FROM MEMPHIS.

Jack Reel—Healthy Condition—Cotton Receipts—Business Boom, Etc.

Special Dispatch to the DAILY EXPRESS.—Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 23.—Jack Reel visited this section of the country last night, but did no particular damage, except to tender vegetation.

This city is healthier and in a more prosperous condition than it has been for many years past.

Cotton receipts to date have totaled up 25,000 bales in excess of former years, a remarkably good showing.

Thirty-five miles of average, forty-five miles of sub-soil drainage and six miles of rock have been permanently completed.

The streets are clean, and nearly every house has been newly painted and repaired.

Several large manufacturing enterprises are being started, and the city looks as bright as a new silver dollar.

Merchants are unable to fill their orders, and real estate has appreciated twenty-five per cent. in the last thirty days.

A big boom has set in for merchants, business men and real estate owners. All hail to Memphis.
