The Science of Farming

Discussed By Professors From Mesilla College

INSTITUTE WAS ORGANIZED

The farmers around Artesia are now organized and will meet from time to time and discuss all phases of scientific farming. The organization was affected Wednesday night at the Commercial Club room. The afternoon meeting was fairly well attended. Prof. J. Tinsley explained the benefits of organization and gave a description of the nature of the soil in this portion of New Mexico; its quality and the manner in which it should be handled. At the close of the meeting a committee consisting of Gayle Talbot, W. P. Walterschied and E. R. Gessler, was appointed to draft a constitution and bylaws. At night the meeting was well attended. S. W. Gilbert presided. The committee on constitution reported and its report was adopted. The following officers were elected: S. W. Gilbert, president; E. R. Gessler, vice president; John S. Majors, Secretary. These with J. B. Cecil and C. A. Coll constitute a board of directors. E. C. Higgins was elected treasurer and James D. Whelan librarian.

Prof. J. J. Vernon spoke. He told of the great undeveloped agricultural resources of New Mexico. He told of the benefit of blending the scientific with the practical in the conduct of the farm.

After an interesting general informal talk he followed the example set by Prof. Tinsley in the afternoon meeting and started a general discussion.

The question of English blue grass was brought up by D. N. Elder. J. R. Blair said he had tried ten acres with splendid results. J. B. Cecil said that he expects to sow white clover, blue grass and orchard grass.

Mr. Cecil also mentioned timothy which grows luxuriantly in the few places it has been planted in the Pecos Valley.

Speaking of wheat, Prof. Vernon told of the experiments with several hundred varieties at the college. The largest grain grown was produced from Algerian White. Lobi is also a fine yielder. Several varieties produced an average of more than 40 bushels an acre for three years in succession. The faculty is not yet in a position to furnish definite information in regard to the relative merits of the several varieties. Macaroni wheat yields well, as much as 46 bushels an acre having been produced. It grows well in the regions beyond the irrigated belt. The discussion lasted about two hours and was interesting and educational. It is to be hoped that each of the 42 members will take a personal interest in upbuilding the society and in increasing the membership.

The Mesilla college will conduct a corn raising contest for boys this year; the conditions of which will be published later.

Drummers say of the turnouts from the Star Stable have the smoothest traveling horses in Artesia. Reason: The horses are shod by Lawson, expert horsehooper at the Artesia Machine.

ACROSS THE CAT-CLAW DRAW

New Reservoir and Canal to Irrigate

LAND CONTIGUOUS TO ARTESIA

Thursday night a meeting of the promoters of the Home Canal and Irrigating Company was held in this city and final arrangements made to begin work on the ditch and canal which shall result in the reclamation of twenty-six quarter sections of land west of this city. This enterprise has been under way for some time and work could not begin until certain matters were adjusted. This has been done to the satisfaction of all and work will begin in about ten days. The company will construct a dam across catclaw draw and will irrigate from the reservoir. The land thus reclaimed reaches within four miles of Artesia.

Officers of the company are Geo. Frisk, president, Earl McBride, Secretary, John B. Enfield, treasurer.

Anti-Saloon League.

The Anti-Saloon League met at the Baptist church Thursday night. There was a good crowd present and the meeting was full of vim from the start.

S. A. Orr spoke on "The purposes of the organization." Dr. Norfleet on "The need of organization," and W. F. Schwartz on "How it succeeds." Other short talks were given. A committee was appointed to circulate a petition asking the legislature to pass the anti-gambling bill now pending before it.

Another committee was appointed to call a mass meeting to discuss certain matters of public interest and to invite the council to attend this meeting.

A communication was received from the attorney general in reply to certain questions propounded to him in regard to the laws pertaining to the liquor traffic.

The meeting is regarded by all the members as a decided success. Dr. Dunaway was unable to be present and speak on the physiological effects of intoxicants but it is hoped will treat the subject at a later meeting of the club.

Sunday Dinner at Artesia Hotel

The Artesia, the leading hotel of the city will hereafter give a special Sunday dinner, from 12 to 2 o'clock local time at regular price. Also board and room $1.50 per day. Meals 35 cents. Board and room $7.00 a week or $25.00 a month.

Thirty members of the Epworth League went out to the home of D. M. Elder Thursday night and had a most delightful time. The night was passed singing and playing music. Mrs. Elder served elegant refreshments.

Rev. J. Messer has been visiting in Portales during the past week. Last Sunday the Methodist pulpit was occupied by Rev. Geo. French, of El Paso, presiding elder of this district. Rev. Messer returned this morning.

