Westworld Terminating Operation Here

Hospital, Emergency Services Are Closed

At approximately 10 a.m. Tuesday, November 11, Richard McLarney, acting administrator of West Plains Medical Center notified The Journal by telephone that Westworld Community Healthcare of Texas, Inc. had terminated operations of the hospital in Muleshoe, and that effective at 9 a.m. on that date, were no longer accepting patients for the hospital.

McLarney also said, "Effective at 5 p.m. on Thursday, November 13, emergency services will no longer be available and the doors will be locked to the hospital."

According to the Westworld employee, who is also a regional representative for Westworld, "Westworld is ceasing total operations in Muleshoe."

When asked about the Muleshoe Nursing Home, which is located in the south part of the hospital complex on South First Street, McLarney said, "The nursing home is separate, under a separate license. We are trying to keep the nursing home open, and are ready, willing and able to negotiate with the West Plains Medical Center Board on a transfer of the license for the nursing home."

He also said, "the next 10 or so hours will be the critical hours for the nursing home. We are meeting with the West Plains Medical Center Board tonight (Tuesday). If we do not get a commitment from the board during the meeting to transfer the license I will be forced to instruct Jim Swanner, (Nursing Home administrator) at 8 a.m. on Wednesday to start telephoning and placing the patients in other nursing homes."

Late Tuesday night, following the meeting between Westworld officials and members of the West Plains Medical Center board, board president Jim Burgess issued the following statement:

"The Board of Directors of West Plains Medical Center, Inc., is negotiating with Westworld's Community Healthcare of Texas, Inc., so that West Plains may assume full operation of the Muleshoe Nursing Home in order to maintain continued care for the residents. Interruption of care for the residents is not anticipated."

"The West Plains Board of Directors is also exploring every possible way to reopen the hospital."

Burgess also said the board was not informed by McLarney on Tuesday of the possibility of starting a re-location process of the nursing home patients on Wednesday morning.

Answering a query about the clinic at the hospital, McLarney said the private physicians will have an option to operate the clinic.

Persons who went to the pharmacy at West Plains Medical Center on Tuesday morning to have prescriptions filled, found that the pharmacy had also been closed.

The Westworld official said he was meeting with Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green regarding the ambulances, which are owned by Westworld, but operated by Bailey County since September.

He said the ambulance will be offered for sale to the county during the meeting with Judge Green. At the time Westworld took over the hospital operations on January 1, 1985, both ambulances were owned by Bailey County, and were based

Margrethe Taylor In First Place

In Week Contest

Another turnaround this week, and a 'brand-new' first place winner for the year. Margrethe Taylor, who frequently enters the football contest, was the only contestant to miss only one game.

Mrs. Taylor missed out on the LSU-Alabama game, but correctly predicted the winners of all the other games in the contest.

Second place winner James Hanson posted his third win of the year, and now with a third place win and a first place earlier, has 19 points, only two points behind leader Kay Graves, with 21. Barry Lewis currently holds the second place, however, with two first place wins for 20 points, so the contest is beginning to tighten up.

Former Muleshoe resident C.O. 'Dutch' Larue, now of Amarillo, was in third as he also missed two games. Hanson missed two games and was 20 points away on the double tiebreaker, while Larue missed two games, but was 22 points off on the tiebreaker.

Also missing out although he missed two games was Gary Freeman, who was 30 points off on the double tiebreakers.

There will be three to four more contests for you to enter before the 1986 Merchants' Football Contest ends.

Individual places and times for the girls' varsity team were: Norma Castorena, 12th, 13:21; Michelle Cox, 13th, 13:22; Kelly Conklin, 20th, 13:39; Jennifer Green, 26th, 13:50; Jo Ann

"This is a tremendous savings for those planning to attend several games," said Jinks.

ON THE WAY TO A FINAL VICTORY FOR 1986--The sure hands of Jerry Mendoza, No. 22, reach out to pull in the football so he can attempt to score against the Dimmitt Bobcats last Friday night. In the final football game for the year for the Muleshoe Mules, Mendoza's 22 yard touchdown started the final scoring that ended up with Muleshoe defeating the Bobcats 14-9 to conclude the 1986 football season with a 5-5 record.

