FAIRY TALES

Do you believe in fairy tales? It might be considered a reflection to accuse grown folks of believing in fairies, yet a brief review of the developments leading up to the present time leads up to the conclusion that a good many people must believe in the fantastical stories credited to the fairies. The voter who will let the politician tell him that he, the politician will if elected, do a million dollars worth of public improvements and at the same time reduce the tax rate, must believe in fairy tales. If you still believe the stories that the politicians who insist on saving their country, examine the mounting tax rate of most any community.

Two years ago, a good many property owners would have ignored the invitation to join a tax payers association. Today we have about twenty-eight county tax payer's associations in thirty-one counties of New Mexico. Up until the present session of the national congress people did not know and cared less about the fact that a congressman or senator might have a dozen relatives on the pay roll. The entire tax rate is based on twenty cent cotton, $2.00 wheat and $1.50 a barrel for oil. Farmers are finding it increasingly difficult to pay taxes on the farm with five cent cotton, but because of the legal restrictions and mortgaging the future, taxes will be about the last thing that can and will be reduced.

These birds, who promised both low taxes and lots of improvements are responsible for the present tax rate. The mounting tax rate could not be charged to one particular administration because increasing expenses have been the vogue for fifteen years.

The one reason why the politicians have gotten away with acts equalled to business bankruptcy was on account of the ease with which the average voter swallowed his campaign "hokey."

A lot of people in pretty near every industry are willing to sit down and wait for government aid. Their biggest effort is put forth in howling. We have concluded that perhaps after all they are not so simple, but are too "durn" lazy to show any initiative in helping themselves.

Government interference in private business is charged with driving numbers of city workers back to the farm and it may make still more hoboes out of a few of the idealistic, who are laboring under the impression that the government owes them a living.

"BACK TO EARTH"

"The greatest asset any nation can have is the spirit of its people, said George B. Cortelyou, president, Consolidated Gas Company of New York, "and the greatest danger that can menace any nation is the breakdown of that spirit. . . . That spirit is still with us. It will carry us through. However unfortunate our present economic condition, it is not as bad as it is painted by our professional pessimists. Not all the entries are on the debit side. We have learned—we seem always to have to learn these things again—some wholesome truths that should profit us in the future. We have learned the folly of living in a fool's paradise. We are rid of the hallucination of 'easy money.' We have shed the delusion of 'something for nothing.' We have turned our eyes from mirage to reality. We have come back to earth. These are no small gains."

The collapse of fictitious and absurd "values" will prove to be a good thing for the country. Everything that had genuine value in 1928 or 1929 has genuine value now. We tried to run an economic machine or hot air, and the machine finally slowed down awaiting a supply of "solid" fuel.

THESE LAP DOGS

Arthur W. Cutten of Chicago, Illinois, financier and grain trader, in a signal article published Saturday, said that one third of the value of domestic wheat, corn and oats crop goes "into the pockets of those who grow fat at the farmer's expense."

"The department of agriculture," he said, "for the year ending June 30, 1932, got rid of $318,975,816 and the farm board has a revolving fund of $136,238,555."

"If those bureaucratic lap dogs who are fed out of the public purse could be compensated by farm products instead of the almighty dollar, the entire wheat crop of the United States at present values would be gobbled up and still leave a balance of $100,000,000 to be obtained elsewhere. This is about the present value of the entire oats crop of the United States, hence the bureaus and their sponsor, the department of agriculture, could absorb these two crops, in their entirety; and yet have the gall to say they want to help the farmer."

THE RACE ISSUE IN POLITICS

They tell us over on the east side to "soft pedal" the race issue in politics and mention with care the word "Spanish American," but over in the north side where they take their politics seriously and vote sheep, you hear the Spanish Americans rise up on their hind legs and demand certain offices for the Spanish Americans. A lot of these birds are not seeking office on merits, but are running for office because they happen to be a member of a certain race. If this isn't playing up the race issue, what is?

One publisher tells us that over in his side of the state 700 votes can be bought for $1.00 per head and that these 700 votes control the county. Votes are cheaper than this in some places, because bootleg has dropped to $2.00 per gallon and there are still those who can be voted on one drink.