WILL CARRY OUT CLAYTON IDEA

Organization of Real Estate Men Will Open Exhibit at Amarillo.

WILL ADVERTISE ARTESIA

The Pecos Valley Realty Company has inaugurated a movement to advertise the Artesia lands by establishing an exhibit at Amarillo where the people who come to the southwest seeking homes can see for themselves the products of this fertile and productive valley.

This is a modification of the Clayton idea with which ADVOCATE readers are familiar.

The company is composed of A. C. Keinath, Gayle Talbot and E. A. Clayton. These gentlemen have all large permanent interests here, they are all thoroughly familiar with the country and are all men of unimpeachable integrity. Whatever they say can be relied on. The Amarillo office is under the management of Mr. Keinath. The company has sub-agencies in several places. Its work will be a benefit to the entire Pecos Valley.

The Military Foot Rule.

The U. S. army surgeons examine the feet of the recruit with more care than any other portion of his anatomy, as without good feet he cannot travel well or do his full duty. The foot of a horse is also his most important member. A horse can only have sound feet when properly shod. Lawson at the Artesia Machine Shop shoes horses properly. He has had many years experience in the special work of shoeing race horses in the leading shops of the United States.

Two Big Wells.

Jim Walling struck a splendid well for his father J. K. Walling this week.

Butler brought in a gusher with a forty inch flow on the Bloomfield farm on Monday.

One John Fleming who was charged with having a warm spot in his heart for the thirty horse, was captured Sunday by Constable Bain and was given a hearing before Judge Swepston Monday. Technically the offense was defined as adulterating intoxicating liquor but the evidence seemed to be along the line that he was selling a recipe for making whiskey. His honor found that there was not sufficient testimony indicating a violation of the statutes to warrant holding him, so he was turned loose. Fleming is a bricklayer by trade and hails from Dayton.

The base ball team has been practicing this week. The boys work well together and the team is at least fifty per cent faster than the team of last year, which was the best in the valley.

Word has been received from W. P. Friermood from Greentown, Indiana that his father has passed away at that place.

Emmert Johnson, of Atlanta, Mo., has come here to take possession of his farm.

E. S. Howell is fixing his yard and getting ready for spring.

TEN INCH ALFALFA

In Dr. R. M. Ross' Field on February '19.

"Unless something unforeseen happens my alfalfa will be in bloom next month and be ready for cutting by April 1," said Dr. R. M. Ross, cashier of The First National Bank, Tuesday in the course of a talk on alfalfa culture around Artesia.

At the request of THE ADVOCATE Dr. Ross brought in a bunch to the office. It measured 10 1/4 inches "from tip to tip," and this on the nineteenth of February.

A Valentine Party.

A number of the young people received unique invitations written in rhyme bidding them to appear in spruce attire at the home of Miss Sara Owen to show their honor for St. Valentine. These responded and were well repaid for their obedience.

Miss Lily and Lutie McIlhany, Blanch and Cleta Parker, Rossi and Bernice Temple, Vivian Newkirk, Georgia Kinsinger, Margaret Barkwell and Ellen Cooper of Dayton.

Messrs. Austin Rice, John Gage, Gent Brown, Craig Schwartz, Tom Walling, Judson Roach, Arthur Williamson, Cecil Clayton, Ross and Rufus Scott, Faris Heath, and M. Dunn.

Miss Lily McIlhany played several piano selections. Games and merriment suited to the night filled the entire evening.

The refreshments were in keeping with the reason and decorations of hearts of red paper were greatly in evidence, some of the hearts being already pierced with the fatal dart of Don Cupid. Miss Owen showed herself the thoroughly capable hostess and her party was a success in every particular.

NOTICE—Fruit tree buyers. My car of trees will be at Dayton, N. M., March 1st to 10th. Your last chance to get choice 2-year-old apple trees guaranteed at 5c per tree and upward. Let me know at once what you want. 25 varieties. E. N. Bruce, Dayton, N. M.

Phil Metzler, Geo. Wetig and Felix Stanfield have just completed the work of making seats for St. Anthony's Catholic church. The work is neatly done and as a voluntary contribution, it is certainly appreciated.

WANTED—Man and wife on ranche, owner will furnish house, water, land for garden, and pay wages to wife for housework, man for farm work. Apply P. O. Box 216 or telephone Kennicott ranch.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms with bath and hot and cold water. Apply to Jack Porter.

