

PLATFORM WILL BE CARRIED OUT HINKLE STATES

Democratic Governor-Elect Is Honored by All Roswell and Many Visitors from Eastern New Mex.

(Special to The Journal.)

Roswell, Nov. 11.—All Roswell and many visitors from eastern New Mexico paid honor to James F. Hinkle, governor-elect, tonight. It was scheduled as a democratic celebration over the election of Mr. Hinkle, but many republicans joined with the democrats in paying honor to him. A torchlight parade with red fire and plenty of noise started the festivities and they ended on the court house lawn with a very brief address by Mr. Hinkle. He was introduced as the only citizen from Roswell ever elected to a state office in New Mexico on the democratic ticket.

"My friends in Roswell: I appreciate this tribute more than words can tell," said Mr. Hinkle. "I am told that I am the only democrat elected to state office from the Pecos Valley, which, with Mr. Bratton, I guess is true. However, I do not take to myself this glory. It belongs to you people. It was not for that the people voted. Success came because of the platform adopted by the democratic convention in Albuquerque—a platform promising government. And when I got to Fe I shall do everything in my power to carry out that platform and give the state good government."

NEW LOCATION MADE IN THE TOYAH OIL FIELD

Toyah, Tex., Nov. 9.—The Burchard No. 1, located in the northeast corner of section 45 of school block 58, Reeves county, Texas, will be spudded in on next Monday by the Tatum Lease Spudicate. Machinery is being moved and there will be a delay. This location is meant for a direct test of the oil locating magnet of C. H. Willoughby he having made this location in the midst of three dry holes—the Stanton well, a duster, 770 feet north; Bisby 1900 feet northwest; Powell well 1805 feet southwest, all dry holes. In the well just completed by the Tatum Lease Syndicate, before it had reached the depth where oil is found in the field Mr. Willoughby tested it with this magnet and predicted a dry hole and it proved to be so. He has now selected the new location as a further test and promises production and the writer will make reports from time to time on this location.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS LOW SCHOOL SECOND TEAM

The lower grade lads played an excellent brand of ball, with Turknott, Stevenson, Conner, Adams and House scintillating. F. Henderson, Foemster and Pollard were the stellar performers for the high school seconds. The teams will meet again soon.

The lineups—Grammar School: Stevenson, l. e.; L. Burrows, l. t.; M. Burrows, l. g.; Turknott, c.; Owens, r. g.; Wingfield, r. t.; Jonas, r. e.; Conner, quarter; Adams, r. h. b.; House, l. h. b.; Burns, full.

Jimmy Page White spent the week end visiting friends at Hope.

HAY SEASON OVER

The last crop of Alfalfa has been baled and the hay season has been closed, according to reports brought to the town by leading alfalfa farmers. The last man to cut a crop of hay in the vicinity of Artesia was Clint Rice, who finished the baling of his last crop of alfalfa on Armistice day. The balers finished the crop and pulled their machine to the winter shed on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Rice has hauled his hay into the barns on the first of the week. Farmers and hay balers have been working for several weeks with overcoats and sweaters on.

An excellent price is now being received for the product. Twenty-five dollars per ton is being paid at this time for good hay and many believe that the price will soar toward forty dollars during the winter months. Several hundred tons were stored in large barns during the summer. However, the supply is below normal at this season of the year. The market was excellent during the summer months and many farmers sold their crops from the field, hauling it direct to the cars for shipment.

MANY TO ROSWELL ON LAST SATURDAY

An unusually large number of Artesia people motored to Roswell on last Saturday to witness the football game between Roswell and Artesia high schools and to be present at the Armistice day program at that place. The program culminated in a big American Legion dance at the Armory, following a big torch parade and celebration by the people of Roswell over the election of James Hinkle as governor. Among those who were in Roswell were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seales, Mrs. Una Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pearson, Misses Viola Pearson, Irene Gaze, Olivia Hawkins, Elizabeth Soloman, Beatrice Davis, Wanda Pierson, Josephine Parker, Esther LaDue, Bess Ward, Lucile Ward, Gladys Yeager, Alma Norton, Bertha Shattuck, Beatrice Bergan, and Hirma Welsh and Messrs. Floyd Shattuck, Lowell Naylor, Craig Baker, Keith Hoffman, Johnny Williams, Luther Rideout, Carl Manda, Myron Brunning, George Flanders, Kenneth Funk-Henry Davis, Fred Cole, Paul James, Henry Davis, Fred Cole, John Richards, Frank Adams, O. K. Evans, Ralph Reed, Chaucey Yeager, Edward Welsh, Tom Bullock, Hugh DeAutremont, Ralph Davis, Lydia House, Garland Rideout, Elwood Kaiser, George Williams, Baxter Pollard, Bill Meadows, Robert Ohnemus, Guy Stevenson, Everett Long, Clovis Lattion, Robert Bruce, Judge Ferree and many others.

P. T. A. MEETING AT GRAMMAR SCHOOL ON MONDAY

A regular meeting and program was conducted by the Parent-Teachers Association at the Grammar school building on Monday afternoon at 3:30. A large number of the members were present at this meeting, with Mrs. B. A. Bishop, president of the organization, presiding. Several important business matters were discussed, including the sending of a delegate to the State P. T. A. meeting at Albuquerque.

After the business session, Miss Lucile Jones, head of the music department, addressed the audience concerning the relation of music to the other subjects, found in the curriculum of the local schools, and the value of music in the schools. After her address, Miss Jones conducted a class, composed of girls from the Grammar school building to show the value of the victrola in the class room. This part of the program was of unusual interest. Music, representing the class of music peculiar to Switzerland, was used in this demonstration.

The girls' glee club from the Grammar school, under the supervision of Miss Jones, rendered several selections, which were very pleasing to the members of the P. T. A.

The organization decided to conduct a cooked food sale in the near future in order to purchase further equipment for the music department.

Rev. A. Eller of Carlsbad, rector of the Episcopal church here, held services at St. Johns church here Sunday evening.

Our man was elected, was yours?
The loudest talkers before election usually sink deep into a political coma after election and nothing rouses them from this quiescent state until the guns begin booming the next war of words, a modern political campaign. We intend to read the editorials in our dailies and magazines and thus keep well informed as to the issues of the day. We hope by this effort to be able to cast an intelligent vote. By the way, where are our paper's editorials? We would rather read some of the editor's opinions or something that an Artesia man or woman writes than to read dry clippings from another paper.

Lewis Rowland and family of Lakewood left this week by auto for their new home in Arkansas.

Born, Nov. 7th, to William Gavin and wife of Cottonwood, a baby girl.

Mrs. William Schneider, of Atoka received the sad news of the death of her mother at the family home near Los Angeles, California.

The local Mexicans entertained their neighbors and the railroad workers at the empty house west of Spring Lake, Saturday evening, Nov. 4th. Judging from the duration of the party, a good time was enjoyed. We have heard a great deal of talk about oil in the Artesia wells, and about the mineral properties of Artesia water, but we did not know that the water of the big well at this place was intoxicating. Since New Mexico is a prohibition state and her laws are so rigidly enforced, we conclude that nothing stronger than water can be served at a party and that drinking an unusual quantity was the cause of the general loss of equilibrium. Some Americans visited the rendezvous, we are told, and after partaking of the peculiar water, their conduct furnished irrefutable evidence of its stimulating effect.

Mrs. Buel and Family of Cottonwood are enjoying a visit from Mr. Buel's brother and his son, from Iowa. He visitors appreciate the balmy breezes of New Mexico, after Iowa's cold and snow and are very favorably impressed with farming conditions here.

A community sale was held at Lakewood Saturday, November 11th. The hotel building at that place has been purchased by an eastern capitalist. Lake McMillan may become a popular resort.

Mrs. George Winans of Alfordale left Wednesday evening for her annual pilgrimage to the Fountain of Youth at Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. Winans will keep Bachelor's Hall at their beautiful home which is considered one of the show places of the Valley.

Two Negroes had paused for a friendly chat, when they perceived on the opposite side of the street, a flamboyantly buxom negro woman who was striding along with an air of proud superiority, obviously conscious of the attention her charms were attracting. "Jim who an dat youah pigeon over yondah, holdin' hufsef so puhfubherunt?" asked Sam. "Well, sah, dat am Miss Mandy Johnsoning, fum de city," replied Jim. "Lawd a-massw!" said Sam, "she sho do present hufsef, doant she?" Now that's the way with Spooks. He sho do present his-sef, doant he? We are glad you think so. We never did admire a bump on a log and we have another idea to present. Since we could not have a fair or a carnival to boost our town and country, why not have a booster edition of our paper and as it is so near Christmas, send a few copies along with other presents to the folks back home. Not a prevarication need be made, but the truth about what we can actually produce in the Pecos Valley will be a sufficient boost. Real estate men ought to be in on this and every merchant should carry a worth-while advertisement. Sometimes we are led to wonder at the lack of sagacity of the hide-bound merchant who allows his competitors to occupy his advertising space. Some one should write of our efficient schools and progressive churches. The Library should not be forgotten, neither should the city's light and water plants. The C. A. P. folks, or some other orchard man could write the apple story. Geo. Winans and some Cottonwood farmer could tell alfalfa tales, Paul Terry, Ed Kissinger or John Lanning could tell of the profit in alfalfa seed. W. R. Hornbaker could give the history of the alfalfa association, Mr. Humphrey of Ice and Cold Storage, Higgins Bros. (Big or Little Hig.) could tell about raising cotton and Mr. Larsh about ginning. There could be tomato, sweet potato, peanut, pop-corn and corn stories. The ladies' province in garden, poultry and flowers and women are always better writers (and talkers) than men. Are there no social or educational clubs in and around Artesia? Since the Woman's Club as a good thing why be so stingy with it? Why not note on the best paper read at your next meeting and send it to the Advocate? Now, should this booster edition not materialize, why not write these things anyway, along with the local news and give our editor the surprise of his life. Let us wake up and double the size and interest of our paper. Preachers, do you ever have a decided idea about anything except the text of your Sunday sermons? Let's hear it. Why wait for oil to make things hum in our little town? Oh, my! We could almost wish for a revival meeting! Now we hear someone saying, that if everyone were like Spooks, things would soon be run into the ground. You'll have to excuse poor old Spooks. The old man is almost in his dotage and his home newspaper means a great deal to him. They say fools rush in where angels fear to tread and Spooks being a fearless old person, actually has the temerity to try to stir long stagnant depths.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE GIVE SPECIAL PROGRAM

The Baptist Young Peoples Union conducted the services at the First Baptist church on Sunday evening, in the absence of Rev. W. C. Taggart, pastor of the church. The three organizations arranged a program for this service. Rev. Taggart was at Tucumcari, New Mexico, where he was attending the state Baptist convention.

