FERTILIZATION TESTS

County Agent Wunsch was much interested in the several fertilization tests being made by cotton growers of Artesia community when he made the rounds of inspection Monday. The fertility plats in the W. R. Hornbaker place were inspected and it was noticed that the cotton that had been fertilized was further advanced and had more bolls than the cotton that had not been fertilized. The plats receiving the complete 0-15-6 and the plats receiving sulphate of ammonia looked the best. From an agricultural standpoint the cotton tour was a decided success and every farmer present expressed themselves in favor of more of such tours. The county agricultural agent wishes to thank the Artesia Chamber of Commerce for their cooperation in advancing improvements in varieties of cotton produced in the valley and also in endeavoring to aid in helping the farmer to solve the high cost of cotton production.

BYERS NO. 33 BIGGEST WELL—SEVERAL OTHERS READY TO BE TESTED

Potential Output Of Byers Rated At 24,000 Barrels—Twenty-Eight Wells Total 167,765 Barrels On Open Flow Method.

The past week has seen a slight increase in the activity of the Hobbs pool with four completions. During this time one of the largest wells in the field has been completed, the Byers No. 33 of the Midwest Refining Co., in the SW NE sec. 4-19-38. The Byers No. 33 is approximately three miles southeast of the Grimes No. 1 of the Tidal Oil Co., and is in a proven area. According to field reports the new well of the Midwest was gauged under the direction of G. C. Staley, proration umpire and the potential production placed at 24,000 barrels with approximately 40,000,000 cubic feet of gas. The production of the new well is about three thousand barrels ahead of the Grimes No. 1 of the Tidal Oil Co., which previously led the field in production up to this time. Potential output of the new producer was based on a forty minute open flow during which time the well made 611 barrels.

Three other producers completed, some of which are preparing for a test this morning are the State No. 1-C of the Texas Production Co., 330 feet from the north and east lines of sec. 25-18-37, a west offset to Amerada Petroleum Corp., No. 1 McKinley and a south offset to the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Co., State No. 1-G, which was drilled to a depth of 4,206 feet. The California Co., State No. 1, 990 feet from the east and north lines of sec. 29-18-38, has been somewhat of a disappointment after a production test at 4,170 feet. The largest gauge on the well was 150 barrels in one hour with 26,000,000 feet of gas. Operators are drilling deeper. Another well which will be given a test this morning is the Ohio-Independent No. 2, 660 feet from the south and east lines of sec. 32-18-38, has drilled to 4,175 feet.

Humble Oil and Refining Co., Bowers No. 2-A, in the northeast corner sec. 30-18-38, has run tubing to 4,208 feet and will be tested today.

Twenty-Eight producers in the Hobbs field made a potential record of 167,765 barrels daily, prior to August 1, on the open flow method, according to G. C. Staley, umpire. The open flow method was adopted after operators had protested flowing the wells through a three-inch tubing.

Nine new locations have been announced for the Hobbs field. The new locations include the State No. 1 of Galt-Brown Co., 1,320 feet from the north line on the west line sec. 9-15-35; Prairie Oil and Gas Co., Grimes No. 2, 990 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the west line sec. 28-18-38; Shell Petroleum Corp., McKinley No. 1, 2,310 feet from the south line and 1,320 feet from the west line sec. 20-18-38; California Co., McKinley No. 1, 1,320 feet from the west line and 220 feet from the north line sec. 20-18-38; Tidal Oil Co., Grimes No. 3, 2,310 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the east line sec. 29-18-38; Amerada Petroleum Corp., McKinley No. 4, 330 feet from the west line and 2,310 feet from the north line sec. 30-18-38; Texas Production Co., State No. 1-C, 2,310 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the east line sec. 25-18-36; Texas Production Co., McKinley No. 2, 990 feet from the south line and 660 feet from the east lines sec. 5-19-38; Sun McKinley No. 2, 660 feet from the east line and

Warning To All Voters Register or Lose Your Vote

Many citizens of New Mexico—both men and women—may lose their right to vote at the fall election this year through failure to register, or to see that the registration books in their respective precincts carry their names.

There are but two more days left for registration—two Saturdays, August 16th and 23rd. In the precinct where there were not more than 100 votes cast at the last election there is but one day—Saturday, August 23rd.

The Advocate urges every citizen, as fulfillment of a public duty to register, or to see that his or her name is on the registration books. The names of voters at the last general election should, according to law, be carried forward to the new lists, but errors sometimes occur and there is a possibility that some names might be dropped unless every citizen makes a personal check-up to determine whether his or her name is on the new list.

On member of a family may register other members of the same family and it is urged that in each family, where all cannot appear personally for registration, one member be delegated to see that the family registration is made.

Your vote may be vital to the welfare of your county and state this fall. Do not place yourself in a position where you cannot vote, through failure to register.

WHERE TO REGISTER

Artesia voters residing in Precinct A, that is east of Rose Lawn, within the city limits, then east of highway within Artesia district going south, will register at office of the Chamber of Commerce. Those in Precinct B, west of Rose lawn, and west of the highway within the district at office of the Artesia Auto Company.

