THE COMMUNITY EXHIBIT

If the Artesia community undertakes to make an exhibit at the Chaves County Cotton Carnival another year, it is hoped that the committee, whose business it is to gather the exhibit will receive a heartier cooperation. It is a comparatively easy matter for those who should take an active interest in an undertaking of this sort to pass the buck. One frequently hears the expression after a fair or carnival is over "Why I had better stuff than you had at the exhibit." The exhibit as now at the booth in Roswell was advertised as widely as practical. If you had something that should have been in the booth, and was not, just remember that you will probably be given the opportunity to contribute another year. In the meantime also hold in mind that it does not buy the community anything to come around and tell the committee about what you had after its over with, for this is the same kind of paving we are told that they are using on the road to hell and over which a good number will likely travel.

THE GROWTH OF A TOWN

There are several ways a town can grow other than by building a lot of new houses and business blocks. A community revival is not necessarily predicted upon the selling of lots.

A town can grow where there is a new appreciation of its resources and possibilities on the part of its citizens.

A town can grow when there is shown a more co-operative spirit to boost.

A town can grow when its forces of education, culture and morality bear fruit in well doing.

A town can grow when business is placed upon a fair level of competition, when greater service is rendered the consumers and a more thorough method is used to establish greater patronage.

A town can grow when there is more neighborliness more get together meetings, more genuine friendship backed by action.

A town can grow when it becomes cleaner in physical aspect; when paint, soap, rake, broom and mop are applied liberally.

A town can grow when motorists are more careful and courteous, and when there is a more devoted attitude shown toward law and order.

A town can grow when its youth is given opportunity for wholesome expression of the instincts common to them, and when adequate facilities are provided for the direction of their talents and ambitions.

A town can grow when its institutions are supported and when its people are consciously active to prove their loyalty to home trade and home business—Alamogordo Advertiser.

THE PASSING OF THE GOOD OLD DAYS

It has not been many years ago since it was no uncommon occurrence for a man to hitch the team to a wagon or surry, take all of the family and go spend the day with a neighbor or a kinsman. With the passing of the more primitive mode of travel, these days seem to have passed. Perhaps it is because most of us can go quickly, the reason we no longer make an extended visit or none at all.

Clubs, lodges and various organization appear to have replaced the old time visits and furnish the opportunity for social intermingling, which man craves. We sometimes hear the old timers bemoaning the passing of the good old days.

Now if a man is so minded he can spend practically all of his time with his clubs and various organizations, leaving little time to spend at home with his family.

WHY DON'T THEY?

The other day a strange woman canvassed the business district for financial support. This woman claimed that she was afflicted with some sort of malady, we do not recall what and that she had two children to support. When she solicited us, we suggested that she see the chairman of the Community Chest and get a recommendation as to her worthiness. If the community Chest Oked her cause we told her that we would be glad to contribute. But somehow the suggestion did not seem to strike her just right and she continued going the rounds among the business houses.

We wondered why she did not take kindly to the idea of the Community Chest investigating her case.

Good people have their faults as well as the bad. Many who no doubt do the very best they know how, have never learned the value of the proper public spirit, the thing that tends to promote closer cooperation between neighbors of any community.

ON

BUSINESS GOES WHERE IT IS INVITED

Merchants who bewail the fact that "business isn't what it used to be," yet fail to refuse to profit by the example of those with whom business is better than it used to be, have no "business" to complain if their business goes elsewhere.

Merchants who spend time crying about new or outside firms taking their business away from them, but shut their eyes to the very evident cause and reason for it, can't blame anyone but themselves if their business goes "floopy."

If business isn't good with you, "beefing" about it all the time won't improve it. Who wants to do business with a constant calamity howler anyhow?

Business is good—there is more business to-day than there ever was—the only difference is there are more and keener concerns after it.

Everybody knows that—your customers included.

If you are not getting the business, it's not your customers' fault.