Fred Cole presided at this special meeting. The Junior B. Y. P. U. under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Taggart rendered the first part of the program. Jenna Beth Bishop was the leader and proved to be an interesting speaker. After a song by the organization, short talks were made by Mary Taggart, Carmen Brown, Harold Holmes, LaRue Mann, and William Taggart. These young people are all under twelve years of age.

The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. rendered the next section of the program. A song by the members of the class was followed by short talks by Miss Helen Mann, president of the organization, Miss Alberta Bowman and Norman Bullock. The topics concerned various phases of the life of Christ.

The last division of the program was rendered by the members of the Senior B. Y. P. U. Miss Zanaida Mann presided over this part of the program. After the scripture reading by Miss Lois Burns, Mrs. Deaton Recer sang a special solo, with Miss Lucile James as accompanist. The meaning of the Church and other functions and duties of the church were discussed by Misses Zanaida Mann, Nola Naylor and Alice Baber and Fred Cole. Miss Elizabeth Soloman was at the piano during the opening exercises and also played for the special songs by the unions. A large audience was present.

SUGGESTS THIRD PARTY BE FORMED

New York, Nov. 11.—A third party to be composed of farmers and manufacturers and to be headed by Bernard M. Baruch, who served as chairman of the war industries board under former President Wilson was proposed in an address by Col. Robert M. Montgomery at the reunion of the war industries board association today.

Colonel Montgomery, who was assigned to the board by the war department and also was active in the reorganization of the United States shipping board after the war, told how he had summarily discharged 1,600 employees, or one-half of the total staff of one department of the shipping board at the outset of President Harding's administration.

"Senators and representatives were so busy for months afterwards calling on the shipping board trying to get $1,200 a year clerks reinstated, instead of being up at the capital enacting constructive legislation, that I believe it accounts for the reverse suffered by the Republican party in the recent election," Colonel Montgomery said.

Colonel Montgomery explained that he was a Republican who believed in the need for a third party. He suggested that the manufacturers and the farmers form an alliance and that it be propagated by Bernard M. Baruch who, he said, was the most logical candidate to head it.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club held an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the library. The program was in charge of Mesdames Walter Graham and Gale Hamilton.

The subject for the study was "Alice Adams," thousand dollar prize story by Booth Tarkington. The report by Mrs. Mark Corbin, 3rd vice president, who attended the State Federation meeting at Albuquerque, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be on "Art," at the home of Mrs. M. H. Ferriman.

This road will connect the Pecos Valley with a fine road from Pecos to Roswell and on to Clovis.

MISSION SOCIAL

Mrs. Mandas' Bible Class of the First Christian church, entertained the Mexican Mission at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Benz, Tuesday evening of this week. A pleasing program consisting of readings by Mrs. Benz and daughter, Opal, and others and vocal and instrumental music by the Mexican orchestra and Boys' Quartet, supplemented by a refreshing luncheon of hot tamales, cake, cocoa and coffee constituted an enjoyable mission social never to be forgotten by the 77 who were present. Eld. Coffy and Mr. Benz have been shepherding this mission for several months and see a bright prospect for a rapid and substantial improvement in the condition of these most appreciative southern people.

Miss Myra Fontaine, of Roswell, was in Artesia during the first of the week, visiting with Miss Ruby Turknott and other relatives.

Dr. E. E. Mathes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached for the Roswell church on last Sunday. The pastor of the Roswell church filled the pulpit at Artesia at both services on Sunday.

WHY?

In nearly all strong Democratic counties of the state Muller the Republican candidate for land commissioner, ran ahead of his ticket. In Eddy county he ran nearly three hundred more than his party candidate on the same ticket; in Lea county his lead was about 125 and other counties over the state in the same proportion. Rather peculiar. Could it be the land office has been run to benefit a certain element in the state in order to gain votes. Surely not in New Mexico (?)

IOWA VOTED RIGHT

The heart of Iowa is in the right place. One of the big issues in the state campaign just past was that of economy of paring expenses, of eliminating useless boards and offices so that the administrative machinery can be cut down to a point where it will function efficiently without being crippled. The voters are manifestly for greater thrift in state affairs. But in face of this widespread belief, they did not count pennies when it came to the project of adjusted compensation for veterans of the World War. According to the official tabulated returns, the proposal carried by the ratio of about three to one. Every county in the state voted in favor of the measure. This is as it should be. Iowa will not neglect its war veterans. Its patriotism is still as high, its heart beats as true as in the days of war's burning emotions. Iowa is for economy in public affairs, but Iowa will not put a padlock on its purse when it comes to a matter of being fair and just and generous with the boys who answered the call when war's alarms sounded. The writer spent two years with the Iowa troops during the World War and at no time has this great state failed to fulfill her promises made when the boys were leaving for the training camps, when dark clouds hung over the nation in 1917-18.

National Commander Alvin Owsley of the American Legion has called upon former service men and their friends and families to assist in making the Sixth Annual Red Cross Roll Call, which begins on Armistice day, a success. In an official appeal issued at Legion headquarters in Indianapolis Owsley says:

"I am happy to heartily endorse the Annual Membership Roll Call of the American Red Cross beginning on Armistice Day. Certainly loyal Americans desire to support this commendable undertaking. The American Red Cross is an American institution and has made good in every emergency. It deserves the loyal and generous support of all true citizens. The Red Cross is known the world over by its good work. I sincerely hope that every legionnaire will do his best to make successful the Membership Roll Call this year. Best wishes for a successful Roll Call."

NEW LEADERSHIP

They tell us that the recent election will result in new leadership. A little further over in the paper we read that the election in Kansas will result in new leadership in the majority party.

Elections have a way of messing up things. You will have observed, for instance, that some of our political leaders (or shall we say past political leaders?) are thoroughly disgusted with the way in which the unthinking multitude went to the polls and registered discontent. If the multitude had been thinking it might have reached a stage of perfect contentment with conditions as they were. In the nation, contentment with the giving away of the nation's wealth to big shipping corporations, the cutting down of Mellon's and Morgan's income taxes, the talk of a sales tax to boost the cost of living. In Kansas, contentment with restriction or abolition of freedom of speech, of assembly and of the press; contentment with high taxes and military rule.

But the multitudes neglected to think. If just became angry and went out and voted for a change. And they tell us we are to have a change in leadership.

To change anything requires effort and some exertion and not a little fuss. It's much more comfortable to change nothing. But since there must be change, we cannot think of any field more worthy of the efforts of the changers than the field of American political leadership.—Wichita Eagle.

Washington, Nov. 14.—War Savings Stamps of the series of 1918 become due and payable on January 1, 1923. The people who bought these stamps will receive their full face value upon redemption and will find that the money they saved five years ago has earned every year about four per cent, compound interest. In order to afford holders of war savings stamps an opportunity to continue their investment in a safe government security the Treasury Department is offering an exchange of War Savings Stamps for Treasury Savings Certificates. The certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000, maturity value, and sold for $20.50, $82, and $820, respectively. Holders of War Savings Stamps can get them at these prices upon application through their own banks or their post offices. Exchange will be made as of January 1, 1923, upon applications presented between November 15, 1922, and January 15, 1923. Immediate payment will be made in cash of any difference due the holder of War Savings Stamps if he takes the largest possible amount of Treasury Savings Certificates on the exchange.

The growing inclination of the people to save and their desire to find a safe reinvestment for their money leads the Treasury officials to believe that a large part of the six hundred million dollars in War Savings Stamps soon to become due will be exchanged for Treasury Savings Certificates.

Dunkirk N. Y., Nov. 11.—Orders for 53 locomotives have been assigned to the Brook plant of the American Locomotive company, it became known today. The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific will get ten freight and thirty passenger engines; the Western Pacific six freight engines; the Montour railroad four engines and the Toledo Terminal line, two freight engines and one switch engine.

JUNIOR RED CROSS MAKES GOOD CITIZENS

Through It Children Learn Patriotism, Altruism and Generosity.

The Junior Red Cross exists for the purpose of making good American citizens. This statement was made by an eminent authority in a recent answer to the question, "What Is the Junior Red Cross?" In the United States there are 5,000,000 members of Junior Red Crosses and in the Southwestern Division the membership of children in this organization numbers 484,576 and here is some of the work these children do.

They support work in Europe to children who are in need. They send Christmas boxes of goodies to children who do not have them. They make shipments of garments abroad to the destitute children of war-crippled Europe. But this is not as interesting to Americans, perhaps, as the work which the Juniors do at home. One of the biggest problems in America today, according to experts, is the tremendous amount of malnutrition found among the children of this country. One-third of the children of America are malnourished, according to actual counts. The Junior Red Cross, through its school auxiliaries and growth classes, is seeking to eliminate a large part of this malnutrition and has succeeded to a very gratifying extent.