Creative Living

by Sheryl Borden

Information on salad making, cajun cooking and a project to help insure children's safety will be presented on "Creative Living" on Tuesday, November 18 at 12 noon and repeated on Saturday, November 22 at 2:00 p.m. (All times are Mountain).

Marlene Brown is a food stylist, a writer and a consultant and has her own business in Los Angeles, CA called "Marlene's Cuisine". She will demonstrate three easy salads, made with ingredients on hand from the pantry and refrigerator, and without using a specific recipe.

Cajun cuisine is the newest taste trend to take the country by storm. Beth Kathan is the Public Relations Manager for the Oster Co. in Milwaukee, WI, and she will prepare some homestyle cajun cuisine.

The Texize Co. has recently launched a campaign called "Project Kidsmart" in an effort to make children's safety a part of elementary school curriculums across the country. Nell Stewart is the Director of Consumer Affairs for Texize and is a dedicated consumer advocate. She will discuss the different components of Project Kidsmart and tell how schools can become involved in this very worthwhile project. Ms. Stewart is from New York.

On Tuesday, November 18 at 9:30 p.m. Jane Schenck, spokesperson for the Pellon Corp. will demonstrate a product to make instant waistbands for a very Professional looking garment. Jane is from New York.

Gayle Shockey is a Consulting Nutritionist with Heart Keeper from Fallbrook, CA, and she will talk about good nutrition for children.

Finally, Jewell Limacher, former Chaves County Extension Home Economist in Roswell, will show ways to use "old" items and turn them into something useful and attractive. Her topic is called "Use it Again!"

Three additional topics will be presented on "Creative Living" on Thursday, November 20 at 12 noon. For many people, celebration means entertaining. Beth Kathan will be back and will share several non-alcoholic drinks for your next gathering. These drinks can be pleasing no-alcohol versions of the old favorites, or they can be something new that will soon become an "old favorite". Guests will appreciate your thoughtfulness in offering them this choice.

Leather garments are very popular now -- both in ready-to-wear, and in garment leather to create your own designs to wear. Suzi Holder is with the State 4-H Office in Las Cruces, and she's going to discuss purchasing and selecting garment leather.

Most of us have heard about the importance of increasing calcium in the diet to help prevent the bone disease, osteoporosis. Helen Hatton is a home economist with the National Dairy Board, and she will demonstrate how to use cheese to get this important mineral into our diet.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show airs on more than 95 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico, and is distributed by the Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, Co.

Viewers can request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KENW-TV's toll-free telephone lines. In New Mexico, the number is 1-800-432-2361, out-of-state is 1-800-545-2359 and viewers in Portales and Roosevelt County can call 562-2112. Viewers are requested to call between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

CAJUN CUISINE--HOMESTYLED!

This mystical cuisine originated in France more than 300 years ago and emigrated to the United States with the Cajun people many years later.

Comprised of whatever foods are available at a given time, Cajun recipes are abundant in seafood and fresh spices. Many times if a meat or fish is not available, another is substituted. As with many country-styled cuisines, there are few rigid rules governing it -- only guidelines.

JAMBALAYA

Jambalaya is versatile in that any seafood or meat combination can be used.

2 tablespoons vegetable oil, 1/2 lb. fresh pork sausages, cut in 1/2 inch slices, 1/2 lb. smoked ham, cubed, 2 teaspoons Cajun Seasoning Mix, 1 1/2 cups long grain rice, uncooked, 1 cup chopped onion, 1 cup chopped green pepper, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 can (15 oz.) tomato sauce with tomato bits, 1 can (14 1/2 oz.) chicken broth.

Preheat oil in slow cooker at 375 degrees F. Add sausage and brown, stirring continuously, about 2 minutes. Add chicken cubes and continue cooking and stirring 2 to 3 minutes or until chicken is white. Stir in ham, cook 2 additional minutes. Stir in the Cajun Seasoning Mix, onion, green pepper, and celery. Cook and stir until vegetables are almost tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in tomato sauce and chicken broth, bring mixture to a boil. Stir in rice, cover and reduce heat to SIMMER. Cook 20 minutes or until rice is done. Do not remove cover while rice is cooking.

