VOX POPULI

We received the following communication, signed, a reader. Ordinarily we consign unsigned communications to the waste basket, but because in this particular instance it presents another side of the question discussed in our issue of October 16th, we are reprinting the letter in full, except the introduction, which follows:

"I'm asking what is the matter with men and women of today, when they expect to be invited to attend church and Sunday school. I can't see why people who are intelligent enough to want to go in for social things are not intelligent enough to know they are always welcome at church without having to be asked.
If they attend church and Sunday school, they get in with the best people of the town and are asked to these social gatherings. When my family came into your town several years ago, we knew no one. We came in on Wednesday and attended church services the following Sunday. We have never looked for friends.
Of course this can't apply to social life. One does have to be asked to social gatherings. But not so much with the church—its free as salvation itself."

Very truly yours,
A READER.

NIGHT DRIVING

Automobile drivers are occasionally reminded that it does not pay to hurry too much and more especially at night. The reminders are oftentimes painful and some time fatal. Fast driving is never safe unless the driver has a clear vision ahead and then sometimes accidents happen. Many of our highways are constructed through the broad open ranges without fences.
The driver never knows when a horse or a cow blinded by the light may step in front of his automobile.
In this case an accident is almost inevitable. The animal is either killed or chipped so badly that he must be killed and the motorist is lucky if he does not wreck his car or escapes without injury to himself.

E. P. Bach, living near the bridge recently lost a good horse when the animal ran in front of a speeding auto, the occupants of the car escaped with a few minor bruises and a bad scare.

Ben of the Lordsburg Liberal says one of the chief political issues of the coming political campaign is trying to find out who needs the jobs the worst.

REAL ISSUES

When the dust of the present political campaign has blown over, the average voter, who has the interest of his state at heart enough to make an effort to inform himself of the issues vital to the welfare of New Mexico, isn't going to be swayed by mud slinging. Most of us do not accept the theory that the candidates of opposite political belief are horse thieves, thugs and liars. A political party that has any self respect would not commit political suicide by assigning to a bunch of crooks the job of carrying the party standard.

The main issues of this political campaign centers around the qualifications of the party nominees, what they have done and what they propose to do. We have no quarrel with the republican party as to the manner in which the highway department has been managed and conducted and as to how the building of highways have been distributed, neither can we fuss about how the state land office has been operated. We realize that one can not expect to build and maintain good schools and build good highways without paying for them, still like every taxpayer, we would not welcome higher taxes. All of this means that the state officials who are operating the state's business, must realize one hundred cents on every dollar spent.

The condition creates a demand for real economy and places on the shoulders of the man who is to govern our state affairs a responsibility that can not be met without training and experience in the business world.

This responsibility will be increased as the population increases and as the state's resources are developed. One, two or even three years may bring radical changes. The real issue therefore, isn't what the particular candidate proposes to do, but whether he has the ability to meet and solve the problems that are brought about by the changes.

Neither is it true that a man is of no value to his constituents, who isn't a member of the political party in the majority at Washington. Ability and experience count in filling a place in the national congress, just as they count in filling the humblest precinct office. Because of his fitness and his previous service to the people of New Mexico, voters will return Sam G. Bratton to the United States Senate regardless of the numbers of his political faith in congress.

THE YEARLY WARNING

With the opening of duck season, a warning in the use of shot guns is in order. Hunters should remember that although their guns will not carry very far with killing force, there is danger in having eyes put out by the flying pellets. A companion hunter across the lake may suffer by your carelessness.

Then also, deer season is just a few weeks off.
Newspapers have been trying to make as the hunters' slogan this year, "Not a man killed throughout the season." Men will be killed, if other men are careless.
Do not shoot at a moving bush—its branches may conceal your best friend. Take a chance on the buck getting away, by giving yourself time to think before you pull the trigger.

The forest service is asking that all hunters be very careful of matches and lighted smokes. Break your match before throwing it away. Millions of feet of precious timber, thousands of animals and birds, as well as homes may be destroyed by a moment of absent mindedness.

On other hint should prove beneficial—Be sure that you are complying with the law in your hunting, that your license is valid and has been obtained fairly without misrepresentation, that you are killing the old man deer instead of the lady or one of her children, and you cannot be too certain at too great a distance.
The game laws are going to be more rigidly enforced
this year than ever before.

And last but not least, empty guns are some times discharged, be careful of the direction in which you are pointing your gun.

Allright, boys, now you may go hunting . . .

The visit of Senators George H. Moses and Fred Stewier with Senator Bronson M. Cutting in Santa Fe last week caused political conjecture to run riot in Santa Fe. Many however, believe that the visit of Senator Moses has something to do with getting Senator Cutting back in the old guard line up. It was Moses who led the children of Isreal out of the wilderness and perhaps Senator Moses' visit will accomplish much.

