'Merry Christmas Bucks' Promotion Now Underway

The holiday season is here, and what better way to kick off a gigantic community-wide celebration than to launch a Christmas promotion.

Beginning tomorrow, Friday, several stores and businesses and restaurants in Muleshoe, have elected to become 'Merry Christmas' stores.

By keeping your Christmas money, and Christmas shopping at home, you can become eligible to win as much as $500, as sponsored by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

You will be given a card with 'Merry Christmas' stamped across it, by the time you visit 15 different stores, and the 15 stores and businesses stamp your card, you can deposit it into a container for the big drawing on December 21.

First prize in the drawing is $300, second and third prizes are each $100, so look how much more you can possibly add to the shopping you can do for your family and loved ones.

Toni Eagle, manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, said the money will be in the form of gift certificates, which will be spendable at the participating merchants and businesses in Muleshoe.

Rules to play in the game are very simple: You must be 18 years of age or older; the card must be stamped by 15 different stores and must be completely filled in order to participate.

You can fill more than one card, however, a store can only stamp one card for you at any one visit; no purchase will be necessary in order to get your card stamped; and employees of a business can participate, but cannot use the stamp from their place of employment.

Finally, after you have collected all 15 different stamps, put your name, address and phone number on the card before depositing it in the box.

Adding to the excitement of this holiday season, each Thursday night in December, stores may be open until 9 p.m. and there is a possibility entertainment will be provided to add to your shopping pleasure.

National Home Care Week Is Celebrated

Jim Swanner, administrator of the Muleshoe Nursing Home, said last week, "December 1-7, 1985, has been declared National Home Care Week by the President of the United States and Congress.

"In proclaiming the official celebration, the country's elected officials called on all citizens to honor the dedicated professionals and volunteers who provide home health services to the ill, elderly, disabled and infirmed within the comfort and security of their own homes."

He continued, "National Home Care Week allows us to bring national and local attention to ourselves in an attempt to increase public awareness about the existence and availability of Home Health Care."

West Plains Medical Center Home Health Agency was established June 14, 1984 and licensed by the Texas Department of Health to operate in six counties, Bailey, Parmer, Lamb, Castro, Hockley and Cochran counties. To this date, the WPMC Home Health Agency has served patients in all but Hockley county.

From June 14, 1984 through June 30, 1985, the Agency has made a total of 1218 visits. Seven hundred sixty six skilled nursing visits, 423 aide visits and 29 physical therapy visits have been made.

Presently, there are two registered nurses on the staff, as well as a physical therapist. Judy Jacobs is director of the nurses, Carroll Delaney, R.N. and Jerry Huggins, physical therapist.

Some of the services provided include skilled nursing care, physical therapy, laboratory tests; catheter care, sterile dressings, injections, I.V. therapy, diabetic management and cardiac care.

"We serve the essentially homebound," added Swanner, "unable to leave home, and the patient must be under the care of a physician. There are no age, sex, race, or financial restrictions placed on patient referrals. Patients do not need to be hospitalized prior to receiving home care."

Parade, Bazaar, Show Set This Weekend

Anchor Brothers To Headline Special Program

It will be 'Something Special' Saturday night, December 14, at the Sudan High School auditorium, when the Sudan Chamber of Commerce sponsors Something Special VI, scheduled to perform at 7 p.m.

In this very special entertainment evening, the theme is "The Magic of Christmas" and will include something to delight everyone, from the very youngest to the 'young in heart.'

Highlighting the evening will be the ever-popular country gospel singing group, The Anchor Brothers Band of Sudan.

Also on the list of entertainment for the evening will be Teen Talent from Hobbs, N.M.; the Muleshoe High School jazz band; the Lubbock Community Choir; three Walt Disney Christmas movies and of course, Santa Claus.

Tickets for the Christmas 'Something Special' will be $4 for adults and $2 for children above the age of 12. Children under the age of 12 will be admitted free.

'Something Special' has become very popular throughout this entire area. In an effort to provide family entertainment at a very reasonable price, Kenneth Richards of The Anchor Brothers Band and the Sudan Chamber of Commerce executives came up with Something Special.

Also, funds derived from the Something Special entertainments are all used to benefit various Sudan projects, such as helping to pay for the new fire truck obtained by the City of Sudan.