You can get the business if you will rid yourself of old superstitions and prejudices; if you will take away the nickel you are holding so close to your eyes that you can't see the ten dollar bills on the other side of it; if you will recognize that modern buyers don't and won't do business with old-fashioned sellers, unless they have to—and then do something about it, instead of standing around, wringing your hands and crying about it. If you don't invite the people to do business with you, don't give them, consistently and persistently, every reason why they should do business with you, you surely won't get their business, but the fellow that does, will.

Now, you don't have to do this—its your business and you can run it to suit yourself, but if you won't do it, don't blame anything or anybody but yourself if your business goes on the rocks and your customers forget you.

GOVERNOR DILLON'S REPLY

When asked to make a comment on the Santa Fe county grand jury report with reference to the highway scandal, Governor Dillon did not make an immediate reply. His answer to those who have seen fit to criticize him for his silence is rather interesting. Governor Dillon like most everybody who is familiar with the workings of a grand jury, realizes that the findings of the body depends largely on the diligence of the district attorney, or what ever officer may be empowered to direct the investigation and get the facts. The investigating attorney who may be unduly prejudiced can and oftentimes does influence the findings of the jury. It would therefore be manifestly unfair to condemn a man on a grand jury report alone.

In making his reply, Governor Dillon says in part: "From time immemorial it has been the practice of grand juries at the conclusion of their duties to adopt resolutions and make reports on a variety of subjects. So long as this worked no injustice, they were tolerated. When the integrity of an individual is impugned, and he is publicly censured, without any opportunity to answer, he is justified in appealing to the court to rectify the wrong. A grand jury, under the guise of a presentment, must not be permitted to attack the good name of a citizen. It is unquestionably true that the public mind is impressed by the utterances of such a body. It is a grave matter to charge a public official with misconduct in office. The consequences may be very serious. In this case it cannot be seriously disputed that the emanations of the grand jury reflect on the petitioner's integrity. His official conduct is criticized, his motives are impugned, and he is held out as deserving of chastisement and reprobation. Even a grand jury should not attack with impunity the character of a citizen. Many a man of good repute in the world's ear may have his reputation blasted in this manner."

The Santa Fe county grand jury report indicates that Mr. Charles Springer and Mr. W. C. Davidson had knowledge of certain alleged offenses committed by the said Frank Quinn and on this ground I am asked to dismiss these officers. No attempt is made in the report to show that the said Messrs. Springer and Davidson are guilty of incompetency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office.

The Highway Commission is named by the Governor and confirmed by the state senate and the commission selects the highway engineer and has power to dismiss him if they deem it advisable.

To remove any public official upon such suggestion as given in the report under discussion is a serious matter. Removal under any circumstances would reflect discredit upon these officials forever after, and tend to ruin their reputation for all time. It has never, to my knowledge, been charged by anyone that Mr. Springer or Mr. Davidson are incompetent, neglectful of duty or guilty of malfeasance in office; on the contrary they have the reputation far and wide of being the best road builders in the entire southwest. Mr. Davidson is an engineer. To openly discredit and disgrace him by removal from office, without cause, might deprive him of his means of earning a livelihood. Both Mr. Springer and Mr. Davidson, as far as I know or have ever heard, are men of great ability, high standing and clean reputations, private and public. To openly discredit them and perhaps ultimately ruin their good names by summary dismissal upon charges that have not been proven is something that I shall never do.

Our State Constitution contains the following paragraph on the distribution of government powers:

The governor is the legal head of the executive department and upon him alone rests the responsibility for his actions. After careful deliberation and study, the above is my decision.

R. C. DILLON, Governor.

The Southwestern Dispatch, speaking of the Artesia-Roswell football game says that "Artesia ekes out 6 to 0 win over Roswell." Now "eke" is commonly interpreted to mean that Artesia was just barely able to put it over Roswell. Daniel Webster states that "eke" means to increase; to enlarge or to lengthen. We usually think of 0 as meaning zero. Technically zero is 1-100,000,000,000,000 less than even 1, but we get six. We can not think of a lower score than zero, unless its zero with the rim knocked off.

