ARTESIA TAKES LEAD

At Roswell Products Exposition by Capturing 21 First Prizes and Five Second, Winning Cup.

Artesia certainly did herself proud at the Roswell Products Exposition, and which by-the-way should have really been named the ARTESIA Products Exposition.

First prize was taken on community display; on alfalfa; sweepstakes on five boxes of apples; first on two boxes Mo. Pippin; on one box same apple; on one box White Winter Pearman; first on box Wine-sap; first on quinces; first on plate White Winter Pearman; first on peaches; first on Arkansas Black apples; and second on peaches; cantaloupes and grapes. The total first prizes numbered 21 and 5 second prizes.

The Roswell Morning News had the following description of the Artesia display:

"The Artesia booth was beautifully arranged. The central pyramid of apples and beautiful ears of corn was surmounted by a huge cornucopia of green, showing fruits and vegetables. A background of corn softened the wall, flowers and corn lent grace, while vegetables gave a solid foundation. There were the choicest fruits of all kinds.

Artesia carried off twenty-one first prizes and five second and a blue ribbon for seedless pears.

Artesia also received the $25 prize for the most unique alfalfa display, a huge fireplace with a cozy looking red fire that in the cool evening looked tempting enough for one to wish for a chair and book beside it. They had also a huge tomato plant that had upon it eighty-five tomatoes. It was a volunteer."

"Roswell divided the highest honors with Artesia, taking the cash part of the first prize—$50.

Artesia was indeed so close to Roswell or Roswell so close to Artesia that one could scarcely see a difference, so Artesia took the silver cup presented by Messrs. M. O. Coggins & Co., of Pittsburg, Pa., and Lyon Bros. & Co., of New York City.

There was also the following in the Record about individual exhibitors:

W. P. Riley, of Hope, first, Jonathan plate.

C. A. Coll, second, grapes.

Albert Hanny, first, Wine-sap box; first, Blacktwigs, 1 box.

E. I. Allen, second, peaches, 1 box.

B. Dye, Artesia, first White Winter Pearman, plate.

W. Reed, Hope, second, peaches.

C. A. P. Co., Artesia, first peaches; first Champion Apple sweepstakes; first Arkansas Blacks, 1 box; first Rome Beauty.

J. B. Dye, Artesia, first, White Winter Pearman, 1 box; first, Winesaps, 1 box; second Arkansas Blacks, plate.

R. M. Love, Artesia, first prize, box of peaches, first on Quinces.

J. S. Carl first prize on Winesap apples.

Mrs. W. F. Schwartz, first on pickled apples.

Lakewood, first prize fresh tomatoes; first prize onions.

Lakewood Canning Factory, best display canned goods (commercial.)

The News also had the following mention of J. M. Conn and the Hope exhibit:

"J. M. Conn, of Artesia, has been happily engaged the past thirty-six hours.

He has been showing the silver trophy won by the Artesia community exhibit at the exposition to the crowds at the depot and on the streets.

He estimates the value to Artesia as at least $15,000 and says it cannot be bought for even twice that sum. Mr. Conn is the gentleman who exhibited the seven and a half pound bunch of grapes."

"Hope received an award of merit from its community exhibit. It was prettily arranged of boxes of apples, plates of fruit, many choice vegetables, with corn both red and white. Their lettering was nicely done in red plums. They received a first prize for Indian corn, a first prize for plums, a first prize for plate display of Jonathan apples, and a second for peaches."

Much credit is due Rev. W. A. Dawson, W. F. Schwartz and J. M. Conn for the excellent arrangement of the Artesia display. They are surely experts in that line and are great boosters for their town. Rev. Dawson is known to be an able and eloquent preacher and he has shown himself to be also a designer of ability.

Messrs. R. M. Love, J. B. Cecil and Bert Chronkite also aided in making the exhibit a success.

The cup, certificates, ribbons etc., are on display in a show window of the Artesia Mercantile Co.

Card of Thanks.

I wish through the columns of this paper to thank J. M. Conn, Bert Chronkite, Rev. W. A. Dawson, R. M. Love, J. B. Cecil, R. L. Schneider, J. B. Dye and Fletcher Owen for their assistance in different ways in arranging the Artesia display at Roswell. Such a task is beyond one man—it was the combined efforts of all that made it possible for Artesia to carry off the honors.

FOR GOOD ROADS

Meeting Held at Roswell Participated in by Citizens from Chaves and Eddy Counties.

Last Friday a meeting was held at Roswell by good roads enthusiasts. Will Robinson of Roswell, was temporary chairman and W. L. Bishop of Artesia, secretary. Later the following permanent officers and committees were chosen:

President, W. M. Atkinson, Roswell.