Registration place at Hope is the Johnson Hotel. Lakewood at the office of J. W. Dauron, Dayton at Sterling's Store, Oil Field at the school house and Cottonwood voters will register at the home of G. W. O'Bannon.

No house to house canvass will be made by anyone to get out the voters. This is for the general election in November, not a party matter.

If you want to exercise your citizenship by voting in November, you must register on either Saturday, August 16th or Saturday, August 23rd. No one will be to blame but yourself if you are denied a vote for your friends. ATTEND TO THIS NOW!

ALSO, this applies to every precinct in the county—not a city proposition. Voters at Hope, Cottonwood, Maljamar, Dayton, Lakewood and outstanding boxes are included in this election warning.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE CHEVROLET SALESMEN HOLDS MONTHLY MEET TENDERED BANQUET --PHONE IS DISCUSSED IN ROOF GARDEN TUES.

One of the best meetings of the membership of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce, held during the current year, was attended by many of the members last Monday evening. Many matters of interest were discussed and every member evidenced his satisfaction as to the progress the organization has made.

Two amendments to the by-laws were accepted and will provide a more efficient conduct of the organization.

A report of the road committee was made in regard to the details of the recent trip to Santa Fe. Data may be obtained at the office or from any member present.

The action on the part of the telephone company in regard to increase in rates was discussed at length and it was the unanimous opinion of all present that a formal protest be entered and a committee be appointed to investigate the matter. No action is contemplated that will be to the detriment of the community but a careful investigation will be made and a report rendered to the membership as a basis for their individual action.

The membership went on record and passed resolutions inviting the American Legion to hold its next annual convention in Artesia.

It was recommended that every member clean up his premises and utilize all the available labor in construction to assist the employment condition.

The manager suggested that every merchant in the city insist that salesmen selling to Artesia merchants be asked to spend at least one night out of every four trips in our city. Salesmen are calling upon Artesia merchants during the day and then making the trip to Roswell or Carlsbad to have an early start the next morning. If a salesman secures business from our city he should spend some of his money with our hotels, cafes and stores.

The merchants were cautioned about constructing signs along the highways as the state intends to enforce regulations that provide all signs must be 150 feet from the highway.

The cotton contest inspection trip and the demonstration farms were discussed by the members present. W. Leslie Martin, farmer member stated that the farmers appreciated the demonstration farm to a greater degree than the average merchant. This fact has long been recognized by the manager who hopes that the conditions will change.

Many other matters were discussed and splendid interest in the organization was manifested. It is hoped that a larger percentage of members will be present at the next membership meeting September 8th.

EDITOR ON VACATION

No apologies are offered for the fact that The Advocate is minus its editor this week. Walter Martin cranked up the family flivver several days ago and went on a well earned vacation, leaving the weekly sheet to the tender administration of kindly disposed friends. Any editor should have a few days off once in a while, just like other white folks, hence the no apologies spoken of. Then there were a lot of kinspeople back yonder who had never made the acquaintance of Walter Callahan Jr., and it was right and proper that the boy should have a chance to show himself before he gets older and perchance, partakes too much of his dad's physiognomy. Subscribers can afford to partake of short rations once a year, and we feel sure that our good friends wish for Mr. and Mrs. Martin all the pleasure usually attendant upon a visit "back home."

KEEN COMPETITION IS SHOWN IN THE MORE COTTON PER ACRE MOVE

Cotton Contestant Plats Visited Monday — Party Also Stops At Demonstration Farm And Fertilization Tests.

The first inspection trip in the cotton contest was made Monday morning, August 11th. The party was composed of the following farmers and interested members of the Chamber of Commerce: Owen Campbell, W. T. Halderman, G. B. Dungan, M. Brown, Roy Muncy, D. Flint, W. Leslie Martin, T. J. Stagner, Jess Huff, Chas. Martin, Irvin Martin, Rude Wilcox, George Deane, County Agent W. A. Wunsch, Fred Brainard and L. N. Kremer.

Inspections were made of all the tracts entered by the above contestants and much good was accomplished by the visits. Every man on the trip was well pleased with the activity of the contest and considerable improvement in methods will result. Splendid tracts of cotton were observed on the entire trip and exceptional yields are to be expected. Considering the drought condition of the balance of the farming area of the United States we surely should feel fortunate. All agriculture activity in the area is on a very high plane and the productions should be high.

After the morning trip had been completed a stop was made at the demonstration farm. Considerable interest was manifested by every member of the party and some of the demonstration tracts will be the basis of future activity. Especially pleased were all members at the possibility of adapting sudan grass as a pasture in this area. The stand of sudan grass, on the demonstration farm, is remarkable and will be visited by many more of our farmers as soon as they realize its possibilities. The great northern bean demonstration has possibilities in this area and the result of this test will be followed by every man who was present.

The final visit of the morning was made at the Huff farm near Lake Arthur and the party returned to Artesia to be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce at dinner. The results of the morning trip were discussed by all present and a splendid spirit of fellowship prevailed.