A Roswell minister uses the expression, "Charge the battery of your soul." The spiritual life of a man may have been elevated since the advent of the automobile, but most people did not know that another element had been added.

Ewes should be gaining in weight at breeding time. Put them on good timothy, rape, or bluegrass pasture, if possible. Fall growths of clover are not satisfactory. Some grain may be fed as a supplement to pasture.
Oats are a better supplement than corn. Pumpkins strewn over the field are excellent.

Seed corn can be protected from weevils or grain moths by storing it in tight mouseproof receptacles and inclosing one pound of moth balls or naphthalene for each bushel of corn. This will prevent damage by the insects and will not injure the seed. The corn should be thorowly dry before storing.

Don't waste money on medicinal "Cures" for infectious abortion of livestock, warns Dr. J. R. Mohler, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture.
Consult a competent veterinarian, or obtain publications or information from your state agricultural experiment station or the department of agriculture.

A herd of hogs can be improved by using a purebred boar and grade sow, but it can be improved much more quickly with purebred sows and purebred sire. Even with only one sow, a good sized herd can be obtained in a very short time. By starting with a purebred sow, keeping her sow pigs, and breeding them regularly, more than 300 pigs can be produced in 3 years.

A ration consisting of hay, silage and grain is a good one to feed the dairy heifer late in the fall, in winter and early spring. Well-cured legume hays such as alfalfa, clover, vetch, cowpeas, or soybeans are best, as they are high in protein and lime.
Corn silage is rich in carbohydrates and is succulent and laxative. Heifers from 6 to 12 months old should get from 5 to 15 pounds of silage daily and all the good legume hay they will eat. A good rule for feeding grain to heifers is to allow about one-half pound daily for each 100 pounds of live weight. Heifers thin in flesh should get more.

FE—The tax yield for 1930 was $272,610 less than in 1929, whereas the county and school districts yield an increase of $351,368, the secretary of the state commission said Saturday. Figures indicate that the increases for counties, cities and school districts are the most important factors in determining the tax rates. Mr. Joerns said, "The increases were not for the increase in the average tax rate but for a considerable less." Figures were shown in the yields of county school districts and the county yield increased to $151,463; and the average tax rate for the county was $2,410. Joerns said, "is arrived at the total valuation which amounts to $342,329,328 and is added into the total tax yield of counties, cities and school districts. NEW CHRYSLER EIGHT EXCEEDS DEMAND BY OVER 200 PER CENT

DETROIT, Michigan—Demand on the part of the public for prompt delivery of the new line of Chrysler Imperial Eights has been so great since the announcement in July that production schedules have been increased 100 per cent over the original estimate.

This information was given out recently by officials of the Chrysler Sales Corporation who at the same time stated that unfilled orders on the Chrysler Imperial Eight now total 208 per cent over the original production schedule.

The demand for the Imperial Eight finest product to bear the Chrysler name, is in line with reports of improvements in conditions generally throughout the country, officials of the corporation point out. Orders for the Imperial line are coming in from all parts of the country signifying that the shortage is not confined to any one section, they say.

Production lines on the Imperial Eight are working night and day, Sundays and holidays to take care of the increased demand for every model. Despite this increase in manufacturing schedule a sizable bank of orders will be carried over into November, officials further stated.

How Naval Batteries Fought

That the United States navy played an important part in the closing battles of the World war, is shown by the records of the naval batteries brought into action. Each was a 50-caliber, 14-inch navy rifle, capable of throwing a shell 25 miles. Mounted on specially designed railway cars, each train of the five batteries was self-supporting and carried a string of 15 cars, including a locomotive. Each train was a complete unit, comprising a gun car, sand car, fuel car, battery kitchen car, ammunition cars, berthing cars, headquarters car and a complete workshop car. These batteries were commanded by Rear Admiral Charles P. Plunkett.

How Flyers Are Guided

There are now about 7,000 miles of electrically lighted airways for airplanes. The string of revolving beacons stretches from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and deep into the South. The towers, lighthouses of a new commerce, are built and operated by the government, primarily for air mail service, while the airplanes which carry the mail are owned and operated by private companies. The towers are 60 feet high. The beacon lights cost $475 each, and the lamps, which have a life of 60 hours, sell for $0.50 each.—Capper's Weekly.

How Color Affects Man

Man has apparently become careless about one of the most important items in his environments—color. As soon as he realizes fully the inhibitive and repressive influence of drab, uninteresting color surroundings, the vistas about him will be immediately transformed. Man has always conquered or changed conditions unfavorable to his best development. There is no reason to believe that he will not rise to the present situation and restate into his daily life the color which is so important to his well-being.

How Radio Speeds Crops

Crops can be made to grow at double speed by the application of radio, according to Dr. Fritz Hildebrandt, a Berlin physicist. In a field of poor fertility, he says, he treated seeds of beans, sunflowers, melons, tomatoes and radishes with short waves ranging from half a millimeter to 30 centimeters for 15 minutes.