"Jimmy" always forgets to bring what he is sent for. Lee Turkuett & Son always fetch the goods promptly and in apple pie order.

Poets are born, not made. Good bread is made, not born. Mrs. S. B. Dyer makes it.

S. S. Jerome has bought the G. W. Dent farm of 320 acres near Artesia.

WILL PROSECUTE

Those Letting Water Escape—Road Commissioner Patrick Serves Notice on Offenders

Road Commissioner Patrick has determined to enforce the law against those who let water escape on the public high ways. He says that after this week all who break this statute will be promptly brought to book. Hereunder will be found his warning.

NOTICE TO OWNERS OR USERS OF WELLS.

All persons allowing any water under their control to escape on the public highways in violation of the laws of New Mexico, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

J. T. PATRICK, Road Commissioner.

A Quiet Wedding.

At the Methodist parsonage Sunday evening Nevada Temple was married to J. E. Swepston. Rev. J. H. Messer officiated. Both of the young people are popular. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Temple and is a lovable young lady. The groom is a member of the real estate firm of Swepston & Orr. He is our justice of the peace, police, judge and city clerk.

May they live long and prosper.

There has been a change in the of the Pecos Valley Immigration Company. Mr. Gessler has bought the Alison interests and will manage the affairs of the company. Mr. Gessler is well known throughout the valley and will make such a success in this business as he is now making in agriculture.

Earl McBride narrowly escaped a serious injury Wednesday. He was splitting kindling when a piece flew up and hit him in the right eye. Dr. Baker was called and dressed the wound. Fortunately the injury while painful will not result seriously.

The Baptist Ladies gave an excellent dinner in the Dyer building yesterday. There was a big crowd and the viands were of the most toothsome kind.

FOR SALE—160 acres 4 miles from Lake Arthur, fenced and ditched, with 90 feet well good water, price $5 per acre. Address Kennicott, Box 216, or telephone Kennicott Bros. ranche.

W. E. Redford of Boyd, Texas, and C. C. Mann of Decatur, Texas, have bought the drug business of Fatherree & Robertson. They will take possession about March 1. Mr. Mann is now here.

We understand that the Nonpareil Mandolin Club which furnished such excellent music for the Artesia Club ball, is open to other engagements.

Now get your shade trees and make "Fairest Artesia" the garden spot of the sunshine Territory.

FOR SALE—Neat brick residence. Apply to D. W. Robertson.

Joseph Maxwell of Wichita, is here looking after his interests. Mrs. Chas. Thomas was in Roswell this week.

Frost Will Lecture on Napoleon Bonaparte.

UNDER AUSPICES OF MINISTERS

Napoleon Bonaparte by W. C. Frost will be the subject of the first number of the season in the lecture course. The lecture will be given next Saturday March 2 at the Presbyterian church.

Concerning Mr. Frost we quote the following:

GRACEFUL AND ACCOMPLISHED SPEAKER.

W. E. Vassar, in Athens, (Ala.) Courier—"Mr. W. C. Frost's lecture last Friday evening was a rare intellectual treat, abounding in valuable historical research and governmental philosophy, and enlivened with sparkling thoughts and exhilarating sentiments. In an unbroken flow of delightful eloquence the graceful and accomplished speaker, who is possessed of a fine voice and pleasant address, discussed his fascinating and dramatic theme, Napoleon Bonaparte."

This course should receive the support of all as it is beneficial to mind and morals.

Other numbers for the season are:

René, the great magician; Geo. A. Laudrom, noted entertainer; and The Fulcher entertainers.

WAS DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Tolleson-Older Concert Pleased Audience.

There was a fair crowd in the Dyer hall Tuesday night to enjoy the entertainment given by Miss Tolleson and Older, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Porter and Miss Hope Clark.

The performance merited an overflow attendance. It is no reflection on the numerous excellent home talent plays that have been given here this winter, to say that it was by far the best entertainment we have attended since coming to Artesia. The music, both vocal and instrumental was of a high order, the readings by Miss Older and Mrs. Porter were excellent and the Japanese Fan Poses by Misses Tolleson and Older were models of grace.

They announce a show in the near future. In our uncritical opinion people who will attend shows would do well to save their pennies for tickets for the Tolleson-Older plays.

As we go to press we learn that Mrs. Hugh M. Gage who has been dangerously ill at Hope for the past two weeks is somewhat better today.

Judge G. U. McCrary was in Dexter and Hagerman on legal business this week.

Judge A. V. Logan has opened a law office over the Porter & Beckham hardware store.