The afternoon session consisted of a trip to the Hornbaker farm where the fertilizer tests being conducted under Mr. Hornbaker's supervision were examined. The results of fertilization are readily appreciated by anyone who views his crops.

From the standpoint of the agriculturist the trip was a success. However from the community point of view, it was not so favorable. Only three members of the Chamber of Commerce made the trip, the farmer members present excepted in the count. It behooves every member of the organization to take more interest in our agriculture. Agriculture is the backbone of the Pecos valley and an intelligent understanding will go far to promote the betterment of all interests. Common understanding of problems leads to an early and equitable solution.

ARTESIA THE BEST

The representative of a well known wholesale grocery house, making the valley every two weeks, remarked Saturday: "Artesia is the best business town in New Mexico, size considered, and I am not sure that I should even make any reservation as to size in my statement." No one is in a better position to judge a town's stability and business condition than the man who sells to its merchants and has the job of making collections.

Santa Fe Men Taste Real Pecos Valley Sweetness

200 Melons Are Served To State House Employees—Eats Served On Capitol Lawn Friday—Santa Fe Mayor Official Slicer.

A party of Artesia citizens were the hosts to the state house bunch, at Santa Fe on Friday, August 8th, when over two tons of Artesia water-melons were served. E. H. Perry, Dick Clowe, S. S. Ward and L. N. Kremer made the trip and served the eats. The trip was made and the melons tendered in appreciation of the many courtesies received in the past from the hands of the employees of the state of New Mexico.

Artesia is not unmindful of the fact that it takes 100 per cent cooperation to successfully complete any task and she realizes the importance of every cog in the machine. From the department head, Governor Dillon, to the minor clerk the same issue of melon was served, yet the individual capacities determined the number of serves. It is reported that S. S. Ward consumed more melon than any other individual in the crowd and Artesia representatives will attest to the fact that capacity was in evidence beyond question.

"Mayor Dick," after the trip to the state political center in company with E. H. Perry and 200 melons was compelled to forfeit the foot race to the governor and make the return trip in the manager's "lone Eagle." Mr. Perry rendered valiant service in piloting the melons and mayor of the city of Santa Fe and his conduct as official slicer was questioned on only one occasion. It is reliably reported that he quartered melons for every service with the exception of several employees of the oil division of the state land office. Possibly due to the fact that he does not readily understand proration.

The entire staff of the state house were appreciative of the hospitality of our good city and so expressed themselves. Artesia has shown her appreciation and has upheld her reputation as the most aggressive, cordial and appreciative city of the state.

BUYS ARTESIA FARM

Joe H. Patterson, a well known citizen of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and campaign manager for Frank Buttram in his race for governor recently, has become owner of an eighty-acre farm southeast of Artesia. Mr. Patterson expects to spend September here building a house and making other improvements on the place. An electric motor for pumping has been installed and about forty acres will be put into alfalfa immediately. An incidental hunting trip to the mountain section last winter offered Mr. Patterson his first sight of the Artesia section, and the big cotton yields were too much for one who has spent so many years in a country where a fellow can never tell whether he is going to get pay for his labor or not—with a big percentage against him in the game of betting on rainfall. Farming in this valley is as nearly a dead moral cinch as the Father of all Harvests ever allows his children to approach—simply a case of plow and plant and harvest, with plenty of water at hand to obviate the necessity of watching the clouds and praying for rain.

ARTESIA RODEO

Milt Hinkle, "The South American Kid," who is to put on a real wild west rodeo in Artesia, September 25, 26 and 27, is doing some effective advertising of the event. With the Artesia Chamber of Commerce solidly behind the event, looks now like this will be about the biggest thing of the kind ever attempted in the state.

NO BAND CONCERT

There will be no band concert at the Artesia park this week. The Artesia Municipal Band will combine with the Carlsbad Municipal Band Friday evening in a concert at the Carlsbad City Park. On Friday evening August 22nd, this combination will render a concert at the Artesia Park.

The natural warm cotton beds of the Artesia and Cottonwood valleys will evidently find some close competition this season. As much as two bales per acre cording to local boosters.

COULDN'T SEE 'EM

The Pecos Enterprise admits that its town had a real hitless wonder on the ball team which took a licking off Artesia a Sunday or two ago, the luckless one fanning five times in rapid succession. A successful ball team is usually one that uses a degree of discretion in selecting its opponents. The boy should not be blamed in this instance.

UNDER REPUBLICAN RULE

During the absence of Mayor Clowe who went to Santa Fe last week to show some state officials how to eat Artesia watermelons without getting seeds in their ears, Hon. S. E. Ferree was elected mayor protem, and served with due dignity for twenty-four hours. No additional debts were incurred during his administration, no city convicts were pardoned and all seemed to be as well with the world in general as if democratic tenure had not been disturbed.

THE AGONY NOT LONG, ANYWAY

Embryo candidates for state offices in New Mexico are considerate—maybe timid. Instead of whooping things up for six or eight months and disturbing the accustomed summer siesta, they kindly stay in the background until dog days have passed and autumn breezes come to cool the passions. Or maybe it is that political escutcheons left too long exposed to public scrutiny in this altitude are likely to get tarnished, hence this tardiness is merely discretion. Time exposures do not always add to the beauty of the picture.

