THE VALLEY GINNERS MEET HERE ON FRIDAY TO DISCUSS THE RATES

Ginners of the Pecos valley met here Friday with representatives from all gins except the Otis and Malaga gins. The matter of fixing a uniform form ginning rate was the chief purpose of the meeting. A petition was recently sent to the state corporation commission asking that the valley ginning rates be reduced and acting on a communication received from the state corporation commission office, the ginners were unanimous in their decision in asking for a hearing on the rate question. The date of the hearing will be set by the corporation commission.

FOREST BRAMBLETT OF HAGERMAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT FRIDAY

Forest Bramblett, 20 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bramblett, was instantly killed about one o'clock Saturday morning in an auto collision about six miles below Hagerman, when the Ford coupe in which he was riding smashed head-on into a Studebaker sedan driven by L. D. Dalgren of Dexter.

The car in which young Bramblett was riding was driven by R. R. Chambers of Marathon, Texas, who received a small cut across the forehead.

There were three women in the Studebaker car driven by Dalgren, Mrs. Leo Nowak, Sylvia Dalgren, and Mrs. Irene Nowak. The women suffered slight cuts and bruises.

Bramblett's death was caused by his being thrown through the windshield, cutting all the veins and arteries on the left side of the neck. L. A. West was the first to appear upon the scene. He took the women home in his car.

The right front wheels of both cars were smashed and were locked together when Deputy Sheriff Jim Williamson of Hagerman arrived about eight minutes after the accident.

Williamson placed Chambers under arrest pending investigation and Sheriff Harry Thorne was notified.

At the coroner's inquest held here Saturday morning, the jury brought in a verdict that Bramblett came to his death by means of an unavoidable accident. Those serving on the jury were, J. P. Andrus, J. H. King, J. E. Senn, George Evans, C. F. Davis, C. N. Gant. Those called to the witness chair were: C. G. Mason, undertaker, Sheriff Harry Thorne, R. R. Chambers, L. D. Dalgren, Mrs. Leo Nowak, Sylvia Dalgren, Mrs. Irene Nowak and Deputy Sheriff Jim Williamson.

Chambers was arrested by Sheriff Thorne on a charge of driving recklessly and under the influence of liquor. In default of $3500.00 bond, he was taken to jail to await trial on September 24.

The funeral services of Forrest Bramblett were held in the Baptist church Sunday at three p. m. Rev. Harold Dye officiating, and with C. G. Mason in charge of funeral arrangements.

Hundreds of people had to remain on the outside because the church was filled to capacity. Interment was made in Hagerman cemetery.

Ross and Abe Conner returned Tuesday from San Angelo, Texas where they spent a few days attending to business matters.

MAJESTIC THEATER TO INSTALL LATEST IN "TALKIES" IN OCTOBER

Ray Bartlett, proprietor of the Majestic Theatre returned from Denver the latter part of the week, where he completed arrangements for the purchase of a R. C. A. Photophone, the latest model machine used in producing talking pictures. The machine which is the best and latest model on the market, represents an investment of $6,000.00. In connection with the purchase of the Photophone, Mr. Bartlett also contracted for his 1929-1930 films, which are 100 per cent talking and singing pictures. The new talking machine will be installed between the 10th and 15th of next month by a factory representative and Mr. Bartlett plans to hold an open house on one or two afternoons, shortly after the installation.

The theater building front will also be remodeled to accommodate the new talkie machine, making it as near sound proof as possible. French doors will be built across the front and used as an entrance into the lobby. Heavy plush carpets will be placed in the aisles and foyer to prevent unnecessary noises.

The clip which arrived Saturday consisted of ten bags from the Ira Tidwell ranch and was brought in by Henry Jernigan. The fall clip is expected to amount to 120,000 pounds or more and will be stored in the Bullock banquet hall building on Main street. Shipment will likely be made direct to the Boston wool market.

The Association is composed of about forty members and their product is a very high quality. Much of the local mohair produced is purchased by the auto manufacturers and used in making car upholstery, it is said.

NEW TRIANGLE OIL COMPANY WAREHOUSE

Construction on the new sheet iron warehouse of the Triangle Oil Co., located on North First street, opposite the warehouse of the Texas Co., has practically been completed.

The Triangle Oil Co., with headquarters at Clovis is under the management of William G. Head. Mr. Head was here yesterday supervising some of the details of the improvement program and initiating the new local agent, Bert Muncy, who was formerly with the Joyce-Pruit grocery department.

The outside dimensions of the new warehouse of the Triangle Oil Co. is twenty-six by thirty-five feet and the building will contain an office in the front.

The Triangle Oil Co., will distribute Chrysler gasoline and Pennzoil lube. Plans have also been made to carry a full supply of distillate.

LEAVES FOR ARTESIA

SEEK TO DEVELOP TROUT STREAMS IN SACRAMENTOS

It may be possible to develop stable trout streams at points in the Sacramentos where none have been possible before because of the absence of pools in which the fish may be secure from flood washing, and have a chance to grow and mature.

George B. Jewett was home yesterday from his tract in the Sacramentos, where he is working out a system of retaining obstructions in the bed of the canyon, which is in virgin timber and therefore not liable to flood damage under ordinary conditions.

He has built up a long stretch of pools and deeper waters, and obtained the grant of 2500 Rainbow trout fingerlings, which he placed in the waters Tuesday. Game Warden E. L. Perry was much interested in the experiment and gladly recommended the allotment of fingerlings, which were transported and turned loose without the loss of a single fishlet.