YIELD: 6-8 (1 cup) servings. NOTE: If a more spicy flavor is desired, add additional cayenne pepper.

CAJUN SEASONING MIX

This delightful combination of spices will give any recipe that spicy flavor typical of New Orleans cuisine.

2 tablespoons basil, 2 tablespoons oregano, 2 tablespoons paprika, 1 tablespoon plus 1 tsp. thyme, 2 teaspoons cayenne pepper, 2 teaspoons garlic powder, 2 teaspoons mace and 2 bay leaves.

Put all ingredients into blender container. Process at SPIND until blended. Use as directed in cajun recipe. YIELD: approximately 1/2 cup.

BAILEY COUNTY BAND IS NOW ORGANIZED

The manager of the George Furniture and Undertaking Co., and our band director motored to Progress on Tuesday and took orders for something like $500 worth of musical instruments for some musicians who will be in the band here. Progress also organized a school orchestra and are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the instruments. Boost for the band. A good band or two in the county is the best advertisement a town or county can have, so let's all get behind the boys and root from every standpoint for this worthy undertaking.

RECORD COLD TEMPERATURE IS RECORDED

In what was an apparent low temperature, accompanying the heavy 17 inch plus snow in this area last weekend was a low - 1

At presstime Wednesday, vestiges of the snow were still noted throughout the area, especially in the shaded areas, after a warming trend on Tuesday.

Hospital Closed

at the hospital.

Further query of McLarney brought out the information, according to McLarney that the Muleshoe hospital was one of the three being closed by Westworld. He cited the lack of community support for the hospital as the deciding factor for closing the hospital in Muleshoe.

During a general meeting with staff members at WPMC on Tuesday afternoon, one person who attended said McLarney told the employees that some of the nearly 100 employees could transfer to other Westworld facilities. The employee also said they were told that they would not receive benefits, vacation pay, holiday pay or sick leave accumulated by any employee.

The Journal talked with Garry Allen, administrator of Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt on Tuesday morning.

A comparable hospital (47 beds, in a comparable community, the Plains Memorial Hospital has been in a tax-based county-wide hospital district for the past 25-30 years, according to Allen.

He said that when he arrived in Dimmitt six weeks ago, the average daily occupancy was 0 and now the average occupancy rate is 10 patients per day. "I expect to have the average to 15-18 in the near future," said

Allen. Private room rates at the hospital are $150 per day, semi-private, $138 and ICU is $150 per day, plus $60 if telemetry is used.

Allen also said prices for services at the hospital are based on DRG (Diagnostic Related Group) for Medicare and Blue Cross, and everything else is priced according to services provided.

The administrator said one wing of the hospital was being closed, and converted to specialty clinics and therapy departments to utilize space that would be unuseable with a less than 20 patient population.

He explained that the tax rate for the hospital district is 10.66 cents per $100 valuation ($10.66 per thousand, or $106.60 per $100,000 valuation), thus a home or business valued at $50,000 would have an additional $53 tax per year to maintain the hospital.

There are four doctors in Dimmitt, and emergency room cost is $30.50, which the administrator said he believed was competitive and probably a low cost for this area.

The ambulance service is jointly operated by the city, county and hospital, with each of the three entities sharing one-third of the cost. The three ambulances are based at the hospital.

The nursing home in Dimmitt is completely separate from the hospital, and not a part of its operation.

Area Auto Fatalities Reduced

In 1985, 84 persons were killed in automobile crashes in the 17 county District Five of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, according to Mel Pope, district engineer, of Lubbock. This number is 23 less than the number of persons killed in automobile crashes in the district in 1984. However, traffic accidents have increased in the district from 10,669 in 1984 to 11,733 in 1985.

"Traffic safety education and seat belt laws have been contributing factors to the decrease in fatalities," Pope said.

"Alcohol, speeding, not wearing seat belts and apathy seem to still be our greatest problems," Pope added.

There were 171 accidents in Bailey County along in 1985, none of which were fatal, and with 81 injuries.

Of the 59 accidents investigated in Cochran County, there were no fatalities recorded, and 36 injuries; Lamb County had two fatalities and 128 injuries in the 255 accidents checked and Parmer County had one fatality and 118 injuries in the 164 accidents in that county.