Be sure to make your plans now to attend 'Something Special VI,' and enjoy 'The Magic of Christmas.'

Maines Brothers Band Will Appear In Concert

Helping to officially kick off the 'Christmas' season in Muleshoe this weekend will be the third appearance here of the Maines Brothers Band, nationally known western entertainers from Lubbock.

Although they have been well-known performers throughout the South Plains and West Texas for several years, more than a year ago, The Maines Brothers Band became nationally known.

The first recording for The Maines Brothers Band to make the national charts was "Everybody Needs Love On A Saturday Night." This particular record made it pretty high on the national charts, which indicated the popularity of the record throughout the nation.

They came back with another release which is currently climbing the charts, "Some of Shelly's Blues." At this time, this release is receiving very much air time on radio stations nationally.

In their previous two appearances in Muleshoe, The Maines Brothers Band have proved they provide good, clean, wholesome entertainment, designed to please an audience of any age.

Sponsored in Muleshoe in each of their appearances by KMUL AM/FM Radio, Gerald Reid, station manager said they are proud to present such entertainment here. "We looked for entertainment that everyone, of any age, could enjoy," said Reid. "We find the Maines Brothers Band to be the best entertainment available around here."

Blood Drive Slated Here

A goal of 200 units of blood has been set for the annual United Blood Services drive to be held here on Thursday, December 5, according to publicist Annette Bonds.

Mrs. Bonds said the drive will be conducted from 10 a.m.-8 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in the fellowship hall, and donors will be sought to help replenish blood supplies.

Last year, during the drive, Muleshoe and area residents donated 214 units of blood, which was the second largest amount ever contributed for one drive in the area served by United Blood Services of Lubbock.

The largest amount was contributed at Snyder, which is much larger than Muleshoe.

For more information, or to find out if you are eligible to contribute blood, contact Lana Bomer at 272-5175 or Kay Graves at 272-5846.

Embry, Cliff Black, Marilyn Young, Faye Shaw, Nelda Hunt and Louvenia Garlington.

Starting off a busy Saturday will be on the annual Christmas parade, as sponsored by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. Theme for the parade this year is "Christmas Is -" and can be just exactly what Christmas means to you.

Parade time is 10 a.m. Participants will be meeting at the Boy Scout grounds on South Main Street at 9 a.m. to be lined up. The parade will travel north to Avenue B, one block west to South First Street, then back to the Boy Scout grounds by the Muleshoe Nursing Home.

At this time, for the parade, Santa Claus will be making his first 'official' visit to Muleshoe for the 1985 Christmas season. Following the parade, Santa will be at the Bailey County Civic Center to visit during the afternoon with youngsters and take their Christmas orders.

He will also be available to have his picture made with youngsters to preserve their official visit with the children of this area.

Another added feature will be the barbecue luncheon served by the Jennyslipppers Friday at noon. The Jennyslipppers will be manning the concession stand during the bazaar at the Civic

Santa Letters

To Be Printed During Month

Excitement is in the air -- for children of all ages -- toddler to the senior citizen, as Christmas '85 approaches.

It is also the time that children start thinking of something most important. The exact wording for their "Letter to Santa."

And, the same as always, The Journals will be printing letters written by youngsters to the jolly old gentleman in the red suit and cap, with a long white beard.

Each year, The Journal prints the first letter to Santa on the front page, but so far, no letter has arrived at The Journal on its way to the North Pole.

One envelope came to The Journal Monday morning, addressed to "Santa Clause," but there was no letter inside the envelope, just a cute note beginning, "Dumb Things I Gotta Do."

Be sure to get your youngster's letter in, Santa Claus needs to know what to be prepared to deliver to that special little one on the Christmas list.

Also, letters will be printed from both elementary schools in Muleshoe, as well as the elementary schools at Three Way and Lazbuddie.

The Jennyslipppers will be serving their fifth annual Holiday Bar-B-Que Buffet, Friday, December 6, at the Bailey County Civic Center.

They will be serving from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. tickets are selling for $5 per plate.

Members of the Jennyslipppers will also be operating the concession stand during the Arts and Crafts Bazaar Friday and Saturday.

New telephone systems have been installed at Dillman Elementary and DeShazo Elementary Schools, and telephone numbers at both schools have been changed with the new systems.

Dillman's new phone number is 272-7541 and the new number at DeShazo is now 272-7546.

