Dutch LaRue Finally Wins Weekly Contest

This is the third week of the annual merchant's football contest, and the winners are, one more time, all different.

And, Dutch you've finally done it! For many years, C.O. 'Dutch' LaRue of Dimmitt, formerly of Muleshoe, has entered the contest--and most of the time ended up out of the winner's column.

This week, Dutch came up with the winning combination. He missed only three games, and was 29 points away on the double tiebreaker scores.

Harold Cowan was barely edged out of first place with his 31 point spread in the tiebreaker scores, and with his three wrong guesses, won second in the weekly contest.

Third place winner was Gary Freeman, who missed four games, but was only off on the tiebreaker scores by nine points.

Also missing four games, and the point spread include Mrs. John Hayes, 40; and Marilyn Engelking, 45.

All other contestants missed five or more games, with varying point spreads in the tiebreakers.

At this time the contest is going very well, and there's lots of time to become the final grand winner of the $100 check to be presented at the end of the contest. Be sure to get your entry in each week.

Area residents got quite a surprise Tuesday morning. They woke up to see a 'cloud bank' followed shortly by a cold wind that heralded in a cold front. The high temperature for the area was recorded around midnight before the cold front came through.

By Wednesday morning, rain was falling throughout the area, with the south and southwestern area receiving the most moisture.

In Muleshoe, only about .2 had been recorded at presstime, with a light drizzle continuing to fall.

Mrs. Reuel Kirby in the Maple-Goodland community, reported .6 rain early on Wednesday, and said the crops in that area were "looking real good."

Mrs. Kirby said they were sowing wheat and the moisture was most welcome there.

Demp Foster at Foster Fertilizer at Lazbuddie said they had received no rain, but a light shower had fallen in that area early Wednesday morning. It was enough to halt the corn harvest, he said.

Foster said he had heard of some producers who were expecting more than one-half bale of cotton per acre, on their dryland cotton crops.

In the West Camp/Lariat areas, Mrs. Eugene Shaw said they had received only a light drizzle at presstime. She said they were through with their corn harvest in that area, but will be harvesting sunflowers later.

Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge reported .22 by presstime, and said a light drizzle was still falling. The low temperature there on Wednesday morning was 43 degrees.

In the Fairview community, southeast of Muleshoe, Mrs. Clifford Mardis said they had received approximately .3 in rain Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Mardis said their cotton crop was 'fair' for this year, and is all dryland. She said they

Of National Honor

Helen Adrian, former art teacher at Watson Junior High School, was notified recently that a citation had been received at WJHS commemorating participation in the annual National High School Art Exhibition in June in Washington, D.C.

According to a letter from Frank W. Cass, director, Scholastic Art Awards "This national exhibition was the finale of the 1984 Scholastic Art awards program which started with 61 regional exhibitions across the country. From the thousands of secondary schools participating in the program, yours is one of 350 schools receiving the citation."

The painting exhibited in Washington, D.C. during the annual showing was done by Becky Boor, daughter of the John Boors, who formerly lived in Muleshoe. Two other paintings were sent along with the one exhibited. They were by Barry Bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Bass and a painting by Jeff Whitley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Whitley.

Cass continued, "The school citation was inaugurated 21 years ago at the suggestion of our National Advisory Committee of art educators. It is their feeling--and Scholastic shares it--that recognition for excellence in creative work is as important to schools as trophies presented for accomplishments in other fields."

Mules Go On Warpath In Friona Friday Night

District action starts Friday night for the Muleshoe Mules when they travel to Friona to take on the unbeaten Friona

Chieftains. Traditionally, the Muleshoe-Friona game is a classic rivalry, and there is no reason to expect any less than a hard hitting game.

Last Friday night, before a standing room only crowd, the Muleshoe Mules came away with their first victory of the season, beating out the Frenship Tigers by a score of 14-7.

Friona will be going onto the field with three victories under their war bonnets. The Chieftains slammed neighbor Bovina last Friday night 53-7.