To further help bring down the great number of accidents and fatalities, the SDH&PT will be working more closely with local traffic officials, police departments, and schools for education of the community as a whole.

The city of Lubbock has a grant of $34,907.38 this year from the Department for a DWI Selective Traffic Enforcement Project (STEP). These funds are used to pay salaries for personnel at 20 specific locations in Lubbock where DWI problems exist. Captain Gordon Hoffman is the coordinator for the project.

The SDH&PT has available a Project Graduation kit to help high school seniors have a chemical free graduation party.

This kit shows students, teachers and parents how to make chemical-free graduation parties so enticing that everyone will want to attend. Two hundred high schools in Texas had such graduation parties last year. There were 36 such parties in the 17-county Lubbock district. Kits are available at the SDH&PT district office.

"We are making an effort to reduce our traffic problem and save lives. If people would obey the laws, wear safety belts, eliminate drunk driving and use caution and good judgment in driving," added Pope, "our fatalities would drop tremendously."

"Safety precautions are used in building our highways," Pope said. "We would like to see our motorists drive with that same kind of precaution."

Religion would have more converts if it didn't interfere with the way some people live.

Three Way Adds Two To NHS

Two sophomore students from Three Way High School were inducted into the membership of the National Honor Society in an afternoon ceremony at the high school on October 15.

These two members were selected by a faculty council for meeting high standards of scholarship, service, leadership and character.

The new inductees are Dolle Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barker, and Jarrod Sowder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Sowder.

They join the present members, Matt Sowder and Robert Zamora, in forming the 1986-87 Three Way Chapter of the National Honor Society.

The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. Chapters exist in three-fourths of the nation's high schools and, since 1921, more than six million students have been selected to membership.

More than two million dollars in scholarships have been awarded to senior members since 1945 by the sponsoring organization, the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

The language arts area features English I-IV, as well as electives such as vocabulary, research/technical writing, and creative writing. Teachers in the English department include: Denise Keeling, who teaches freshman English; Pam Gamble, sophomore English; Pat Watson, English III, research/technical writing, and creative writing; Johanna Wrinkle, English IV academic and honors and vocabulary; David Gray, correlated language arts; and Jim Stewart, English IV regular.

English IV academic and honors classes are reading HAMLET at the present and students in those classes are trained intensively in the art of writing. Both of these classes are college-preparatory and

Band Beats Its Drum

The Mighty 'M' band has finished a very successful marching season. The band is already on their way to receiving sweepstakes for 1986-87. Their rating of I at U.I.L. gives them one-third of what they need.

Friday night the band performed the final show of the season at the game against Dimmitt. The show was one of their better performances and it was unlike most halftime shows. The senior varsity football players were given the opportunity to march one last time, and some of the players did participate in the performance. The senior band members were also called to the side line before the last song. They were recognized and received handshakes and hugs for their hard work over the past several weeks.

The band did not just stop their weekend activities there, however, they decided to have a wild and crazy Saturday afternoon after having busy Saturdays recently. They played their annual band football game. The referee was Mr. Heidel, and the teams were comprised of senior-freshman versus sophomore-junior students. The game was quite wild with a minimum amount of refereeing and a very undecided final score. To make the game more intriguing, many "freshman" students who were home from college joined in the game on the senior-freshman team. The game was a lot of fun, and those who played may have memories of that afternoon for many days to come.

The band also is starting a new phase, the concert band. The next item on the agenda will be the Christmas concert, featuring the Mighty 'M' band, jazz band, junior high band, and the cadet bands.

involve a wide variety of literature and types of writing, including a research paper which will be done in the spring semester. Students in the English III classes are required to take the TEAMS test, a state-mandated test that each student must pass before he can graduate from a Texas high school. An intensified review over basic skills in grammar and reading is presented during the first six weeks of school. Writing skills are stressed at the junior level throughout the year, and specific types of writing include the opinion essay and the literary paper. Literature is a vital part of the junior curriculum. Students read and analyze a variety of short stories in poetry; in addition, the classes read selected novels such as THE HOBBIT for regular classes and GIANTS IN THE EARTH for honor students. Other selections will include KING LEAR, a Shakespearean tragedy and Hawthorne's THE SCARLET LETTER.