The Junior Red Cross also is answering the question of how to eliminate individual, group, racial and international hatreds which exist among people today. The polyglot character of the personnel of the average American school gives an excellent field for work of this kind and foreign children, as well as native-born Americans, learn what good citizenship is in their Junior Red Cross activities even more than they do in the patriotic exercises of their school room work. Loyal and serviceable citizenship, that absolute essential to a great democracy, is being created in the breasts of these little foreign-born Americans through the Junior Red Cross activities as it never could be otherwise.

One of the helps to this is the work the children are doing for the disabled ex-service men in hospitals, for the sick and crippled children who need help and cheer, in equipping playgrounds so that sad-eyed little children of the congested districts are taught the joy of a normal childhood. By learning to serve others in these and many other ways, lessons of community spirit and co-operation are taught the growing boys and girls of this country.

Another thing the Juniors are doing is assisting in the promotion of health in their communities by clean-up campaigns and other civil undertakings. On the whole, one of the most constructive pieces of work done in the Southwestern Division, American Red Cross, during the year, in the opinion of those who have studied the situation, is that among the children, which has been carried on through the Junior divisions of Red Cross chapters and the school auxiliaries of Junior members.

NURSE IN SOUTHWEST DIVISION COVERS BIG TERRITORY

Miss Mary Fitzsimon, Washington County (Arkansas) Red Cross nurse, is in charge of one of the largest territories covered by one individual in this capacity in the Southwestern Division. Ten towns are in her district and her work covers all kinds of ailments and illnesses, serious and simple, as well as general sanitation and health information.

The well people of one neighborhood in Washington County are particularly indebted to Miss Fitzsimon for having discovered a contaminated water supply which might have caused the illness of the entire community.

In cases where contaminated water supplies were not discovered in time, Miss Fitzsimon has been able to offer an anti-typhoid inoculation which has been so successful in the army as a means of stamping out this disease.

A group of trachoma cases discovered in July by accident is being successfully treated. The mother of this family already had lost her sight, but the other members probably will be not much the worse after the treatment is finished.

A number of ex-service men who have not received their compensation and other disabled soldiers who wanted assistance or vocational training also were cared for during the summer and spring.

Miss Laura Spence and Mr. Roy Vermillion were married at Roswell on Tuesday morning. Rev. Hill, pastor of the Christian church of Roswell performed the ceremony. The young couple returned to Artesia but left in a few days for Crosbyton, Texas where they will make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Spence of the Cottonwood country near Lake Arthur. She has been attending the Artesia high school and was a popular member of the junior class. Mr. Vermillion is a brother of Will Vermillion, well known stockman of Lake Arthur.

Befitting Monday, November 20, all orders received after 4:30 p. m. will not be delivered until the next morning. City Market.

The county health nurse was in Artesia on Tuesday and visited the public schools.

COLD WEATHER.

The coldest weather recorded this winter has been recorded the past week. The nights are exceedingly cold, but the days are very comfortable. The valley has not been visited by any snow or rain, as has the other western states. A two foot snow has been reported in Colorado, while a temperature of six below zero was registered in Wyoming. Every thing has the appearance of winter, with practically all the leaves on the ground and the trees bare. No water pipes or hydrants have busted, although many have been frozen.

Here in Roosevelt county where the hail and drouth and the cattle slump has caused havoc, there has been turned into circulation from broomcorn about $250,000. This crop is as sure as anything that can be planted here, and with the regular money crops of the county. With improved seed and the best farming that you can give this crop should produce at least a quarter ton to the acre. The stalks are a fine thing to leave on the field and will renew the soil. While a good acreage of cotton will be planted, broomcorn is here to stay. Portales News.

Kansas City, Nov. 11.—The lead of Jonathan M. Davis, democrat, over W. Y. Morgan, republican, in the Kansas gubernatorial race, was decreased slightly today when belated returns were received from Tuesday's election. With all but 91 precincts complete out of 2,536 in the state, Davis' plurality was 18,889. The vote gave Davis 260,869, and Morgan 241,980. The returns represent 92 counties complete out of 105 in the state.

Without a dissenting vote the good roads mass meeting assembled at the court house Monday night adopted the recommendation of the steering committee in charge of collecting data looking to the improvement of Donley county roads. The committee recommended that a bond issue of $250,000 be voted by the county to finance the surfacing of the roads with a semi-permanent gravel construction. — Clarendon News.

TUCUMCARI TO HAVE GIN
Tucumcari.—The big cotton gin at San Jon which has been under construction for some time, is nearly completed and will be ready to start work in the next two weeks. The corporation is capitalized at $5,000 and the gin, when completed will be one of the most modern plants in the state. There are now about twenty-five bales of cotton in the yards and it is thought that the crop in this part of the state will keep the plant busy until the last of the year.

LIFE-SAVING CAMPAIGN IN SOUTHWEST DIVISION

American Red Cross Organized and Trained Many Corps in This Section Last Summer.

More than 34 chapters have been visited during the months of May, June and July by Captain Norbert E. Raacke, first aid and life saving representative of the Southwestern Division. While visiting these various chapters, Capt. Raacke gave first aid demonstrations before Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs, as well as life saving demonstrations and instructions at Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and many outdoor pools and lakes. At the majority of the pools and lakes visited, the Captain has noted particularly that practically little or no life saving precautions are taken. A large lake at Nevada, Mo., is owned by an old Indian, who believes that if a person were drowning someone near at hand would come to the rescue.

Many letters of commendation have been received from chapters visited by Capt. Raacke. Salina, Kan., was particularly well pleased with his demonstrations at the Country Club outdoor pool. The following is an extract from a letter recently sent in by the life saving examiner of that town:

"Capt. Raacke's clever work at the large outdoor pool of the Country Club was watched in breathless silence, only to be broken by wild cheering at his many extraordinary feats of swimming and life saving. Capt. Raacke, to us, is a marvel of efficiency and his crawl stroke is still the talk of the town. He not only has been a great help in the Life Saving Department, but has given even greater interest to the Red Cross in its other lines of work."

There are several well organized life saving corps in the Southwestern Division. Kansas City, Mo., has an excellent women's corps. At the annual banquet, held in May, life saving badges were awarded to more than forty women, service medals to two and the life saving bar to one.

On July 30th the river patrol of the St. Louis Chapter gave an exhibition and races at Lincoln Beach, on the Meramec River. This exhibition was witnessed by probably the largest crowd ever gathered at Lincoln Beach. More than 500 canoes fringed the sand when the first event, the canoe singles race, was announced. Capt. Raacke had charge of the life saving demonstration, showing the various methods of breaking death holds encountered in rescuing a drowning person.

Eight life guards, after his demonstration on the barge, struggled viciously with each other in a practical illustration of life saving tactics. The Galveston, (Texas) Life Saving Corps have frequently exhibited their skill in first aid and life saving. Owing to the prompt and efficient first aid administered by three members of the Galveston Life Saving Corps on June 4th, the life of John D. Wheeler, 25 years old, of Houston, Tex., was saved. Mr. Wheeler was overcome while bathing in shallow water and was found floating in an unconscious condition. The three members of the life saving corps succeeded in reviving Mr. Wheeler through the application of the Schaeffer method of resuscitation. He was taken to the hospital in a very weakened condition. As Mr. Wheeler was found in comparatively shallow water, it is believed his mishap was due to a fainting spell.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL AND CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE ARE DISTINCT
At a joint meeting of the National Committee of the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association, held recently, an agreement with regard to the campaigns conducted annually by each organization, which follows each other only a day apart this year, was reached. The American Red Cross will conduct its Roll Call from November 11th to November 30th. The National Tuberculosis Association will conduct its nation-wide sale of Christmas Seals from December 1st to January 1st.

A statement issued jointly by the two organizations says that undoubtedly the effectiveness of the mutual understanding depends in large measure upon the extent to which the local workers of both organizations adhere to the agreement. Overlapping of effort will be injurious to both causes, the two national organizations believe, and it is of great importance that this idea be thoroughly understood by the local workers in both, according to John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross, and Dr. Alexander Miller, president of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The official statement of the two organizations follows:

1. There is no official connection between the campaign of the National Tuberculosis Association and that of the American Red Cross.
2. There is to be no use of the Red Cross emblem by the National Tuberculosis Association.
3. The title of the American Red Cross is not to be used in the sale of Tuberculosis Seals.
4. The dates of the American Red Cross Roll Call are to be November 11th to November 30th, inclusive; and the National Tuberculosis Association's sale of seals begins December 1st and continues until January 1st.

ALL MAKE MISTAKES

"The editor does not want anyone to send him any more copies of his paper in which they find mistakes." complains a Missouri exchange. "If they find a perfect copy, however, he will pay a big price for it. If the fool critic who hunts for mistakes in newspapers would find them all, he would be kept busy. We will be pleased to buy copies of any paper which can be proven entirely free from errors, either typographical or in statements of fact. We will be pleased to find a merchant who never made a mistake putting up an order; a lawyer who never lost a case through his own errors; a doctor who never wrongly diagnosed a case; a druggist who never made a mistake; a postoffice official who never put mail in the wrong box; a woman who never forgot to put in the salt while cooking or to put tea in the teapot before putting in the water. Bring in some of your mistakeless paragons who find it so easy to criticize the newspapers and we will give them the chance of their lives to find out whether they are really human!"