Secretary, R. M. Thorne, Carlsbad.

Committee:

Roswell, W. M. Atkinson. Dexter, P. D. Langley. Hagerman, C. M. Majors. Artesia, S. W. Gilbert. Dayton, Dr. M. B. Culpepper. Lakewood, B. F. Pearman. Carlsbad, R. M. Thorne. Otis, W. W. Galton. Loving, P. J. McShane. Malaga, J. Hill Myers. Plains country Joseph Graham.

The object of this organization is to complete the first-class dirt highway started from Roswell to Malaga. Considerable work has been done along this line, but much yet remains to be accomplished. The great importance of such a dirt road cannot be overestimated. It would enable the easy and rapid communication between all the towns in Pecos Valley from Roswell to Malaga the lower edge of Eddy county, as well as save the farmers much in transporting products.

Others who went from Eddy county are W. P. Lucas, road overseer of the first district; J. T. Patrick, of Artesia, overseer of the second district and G. E. Foster and Tom Middleton both of the third district, the latter representing the mountains, also E. C. Higginbotham, of Artesia, R. M. Thorne, of Carlsbad, and H. M. Chilcoat, of Loving. All of the above named delegates were appointed by the board of county commissioners while in session this week.

It is to be trusted that the people all along the route will become actively interested in this movement.

Florence Love, of Lovington, who has recently announced for representative, was in Artesia Saturday and Sunday and went to Dayton, Lakewood and Carlsbad, on his return home from here. He expected to put in the remainder of the week on the Plains where he is well known, but thinks this visit due his friends and neighbors in that section of the county. Mr. Love made a favorable impression with those people of this section who had not heretofore met him. To all the old-timers he is well known.

Building A Low Water Bridge.

The Pecos River Irrigation & Land Co., better known as the Smith & Hanger Co., has begun active work on a low water bridge across the Pecos River to the north of here. This bridge, being rushed to completion, will save three or four miles between here and that ranch and other places adjacent. The bridge is a private undertaking by this company, but will kindly be open to public use. Smith and Hanger Co., has 3,000 acres of irrigated land, 1,000 acres of which is in alfalfa. This bridge will save many miles and give a much better road both to the company and to the public. A public-spirited deal.

BIG RECEPTION FOR McDONALD

Thousands Cheer Him at Roswell and he Makes a Good Speech.

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 7.—One of the most remarkable demonstrations for a man in public life in the history of the Pecos Valley occurred here this evening when Capt. W. C. McDonald of Carrizzo, democratic candidate for governor of New Mexico, stepped from the train. Three thousand people, including the many visitors gathered to attend the Roswell Produce exposition joined in a chorus of deafening acclamation for the nominee, the applause being redoubled after a short speech in which the candidate thanked the citizens for their cordial reception.

The band then struck up a lively air and Mr. McDonald proceeded to his hotel. His reception was a remarkable spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm and was significant of the strength the candidate will poll in the Pecos Valley counties. Mr. McDonald made another speech tonight as the concluding feature of the big exposition which has proven more successful than expected and attended by thousands of people.

Baptist Convention Changed.

Dr. E. T. Dunaway of this place, received a telegram Tuesday morning from Secretary Alldredge, of Portales, that at the request of three church associations, the Baptist convention place of meeting on Nov. 9th, had been changed from Artesia to Clovis. There are several things necessitating this, the most important being the recent illness of Rev. A. E. Boyd the pastor of the Baptist church here.

LYNCH MURDER CASE

Trial Called at Carsbad Monday and Both Sides Announce to be Ready for Trial.

Upon his own motion, Judge Pope declined to preside at the trial of Jas. O. Lynch, transferred from Chaves county, on the charge of murdering City Marshal Roy Woofter.

Judge Clarence J. Roberts, of Raton, is the special trial judge.

The prosecution and defense announced ready for trial. Both sides are represented by able legal talent. The regular jury venire was soon exhausted and a special venire called for.

Newspaper correspondents from a number of places are present and the case is attracting considerable attention, even outside of New Mexico.

Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The New Mexico Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows met Monday morning at Roswell, in its 7th annual session. There were 75 members present at the opening and others expected.

The Rebekahs were also represented and holding their sessions in another building.

Mrs. Laura B. Patrick, treasurer of Artesia, and Mrs. Anna Spencer, Mrs. E. Baughman and Miss Ella N. Bauslin, also of this place, were present.