As there are several streams in the headwater areas of the Penasco which only need a little intelligent treatment to be made adaptable, apparently the experiment will be watched with a great deal of interest.

It may mean the addition of some splendid waters to the fishing areas of the state.—Souhwesern Dispatch.

HAROLD CHEATHAM IS FATALITY SHOT WHILE RECEIVED SATURDAY AT ROSWELL DANCE

One Arrest Is Made By Sheriff Harry Thorne In Mystery Shooting — The Accused Man Makes No Statement.

William H. Canty of Roswell who has been held in the Chaves county jail since the fatal shooting of Harold Cheatham, age 19, at a dance on West Second street Saturday, was yesterday charged with first degree murder by Sheriff Harry Thorne, according to a statement appearing in yesterday's Roswell Record. Canty the proprietor of the dance hall made no statement when arraigned yesterday morning. He was remanded back to the Chaves county jail to await the action of the Chaves county grand jury.

Mystery shrouds the fatal shooting of a Roswell youth, Harold Cheatham, age 19, who was mortally wounded while attending a dance on West Second street in Roswell, Saturday night. Cheatham was rushed to St. Mary's hospital and died Sunday morning.

The bullet entered the body of the youth just above the heart and penetrated the left lung. The same bullet it was said struck Albert Barnes in the right hand and glanced off, striking Dick Welch in the left shoulder.

More than twenty witnesses were examined at an inquest held at Roswell Sunday, but no one was able to tell who fired the fatal shot. It appears that Cheatham was only an onlooker in a free for all fight that occurred shortly after midnight, when the orchestra struck up the familiar waltz of "Home Sweet Home."

Cecil Roberts and William Canty were lodged in the Chaves county jail a short time after the shooting and are being held for investigation in connection with the case.

SUNSET RANCHER IS STILL MISSING

Dark last night ended the long search for C. S. Wolgamott, resident of Hondo valley. Wolgamott disappeared from home Monday evening. The search was conducted by the sheriff of Lincoln county assisted by about seventy-five men. The territory five miles south and five miles north of the Sunset ranch was thoroughly searched without finding a trace of the missing man.

MORE RAIN FALLS IN VICINITY — IS HEAVY ON WALNUT CREEK

The Pecos valley continues to receive its share of moisture, which isn't especially appreciated by the cotton farmers. Sunday evening a heavy rain fell at the head of the Walnut, northeast of here, causing the creek to get out of its banks and stopped the graveling crew connected with the road oiling operations. No damage was done by Sunday night's rain so far as could be learned.

A heavy mist fell over this area Monday and low heavy clouds continued to threaten rain both Tuesday and yesterday. Rains were heavy on the plains section around Lovington Monday afternoon according to reports. Press reports indicate that a general drought has been broken all over west Texas.

MAY HAVE LOCAL EXHIBIT AT COTTON CARNIVAL

Efforts will be made by the local civic organizations, the Rotary and Lions clubs to arrange for a local exhibit at the Chaves County Cotton Carnival, October 9th to 12th. Committees from the above organizations have been appointed to arrange the final details connected with placing the exhibit. The Rotary committee consists of George Frisch, E. B. Bullock and J. S. Ward and the Lion's committee consists of Landis Feather, Ike Keller and G. S. Deane.

COUNCILLESS TOWN

Artesia is almost a councilless town, all members of the city council are out of the state, except possibly one, Frank Donahue, who may be either in El Paso, Jaurez or Artesia. So far as known this is the first time in the history of the town that Ed Stone, city clerk can't even start a quorum. One councilman is in Texas, one in Kansas, and one in Kentucky.

No new business is likely to be transacted by the city for the next few days at least.

WET WEATHER HOLDS UP THE ROAD OILING OPERATIONS LATELY

Oiling operations on the Dexter-Lakewood stretch of the Pecos valley highway have been delayed due to wet weather. Several miles of the oiled mixture will be placed on the road in short order as soon as weather conditions permit. Gravel has been placed on the stretch of road north as far as the county line and has also been placed on about a mile of the road from Dexter south. The oiled mixture is ready to be spread on several hundred yards of the road from the Penasco bridge south to Dayton, the northern terminus of the finished road.

THIRTY STATES WILL RECEIVE $1,600,000 FROM NATL. FOREST

More than $1,600,000 is due 30 states from the federal government as their share of national forests lying within their borders for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929, according to a statement just sent out by the United States department of agriculture to the comptroller general of the United States. This sum represents more than 25 per cent of the gross receipts of the national forests for the year, and the great bulk of it is owing to western states, in which the principal areas of national forest and other public lands lie.

The state shares of national forest receipts represent a federal payment in lieu of taxes which the states would receive if the national forests were in private ownership, and under the federal statute providing for the apportionment the money must be used by the states for schools and roads.

Lake Martin Loses His Life In Accident Near Clovis

Grain Binder Slips From Jack And Crushes Body — The Body Will Be Shipped Here Where Burial Will Be Made.

Lake Martin of Clovis, age about 43, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Martin of Artesia was accidentally killed yesterday morning. The accident occurred near eleven o'clock. The sad news was conveyed in a telegram received by relatives and few details are known as to how Mr. Martin met his death. It seems that he had jacked the binder up and had gone underneath to make some repairs when the machine slipped off the jack and crushed his body.