It is noted that several film stars drawing salaries of from $1,000 to six times that amount weekly have been given a reduction of approximately 15 per cent, and already some of them are trying to figure how they are going to worry along with the reduced salary.—Roy Record.

Yes times have changed. Most of us can remember when the government was supposed to work for the people. Now all of us are working for the government.

PICKED UP ON MAIN

C. J. Dexter, is one of the few locals who can afford a trip to the Pacific coast to watch the antics of the mermaids. Chet, is rather a modest soul and says the bathers wear less clothes each year. In fact, it has almost come to the point where wool from one sheep's back will clothe the bathers of the biggest beach. When the vanishing point on clothes wearing is reached, of course Chet will spend his vacation on the shores of Clark lake, rather than having to travel all the way to California and then having to blush when he visits the beaches. Its not popular now to go in water anyway, but the up-to-date feminine bather gets her a position under a big umbrella and watches the men folks go by, out of the corner of her eye. Dexter and a man companion got the revenge of a life time when they walked straight down the beach without looking.

The big question now is whether Saint Peter will pass these porch bridge players into the pearly gates.

It is rumored there is a slight rift among local members of the Rotary club over what kind of entertainment to provide during the coming district meet August 5 and 6. It is said that Eph. Bullock and George Frisch will demand at least one night of dancing while a crowd led by Curly Williams will stick out for the more popular games of "drop the handkerchief," and "ring around the rosey," etc.

The writer expects to serve at least one term in the legislature and when he does there will be a law on the statute books making it a penitentiary offense to make a man sit at a bridge party for four hours and then eat a heavy meal at midnight.

Farmers are now classed as tired, retired and rubber-tired, with a lot of flat ones among them, according to an exchange.

They were conversing on art. "I know an artist who painted a cobweb so realistically on his dining room ceiling that the maid spent an hour trying to get it down," said Dawber.

"his friend laughed.

"I'm afraid I can't believe that, old chap," he replied.

"Why not?" said Dawber, hurt.

"Artists have been known to do such things."

"Perhaps," returned the friend, "but maids haven't!"

STORING ALL VEGETABLES THAT CANNOT BE CANNED

Many vegetables not adapted to canning may be stored fresh cheaper than if canning them were attempted and the quality may be even better than if the same products were canned, says H. C. Stewart of the New Mexico State College. An abundance may be easily stored with a minimum of expense and labor.

The conditions for successful storage are: a product of good quality, vegetables at the proper stage of maturity; the proper temperature and degree of humidity maintained.

The desirable stage of maturity varies with the crop. Cabbage, onions, squash and pumpkins will not keep well unless fully matured. Beets, carrots, parsnips and turnips should not be allowed to mature fully as they are likely to be woody. The quality of potatoes is better and the shrinkage less if they are harvested after the vines have matured and died. The temperature and moisture conditions may be summarized as follows:

Cool and moist: Beets, carrots, parsnips, turnips, winter radishes and celery.

Cool and moderately moist: Cabbage and Irish potatoes. (The atmosphere should be moist but not moist enough to allow accumulation of water drops upon the stored product).

Cool and dry: Onions and beans.

Warm and dry: Squash, pumpkins and sweet potatoes.

All vegetables except dry beans, onions, squash, pumpkins and sweet potatoes may be kept in the same storage room if cabbage is kept on shelves and potatoes in slatted crates or bins. The best temperature for most vegetables is barely above freezing. If potatoes are included, temperature should not be below 34°F. since potatoes become sweet at lower temperatures, even though not frozen.

ARMY OFFICERS MAY NOT USE POST EXCHANGES

WASHINGTON. — Regular army officers soon may be forbidden the use of army post exchanges.

The annual supply bill for the war department which became a law June 14 contained a paragraph to prohibit the operation of post exchanges to all except "enlisted men and their families and troops."

It was the intention to close exchanges to commissioned officers but experts of the house appropriations committee are doubtful of the interpretation which may be placed on the word "troops."

The war department has not announced its ruling.