Apparently Friona will be using both the ground and the air in their attack against the Mules. They have been utilizing the powerful running of both Alfredo Mata, who had 174 yards and John Aguirre, who added an additional 123 yards, against the Bovina Mustangs.

The Mules in meantime, are still minus some players, Jeff McCarty, Hector Flores and Jerry Gleason, who were injured in the first two games of the year. Gleason may see some action in the near future, but both Flores and McCarty are out of action, both with left knee injuries.

Now, the Mules whetted their appetite following the defeat of the Frenship Tigers, who were meeting the Mules for the first time on the football field, and will be ready for the action against Friona Friday.

This week, with the district action starting, the Mules will be taking on the Chieftains at 7:30 p.m., so be sure to adjust your time to the new gametime.

Around Muleshoe

The Western Texas College theatre department at Snyder will open its new season with the production of the musical "Tintypes" on November 15-17. Jim Rambo, director, has announced.

Jeff Combs, 1983 graduate of Muleshoe High School, has been cast as Charlie, the immigrant. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Combs.

Gifted and talented youth from 114 Texas cities and seven other states participated in the fourth annual "Shake Hands With Your Future" at Texas Tech University this summer.

Participating in the program from Muleshoe were Brandon Wilson, son of Barry and Sondra Wilson; Neal Haynes, son of James and Edna Haynes and Cory Collins, son of Johnny and Venida Collins.

"Shake Hands With Your Future", a summer enrichment program, exposes participants to advanced learning opportunities and to living in a university setting. The three 1984 sessions involved 436 students in the fifth through twelfth grades.

Participants selected courses such as biochemistry, leadership, physics, math, engineering, fine arts, agriculture, law, musical comedy performance, time and money management and experimental music.

At presstime, surgery for SFC Randy L. Williams was still pending at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

He has been at the Medical Center for the past four weeks, after being flown from Ft. Clayton, Panama where he is stationed with the U.S. Army.

Bailey County Commissioners Court will meet in Special Session tomorrow Friday, at 10 a.m. with several items on the agenda, according to Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green.

Included will be the appointment of election judges for the general election; consider the amendment of the 1984 budget;

Tamara Gilliland Gover Wins National Honors

Tamara Gilliland (Gover) of Muleshoe has been nominated to receive the American Farmer degree, highest degree presented by the National Future Farmers of America (FFA) Organization. She was nominated for the degree by the Texas FFA Association.

Tamara's nomination was approved at a recent meeting of the National FFA Board of Directors in Alexandria, Va., virtually assuring the awarding of the degree. One of 668 FFA members nominated for the American Farmer degree, she will receive the degree in a special ceremony on Friday, November 9, pending a final vote of 118 student delegates representing nearly half a million FFA members.

According to information from Carl Wheeler, FFA instructor at Muleshoe High School, Tamara is the first female FFA member from Muleshoe to receive this degree. She is only the fourth member to attain the degree since the Muleshoe FFA was chartered in 1941.

Previous Muleshoe FFA members to attain this degree include Ernest Ramm, Charles Bratcher and Frank Wuerflein.

Travel awards will be presented to American Farmer Degree recipients to offset their travel expenses to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City. At the convention, each American Farmer degree recipient will be presented a gold key and certificate. The travel awards and gold keys are co-sponsored by J I Case, A Tenneco Company, Racine, Wis.; The Nation's Federal Land Banks, Denver, Colo.; the Nation's Production Credit Associations Denver, Colo.; NaChurs Plant Food Company, Marion, Ohio; and Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., Des Moines, Iowa.

The American Farmer Degree is much sought after because it is only presented to approximately one member in 600 of the 451,722 member organization. It is presented only by the National FFA Organization to members who have demonstrated exceptional agricultural and leadership achievement.

Mis-Identified Youth Not Missing Harvey Boy

Jim and Judy Harvey, former Muleshoe residents, faced new heartbreak early this week at Grand Junction, Colo. They are the parents of Chris Harvey, 15, who was reported as missing from the family's summer vacation home near Pagosa Springs, Colo.