COMMON SCHOOLS GET 30 PER CENT OF OIL ROYALTY STATE LANDS

In discussing the oil royalties from state lands in the current tax payers bulletin, former Governor H. J. Hagerman says in part:

"The total amount of royalties paid to the state up to date (from June 1925 to August 1929) is, according to the records in the land office $568,468.89 about 30 per cent of which has gone into the common school funds and most of the balance to the university. Practically all of this is from the wells in the Artesia field and nearly all of the royalty payments are now being made by the Continental Oil Co., which controls the refinery at Artesia. There are over a hundred small producing wells in this field and the production is apparently prorated between them, each well producing only a few days continuously."

ALBERT B. FALL JURY IS SELECTED MONDAY AT WASHINGTON D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A jury of seven men and five women was selected Monday to try Albert B. Fall, former interior secretary, on bribery charges growing out of the Elk Hills naval oil reserve lease to Edward L. Doheny.

Apparently bearing in mind the jury shadowing which led to a mistrial in the Sinclair Teapot Dome case, Justice Hitz announced the Fall jury would be locked up.

He said counsel had advised him the trial would take three weeks. Mrs. Fall and their two daughters were among the spectators and Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate who is charged with giving Fall a $100,000 bribe, sat inside the rail.

The termination of the present case will decide whether the oil man will be tried on the same charge, as an indictment charging bribery was also returned against him.

Owen J. Robert, of government counsel outlined the case briefly to the panel.

Two jurors were excused after they said they had formed an opinion on the case and a third woman, Mrs. Helen M. Jarboe, took her place in the jury box.

TRAIN WITH TELEPHONES TRIED OUT 20 YEARS AGO

One of the earliest demonstrations of the use of the telephone on a moving railroad train in this country was made over twenty years ago when the special train of the Chamber of Commerce trade extension excursionists from Pittsburgh was equipped with telephones.

This was in September, 1903. Telephones were installed in each car and the members of the party were enabled to communicate with each other on the train, although in different cars and while the train was in motion. Connection was also established when the train stopped at various places en route, including Parkersburg, W. Va., Canal Dover, O., etc. The members of the Chamber of Commerce were able to converse from their individual Pullmans to their homes in Pittsburgh.

BOND BUYERS IN SANTA FE

SANTA FE.—Bond buyers from different parts of the United States are gathering in Santa Fe to bid on the $2,000,000 highway debenture sale to-day.

It seems practically certain that the issue will be sold. The proposed $3,100,000 issue offered for sale several weeks ago was withdrawn from the market when only one bid, unfavorable, was received.

HIGH GRADE ALFALFA YIELDS MOST PROFIT

The market for alfalfa hay is expanding. There is a big demand for this excellent feed. The substitution of alfalfa, or other legume hays, for timothy hay in the forage rations for all kinds of livestock—especially for dairy cattle—has been the important factor in increasing the demand for alfalfa. Experience has shown that alfalfa or other legume hay, is necessary in the rations of high-yielding milk cows.

The alfalfa hay acreage in the surplus alfalfa producing states of the west, including New Mexico, that have produced alfalfa hay as a cash crop for many years, did not change materially in the six year period ending in 1928. Those who buy alfalfa hays are becoming more critical in their demands for quality hay. They are coming more and more to specify those types or qualities of alfalfa that have been shown by test to make the best feed.

Buyers may rest assured that alfalfa of good quality will be delivered when they specify those U. S. grades of alfalfa that are best suited to dairy feeding. Those grades include U. S. No. 1 or 2 extra leafy alfalfa, U. S. No. 1 alfalfa or U. S. No. 2 leafy alfalfa. The shipper should be asked to attach a complete federal hay inspection certificate to the invoice.

