account, were readily assailed by a crowd of roughs with jeers and abuse.

The president's appearance on the platform of the car, but upon observing the character of those present retired within. The Sherman men appeared, and being called on for a cheer, he bowed and said: "Boys, I am General Sherman, my home is in St. Louis, and I expect to live and die in your state, and I am glad to be here. In everything that goes to make communities prosperous and happy, but I tell you that as there is a God in heaven, the day will come and come long, too, when Missouri will be peopled by ladies and gentlemen who will not insult the president of the United States when he comes within your borders. (Cries of good, good, right.) I know your state, and have traveled across it in every conceivable direction, and I tell you that your children will be the richest in these United States. (Cries of "Hurray, Hurray, we will see Haynes.")