Last Saturday evening the Democrats of Eddy county, met at the American Legion hall in Hope and explained the trouble with the Independents. After the speaking we had a real warm, exciting debate while the crowd dispersed and several people got politically hot. S. D. Stennis, Jr., Judge Armstrong, F. E. Wilson, Joe Johns and Roy Waller were present and spoke.— Hope Booster.

NEW CO-OPERATIVE COMPANIES

Two new producer-owned and controlled co-operative live stock commission companies were opened on November 1st—one at Buffalo and the other at Fort Worth. This makes six companies operating as units of the National Live Stock Producers Association, set up by the Farm Bureau to improve the marketing of live stock.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Daffron and Mrs. J. S. Everett and two small children picked for J. W. Masten, picking 1350 that day. Mr. Daffron picked 344, Mrs. Daffron 322, Mrs. Everett 329, Mrs. Everett 204, John Everett, Jr., 135. This is, we believe, the best record for cotton picking that we have heard of this year.—Wellington Leader.

Richard Merchant and Buford Pope, two Carlsbad boys who are performing in the big rodeo contest in Madison Square Garden, New York City, under the direction of Tex Austin, write Carlsbad friends that the two boys are doing well in the contests, which are being participated in by ropers and broncho busters from all parts of the United States and Canada. In the published program of the first day's contests, Buford Pope took first prize in calf roping in both afternoon and evening contests, tying his calf in each contest in 28 4-5 seconds. Richard Merchant tied his calf in fifty seconds flat and was given eighth place among the ropers. Richard writes that they are using 350 pound animals from Bramah. He also says that the Carlsbad boys are giving a good account of themselves and having a fine time.—Carlsbad Argus.

WHY NOT PRODUCE THOROUGHBERED COTTON

Every citizen of Roosevelt county has experienced the difference between thoroughbred and grade cotton. There is the same difference between thoroughbred and grade seed, and this fact is demonstrated daily on the cotton market. Why does one bale bring a cent a pound more than the bale on the wagon just ahead of it? The grading according to staple. One variety will produce a better lint and a longer and stronger staple. It pays to grow the best. Let Roosevelt county farmers look into the varieties and plant that which will mature the earliest, and produce the best lint. Let's make Roosevelt county cotton a class which will be in demand by all buyers.—Portales News.

STATE GASOLINE TAX SHOWS INCREASE FOR 1928 OVER YEAR 1927

SANTA FE. — Six million, three hundred and thirty five thousand, four hundred and eighty three gallons, at a tax of five cents per gallon.
 Such was the increase in total sales of gasoline in New Mexico for the year 1928 over the year 1927 as shown in the annual report of Miss Mary Bartolino, head of the gasoline tax collection department.
 The net receipts for 1928 totaled $1,852,036.68 which represents an increase of $419,844.70 over 1927. The 1927 net receipts were $1,432,191.98. The disbursements for the total receipts for 1928 were as follows:
 Credit gasoline tax two per cent fund $37,040.73.
 Credit to the highway debentures sinking fund for retirement of principal and interest on the road debentures $400,500.
 Transfer to the maintenance fund of the state highway department $1,414,495.95.
 Such was the contribution of the five cent gasoline tax and gasoline licenses to New Mexico's highway program during the past year.
 The net receipts during the year were accounted for as follows:
 Current gasoline tax, $1,817,160.68; delinquent gasoline tax and penalties $19,739.68; current retail licenses $5,713.44; delinquent retail licenses $428.23; current distributor's licenses $5,860.75; delinquent distributor's licenses $134.
 The gasoline sales and tax, Miss Bartolina said, showed a substantial increase throughout each month of 1928, and the fact that the increase was general for each month can be accepted as an indication that the year 1929 will eclipse 1928 in about the same degree if not greater than 1928.

STANDARD TRAINING SCHOOL
 The Standard Training School for Christian leaders and workers is to be held at the Artesia Methodist church for five days beginning Monday January 28th.
 Authorization has been received from the general Sunday school board at Nashville, Tennessee. The local plans for the school have met with the rigid requirements of the general board.
 A committee composed of Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. Reed Brainard, Mrs. C. R. Blocker and Mrs. Kinder are busy enrolling students for the school. More than fifty have signified their intentions of taking credit in the school to date. Many more are undecided and will likely enroll between now and the time the school opens.
 Dr. A. L. Moore, presiding elder of the Roswell district and one of the outstanding ministers of the southwest, will be one of the instructors, teaching the course in the Bible its origin and growth.
 Rev. Fred B. Faust of El Paso, the conference superintendent will be the instructor in a Methodist church and its work.
 Mrs. E. A. Paddock of Hagerman will teach the course in the pupil.

Rev. Harold Scoggins pastor of the Artesia Methodist church has been recently approved by the general Sunday school board as an instructor and he will teach evangelism in the Sunday school.
 Rev. Fred B. Faust is expected to be in Artesia on Sunday January 27 at the evening hour.
 This is the first Standard Training School that has been held in Artesia in several years but it is hoped that it will become an annual institution hereafter.
 People of all denominations are invited to attend.

MRS FERRIMAN HONORED

Mrs. M. H. Ferriman was the honoree at a two course one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. M. A. Corbin last Thursday. The luncheon was given by the Episcopal Guild, of which Mrs. Ferriman had been an active member and officer. The presentation of a beautiful silver tray was the inspiration for a pretty ceremony, "chasing the rainbow." The colors of the rainbow were featured in ribbons, which the honor guest was instructed to pull. The last one, yellow in color, brought forth the gift, by which, in conjunction, the Guild expressed its appreciation of and regret at losing this pleasant friend, and devoted member of the organization. Several delightful vocal selections were given by Mrs. Corbin at the request of Mrs. Ferriman, who accompanied her upon the piano. Those present besides the honor guest were Mesdames Welton, Baird, Mary Coll, Saura, Yates, Brooks, Bigler, Corbin, R. D. Compton, Bulot, Gore and Lowry and Miss Addie Coll.

Laughter Puts Joke

on the Fault-Finder

As long as life lasts, we shall find that troublesome, unpleasant person who seems incapable of saying a single word without finding fault. And there's nothing to choose on this point between men and women. Some of the former can be really bad at the game. For, after all, it is a silly game, which may become a menace to our peace of mind. It seems to be an inseparable part of the mind of some folk—this fault-finding. Often it is based on mere nothings. There's one thing these pernickety people don't like. They hate you very badly if you laugh at them. It upsets their rhythm. And most of the fault-finders work to a rhythm. Put them down and they are undone. Of course, says London Chronicle, there are more ways than one of getting at them. You don't need a straight razor. A twinkle of the eye, an amused look, a sly dig, of course, although in the nineteenth century one sometimes—a bit of these methods are still in vogue. The lines of attack are not the same. You can't stand being

BASKETBALL AT LAKE ARTHUR

The Dexter girls basketball team played the Lake Arthur team in the Lake Arthur gymnasium Friday night and won with a score of 49-30. The game was an interesting and fast one and was played by only four of the Dexter's first team with the regular guard, Gladys Lawing, and running center, Doris McVickers, out. One of the girls, Agnes McMains, who was substituting in the guard's place had the misfortune of spraining her ankle in the game and thus, putting one more player out, however, the game was won in spite of all the difficulties and misfortunes. A large number of boosters were on the side line, this being appreciated very much by the team.

The girls and boys High school teams will play Hagerman Friday night, January 18th, at 7:30 in the Hagerman gymnasium.

The Junior boys of Dexter played Lake Arthur Junior boys Friday night, being defeated by one point after playing off a tie. The Dexter boys team played Carlsbad Friday night at the Artesia gymnasium, and were defeated by a score of 34-18. —The Hagerman Messenger

INSIDE INFORMATION

For an attractive and colorful salad place half a large yellow canned peach on lettuce, put a tablespoon of cottage or cream cheese in the center, add a spoonful of mayonnaise, and sprinkle paprika over all.

As soon as a child can do the necessary arithmetic he is old enough to learn to keep a simple account and have a small allowance. He can then be taught to spend wisely and save for what he greatly desires. Training in handling money will be a help to him all his life.

Greenvue cloth and almanac cloth are names given to a strong, durable, cotton material known in the south as osnaburg, which has many uses for household draperies, couch covers, chair slips and other furnishings. It is inexpensive, easily laundered and dyed to match other furnishings, and procurable almost everywhere.

Try this: Place an unopened can of salmon in a saucepan surrounded by boiling water, to heat for 10 minutes. While this is cooking, prepare a boiled salad dressing. When opening a can of fish, place a cloth over most of the can, make a small hole in the top to allow the steam to escape, and cut around the entire edge so that the fish can slide out without breaking, onto a hot platter. Pour the hot dressing over the salmon, sprinkle with finely chopped parsley, and serve at once. Fresh salmon may also be simmered and served in the same way.

Not a chance conception ... but a deliberate plan ...

Chrysler's New Style is Based on Authentic Canons of Classic Beauty

Chrysler engineering has achieved something never done before in motor car design.

It has searched out authentic forms of beauty which have come down the centuries unsurpassed and unchallenged and has translated them in terms of motor car beauty and motor car utility.

The lengths to which Chrysler designers have gone in this patient pursuit of beauty will doubtless prove a revelation to those who have probably accepted Chrysler symmetry and charm as fortunate but more or less accidental conceptions.

The Chrysler process goes far deeper than any charming but fortuitous design.

For, Chrysler has left nothing to chance.

Chrysler has not relied alone upon the inspiration of individual designers.

Chrysler in its newest products—has found that there are many glorious precedents and inspirations in art, architecture and design, that the search for authentic and harmonious symmetry can actually be reduced to something like a scientific system in which results are certain.

New Chrysler "65"—Six body styles priced $1145... New Chrysler "75"—Nine body styles priced $1535 to $2345... New Chrysler Imperial—Four body styles priced from $2675 to $3475. All prices include tax, license, and delivery.