Abundant supplies of the top grades of alfalfa are not always available in some years or seasons. Alfalfa buyers should recognize the fact that greater quantities of U. S. No. 2 and No. 3 alfalfa are produced on American farms than of the top grades of alfalfa, and that such grades as U. S. No. 2 green, U. S. No. 2, or U. S. No. 3 leafy alfalfa are important commercial grades representing sound hay of good feeding quality, though not so desirable for dairy feeding as the higher grades.

Alfalfa prices during recent years have been relatively higher than for other classes of hay. The past two crop years, prices of No. 1 alfalfa have been well above those of other hay with the best leafy types bringing substantial premiums over the ordinary grades. This season the general upward trend in alfalfa has continued. Prices during March reached the highest point in five years and nearly $3.00 above the high point of last year.

Those who are growing this hay for market should make every effort to produce high quality hay to meet the growing demand for dairy alfalfa. It is there that the greatest profit lies in growing alfalfa hay.

SAVINGS MADE EASY IF YOU HAVE DEFINITE OBJECT IN VIEW

By S. W. Straus, president American Society for Thrift.

"I never knew what it meant to save money until I decided that I should like to own a home of my own. Then, in some way, just as soon as I had this definite idea in mind, I found that it was not only hard to save a regular part of my income but I got a big kick out of it."

The writer recently received a letter from which the above is an excerpt and it is here made public in the hope that it will serve as a good suggestion to others. It is an incident of common human experience. No man can read the future and it is not unwise to save money even though we have not definite object in view. Sooner or later the amount of money accumulated in our bank account will serve a useful purpose in our lives. It may help us over a tight place or it may prove to be the foundation of a future fortune. No one should ever be without a certain amount of resources even though the immediate need for them is not apparent.

But it is a fact that with some saving is extremely difficult unless there is some definite object in view. It may be to buy a home, embark in business, secure an education, own an automobile, take a trip abroad, or invest in good securities. Or it may be any one of a thousand other worthy objects. The point is that if you are one of those who cannot save without something definite to save for, then you should find such a definite objective.

Many really think they cannot save. The writer has heard many say, "Money goes through my hands like water through a sieve." This is an admission of unnecessary and unjustified weakness and the best possible way to overcome is it to establish an objective.

Get into the habit of saving. That is the main thing for the longer you save the easier it will become.

Save for a definite purpose. Choose some object that you very greatly desire; then save persistently and systematically until you acquire it. That is an excellent way to begin the practices of thrift.

Chiropractic and Women

Every man, woman and child has a backbone. Chiropractic is effective in elimination of disorders in sufferers of all ages and both sexes. Women, above all, are most often victims of illness and functional incoordination. Chiropractic has proved itself a boon to womanhood—girls, wives, mothers.

Headaches, in a large majority of cases, are speedily and often permanently removed by spinal adjustments. Relief, in many instances, is immediate. So-called nervous headaches, especially in women, are merely the effects of one or of several disorders that may exist in organs remote from the head. Adjustments prove of effective value as a rejuvenator of functions depleted by derangement, by the removal of causative subluxations and the restoration of inactive nerves to full vitality.

Thousands of women who have failed to obtain relief after months, maybe years, of suffering, have been made well through Chiropractic adjustments.

To be Up-to-Date Means to be Up-to-Chrysler

When anything new is produced, there are always those who create and those who follow.

In the change to balloon tires, some makers asserted the new type would never succeed. Four-wheel brakes found some who disastrously supported the two-wheel design. And today, there are engineers who decry the Multi-Range Gear Shift and the Down-Draft carburetor.

Chrysler has never been among those who shun new things—if the new be better than the old.

The public acclaim for Chrysler, instead, has been based on Chrysler's pioneering or ready acceptance of those new creations which have made motoring safer, more comfortable, surer and more economical.

To be always ahead of or abreast of the times, but never to experiment on the public is the real foundation of Chrysler success.

You who prefer the latest, the most advanced, the best, have made Chrysler the most copied car in the world. Because Chrysler has built the kind of cars you up-to-the-minute people want, you have given Chrysler the greatest success in the history of automobile building. We invite your most critical inspection.