How to Place Thermometer

Where a thermometer should be placed in a room depends on the existing conditions and the kind of thermometer. For ordinary use the thermometer should be placed to get free circulation around it; that is, in a position to get the most representative temperature. Generally it is placed about five feet high.

Seligman Dodges Tax Republicans Double Road Work

—BY—

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

DEAR MR., MRS., and MISS VOTER:

We are nearing the end of the campaign. Our letters have been truthful at all times. We think our conclusions from the facts have been fair. We believe represent the best interests of the people of the state.

We have written much of the betterment of roads schools under the Dillon administration, as compared the previous four years of Democratic control. It so pens that the people, wherever you find them, who have best roads and the best schools are the most prosperous happy.

Roads and schools measure human progress, all the from barbarism to the highest degree of civilization the of men has been able to make.

During the four years of Democratic administration 1923 to 1926, the following road work was done with aid: Graded and drained, but not surfaced, 93 miles; surfaced, 819 miles; concrete 4 1/2 miles; oil surfaced, 584 miles; oil surfaced 101 miles; concrete 15 miles. During that period about 1,000 miles of lower type roads constructed, reconstructed, or improved without federal aid and about 150 miles of gravel surfacing was placed on roads.

ROAD WORK DOUBLES

From 1927, when Governor Dillon assumed control to present, there has been completed or is now under construction to be completed this year, the following federal aid project: Graded and drained, nonsurfaced, 81 miles; gravel surfaced, 584 miles; oil surfaced 101 miles; concrete 15 miles. construction, reconstruction and improved, 2,500 miles; surfaced 500; oil surfaced, 400.

Under the Dillon administration two thousand miles of roads have been constructed or improved than under Hinkle-Hannett administrations. In that sum is 501 miles of oiled roads. No oiled roads until the Republicans took the 1084 miles of gravel roads.

Bear in mind that under the Dillon administration was twice as much road construction as under the four of Hinkle and Hannett, and much higher grade of construction and surfacing, and especially in the quality of bridges

DEMOCRATIC PROPERTY TAX

In property taxes the cost for four years was $1,500 greater under Hinkle and Hannett than under the Dillon administration, due to the fact that the gasoline tax, under Dillon administration has grown from $773,292.90 for the calendar year of the Hannett administration, to $2,270,000 for eight months of 1930. The gasoline tax for 1930 was about $2,750,000.

The increase year by year in the sale of gasoline led to the constant improvement of the public highways, bringing tens of thousands of tourists annually into and through the State.

The schools you know about. We must have good teachers and a nine months term. The Democrats say they reduce taxes. The only way they can cut expenses is shorten school terms or reduce the pay of teachers both. There is no property tax for highway construction, federal government and the owners of automobiles pay the construction and upkeep of our roads.

AS TO MR. SELIGMAN

The Democratic candidate for governor is resorting his usual tactics in politics. He is trying to create dissatisfaction among Republicans in Spanish-American county. Then he seeks to have the malcontents make a fusion with Democrats of the county. In bringing about such deals Seligman makes no promises of reforms, no claim that public will be benefited. It is just a matter of getting votes.

You may judge of how far he will go to bring about such fusions when we state that he has been charged and denied that he is promoting and financing the candidacy of Elfege Baca for judge of the seventh judicial district.

Elfege Baca has been on trial for his life a number of times. The last trial was in El Paso only a few years ago.

As a rule New Mexico has able and honorable judges. There has been a demand in all parts of the State for justice of ability and integrity. No one knows better than Seligman the unfitness of Elfege Baca for the judgeship, he is spending money to make successful a fusion between Democrats and disgruntled Republicans in the counties of Valencia, Socorro and Sierra. Elfege Baca, and his candidacy for the judgeship, makes the center of the fusion.

If he can get votes to help him on to the governorship Mr. Seligman cares nothing for the mental or moral equipment of the judge of the seventh judicial district.

AND THOSE TAXES

The fact that Mr. Seligman settled five years of the for twenty-eight cents on the dollar is cause to question his fitness for governor. There are people who become discontent in their taxes because they haven't their own taxes are due. They are delinquent because of their poverty. Mr. Seligman is rich. He has been rich for many years. He knew that if delinquent for four or five years he could get a big reduction in his already low taxes. By being delinquent five years he saved for himself seventy-two cents on the dollar. Now he asks to be elected governor. The man who refuses to pay his taxes should at least have the experience of poverty.

We must refer again to the bank tax law he and Governor Hinkle, now the Democratic candidate for Land Commissioner got through the Legislature. Under that law $75,000 of surplus in Mr. Seligman's bank is absolutely exempt from taxes.