Fourteen personable juniors and seniors are currently enrolled in vocabulary. Although learning definitions of words is the primary goal of the class, the ultimate goal is entering the words into the daily vocabulary of the students. As they learn the definition of a word, they learn its relationship to other words. The ability to do word analogies is of prime importance when students take the ACT or SAT test.

The teacher, Mrs. Johanna Wrinkle, has the class do writing assignments to show ability to use the words correctly. On the lighter side, the students play charades, have word contests, and do cartoon illustrations. Study of Latin and Greek prefixes and suffixes comprises a large part of the year. In a fast-changing world where new words are coined daily in the scientific and medical word, it is important that students have a firm grasp on word roots. Any student can benefit from the class but those who are planning to go into science or medicine will find the class essential.

Seventeen students are enrolled for the one-semester course in research/technical writing. Students learn to research a variety of subjects and prepare written research papers and technical reports. They also present oral technical reports. Creative writing, a spring semester course, enhances a student's ability to express himself in a variety of areas such as poetry, short stories, children's stories, and characterizations.

Correlated language arts is a remedial program designed to meet the needs of students who test below grade level in language arts skills. Students are instructed in basic skills. Some area of language arts instruction is available for every student at MHS, and teachers work to help their students gain necessary skills in reading and writing.

Most of us give little time to giving thanks for all our blessings.

MHS Civic Classes Hold Mock Election

Each of the three civics classes at MHS presented a mock political rally and election under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Jean Allison. These events were held in room 25, which was decorated in a patriotic motif and was crowded each period with visiting classes and other guests. The mock rallies and elections were videotaped by channel 6 and were shown at 7:00 p.m. during the election returns on Tuesday, November 4.

Each of the three classes conducted their own election for the 19th Congressional District Representative and the governor's race. Candidates for these offices were selected by class members, as well as campaign chairpersons, speakers for the candidates, members of the press and master of ceremonies. Each member of the class researched the candidates, their views and the issues of the day in order to play their roles realistically.

Following opening ceremonies which featured patriotic music, the invocation, and pledge to the flag, a welcome and short explanation of the events were given by the master of ceremonies. This was followed by speeches for each of the candidates, introductory speeches for the candidates by the campaign chairpersons, and speeches by the candidates themselves. After the speeches were concluded, a press conference was held, with members of the press acting as famous news reporters. These Students attempted to put the candidates "on the spot" with timely issues.

At the conclusion of the press conference, everyone present voted for the candidates of their choice. These elections predicted the real election as candidates Larry Combest and Bill Clements won and by nearly the same percentages. This was the ninth year that the mock election and political rally have been presented by the civics classes, and nearly every year, they prove to be predictors of the real election.

The following students played the following parts in each of the three mock political rallies and elections:

Know THE Weather

In the formation of clouds and moisture particles, does air contract as it rises?
 Air, of course, expands on rising. What contracts is the capacity of the rising air to hold moisture as it cools in rising. Relative humidity thus increases as rising air cools and if the dewpoint is reached clouds are formed.
 Fog therefore is created near the ground when air with sufficient moisture is cooled. A good rule of thumb, is that for each 20 degrees change in temperature relative humidity is either doubled or halved.
 If air at more than fifty percent relative humidity is cooled twenty degrees F., its capacity to hold moisture is halved and the dewpoint is reached and fog or precipitation results. That's what happens when air is cooled as it rises and forms clouds.
 One can expect a decrease in temperature of about two degrees F. for each thousand feet-as a general but not exact rule.

COTTON TALKS
 FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK, Friday, October 31, 1986
 The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 makes every U. S. employer, including cotton producers, ginners and others in agriculture, an involuntary, unpaid and in most cases unwilling agent of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS).

Beginning December 1, the legal status of every person employed in the U. S. will have to be established, not by INS, but by the employer on pain of severe fines and possible jail terms. Passage of the 1986 act marks the first time in history that employer sanctions have been imposed for the hiring of illegal aliens.

"It's a sad state of affairs," comments Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, "but for the time being at least it's something we have to live with and we'd best be aware of the law's provisions."