LEAVES FOR CONVENTION

M. G. Schulze, manager of the local J. C. Penney Co., store, left last Friday for Los Angeles, where he will attend the fall convention of the J. C. Penney Co., to be held at the Hotel Ambassador in that city.

The convention opened on Monday, October 7, and will continue for the balance of the week.

Representatives from the New York office of the J. C. Penney Co., who will be present at the convention and preside over the general session, will include Chairman W. M. Bushnell, personnel department; E. G. Ruffner, district manager, Seven buyers for important merchandise departments will also be present.

The fall convention at Los Angeles is one of fifteen district convention meetings held at central points throughout the country and attended by over 1400 J. C. Penney Co., store managers.

"The fall convention this year," said Mr. Schulze, "will be largely devoted to sales promotion, in line with the gold star sales contest recently inaugurated by the company. This contest is not only to increase sales but to improve service to the public by bringing individual clerks in closer contact with the entire organization, thus giving them a better understanding of efficient selling methods.

"This year has already seen the greatest growth ever made in the development of the J. C. Penney Co., More stores have been opened than in any previous year, and sales are larger than ever before.

"Mr. Schulze states that four days of the convention will be given over to conferences with individual members of the convention committees and to buying.

THE NEW MEXICO TAX BULLETIN

The September issue of the New Mexico Tax Bulletin contains several compilations and statements which are of general interest. Of the utmost importance at the present time is the matter of securing a full, fair, and uniform assessment of property for 1930 for which the Taxpayers' Association makes an earnest appeal. Figures are given showing the assessment of property for the years 1927, 1928, and 1929, which indicate that there is very little increase in the valuation of property for purposes of taxation from year to year. In connection with the assessments of property the rapid growth in the amount of exemptions is given as one of the causes for the slow increase in assessable values. Exemptions grew from approximately eight million dollars in 1919 to nearly 20 million dollars in 1928.

The Harding county certificates of indebtedness are discussed, attention being called to the findings of the auditors of the state comptroller's office. This audit reaches the conclusion that the county commissioners in office in Harding county in the early years of its establishment failed to make proper provisions for amortizing the certificates of indebtedness which, by the way, were purchased by the state treasurer.

Mr. Hagerman's article on "Oil" and Mr. Hare's statement as to crop and livestock outlook for 1929 are important contributions bearing upon the economic resources of the state. In an article on "Tobacco" Mr. Hagerman discusses the reactions with reference to the legislation for the taxation of certain tobacco products. A compilation of the amounts and kinds of securities filed with the state treasurer for bank deposits shows that the balances in the various banks are amply secured. Land Commissioner Crile's attitude with reference to the session of the remaining public lands to the state is strongly endorsed with the understanding that every effort will also be made to secure ownership for the state of oil and mineral resources. In enumerating the bond issues of 1929 facts are shown which indicate a growing disposition on the part of voters to oppose bond issues which might be postponed.

The articles on "City Budgets," "War or Wastes," "Arizona's County Budget Was Upheld" and "Cooperation Between the States and Local Subdivisions in Technical Matters" bear upon the general subject of the efficient management of public business. Another statement is an account of an address given by the state treasurer of West Virginia before a recent conference of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers at San Francisco, who stressed four proposals, as follows:

1. Local budget law with state control.
2. State control of local bond issues and state administration of local interest and sinking funds.
3. Consolidation wherever practicable by local units of government.
4. A system of selecting public employees upon the basis of merit and ability for offices which require technical knowledge or special training.

TEXAS MARRIAGE LAW BOOSTS EDDY MARRIAGES

The Pecos valley and Eddy county has received its share of marriage license business and the resultant marriages. Since the passage of the recent marriage law in Texas, which requires the contracting parties to declare their intentions three days before the marriage takes place has caused a considerable increase in the number of marriage licenses issued by the county clerks along the Texas border. Ministers, justices of the peace and other officials empowered to perform the marriage ceremony have also enjoyed increased patronage as a result of the new Texas law. The marriage licenses issued in Eddy county have increased about twenty-five per month, it is estimated, since the Texas law went into effect.