The Advocate is published in the Great Pecos Valley of New Mexico, in the center of the flowing well district. These wells flow from 500 to 5,000 gallons of pure water per minute. There are hundreds of them and the smallest flow is sufficient to irrigate 220 acres in fruit trees. Production in this country has only begun. We have better inducements to immigrants than any other country offers. Land is cheap yet. Come and investigate.

The American Czar

"The postoffice department, without notice and without a trial, arbitrarily denies to the citizen falling under its displeasure the use of the mails. It is a method charming in its simplicity, if it were not a method absolutely illegal and unconstitutional—the method of a czar or a dictator, but not the method of an official of a free government, nor the method of a free and representative government ought to allow its officials to follow."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune (Rep.)

At last the American people are beginning to recognize the danger involved in the curtailment of the liberty of the press. Owing to the obscurity of the early victims of this form of official oppression, the despotic aggression was almost unnoticed and rebuked until the officials began to extend the vicious principle. Now, however, the press regardless of party is aroused. All the Republican papers in New Mexico oppose the usurpation and the same spirit is manifested among the newspapers of that party in many other quarters.

Instead of curbing the tendency toward repression, congress seems anxious to supplement the aggressions of the department by legislation still further curtailing the rights of the press.

The centralizing tendencies manifested by the postoffice department at Washington is in line with the general executive policy, which ignores laws and precedents in order to "do things."

When the head of the nation adopts this policy to carry out his plans, it is not surprising that subordinates emulate his example.

There is no need of Russianizing the postoffice department. Papers sometimes preach bad governmental theories; in this case the remedy is a full, fair and honest discussion by the friends of good government. If such discussion fails to secure the triumph of right in the majority of cases, then popular government is a failure. We do not believe it is a failure, hence we believe in a free discussion of economic issues.

Newspapers sometimes indulge in false charges against individuals or corporations; let criminal libel and civil laws be enforced and, if necessary, strengthened. Let the punishment for sending obscene matter through the mail be imprisonment. We can imagine cases where the temporary detention of newspapers by postal authorities would be justified, but these cases should be defined by statute so that all may know what the law is; and let the proprietor have the right to have the questions of fact submitted to a jury, in case the department finding of facts be unsatisfactory. Let the questions of law be determined by the courts, should the proprietor desire to appeal.

But let no man be granted the privilege of arbitrarily destroying the business of another without allowing the other the right to have the merits of the case before a jury of his peers.

About Artesia County.

The matter of the creation of a new county with Artesia as a county seat is still pending before the legislature.

Editor D. L. Newkirk of the Pecos Valley News has been in Santa Fe for the past couple of weeks and we are informed looks upon the situation as hopeful. Certain surface indications tend to encourage the friends of the project, among these might be mentioned the utterances of the Roswell Record which seems very dubious about the ability of Roswell and Carlsbad to defeat the measure. Harry W. Hamton left last week and is now in Santa Fe.

THE ADVOCATE feels sure that no stone will be left unturned and, as we have right on our side, we feel reasonably confident of securing the county. To be sure no one can tell what a legislature will do, but there seems to be no bad symptoms developing in this case.

Order

The White House, Washington, January 25, 1907,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:—To prevent the fraud now practiced in the acquisition of public lands of the United States, I have to direct that hereafter no final certificate, patent, or other evidence of title shall be issued under the public land laws until an actual examination has been made on the ground by an authorized officer of the Government; but the following shall be excepted from the force of this order:

1. All claims which have heretofore been examined on the ground by an authorized officer of the Government whose report is found satisfactory.
2. All claims where heretofore an officer of the Government other than officers authorized to take final proof shall have been present at the taking of final proof to cross-examine claimant and witnesses, if such proof is found satisfactory.
3. All claims where claimant's compliance with law has been established by contest or other regular adverse proceedings.
4. Entries which may have been confirmed by virtue of any act of Congress.
5. Selections and entries in which no residence or improvement is required by law, when the lands embraced therein are strictly speaking in agricultural districts, or when their character has been fixed by investigation and classification made in accordance with law.
6. Cases of reissuance of patents because of some clerical error occurring in the patent heretofore issued.
7. All Indian allotments which have been regularly approved in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior.

You will issue all necessary instructions to carry this order into effect.

This order in lieu of my order of December 13, 1906.

