Mayor M. H. Ferriman, in behalf of the town of Artesia, accepted the flagpole and thanked the members of Clarence Kepple Post, Number 41, American Legion, for their gift to the city. He stated in a few brief words the meaning of the Flag to the citizens of America and its significance in the late World War. He expressed the hope that the day would never arrive when the Stars and Stripes would not wave over our fair city. Green Olive Relish

The recipes of dietitians who co compose novel foods are in g demand, for every hostess deligning in placing an unusual dish before her guests. Here is one of t' most tasteful relishes of the 19? compositions. The saltiness of the green olives blends with the cab bage, celery and beets in a manner that can be appreciated only by sampling:

One cup stoned Spanish green olives (chopped), one cup chopped young cabbage, one-half cup celery cut in rings, one-half cup finely diced cold boiled beets, one-half cup French dressing, one-quarter cup sugar, one tablespoonful mixed salt. pepper and paprika. Mix these ingredients, chill, and serve with meat course. This relish may be prepared in twenty minutes and will serve seven or eight.

Will do plain sewing at home at reasonable prices.

BIG SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF THE TOWN UNIT IN ONE BIG SOCIAL EVENT. HUNDREDS .

Crowded out last week

Tuesday, May 23, was a banner day to the children who are members of the various Sunday Schools of Artesia. The officers of the different churches arranged a big union picnic for the benefit of the youngsters, at the grove of trees at to hold said claim having been filed of town. A big city truck with the Field's farm, three miles south two trailers left Artesia about nine o'clock loaded to their capacity with boys and girls, men and women, of all sizes and classes. "Chauffer" Advertiser. Bradshaw proved to be an excellent driver and arrived at the scene of the days activities without any mishap or hardly a good shake-up. The gang began to descend from the top of the trucks and scattered all over several acres of shady playgound. Hundreds had already arrived in automobiles and many more would come and go during the day.

Another truck was secured to carry many gallons of ice cream, several cases of soda pop and other refreshments, which were sold in ord er to defray the expenses of the All children under sixteen years of age were given two tickets, valued at ten cents in purchasing value. Eldredge Soloman and Tom Whitted were the "chief salesmen" with beautiful and facinating young ladies as assistants.

A relay team composed of Misses Olivia Hawkins, Nfla Wingfield, Ethel Bullock, and Loretta Linell ran a race with a two member team composed of C. O. Brown and Luther Caraway. The decision of the judges was so close that the crowd was divided concerning the winner. Both sides decided that they won. A big snake also caused much excitement. Small boys were carry-ing the snake, which was dead, about through the crowd. Some of the girls and women would scream and start up the trees in great crowds.

Before the sun had hid it's face behind the western horizon, trucks were again loaded and the homeward journey began. Altho tired, the youngsters did not cease their merry-making until they had arrived at their homes.

The young people remained at the picnic grounds, until about six o'clock. They then loaded in cars and on a large truck and journeyed to the Penasco river bed. A large supply of "grub" had been secured at the picnic, which was devoured by this group of about seventy young people. A huge bonfire was built, under ward journey be made before sunrise, so the gang headed for Artesia and their place of rest and quiet.