D. S. Martin accompanied by his son, Ned Martin and grand-daughter Loveyelle Martin left for Clovis yesterday afternoon. Other relatives left this morning. Miss Loveyelle Martin age 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Martin has been spending the summer here with her grand parents.

Announcement was made here this morning that the body would be forwarded here for burial and is expected to arrive on the south bound passenger tomorrow afternoon. Funeral arrangements are pending.

The deceased is survived by a widow and two children, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Martin, three brothers, Charles, Ned and Irvin, all of Artesia, four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Smith of Ryan, Oklahoma, Mrs. Bernard Cleve, of Elk, Mrs. Jim Berry, Mrs. Harold Dunn and Miss Opal Martin, all of Artesia.

JOINT MEETING OF ROTARY-LIONS CLUBS

One of the most interesting and instructive inter-civic meetings of the year occurred Tuesday noon when the Artesia Rotary Club and the Artesia Lions Club met at the Bullock banquet hall. The program of the day was in charge of George Frisch, chairman of the publicity committee, but in deference to the visitors, Mr. Frisch turned the program over to a number of speakers, including Dr. J. J. Cook of Fort Worth, evangelist, who spoke on the value of community cooperation. Roy Camp singer at the Baptist revival now in progress favored the members and visitors with a solo. Short talks were made by other visitors including Judge W. H. Burnett, of Amarillo, Texas, Glen Ragsdale, of Pampa, Texas and J. W. Wright of El Paso, Texas.

Visitors present at the inter-club meeting were W. T. McAtee, city; Dr. O. E. Puckett, Carlsbad, O. D. Steed, Amarillo, Texas, Roy Camp, Fort Worth, Texas, Dr. J. J. Cook, Fort Worth, Texas; Minor Huffman, Roswell.

ESCAPES SERIOUS INJURY

Clyde Guy, local manager of the Lowrey Keyes Auto Co., escaped serious injuries Wednesday night of last week, when a Chrysler "65" coupe in which he was driving home from Roswell overturned about five miles north of Dexter. The car was being driven at a fast clip, when soft dirt was encountered at the side of the highway. The car turned over three times and then ignited and was destroyed by fire. Mr. Guy was able to crawl out of the car and was later brought home by a passing motorist.

"Thirty-five of forty per is fast enough for me, I would not go through that experience again for a million dollars," Mr. Guy says.

ARTESIA HOTEL CO. ELECTS PERMANENT OFFICERS ON TUESDAY

Directors of the Artesia hotel organization elected permanent officers at a meeting held Tuesday. Some of the officers of this organization, who have served during the construction of the new hotel, may soon leave for other fields of endeavor, now that the hotel is practically completed. It was the opinion of the directors that local men who have made their permanent residence here should compose at least part of the official family.

Martin Yates, pioneer oil man was chosen as president of the permanent organization because of his active interest in promoting the project. C. E. Mann was elected treasurer, J. S. Ward, assistant secretary; Charles H. Sharp, vice-president; J. W. Vasey, vice-president; W. L. McAtee, secretary.

Plans may be made later to erect an office building here by the Pecos Valley Development and Engineering Co., however, there is nothing definite on the project as yet, according to Charles H. Sharp, president. Mr. Sharp stated that officers of this company would remain in Artesia in the event such a building was constructed.

LEAF WORM UNDER CONTROL

Farmers have been diligent in combating the leaf worm, which appears to be well under control from all late reports. Some few are spraying, but the majority of farmers have had little trouble lately.

A MENACE TO YOUR LIFE

If liquor is a necessary part of your equipment in motoring, put it in the engine of your auto, rather than your stomach. Everybody will feel safer. The timid among the older residents feared the man who came into town, got a couple of drinks under his belt and proceeded to shoot up the village. As dangerous as the two gun man might have been, he was not the menace to society that the modern drunken driver of to-day is. Like an officer recently remarked the chances are that the drunk man with a gun would have stopped with killing one man, but the drunken driver is different, he may unwittingly kill an entire family.

It does not make any difference how careful you drive. You may have driven an auto for twenty years without an accident, if you have you are lucky for every time you motor on the highway you are taking a chance, even though you observe all of the traffic regulations, the fact that you are careful and obey the regulations isn't going to stop some fellow, who has one drink too much from running into you.

Public opinion can stop the intoxicated driver from appearing on our streets and highways, just the same as it can stop any other evil. When convicted, officers and court officials can assess a jail sentence and a fine, rather than the fine, and finally break up the menace that threatens your life. It's up to the public. What will you do?

DE PRIEST AND RACE HATREDS

Chicago's negro congressman, Oscar DePriest, continues to preach his hatred of the whites, attempting to arouse his own people in a bitter fight to break the color line.

DePriest was elected legally, and the Chicago district has the right to make its own particular selection to congress, but DePriest is not working for the interests of his own race when he tries to stir up racial hatred.

Probably the bitterest criticism of the negro congressman has come from a source not expected, a Massachusetts newspaper, the Worcester Telegram. It does not criticize him because he is a negro but because he stirs up race hatred.

DePriest recently spoke in New York, and the Worcester paper said "he is not fit to participate in the making of American laws."

"DePriest exhorts a crowd of frenzied negroes to more acute race consciousness and more furious race aggressiveness. He bids them vote in mass for any and all negro candidates regardless of the worth or non-worth of these candidates.