SECRETARY WILBUR STRESSES THE IMPORTANCE OF THE NATIONAL PARKS

"Visitors to the National Parks," said Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior, upon his return from the west recently, "have this year increased from 20 to 33 1-3 per cent over last year. Even last year the number approached 3,000,000. So this per centage means that added multitudes have this year gone to these nature playgrounds.

"Yet the indications are that this travel to National Parks has but just started. This system of parks, built up in the last decade and a half, is proving a national asset of stupendous importance. These islands of natural beauty withheld for posterity are but just beginning to demonstrate their possibilities."

Facts About the Telephone
It is estimated that about 31,400, long distance telephone calls were made last year in Canada.

The city of Chicago averaged last year about 4,070,000 telephone calls every day, which is an increase of 42 per cent over figures of 1921.

Approximately 796,000,000 telephone calls were made in the state of New Jersey during 1923. This is an increase of more than 50,000,000 calls over the preceding year.

The 700,000th telephone in the state of Rochester, N. Y., was installed on April 4, in the residence of William J. Lewis, Jr., just fifty years after the first telephone was invented in the city.

Telephone lines are being extended to the Cherokee National forest in Tennessee so that they will now serve the forest in every direction. These lines are used by the forest service in the transaction of business and for reporting forest fires.

Two new dial telephone offices, one in Pershram and Plaza, were opened in the Manhattan area of New York City early this summer.
They contain 10,000 terminals each.
When fully loaded, they will serve the equivalent of telephone service for a town of 114,000 inhabitants.

in a glass bowl and sprinkle with fresh grated coconut and sugar. Let stand for an hour and serve.

Jam Dainties.—Take one-fourth cupful of butter, one-half cupful of sugar, cream together, add two tablespoonfuls of grated chocolate melted, one tablespoonful of sugar, one beaten egg, a tablespoonful of boiling water, one cupful of flour sifted with one teaspoonful of baking powder. Mix and chill. Roll and cut into small cookies.
Ice with boiling frosting and jam.
Put together in pairs.

Ham With Pineapple.—Take a slice of ham one inch thick and sprinkle with flour. Melt a little of the fat and brown the ham well on both sides.
Pour one cupful of pineapple and one-half cupful of water over the ham and bake slowly until tender. Remove the ham and serve with the sauce around it.

Spinach With Bacon.—Cook spinach in just the water which clings to it when washed. Cook in a heavy kettle well covered for ten minutes, season with salt, pepper and one-fourth cupful of lemon juice or less—enough to season. Add crisp, well cooked dry bacon, broken into bits; stir well and serve.

Mackerel With Lemon Butter.—Split and bone a mackerel and wipe with a cheesecloth. Broil first on the flesh side and then on the skin side on the gas or over coals. Make lemon butter by mixing lemon juice with butter and spread on toast. Cut the fish and arrange on the buttered toast and serve hot with slices of lemon and watercress.

Brother's Delight

How the rascal loves to tease her,
And to pinch her cheeks, and squeeze her,
As he rocks with gales of laughter,
At her angry squeals of woe!

He would rather hear her holler
Than to find a silver dollar;
He would rather tease his sister
Than do anything I know.

He is just as apt to shove her,
As he is to sweetly love her—
He is just as apt to pinch her
As to hug the little miss.
As to just as apt to tell her
That her Daddy's goin' to sell her,
As he is to steal upon her
And surprise her with a kiss!

But for some cause or another
She believes her little brother
Is, in spite of all his torment,
Still the finest boy of all!
And to him, his sister Mary
Is as sweet as any fairy—
But he dearly loves to tease her,
Just to hear her lusty squall!

I have warmed his little britches
With my hand and little switches,
In a vain attempt to teach him
Not to tease her any more.

But I might as well admit it—
That I haven't made him quit it;
I declare he's worse today than
He has ever been before!