The gathering formed a most exquisite picture. The Patronesses in receiving line were Mrs. Edwin B. Kemp, Mrs. Edgar E. McNatt, Mrs. Edward F. Phillips, and Mrs. John R. Hodges, the other two, Mrs. Judson G. Osburn and Mrs. Robert M. Ross, being unable to be present. The receiving ladies and their assistants were gowned most beautifully in colonial attire, Mrs. Kemp was in black and white of clinging material, full skirted and pointed basqued and lace filch. She wore some old family jewelry and her powdered hair served to emphasize her Virginia blood. Mrs. Hodges was in pink sprigged muslin, her dress being in plainer style; she wore a pair of dainty slippers that were relics in the Bowman family. Mrs. McNatts' dress was of violet sprigged muslin cut to display a lace beruffled petticoat. Mrs. Phillips wore a beautiful old brown silk that was the property of some ancestress of Mr. Phillips, and daintily represented Janice Meredith.

Mrs. Harry Burt and Mrs. John Chapman poured tea. They were gowned in blue panned dress over flounced petticoats. Mrs. Burt wore her grandmother's necklace, a quaint and beautiful pattern. Both these ladies wore tiny lace caps. All the ladies in costume wore powdered pompadours and ficelles and some were in patches and curls. At the door bearing the card trays were the most beautiful ladies of the party, tiny Misses Ernestine Cox and Miriam Annette Jacobson. They were dressed as true colonial babies should be and were so attractive that Ed Johnson had to be summoned to picture them. Later in the afternoon Miss Annette recited "Grandma at the Masquerade" to her mother's piano accompaniment and won the hearts of all. Ices with red cherries were served by Misses Georgia Kinsinger and Vera Heath dressed as sweet and modest Puritan maidens. The cakes were in form of a hatchet and each plate bore as a souvenir a hatchet of red pasteboard tied with a bow of red ribbon. Theodore Martin manipulated a good graphophone throughout the entire afternoon from 3 to 5. One hundred and fifty invitations were issued many to out of town guests but about seventy-five ladies of Artesia were present. The decorations were all in keeping with the day and were retained for the reception and dance of the evening.

THE BALL AT NIGHT.

At night the youth and beauty of Artesia came out in force and enjoyed a social dance until a late hour. The music furnished by the Nonpareil Mandolin Club would have tempted a deacon to forget his calling and go 'round and 'round. Refreshments consisting of sherbet and cake was served and the punch bowl was a popular institution. Later on, coffee "such as mother used to make" was passed around.

Out of town guests who were present expressed delight at the thoroughly recherche manner in which things are done in Artesia.

Rising From The Grave

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lacama, N. C. relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at Pecos Valley Drug Co. Price only 50c.

Swastika

(A SIGN OF GOOD LUCK)

The Swastika is the oldest cross, and the oldest symbol in the world.

Despite many theories, its origin is unknown, although it is certain that it dates from remotest antiquity. It has been found all over the habitable world—in the Ruins of Ancient Rome in the excavations of Grecian cities—Graven on the solid rock of the mountains of India—On the vases and pottery of Rhodes—On ancient Buddhist idols and Chinese porcelians, and is historically attested on coins as early as 315 B. C.

It was familiar to the primitive Astronomer as part of the constellation of Ursa Major, and a religious signification has been attached to it by various races, ancient and modern.

On this continent the Swastika is found among the relics of the Mound Builders and Cliff Dwellers; in the ruins of Mexico, South and Central America: and at the present time, our own Indians of the Southwest use it as ornament and amulet.

Found among the relics of all ages and peoples, from time immemorial, the Swastika has been considered as a talisman; a charm to drive away evil, and bring good luck, long life and prosperity to the wearer.

(Pronounced SWAS-TI-KA. Of Sanscrit derivation)

The Swastika is now to be seen on—Souvenir Spoons, Scarf Pins, Fobs, Charms, Cuff Links, Pins, etc. at very moderate prices at

The Woman's Club

There was a good attendance at the meeting of The Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Edgar E. McNatt was hostess. The following were present: Mesdames, Dyer, Kemp, Walker, McNatt, McCrary, Martin, Skaer, Beckham and Atkeson.

The play of "Hamlet" was taken up; This was the third and last of Shakespeare plays that constitute the work of the club for the year and has been looked forward to with much interest. The text of Richard Grant White is used with notes, and questions by Helen Cone Mrs. Edwin B. Kemp presented a helpful introduction to the play Mrs. G. U. McCrary gave a concise synopsis of the day's lesson, the first three scenes which were read and discussed by the class, with the President, Mrs. Hodges in the chair, a short business session was held and two important amendments were adopted. The next regular meeting is for February 27 with Mrs. V. E. Fetherree as hostess.