"He says that when he appointed a cadet to West Point he appointed him not for his scholarly or soldierly attributes but because he was 'the blackest boy I could find.' He demands organized effort for the breaking of the color line.

"Let us leave out of consideration any question of the superiority of the white race or the black race. It is the duty of a member of the American congress to direct his energies for the benefit of the American people—all the American people.

"DePriest, however, is concerned only for such American people as are black. Fortunately he is not dangerous.

"There are far too many respectable Americans, white and black, to permit the development of such as he beyond the point of excessiveness.

"But he is flagrantly offensive. He is flagrantly offensive not because he has a yellow skin and kinks in his white hair, but because he is a flannel-mouthed demagogue, recklessly inciting an emotional people to racial hatred.

"And while in Harlem he exalts the black and exorcises the white, in his own Chicago jungle his main political connivance is with those white heelers whose political achievements are represented by their ability to play the black and tan game."

People of the south who understand the problems of the negro better than do people of the north, will readily agree with the Massachusetts paper. They see the truth in the statement that DePriest is dangerous to his own people.

No one can blame DePriest or any other negro for furthering the interest of his own people, but when he tries to arouse them to hatred of whites, he is the worst enemy of all.

Most newspapers think that Frank Quinn, highway purchasing agent will get "it in the neck," when the matter of graft is referred to a grand jury investigation September 15th. Quinn might have been accepting political money and if so, that is just more evidence that the highway commission should be non-partisan.

The Town Doctor (The Doctor of Towns)

ON

THE NEXT FEW MONTHS ARE BUYING MONTHS

You are going to buy many new things in the next ninety days, but the kind of a buy you make will depend on how well posted you are on that for which you are in the market, and how well posted you are on the various places to buy it. The way to be posted is to know all there is to know about both. Therefore, common sense and good business judgment says, "study up, that you may get your money's worth."

You do not have to go out of your home, your office, or your place of business to get the best possible information. You can learn all there is to know about everything offered for sale, if you will just read newspaper advertising.

Many people get the wrong idea of advertising. There are dozens of definitions; but regardless of any of them, advertising is to you an opportunity to study, learn, and get posted on the things for which you are in the market. It used to be "read the ads and get stung;" nowadays it is "Fail to read the ads and buy blindfolded."

A fraud can misrepresent when he talks to you, but he doesn't dare lie in a good newspaper—that is why a lot of shysters don't advertise in good newspapers. There are some good concerns who don't advertise, but that is no sign they are frauds—it is just a sign they are old-fashioned and behind the times.

If a concern does not invite you to do business with them, give you a reason why you should do business with them, and keep doing both until you become a customer at least once—if they fail to do this then they have no reason or right to complain if you do not patronize them.

Advertising pays and the fellow it pays is you. That's not "bunk"—its facts. The only bunk about advertising is the claim that all advertising is good advertising. That "bunk" is the rock on which many a good business ship has been wrecked. Good advertising informs you, keeps you posted on values, market conditions, prices, etc., on all those things which you must buy and those things you would like to buy, and some day will buy.

Read the advertising in your local paper and keep up to date—pay no attention to this advertising, and you will get behind. The truth of the matter is that in any good newspaper there is more valuable reading in good advertisements than in the news columns—in fact, the advertising columns are the real news columns.

Your newspaper—this newspaper—is the catalog of all those things offered for sale by the merchants of Artesia. Consider it as such. Read and study those columns of each page that tell what you may buy and where and how you may buy it—and remember, that when you do this you are not doing the paper or the merchants any favor—you are doing yourself a good turn, and proving yourself a wise business man.

DILLON'S APPOINTMENT

According to press reports, considerable criticism has arisen in the republican ranks over the appointment of Harry Patton of Clovis to succeed Judge Carl A. Hatch as judge of the ninth judicial district.

This isn't the first time Dillon's appointments have been criticised. He is either politician enough to know the popular demand or has the interest of the people of the district involved to make the right appointment in almost every case. The old party system slogan that "To the victors belongs the spoils," appears a bit antiquated in modern times. It will be remembered that the adoption of this slogan after the Civil War, when the Carpet Baggers invaded the south has cost the republican party the solid south for more than a half century.

The same report says that the appointment of Patton met with outspoken criticism from the Cutting faction, which seems a bit peculiar since Cutting was formerly aligned with the democratic party.

Anyway we venture the assertion that Patton's appointment by Dillon was the most popular in the district and may gain Dillon many votes, in the event he enters the political arena, as well as enable him to keep the respect of his political opponents.

COOPERATION BETWEEN COMMUNITIES

Action speaks louder than words in the matter of cooperation between communities, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding. There is considerable agitation at the present time among the communities of the Pecos valley for a closer cooperation, which is very commendable, however so far as Artesia is concerned, older residents who have taken an active part in communities affairs, would have to live down some of the past experiences before the project could become a success.

The "Hoopee," methods employed by some of our neighbors who feed us honey in our presence and give us "Hell," once they are out of the community, is a fine example of wasted effort, so far as it concerns the local community. It is very obvious therefore that there must be a sincerity of effort and sincerity of purpose before inter-community cooperation can even make a start. We are not going to throw anything in the way of a move of this sort for we believe that it is a fine spirit. We will just attend to our own business, saw wood and say nothing until it is determined whether or not the moving spirit of such a project is earnest and unselfish.