The following officers were elected:

W. M. Twigs, Portales, Grand Master.

L. E. Sherwood, Tucumcari, Deputy Grand Master.

C. C. Hill, Roswell, Grand Warden.

N. E. Stevens, Albuquerque, Grand Secretary.

T. M. Elwood, Las Vegas, Grand Treasurer.

Frank Talmage jr. Greenfield, Representative to Sovereign Grand Lodge.

N. E. Stevens, Albuquerque, Trustee on Home Board for five years.

The lodge also gave the Grand Lodge degree to a class of 29.

The New Mexico Assembly elected the following officers:

Mrs. Anna Emmet, Roswell, president.

Mrs. W. E. Wheeler, Tucumcari, vice president.

Mrs. Leonidas E. Sherwood, Tucumcari, secretary.

Mrs. John C. Spears, Gallup, warden.

Mrs. Laura B. Patrick, Artesia, treasurer.

The Advocate is authorized to announce R. F. Love, of Lovington, as a candidate for Representative in the lower house of the New Mexico Legislature from Eddy county, subject to action of the Democratic primary.

The Lakewood Progress has the job of printing the county democratic tickets. In the hands of Bro. Wood, the work will be properly done and everybody feel satisfied that no advantage will be taken for anyone.

The Progressives met in convention Tuesday at Carlsbad, but too late to get the result. Boss Dooley told us he had numerous names for the different positions and especially the Plains country had plenty of material to form a ticket. Go ahead boys, it is lots of fun and will not hurt anybody.

Eddy county secured a place on the republican state ticket by the selection of Mr. Groves, of Carlsbad, and also on the democratic state by Mr. John Emerson of Plains country, being chosen for commissioner of public lands. The latter was somewhat a surprise to Eddy county democrats, but it is all right, we guess. Take what we can get and ask no questions.

Florence Love for Representative.

Mr. Florence Love announces this week for representative in the legislature, from Eddy county.

Mr. Love was born in Palo Pinto county, Texas, in 1870, and came to Eddy county, New Mexico, twenty-one years ago and has watched the progress of Eddy county and the Plains portion especially grow from a buffalo range without an organized precinct to the populous and prosperous section it is today.

He was first engaged in handling stock of all kinds but of late years has been a homesteader, dry farmer and merchant in Lovington.

It required much solicitation on the part of his friends to induce him to come out for representative but owing to the fact that it appeared to be the consensus of opinion that some experienced man with a knowledge of all conditions represent the Plains as well as all other parts, he consented to the use of his name. His record as a democrat has been unsullied, having led the fight for the principles of democracy in his section for many years.

The town of Lovington was named in his honor and the citizens have never had cause to regret their choice for his life is an open book being the same at all times—a consistent friend and good neighbor.—Carlsbad Current.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

Eddy County is Recognized by the Selection of John Emerson for Public Land Commissioner.

The Democrats recognized the insurgent Republicans by giving them two places on their ticket, G. H. Van Stone, of Estancia, for corporation commissioner, and R. H. Hanna, of Albuquerque, for member of the Supreme court. All of the nominations were made by acclamation, there being no contest for any of the offices when it reached the time to take the vote. In two instances other men besides those elected were proposed for the office but in both cases they withdrew before the vote was taken.

The convention was harmonious throughout and all parties left feeling good over the result.

Governor—W. C. McDonald, Carrizozo.

Lieutenant Governor—E. C. De Baca, San Miguel county.

Secretary of State—Antonio Lucero, Las Vegas.

Attorney General—Wm. R. McGill, Portales.

Santa Fe was selected by the Democratic State Central Committee as permanent headquarters for the campaign and offices will be opened on the side of the Plaza opposite the Republican state headquarters. National Committeeman A. A. Jones, of Las Vegas, was chosen state chairman. An executive committee of four to be at Santa Fe during the campaign was selected as follows;

Arthur Seligman of Santa Fe, Granville A. Richardson of Roswell, Issac Barth of Albuquerque, and William B. Walton of Silver City.

The Republican committee issued a statement that the Republican party desires to keep the judiciary out of politics and will not permit the Republican candidates for the Supreme bench to go out on the stump.

FACING AN INDUSTRIAL CRISIS

Chicago Professor Believes Revolutionary Movement is Manifesting Itself.

Chicago, Ill.—Employers of labor in the United States are facing the most serious situation that has ever confronted capital. A movement among the masses more revolutionary than anything seen in the closing years of the eighteenth century is manifesting itself now, and will come to a crisis within five years.

"Either employers must support trade unions under conservative leadership or face an industrial form of organization under the leadership of radical Socialists. Strikes no longer will be confined to single crafts but will be general, affecting an entire industry."