E. FLAT SAYS

er the ... cap ... the Cisco, Texas Daily News of January 8th, prints an article which may be of interest to our readers regarding the horseback journey of D. L. Bull from Artesia to Scranton, Pennsylvania. Mr. Bull left here Christmas day for a 3,700 mile journey on horseback to his former home at Scranton. Mr. Bull is attracting considerable newspaper publicity as he proceeds down the Bankhead highway to his final destination. The Cisco News article follows:

A last and rather faint glimmer of the romantic days of the pony express came through Cisco today with the appearance of D. L. Bull, in a garb simulating the dress of the heroic riders of the frontier, who told the Cisco Daily News that he was riding on a mission of secrecy bearing a sealed letter from the Advocate newspaper office in Artesia, New Mexico, to the editor of the Scranton Times, Scranton, Pennsylvania. The trip, which began at 1 o'clock Christmas day is scheduled to end on July 1st, but Mr. Bull declared that he would reach Scranton within four months.

He left without a cent of money and must get to Scranton, "the best way he can," he said. So far he "can't complain," although he reached Cisco Monday night with less than the nine cents he had in his pocket at the time he reached Abilene Saturday night.

Bull's method of transportation is astride his good horse "Eagle," who appeared to be bearing up well under the trip. The two of them arrived from Baird last night where a newspaper man gave Bull $2.00 and several citizens of the town presented him with a new flannel shirt.

Mize & Son, Cisco feed store, furnished "Eagle" with a meal last night.

Bull, during the trip has his mail addressed "Pony Express Rider."

Preaching is the only opportunity which the majority of men possess of hearing the authorized ministers of religion. Of late years the tendency has been to "pass up" the sermon as something rather dry and uninteresting, or, for other interests which seem to be more pressing. A great English preacher, in speaking of this tendency, said: "I attribute it to the low estate on which the ordinary sermon has fallen."

If he is right, if the preachers of Artesia have fallen under that heading, people cannot be blamed for not listening to sermons. In other words, the Methodist, Baptist, Christian and Presbyterian churches, (not to mention all in this city,) have been unfortunate in their selection of ministers. "They are good fellows, no doubt," some one may say, "but they are simply not worth hearing when they preach."

IF, (and we use the word advisedly, these men are simply incapable of making a sermon in a weeks time; IF they are so mediocre in intelligent conception of the scriptural teachings that they cannot become interesting interpreters of the Word of God to sinners or saints, then they should be immediately discharged from the pulpit ministrations and others brought in who CAN interest people in their message.

We cannot conceive that Artesians feel that way about their preachers. But we will confess that we simply cannot understand the neglect of pulpit ministrations. Each church in the city COULD be crowded to overflowing each Sunday. Ministers are but human after all, and when a great and interested audience appears, there is not the slightest doubt but that these preachers would become inspired. Try it.

FED. GRAND JURY ADJOURNS

The federal grand jury which was empaneled at Roswell Monday with J. E. Robertson as foreman, adjourned Wednesday evening after a three day session. The jury examined seventy six witnesses and investigated forty-eight matters and returned forty-three true bills and four no bills.

After the grand jury reported, several who were indicted plead guilty as charged. Judge Colin Neblett announced Thursday that all of the defendants who plead guilty would be sentenced at a later date.

The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History

- a Six in the price range of the four!

represents 4 years of Development and over a Million miles of Testing

Never has a new motor car come to the public more thoroughly proved in every detail than The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History.

Years ago, the Chevrolet Motor Company designed and built its first experimental six-cylinder motor. This far-sighted step was taken because Chevrolet engineers knew that the six-cylinder motor is inherently the most perfectly balanced motor—the ideal power plant to meet the growing public demand for greater reserve power, faster getaway and, above all—smooth, quiet performance.

During the last four years, over a hundred six-cylinder motors—representing every conceivable type—were built by Chevrolet engineers on the General Motors plant in Flint, Michigan. This constituted one of the greatest series of tests ever conducted with any automobile. From time to time, the experimental models were torn down for inspection, redesigning and further testing—until the present motor was developed and pronounced correct.

While the new six-cylinder motor was in process of development, other Chevrolet engineers were perfecting other parts of the chassis. And another great automotive organization—the Fisher Body Corporation—was devoting its gigantic resources to the creation of the finest, sturdiest and most beautiful bodies ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

As a result, the Outstanding Chevrolet offers an order of well-balanced excellence that is extraordinary in the low-price field. From every standpoint—power, speed, smoothness, acceleration and quietness—its performance is truly amazing. Its handling ease and roadability are exceptional. Its economy of operation is so great that it delivers better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline. And its outstanding beauty, smartness and luxury are exciting widespread admiration.

You owe it to yourself to see and inspect this remarkable car. Come in today!

PROHIBITION SURE PRESENTED THE STATE SENATE

SANTA FE.—The ninth state legislature Tuesday had at least one important bill on the calendar—it was senate bill No. 3—a bill to repeal all previous prohibition laws enacted in New Mexico and set up an entirely new prohibition enforcement code.

The bill was presented yesterday afternoon by Senators Bosscher, Miller, Gonzales, Hutchinson and Hughes.

Senator Hughes said the bill is copied in a large degree from the Kansas statute, and that the measure has plenty of "teeth" and stringent penalties for prohibition violations.

The bill meets the need for legislation to protect the Indians from bootleggers by providing for a sentence of from three to seven years in prison and a fine for sale of liquor to Indians.

It also enables the issuance of a search warrant by a justice of the peace, but it is surrounded, Mr. Hughes said, with sufficient safeguards to prevent an abuse of the privileges of justices of the peace. It requires submission of evidence before issuance of the warrant.

The prohibition bill is of sixty-seven sections and constitutes thirty-five 9 by 12 inch typewritten pages. The bill declares it to be unlawful for any person to "directly or indirectly manufacture, sell, barter, or give away, furnish or keep or have in his possession for purposes of sale, or barter, any spirituous malt, vinous fermented or other intoxicating liquors, or knowingly permit another to have or keep or use such liquors on any premises owned or controlled by him, except druggists or registered pharmacists, as hereinbefore provided."

The penalty for violations was set in any sum not less than $100 nor more than $500, and be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

"Are you the groom?" asked the bewildered old gentleman, at a very elaborate wedding.

"No, sir," was the reply of the embarrassed young man, "I was eliminated in the preliminary try-out."

Romance and Beauty

By AD SCHUSTER

LUELLA CROSS had beauty and she worshiped it. She was certain she had no need to be clever and was content to leave the qualities of thoughtfulness and modesty to her less fortunate sisters. "Let them cultivate manners," thought Luella if she thought at all, "and I will cultivate looks." And it may be said the results recorded in her mirror and the admiring gaze of Parkerville were both startling and effective.

When the celebrated beauty contest was broached, Parkerville to a man nominated Luella who smiled her thanks and made plans for the spending of the award. The contest was to be held in Parkerville and was open to the state. As the day approached there came stories of promising entrants from one place and another. Luella looked upon their photographed features and smiled. It seemed too easy. There was not a one, she told herself and with some justification, who could match her pink and white complexion.

Two weeks before the contest, the tall Maxwell Boom came to town and because he was the most distinguished looking man she ever saw Luella was given something besides the contest to occupy her thoughts. Maxwell Boom was no longer a youth but he carried himself like a soldier and had that iron-gray hair which sometimes can be so romantic. Before twenty-four hours passed every girl in Parkerville had speculated concerning this handsome stranger and wondered at the hidden sorrow which had tinged his hair and given him that look of dignity and reserve which, they agreed, was most becoming.

Maxwell met Luella and, strange enough, did not seem impressed. It was a new experience for the girl and one which stirred her to new efforts. She donned one of the dresses she had planned to wear during the contest week and contrived to meet him again. And Maxwell went just a small way toward surrendering. He asked her to dinner and the theater.

This older man appealed to the girl who felt every eye in the restaurant upon them and glowed all the prettier in her pride. With a husband like Maxwell, she thought, a girl's looks could be accentuated to the best advantage. And that was as close as Luella ever came to falling in love with anyone save herself.

Maxwell was constant. He had an invitation for every evening and there were rides in the afternoon. Luella, used to attention, had never been singled out from so many by one man in so short a time. This one must be serious. Luella thought of the other girls and how envious they must be. After she had won Maxwell and the beauty contest there would be no one to dispute her sway.

"It's my complexion," she told herself; "all the time he looks at my cheeks." And the complexion she repeated would win the contest.

The day of the contest brought the girl her first faint misgivings. Something had gone wrong, just a little wrong, with the prized complexion. Perhaps she should not have gone out so many evenings, eaten so many late dinners. She rubbed her cheeks to give them color.

"At that," she decided, "one does not have to be one's very best to win from these others."

The contest was close. After an hour the judges had eliminated all save Luella and a brunette from Middleton. Luella wished she could pinch color into her cheeks for she knew her rival was a worthy one.

"They can't pick her—a brunette—when they have a blonde like me," she tried to convince herself and yet the judges gave no sign. Suddenly there was an agreement. The prize went to the stranger. Parkerville lost and Middleton won, and because Luella lacked the coloring of the other.

The beautiful girl, tasting her first defeat, sought consolation in the romance. Maxwell Boom would tell her she was better looking than this black-haired girl. She would find Maxwell. Some one spoke to her. It was one of the judges.

"It was very close, Miss Cross, and our task was a hard one. Have you met Miss Boom, the winner?"

"Miss Boom?" For once the girl was thinking hard. Maxwell Boom; he was her father! And those lobster suppers, late hours were all in the plot against her pink cheeks. There was no prize now and no romance; only a firm conviction in the duplicity of men.