LAST OF HIS COMPANY RALLIES FOR REUNION

STILLWATER, Minnesota — A toast—probably his last — to 33 fighting former comrades of Civil War days, men with whom he rallied around an old bottle of wine at dozens of annual reunions, was the tribute paid Thursday by the "last man" of the Last Man's club.

The last man, Captain Charles Lockwood, 89, was the only one to answer when he called the roll of the club organized 47 years ago, with one object, that the last survivor should drink a toast in wine to the others when for the first time he should be alone.

Lockwood fulfilled that pledge two years ago with wine but tonight he substituted water as he raised his glass and repeated a poem ending, "To my comrades all, goodbye."

Before him, amid flowers stood the bottle of Old Burgundy, which is kept in a bank vault between reunions. Lockwood said the annual trip here from his home at Chamberlain, S. D., is becoming harder each time and that this year's meeting will probably be the last. He expects to live many more years, asserting, "I wouldn't be surprised if I celebrate my 100th birthday, not a bit."

The Last Man's club was organized on the anniversary of the first battle of Bull Run in which members of the club, soldiers with Company B, First Minnesota Infantry, fought—and ran when Union forces were routed.

Have a cigar? said the man with smiling face.

Don't mind if I do, said his friend. But what is the occasion? Why this lavish display?

Oh, I've got an addition to the family.

You don't say so? Congratulations! said the other man, enthusiastically, as he put a match to his cigar. After a few puffs he observed, about the fifth child, I should say.

NEW MEXICO DUCK SEASON OCTOBER 16th TO DECEMBER 15th

The open season for hunting wild ducks and geese has been extended from one to two months for the coming fall by President Hoover at the recommendation of Secretary Hyde.

The lengthened season, it was said at the department of agriculture, is made possible by improvement in the situation in which became serious for waterfowl following drought on their breeding grounds in 1931.

The earliest open season in any state will be October 1 and the latest opening date November 16, with the exception of Florida where the season will open November 20. In Alaska September 1 will be the opening date.

The new open season for ducks, geese, brant and coot follow:

October 16 to December 15: Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

October 1 to November 30: Nebraska, South Dakota, Colorado, Utah and Nevada.

November 1 to December 31: California and western and northern Texas.

November 16 to January 15: Southern and eastern Texas.

At election time next November says a statistician, there will be some twelve million more persons of voting age than there were in 1920. By the 1930 census there were $72,943,634 persons in the country 21 years old or over—37,056,757 men and 35,886,867 women. We are assured all the new voters will cast their ballots for Hoover and Roosevelt.

HEALTH COLUMN

Conducted by Dr. J. R. Earp, Director, New Mexico Bureau of Public Health.

THE COST OF MALARIA

At present malaria in New Mexico is under our control. To gain an idea of what the disease would cost us if it should escape control we may make use of a careful economic study that was made some years ago in the Anderson-Cottonwood irrigation district lying on each side of the Sacramento river in northern California.

This district covers 32,000 acres of valley and foothills and contains a population of 1,300 persons. In a single year an investigation was made during which practically every house in the district was visited and the actual loss to the householder from malaria was obtained on a most conservative basis for three items, namely, cost of medicine, cost of medical service and lost wages. The cost from these three items amounted to $31.70 per family of $7.66 per person living in the district—a total cost during the year of over $10,000.

Many indirect losses are not included in this statement. There were forced sales of property belonging to people who left the district on account of the malaria. Land is said to have depreciated in value by as much as $5 to $10 per acre. Crops could not be harvested always at the proper time because of sickness. The cost of funerals of those who died from the disease is also left out of account.

In New Mexico we might have to reckon with another loss, difficult to estimate exactly and yet one that might be more serious than any of those mentioned above. If a few score tourists should acquire malaria while visiting our state, what might be the consequence to tourist travel in the future?

Too great economy in malaria control may prove expensive.

What luck! said the egg in the monastery, out of the frying pan into the friar.

Black-Draught
Clears Up Sluggish Feeling

"I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark.

"If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After twenty years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theodor's Black-Draught.