A WORD TO THE WISE

"You want to have your earnings and your property secure. You want a free and fair opportunity to conduct your own business and make your way in the world without danger of being overcome by a government monopoly. When the government goes into business it lays a tax on everybody else in that business and uses the money that it collects from its competitors to establish a monopoly and drive them out of business. No one can compete. When the government really starts into a line of business that door of opportunity is closed to the people. It has always been an American ideal that the door of opportunity should remain open."—Calvin Coolidge, former president of the United States.

FOREIGN COTTON IS THREATENING THE SOUTH'S STAPLE CROP

"One American manufacturer uses 80 per cent Egyptian cotton because he cannot get as fine or as long cotton in this country. There is no blinking the facts as they exist. American cotton supremacy is not only threatened but is slowly being undermined," writes Arthur Coleman in the current issue of Holland's Magazine.

Amazing as it may sound to southern people who look upon cotton, the bulwark of our existence, as a matter of course and a never ending source of revenue, much of the cotton now grown is absolutely useless in the manufacture of anything made in this country except the shoddiest of material. Nearly fifteen per cent of the 1928 crop was short staple, and more of this class is grown each year.

Mr. Coleman says, "for many years American short cotton has been shipped to Japan and Europe where it is used in the manufacture of underwear, blankets, cheap rope, twine and other commodities. In those countries it is forced to compete in price with cotton from China and India. Cotton grown with the cheapest of cheap native labor 'Coolie' cotton, it has come to be called. In order to compete with this cheap cotton, American cotton must be cheaper.

"Particularly it must be cheaper than Indian cotton, for India raises a short cotton that is the best for the uses to which it is put to be had. There are mills in America where domestic short cotton could not supplant Indian cotton if the American cotton was given away. India's cotton is stronger and better than American short cotton. China's cotton is better. This is not my opinion. It is the statement of a cotton goods manufacturer who operates one of the largest concerns of its kind in the country and whose product is nationally recognized as one of the best."

Mr. Coleman points out how and why short staple, untenderable cotton is becoming more popular with southern farmers; how this affects the price of all cotton; what this means to southern business and many other facts about cotton which most southerners who have seen cotton all their lives know little about.

WAY STATIONS FOR MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

A number of eastern sportsmen, with large estates, are providing resting places for wild ducks and geese by blasting out ponds where the birds may tarry on their long flight from the south to nesting grounds in Canada. The practice is recognized as a real contribution to game conservation and restoration.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING

The reports of delegates to the department meeting in Las Cruces last week were an interesting part of the monthly meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. George Dungan, Green Valley ranch, Monday afternoon. There was a good attendance with one visitor, Mrs. Mack Pior of Amarillo, Texas. One member was added to the roll, Mrs. Aleck McGonagill of the field.

The unit was very happy to report the election of its treasurer, Mrs. Albert Richards, to the position of department president, and in appreciation of this honor voted to offer a prize of a $10.00 gold piece to the unit making the greatest membership gain during the coming year. Perhaps the item in the delegate reports which awakened the keenest interest was the one telling of the Artesia unit winning the $10.00 gold piece for the best unit report of the last year's work.

Nominations for officers for the ensuing year were made in preparation for the election, which will be held at the October meeting. Mrs. Myron Bruning was associated with Mrs. Dungan in entertaining the company and the refreshments served by the two ladies consisted of delicious ice cream and cake.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Rachel Swift was nine years old last Saturday and her mother, Mrs. Swift, entertained fifteen little girls in her honor, from three until five o'clock in the afternoon. It was a pink and white party from the lovely birthday cake with nine candles to the beautifully decorated table and the pretty doll favors. Refreshments consisted of birthday cake, ice cream and mints. The little girls who helped Rachel enjoy the anniversary were, Glenna and Nina McLean, Lela Bess Mann, Peggy and Betty Jo Brainard, Florine Muncy, Margaret Virginia and Minnie John Kyle, Georgie Lee Williams, Joan Littlejohn, Helen Meredith Gates, Wilma and Mary Paton, Clara Sinclair, Margaret Attebery and Helen Louise Wells.

THE YOUNG MOTHERS' CLUB

"If a Child Could Choose Its Parents," was the striking title of a paper given by Mrs. C. A. Bulot at the meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. R. L. Kyle last Friday afternoon. The thought provoking subject drew out an animated discussion and should have a marked effect in making the parents what the child would wish them to be.

The birthday anniversaries of two of the children, J. B. Kyle, one year, and Darleen Dunn, four years, was recognized with pretty gifts. Mrs. Kyle had as her guests her mother, Mrs. Z. B. Moon and Mrs. Wellington Haskins and Mrs. A. C. Smith from the field. Delicious refreshments were a pleasing part of the social hour.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Keller were hosts at one o'clock dinner on Sunday, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cox and the Misses Mary Keller and Freddie Holmes, all of Hope.

Jackson, chairman, arranged an attractive program and at the close served punch in the dining room. There were a number of visitors, among them were two from out of town: Mrs. Bryan Runyan of Lower Penasco and Mrs. Gayle Talbot, a former resident of Artesia and charter member of the club. Mrs. Talbot gave an interesting note to the program by giving some reminiscences of the founding and early days of the club, her remarks being supplemented by those of a few other early day members. Mrs. J. W. Graham contributed to this very informal program with a reading, which was so heartily enjoyed that she responded to an encore. Mrs. H. A. Stroup gave a brief description of the wonderful national cathedral in process of construction on Mt. St. Alban, near Washington, and dwelt more at length upon the splendid example of patriotism which is finding expression in the great Washington Memorial at Valley Forge, near Philadelphia, the aim of which is to do fitting honor to Washington and other patriots, some three thousand of whom succumbed during that terrible winter of Valley Forge.