ANOTHER JOY PASSES

There is such a thing as a mortal lingering too long on this mundane sphere. Take for instance, the Carlsbad man who admits that fried chicken does not taste so good to him now as it did when he was a boy. This is a condition of senility terrible to contemplate. It is not hard to part with the days when green apples and persimmons brought passing surprise to a boyish stomach, when a stick of lickerish served as a tolerable substitute for tobacco and stick candy was a joy forever, but an aversion to chicken legs wrapped in batter and fried to a brown in old Southern style is not understandable. Under certain conditions, corn likker has been known to pall upon the palate, and a homeseeker in the valley once declared that raniwater was not the same here as in Arkansas, but such infrequent contact as falls to the lot of country newspaper men had led us to suppose that the taste for fried chicken went on forever.

PROSPEROUS LOVINGTON

Substantial evidence that Lovington, our next door neighbor on the east, is making real strides toward cityhood, is the appearance last week of another newspaper there. And a good one. It is the Tribune, a twelve-page, imposing looking sheet put out by Messrs.
Hanway, Griffith and Duncan, the latter being editor, and the fellow whose job it will be to make the thing go over big, or fail. The business like appearance of the paper suggests that it will be a winner. Proposes to be politically independent, which of course has invariably proven a hard job in New Mexico.
Artesia and Lovington are close neighbors, as New Mexico distances are measured, and connected by one of the best highways in the state. Her prosperity is a matter of unselfish interest to the writer, who saw the first town lot surveyed in the town many years ago.
Best of luck to the new paper and to every other institution entering into the building of New Mexico's newest counties.

PARIS DICTATORS LOSE OUT

The business organization of leading American makers of women's clothing has announced that hereafter they will not follow the dictates of Parisian style designers unless they have reason to believe that Paris styles will suit American women.

Last fall Paris arbitrarily decreed that skirts would be long. American women refused to accept the decree and a lot of American dress manufacturers, who had thought that they would, lost money. So now the dress makers are going to ignore any further decrees about long skirts from Paris.

This is somehow gratifying, quite aside from the general question of the aesthetic, hygienic and practical advantages of the short skirt. The switch to long skirts came simply because the style designers wanted to make women buy clothes they didn't need. It failed and its failure speaks volumes for the common sense of

While in Dallas last week, the protem editor talked to the state head of one of our national news gathering associations, who gave it as his personal opinion that Ma Ferguson will win out against Ross Sterling for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, and that the final solution will be a republican governor for Texas next November. Maybe so, but it does not look that way to a Texan sitting on the fence and looking back. Notwithstanding drouths and low cotton prices and Hoover "prosperity," it is not likely that Ma can make the grade in face of her past record, even conceding the fact that Mr. Sterling is just the kind of an opponent foxy Jim would have chosen for the run-off.
Sterling is a native Texan, self made, and a pretty good job he seems to have made of it so far, but he is a plutocrat in the eyes of the Ferguson ilk—lives in a mansion and takes a bath regardless of the day of the week—hence will be a target for all the abuse a badly biased Ferguson constituency can pile up. But Sterling will win, and Texas citizenry will not have to again accept a republican substitute as they did in Hoover.

take tucks half way between the

that the elbow always remains in

NEW MEXICO IS PUT ON THE AIR OVER DALLAS RADIO STATION WFAA

SANTA FE—Hundreds of letters and inquiries on New Mexico are being answered by Edward A. MacManus, nationally known publicity man and Saturday Evening Post and Colliers writer who recently put on five talks on New Mexico over radio WFAA, Dallas, Texas as a courtesy to the highway service bureau.

The first talk was a result of an accident. Mr. MacManus was sitting in the studio of the radio waiting to talk to a friend when an act which was scheduled to go on the air failed to appear on time. In desperation the studio manager turned to Mr. MacManus and asked him to fill in. Being filled with enthusiasm over New Mexico due to a recent investment in northern county lands which he had made Mr. MacManus started out on his favorite topic. Before he was through with his talk the telephone was already ringing and telegrams pouring into the station requesting more information on the Sunshine State.

The studio manager being a good showman immediately signed Mr. MacManus up for four more talks on New Mexico, material for which was furnished by the Service Bureau by wire. The results of these talks have surpassed any other single advertising stunt tried by the bureau since its inception, with letters pouring in from people not hitherto reached by any New Mexico publicity. The climax of this was reached last week when the studio manager himself wrote in to the bureau asking for a trip routing through New Mexico intending to spend his vacation here.

410th INFANTRY OFFICERS ORDERED TO TRAINING

Approximately thirty-three Reserve officers from over the state of New Mexico, belonging to the 410th infantry, New Mexico regiment of organized reserves, have been ordered to Nogales, Arizona for 14 days active duty training with the regular army, effective August 24th. The officers will be attached to units of the 25th infantry for actual command and handling of troops and in addition, will receive class room instruction according to latest principles of military training, including defense against aircraft. While on duty reserve officers occupy the same status as any officer of the army and receive like pay and allowances.