Although a youth, now lying critically injured in St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Junction, was initially reported as being their son, dental records disprove that tentative identification.

The youth was discovered by a jogger staggering alongside a roadway, unable to speak, last Thursday. It was discovered that the young man had a fractured skull, and had apparently been badly beaten. He was taken to a hospital at Glenwood Springs for emergency treatment before being flown by air ambulance to the larger hospital at Grand Junction.

He was tentatively identified by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harvey as being their grandson. However, the couple told news media representatives they first had doubts about the youth, and because of beaten, distorted features, had difficulty in the attempted identification. "I guess we just wanted so badly for it to be him," said Mrs. Harvey.

She said a combination of "physical likeness and hope" led to the mistaken identification.

Both the Marvin Harveys and the Jim Harveys stayed at the youth's bedside, and the unknown youth would respond to the Jim Harveys by squeezing their hand. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harvey returned to Texas on Tuesday after spending the weekend and the first of this week at the bedside of the currently unidentified youth.

Eagle County (Colo.) officials speculate that the youth was hitchhiking in the area where he was found on Thursday. They said they have two suspects in

Taking Steps

To Develop

A Savings Habit

People who say they "just can't seem to save any money," may need a plan to get in the savings habit, says family finance expert Nancy L. Granovsky.

"Waiting to see if you have any money left over at the end of a pay period is seldom an effective way to save," explains Granovsky, a home economist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

If you feel uneasy about not saving enough money, either for financial emergencies or long-term goals like a downpayment or your child's college education, take some steps now to develop a savings plan, she advises. Begin by taking a hard look to see where your money has gone over the last several months. Look at old bills, cancelled checks and credit card statements to decide if all the spending was necessary or whether some of that money could have been saved, says the home economist.

Then overhaul your family budget so some savings money can be set aside each month before you do anything else, recommends Granovsky. Make it a routine, like paying a bill. The amount doesn't have to be large, she says, what matters is that money is set aside regularly.

If your willpower is limited, try a payroll savings plan or have automatic withdrawals made from your checking account, she says.

Also reduce the temptation to spend by separating savings from checking account money. If necessary, put your savings in a different financial institution than the one which handles your checking account.

In addition to getting some money into a savings fund, make sure you put those savings to work for you, Granovsky says. Compare interest rates, and as soon as you have enough saved, move your money to higher paying accounts so your nest egg will continue to grow.

Barbara Mutschler To Begin Teaching Assignment Here

Twenty-five Panhandle State University student teachers will begin their student teaching assignment, October 1, in grade schools and high schools in four states. This directed observation in student teaching is designed to give each prospective teacher practical experience in actual classroom instruction on the appropriate level under the guidance of a skilled supervising teacher in the public schools.

In addition to actual teaching experience, conferences are conducted each week for those individuals doing practice teaching in the area elementary and secondary schools. Practical problems arising in the student teaching situation are discussed at the conferences as well as the general problems relating to the teaching profession.

The practice teachers, their teaching assignment, and their subject area are as follows. Students going to Hooker to do their practicing teaching include: Shelly Steele, in business education; Jeff Boyles, in music; and Linda Kerr, in English.

Students going to Cimarron County include: William Walker teaching mathematics in Keyes, and Jacqueline Gore doing her practice teaching in elementary education at Keyes. Kim Wardlaw will be teaching in Boise City at the elementary level.

Students going to Kansas to do their practice teaching include: Karla French teaching elementary at Ulysses; Nanette Buhr will do practice teaching in the area of mathematics at Copeland; and Monique Mason will practice teach in the elementary grades in Liberal.

Bobby Cook and Dannie Whitehouse will both teach in Laverne, Oklahoma, and both in the area of vocational agricultural education. Barbara Mutschler will practice teach in the elementary school at Muleshoe. Tami Hopkins will teach elementary at Springfield, Colorado. Kelley Gwartney will go to Leedy, Oklahoma, to practice teach in the area of vocational education. Robin Green will practice teach at Tahlequah, Oklahoma, in the area of elementary education.