The Old Frank Leslie's

"We don't have such reading matter nowadays as we did when I was a boy," grumbled old Roswell. "It don't mean the Rollo books of T. S. Arthur, and it's only good for little sexes. I am referring to the Old Frank Leslie's Boys' and Girls' Magazine. We now and then read in it the Jack I believe romances have disappeared."

GAME INCREASES IN THE GILA FOREST

The annual game report recently compiled by the supervisor of the Gila National Forest indicates that the game is rapidly increasing in that forest despite the increase in hunters and number of animals killed.

The total number of deer reported in the forest for 1928 is 27,045 as against 20,750, for 1927, an increase of 31.4 per cent, while turkeys are to have increased from 900 to 2639, representing a rise of 193 per cent. These figures are derived from the reports submitted to the supervisor by the district forest rangers for their respective districts within the forests, and represent a reasonably accurate census.

The forest was visited during the 1928 big game season by 2112 sportsmen, of which 1895 were residents of the state, and 253 out-of-state hunters, an increase of 26 per cent over the preceding year. However, either the deer were so numerous or the hunters were better shots, for while only one buck was killed by each 2.66 nimrods in 1927, the ratio was one to 2.25 last season.

The number of deer killed in 1928, according to the report was 938, as against 629 in 1927, or an increase of 49 per cent. However, the increase in kill amounts to but 309 animals as compared with a total increase in deer of 6,295 in the forest, indicating that the deer population is mounting rapidly. The increase in kill was confined largely to the Mimbres District, where 1196 of all the sportsmen on the forest hunted, and where 614 of the deer were killed.

The report shows the total number of game animals of all kinds within the forest to be: antelope 165; elk 50; deer 27,045; turkey 2,639, and squirrel 1,600, while among the predatory animals are listed: coyote 1,380; lynx 825; mountain lion 72; wolf 9, and wild hog 50.

How many of us...
 rics really know what we are...
 chasing? Fabrics may be composed... of silk, linen, wool or cotton, or mixtures of two or three materials. The... following simple tests given by Miss...
 Grace Long of the New Mexico Agricultural College, will enable anyone... to form a correct idea of the materials of which fabric is made:

1. Look at both warp and filling threads; see that the two threads are somewhere near equal in size and strength.
2. Examine threads to distinguish fibers: a. Cotton fibers are short, dull and fuzzy, b. linen fibers are long bright and fine, c. Wool fibers are short, curly or kinky, d. silk fibers are very long, fine, smooth and straight.
3. See that material is firmly woven, as that kind will stand more hard wear and strain. Test material to see if threads can be pushed apart.
4. Tear quickly some of the material. a. Linen will leave straight, smooth threads along edge of tear. b. Cotton will curl up.
5. Rub surface of cotton or linen material briskly to remove sizing if there is any. This makes it easier to determine kind of fiber. Starches or gums in cheap silk can sometimes be detected by close examination.
6. To test the strength of a piece of material, place the ends of the thumbs together, hold the material between them and the first fingers, draw the fingers apart and the backs of the thumbs together until the knuckles touch, then force the thumb tips apart. Material that one expects to make over can also be tested this way.
7. Burning. If fibers or threads of silk or wool are tested by burning, they burn slowly, go out quickly, and leave a residue. There is also a disagreeable odor like that of burning feathers. The ash retains its shape if silk is heavily weighted; this kind of silk will not wear well. Rayon burns with a decided flash and leaves practically no ash. Linen and cotton are the vegetable fibers. They burn more quickly and the flame is extinguished with difficulty.

TAX COMMISSION ADVISES ASSESSORS
 SANTA FE.—The state tax commission has sent out circulars to the fifteen county assessors who took office the first of the year and to a number of members of boards of county commissioners who are entering upon their first term of office, telling them the proper way in which to assess both real and personal property.
 A few of the instructions follow:
 1. The assessor must fix the value of all property.
 2. An accurate description of the real estate assessed must be given.
 3. The practice of assessing all personal property, including household furniture, at nominal sums ranging up to $100 should be discontinued and assessment made on a fair valuation of the property.
 4. Give each taxpayer thirty-one days in which to make his rendition.
 5. In all cases where the assessor prepares a schedule a penalty of 25 per cent must be added for non-rendition.

III. The Savior Described.
 1. He seeks the lost (Luke 15:3-7).
 This seeking of the lost is illustrated by the man leaving the ninety and nine sheep and going after the one which was lost, and his rejoicing over his success in finding it.
 2. He died for the lost (John
 3:14-17).
 As the brazen serpent was lifted up in the wilderness by Moses, so Jesus Christ was lifted up on the cross. God gave Jesus Christ to die, to make an atonement for the sins of the world.
 All those who believe on Him receive eternal life and therefore escape condemnation. Christ's coming into the world was not to condemn the world, but to bring to it salvation.
 3. He knows His own (John 10:14).
 As the Good Shepherd who seeks out the lost and gives His life for them, He has a definite knowledge of each one of them. Not only does He know them personally, but they in turn know Him.
 4. He keeps His own (John 10:
 27-29).
 Believers are Christ's sheep and because they are His sheep they hear His voice and follow Him. He not only gives unto them eternal life but holds them in His omnipotent hands.
 They are absolutely secure because no man is able to pluck them out of His hands.
 IV. Some Blessings Received
 Through the Savior.
 1. Physical strength (Acts 3:1-11).
 The healing of the lame man at the beautiful gate of the temple is a fine example of Christ's ability to heal the body. This man had been lame from

ARIZONA PREPARES TO FIGHT BOULDER DAM BILL SAYS PRESS REPT.

Phoenix, Ariz.—A fight in the supreme court of the United States to prevent execution of the provisions of the Boulder Canyon Dam bill was in the making here yesterday as the result of a course decided upon by Arizona's Colorado River Commission, the commission yesterday authorized State Attorney General E. Berry Peterson to file suit in the highest court in behalf of Arizona.

By this action the state takes a final stand to prevent the building of a great dam across the Colorado river near the point where three states, Arizona, Nevada and California, join.

Since the Boulder Dam project began to take form after the signing of the Seven-State Compact at Santa Fe, New Mexico several years ago, Arizona has contended that her rights would be transgressed if the provisions of the measure were made effective.

The Arizona Colorado River Commission has taken the position that the Boulder Dam bill apportions more water to California than that state should have from the stream and that Arizona would be deprived among other things of some of her water rights.

The commissioner's action, which defined the position of the state is a sudden answer to hints in the past fortnight that Arizona might eventually decide to ratify the Seven-State Colorado River Pact.

WHY One's Signature Is Termed "John Hancock."

First to sign the Declaration of Independence was John Hancock, whose signature has since become symbolic of authority, expressed in writing. And today when your attorney has important papers ready to sign he will say, "Put on your John Hancock, please."

Hancock was a member of the Continental congress from 1775 to 1780, and was president of it for a year and a half. He was a member of the Massachusetts constitutional convention in 1779-1780, became the first governor of the state and served from 1780 to 1785 and again from 1787 until 1793.

His signature on the Declaration of Independence is the largest on the document.

KELLOGG PACT RATIFIED IN SENATE BY A VOTE OF 85 TO 1 TUESDAY

WASHINGTON—The Kellogg Anti-War treaty, without reservations and in exactly the form it was signed at Paris, was ratified by the senate Tuesday.

The vote was 85 to 1. Senator Blaine, Wisconsin republican, cast the only negative vote. An announcement was made that seven of the nine senators absent at the time of the roll call would have voted for ratification.

The two absent senators regarding whom no announcement was made were McLean, Connecticut republican, an opponent of the treaty, and Goff, West Virginia republican.

Ratification followed twelve days of intensive debate prolonged by demands of a determined group of senators that the interpretation placed upon the treaty by the senate foreign affairs committee be made public before a vote was taken.

Chairman, Borah, of the committee, at first refused to submit his committee's resolution, but late Tuesday reached a compromise with the so-called reservationists and inserted the report in the congressional record.

With the exception of Soviet Russia, the United States becomes the first world power to make the significant gesture toward international peace by sanctioning the treaty.

Russia, a government not recognized by this country but a signer of the Kellogg treaty, ratified the pact some weeks ago.

Why Odd Division of Hours and Minutes

Why is an hour divided into sixty minutes, a minute into sixty seconds? Would not a division of the hour into ten, or fifty, or a hundred minutes have been more natural? We have sixty divisions on the dials of our watches simply because the Greek astronomer Hipparchus, who lived in the second century before Christ, accepted the Babylonian system of reckoning time, that system being sexagesimal. The Babylonians knew the decimal system, but for practical purposes they counted by sixties. From Hipparchus that system found its way to the works of Ptolemy, about the 150 in the Christian era. Thence it was carried down the stream of time, finding its last resting place on the dials of our clocks and watches.—Max Muller in "Chips From an Old Workshop."

INCREASING COST OF STATE GOV'T

IN NEW MEX.

SANTA FE.—The cost of government in New Mexico for state, counties and schools has increased $3,795,831 from the biennium of 1921-1922 to the present biennium which ends July 30, 1929, according to one of the tables of the report of the state tax commission now being distributed.

Over the same period the school cost increased $2,082,229, the cost of county government increased $681,387, and the appropriations by the legislature included in the general appropriations bill only increased $1,032,215.

The tax commission report accounts for these increases in the following figures. For 1921 and 1922 the legislature appropriated $2,742,605, the years 1923 and 1924 showed only a slight increase with the total appropriations being $2,763,498. For the first biennium under the new fiscal year plan which began in 1925 and ended in 1927 the legislature appropriations went up to $3,236,036, and for the present sixteenth and seventeenth fiscal years beginning in 1927 and ending in 1929 the total was $3,774,820.