SHE REDUCED 38 LBS. THE SAFE WAY

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 32 years old and 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 165 lbs. and now I weigh 127 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel lazy and heavy," Mrs. Florence Loftus, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you lose fat where fat is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning naturally.

Any drugstore in the world will sell you a jar of Kruschen for a trifling sum—take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—go light on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. But for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous. It's the little daily dose that does it.

THE RECONSTRUCTION FUND MAY TAKE UP ROAD DEBENTURES

Discussion of a possibility that the reconstruction finance corporation might take up the remainder of New Mexico's one million dollar issue of highway debentures was had at a conference between Chief Highway Engineer Eccles and district highway engineers at Santa Fe last week.

The entire issue of debentures is under contract for sale, but so far sales are going slowly and only a small portion of the debentures have been sold and delivered.

Plans for utilizing the nearly $2,000,000 emergency allotment for New Mexico road work under the emergency relief bill were discussed, and Mr. Eccles said it will be possible to let contracts for all of the $2,000,000 emergency fund within two months.

Because the emergency funds are designed for unemployment relief, Mr. Eccles said the federal bureau of roads will require that labor clauses will be inserted in all road contracts, that a thirty hour work week will be required and that a minimum wage scale must be specified.

OKLAHOMA SAYS CAPONE NEEDS BRING BODYGUARD

PONCA CITY, Oklahoma—Let the Capones come to the 101 ranch, says Mayor Dan Kygar, but he advises them to bring their body guards along.

Replying to a query from the Chicago Herald-Examiner, which said that "Chicago, having rid the city of gangsters," would like to know whether they will be welcomed in Oklahoma, the Ponca City mayor wrote:

"I have no information in regard to purchase of the famous 101 ranch by the Capone brothers. But we have outlived the Daltons, Al Jennings, Ben Cravens, Henry and Belle Starr, Al Spencer and two gubernatorial impeachments.

"If the Capones can give us new thrills, send them along, but advise them to bring their body guards with them."

GET FIVE-DAY WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Five thousand employees of the federal department of labor were notified Monday that for the next forty-eight weeks they will work only five days a week.

Secretary Doak, himself a firm believer in the shorter work week, announced that division chiefs of the department had decided unanimously upon the plan to do away with lengthy compulsory furloughs.

Each employee will be charged with one-half day weekly against the 24-day furlough made necessary by the salary cut ordered by congress.

The plan will affect 5,532 employees, of which 958 are stationed in Washington.

The field service of the navy department, the government printing office and day workers of the District of Columbia already are on the five day week. Other government departments have rejected the plan, saying it did not fit their needs.

30-Hour Week

The relief bill signed last week by President Hoover provides a 30-hour week on Boulder Dam and other public projects covered in it. Where states borrow money under this law for public construction they also must observe the 30-hour week.

Secretary Doak's decision means that none of the labor department employees will receive any accumulative leave before June 30, 1933.

PUBLISHERS HOLD SESSION AT CLOVIS

The New Mexico Press association concluded a two-day convention at Clovis and will meet in Santa Fe during the legislative session next winter.

A discussion of legislative objectives was held Saturday morning and a plan was adopted for developing outside advertising for New Mexico. A proposal that the association make journalistic awards for best achievements annually in state journalism was made but no action was taken.

Sixty-six members and their guests attended the banquet Friday, presided over by A. W. Anderson, Clovis publisher.

President Karl F. Guthman of Roy announced the following new committees: publicity, A. W. Anderson, Orval Ricketts, Farmington and Paul Dodge, Tucumcari; resolutions, J. G. MARKED DECREASE IN LUMBER INDUSTRY OF STATE IS SHOWN