For example, a widow lives in Santa Fe. Her sole tax property is a house and lot assessed at $2,000. She paid in 1928, amounting to $87.35. At the same rate Mr. Seligman's bank should have paid $3,275.62. It paid nothing thanks to the law he and Governor Hinkle wormed through the Legislature.

You don't want an expert tax dodger elevated to the powerful position of governor.—ADV.

How Helium is Extracted

The isolation of helium in the pure state is a matter of some difficulty. To begin with, some mineral containing the gas, like cleveite or uraninite is finely powdered and heated with dilute sulphuric acid, the air being excluded and the expelled gas being collected over mercury. The gas—mostly helium, but containing also nitrogen and other atmospheric constituents—is next transferred into an evacuated vessel partly filled with a mass of charcoal and cooled from the outside with liquid air; the charcoal gradually absorbs everything except the helium and part of the neon, and if the process is repeated several times, nothing but pure helium remains behind unabsorbed.

How to Set Camera Lenses

A leading kodak company says that it is not necessary to set the lenses of a camera at an angle when making stereo pictures. Theoretically, the separation of the lenses should be varied according to the subject, but for practical purposes it has found a separation of 3 5-16 inches to be satisfactory. It is possible to use two small box cameras and take stereo pictures. It is necessary to transpose the pictures when mounting them.

HOW

CINDERELLA LEGEND HAD COUNTERPART IN LIFE.—The "Cinderella" theme is common in our dramas of today, one playwright recently admitting that about 60 per cent of his many plots were taken from this old story.

It was about 1730, says Arvine, when a French actor of talent and wealth, named Thevenard, in passing through the streets of Paris, observed upon a cobbler's stall the shoe of a woman, which struck him by the remarkable smallness of its size. After admiring it for some time, he returned to the house, but his thoughts reverted to the shoe with such intensity that he reappeared at the stall the next day. The cobbler, however, could give him no clue to the owner other than it had been left for repair.

Day after day Thevenard returned to his post to watch the reintegration of the slipper, which proceeded slowly; nor did the owner return to claim it. Although he had passed his sixtieth year, so extravagant became his passion for the unknown that he became melancholy and miserable. At last the owner appeared, a pretty and youthful girl in the very humblest walk of life. All distinctions were at once leveled by love, and the actor sought the parents of the girl, obtaining their assent to the match.—Clair Price in New York Times Magazine.

A girl met an old flame, and decided to high hat him. "Sorry," she murmured, when the hostess introduced him to her. "I did not get your name." "I know you didn't," replied the old flame, "but that is not your fault. You tried hard enough."

How Apple Seeds Were Spread Over America

At this season of the year it is timely to recall that a Puritan governor of the early Massachusetts Bay colony brought apples to America. Figuratively speaking, all this fruit that now is characteristic of New England, as of other sections of the country, came from the seeds of his trees. But, of course, there were other introductions later. As settlers moved westward, apples and apple seeds and apple trees followed as a matter of course. There was a famous individual known as "Johnny Applesseed" whose peculiarity was dropping the seeds wherever he went. Pennsylvania got its apples that way. Along with apples went cider, and still does. One New England cider mill makes 6,000 gallons a day in the three months' season, and there are many mills, although the making has been commercialized and modernized and the smaller cider mills are less numerous than 50 years ago.—Boston Tercentenary News.

VOLCANO USED IN ROAD SURFACING

SANTA FE—A use has been found for the many tons of volcanic cinders found in various parts of New Mexico according to the State Highway Department. A section of highway US 70 in Catron county near the state line is being successfully surfaced with cinders from the chain of extinct volcanos in that region.

Test holes are dug in the terrain in the volcanic vicinity until strata of clean cinders are discovered. A simple trap is erected over these spots, the top soil stripped away, and the cinders trucked to the roadway where they are placed. The cinders make an ideal natural surfacing it has been found and will undoubtedly find future use where rock and gravel is scarce and the shipping rates too high to make transported material feasible.

TO IMPROVE ROAD

Work on the cut off road between the Carlsbad-Lovington highway and Hobbs will begin about November 1st, according to an announcement from Carlsbad this week. A rock surface is to be placed on the thirteen miles of road it is said.

STATE SHOWS BIG GAIN IN MARRIAGES IN 1929

New Mexico recorded an increase of 37.5 per cent in 1929 in the number of marriage licenses issued over 1928, returns received from the department of commerce indicate.

In 1928 there were 4,892 marriage licenses issued in New Mexico, and in 1929 the total jumped to 6,727. The increase of 1929 over that of 1928 is due in part to a law passed in Texas and which became effective June 13, 1929 requiring three day notice before a marriage license could be issued.

There were 798 divorces granted in New Mexico during 1929 and 715 during 1928, these figures show.

Venerable Citizen Of San Antonio Tells What Konjola Did In His Stubborn Case.

