The Wool Movement To Market Is Active

80,000 Pounds Is Offered For Sale Here Today—Price Reaches A New High In Sale At Roswell Yesterday.

The normal wool movement is underway here with about the normal production in prospect. Conservative estimates say that the present wool crop for the trade area is expected to exceed 600,000 pounds. The shearing is said to be fifty per cent finished and the wool is being moved to a rail point as rapidly as the shearing operations are completed. Approximately 200,000 pounds have been moved from the Bullock warehouse and eighty thousand pounds is in storage to be sold at another wool sale here today. Mr. Bullock said that he anticipated the amount to be loaded through his warehouse would approximate a half million pounds. An additional 100,000 pounds will likely be sent direct to Boston thru the Regional Agricultural Corporation.

The wool crop of this section at today's prices is worth about $108,000 to the growers as compared with $36,000 last year. As an illustration, R. L. Merritt, Lake Arthur rancher recently sold here a last year's clip of 6,000 lbs. and made about $50.00 per month for holding the clip the twelve months period. Last year he was offered 6 cents and this year sold the 6,000 pounds at 17 1/2 cents.

Six buyers representing three firms are here this morning attending the wool sale at the Bullock warehouse. It is expected that the warehouse will be practically cleaned by this morning's sale. The wool to be sold will aggregate approximately 80,000 lbs.

A total of 361,000 pounds of wool was sold yesterday at Roswell, in the biggest wool sale of the season to date. The price of wool reached a new high when the 81,000 pound clip of J. H. Clements, Jr., sold for 23 1/4 per pound. The Clements clip of extra quality brought the season's best price. The clips sold here like the clips that have been sold here have averaged more than three times the price paid last season.

FORTY ENTERED IN CIVIC CONTESTS—MORE ARE DESIRED

Forty contestants have been entered in the City Beautiful and Yard and Garden contest it was announced Tuesday. To date the committee has been unable to make a thorough canvass of the district. Those who contemplate entering any event are requested to communicate with Mrs. J. M. Story, chairman. This matter should be attended to at once. Entries in the Yard and Garden contest closes June 15th.

To Start Plugging Wells July 1

Bids will be opened July 1st on plugging forty abandoned and leaky artesian wells in the Pecos Valley Water Conservancy District announced here recently. Successful contractors will be required to make bond and start the plugging operations immediately after the bids are accepted by the board. The board members spent Saturday in Roswell going over the details connected with this work. According to records of the artesian well supervisor, wells to be plugged are wasting approximately 33,500 gallons of water per minute. While it is not known the exact amount of funds that are available from taxation at this time, a total of $14,000 could be used for that purpose at the present time.

Wells to be plugged are divided

PAID KIDNAPERS

COURT TO MAKE A TENTATIVE BUDGET

The Eddy county commissioner's court are meeting today in Carlsbad to fix a tentative expense budget for another year. G. R. Brainard board member said Tuesday the amount of the budget would be approximately the same as last year. It will be subject to the approval of the state budget auditor from the state tax commission, who will meet with the commissioners on July 16th. The country has experienced a $750,000 shrink in valuation in addition to any shrinkage that may be made in the corporate property. At this meeting it is expected to be decided whether or not Eddy county shall have a full or part time health officer. Dr. O. E. Puckett, present health officer said here Tuesday he would be forced to enter private practice in the event his salary was cut in half. The financial difficulty of the county health department is due to the fact that the U. S. Public Health Service has stopped its contribution to the maintenance of the county health officer here.

ROSWELL SELECTED

NEW DELIVERY HOURS

The Peoples Mercantile Co., grocery department is announcing in this issue the hours the grocery delivery truck will operate and is calling special attention of the patrons of this department to the new hours so that no one will be inconvenienced. The occasion for the new delivery hours is the eight hour law, which this company will observe. G. V. Price, manager said his company would endeavor to co-operate with both the state and national governments relative to the observance of laws designed to aid the laborer and the unemployed.