Tonight, Thursday, the Muleshoopers will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Earl Ladd Fire Station.

All members and persons interested in mules are encouraged to attend this monthly meeting.

Funded primarily through donations and contributions, Texas Boys Ranch, Inc. has scheduled Saturday, December 7 for the 11th Annual Texas Boys Ranch Telethon. Airing from 7 p.m.-11 p.m. on KAMC, Channel 28, this four hour program will give West Texans a prime opportunity to call in and make tax deductible contributions to the Texas Boys Ranch, an organization which provides a stable home environment for 26 Texas boys.

With a goal of $75, the 11th Annual Telethon again is requiring a cooperative effort among those concerned individuals who want to be a part of the Texas Boys Ranch success story.

Management Book Will Help Irrigators

In an effort to encourage irrigators to harvest the rainfall they receive, as well as make wise water management decisions with the irrigation water they apply to their crops, the High Plains Underground Water District, with assistance from the USDA Soil Conservation Service, has just completed three new "Water Management Notes."

"Don't pray for rain if you don't take care of what you get," is the first statement readers will see in the first of these brochures, "Furrow Dikes, Small Reservoirs of Yield Potential," which discussed the beneficial use of furrow dikes.

This 1937 quote by R.E. Dixon, superintendent of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Spur, is just as true today as it was 48 years ago when Dixon made the statement at a field day at the Spur Experimental Station, said a spokesman for the Water District.

He said research has proven that the use of furrow dikes to harvest precipitation is the single most cost effective conservation practice that the producer in the High Plains of Texas can implement to increase his yields and profits. Maximum utilization of precipitation through the use of furrow dikes, will help reduce the withdrawal of water from the Ogallala aquifer, reduce production costs associated with supplying the crops' water needs and increase the potential for higher crop yields. Research statistics are also provided to illustrate potential crop yield increases due to additional water that is available to the crops through the use of furrow dikes.

The second of the new brochures entitled, "The Pre-Plant Soil Moisture Survey, A guide To Water Management," outlines and explains the three principal objectives of this annual soil moisture survey.

First, the irrigator is provided with an estimate of the amount of water in storage in the plant root zone profile prior to planting. Secondly, estimates of the amount of water needed to fill the root zone soil profile to field capacity are provided so that the irrigator can determine his pre-plant irrigation needs. And third, the Water Management Note describes how information on the distribution of moisture in the root zone soil profile can be helpful to the irrigator.

"Estimating Soil Moisture By Feel and Appearance," is the third of the new brochures. The "feel and appearance method" of monitoring soil moisture allows irrigators to estimate the amount of moisture stored in the plant root zone at any root depth in the field without the purchase of specialized equipment.

This method of determining soil moisture conditions entails the physical collection of soil samples and firming the samples in the hand. Different soils react and appear differently when they are squeezed and contain various amounts of moisture. By comparing his soils with pictures provided in this note, the irrigator can estimate the amount of water held in each soil sample.

Copies of these new brochures, or copies of other Water Management Notes that were previously distributed, can be obtained by contacting the local offices of the USDA-SCS or the High Plains Underground Water District No. 1, 2930 Ave. Q, Lubbock, TX, 79405.

LONG DISTANCE CARING --
Do you live quite a distance from an older parent whose health is failing? If there is no family member or neighbor to maintain daily contact with your parent, consider inquiring about a telephone reassurance program in the community, says Dr. Judith Warren, a gerontologist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service. She explains that volunteers in these programs make regular telephone calls to help provide social contact for the older person and obtain special assistance if it's needed. For information about such a service, she suggests contacting the Area Agency on Aging which serves the county where your relative lives.

Shopping Method Eases Christmas Rush

Putting some method into Christmas shopping madness can make it a more enjoyable holiday season, says consumer economics specialist Bonnie Piernot.

"People often think that planning for Christmas shopping means you get it all done in August," she says. "But you can benefit from advance planning whether you have three months or three hours to complete the task."

The Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist recommends writing down the name of each person you intend to give a gift to, and noting a maximum and minimum amount of money to be spent for each.

"Then add up all the minimum amounts to be sure that the total is within your budget and that you have some left over for flexibility," says Piernot.

Next to each person's name, list several appropriate gifts within the price range you specified.

Group the possible gift items into categories that will allow you to shop for similar items in the same store and to go from one store to the next without having to backtrack.

