Washington, November 20.—Scoretary Schurz has received a telegram from Gen. Hatch, dated Los Pinos, 17th, containing and endersing the recommendation of Chief Ourray that eight or two of the leading Ute to hief, be brought to Washington with a riew to a conference and final settlement of the Ute question. To this Secretary Schurz has replied that the chiefs may come, but that the embassy must not include any of the White river Ute chiefs concerned in the late massacre. Their assumed ignorance of the circumstances of that oursage, he may, raisee a strong presumption county attorneys, sheriffs and tax collectors to take immediate measures to prosecute and punish all persons engaged in violating the law, or report to me all cases where they are unable of unvilling to perform this duty. The faithful execution of the laws in a republican government must depend upon the moral support and physical aid of its good elitens, which they will seldom fail to give, if the prosecuting officers will lead the way in an avowed and fearless effort to execute the laws.

In testimony whereof I hereto sign my name and cause the seal of state to be affixed at Austia this 15th say of November, A. D. 1878.