1,000 BARREL WELL COMPLETED AT JAL BEST IN DISTRICT

Flows Thru 3/4 Inch Choke Making Eight Million Feet Of Gas—R. D. Compton Stakes New Location Artesia Area.

Development of one of the best if not the best producers in the Jal area of southeastern Lea county, is regarded as one of the high lights of oil activity during the past week. The Continental Oil Co., has given its Wells No. 1 in the NW sec 12-25-36 a test after drilling to a total depth of 3,408 feet and thru a three-quarter inch choke, the Wells flowed at the rate of 1,000 barrels per day and gauged 8,000,000 feet of gas. Workmen are running 6 1/2 inch casing. Possibility of boosting the production to exceed the initial test is considered good.

In the Artesia field R. D. Compton has staked a location for his Compton No. 2 in the NE sec. 8-18-27. Activity over the other part of the county consists of routine drilling. The F. W. & Y. Oil Co., is drilling below 2,029 feet in its State No. 64 in the NW sec. 10-19-28. The Western Drilling Co., is still progressing nicely on its Green No. 2 SW SE sec. 29-17-29, with the drill going below 1,500 feet. Cecil Lockhart, et al., Root No. 2, is drilling below 500 feet. The New Mexico Oil Syndicate will soon reach an interesting depth on its McClelland No. 1, NE sec. 22-22-23, which is below 2,600 feet. The same company is rigging on its McIntyre No. 1 sec. 35-23-25 in the Rocky Arroyo section.

AUTO FEES DROP FOR YEAR

Motor vehicle licenses up to May 31 amounted to $695,128.92 as against $802,544.16 for the same period a year ago, Joe R. Martinez of the state motor vehicle bureau reported Monday.

The May receipts were greater than those for the same month last year, being $23,137.22 as compared to $17,475.77 for May 1932. During the first months of the license year they fell considerably below the 1932 collections and although both April and May show a gain they have not as yet caught up with the 1932 mark for the year.

WILL TEST RULING AREA FARM LOANS

Bryant Williams of Hope, agent for the federal farm loan commission under the emergency act informs us that he has forwarded eight or ten applications to the federal land bank at Wichita, Kansas asking for loans on local farms. The federal farm bank has refused thus far to make loans or lands watered from artesian wells, but Mr. Williams is hopeful that this ruling will be changed and he has sent the first applications in as a test. He has also been advised that an engineer for the land bank is in this district making a survey to determine what has been accomplished in the matter of water conservation. The engineer's report will have an important bearing on whether loans will be granted in the artesian basin even under the emergency act.

The federal land bank has promised to notify Mr. Williams in the event any changes occur in the rulings.

BRAINARD TALKS ON COUNTY FINANCES

G. R. Brainard, county commissioner from this district made a talk to Rotarians at the luncheon program Tuesday on taxes and county finances. ### TULARIEMMA CASE LOCATED

PROJECT TO SHOW INCREASED COTTON ACREAGE THIS YEAR

The cotton acreage on the Carlsbad project is increased about five per cent over last year, according to tabulations recently completed by L. E. Foster, project superintendent. The actual cotton acreage is 800 acres greater than last year and a decrease of 1,000 acres in alfalfa and an increase of land not cropped of about 1,000 acres over last year. The area outside of the project totals approximately 4,000 acres. Of this amount 3,000 acres have been planted to cotton, 600 acres to alfalfa and the remainder to sorghums.

The total acreage in the project this year is 21,952 acres divided as follows: alfalfa, 3,013 acres; cotton, 16,620; oats, 674; sorghums, 625; wheat, 221; cane, 145; sweet clover, 172; Indian corn, 205; garden, 58; cantaloupes, 67; pasture, 152.

COUNTY AFFAIRS ARE JEOPARDIZED BY THE LOW FINANCES

Eddy county government may be jeopardized unless county taxpayers come to the rescue with prompt payment of taxes, Walter McDonald, sheriff related at Carlsbad last week. Long distance telephone service to the court house may be discontinued due to the county's failure to pay telephone charges over six months. Sheriff McDonald said he was even without funds to buy soap and mops with which to clean the county jail and "yet the law requires me to keep the jail clean." Eight out of ten prisoners that enter the jail are diseased, according to Mr. McDonald. The county affairs have reached a state that the county officers have had to support themselves for the past several months without pay.