The figures for county government over the same period were 1921-22 $4,559,063; for 1923-24 they were $4,477,598; for 1925 to 1927 they were $4,395,197 and for the present period 1927 to 1929 they total $5,040,440.

Following the school costs over the same period, the tax commission report represents the school cost in 1921-22 at $10,628,694. In 1923-24 the cost was $10,982,988 and in 1927-29 the total was $12,710,923.

Figuring the total cost of government on these three items the tax commission represented that the total cost in 1921-22 was $17,730,352; in 1923-24 it was $17,697,879 and in 1925-27 it was $18,614,221. For the present biennium it will be $21,526,183, the report showed.

SANTA FE.—The Department's budget templates an expenditure State Game Warden said, as compared with disbursements in 1928.

Mr. Perry said the nature of last year was in the construction of two hatcheries, one at Chaco other at Taos, which completes the cold water hatchery program.

The major construction contemplated for 1929, he said, small warm water hatchery lower Pecos valley which would amount $5,000.

The anticipated revenue for Mr. Perry said, totals $119,614 solely upon sales of licenses, permits, and is based upon an estimated ten per cent increase last year.

The department entered 1929 with a cash balance of $34,395, and the budget for 1929 contemplates raising the balance to $45,299 by the end of this calendar year.

Mr. Perry said the department strives to maintain a large balance the revenues through the first half of the year are always so small that a proper reserve enables the department to better distribute its work through the year.

"We have been able to greatly decrease the allotment for fish culture," Mr. Perry said, "this year because of the completion of the building program, and to correspondingly increase the appropriation for game propagation. We have allotted $14,519 for the purchase and improvement of marshland for waterfowl refuges and shooting grounds."

Mr. Perry announced the following comparative table of disbursements for the various activities of the department in 1928 and the allotments for 1929.

For office maintenance the department spent 14,591 in 1928 and has allowed $14,800 for 1929, it spent $18,806 for game protection in 1928 and contemplates $22,695 in 1929. For game propagation in 1928, $8,296 was expended and $20,005 will be utilized there this year. Fish propagation in 1928 cost $71,635 and this figure will fall to 43,664 in 1929. In 1928 there was $3,230 spent for investigations and this sum has been reduced to $2,180 for this year. Public relations last year cost $5,765 and the 1929 budget for this activity holds $5,366.

WHAT MIDAS MISSED

WHEN King Midas wished that everything he touched would turn to gold, and when he had his wish granted by a grateful god, he found himself in an unfortunate predicament. One can't eat gold, yet as soon as he touched food, it turned to the precious metal. Only by the most fervent prayers was the poor, rich king relieved of his predicament.

There was one thing that would have relieved the king's distress if he had only known of it—and that is the pineapple, which is already a fruit of gold, coming from the South Seas, where the molten golden sun seems to be caught and imprisoned in its depths. But King Midas didn't know about this, for it was not until hundreds of years later that the European discoverers of South America brought back slips of the fruit which was to become a symbol of hospitality and nobility.

Living Gold

Today we have no gods who give gifts of gold. But we do have our golden pineapples. And the modern woman knows ways of cooking it that would have made King Midas open his eyes. For instance, note the following recipes:

Pineapple Cube Glacé: Cream one-half cup fat, gradually adding one and one-half cups sugar. Add one well beaten egg. Sift two and one-half cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, and one-fourth teaspoon salt, and add to first mixture alternately with one cup cold water. Melt two tablespoons butter in a iron spider, and add one cup brown sugar, stirring until smooth. Spread with a layer of well-drained crushed Hawaiian pineapple, pour batter over this, and bake forty-five minutes in a moderate oven. Turn out on a plate, cool thoroughly, spread with whipped cream and serve.

Hard Sauce with Pineapple: Cream four tablespoons butter until soft, gradually add one cup powdered sugar, one teaspoon vanilla and one cup crushed Hawaiian pineapple. Beat until creamy, light and smooth, and chill before serving.

The Roly Poly Roll

Pineapple Roly Poly: Thoroughly drain the syrup from one cup crushed Hawaiian pineapple. Mix and sift two cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder and one-half teaspoon salt. Cut in two tablespoons butter and add three-fourths cup milk. Turn out on a well-floured board and roll out in oblong shape. Spread with the drained pineapple and sprinkle with one-half cup sugar which has been mixed with one-fourth teaspoon of nutmeg. Roll up like a jelly roll, pinching ends well together, place in a greased baking dish and put in a moderate oven. In the meantime add one-half cup sugar to the syrup drained from the pineapple and boil for five minutes. When the roll begins to brown, baste with a little of this syrup. Bake about thirty minutes and serve cut in slices with the remainder of the hot syrup as a sauce.

THE MIRACLE OF MONEY

The Advocate has been informed that a sermon on the "Miracle of Money" will be delivered at the Christian church next Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock service.

The Advocate force is going to hear that sermon and hereby invites all readers to go along.

It's a mystifying miracle to us as to where the money that we labor so hard to acquire through the tedious process of printing thousands upon thousands of letter heads, posters, ruled blanks, booklets and newspapers, disappears to. If the Rev. Pearce can explain it, we are for him. If money can be had from some "miraculous" source we want to know the process. Money has always seemed very prosaic to us, if he can show that it is a "miracle,"—something mystic, mystifying and unreal—then we confess to anticipating a new angle on the question.

Artesia earns money, spends money, hoards money, and needs a lot more money. If there is any miracle connected with it we want to know all about it,— so here goes to church.

A new clerk dictating a few days ago, was in doubt as to the use of a certain phrase, so he said to the stenographer:

"Do you retire a loan?" and the wistful eyed one replied rather sheepishly:
 "No, I sleep with mamma."

Scoggins preached at the morning hour on the Evangelical Mission of the Church. He clearly showed that the church can leave no agency unemployed in its attempt to win disciples for Christ. At the evening hour he preached upon the processes of Christian Growth, showing that we make progress by the forward surge and not by the backward look.

The mid week sanctuary services have been resumed since the holidays and the addresses by the pastor are inspirational and instructive. The choir has been recently reorganized with Mrs. C. R. Blocker as president, Mrs. Frank Miller secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Martin Yates director, Mrs. Will Ragdale, pianist. The choir is to meet regularly every Thursday evening.

SANTA FE GETS 15 DAYS TO ADJUST FREIGHT RATES

SANTA FE.—The Santa Fe railroad has been given fifteen days in which to adjust its rates from Magdalena and Yeso with the Pecos valley traffic bureau, the state corporation commission announced recently.

Chairman Hugh H. Williams of the commission said a protest had been received from the traffic bureau regarding the proposed new rate schedule of the railroad.

The commission last week closed its cases regarding the facilities at Night by the D. and R. G., and regarding the petition of the Southern Pacific to close its station at Vera Cruz. The former case, Mr. Williams said, was adjusted to the satisfaction of the Aztec people, and in the latter case the station has been closed.

Electric Lamp Progress

In 1800 it was said that the incandescent lamp with carbon filament was so perfect a device that it could never be much improved. It was at about that date that industrial research was inaugurated in the electrical industry. Since then the efficiency of the incandescent lamp has been approximately quadrupled, and the great increase in the intensities of artificial lighting made possible by the cheaper light. The new applications created by the new lamps have had a far-reaching effect on our industrial prosperity.

Various Summers

"Indian summer" was first used during the last part of the Eighteenth century. In the next decade the term was supplanted by "second summer." Indian summer became established about 20 years after its first appearance, which was in western Pennsylvania, and spread to New England by 1798, to New York by 1799, Canada by 1821 and England by 1830. Horace Walpole used the term in 1778, not in reference to America, but in relation to weather in the tropics.

Child Reform

After three years' study of the treatment and training of child offenders in Scotland, a committee appointed by the secretary of state for Scotland has submitted 214 recommendations for prevention and cure of crime among the young. Many of the ideas follow the trend of progressive social procedure in other countries. Among them are the elimination of the young as street traders or employees of gambling resorts, and increased recreational facilities.

Seems Odd Method of Relaxing From Strain

Many of the drivers of London busses, says an English paper, own small cars and motor cycles and get relaxation from handling busses by piloting the smaller vehicles in their leisure time.

In the same way it is easy to understand the benefits derived by, say the husband of a mother of six in taking a bride of a month to tea, or the operator of a steam shovel digging in the children's sand box with a tin shovel and pail, or an amateur marathon enthusiast running to and from business every day, or a wholesale florist picking daisies in an empty lot, or a bank teller matching pennies, or a big game hunter shooting flies with a rubber band, or a mail clerk playing post office, or a high diver jumping off curbstones, or an explorer searching for funny names in the phone book, or an astronomer looking at germs through a reducing glass.

Or writing a piece like this.—Kansas City Star.

Beauty in Motion

A symphony is beautiful or satisfying in its action, like changing winds and clouds of sound. It may be a vehicle of moving meaning, but has no unchanging stable quality, no static beauty; because it has no static existence. Action is its being. Likewise an epic poem moves and lives in action. The Odyssey has no moveless beauty, but the beauty of heroic and romantic action. Its words are winged. Even more palpably a drama is centered, focused action, an unpausing utterance. A lyric is a quick flow of feeling and perception.—Henry Osborn Taylor, in "Human Values and Verities."

orn back its
And how you trusted the Savior then,
And smiled again on your band of ten,
I take courage, dear mother, through the example you gave us.
To still carry on, though you've had to leave us.
Bravely you trod on through life's weary way,
Till there were three you'd had taken away.
Then you took up your tasks again,
Where sister and babies with us had been.
Then another of our loved ones we missed,
Another dear sister whose lips we
had kissed,
Went to join the three in Heaven,
Which was four you gave back out of eleven.
And still back to your duties you went once more,
To your seven on earth, in Heaven
your four.
And then your love was put to a test,
When we laid our fifth dear one to rest.
O you, dear mother, this loved one you gave,
Lingered long on the brink of the grave.
With patience and fortitude she bore
her pain,
Ke you, over and over, again and again.
Till you smiled on the ones that
were left you,
Smiled as only a mother can do,
And now, thinking of my duties for the morrow,
I sit here and smile to hold back
my sorrow,
Smile, that my sorrow may not show,
I wonder were not your own smiles often so.
Now I take up my duties with a song of praise,
And carry before me your smiling
face.
And as you through your trials in
the past have done,
I can freely say "Thy will be done."