"It was nine years ago that I began having trouble with constipation, indigestion, bloating and poor appetite," said Mr. William Davis, 71, of 732 Kayton avenue, Dallas. "I took several kinds of medicine but nothing did me the good that Konjola did. I had to take laxatives daily and gas and indigestion followed practically every meal. At times the pain was so severe that I could scarcely bear it. My entire system was run down.

MR. WILLIAM DAVIS

"I read so much about Konjola that I decided to give it a trial. I noticed an improvement within three days and in three weeks I felt better than I had in years. I am telling all my friends about Konjola and expect to take it until I am free of all ailments."

Konjola has done as much for thousands when taken regularly over a six to eight week period. It is truly a master medicine for ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Artesia at Palace Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

ARTESIA, N. M.

1932 ALLOTMENT FOR U. S. ROADS MAYBE AVAILABLE AT ONCE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Plans of Secretary Hyde to request congress to make 1932 allotments of federal aid money for highway construction immediately available to provide emergency employment in drouth states were announced by H. S. Fairbanks, assistant to the chief of the Bureau of Public Roads.

At the same time Fairbanks said the drouth states had large unexpended sums of appropriations made for previous fiscal years which they could spend toward road construction between now and July 1, 1931, when the 1932 allotments ordinarily would be available.

Although Dr. C. W. Warburton secretary of the drouth relief committee, had advised former Governor Harry F. Byrd of Virginia that the 1932 allotments already had been made available, it was explained by comptroller General McCarl that no appropriations made for a fiscal year could be spent until that fiscal year unless congress specifically made it available at a prior date.

WHY

Farmers Like "Grasshopper Mouse."

Many farmers are now encouraging the "grasshopper mouse" to make his home in their fields. This husky little rodent takes its name not from any physical characteristics of its own, but rather from its diet. It first got its name in North Dakota when examinations showed that it fed largely on grasshoppers. In Arizona, on the other hand, it is called the "scorpion" mouse for a similar reason. This variety of mouse has been known to science not quite a century, the first specimen having been taken by Maximilian, prince of Wied, at the Mandan villages in North Dakota in 1833. Recently reported studies have demonstrated their importance. In the western United States and adjoining parts of Canada and Mexico they have been found to be holding numerous harmful insects in check and keeping the proper balance among the small animals that infest farms.

The grasshopper mouse is distinguished by its heavy build and short, thick tail. Its short legs and bulky body handicap it in running but it is harder to catch than swifter rodents on account of its quickness at turning and dodging, which enable it, also, to corner its prey easily. It is less nervous and timid than most rodents and gives evidence of unusual hunting instincts. Its quarry includes not only many kinds of insects, but also other rodents. Its chief sport is said to be capturing other mice of its own size or smaller, and it is credited, too, with destroying the young of many burrowing rodents much larger than itself.

It will also rid kitchens, basements, cellars or greenhouses of many insect pests.

Why Oil on Surface of Water Curbs Movement

Oil being a viscous, slow-moving liquid, remains on the surface of the water, and so curbs the movement of the waves. So sometimes in a storm oil is poured into the sea from different parts of a vessel according to the direction of the wind, the course of the ship, and so on. When the vessel is running before a gale the oil is distributed from the bows, whence it spreads aft, and gives protection to the vessel all round. If it were poured on the sea from the stern the oil would be left behind. Where one vessel is towing another the towing vessel distributes the oil from its own bows and on both sides. In this way the oil spreads so as to benefit both vessels. The oil is distributed sometimes by pipe, and sometimes by throwing overboard porous bags attached to a rope. The oil slowly filters through these bags.

Why Flowers Fade Quickly

There are two mistakes commonly made in cutting flowers for indoor use. One is to wait until they are fully opened, often until they have been open for several days, before cutting them. The other is to cut them during the heat of the day, when they are in ideal condition to wilt. Most flowers are best cut when in full bud or just as they are beginning to open. There are, of course, some exceptions to this, such as dahlias, which do not expand fully until after three to five days after the buds have unfolded. As a general rule, flowers will open more nearly perfect and will last longer if taken just as the buds are expanding and with fairly long stems.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver left last week for the mountains in the western part of the state. They expect to be gone about six weeks while Mr. Oliver is on duty as deputy game warden.

Harry Woodman left yesterday for a brief business visit to Los Angeles and San Francisco, California. Mrs. Woodman accompanied him as far as Phoenix, Arizona and will make a short visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cecil left yesterday for their home at Berea, Ohio, after spending the past week in the valley on business. They spent some time here, in Roswell and at Carlsbad and visited the Caverns. They report much interest in the Caverns in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Littlejohn attended the football game in Roswell Saturday, and brought their son, Noble, who is on the Institute team, home with them for the week end. Mrs. Littlejohn, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Abbott, drove back to Roswell with Noble Monday morning.