Ann Ferguson will go to Stratford and will teach natural science, Becky Branstine will practice teach in the area of H&PE at Hardesty, Lindell Kottke will practice teach in the area of vocational agricultural education at Texhoma.

Those PSU student teachers doing their practice teaching in Guymon include: Anita Helms in the area of English; Dana Bessinger, in elementary education; Denise Miracle, H&PE; Jona Costner, in the area of natural science; Brad Thrash, H&PE; Valerie Pearson, music; and Sherra Edmisson, elementary education.

All twenty-five practice teachers will return to the PSU campus later this fall for a one day seminar that has been scheduled. Other than that one day, these practice teachers will be in the public schools for the next twelve weeks.

Senior Citizens

Senior Citizens met in regular session Monday, Sept. 24 for a covered dish luncheon with 25 members and six guests present. Invocation was given by Lester Howard.

Due to the absence of the president, Mae Wilterding, and vice president, Odessa Shanks, Mildred Head presided. The minutes were read and approved.

John Fuller, superintendent of schools, gave an inspirational program. He explained several facts of the house bill 72 which was recently passed and which effects administration of the schools.

The birthday song was sung honoring Homer Millsap.

Get well cards were signed to be sent to Mae Wilterding and Mae Lloyd.

The group was dismissed with a prayer by Doc. Goucher.

Guest present included: John Sain, brother of Mae Provence, and his wife, Elsie; John Fuller, superintendent of schools; Dorann Jones, church secretary; Mary Nunn, church youth director; and Mr. Taylor.

Nattie Marie Ovalle

Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Ovalle are the proud parents of a daughter born at 9:29 p.m. Sept. 21 in West Plains Medical Center.

The young lady weighed seven pounds five and half ounces and has been named Nattie Marie. She has an older brother, Sammy, Jr., two years of age.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonardo Ovalle of Muleshoe.

How To Improve Lunches

Gone are the days when brown bagging was relegated to school kids and construction workers -- those who had no choice but to take their lunch. Take a look around at who is carrying a lunch from home:

The weight-conscious, who are able to count calories and avoid outside temptation; The gourmet, who knows that he can pack a more creative and delicious lunch than any restaurant;

The busy people in offices, who know that time counts and there's none budgeted for waiting to be served at a busy restaurant;

The economy minded, who have calculated that a homemade chicken salad sandwich will cost about 60 cents, while the same sandwich at a popular lunch spot may be as much as $4.

Gone, too, are the days of the standard bologna sandwich menu. Sandwiches are still the most popular lunch item, but instead of two slices of white bread, they are being held together by whole wheat bread, croissants, bagels, pita, biscuits or English muffins.

Fillings have gotten more interesting, too. Supermarket delis make a variety of sliced meats readily available and a combination of several meats makes for a more interesting filling than one mere thin slice. Dieters and vegetarians like several fresh vegetables, chopped and seasoned with herbs and a light dressing and spooned into pita bread. Peanut butter usually comes up the winner with the school age bracket, but there's nothing ordinary about this old favorite when Mom jazzes it up with fresh apple, crushed pineapple, honey, raisins or crisp, crumbled bacon.

If you think you never want to see another sandwich again, try packing hard-cooked eggs, slices of cheese or pasta salads instead. Left-overs are often even better the second day. Barbecued ribs, fried chicken or shrimp take on a whole new taste when you pack a tangy sauce for dipping.

Something crunchy is a good counterpoint to soft sandwiches. Instead of packing chips which offer very little nutrition, tuck in some popcorn, sesame bread sticks or roasted peanuts. Fresh vegetables need not be reserved just for parties; broccoli, cauliflower, mushrooms and carrots are great in lunches, too.