Sheriff McDonald said if the citizens wanted him to he would open the jail and let the prisoners out. Taxpayers who have deliberately refused to pay their taxes will look at the situation in a different light, if the law enforcement machinery breaks down thru lack of funds, Sheriff McDonald thinks.

BRAINARD ACCEPTS JOB OF MANAGING DALLAS BALL CLUB

Given Four Months Leave Absence From C. Of C. Duties—I. C. Keller Is Named Fill Post During Summer.

Fred Brainard has been granted a four months leave of absence from his duties as manager of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce to accept the management of the Dallas, Texas baseball club. Negotiations were completed by Mr. Brainard last week to assume his new position and he joined the Dallas baseball club at Houston, Texas Tuesday. Ike Keller, member of the board of directors will act as manager of the Chamber of Commerce until Mr. Brainard returns in the fall.

Brainard one of the few men of this section to make good at professional baseball has had a colorful career as a player during the years he followed the profession. He has been connected with eleven teams, has participated in two little world series and the Dixie series between the Texas League and the Southern Association and incidentally was a member of the Dallas, Texas club when this club won the Texas League championship and played in the Dixie series. This was his last year as a professional ball player. He has played with the Austin, Dallas, Beaumont and Wichita Falls clubs of the Texas leagues, serving as manager of the latter club. He was at one time a member of the New York Giants, the Providence, Newark, Baltimore and Buffalo clubs of the International League, serving as manager of the Newark club and was a player on the Milwaukee and Columbus clubs of the American Association.

There are some matters of vital importance to the community to be handled by the Chamber of Commerce in the next few months and the co-operation of every business man and merchant in Artesia is imperative, if the community is to take advantage of the present opportunities. In departing Mr. Brainard expressed a hope that this successor might have the full support of every member of the Chamber of Commerce.

TRIAL HOPE MEN IS SET FOR JUNE 17TH

Complaint in this case was made by Lee Glascock and the sheep in question were ranging in the Hope section. Deputy Sheriff Sam McCue of Roswell made the arrests in this case.

Hillary White, Jr., was also arrested on the same charge, the offense in this case being alleged to have happened in January, 1932. White waived a preliminary hearing and pleaded not guilty and was also released on a bond of $500.

MANY EAST TEXAS WELLS ARE DEAD

An average of one out of every six "key wells" gauged in East Texas for potential rating have refused to flow thru tubing and casing open at the same time, it was reported at Fort Worth, Texas Tuesday. The wells will flow thru tubing or casing opened separately.

This was interpreted Tuesday by oil men as a more conclusive indication that the field has suffered in physical qualities during the past forty days than the reported decline in potentials and bottom hole pressure.

However, as gauging of more wells progresses, the percentage of decline grows less, compared with records obtained during the middle of April.

One report Tuesday was that "potentials" on 165 wells gauged show a decline of 9.5 per cent from the out put registered in April.

Unverified reports are that as many as one-third of the completed wells in East Texas are "dead." Informants say that both large and small operators are concealing authentic reports due to the practice of producing the full lease allowable from whatever wells remain on the live list.

Some engineers working on bottom hole pressure data say the average for the field will not now exceed 1,190 pounds. Considering the pressure at 1,330 pounds on April 24, this would be a decline of 140 pounds or an average of about 3.33 pounds per day.

C. O. BROWN ACTING MAYOR

Attention of the public is called to the fact that C. O. Brown should be addressed His Honor The Mayor, in the absence of Joe Clayton, who is out of town for a few days. Mr. Brown is acting mayor. ## Methodist Assembly Is Started On Tuesday

The second annual Methodist Assembly, which opened at Weed Tuesday evening, is attracting unusual interest. Three hundred people are expected to participate in the courses offered by both the adult and young people's assemblies, The Rev. A. C. Douglas, Artesia pastor reports. The assembly has enlarged its scope since the project was launched last year. Last summer only the young people's assembly was held, but this year instruction will be offered to both groups, with the adult assembly convening at Weed and the young people at the Boy Scout camp, twelve miles southwest of Weed. Some building has been done on the assembly grounds four miles west of Weed, but the construction of the buildings is not far enough advanced to accommodate the delegates in attendance at this time.