NO THROUGH HIGHWAYS CLOSED THIS WINTER

SANTA FE.—That none of the major through highways of the state have been closed yet this winter is the gist of a report from the highway department given out recently. A report has been made after a survey of the situation because of the winter tourists that will find trans-state routes closed by snow.

Taos-Merino valley road was several times in the early winter because of non-delivery of removal equipment, which is the job now, however. This road is likely to be closed for several days at a time because of the rapid with which snow drifts in this section when the wind is high. However, no major obstruction will occur as equipment and men are on the job at all times.

stated Daphne, "But how I was leaving?"
I heard all your
ing off with this poor
And because I think
a very grave mistake
my advice on you be-
for, I made the same miss ago."
I caught a swift breath and y into the kindly face of lady. "But you have been fully successful, Madame gasped. "Surely love must ed."
id," replied Madame softly.
came. The real love didn't till I had been through the suffering and disillusion. Love, id—the right kind of love—ask so great a sacrifice as your artist lover is asking of you.
Re, love would not permit it. Your voice is not beautiful—it is grand."
Daphne flushed hotly and the tears leaped into her big eyes. "Oh, Madame Vane—those words coming from you make me feel quite weak—I feel all wobbly. It is too wonderful—too altogether unexpected."
"My dear, I have known it these many months when I have heard you practicing and it is this great voice that you are throwing away for a young man who is letting you do it.
He knows you are neither strong enough nor is he wealthy enough to see you safely through marriage with all its hardships and worries and at the same time allow you to study and do your voice the justice due it. Your father will cut off your splendid allowance—I heard you tell your sweetheart that you had promised your father not to marry for at least three years. Your parents are wise, too, child—they know that love in a poor artist's studio and the hard work necessary to place the foundation under your artistic career are not possible."
"I had tried to think it all out," said Daphne, "and somehow Dick always talked me into the glory of love and the ambition it instills into one and I began to feel I was being weak in not giving in to love."
"You can still give into love three years later," said the little old lady,
"and if you wait until you have stepped into fame and have all the love of a musical world—then and only then will you know what a glorious thing real love can be. You are far too young to realize that the right kind of a man for you is the one who will put you and your interests before his own. This young artist is quite willing you should give up all your own ambitions and simply become a servant in his studio."
Daphne was weeping softly now and her head had found a most happy resting place among the laces and lavender of the little old lady's breast.
"I'm so glad you stopped me and have taken me into your life," she said;
"my own people are way out West and I've had no one here to ask advice from."
Madame Vane smoothed back the golden hair from Daphne's wide forehead and in her far-seeing eyes was the vision of the great concert hall packed with music lovers and Daphne whose head was cradled on her breast, was stepping out on the platform—full of courage and ready to burst forth into glorious song.
And ten years later Daphne again
sat beside her on the same Chesterfield on which they had chatted that night when Daphne would have run off to marry Dick Trevor and her golden head again rested against Madame's shoulder.
There was a soft smile playing about Daphne's lips and her eyes were gloriously alight. Her breath came a bit fitfully, for one who was quite used to facing an audience of hundreds quite calmly.
"He's a wee bit late—isn't he,
dearie," said Madame.
"Five minutes," said Daphne, "and
—and you do—love him, too—don't you, dear—I couldn't bear to think you didn't love him and want me to marry him."
"He is the one man in all the world
I would have chosen for my songbird," said the little old lady; "you are each worthy of the great love that has claimed you and together there are no heights you cannot reach. I talk from experience, my dearie, and I am only too happy to have passed on my knowledge to you. There—run along, dearie—I hear his footsteps on the stairs."

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

NO EXTENSION OF TIME TO BE GRANTED ON AUTO LICENSES

SANTA FE—State comptroller Gilberto Mirabal announced Monday that there will be no extension of time on applications for motor vehicle licenses. The time expires January 1. The applications are being received slowly according to Nick Herrera, head bookkeeper. Only 11,388 licenses have been issued to date as opposed to 13,100 a year ago at this time, but the receipts this year are $203,503.90 as opposed to $127,025.88 a year ago. The increase results from the new motor vehicle license law.

GOOD PRICES PAID FOR COLLEGE RANGE CATTLE

The animal husbandry department of the New Mexico Agricultural College has recently received good prices on two cars of cattle shipped on to the market at Kansas City. A car of forty head of long yearling steers was sent to the market as stockers at $12.25 per hundred pounds, which was the top of the market on the day they were sold and is above the top prices for most of the recent sales of stocker steers on the Kansas City market. The steers brought $65.50 each. These steers were on an average with those on the college ranch and were not a picked bunch. A car load of cows that was culled from the college herd brought an average price of above 8c per pound, which made the cows net about $72.00 per head.

The college ranch is following an economical and practical method of culling the range herd, says J. L. Lantow, head of the animal husbandry department. By keeping records on the cows that fail to bring calves, they are culled at a time when they cease to become profitable and begin to decline in flesh, instead of waiting until they have cost more for maintenance, are too weak to be a safe risk for keeping over the winter and are of much lower value on the market.

On the college ranch, composed of 100 sections of range land, the animal husbandry department is working on problems of practical application for New Mexico ranches.

COST OF EDUCATION IN STATE RUNS TOTAL $9,375,844--REPORT

SANTA FE—During the present fiscal year which ends June 30, 1930 education in New Mexico will cost $9,375,844, according to a bulletin issued by the New Mexico Taxpayers Association.

These expenses are divided as follows: General education, $35,000,000; vocational education, $16,150,000; primary and public school district direct expenses, $12,000,000; proceeds of bond issues, $2,032,150. Total $9,375,844.

The items for school maintenance, direct charges and interest and sinking fund requirements total $7,092,135; the expense of the state colleges and the university is $2,032,159 plus $200,000 as proceeds of bond issues, while expense incident to the office of the superintendent of public instruction is $51,550.

Fifteen years ago the expenses for the operation and maintenance of the public and elementary schools was $1,346,402.04. In the state educational institutions the expenses in 1918-1919 were 1,000,000. Within the last ten years public education has increased 150 per cent in cost and state institutions have increased 100 per cent in spite of the decrease in the valuation of taxable property in the state from $275,751,629 for 1919 to approximately $320,000,000 for 1929.

'PASSION PLAY' TO BE PRESENTED IN EL PASO

One of the most interesting theatrical events in the history of El Paso is announced for the second week in January.

It is understood that final arrangements have been completed for the presentation at Liberty Hall of the world's oldest "Passion Play" with the original German cast, 150 on the stage.

These will be assisted by a singing chorus of 75 voices.

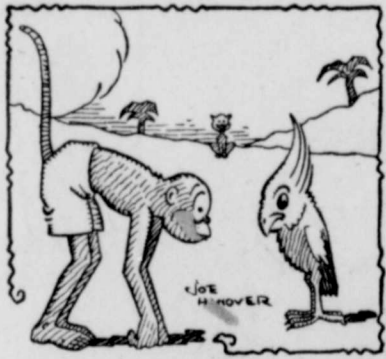

The production as it will be presented in El Paso is the same that is used in Freiburg. It is reported to be the largest dramatic production since the stage presentation of "Ben Hur," with the exception of "The Miracle."

The company was brought to America last season to dedicate the Krug Park bowl in St. Joseph, Mo., and played to over 100,000 persons in eight days. They next visited St. Louis, where in one week over 80,000 attended.

It reached San Antonio last spring and broke all records for attendance at the municipal auditorium in that city, having an attendance of over 100 persons from El Paso.

The play will be brought to El Paso from Los Angeles, where it is now playing, and will be seen in no other part of this section except El Paso.

MILE HIGH POTATOES PRODUCE GOOD SEED

The High Altitude Potato Grower's Association reports an increasing business in the production of seed potatoes in the present year, says G. R. Quesenberry of the New Mexico Agricultural College. This association, which has been organized only three years, is situated in the northern part of New Mexico at an elevation of 8,300 feet and produces a high quality of seed under dry land conditions.

During the present year a little less than eight carloads of potatoes were produced by members of the association, but due to the severe fall weather and early snow, they were unable to finish digging about 20 per cent of the crop. Of the remainder, a little less than one-half have been shipped out. Some went to Chicago, some south to Santa Fe, Las Vegas and Albuquerque, and a part to the seed growers of Colorado. J. L. Hurst, a large grower at Moscow, Colorado, who has been buying some of this seed for his own planting for several years, bought 2,000 sacks for his own use. The Monte Vista Potato Growers' Association also bought several hundred sacks. Another lot went to the Center Association of Colorado, and small shipments went to other sections, including one lot to Central Mexico. This association grows the largest quantity of certified seed potatoes of any group in the state, and by planting their treated potatoes on dry land under the severe conditions that exist in this section, all the weaker tubers are eliminated, very little disease ever develops, and a larger yield is the result from planting seed of this type which is grown at an elevation of over a mile and a half.