Finally, check the advertisements to see if the items you want to buy are on sale before heading for the stores.

When you actually start shopping, stick to your list, says the specialist. And as you make selections, check to see if the item can be returned, especially if you buy it on sale.

Keep the sales receipts. One method is to use a letter size envelope for each gift receiver. Write the person's name on the envelope and place the receipts and tags from their gifts in that envelope.

If you have more than one item on a sales receipt, write what the receipt represents on the back and keep it in a special envelope. Having the receipts will help with returns if necessary.

LENAU LUMBER AWARD--Gary Ward of Canyon received the first place ribbon in the Pastel Division of the Muleshoe Art Association Fall Art Show. He received the Lenau Lumber Award as well as the Bobo Public Opinion Award.

Holiday Clothing Quality

Despite premium prices, the beautiful clothes on display for Christmas giving or party wear may not be of the highest quality.

"At this time of the year, clothes are often bought for their festive appearance," says home economist Becky Saunders. "But consumers may be disappointed if they expect these garments to last much beyond the holiday season."

Saunders, a clothing specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service, says consumers should consider the following before investing in holiday clothing items:

- ° Luxury fibers such as angora and cashmere shrink.
- ° Dyes on suedes will run when cleaned, so avoid dark trims bordering light colors.
- ° Decorative trims such as glitter or beads which are glued or sprayed on will not be permanent. Sequins dissolve in drycleaning fluids.
- ° Acrylic knits stretch during normal wear, laundry or drycleaning. Wool knits will usually perform better.

Natural fibers and rayon may not be permanently pleated, but blends or synthetic fibers can be permanently pleated.

° Acetate velvet piles flatten due to normal wear, moisture, abrasion or liquid spillage. Silk or rayon velvets will perform better.

"For special occasion outfits that are worn only a few hours and get very little wear and tear, quality may not be a consideration," says a specialist. "Less-expensive dress clothes that give a good appearance can be a good buy for this type of use."

But shoppers who want a more permanent addition to the wardrobe, or a gift that will last, should consider the fabric, workmanship and care required for special Christmas clothes, just as they would for everyday wear, she advises.

Howells' To Celebrate Golden Anniversary

The children and grandchildren of Wayne and Lela B. Howell will be honoring them with a reception in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Dec. 8 from 2 until 4 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher, 602 Boesen, Sudan.

Howell and the former Lela B. Rone were married in Hereford on Nov. 23, 1935, and have lived in Sudan since 1935.

Tanya Fisher Celebrates

13th Birthday

Tanya Fisher was feted with a party on her 13 birthday recently. She and her friends were taken to Lubbock where they were allowed to shop in the Mall for four and half hours.

Following shopping, they were taken to Plainview where they watched the Flying Queens play their homecoming basketball game.

The group ate at the Golden Corral in Plainview, following a visit with the players in the Queens locker room. Upon returning to Sudan, the girls were served cake and ice cream.

Those attending, other than her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fisher and brother, Shannon, were Nichole Maxfield, Kendra Fisher, Suzanne Reid, Glenna Testerman and Ambyr Donnell.

Several items of business were discussed with the main item being the upcoming Booster concession stand for the Sudan Varsity Tournament which will be held Dec. 5, 6, and 7. The food committee, Lou Boyles, Jeannie Bartley and Mary Smith, along with the ladies in attendance completed the concession business while the men watched the Sudan-Vega film.

Following the film, refreshments were served to some 20 Booster supporters.

The food committee reminded the members that a work schedule has been mailed out and the workers need to be on time and work their shift. This is the biggest money making project the Booster Club has.

Wednesday of last week was an unlucky day for deputy county clerk, as exactly $13 was stolen from her office cash drawer that day.

The theft occurred at the noon hour while she was out to lunch. The thief paid no attention to several checks and a few dollars in silver also lying in the same cash till; but deliberately reached under the pile of checks and removed the currency.

FIRST SNOW FELL HERE SUNDAY

Bailey County's first snow of the winter season fell Sunday, beginning just as people emerged from their churches. The local weather recorder, said the fall amounted to three inches of snow and brought moisture of .18 inch.

This week the weather turned brisk and cold. Tuesday's low was 14 above zero.