Signs of apple cider for sale are beginning to appear along the valley highway, bringing cheer to hundreds of Cavern travelers. You know, it is generally conceded by the earlier residents that if a fellow can make it through until cider time in the fall it is almost a cinch to get through till grass rises in the spring, hence the signs aforesaid constitute a rather definite milestone.

PAYNE IS CRAZY

Aside from his plea of guilty and the fact that he should be put out of the way as quickly as possible, no one can reasonably conclude after reading his statement, but that Payne was as crazy as a loon when he murdered his wife in Amarillo recently. No man who could approximate sanity could possibly have committed such an act and then excused himself on the ground that it was an act of mercy. He may not have been mentally deficient on other things, but it is most evident that Payne had allowed his mind to get into a murderous groove and that nothing but murder could result. The alibi he puts up is too flimsy—a sane man's mind could not entertain for one moment nor figure out such a fantastic tale. Of course, he should be killed as quickly as possible, the same as a mad dog, crazy or no crazy.

Hubby—"I miss the old cuspidor since its gone."
Wife—"You missed it before. That's why its gone."

KELLER—JACKSON

A wedding of much interest to Artesia and Hope occurred Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Mary Keller, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Keller became the bride of Mr. Ellison Hays (Pete) Jackson. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wathen at Hope, and was attended by some eighty relatives and friends from Hope, Artesia and the surrounding country. Rev. Z. B. Moon, read the marriage service, which united in wedlock this popular young couple. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. J. W. McCreary of Hamlin, Texas, aunt of the bride, entertained the company with a number of selections on the piano accordion and as the nuptial hour approached Mrs. I. C. Keller of Artesia, aunt of the bride, at the piano rendered the Lohengrin wedding march. The bridal couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cox.

The bride was attractively gowned in a yellow georgette dress with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet in pastel shades, yellow predominating.

The wedding was planned as a surprise having been announced as a shower and this feature of the occasion occupied the early part of the afternoon. Many beautiful and useful gifts were displayed in the dining room against a background of yellow and white, the color scheme was carried out in the floral decorations, and yellow and white streamers extended from the ceiling to the table. An interesting coincidence was the fact that the wedding took place upon the birthday of the bride's grandfather, Mr. F. M. Keller. The bridal bouquet was caught by Miss Frances Johnson. Refreshments of punch and wafers were served.

The bride was brought up in the Hope community, graduated from the high school and attended State University. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson and was brought up at Artesia. Both have many friends who wish them a long and happy married life. Following the ceremony they came immediately to Artesia and have gone to housekeeping in the Ragsdale apartments.

Among those attending from Artesia were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson and daughter, Mrs. Luvena Beck, Mrs. Howard Gissler and the Misses Anna Frances, Mary, Lilla and Nella Jackson, Miss Cora Rogers, Mrs. Keller, Mrs. Grover Kinder, Mrs. W. S. French, Mrs. A. L. Mount, Mrs. D. L. Grimm and the officiating minister, Rev. Z. B. Moon and Mrs. Moon.

The republican state nominating convention for New Mexico will be held in Santa Fe September 22nd, just two days before expiration of legal limit for filing the names of candidates. It can not be that this late date is selected that the agony of party offerings will be as short lived as possible.

Dr. Arch D. Jones, a well-known physician of Wichita, Kansas, was a Cavern visitor recently, spending a day en route with old-time friends in Artesia. Dr. and Mrs. Jones "lived out" a homestead claim a short distance north of Artesia about twenty-five years ago, and early settlers remember their hospitality. If rumor is correct Dr. Jones is one of the very few men who ever outran a bear on a straightway.

At the risk of intruding where modesty would suggest that a layman keep quiet, The Advocate pro tem editor wants to say that Lou Fullen's address to the State Bar Association in Roswell Tuesday on the gradual usurpation and decadence of American ideals is about the finest thing we have read in a long, long while. It is as true as gospel and said in a way that few men in New Mexico could have attempted.

GRATEFUL LADY PAYS TRIBUTE TO NEW KONJOLA

Now Giving This New And Different Medicine To Her Children . . . Read Her Statement.

There is a reason why Konjola is America's best known medicine, and that reason can be summed up in just three words—Konjola makes good, even when all else tried has failed. Consider, as a typical example of Konjola's 32 ingredients at work, the case of Mrs. J. D. Rhyne, 616 East 11th street, Amarillo, who says:

MRS. J. D. RHYNE

"I was in a terrible condition for many years, with constipation, nervousness, indigestion and kidney and liver ills. It seemed no use to try medicines and treatments further, for I kept growing worse right along. I lost weight and had headaches and dizzy spells and bilious attacks. Food caused indigestion, and many a night I lay awake until two or three o'clock. But words can not express my surprise over what Konjola did for me. All of my ills have vanished and now I am giving Konjola to my children, and my husband is about to start the treatment."