DEMAND ADMISSION TO THE "BAR"

© Dr. Pepper Co. Dallas, Tex., 1919

AT 10-2 & 4 O'CLOCK

Will it come to this?

ON November 4, the voters of New Mexico will be called upon to express their approval or disapproval of the tobacco tax recently passed by the State Legislature.

Frankly speaking, this is just another "nuisance tax"—justifiable, perhaps, in a war emergency, but now merely another burden.

The State naturally needs money—all states do—but why pick on the poor smoker?

There is no more reason for a tobacco tax than there is for a local tax on patent medicines, candies, soft drinks, or canned goods.

So watch your step, voters—there's no telling where it will stop!

IN New Mexico the tobacco tax calls for a state stamp of two cents on a package of twenty cigarettes, one cent on a five-cent cigar, and various rates on all other tobacco products—and this in addition to the tax now paid to the Federal Government.

In plain language, such a tax is beyond all reason.

No other commodity, necessity or luxury is so taxed.

Why single out tobacco?

Most other taxes are based on wealth and income—this one is not. It is a daily tax on you because you smoke.

Smokers, are you going to allow yourselves to become tax victims and be penalized day after day for the privilege of smoking?

PILING IT ON THICK

Perhaps you don't know it, but you are already paying a whacking big tribute to the Government—SIX CENTS on every twenty cigarettes.

The highest rate of tax in history is piled onto the poor man's best friend, his best-loved luxury—sometimes his only luxury.

Yet the state now proposes to pile its own tobacco tax on top of the big tax you pay to Uncle Sam.

Do you want this bill to pass?

Do you want to pay a double tax on your smokes? Is it fair to load this extra burden on smokers?

WHY TWO TAXES?

No fair-minded man objects to paying his fair share of expense, whether Federal, State, or local.

But why should he pay TWICE, just because he is a SMOKER?

Isn't this too much of a tax on their proverbial good-nature? Is there any logical basis for such discrimination against smokers?

WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT

It is up to you, Mr. Smoker. If you sit back and wait for someone else to protect your rights and your pocketbook, and if every smoker does the same, this law may become permanent.

But if enough tobacco users will register their votes against this unjust and discriminatory tax measure it can and will be defeated.

Go to the polls and vote NO!

GASOLINE IMPORTS FOR 1930 DOUBLES 1929

According to figures just released by the United States Department of Commerce total imports of gasoline during the first seven months of 1930 were 9,898,655 barrels. During the corresponding seven months of 1929 gasoline imports were 4,415,506 barrels. Thus, for this seven month period, imports this year show an increase of 124 per cent over 1929.

Gasoline imported into the United States comes principally from the Dutch West Indies with some from the island of Trinidad and with very small amounts from Venezuela and Canada. At present the Dutch West Indies is furnishing about 92 per cent of the gasoline imported into the United States.

The Dutch West Indies includes the two islands of Curacao and Aruba just off the coast of Venezuela. On the island of Curacao is the 175,000 barrel Dutch Shell refinery and on the island of Aruba are a 15,000 barrel Dutch Shell refinery and a 125,000 barrel Standard of Indiana refinery. The recent completion of this Standard refinery and the recent enlargement of the Dutch Shells' big refinery are responsible for the enormous increase in imports of gasoline. This increase, during the last year.

If the gasoline imported during the last five months of 1930 averages about as much as during the first seven months, the total for the year will be about 17,000,000 barrels, or practically twice as much as was imported in 1929.

Of the gasoline imported into the United States during the first seven months of 1930 about 8,900,000 barrels were delivered along the Atlantic seaboard from Maine to Florida. This is 90 per cent of the total imports of gasoline. About 760,000 barrels or 7.7 per cent were delivered at points on the Gulf Coast and 236,000 barrels or 2.3 per cent were delivered at all other points. The Atlantic seaboard is therefore the big market for imported gasoline. As much of the surplus gasoline from the Mid-Continent and California looks for a market along the Atlantic seaboard this imported gasoline comes in direct competition with it.

While foreign gasoline is admitted into the United States "duty free" the importing companies must declare its value—and this "declared value" of the gasoline imported into the United States during the first seven months of 1929 was 15.0 cents a gallon and for the same period of 1930 it was 8.4 cents a gallon.

It is generally understood that the average cost of producing a barrel of crude oil in Venezuela is substantially less than in the United States. And it is also understood that the tanker rates for crude oil and gasoline, from the Maracaibo basin to New York are less than the combined pipeline, tank car and tanker rates from oil fields and refineries of the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic seaboard. Regardless, therefore, of the obviously incorrect "declared value" of imported gasoline, the Atlantic seaboard markets that have long drawn on the Mississippi valley's gasoline stocks are turning to "duty free" foreign gasoline.

Mrs. Brown was busy bakin' cakes, an' when I took three or four, she stopped and looked straight at me an' said: 'Si Simpkins, do you know that's the twenty-fifth pancake you're eatin'?' and it made me so mad, I jess got up from the table an' went off without my breakfast."