Two prominent church leaders from Nashville, Tennessee are members of the faculty of instructors, which includes for the adult assembly, Dr. B. M. McKeown, Nashville, Tennessee; Dr. C. S. Walker, Carlsbad; Hon. C. E. Meade, Marfa, Texas; Dr. H. C. Henderson, Roswell; Dr. Robert A. Stewart, El Paso, Texas; The Rev. Bryan Hall, Las Vegas; Dr. R. E. Dickenson, Dallas, Texas; Dr. A. L. ## THE PENDULUM SWINGS

It is a difficult matter to arouse public interest, but when once aroused there is the possibility of going too far. This is what has happened in the past few months in the matter of reduction of public expenses and stopping the operation of some new laws, according to a number of conservative citizens. Mob psychology often plays an important part in such reactions and no doubt the effect can be traced in the signing of the six measures up for referendum.

No doubt exists that two of the revenue measures attacked, the severance tax and the lubricating oil tax were vicious laws and should never have been passed by the state legislature. There is some question involved regarding the other laws attacked by the referenda and more particularly the debenture bill. The debenture bill is designed to provide revenue to meet the requirements of the federal government in the granting of federal aid to the state roads and highways. Regardless of the present financial condition, the debenture bill was about the only way out to meet the requirement.

Failure of its passage means that New Mexico will not share in several million dollars in road money and that numbers of our needy will go without employment. No citizen ought to let prejudice against an administration influence him to help kill a measure of vital importance to the welfare of his neighbors. It's too much like a spite marriage.

HAIL, THE HINDSIGHTERS

This street talk going the rounds about the affairs of the First National Bank has thus far failed to impress us with any degree of concern. If those who have been prone to "pop off," have as much intelligence as they would now have us believe, they should have made some constructive suggestions, say three or four years ago, which probably would have averted any embarrassment. To say the least, some who have been spending so much energy talking can not cash in on the energy spent, for one thin dime and here lies the difference in constructive planning and destructive criticism. And another thing, the hindsighters who have engaged in these verbal gymnastics have not raised their personal reputation one bit, nor their credit standing in the community.

As has been stated before the situation reminds us of a pack of wolf hounds. Two or three in the pack can always be depended on to catch and kill the wolf. Others who spend most of their time under the barn usually arrive in time to shake the hound out of the dead wolf.

One good lady of Roosevelt county has severely criticised the editorial appearing in the News several weeks ago, advocating the closing down of the schools for a year.

This lady says it keeps her busy looking after her children during the usual vacation, and that she will not stand for having to look after them twelve months in a stretch.

This is well and good, but some historical writer has written that ignorance is bliss.

Why not close the schools down and let the children become 100 per cent blissful?

Without an education they would not be able to read and keep up with the corruptness of politics.

They would have the opportunity to experience some of the advantages of their forefathers who settled the wilderness, fought the Indians and managed to wrestle a living out of the wilds without bothering with schools.

Of course they might have to discard the automobile and go back to the ox cart, but think of the bliss that they would enjoy.—Portales Valley News.

According to reports, Harry Shuart, right hand man of the state administration is out campaigning for the counter referenda, to kill the petitions submitted asking for a referendum on six measures. Harry, reports say, has called the revolting citizens Bolsheviks and has read them out of the democratic party. Shuart is alleged to have written some "danged" good speeches for the governor and is a fairly handsome man. We'd hate to see his countenance disfigured with some rotten eggs the farmers can't sell, the first time he makes a crack like that in this district.

An Advocate subscriber make inquiry about Artesia, which we will permit the merchants to answer. He says, "I once thought Artesia was a one-horse town, but the appearance of your paper does not show it, still after looking over the advertising columns of your paper in which some lines of business are conspicuously absent, I am of the opinion that I might have been right in the first place."