ALBUQUERQUE. — Preliminary statistics released by the bureau of the census in cooperation with the forest service show a marked decrease in the total amount of lumber manufactured in Arizona and New Mexico in 1931, as compared with the amount manufactured in 1930 and 1929. For the year 1931, 33 active mills in Arizona, reported a cut of 86,641,000 feet, board measure, as compared to 95,497,000 feet, board measure, cut in 1930 and 174,594,000 feet, board measure in 1929. This is a decrease of 9 per cent to 1930 and 50 per cent as compared to 1929. For the year 1931, 57 active mills in New Mexico reported a cut of only 58,367,000 feet, board measure, as compared to a cut of 142,885,000 feet, board measure, in 1930, and 148,287,000 feet, board measure, for the year as compared to 1929 and 59 per cent as compared to 1929. A very large per cent of the cut in the two states was ponderosa pine, 92 per cent; Douglas fir, 7 per cent; spruce and white fir 1 per cent. The large operations which include mills having a normal production of 10,000 M feet and over cut about 78 per cent of the total production, leaving approximately 22 per cent cut by small mills largely for local consumption. The foregoing figures are the preliminary figures compiled by the forest service and may be changed slightly in the final compilation by the bureau of the census. The figures do not include production of a number of very small mills which cut less than 50,000 feet during the year. If these mills were included the figures would be changed only to the extent of about 300,000 feet, board measure, for the two states.

BOY SWIMMER DIVES AND GETS A 4-POUND GAR. Here is a real "Believe it or not" story, the correctness of which is undeniable. Tom Cornett, one of the expert swimmers who frequent the municipal beach, from the high diving board, saw a large fish in the water below and coming toward him. Cornett timed a dive just right and came up with a four-pound gar in his right hand. Although a little disgusted that it wasn't a cash or a buffalo, Cornett brought the gar to shore and it was seen and its weight estimated by a number of people. —Carlsbad Current Argus.

HOUSE BUILT IN ARIZONA IN 790, TIMBERS PROVE

WASHINGTON. — Columbus will have to look to his laurels, for 1492 no longer is the "earliest date" in American history. Future school boys can start with 790 A. D. The "dated" history of the United States was pushed back to the year 790 Thursday with announcement by the Smithsonian Institution that a house, identified as having been built that year, has been found by an archaeological expedition near the Puerco river in eastern Arizona. This "dated" house, built when Charlemagne was growing up to be emperor of the Holy Roman Empire and when the Danes were invading England, will take a lot of guesswork out of America's ancient history. It reveals as definitely as a history book written by the early Pueblo Indians, were flourishing in the southwest. The tree growth rings in the roof timbers made it possible to "date" the house as surely as though "790 A. D." had been carved on the cornerstone, said Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts, Jr., leader of the expedition. He is formerly of Las Vegas.

Bringing Back Local Prosperity

The prosperity of any community depends largely on the citizens of that community. A community is just as good as the citizens who compose it. The wise man is not waiting on legislative aid for the return of prosperity or sitting and waiting for someone to throw a pot of gold in his lap.

The condition of any individual or community will depend largely on the individual effort. The sooner that individual effort is made the sooner will he reach prosperity. Thrift combined with a little common sense will do the trick.

NEW CURRENCY

WASHINGTON, D. C.—More than $6,000,000 in new currency will be issued by the treasury shortly if inquiries by a score of national banks as to the workings of the new money expansion law are followed up with deposits of the necessary security bonds.

These banks could issue new currency to the extent of their individual capital stock and if taken advantage of to the limit the law would put $995,000,000 of new money into circulation.

The inquiries received by the comptroller of the currency asked how soon the new provision could be put into effect.

Some officials termed the inquiries applications for permission to issue currency while others held they were only informal requests and said the bonds to guarantee the currency had not yet been deposited.

The new law will work in this fashion: A bank having $100,000 in eligible bonds could issue a total of $95,000 in new currency.

First the bank would have to deposit the bonds with the treasurer of the United States, but would continue to receive the interest from the government called for by the bonds.

This estimate was made by the state highway department on a basis of the number of men benefited from the federal aid emergency program of a year ago.

SCOUT NEWS

CAMPING

The Boy Scouts of this area are being offered many opportunities for a camping experience this summer. Starting with the annual summer camp at the Boy Scout reservation in the Sacramento reservation with nearly one hundred scouts in attendance, this was followed by a water camp at Santa Rosa.

Eighteen scouts attend this camp. Rev. Fulton Tucker of Vaughn was the camp director. The next water camp will be held at Dexter, starting yesterday and ending Saturday.