Wheat growers whose wheat has just come up are praying for a heavier fall of snow, because, they say, the young wheat vitally needs moisture at this stage.

'85 Cotton Harvesting Rolls On

Cotton harvesting moved into high gear following the recent killing freeze, despite cloudy weather and some early morning fog. Modules appeared abundantly as harvesting quickly exceeded ginning capacity, said Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock.

This harvest was estimated at 50 to 60 percent complete at mid-week. A few northern county gins have almost finished the season, Bennett continued. Ginning was estimated at 35 to 45 percent. Peak harvesting momentum is near and with good weather, harvesting could be finished by mid-December. Fog halted harvest Thursday and Friday.

Many gins expect to be through their season by Christmas.

USDA's Lubbock office classed 137,000 samples during the week ended Wednesday, November 27. This brought the season's total to 375,000 and compares with 313,000 classed by the same date last year.

The week's predominant grades were grade 42 at 53 percent and grade 52 was 32 percent. About 19 percent was reduced one grade because of bark.

Predominant staples were staple 31 at 33 percent followed by staple 32 at 30 percent and staple 33 was 19 percent. The average was 31.8 thirty-seconds of an inch.

Micronaire 35-49 was 67 percent, 33-34 accounted for 15 percent, 30-32 was 13 percent and 27-29 amounted to 4 percent. The average was 36.

HVI breaking strength averaged 24.2 grams per tex at Lubbock during the week ended Wednesday.

Growers sold some 1984 crop loan equities at $3 to $10 per bale, mostly $3 to $5. Mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 31 and 32, mike 35-49 brought growers 150 to 200 points over loan.

Gins paid growers $55 to $80 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $55 to $65. The average was $61.

The "Cotton and Wool Outlook and Situation Summary" predicted that Textile imports in 1985 will be about the same as in 1984. Consequently, continued increased retail sales are benefitting U.S. mills.

In Fashion

Cold weather fabrics of wool, corduroy and angora are being displayed in summer pastels.

Pastels for fall feature bright blue, lavender and pink. Sweaters in white and wool coats in powder pink are seen in shop windows.

Check Safety To Make The Holidays Bright

- Before hanging strings of lights, spread them on the floor and check for frayed or bare wires, cracked insulation, loose connections, and damaged plugs or light sockets.
- Check extension cords for wear or damage and don't run them across walking areas.
- Test lights before putting them on the tree. Unplug them before making repairs or replacing bulbs.
- Overloading circuits with too many lights can cause fire. Follow manufacturer's instructions about the number of lights allowed on one circuit.
- Choose a fresh, green tree, trim its base and keep it in plenty of water. If the needles are brown and break off easily, it could be a fire risk.
- If you buy an artificial tree, make sure it has been tested for flammability by Underwriters Laboratories (UL).
- Place your tree away from the fireplace or other heat sources and out of the traffic pattern.
- Never string lights on a metallic tree. Light strings with damaged insulation can electrically charge a metallic tree. Instead, shine unattached colored floodlights or spotlights on the tree.
- Always turn off lights before leaving home or going to bed. You'll save money and be safer, too.
- Never use lighted candles on a tree or near evergreens. And don't burn evergreens in the fireplace.
- Do not use inside lights on the outside. All outside lighting equipment, including lights, cords and plugs, should be waterproof and made for outdoor use. Also, hang sockets downward and don't leave a socket empty.
- When hanging lights on the rooftop or in tall trees outdoors, stay clear of electrical lines. Make sure you or your decorations don't come in contact with them.
- Should you receive a CB radio or television this Christmas, let a qualified serviceman install the CB base unit or television antenna for you. This delicate job is best left to the professionals.
- Be sure electrical toys are tested for safety. Look for the UL mark.

The City Commission has received many complaints of dogs in Sudan. At times they are running in packs. They can be a nuisance to your neighbor and are a danger to older persons and children who have to walk in the streets where ever they go. Some dogs have been brought into Sudan and when the people move on, the dogs are left to roam the streets.

Sudan does have an Ordinance No. 5 pertaining to dogs running loose in the city. The City Commission requests dog owners help and cooperation in trying to make our town a safer, cleaner place, especially for our children and older persons.

This problem was discussed at the regular City Commission Meeting on Nov. 7, 1985.