As people become more health-conscious, they are looking for dessert ideas that offer some nutritional value. Good things often come in small packages such as cartons of yogurt, packages of dried fruits, raisins, small cans of juice, fruit and puddings, or trail mix (nuts, raisins and dried fruits).

And, if you like cookies or cake in your lunch, make them yourself for the extra goodness of homemade and to avoid added preservatives. Select recipes that have some extra nutritional value such as oatmeal or granola cookies; carrot cake; bran, zucchini or fruit muffins.

A fresh, new idea for a brown bag treat is Peach Muffins Imperial. These tender little cakes get their moistness from chopped fresh or canned peaches. Besides tasting great, they are quick to make and pack. They freeze well, too. Pack them in the lunch bag frozen and they will be thawed by lunchtime. For a little variety, this same recipe can be baked in a loaf for Peach Bread.

PEACH MUFFINS IMPERIAL

1 1/2 cup all purpose flour, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon soda 1 cup Granulated Sugar, 2 eggs, well beaten, 1/2 cup salad oil, 1 1/4 cup fresh or drained canned peaches, coarsely chopped, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/8 teaspoon almond extract, 1/2 cup almonds, chopped

Combine flour, salt, soda and Granulated Sugar. Make a well in center of dry ingredients. Add eggs and oil. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened. Stir in peaches, vanilla, almond extract and nuts. Measure 1/2 cup batter into each cavity of muffin tin. Bake at 350 degrees for 20-25 minutes, or until muffins test done. Yield: 12 muffins. Cooking tip: For Peach Bread, spoon batter into one 9" loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour, or until bread tests done.

Additional copies of the recipe and information about other free recipes and free cookbooks are available from Imperial Sugar Company, P.O. Box 500, Sugar Land, Texas 77478.

The combination of the irrigation, combined with the heavy August rains, caused the rust problem in the pea field. It was to be checked on Wednesday to see if there were enough peas to combine.

SANDHILLS PHILOSOPHER

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek reports on the Republican convention this week, more or less.

Dear editor:

Luckily it happens just once every four years, but watching a political convention is an experience hard to describe in any form anybody who didn't see it can understand.

It's sort of like a disorganized high school pep rally with nobody directing the cheers.

At the Republican convention, every time a speaker mounted the rostrum and prepared to unleash his oratory, delegates would begin yelling and stomping. Sometimes they held him up for 10 or 15 minutes. I got the impression they didn't want to hear what he had to say. Then when they saw they couldn't head him off and were in for it, they quieted down. But let him pause at the end of a sentence, even to just take a sip of water, and the yelling busted out again.

If you want a convention to run on time, don't allow your speakers to pause between sentences. Delegates don't pay any attention to what speaker's saying, but if he pauses they think he's said something worth yelling about.

I was completely bumfuzzled during the acceptance speech of Mr. Reagan.

There are some mighty thirsty delegates here, I said to myself, because at every few sentences he spoke they interrupted and began yelling "Four more beers!"

It was explained to me they were saying "Four more years."

Some pundits say political conventions are now out of date and unnecessary, that the platforms and the nominations are like some hay I've got out here on the ground--already cut and dried, that all a convention does is bale it, regardless of the protein content.

Nonetheless, there are politicians already laying plans for the conventions four years from now, and cities angling for the job of hosting it.

Incidentally, one of the interesting things about the Republican convention in Dallas was the security fence erected around the convention hall to keep the protesters out and the delegates in. There was some concern at first over whether it was strong enough. I can have relieved them of that worry easily. You see, I've got a cow out here on my place that's the world's champion fence-breaker. She doesn't pay any more attention to a fence than a politician does to a promise. I could have shipped her to Dallas and had her turned loose inside that fence. If she couldn't break through, they'd have known that fence was strong enough. I wouldn't have charged much for the loan of her.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

America in its early days depended on the "GOOD BOOK" for its guide in ethics, worship, and pursuit of freedom. These early gains are now in danger of falling and we need to turn all America once again to God and His word. America can be strong only when each individual looks to God for strength.