Konjola is a medicine for all the family; old and young. That is why Konjola is a household word in tens of thousands of American homes.

Konjola is sold in Artesia at Palace Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

FAT MAN WALKS TEN MILES

I don't care how fat you are or how much you hate to get out and walk a couple of miles.

If you will take one half a teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning for 30 days—

You will feel so good—so energetic and the urge for activity will be so great that you will immensely enjoy a daily walk of several miles—and lose fat.

Why will Kruschen Salts make this great change for the better in me—it is natural for you to ask.

Because Kruschen is a blend of the 6 vitalizing salts Nature says your body must have to keep every organ gland and nerve in the body buoyantly healthy.

While you are losing fat you will be gaining in energy—in endurance—in ambition. Your skin will grow clearer and your eyes will sparkle with the good health that Kruschen brings.

Just try one 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts; it will last you 30 days. After you have taken one bottle the old arm chair won't hold you any more—you'll want to be up and doing—you'll enjoy work and active recreation and you'll sleep like a top.

You'll lose fat and probably live years longer. Get Kruschen at any live druggists in America.

RECEPTION CHRYSLER EIGHTS SETS RECORD

An unprecedented volume of orders from record crowds in showrooms throughout the country has followed the announcement of the new Chrysler straight eights, according to scores of telegrams to factory officials from distributors and dealers. Production has been stepped up in an effort to keep pace with deliveries of cars to buyers.

"Never in Chrysler history has there been such wide-spread interest over a new line of cars," said J. W. Frazer, general sales manager of the Chrysler Sales Corporation. "Wires from dealers verify the enthusiastic reports of factory officials, who for some time have been supervising the advanced showings of these new cars to dealers. There is every indication that retail deliveries will set a record for an announcement showing."

The larger cities throughout the country were unanimous in reporting enthusiastic reception of the new cars. While it is impossible to tabulate orders, it is certain that actual sales will exceed any previous Chrysler record. Detroit, the nation's motor capital, reported that approximately 10,000 visited the displays by the John H. Thompson Co., and associated dealers the first few days the cars were shown. In addition, more than 100,000 people saw the cars at a downtown theater where they were displayed for a week.

New Yorkers evidenced unusual interest in the new Chryslers, as shown by the fact that thousands flocked to the salesrooms in unprecedented numbers. More than 10,000 visited the Broadway salesroom alone. Chicago reported 200 demonstrations given over the week end. Philadelphia showings broke all previous records for a new line of cars.

San Francisco set a record with nearly 12,000 visitors in the city show rooms during the first four days the cars were displayed. In Seattle 2,000 attended the pre-showing of the new eights, and greater interest was reported than when the original Chrysler was shown in 1924. In Salt Lake City, 600 visited the Chrysler showing the day the cars were displayed. San Francisco, St. Louis and Kansas City reported record crowds and unusual interest.

Portland reported an enthusiastic reception of the new eights, 4,500 attending the display during the week end. In addition, 25,000 saw the cars at a downtown theater. More than 1,000 saw the cars in Altoona, Pa., on the opening of the showing there.

"The greatest Chrysler ever," was the word received from the DeCozen Motor Company of Richmond, Va. Scores of other similar messages from dealers were pouring into the factory.

COUNTY COURT SESSION
THIRTY YEARS AGO

On this day I went down to the county seat to learn something about the way they run court politics. As I entered the court room, the judge was smoking his pipe, waiting for jurors and witnesses. The lawyers were sitting down in front with their heels cocked up on the table, talking politics and chewing tobacco.

As the jurors came in with their slouch hats, muddy boots and pistols they took their seats on the long bench and the foreman passed a big plug of tobacco along the line, from which each guardian of the law bit off a chew. Then each one crossed his legs, put his hand on his hip pocket and took the oath.

The first case called was that of a man accused of shooting a neighbor's dog. The second was a hen-roost robbery case. The third was for fighting on St. Patrick's day. The witnesses in all three cases swore that it was all done in self defense and the culprits were acquitted! Then the lawyers got to quarreling over the verdict and began swinging revolvers in the air. A stranger fell in a fit. The judge supposing he had fainted, asked the lawyers if any one of them could furnish a dram of whiskey for the man. Instantly, thirteen flasks were passed up to the judge's stand with a friendly admonition to the judge that if any of the "medicine" was left to pass it down to the bar again to be used as a stimulant for the next case on the calendar.

The judge commended the lawyers for their legal and medical foresight and caution. I saw at once by the title of the next case why the judge had done this. It was an action for intimidating and threatening voters at the polls by the shotgun policy, whereby only ten republican votes were returned in a county having several hundred republican voters.

One of the witnesses, in decalring the vote a fraud, said that he had seen the ballot box thrown out of a window during the count. Whereupon, red-shirted Irish democrat jumped to his feet and shaking his fist at the witness, exclaimed:

"Yes are a black liar, sor! I was there myself, and we voted in a hat—no ballot box at all—an' we had an honest count. We tuk the hat across the strate to the St. Patrick Saloon, an' laid it on the counter, beside our revolvers, in a peaceful manner, sor, and we counted every vote, sor, without firin' a shot or takin' a drink. I voted tin toimes meself that day, sor, an' we found every one of them ballots in the hat! It was an honest count, sor."