Mrs. G. U. McCrary, a clever writer, whose contributions have found their way into the magazines, favored the company with an original nature story, of which the subject was the mocking bird, and which was interestingly told and was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Fred Cole gave a charming vocal number, with Miss Helen Mann, accompanying. Miss Mann also played for the attractive little selection, "The Minuet," given by Elsie Jernigan, who responded to an encore with "When Grandma Was a Little Girl."

The next meeting of the club will be held in the Central school auditorium Wednesday, October 2nd.

Members were more than pleased with attendance at Bible school last week. Our number is increasing and there are several who are coming away from Bible school and service. We are having new members added to our classes every week for which we are thankful.
Every member of the church will present every Lord's day, if possible, it wouldn't be long before the churches would be full, and we can't expect to have much increase on the worldly man and woman, if members of the church will, and engage in the worldly ways. You are either for God or for mammon. Which side are you on?

Stone Eye Glass Service

Defective eyesight affects the entire nervous system, and this incapacitates you for proper performance of any duties you may have.

Many a man has lost a good position by continually feeling "all in" and thereby not having the proper "pep." This is often traceable to defective eyesight.

If you feel languid, have headaches, get irritable at times, it may be your eyes. They should be examined by an optometrist, for you may need glasses.

Don't be incapacitated—have your eyes attended to—let us examine them—if you do not require glasses we will tell you—make sure.

POSSES SEARCHING FOR A LOST RANCHER IN LINCOLN COUNTY

Posses from Lincoln county were to-day searching canyons and hills south of Picacho for C. S. Wolgamott, who for many years was a resident of this city. Up to a late hour this afternoon nothing had been heard of him, although three separate searching parties had spent the night and this morning searching for him.

Mr. Wolgamott mysteriously disappeared from Sunset ranch, south of Picacho just before dark last night. He had milked the cows and brought the milk to the house where it was turned over to Mrs. Wolgamott. Wolgamott then left the house and within a few minutes, Mrs. Wolgamott heard a scream.

Mrs. Wolgamott then went to look for her husband and failing to find him notified neighbors. Posses from Picacho, Tinnie and Hondo gathered last night and spent the night in search up and down the river and in the canyons and hills in every direction from the ranch.

The search was resumed this morning and Carrizozo, Roswell and other points were notified to be on the lookout for him.

Mrs. Wolgamott told Lincoln county officers that her husband had been subject to spells which caused him to wander away and it was feared that he had fallen and injured himself or was dead in some remote canyon in the hills south of the Sunset ranch.—Roswell Record, Tuesday.

LEA COUNTY POOL MAY BE BIGGEST IN U. S.

It now appears more probable that this county has the largest oil pool in area of any yet discovered in the United States, if not in the whole world.

This pool is located in the Hobbs area about 22 miles southeast of Lovington, with every indication favoring its further extension in this direction.

Oil men claim that the bringing in of the Walker well southeast of Hobbs proves that there is at least sixty-three square miles in this distinct oil pool. This well upset the calculations of practically all the geologists, "lease-hounds" and "rock-hounds" who have been operating in this territory. According to all calculations this well should have been either a dry hole or such a small producer as not to be a paying well. It was running so much lower structurally than the Midwest discovery well that little confidence was placed in it. The discovery well came in for about 700 barrels and it was said if this well got as much as 100 barrels it would be a most fortunate find.—Lovington Leader.

TEN MILLION PER MONTH IS LOANED COOPERATIVES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Farm cooperatives of the United States are obtaining loans from the federal farm board at the rate of $10,000,000 monthly to assist them in marketing crops on a basis that will yield the highest profit to the growers, figures obtained from the board disclosed recently.

Since its organization three months ago the board has authorized loans aggregating $30,330,000 and chairman Alexander Legee said recently it plans to continue its liberal loan policy toward cooperative associations until its $150,000,000 appropriation is entirely utilized.

Congress authorized an appropriation of $500,000,000, of which the board has obtained only $150,000,000.

CHRYSLER MAINTAINS SERVICE SCHOOL FOR CHRYSLER MECHANICS

"The automobile service man should be as well informed in his particular line of work as is the lawyer, the surgeon, or any man who is considered a specialist," according to H. E. Heath, service manager of the Plymouth Motor Corporation. "The day of the back-alley mechanic, who picked up here and there a slight knowledge of the automobile, is passed. In his place has appeared the service mechanic who is a specialist—trained for the particular work that he does, and capable of efficiently handling any phase of automobile maintenance. "One of the principal factors behind the development of the modern automobile service department of the successful automobile dealer has been the Chrysler Institute for service education—a school maintained by Chrysler Motors for the purpose of training Plymouth, De Soto, Dodge and Chrysler dealers and service men in the proper maintenance of Chrysler Motors automobiles," declared Mr. Heath. Plymouth dealers and their service men are taking a keen interest in this service school. Hundreds of them have journeyed to Detroit from all parts of the country and have gone back to their home cities as capable, efficient, and expert Plymouth mechanics. "At the present time," Mr. Heath continued, "the school is making a tour of the country going to the dealers rather than bringing the dealers and their service men to the school in Detroit. In this way the facilities of the school will be available to many who could not make the trip to Detroit. "Trained engineers, men who have had the actual experience of designing and building Chrysler Motors automobiles are the instructors. The students are given a thorough training in the administrative, as well as the mechanical end of the service department. The school is visiting the important cities throughout the country and from the surrounding territories around each of these cities hundreds of dealers and service men are taking advantage of this opportunity to gain first hand knowledge of the products they represent. "The school remains in each city four days," according to Mr. Heath, "and reports reaching the offices of the Plymouth Motor Corporation at Detroit indicate that in each city where the school has been conducted, it has found unusual interest among Plymouth as well as other Chrysler Motors dealers."