INSIDE INFORMATION

Cook cut celery with canned tomatoes. Or with an equal amount of thinly sliced white turnip.

Cooked cucumbers may be a novelty in your family. Pare and quarter them, and prepare as you would steamed squash. Serve with melted butter or a sauce if desired.

Try a stuffing for green peppers made of equal parts of fresh corn, cooked macaroni (in small pieces), and tomato, onion cooked in butter, salt and pepper. Any minced cooked meat on hand may be added.

Try sausage and fried canned pineapple. Cook sausage meat in flat cakes one-half an inch thick. Brown slices of drained pineapple in the sausage fat and place one sausage cake on each piece of pineapple for serving. Have the platter and the plate very hot.

A baby does not need shoes until walking time. Shoes put on before then generally for appearance, do more harm than good. The first walking shoes should have flexible but firm soles, unpolished, preferably slightly buffed, and broad enough to be a steady platform under each foot. Very soft soles curl and make more difficult the baby's task of learning balance. Stiff or boardlike soles are also to be avoided. The toes of the uppers should be full or puffy, not flat and cramping to the toes.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL STATE CONTEST

High quality of work and an increased attendance characterized the 13th annual state club contest held at State College October 14 to 18 inclusive. Club members, chaperons and county agents from every county in the state employing extension agents met at the college and took part in the demonstrations put on by the club members. A total of 69 teams, seven stock judging teams and 62 demonstration teams, took part in the contest.

Judges were chosen from among the members of the extension force and college faculty and demonstrations were started promptly at 8:00 o'clock Wednesday morning. Demonstrations were carried on in three groups. The sewing and home furnishing teams demonstrated in the auditorium at Hadley Hall; the cooking, canning and baking teams conducted their demonstrations in the home economics department in the basement of the same building. The miscellaneous group, consisting of demonstration in crops, poultry, livestock, etc., demonstrated in the southeast room in the basement of the new agricultural building, Foster Hall. Two Indian teams gave demonstrations in pottery and basket making at Hadley Hall. These teams were from the Zuni Pueblo.

The afternoons of the three days were devoted to recreation and entertainment. Dr. Robert G. Foster, of the Washington office, who has had vast experience in club work, conducted recreation classes for the club members on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. On Wednesday and Thursday afternoon also the visitors were taken on tours of the college campus and the experimental farm. On Friday afternoon, the club folks attended the Dona Ana county fair, which was being held at Las Cruces.

The club exhibits were on display in the basement of Foster Hall and were viewed by many interested persons. There was a notable increase over the number of exhibits last year, especially in the canning exhibit, and the quality was equal to if not superior to that of former years.

At the closing exercises Friday evening the awards of ribbon and medals were made. The right to represent New Mexico as Grand Champions at the Denver Stock Show in January, 1931, was won by the stock judging team from Lea county, composed of Edwin Byers, Graydon Caudill and Vernon Caudill; the home economics team from Chaves consisting of Rosie Hubbard and Eula Marshall, and the livestock demonstration team from San Miguel county, Richard Johnson and Ray L. Jones. The highest individual score in stock judging was won by Edwin Byers of Lea county.

Instead of the usual tour of the leading industrial firms of El Paso, the club members were given the opportunity of seeing a genuine football game. Arrangements were made whereby the club members received the courtesy of free admission to the game between the New Mexico Aggies and the Arizona Lumberjacks which took place on the athletic field at the Las Cruces High school. Many of the visitors availed themselves of this opportunity and appeared to enjoy the game immensely.

HIS MIND RELIEVED

"I donno when I've been so relieved," said Farmer Watkins as he renewed his mortgages, buried seven starved cows, helped put out a hay fire, canceled his son's college plans, and handed his daughter a hoe, "as when I read in the papers that the government has decided we shant do so much plantin' next year."

Dan Webb and J. A. Jasper, after pleading guilty to a new information charging them with theft from a Santa Fe boxcar, were sentenced to two to three years.

J. L. Morgan, charged with illegal transportation of liquor, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail.

Jurymen serving in the cases tried over the week end were: D. O. Mallow, J. H. Terpening, William Schneider, Jr., Tom Terry, J. F. Thompson, Ora Nymeyer, W. N. Hudgins, B. R. Hammond, J. S. Ward, W. D. Bales, Collin Gerrells and Robert L. Rogers.

A jury was empaneled Wednesday morning at Carlsbad, in the case of the state versus Miss Bobbie O'Dell, charged with forgery. The case has attracted unusual interest and the court house has been crowded with spectators. The trial is expected to be finished early today.

Landis Feather is the only witness called from Artesia.