The farmer's plight has been a bad one, most everybody will admit, still the thrifty farmer has enjoyed three square meals a day, whereas some of his town cousins have had to live on $1.50 per week the past winter. This situation might be a good thing to remember even if cotton goes to ten or twelve cents per pound.

"But," interrupted the mother, "America mustn't quarrel with England."

"You are misleading the child," said the mother.

"No, I'm not," he answered.

"Yes, you are."

WILL IGNORE NEW LAW FOR LICENSE SALE

State Comptroller Juan N. Vigil Monday stated his position would be to charge the full fees for motor vehicle registration next year except in the cases of persons entitled under the old law to licenses for one-quarter, a half year or three-quarters.

He will take the view that the 1933 law is merely a "clerical error" with respect to its provision for licenses for less than a full year, he said.

The new law says if a car is not run before January 1, the owner is entitled to a license for one-half of the regular fee; if not operated before April 1, for one-fourth of the regular fee; if not operated before October 1, for three-fourths of the regular fee.

As a result of this provision, it has been pointed out a man could transfer his car to his wife January 1, getting a bill of sale, and get a full year's license for half the amount he otherwise would have to pay; also that by leaving his car in the garage until April 1, as is often done in the northern counties when the winter is severe, he could get a license for nine months for only one-fourth of the regular price.

Vigil says, however, he will not permit this, taking the stand that this is merely a "clerical error."

The apparent incongruity of this section is explained by the fact that there is a companion bill changing the license year to begin July 1 instead of January 1. Governor Seligman vetoed the companion bill, unaware of this provision in the other.

10,079 PUPILS IN STATE SCHOOLS 1932

New Mexico in 1930 had 10,079 children between the ages of 14 and 17 who attended no school whatsoever, Will G. Carr, director of research for the N. E. A. writes in the New Mexico School Review.

There were 34,874 children in this age class, only 24,794 were in school. The state ranked 34th in the list of states with an estimated school attendance of 48.80 per cent.

As to teaching quality, Carr places the state 28th in the county basing his classification on teachers salaries. The average wage in the state three years ago was $1,113.

In school environment, buildings and equipment, New Mexico was 40th with a value of $123 for each pupil enrolled.

In literacy, the state was given a standing of 41st.

MAY LOSE HEALTH DEPT.

Eddy county stands a chance of losing its health department, it was learned at Carlsbad last week. Abandonment of the county health nurse and reduction of the county health physician to a part time basis will be effected unless additional funds are secured. A letter received by Dr. Puckett notified him that the United States health service would discontinue the payment of $1,350 June 15th. The county health nurse receives $750 of this amount yearly and Dr. Puckett $600. The funds will have to be provided from some other source if the county health department is operated.

THIRTY-FIVE STATES IMPOSE NEW TAXES

NEW YORK—Forty-five state legislatures met this year, 35 of them imposed new taxes or substantially increased old ones. The additional taxes will exceed a quarter of a billion dollars in one year. Eleven of the legislatures, thru debating new taxes, either failed to impose any or had their actions nullified by the courts. Eight relied only upon beer and wine for new revenue. Seven states adopted income taxes for the first time; seven others raised existing taxes on income. A total of 20 states now have this form of taxation. Three states levied on gross incomes. Six adopted taxes on retail sales and twenty-one legalized beer and wine and imposed taxes on retail sales. Two states defeated sales tax proposals and the courts of two others voided sales tax laws. Two rejected income tax proposals. Some of the other objects of fresh taxation were: Stores, chain stores, foreign securities, oleo-margarine made from imported oils, intangibles, building and loan companies, banks, pari-mutuel, race betting, corporations, telephones, gross insurance, oil, gasoline, inheritance, gross receipts of power companies, cigars, pipe lines and "classified business."

NOTHING CERTAIN ABOUT ADDITIONAL FOREST CAMPS FOR LINCOLN

Nothing is yet known definitely by local forest officials when the next forest camp will be established, and whether it will be at the Raton ranch in the Capitan mountains or at Bear Springs southwest of Weed. Apparently the matter has been complicated by the fact that Texas is after some of the forest camps, regardless of the fact that there are no national forests in Texas, nor any federal lands.—Alamogordo News.