Fortunately, Johnson says, there is a grace period before full enforcement. For the first six months the Border Patrol arm of INS will suspend enforcement while forms, information and final regulations on the act's provisions are disseminated. During the next year, citations will be issued but no penalties imposed. Beginning May 1, 1988, the fine will be from $250 to $2,000 per illegal alien for a first violation, $2,000 to $5,000 for second offenses, and $3,000 to $10,000 per unauthorized alien for subsequent violations.

An employer who is deemed to have engaged in a pattern or practice of violations will be fined up to $3,000 per alien and jailed for not more than six months. INS can seek an injunction against employers if a pattern of employment, recruitment or referral of illegals is proved, and the employer would be found in contempt of court for future violations.

Specific documents are required by the act as proof of each worker's legality. The attorney general will supply a form, to be signed by employer and employee, attesting that employees are not illegal. This form, together with copies of required documents, must be kept available for INS inspection for three years.

Failure to maintain the form and documents leaves the employer subject to a $100 to $1,000 civil penalty per worker.

A U. S. passport, naturalization certificate or resident alien card with photograph are the only single documents acceptable as proof of status. Otherwise both a Social Security card or birth certificate and a driver's license with photograph are required.

Border Patrol officers and Department of Labor representatives will be authorized to check verification records and forms after June 1, 1987.

There's one plus for employers in the new law, Johnson notes. The Border Patrol may not enter the premises of a farm or other outdoor agricultural operation to interview workers without the employer's consent or a properly executed search warrant.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

Select color, texture and shapes in decorating a room as you would correlate an attractive costume.

Remove mildew from wood, painted shelves, and leather with a cloth dipped in plain, straight vinegar.

One of the quickest ways to lose your mental poise and outward appearance is to couple late hours with over indulgence in alcohol and cigarettes. Alcohol has a tendency to dry the skin and thus make a perfect breeding place for wrinkles. Smoking is bad for the circulation and health. Anything that has a detrimental effect on your health will help to destroy your good looks.

Before washing any new colored garment, always check the manufacturer's tag for washing instructions. You may find that the garment should not be washed in the machine at all, but by hand.

Plant onions now in southern states for spring harvest.

Plan your Thanksgiving menu now. Choose your turkey early to get the size you desire. Keep frozen in your freezer.

A ready-to-cook turkey weighing 6 to 12 pounds will make 6 to 12 servings. Allow three-fourths to 1 cup stuffing per pound of turkey.

For Your Skin

In the November issue of "Consumer Reports", that magazine's testers reported on chocolates and skin moisturizers.

The best, according to the tests, was Sea Breeze Moisture Lotion, which sells for 83 cents an ounce. The second best was Nivea Moisturizing Lotion, which sells for 23 cents an ounce. Third best was Youth Guard, at $1.52 an ounce. Lancome Progres, ranked fourth, was also expensive, at $1.91 an ounce. But the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th ranked brands were all inexpensive.

Wondra Regular Scent was 25 cents an ounce, CVS Special Care was 10 cents an ounce, CVS Cocoa Butter was 12 cents and Soft Sense With Skin was 24 cents. Ranked 23rd only was the second most expensive brand--Estee Lauder Private, at $3.33 per ounce! The most expensive, Nina Ricci L'Air du Temps, was ranked 26th. It costs $3.43 per ounce!

How much does one vote count? It could be a lot. The narrowest recorded percentage win in an election would seem to be for the office of Southern District Highway Commissioner in Mississippi in 1979. The winner got 133,587 votes; the loser, 133,582; a difference of .0001 percent.

PROGRESS
Progress is on the march. There is a great boom in building. Cures are being found for maladies that have killed mankind for centuries. Industry is doing magnificent things. But what sort of progress is being made in human relations--this term that includes respect for the person and property of others and good will among men.

There is one agency striving for progress in this field. This agency is the church. At the birth of Jesus Christ, the following prophecy and promise was given to mankind by a host of angels: "Glory to God in the Highest Heaven! Peace upon earth among men of goodwill!" Luke 2:14. (Phillips translation). Only when the majority of men on earth are men of goodwill, will we have peace.

Attend church this week and align yourself with the forces of God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long preserve and the freedom which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's sin, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