Out-of-Town Visits Without Leaving Your Home

Summer almost over—sons or daughters ready to return to school—friends scattered—but there is a way to visit with them all through the year.

"Telephone Hour" has been found a most satisfactory way by many households. Choose a certain hour some day or night each week. Calls are completed in a few minutes—often while you hold the line—and the cost of the "trip" is reasonably low.

The telephone should be one of the greatest conveniences in your home. A conversation with some one of the family away from home is direct, personal, satisfactory, and time saving. If you have recently returned from a vacation, renew friendships by telephone.

Long Distance calling is not complicated. If the out-of-town member of the family, or friend, knows when you will call you can simply give the operator the number of the out-of-town telephone. Calls by number are faster and cost less. If you do not know the number tell the operator you will talk with anyone at the given address. She will tell you the number just before completing the call. Jot it down for future reference.

REDPATH CHAUTAQUA USES CHEVROLETS TO TRANSPORT CIRCUITS

For the first time in its sixteen years of existence Redpath Chautauqua is this year employing passenger cars to transport the members of its DeLuxe circuit. Buses and trains have been used in the past, but the comfort that the passenger car alone affords accounts for its ultimate selection.

The cars are Chevrolet six-cylinder sedans and the task to which they are placed in transporting "bag and baggage" the 40 members of the company is indeed a formidable one. The itinerary of the group trails jaggedly from Florida to northern Wisconsin. The jaunt started April 1 and will not conclude until September at which time approximately 7,000 miles will have been traversed.

Unless one has traveled with a Chautauqua troupe it is almost impossible to realize the rigours entailed by travel of this sort. In the first place, the troupers are in the strictest sense not really troupers at all. They are persons who because of an outstanding reputation are drafted to traverse the smaller cities many experiencing the life of the road for the first time.

Among the celebrities who are traveling by Chevrolet this year over the DeLuxe circuit are Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming; Anne Campbell, the celebrated newspaper post and Captain Dennis Rook, former British army ace and holder of the world's record for the longest solo flight, a trip from London to India, a distance of 7,000 miles.

For four months now the Redpath troupers have been making their one night stands and then hopping on to the next showing place. The 12 Chevrolets have never failed to get their occupants to their destination at the appointed time. Already more than 100 town in a dozen states have been visited. When the tour ends 140 town will have been visited.

Redpath is perhaps the best known Chautauqua in the country. About five years ago it gave up almost altogether the custom of traveling by train. Awakenings at early hours to catch trains resulted in jaded nerves and sometimes in missed engagements. Later, until this year, large buses have been used with an occasional passenger car here and there.

Not only do the Redpath Chevrolets transport the troupers but they also serve as baggage cars. All of the luggage is hauled in trunks placed in racks in the rear. The huge tent weighing nearly a ton is the only piece of equipment not carried by the Chevrolets. This goes by train.

The average jump between show towns is 100 miles. There are afternoon and evening performances. A departure shortly before noon allows ample chance for rest. Then the smooth running Chevrolet sixes click off the hundred miles comfortably in the intervening three hours. There is none of the hurry or bustle that characterized these jumps when they were made by train.

THRIFT GIVES AN OPPORTUNITY FOR SELF-ADVANCEMENT

By S. W. Straus, president American Society for Thrift.

"I have an excellent opportunity to go into business for myself but I cannot take advantage of this because I do not have enough money saved up to use as my share of the initial capital."

How often such experiences as this are heard. The world seems full of opportunities but it is usually the thrifty who can take advantage of them. A few hundred dollars laid away in the bank or safely invested often has meant the turning point in the life of many a man or woman.

One of the greatest values in saving money lies in the fact that our savings often constitute opportunities for enlarged activities and more successful employment of our time. Disraeli said, "The greatest secret of success in life is to be ready when your opportunity comes."

To those who are drifting along from day to day without getting ahead and apparently are making no effort to do so, this advice should come with special force. Money should not be saved merely with the object of being ready for some great opportunity in life, but we should not forget that without saving and getting ahead there will never be opportunity for any material progress.

It also is to be borne in mind that opportunities for great self advancement often come to those who, because of their thrifty habits, have gained the good will and confidence of some person who is in a position greatly to advance their interests.

INSIDE INFORMATION

Roast meat is better cooked without water. In case there is not much fat, get an extra piece of suet and skewer it to the top. Place the meat in a very hot oven to sear on the outside. Then reduce the temperature and cook slowly until done.