A moment of threatening silence ensued, which was broken by an accidental discharge of a revolver. In an instant, the court room looked like an arsenal of war. The judge declared the case dismissed, the jury discharged and the court adjourned—all in self-defense!

HOW TO KEEP COOL

Everyone talks about the weather but no one seems to do anything about it, Mark Twain once said. Although we haven't yet been able to change the atmospheric conditions at will, we have far better facilities for keeping comfortable than had the famous American humorist not so long ago.

Besides ice-cream, electric fans, and the air cooling systems, there is the bath with all its luxurious accessories. When collars wilt and dispositions become frayed, we need no longer consume our energies in plying a palm leaf fan. A twist of the faucet, a few moments' wait until the tub fills up and we can ease ourselves gently into the cool or tepid depths.

After strenuous exercise or a hard day's work, there is a new vigor to be found under the spray of the shower bath. Those who dislike sudden shocks, even in warm weather can work up a lather of soap under the warm water, then let it grow gradually cold. Hardier souls can take their cold shower bath straight, although a lukewarm bath is really more cooling.

Most of us don't have to struggle with the handle of the pump when we want to freshen our hands and faces during the day. We don't have to fetch and carry buckets of water unless we are camping. Running water, piped into our offices and homes, provides us with a ready means of keeping clean and cool.

In this age of scientific development, the time may come when we will be able to adjust the weather to suit the whim of the moment. Meanwhile, since talking doesn't help we are fortunate to have at hand a ready means of defense against mounting temperatures.

A map was told by his doctor that if he laughed 15 minutes every day before meals his condition would improve.

One day in a restaurant, while having his laugh, a man at the opposite side of the table walked over and said angrily, "What are you laughing at?"

"Why I am laughing for my liver," he replied.

"Well, then," said the other, "I guess I'd better start laughing also. I ordered mine half an hour ago."

Things WORTH

It is much better to select tomato seed from a plant producing uniformly good fruits than from a superlative fruit on a plant that also bears uneven and inferior fruits. Size, smoothness, solidity, and freedom from cracks in the fruit, and vigor, productiveness and freedom from disease in the plant, should be considered. Tomatoes inter-cross to only a slight extent and seed of more than one variety from one garden may safely be saved.

The best time to harvest cabbage is when the green cover leaves begin to curl back slightly, exposing the whiter leaves beneath. At this stage cabbage is as hard and as heavy as it will become without bursting and is not too crisp and brittle for good handling. Cabbage intended for immediate shipment to market should be trimmed to from two to four closefitting wrapper leaves. These leaves protect the heads and can be removed at the market if necessary to give the cabbages a fresher appearance.

Cool milk and cream promptly to a temperature of 50 degrees F., or below, and hold it at such temperature, to prevent rapid growth of bacteria, says the U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry. If there are large numbers of bacteria in market milk when it reaches the consumer, this indicates that the milk was not carefully produced or kept cool enough. A 10-gallon can of warm milk usually can be cooled to about 50 degrees in about 20 minutes, if first cooled over a cooler with water at 55 degrees and then set in a tank of ice-water at 37 degrees, says the bureau.

CLEANLINESS MEANS HEALTH

Arnold H. Kegel, M. D., commissioner of health, Chicago, Illinois, in an article, "Toward a Cleaner American," says:

"Methods of safeguarding the public food supply must keep pace with the increasing complexities of modern life.

If ever cleanliness is desirable, it must be in the things we eat, and every care should be taken to insure cleanliness for the sake of health. Cleanliness, in reference to foods, means not only the absence of visible dirt, protection from flies, worms or other parasites, but freedom also from undesirable bacteria and other minute organisms.

If food, raw or cooked, is kept in dirty places, peddled from dirty carts prepared in insanitary rooms and surroundings and dispensed in dirty dishes, or exposed to foul air, then flies or other insects, disease germs and other offensive substances can easily make it a source of peril to the consumer."

BASEBALL ROOTERS TOLD TO GET READY FOR BIG DOINGS SUN.

If you ever did bear down real hard on the old bazoo, get ready to repeat next Sunday. You are going to be needed, and the chances are that you will get your money's worth several times over. Time 3:30, place Brainard Park, Artesia and the combatants (combatants is right) will be the aggregation calling themselves the Carlsbad Caverns or something like that, and the Artesia team which is always ready to sacrifice its blood and bones in an effort to uphold the town's reputation as the home of the only real ball players on the eastern slope. You are going to miss something if you are not occupying a pew when the fun starts. This is a third heat race. Same teams have met twice this season, and each has a victory to its credit. The outfit that rakes the coals out of the fire this time is going to have to wear asbestos pants and a gas mask, for there is surely going to be some hot doings and a whole lot of smoke. Manager Brainard hasn't shown his hand yet, even to insiders, and nobody knows who is going to do the flinging for Artesia, but fair warning has been served on the Caverns to get ready for the licking of their lives. Artesia simply doesn't propose to undergo the humiliation of another defeat at the hands of those chesty one-holders, and every loyal citizen is urged to be on hand at the skinnin'. Howell Gage wants it distinctly understood that this call to arms is not any ballyhoo business, but a straight tip to all lovers of good sport to get some real entertainment.