Down The Halls Of MHS

Cameras are expensive, Marvin W.

Thanks to the help of the community, the Jr. class mum sale was very profitable.

Jeff Mc. and Hector F.; some people will do anything to get attention from the girls.

SCAC will have a meeting September 26, at the Country Club.

CAUTION!! BE ON THE LOOK OUT FOR OBSTACLES ON CRUTCHES IN THE HALL!!

NHS member are still selling the mule mania note pads. They cost $1.00.

Band will be going to UIL marching contest on October the 20th, at Jones Stadium.

The Muleshoe annual staff conducted a poll concerning the attendance of high school students at the Lubbock fair. Approximately one fourth of the student body admitted truthfully they were headed for the fair as soon as school let out. Another 25% stated that they were traveling to Lubbock but not to the fair. The last 50% decided that this was time that could be spent at home in front of the television or out in town doing things we better not mention.

A tradition at MHS during Homecoming is the decorated classroom doors to show school spirit. The judges this year were the varsity cheerleaders.

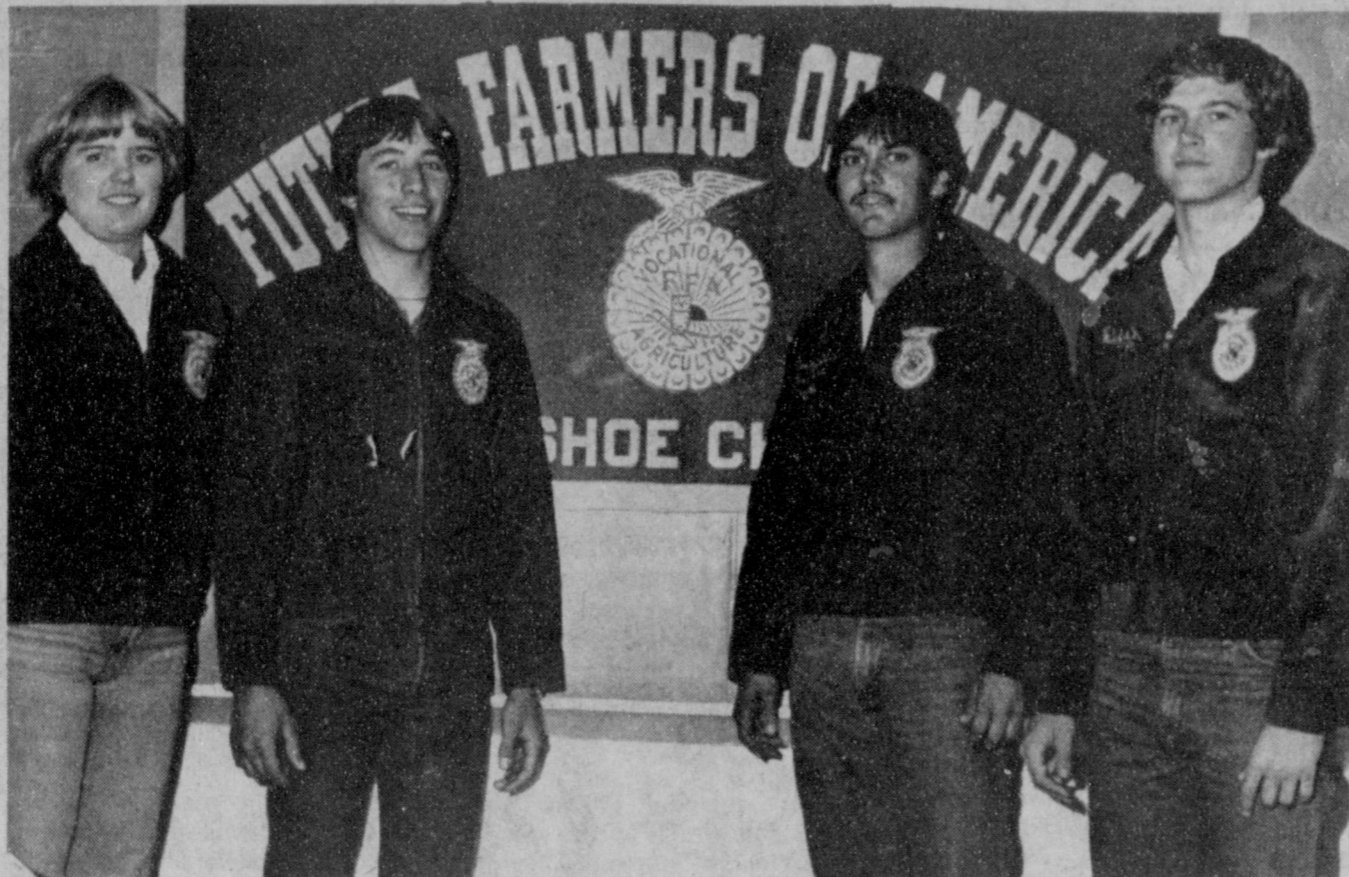

First prize went to Mrs. Cowley, a science teacher. The topic for her door was "Ionize the Tigers". A tie for second place was between HECE - Breakfast of Champions and the Homecoming 1 classes-Railroad the Tigers. Third place went to Mrs. Pat Watson with "Mules vs. Tigers".

Homecoming Vital To Any Community

Homecoming is an important and vital part of high school and community activities, say ninety-percent of the people polled by the MHS annual staff.

These people believe that homecoming is a time when the community and school are working together. High school without homecoming seems ridiculous. Not one person polled said Homecoming was unnecessary. Everyone believes that Homecoming is a special time. H. John Fuiler was polled, and his feelings about Homecoming are totally positive. He believes that it is the greatest non-academic event sponsored by the school. Mr. Fuller commented that Homecoming brings old friends together more frequently than reunions.