DROUTH AID TO THE STOCKMEN EXTENDED PERIOD OF ONE MONTH

Drouth aid to livestockmen of this section has been extended from October 31st to December 1st, W. A. Wunsch, county agent said here Tuesday. Telegrams conveying the news of the extension was received at Carlsbad Tuesday by the Santa Fe freight agent. Since drouth aid has been extended to stockmen in the livestock shipments, County Agent W. A. Wunsch and the various communities have sent petitions to the department of agriculture at Washington asking that the time limit on such aid be extended until March 1, 1931.

Since reduced freight rates have become effective under the drouth aid proposition, twenty cars of livestock have been shipped out of the county and applications have been made for the shipment of fifteen more cars.

REV. BARCUS INJURED

Word has been received here of the serious injury sustained by Rev. Ed Barcus, cousin of E. B. Bullock, in an auto accident which occurred near Georgetown, Texas, Tuesday. Rev. Barcus, who is a student in the Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas, was riding with two companions en route to Brenham, Texas, when their car ran into a farm wagon. The driver, W. H. Walker was killed and a young lady was seriously injured. Rev. Barcus sustained several broken ribs.

PRESBYTERY TO MEET HERE

The Presbytery of the Pecos valley will have a special meeting in Artesia next Monday, October 27th, when the newly organized church at Hobbs and its pastor, Rev. J. T. Ross, late of Eastland, Texas, will be received into the Presbytery.

NO TURKEY HUNTING WILL BE PERMITTED IN EDDY THIS SEASON

SANTA FE—Blue Water Reservoir will be open to public fishing for a period of ten years under an agreement reached between the state game commission and authorities of the irrigation district. The irrigation district has been charging a fee for fishing in the reservoir and the state game department had refused to stock it with fish unless it was opened to the public.

The commission will make a further investigation of the request of the Albuquerque Game Protective Association that mountain sheep be transferred from the Big Hatchet mountains and planted in the Sandia range.

The White Mountain game refuge was extended about 1,200 acres to protect flocks of turkeys which the Carrizozo sportsmen have been feeding all summer. The extension includes Eagle Creek canyon. The north part of Bonito canyon was opened for shooting this fall.

Eddy county was closed to turkey hunting for the coming season to protect turkeys recently planted in the Guadalupe mountains which are the only turkeys in the county.

After the present big game season the commission will create another big game refuge south of Mount Taylor in Valencia county.

The quail season in Torrance county was restricted to the first ten days of November with bag limit reduced to ten birds a day at the request of the Torrance county G. P. A.

Action was withheld on the suggestion of the forest service that part of the Alamo refuge in Otero county be opened to hunting this fall. The Otero county G. P. A. opposed

BRUCE FARM SOLD

The Bruce farm belonging to Mrs. L. A. Bruce has been sold to Mortie Cobble. The purchase was consummated last week. The Bruce farm, located east of town, opposite the Oasis is one of the oldest farmsteads in this section. The late L. A. Bruce drilled the first artesian well of the Artesia community after he had homesteaded the tract and it was this artesian well that first drew attention of the outsider to the possibilities of developing this section.

FIRE DESTROYS THE WILDE TENANT HOUSE

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a small tenant house dwelling of A. W. Wilde Sunday near 10:30 a. m. The tenant occupying the house, lost some household goods and a number of personal effects it was said.

lic domain, when the oil production of the public domain amounts to only three per cent of the nation's output. He declared it costs only 19 cents per barrel to produce the foreign oil imported into the United States as against 76 cents per barrel for domestic crudes. For this reason he favored a tariff on crude oil.

The speaker charged that the national administration offered no salvation for the present business depression and that only two spokesmen have attempted to discuss the issue. The farmers were told that they would get farm relief and a tariff bill, but they got neither and further the farm board had speculated in futures.

In discussing the tariff issue, Senator Bratton said that the present tariff on finished products was about double the tariff on many farm products. He called on the republican tariff backers to explain why the price of wool, wheat, cotton, lambs and copper were at the lowest level for years. He stated thirty-three of the sixty-four nations of the earth had counceled to form retaliatory tariff measures to meet our new tariff schedule.

The big problem of the present administration according to Senator Bratton is to get the four million unemployed of the United States back into the lines of employment. If returned to the senate, Senator Bratton promised to take up a constructive program with reference to our oil development and to aid in giving the middle class more constructive legislation.

TERRELL FUNERAL

The funeral of Homer Edward Terrell, eleven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Terrell of Borger, Texas, was conducted Sunday afternoon at the home of A. W. Irby, with Ralph Waldo Emerson, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Terrell were former residents of Artesia. The burial was made in the Woodbine cemetery.

YARD AND GARDEN CONTEST

The Yard and Garden Contest will close the first frost. An exception will be made, however, in the case of chrysanthemums which are not affected by a light frost. To give the chrysanthemum growers a square deal the contest in these flowers will continue about a month longer. Very handsome dahlias and flowers have been on display recently.