PREVENTION OF DISEASE

Sickness causes loss of time, great expense, much suffering, and frequently death. When the misery and distress produced by it are taken into account, the importance of its prevention cannot be over estimated. It may often be easily avoided by simple means. Scurvy which was once the scourge of the seas, now rarely occurs on vessels. This is due to the addition of fresh vegetables, fruits or lime juice to the seaman's rations. Necrosis of the jaw, or phoshy jaw, which was once the common distress of workmen in match factories, is now prevented by the use of red phosphorus instead of white phosphorus in this industry. Yellow fever has been stamped out of many places by killing the mosquitoes which convey the disease. Malaria similarly carried by mosquitoes is being stamped out of many districts by sanitary measures.

To protect ourselves against disease, it is necessary to know what agencies are harmful to the human body and what measures should be taken to protect the body from them. It has been ascertained, for instance, that in order to keep well the temperature and humidity of the air in buildings must be regulated, sewage must be disposed of in such a manner as not to contaminate the water supply or pollute the soil; the body must be protected from the bites of insects which spread disease; and precautions must be taken to prevent the transmission of disease from one person to another. It will thus be seen that freedom from disease depends upon conditions intimately associated with the body and its environment. It is a known fact that careful feeding of sanitary foods during the hot summer season will prevent "summer complaint." Now is the time for mothers to watch children's, in fact the families' food. It is known to that pellagra is caused by the lack of certain food properties which are supplied by milk, eggs, vegetables, fruits, fresh meat, and fish.

NEW MEXICO IN ON $4,000,000 GRANT

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The senate finance committee Saturday changed the $400,000,000 state road construction grant in the industrial recovery-public works bill to provide for its allocation on the basis of present law—one-third based on population, one-third on existing road mileage and one-third on area.

The change was suggested by senator Connally (D., Tex) and would give more consideration to the less-populated states than the house bill, which would have allotted the fund on the basis of one-half for population and one-quarter each for mileage and area.

Senator Hayden (D., Ariz.) also won approval of an amendment providing that up to $50,000,000 of the $3,300,000 public works fund could be used for construction of roads in national forests, parks, Indian reservations and public lands.

The administration's industrial control bill today appeared shot so full of holes by finance committee amending that a struggle on the senate floor will be necessary to get it back in shape. Hurrying to get it reported, late Friday night the committee struck out the licensing provision drawn to compel objecting industries to cooperate; voted in authority for the president to embargo imports, and rejected the administration's plan for regulation of the oil industry.

WOMEN'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE MOTOR CAR

There is some doubt that people care to hear very much about what goes on under the hoods of their cars.

The driver knows that "driving qualities" are not accidental; they are put there. How the manufacturer creates or evolves those results may not interest him. He judges entirely by the results he gets in driving.

Well, it is not essential to talk "shop"; let us talk Results. Smoothness. Drive the Ford V-8 and you will find that the engine runs with surpassing smoothness, due to its design and the extra precise methods of its manufacture.

Power. There it is, 75 horsepower (we could say 80) at the drive-shaft for the driver's use. With less weight to pull around, the mettle of this car—its life-like response—is rather remarkable.

Economy. Our V-8 develops more power on a gallon of gasoline than any car we have made. Mileage is partly a matter of individual driving, but under average conditions the Ford V-8 does 17 to 20 miles a gallon. Of course, car economy is not only a matter of fuel. Ford V-8 has that too, but it is also economical in the complete sense—initial cost, operation, maintenance.

Appearance. This is woman's contribution. The motor car must not only be useful, but also good-looking. View the Ford V-8 and you will not need our comment on its fine appearance.

Comfort. This also is woman's concern. In 30 years she changed the motor car from a wagon to a coach. Comfort is a quality made up of numerous ingredients. There is no comfort without a quiet, smooth-running engine. We have all the other ingredients too,—color, good taste, quality, ease, safety, roominess and convenience.