Always leave at least an inch of the stem ends on beets when cooking them, so as to prevent what is called "bleeding" or having the color run out. The skins are left on for the same reason. To peel cooked beets quickly drop them for a moment into cold water and the skin and stem can be slipped off. Serve hot, sliced or diced, with butter, salt and pepper.

Soft jelly can be used up in many appetizing ways. Spread is on pancakes; on jelly roll; put it in pastry shells with a bit of whipped cream on top; fill apples that have been cooked tender in sirup with some of it; put a bit on such milk desserts as blanc mange, custard, Spanish cream or bread pudding; use it to sweeten fruit punch; tart soft jelly is good in meat gravy.

Cheese is one of the richest of all common foods in calcium. Many Americans do not get enough calcium in their food to furnish their bodies with the quantity of this mineral needed for building and repairing teeth and bones. Cheese made from whole milk also contains a considerable quantity of fat. The protein of cheese is the same efficient kind as that in meat. A cheese dish is therefore high in food value.

"Good Food Habits for Children," leaflet 42-L, has been issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to help mothers who are trying to train their children in the right eating habits or retrain them if they have acquired wrong habits or prejudices. This bulletin gives reassurance to the mother who has to combat finicky appetites, and also points out her own duty in preparing food that is appetizing and in accordance with modern ideas of what a child should be given to eat. One suggestion is to put smaller portions on a plate and they will be more likely to be eaten up. Another is to avoid talking about food at the table, simply take it for granted that the child will eat what is put before him.

It was erroneously stated in the last two issues of The Advocate that Mr. Reno said "that it was too late to plant your cotton, but time to buy your coal." It was Mr. James that said "it's too late to plant cotton, but time to buy your coal." However, Mr. Reno agrees with Mr. James and since these two men agree, it must be timely advice.

YOUTH--AND THE NEW LEADERSHIP

By CRAIG B. HAZLEWOOD
President American Bankers Association

LEADERSHIP is a picturesque word. With it, one pictures Hannibal fighting his way through the passes of the Alps—Napoleon in his campaigns—or Washington holding together his half-frozen army by the sheer magnetism of his character at Valley Forge. But I visualize something that holds a more astounding spectacle in many respects than any of these. It is the onrush of our business life. Our economic progress plunges ahead at a rate unheard of in the history of the nations of the world and every industrial and financial leader is daily brought face to face with new and perplexing problems requiring the highest courage and intelligence for their solution.

Craig B. Hazlewood

Ninety billions a year, they tell us, this country is now producing in new wealth. The rate of increase is even more staggering than the amount. It is difficult to say where it may lead us in even ten or fifteen years.

We are moving exceptionally fast. Our economic and industrial structure is placing before us problems of greater and greater magnitude. Few men can see far ahead. Few are in complete control, for this is a changing world, as even the most inexperienced business man will readily testify. Our methods of adjusting ourselves rapidly to economic changes and of cooperating are far from perfect.

What an opportunity the leadership of five, ten or fifteen years from now presents! What an adventure it will be! What responsibilities it will lay upon the broadest shoulders that may be found! This is the challenge to leadership as I see it. In the hands of the young men must rest the responsibility of this leadership.

Boys Who Reached the Pinnacles
Business is full of the romance of youngsters whose chief characteristic was working hard and keeping at it. There was a green farmer boy who decided he would rather stand behind a counter than follow a plow. He seemed so obviously lacking in sales ability that for a time no merchant would hire him. He failed in his first position, and in his second his salary was reduced. He even agreed that he was a misfit—but he stuck. Out of his first five stores, I believe, three failed. But he persisted and worked hard. And that boy, Frank W. Woolworth, became the greatest retail merchant in the world with a store in every city of eight thousand or more population in this country.

There was another lad who clerked in a grocery store sixteen hours a day and studied mathematics in his odd moments. He became interested in the doings of the steel plant whose employees traded at this store. He began to study steel and sought a position in the plant. He carried a surveyor's chain and drove stakes. At night he studied mathematics and engineering. He did not despair. He kept the pressure on for seven years. And that boy, Charles Schwab, mastered the iron industry and became one of the country's great industrial leaders.

There was a lad who sold papers on a train. When he grew up, several million men and a score of billions of dollars of capital were given profitable employment through his inventions. Even in middle life, Thomas Edison continued to work twenty hours a day, if necessary to achieve his purpose.

Leadership is not play. Leadership offers countless positions of varying opportunity, of which the highest pinnacles will mean almost unbearable responsibility in the new era. There will be men with the fire and iron to qualify even for these places. Such men must have had the very finest preparation and the most grueling tests. Their reward will be the attainment of these highest pinnacles of achievement, and the rendering of an immeasurable service to their times.

FALL FLOWER EXHIBITS

The fall flowers are making a wonderful showing in the Yard and Garden Contest these days. Yesterday the dahlias and gladioli in the Chamber of Commerce were simply gorgeous and worth any one's trouble to go and see. The old fashioned flowers bouquets were also a thing of beauty. Some of these flowers, when the display was over, went to gladden the hours of patients in the City Hospital. In various ways the effect of the contest on the town has been highly beneficial and the community as well as the growers are better for the effort made to beautify the place in which we live.

Gladioli growers are reminded that they may display one Saturday, when the Cottonwood Dahlia displays, on account of the transient nature of the gladioli.

MORE GOOD COTTON

George Lewis, living on the Martin Yates farm southeast of town brought in a stalk of cotton recently containing 120 bolls of practically grown cotton.