Rev. F. B. Howden, Jr., of Roswell will direct this camp. Rev. Howden is well qualified to act as director, being a Red Cross life saving examiner.

This camp is to be followed by a similar one at Carlsbad, probably August 3rd to August 6th. Shelby King, Carlsbad municipal life guard will be asked to direct the water activities of this camp.

These water camps are somewhat of a departure from the usual camping experience in this area due to their being conducted on the patrol basis, i. e., each boy brings his own food and shelter and does his own cooking.

Each patrol will be in charge of its patrol leader. There is no money cost to the scout. Every possible safety precaution is taken.

Scouts and officials must have a physical examination by a registered physician. For swimming the "Buddy System" will be used and there will be competent adult supervision at all times.

Boats with life guards and equipment will patrol the bathing areas at all times. Any scout who violates the rules will be sent home immediately. In addition to these camps there is a possibility of holding a pioneer camp in the Sacramento mountains sometime in August.

During this same period, however the AVERAGE COST of domestic electric service has decreased 32% BELOW the July, 1914, average.

STATE BALANCE IS LESS THAN LAST YEAR

New Mexico opened the present fiscal year with a cash balance in banks of $2,973,293.08 which was $1,147,419.07 less than it had opened the previous fiscal year, State Treasurer Warren Graham said Friday.

The decrease is accounted for primarily in a falling off of revenues principally from federal income to the state and income from state lands, Mr. Graham said.

Total receipts from all sources for the past fiscal year were $12,416,992.21 against total disbursements of $13,564,411.28, of which $6,155,210.37 was spent by the New Mexico highway department.

Common school permanent funds including cash and investments however, continues to show an increase but not as large as the previous year. These funds increased $287,452.69 to a new total of $3,739,394.38, but the increase the year before had been $692,762.42.

The states general obligation bonded debt as of June 30, 1932 was $2,442,388.75 a reduction of more than $120,000 from the previous year. The outstanding highway debentures debt is $8,350,000 and the public land debt is $588,647. The general obligation debt does not include the $285,000 deficit at the close of the last fiscal year which is being carried as overdraft.

During the past year, general property taxes dropped from $2,254,410.27 to $2,116,949.17; special property taxes fell from $171,111.13 to $147,459.55; motor vehicle license fees dropped from $789,088.28 to $548,851.31; earnings of departments and boards decreased from $94,074.36 to $181,978.56; district court and justice of the peace fines fell from $21,843.21 to $10,997.56.

A big loss in receipts was accounted for in a decrease in federal aid road funds from $3,877, 343.72 to $2,595,867.12.

The total receipts from the federal government dropped from $4,050,480.69 to $2,787,688.43.

State land office income fell off from $2,073,106.33 to $1,427,447.44 which was represented in a large measure in a decrease in oil and gas royalties from $489,233.11 to $133,455.43. Oil and gas and grazing rentals fell off but mineral leases and royalties increased.

Despite generally depreciated income, the treasurer increased sinking funds from $6,905.70 to $11,604.80 and interest investments from $147,665.02 to $152,336.45.

The total receipts for the 1931 fiscal year were $15,115,940.99 as opposed to $12,416,992.21 for the past fiscal year.

'MA' FERGUSON LEADS FOR TEXAS GOVERNOR

OIL MEN ADOPT A 3 POINT PROGRAM

A three point program, designed to continue rehabilitation of the oil industry and at the same time conserve the oil resources of the nation, was considered by the American Petroleum Institute at Colorado Springs, Colorado Saturday.

The institute continued to ponder its problems in executive session with little indication forthcoming as to the trend of the discussion.

Thugman Hill, member of the Kansas public service commission, presented his "two million barrels," conservation plan in a lengthy formal report to the institute's president, Amos L. Beatty, Friday night.

In brief, the program called for:

1—Reduced production in the American fields to 2,000,000 barrels daily. The reduction to come voluntarily if possible.

2—Reduction of storage withdrawals to approximately 50,000 barrels per day, advising the state officials 30 days in advance of amounts to be withdrawn.

3—Any requirements in excess of 2,000,000 plus the 50,000 plus the import, less export, shall be taken from the producers, particularly from areas that are now being deprived of an adequate outlet.