Hope Happenings.

Rev. Lively started to Texas last Tuesday. He was unfortunate in his financial business in Texas and will take his Texas home again. He will live in Hale County near Hale Center.

J. C. Richard will rent the Owen farm to Mr. Evers near Artesia. Mr. Richard is now living 3-4 mile east of Hope.

Last Saturday night the young folks met at the home of Mr. J. W. Reed and had a jolly old time play party. The young men treated to bucket of candy.

Mr. John Talbert and family have moved near Pecos City where they have 500 head of thoroughbred cattle.

Mr. W. P. Ritley is now in possession of the place Mr. Talbert has left.

The canal is being repaired and it is reported to be in very good condition for the time of year. Those who are working at the head of the ditch say it is the easiest dam work they ever done.

The report is out that Mr. President of the Literary Society is now in the horse business keeping a fine stock of horses.

Mr. Sim White has lost one of his fine horses caused by blind staggers.

Mrs. Hugh Gage is very low with inflammatory rheumatism. Her sister Miss Ida Roberts and her brother Jim Hinkle came down from Roswell Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gage of Artesia are at her bedside.

Mr. T. M. Smith is expected to return from his ranch today where he has been sick.

Ed Smith and Jim Shaw are occupying the Gage residence in Hope. Delayed From Last Week.

The large cottonwood tree carried from D. L. Elms to Doc. Wade's residence is living in very good order.

S. Mill's has moved his dwelling within 100 yards of the school house.

J. R. Cannon and brother, Earnest, and their brother-in-law have bought the Jake Wood place for $4000. Mr. Cannon and Mr. McNally are from Texas.

Hope's Hopeful Literary Society met Jan. 30 with better success than ever before. The program was composed of Longfellow's choice selections.

Mesdames Haas, Swift and Whit called on Mrs. J. W. Reed a few days ago and carried home all kinds of vegetables that can be gotten at this season of the year. The town was fumigated the next day with a summerlike vegetable dinner.

We notice in the Progress where Hope is described as being in one of the finest valleys in the world. What more could we want? We thank the letter for the complimentary words on both the valley and its people. The reason other people haven't realized this is because they haven't been here. I suppose Messrs. Burdett and Hogg are from Missouri. Canal work began Tuesday. The canal will be dug to its normal size.

Tom Hayden and his wife who came down from the north are in Hope.

John Tolbert gave a candy pulling to the young folks Saturday eve.

The orchards are red with bloom. The sun already seems to have stored it heat to a very distant depth and unless winter doesn't make a final attack so there will be no need of further fear. But we are now at the mercy of a cold wave.

A Mexican circus was in town Wednesday and Thursday nights.

W. L. Whitaker is building a fine stable south of the old one.

The Cox and Bass race to have been run Thursday was attended by a large crowd including those from Artesia and Carlsbad and other surrounding towns. The agreement was to choose a tapper who lived neither in Hope or Carlsbad. A tapper could not be agreed upon as there was a large crowd of disappointed people who came back without having witnessed a race.

Rev. Lively has just returned from Texas where he has been settling business matters.

Fish stories are recent but cow tales are seldom like this one: Mrs. S. White reports 42 gallons of milk per day from her favorite cow. Beat it.

In an editorial which THE ADVOCATE will copy next week the El Paso Herald pays an elegant compliment to Artesia. The editorial appeared in Thursday Herald.

Mrs. W. P. Frierhood who has been visiting in Indian for some time returned Saturday.

PRISONERS OF HOPE

Was the Subject of Sermon by Rev.
James at Baptist Church
Sunday, Feb. 17.

Subject, Prisoner of Hope. Text Zeal-
ariah 9:12.
A prisoner is one under legal restraint;
his freedom is taken away from him as a penalty for sin against society. The prisoners mentioned in the text are those
who are under restraint on account of sin against the government of God. In this sense the race is in prison, and is
not merely awaiting judgment but is condemned already. Yet there shines
today into the head of the race a great
hope. This hope is not based on the possibility of the race's establishing its innocence in Heaven's court. Pride may
suggest the possibility of such a thing,
fear of consequences may urge it, and a
rebellious spirit may demand it; but the
testimony of the greatest men of all
time is against it. God's word is against
it and one's own conscience will not
affirm it. The old Chinese proverb,
"There are only two perfect men—one is
dead and the other is not born," expresses
the race's consciousness on this question.
There is no hope for the race aside from
a confession of guilt.