Goals

Goals
Make the most of today.
Keep in mind.
Goals in life
Are not actually a state of mind.
All men seek success.
All men seek happiness.
All men need to fulfill a purpose.
Keeping a definite goal of achievement
Always in view.
Realizing that work well done
Makes kufe worth living.
Men than have no good.
Cannot accomplish.
Men that have a goal,
And have faith,
Can accomplish anything.

Notes To Seniors

Any senior planning to attend college but who is unsure of his or her financial state and any parent interested in extra help in putting their child through college should rejoice to read the following from Linda Marr's office.

Most scholarships don't just happen to students. Those that receive the benefit from scholarships have worked hard in obtaining them. You need to take several steps if you are interested in seeking any scholarships. Various departments within a college or university offer scholarships. Often we do not receive notice of these many different scholarships. If you are interested in receiving information you need to write to the department you plan to major in at a specific school and ask for applications. You should also write to the financial aid department of the university for information. See example below:

Texas Tech University
Department of Education
Lubbock, Texas 79410
Various scholarships available are below:

The Department of Chemistry of The University of Texas at Austin has available a number of scholarships for outstanding students who enroll as biochemistry or chemistry majors at the University for the academic year beginning August, 1986.

The Texas Society of Architects Public Education Committee has prepared a brochure to provide high school students with information on careers in architecture. These are available in the career file in the counselor's office.

The National Association of Chain Drug Stores has prepared a booklet on a career in Pharmacy. It attempts to match talents and interests of students that would be successful in the study program.

South Plains College at Lubbock is taking applications for freshman (fall 1986) entering the Medical Record Technology Program. Deadline date is June 15, 1986. Applications available.

The Sons of the Republic of Texas are sponsoring an essay contest open to any graduating senior in Texas. Scholarships in the amount of $2000, $1250 and $750 are available. Further information and application forms available. Deadline is February 17, 1986.

The following are steps toward college admission.....

1. Take the ACT or SAT.
2. Write to the college or university you plan to attend for an admission packet. There are some admission packets available in my office and addresses for most 2 year and 4 year schools are available on the computer.

3. Complete the admission material and return it to the college or university.

4. Request a high school transcript be sent to the college or university you plan to attend.

5. Complete health forms and immunization forms.

6. Send in housing information and deposit.

7. If financial aid is needed, write to the school for information and forms or pick up in the counselor's office.

FOOTBALL

By Pete Fritchle

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Once again the Orange Bowl has the top college bowl game.

Penn State undefeated and ranked number-one, has long been an Orange Bowl favorite. Followers make the trip to Florida, dodge the cold weather and usually enjoy victory.

Oklahoma has often played in Miami also--the last time being in 1981, defeating Florida State by one point 18-17. That was the Sooners' fourth consecutive year in the Orange Bowl. They won the last three times, losing to Arkansas in 1978.

Penn State's love affair with the Orange goes back further; the Lions' last appearance was in 1974, when they defeated LSU 16-9. The Lions also played in the Orange and won, in 1970 and 1969, over Missouri and Kansas.

The most unusual of their meetings, however, was their Sugar Bowl contest in 1972. The Sooners won on the scoreboard, 14-0, but lost that game by forfeit. That was the last time these two teams met in a major bowl.

Manufactured housing may be next industry taken on by the Japanese

COLLEGE STATION — When it comes to manufactured homes, the house that Jack built may not be able to compete with Tanaka's efforts, says a Texas A&M University architect.

Apparently the Japanese aren't content to out-compete only the U.S. electronics, steel and auto industries. The billion-dollar U.S. manufactured housing industry may be next to feel the effects of a very competitive Japanese product, says Charles Graham, a researcher and lecturer in the College of Architecture and Environmental Design who has conducted an extensive study of the industry.

One-third of all houses built in the United States today are wholly or partially produced in a factory. Most of the 300,000 manufactured houses produced in the U.S. each year are purchased by residents of California, Texas and Florida.

"The introduction of Japanese manufactured housing in the U.S. would mean a fairly significant upheaval and shakeout in the industry. We may be seeing another industry like the steel industry struggling for survival," said Graham.

On Top

The Bible, "God's holy word," is still the best seller, and most quoted book. From the original Greek and Hebrew this book has been translated into many languages.

Through the centuries men have devotedly studied and sought out the truth in the Bible. When one reads the Bible with an open mind, God's word is "as sharp as a two edged sword."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