RICH GOLD STRIKE REPORTED NEAR TOP OF THE BLACK PEAK

A rich gold strike was reported Tuesday near the top of Black Peak in the Animas country by prospector Ben Brown, grubstaked by E. F. Scott, San Marcial filling station owner. The location is 30 miles southwest of Hot Springs.

Sample assays, Scott said, show $452 a ton, and Brown reported a vein six feet thick and six to eight inches wide. The discovery was just above Max Hiltz's gold cement mine on Slapjack hill.

PLANT 7,100 FISH IN SECTION

A total of 7,100 additional large mouth black bass raised in the federal and state warm water hatcheries were planted in various public waters of southeastern New Mexico yesterday.

This makes a total of 79,100 bass which have been planted from the two hatcheries in public waters of New Mexico since July 1, and fishermen know what that means, especially since the rough fish in the area have been practically eliminated.

Twenty-one hundred bass, averaging six inches in length, were planted from the federal hatchery in Lake McMillan and 2,300 from the state hatchery went to public waters in the Carlsbad area.

Indian Potlatches

Potlatches were the great winter ceremonials among the tribes of the North Pacific from Oregon to Alaska. The word has passed into popular speech along the northwestern coast from the Chinook Jargon, into which it was adopted from the Nootka word "patshatl," giving or a gift. Potlatches were mainly marked, as the name implies, by the giving away of quantities of goods, commonly blankets.

Consuls in History

The title of consul has appeared several times in modern history, notably in the history of France immediately following the revolution of the Eighteenth century. Napoleon Bonaparte and two associates were made consuls, that is, chief magistrates, in December, 1799, and the office continued until May, 1804, when the first consul, Napoleon Bonaparte, became emperor.

Use of Guillotine

The guillotine was introduced into France at the time of the revolution but similar instruments of capital punishment had previously been in use in Scotland, England and various parts of the continent. Its use in France was suggested by Doctor Guillotine and the first guillotine was erected in Paris in 1792.

SHORT SUBJECTS

American Architecture

Philip Newell Youtz says America has a distinct architecture of its own. Even in its Colonial phase old world designs were subtly changed to suit the new country. Today American architecture is an epitome of American life. The skyscraper, the modern factory, power house, grain elevator, railway terminal, school building, hospital and theater are all examples of original American thought and design.—Washington Star.

Amethyst Long Prized

The Roman empire has left an indelible record of the esteem in which the amethyst was held. Julius Caesar was the proud possessor of a collection of the finest specimens of these jewels, and later, after his assassination they were used as a badge of honor, when the Roman senators were privileged to wear amethyst pins in their togas as a sign of their high office.

Swordfish Not Belligerent

A swordfish will not attack a boat unless hooked on tackle or otherwise infuriated, according to George Thomas, Pacific coast angler, who says even then the attack is uncommon. He says he has seen a three-inch solid oak plank pierced by a swordfish, after which the razor sharp sword then breaks off.

Nature's "Waste"

Nature shows heedless disregard for her offspring. Millions of seeds are produced, and out of these a few survive and great forests grow. But a flash of lightning or a stream of molten lava may wipe out a forest that has taken years to produce.

First Postal Systems

The postal system goes back to the early days of the great empires of the East, when domination over great areas depended on rapid and frequent communication. The posts of the Persian empire under the successors of Cyrus are the first great example.

Very Old

Punch as we know him was invented by an Italian comedian in the Seventeenth century. In 1727 a statuette of the puppet was dug up among Roman remains, but although some trace the story back to Pontius Pilate, its origin is lost in antiquity.—London Mail.

Inventor Unknown

The inventor of the handbox is not known. The handbox dates back probably about two or three hundred years. It takes its name from the fact that the box is made out of a wide circular band of paper or pasteboard with top and bottom added.

Husbandly Traits

Japanese Religion

It is impossible to give the precise origin of the Shinto religion of Japan. This is a mild form of ancestor worship and lists 14,000 gods and has 13 sects. It appears to have been the native religion of the early Japanese.