Nether can we shift the responsibility
for our sin. This has been the natural
tendency since the beginning of history.
Eve blamed the serpent and Adam blamed
Eve for the first sin. Some lay all the blame on Adam for their sin. Others
blame their more immediate ancestry;
they say they were born with bad blood
in their veins. A few blame their parents for not raising them right. A multitude blame their enemies, circumstances
and environment. Such excuses may comfort us, but they won't convince the Judge of all the earth. Not a few of the vilest sinners today can boast of "blue-
blood;" and others who had the most
favorable environment are driven by the wind and tossed by the wave. And how many have left houses of prayer and
gone the direct route to Hell.

Nor is the thought that God is too good
to condemn us a basis for any hope.
Strange notions of God are abroad.
Love is not the only element in God's character. We could not really respect
them if we did not think him just. When
criminals of dearest dye escape justice
here, our sense of justice is satisfied only
when we consider that they cannot
escape from God. How could you worship a God whom you considered so
"goody-good" that he would not be just
with you. He is so just that Jesus had
to drink the cup of suffering to the deep
before he could save us. No, my friend,
if you expect to rely on God's mercy for
pardon, better do so in this day of grace.
The day of judgment is the day of final-
ities. You must not expect God to reverse his decision then. If you believe now on Jesus you are condemned already—
Jus. 3:12.

And the theory of Annihilation gives
no hope. The man who invented this theory must have been a bad man. He
at least thought that his only safety lay
in escaping from Judgment. If the theory
were true it might furnish a way of
escape, but our souls recoil at thought of annihilation. Who believes that he is a mere beast? Who can enjoy the thought of becoming a non-entity? Who can look into the dark grave of his mother and
think of her existing eternally as a lump
of dirt? What became of that soul that looked through these eyes, that charged
the voice with power, that thrilled in the hand grasp, that shone, white and glistening through the garment of flesh?
Where is it? Why prefer to be dust blown to the four corners of the earth by
the winds than to be a redeemed man in Christ-Jesus standing before the throne
of God, reunited to loved ones forever
and forever?

What is the basis of our hope then?
It consists of three facts.
1. God forgives sin. All kinds of sin,
all degrees of sin, innumerable sins. "If
we confess our sins he is faithful and
just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse
us from all unrighteousness. "Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow, though they be red like crimson they shall be as wool." He will
blot out our sins as a thick cloud.
2. Provision has been made for the forgiveness of sin. By this plan God can justify the ungodly and still be just. "It
is a faithful saying and worthy of all ac-ception that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners of whom I am
chief." "The son of man is come to
seek and to save that which was lost."
"Come unto me all ye that labor and are
heavy laden and I will give you rest."
3. It is possible that you will accept
Christ who is the way to God, the truth
of God and the life of God. You may be prompted to accept Him now. That,
however, is not proof that you will do so.
Don't lean on that, and delay because of
it. You may be prompted to reject Him
now. Don't despair because of that, for that is not proof that you never will accept Him. Your case is hopeful but not safe. President Garfield lay suffering from his wounds. One day he asked the
physicians if he had any chance of recovery, they replied, "you have one chance." He said, "I will take that chance" and for many weeks he

of temporal life you will this night change
your hope of spiritual life into realization
of spiritual life. The Gospel is our only hope. It is God's proclamation of freedom from wrath to come and present
tyranny of sin. O ye prisoner of hope,
become not prisoners of despair, but accept God's pardon freely granted and be
rid of the shackles and darkness and dampness of the prison. Walk out into
the healing sunshine, a freeman in Christ
Jesus. Whom the son of God wishes free
he shall be free indeed. T. C. JAMES.

PRISONERS OF HOPE

Was the Subject of Sermon by Rev.
James at Baptist Church
Sunday, Feb. 17.

Subject, Prisoner of Hope. Text Zeal-
ariah 9:12.

A prisoner is one under legal restraint;
his freedom is taken away from him as a
penalty for sin against society. The
prisoners mentioned in the text are those
who are under restraint on account of
sin against the government of God. In
this sense the race is in prison, and is
not merely awaiting judgment but is
condemned already. Yet there shines
today into the head of the race a great
hope. This hope is not based on the possibility of the race's establishing its innocence in Heaven's court. Pride may
suggest the possibility of such a thing,
fear of consequences may urge it, and a
rebellious spirit may demand it; but the
testimony of the greatest men of all
time is against it. God's word is against
it and one's own conscience will not
affirm it. The old Chinese proverb,
"There are only two perfect men—one is
dead and the other is not born," expresses
the race consciousness on this question.
There is no hope for the race aside from
a confession of guilt.