Don't miss the game, as it promises to be the best of the year.

RUSH HIGHWAY SIGN ERECTION

The business of signing New Mexico's highways is proceeding with dispatch, over 1,100 signs being erected during the month of July, a report from George Ball, road sign engineer states.

Over seven hundred caution and warning signs were placed during this period, twenty speed limit, eight tractor, eleven reflecting, one hundred sixty-eight U. S. markers, one hundred sixty-four state markers and four county line signs. The erection of directional signs promised for August first has already started, Mr. Ball says in his report.

FRED BRAINARD RANCH SOLD

The sale of the old Dick Eaton ranch, on Eagle Draw, twelve miles west of town, which has been pending for some time, was consummated last week and the new owner, Pete Cooper, takes possession September first. The sale did not include the sheep, which the new owner will run on shares.

ALFALFA MAY AGAIN BECOME BIG CROP OF THE MIDDLE VALLEY

What had for many years been known as the "Lanning School Section" adjoining Artesia townsite on the east, is rapidly being developed into one of the very finest farms in the Pecos valley, which is the same as saying in New Mexico. About 550 acres will be in cultivation very shortly, when Superintendent Roger Durand finishes the preparation of a new 200 acre unit for alfalfa, same to be seeded during September. The 350 acres heretofore put in have yielded a wonderful harvest of oats, forage crops and alfalfa during the present season, with some wonderful cotton now fruiting heavily.

Mr. Woods, president of the Pecos Valley Gas Co., bought this 600 acre tract about six months ago. Much money has been spent on the buildings and fencing and other general improvements, as well as a most attractive residence for Mr. Woods and his family, until at this early date the farm is approaching the status of a show place of the community.

Three large wells, equipped with natural gas engines, supply an abundant supply of irrigation water. It is through the courtesy of Mr. Woods that a free demonstration farm was placed under supervision of County Agent Wunsch, which enterprising move is greatly appreciated by farmers of the valley.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT

Alesimo Gonzales, a young Mexican with a wife and children, met with an unfortunate accident Sunday evening, while working with a thrashing machine on a farm east of town. It seems the man wore a glove upon his right hand, which caught in the machinery, dragging his hand into the machine and mangling it terribly. He was brought to town, where an amputation was necessary, and the hand was removed at the wrist.

ROSSELL HOST TO N. M. BAR ASS'N.

The State Bar Association of New Mexico has been enjoying a business and pleasure session at Roswell this week, attendance including prominent attorneys from almost every county. Opening session was held Tuesday with a carefully prepared program and this was supplemented with social functions which the hospitable people of the valley know so well how to do.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

We had good services throughout last Lord's day. Dr. Scarborough brought a great message in the afternoon. In the morning we had an increased attendance in our Sunday school. We had a very good attendance in the evening with two additions to our church. We are glad to see the good interest.
 Next Sunday morning the subject will be, "How I may be a blessing to my church." Each one loves his church and no doubt desires to be the greatest blessing possible. How may I? At the evening hour the subject will be, "Life, Death, Which?" We hope to have special music. We try to make our services as pleasing and helpful as possible. Remember the young people's services at 7:00 p. m. We shall be glad to have you in all our services.
 R. PETERSON, Pastor.

SOCIAL ITEMS

TREASURE HUNT

The Presbyterian Sunday school classes of Miss Dora Russell and V. L. Gates had a thrilling treasure hunt last evening. The party numbering twenty-six started from the church and drove to the C. A. P. ranch, thence to the Paris Garage, Camp Mac, the J. H. Jackson home, Wood's swimming pool, north of town, the Gates residence, and then back to the church, where the treasure was found in a sand pile back of the building. The excavations of the searches were first rewarded by a bag of silly things, but finally the treasure, a box of candy was discovered. The Jackson car was first to reach the church and the successful treasure hunters it contained were Louise Compton, Cavitt Jackson, T. C. Stromberg of Ardmore, Oklahoma, Lorita Hill, Dawn Hornbaker, Dare McLean and Mrs. W. E. Kerr.
 After the quest was ended games were played and refreshments of cookies, home made candy and punch completed the evening's pleasure. The party was chaperoned by Rev. Sinclair, Prof. and Mrs. Kerr and Mrs. R. L. Paris.

From Lovington way comes an intimation that Judge Richardson may have republican opposition in November election that will force his retirement under fire. It is not the first time this most eminent jurist and estimable gentleman has been threatened with political annihilation, but recent overwhelming endorsement at the polls would indicate that eastern New Mexico folks are not ungrateful to one who has long given able and unselfish service. No one has ever said aught against Judge Richardson, other than that he has mayhap become weary in well doing and deserves less arduous duties.