Such were the predictions made by Prof. Graham Taylor in speaking on the British railway strike and its revolutionary bearings.

Dr. Taylor returned a few days ago from an extended tour through Great Britain and the continent of Europe, during which he made a special study of social conditions and the recent uprisings of the workers in Great Britain, France and Spain.

According to Dr. Taylor, the economic pressure on the masses is not so acute here as in Europe, because wages have more nearly kept pace with the increased cost of living and with the universal demand of labor for a larger share of the wealth it creates, but the pressure is here, and the tendency of labor to unite on industrial instead of on craft lines is seen in the present strike of railroad shop employes. The franchise enjoyed by the workers in this country also forms a safety valve, in the opinion of Dr. Taylor, which the European workers do not possess in such full degree.

"The peaceful situation on the British railroads is nothing but an armed truce," said Dr. Taylor. "It is liable to burst forth at any time. The recent strike opened the eyes as well as the eyes of the statesmen. No one expected that the workers' at a moment's notice would paralyze trade, but that is what they did."

Improved and Unimproved Irrigated Farms in the Famous Pecos Valley of New Mexico

ARTESIA, - - - NEW MEXICO

This region of substantial wealth is located along the Pecos River which flows through the central part of Eddy county, New Mexico. From the Pecos river toward the west the land rises rapidly from 3100 feet to the Gaudaloupe mountain range where it reaches an altitude of 9500 feet. Toward the east from the Pecos broad rolling prairies merge into the plains of West Texas. The size of Eddy county is 5,500 square miles but only a small portion of this area is adjacent to the river and therefore capable of being irrigated.

Every crop that has been tried upon irrigated land in Eddy county has proven successful and the variety of money producers are so many that the farmer may choose what suits his tastes; this marked advantage over places where a mishap to the staple crop forces the land to lie idle until next season.

BALL GAME SATURDAY.

The High School team lost the game at Roswell by not being able to swat the pill. Roswell made seven errors to Artesia's three. This proves to us that Artesia had them out-classed in fielding. The team is practicing this week for the game to be played here Saturday between the Roswell High School and Artesia High School. The practice is mainly batting. The school children will be given reduced rates to the game and the boys expect a large attendance.

LARGE ENROLLMENT.

Each week finds our enrollment larger than the week before, and the prospects for this year are the best we have ever had. We are now second in enrollment of the High School departments of the towns of Eastern New Mexico.—Roswell alone surpasses us. In percentage of entire enrollment in the High School Artesia leads the towns of the new state by a handsome majority.

IMPERIAL CONCERT.

One of the best entertainments on the road will be here this week when the Imperial Concert Party will give their entertainment at the Baptist church. This is the first of the regular Lyceum course to be given this winter. It is to be hoped that the people will turn out and greet them with a full house. All holders of season tickets will be given reserved seats free. Season tickets sell for $2.00 each.

LOST AT BALL.

Our team who went to Roswell to defend our claims to playing base-ball returned Saturday night but without the laurels of victory. It seems that Artesia had won so many things there it would have been a pity to take it all. Anyway we never took the prize at playing ball, the score went to Roswell at the tune of 7 to 2.

TURNER ART EXHIBIT.

The famous Horace K. Turner Art Exhibit will be here some time during the last week of this month. This exhibit contains over two hundred famous pictures and paintings of the greatest of the world's masters, worth several thousand dollars. A small admission will be charged and the whole amount raised will be spent for pictures for the school rooms of the different school buildings.

A Lamb to the Slaughter.

[Albuquerque Journal, Sept. 30th.]

Deaf and blind to all considerations of prudence and utterly ignoring the public sentiment of the state of New Mexico, the republican state convention nominated for governor a man absolutely typical of the men who have so long and to the shame of New Mexico ruled the territory for their own selfish interests.

The republican state convention has nominated a man who is doomed to defeat from the first. It has named a candidate identified for many years with the forces of plunder in New Mexico. It has named a man whose record will not bear the light; a man whose defense—and it will be a defensive campaign from the start—must be half hearted and insincere from even his most ardent advocates. It has headed the ticket with the weakest candidate it could find in the republican party; a man who will enlist only the support of the haltered adherents of the machine; a man who can by no hook nor crook get the vote of the thinking, independent citizens of New Mexico, and a man whose nomination is the biggest possible boost for the democratic opposition.

The convention did this de-

Its candidate for governor will be crushingly defeated; and only by so doing can the people of New Mexico demonstrate that fitness for statehood which they have so urgently claimed for many years. H. H. O. Bursum will be ignominiously defeated; and his defeat will carry with it whatsoever clean men may be added to the ticket to give it respectability.