Nether can we shift the responsibility
for our sin. This has been the natural
tendency since the beginning of history.
Eve blamed the serpent and Adam blamed
Eve for the first sin. Some lay all
the blame on Adam for their sin. Others
blame their more immediate ancestry;
they say they were born with bad blood
in their veins. A few blame their parents for not raising them right. A multitude blame their enemies, circumstances
and environment. Such excuses may
comfort us, but they won't convince the Judge of all the earth. Not a few of the
vilest sinners today can boast of "blue-
blood;" and others who had the most
favorable environment are driven by the
wind and tossed by the wave. And how
many have left houses of prayer and
gone the direct route to Hell.

Nor is the thought that God is too good
to condemn us a basis for any hope.
Strange notions of God are abroad.
Love is not the only element in God's
character. We could not really respect
them if we did not think him just. When
criminals of dearest dye escape justice
here, our sense of justice is satisfied only
when we consider that they cannot
escape from God. How could you wor-
ship a God whom you considered so
"goody-good" that he would not be just
with you. He is so just that Jesus had
to drink the cup of suffering to the deep
before he could save us. No, my friend,
if you expect to rely on God's mercy for
pardon, better do so in this day of grace.
The day of judgment is the day of final-
ities. You must not expect God to reverse his decision then. If you believe not on Jesus you are condemned already—
Jus. 3:12.

And the theory of Annihilation gives
no hope. The man who invented this theory must have been a bad man. He
at least thought that his only safety lay
in escaping from Judgment. If the theory
were true it might furnish a way of
escape, but our souls recoil at thought of annihilation. Who believes that he is a mere beast? Who can enjoy the thought
of becoming a non-entity? Who can look
into the dark grave of his mother and
think of her existing eternally as a lump
of dirt? What became of that soul that
looked through these eyes, that charged
the voice with power, that thrived in the hand grasp, that shone, white and glistening through the garment of flesh? Where is it? Why prefer to be dust
blown to the four corners of the earth by
the winds than to be a redeemed man in Christ-Jesus standing before the throne
of God, reunited to loved ones forever
and forever?

What is the basis of our hope then?
It consists of three facts.

1. God forgives sin. All kinds of sin,
all degrees of sin, innumerable sins. "If
we confess our sins he is faithful and
just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse
us from all unrighteousness. "Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow, though they be red like
crimson they shall be as wool." He will
blot out our sins as a thick cloud.

2. Provision has been made for the forgiveness of sin. By this plan God can
justify the ungodly and still be just. "It
is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners of whom I am
chief." "The son of man is come to
seek and to save that which was lost."
"Come unto me all ye that labor and are
heavy laden and I will give you rest."

3. It is possible that you will accept
Christ who is the way to God, the truth
of God and the life of God. You may be prompted to accept Him now. That,
however, is not proof that you will do so.
Don't lean on that, and delay because of
it. You may be prompted to reject Him
now. Don't despair because of that, for
that is not proof that you never will accept Him. Your case is hopeful but not safe. President Garfield lay suffering
from his wounds. One day he asked the
physicians if he had any chance of recovery, they replied, "you have no
chance." He said, "I will take that chance" and for man

of temporal life you will this night change
your hope of spiritual life into realization
of spiritual life. The Gospel is our only
hope. It is God's proclamation of freedom from wrath to come and present
tyranny of sin. O, ye prisoner of hope,
become not prisoners of despair, but accept God's pardon freely granted and be
rid of the shackles and darkness and
dampness of the prison. Walk out into
the healing sunshine, a freeman in Christ
Jesus. Whom the son of God wishes free
he shall be free indeed. T. C. JAMES.

If I did not have the ability and facilities to sell property, I certainly could not afford to pay for this advertisement. This "ad" (like all my other "ads") practically sure to place on my list a number of properties, and I am just as sure to sell these prop-cost of these "ads," and make a good profit besides. This is why I have so large a real estate business today.

Why not put your property among the number that will be sold as a result of these "ads?"
I will not only be able to sell it—some time—but will be able to sell it quickly. I am a specialist in quick sales, and have the most complete and up-to-date equipment. I have branch offices throughout the country and a field force
of men to find buyers.
I do not handle all lines usually carried by the ordiwill—no matter how small or how large it is—and I will it—or go out of business. I can assure you I am not out of business. On the contrary, I expect to find a large number of buyers for your property.