Many community people welcome Homecoming as it brings their college kids home. The Homecoming activities are enjoyed by everyone and for a lot of families, it provides an

Pep Squad Spotlights Athletes And Coaches

The Pep Squad would like to recognize the athletes involved in various programs. This week the spotlight is on several students and coaches and we want to extend a hardy handshake to all those that give of themselves in dedication to our sport programs.

Coach Lonnie Scott is one of the recognized coaches for this week. This 26 year old coach has a full load this year. He is coaching 9th grade boys basketball, J.V. track, and football. He also teaches health and history. Not only does he coach and teach, he also is one of the freshman sponsors. Coach Scott enjoys listening to music, hunting and of course sports.

Coach Windy Williams is the other recognized coach. He enjoys spending time with his family and fishing. Coach Williams is the head coach of the variety football team. Even though he coaches, his favorite subject is English.

Two cross-country runners are spotlighted this week also. T.J. Luna, a senior, who enjoys food and girls. Cynthia Cavazos, a freshman, who enjoys not only running but also physical science.

The varsity football players being spotlighted this week are Smiley Orozco, Michael Del Toro, Mark Moton, and Jerry Gleason.

Smiley, a senior enjoys sports and working on cars.

Michael, also a senior, likes to lift weights to keep his body in shape. Along with athletics, Michael's favorite subjects are art and speech.

Mark, a senior, is involved in athletics and theater. He is like most normal 17 year old boys, enjoying both sports and girls.

Jerry, also a senior, is not only involved in athletics, but he is active in SCAC and FCA. Jerry enjoys water skiing and going to stock shows.

News From The Office

Tutorial classes for English, social studies, math, and science got underway on Tuesday, September 17 of last week. The classes are held on Tuesday and Thursday from 4:00 until 4:45 P.M.

The math tutorial class is in room 23, taught by Mr. Gaylord Latham; English is in Room 11, taught by Mrs. Johanna Wrinkle; science, taught by Mrs. Marilyn Miller is in room 3; and social studies tutorial, taught by Mrs. Jean Allison, is in room 25.

Principal Wayland Ethridge stated that any student needing help with these subjects is welcome to report to the tutorial sessions any Tuesday and Thursday. He said as of now the tutorial classes are strictly voluntary, but may be required at later dates for some students who may be doing unsatisfactory work. However, Ethridge emphasized that the sessions could be the most needed area that the new state house bill makes available. It is a wonderful chance for many students. They can get extra help in math, English, social studies, or science with a fully certified teacher on duty. All students needing help are encouraged to attend and make use of these sessions in order to better understand a subject and keep grades higher.

Ethridge also said that students working in other areas are certainly welcome to attend and perhaps receive help concerning study habits, writing a report, etc. "We want every student in Muleshoe High to feel that these tutorial sessions are there for them to use. If a student is stumped concerning an algebra problem or a written assignment, this is a great opportunity to get some professional help before going home in the afternoon."

In addition to meeting other DECA students from this area, the MHS students became involved in activities and simulations stressing communications, teamwork, problem solving and human relations. They returned with many ideas on motivating other club members and setting goals for the year.

Those attending were Neomi Acosta Renee' Copley, Yolanda Garza, Robert Orozco, Isabel and Sylvia Posadas.

BULLETIN

A $200.00 reward is offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person/persons responsible for breaking the new lighted sign in front of the High School. Contact the H.S. principal.

Senior Spotlight

There are many things to look forward to when one becomes a senior, and most of them cost money.

It takes more than one thing to be a senior but one thing it takes is money. On the average, a senior will spend $383.00 a year.

Pictures $100.00

Prom $200.00 per couple

Announcements $50.00

Cap-n-Gown $13.00

Total $383.00

These figures are just on the average; some seniors spend more, and others spend less but still, it does take a large amount of money to survive one's senior year.

Shelley McMeans Crowned Queen At Homecoming

The Homecoming Football Game was kicked off this year with the coronation of the Homecoming Queen. The Queen who will reign for the year of 1984-85 is Miss Shelly McMeans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dub McMeans. She was escorted onto the field by her father who presented the cape to her. Football captain John Issac, presented her with the crown, flowers, and a present. The attendants to the Queen are Stacy Smith, escorted by Jeff McCarty; Kristi Campbell, escorted by Hector Flores; and Laurie Kelton, escorted by Mark Moton. They were presented with presents by their escorts. Congratulations to Shelley and the other candidates for taking part in this record breaking Homecoming event.

Coaches Comments

The Mules grabbed their first victory last Friday night, with a 14-7 win against the Frenship Tigers. Coach Murray commented, "The Mules were very excited about their first win of the season, and it is always nice to win a Homecoming. Several younger players came in and played well. Frenship was a big football team and it was a very physical game. But the Mules always show a lot of class and always win the hitting match. This was once again the case. This week begins district play against Friona, who are 3-0. The high flying Chieftains had better grab their head-dresses

Parents Set Value Of School Work

Schools are not alone in teaching children. Parents have the responsibility to assist their children.

"Making sure school work is regarded as important is one of the main ways parents can assist their children," says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist, Diane Welch.

"Ask about school work," she says. "Listen to what the youngsters say. Respond to it with attention and care about what the youngsters are working on. That kind of support is probably the best a parent can do for youngsters at all grades in school."

Welch suggests some other tips for parents:

Control television viewing. If necessary, limit the hours children watch it and be aware of what they are watching. Establish a "specific study time at home and make it a quiet time. Provide an area that is suitable for the student to work. It can be any place appropriate--the dining room table if there is room, a desk in the bedroom--as long as there is space and quiet for the student to work.

If the children are young, spend study time with them. Have books at hand on school subjects and on other subjects. When possible have other learning activities such as games and projects so that what is being learned in school can be practiced at home too.

Look at the work the youngster brings home as well as at the homework.

Let teachers know when you are concerned about what is going on in the classroom.

Visits with the teachers can be two-way sessions that not only help the teachers understand the students, but help the parents see what is going on in the classroom environment.