Henry Ford

FARM NEWS

On May 30 and 31 County Extension Agent W. A. Wunsch, spent much time on the project of raising sugar beet seed in Eddy county. G. R. Drummond of the Holly Sugar Beet Company of Colorado Springs, Colorado was in the county the first of the month and examined many fields with regard to the raising of this crop. He was very favorably impressed and due to his report a delegation of four men spent May 30th and 31st in the county in regard to the same project. These men were J. D. Tinsley, agricultural agent for Santa Fe railroad; H. A. Elcock, assistant pathologist, Bureau of Plant Industry; J. C. Overpeck, agronomist, of State College and federal agent of the bureau of plant industry and C. L. Englehorn, agronomist and soil specialist, State College. All of these men were favorably impressed and will make recommendations to the United States Department and to the Holly Sugar Beet Company. These reports will not be received in the county until the end of the month but after they are received the County Agent, W. A. Wunsch, will contact certain individual farmers who are interested in this project and a contract may be drawn up. If present plans develop this seed will be planted thick in September and will not be thinned out, thus the roots cannot develop and the seed will be forced, and harvested early in June. In Colorado it is necessary to plant the seeded and then dig up the roots before winter becomes too cold, in the spring these roots have to be put out by hand and it takes two years to make a crop. Our one year crop has a decided advantage over this two year crop says, W. A. Wunsch, as it saves a great deal of expense. Also, this crop will be harvested early in June, and the growers will be able to follow this crop with cantaloupes, thus, the land will not have to lie idle at any time. A test plot has been run on the G. R. Howard farm at Loving and Mr. Overpeck and Mr. Elcock were particularly interested in the uniform seed and the high rate of production, as high as four germs were found, which seems to indicate that the seed has a high germination rate. 70 per cent is considered to good germination rate for sugar beet seed. It seems that this project should have a future as at the present time most of the sugar beet seed industries import their seed from Germany.

Mrs. Leslie Martin of Artesia, gave a bread baking demonstration for the Otis Woman's club at the home of Mrs. R. L. Cooper on June 2nd. Some 35 women were present at this meeting. Mrs. Martin prepared the sponge before the meeting, but gave the recipe which she used. The women watched her knead this and make it into loaves and rolls. Mrs. Martin gave reasons for her method of kneading and preparing the rolls as she did. All women agreed that Mrs. Martin made a fine quality of bread. Members of the club brought bread which they had made to be judged and prizes were awarded as follows: Dorothy Bindel, 11 year old daughter of W. J. Bindel, first; Mrs. Clifford Ewers, second and Mrs. Will Walters, third. An all day meeting was held at this time, Miss Veda Strong, acting home agent and W. A. Wunsch, county extension agent were present.

G. R. Quisenberry was in the county May 31 checking certified seed fields. He also certified some Grimm alfalfa on the Chas. Rogers farm and oats on the E. P. Malone farm.

C. W. Botkins spent some three days in the county. Mr. Botkins is head of the chemistry department, State College. Samples of soil were taken from the L. Nichols and N. M. Tidwell fields. The problem which is being studied is the effect of irrigation on the physical condition of the soil. Soil was taken from a field that had been irrigated for 20 years and from a field that had never been irrigated. Complete chemical analysis will be run on both samples and the results will be contrasted. Information in regard to this test will be received from Mr. Botkins later.

Mr. Harper, United States soil surveyor, who at the present time is making soil studies in Roswell and who was to survey the soil in Eddy county to Carlsbad, notified County Agent W. A. Wunsch that due to possible shortage of funds this work will have to be delayed until fall.

Nothing definite has been received by the agent in regard to the new set up on farm credit or cotton reduction. This information should be available within a couple weeks.

Joe Clayton of Tularosa arrived Monday to take the place of R. L. Kyle, who has been doing the field inspection work for the crop production loan association for the last two years. Mr. Kyle was transferred to Mr. Clayton's district. Mr. Clayton and W. A. Wunsch, county extension agent, inspected some fifteen farms in the Carlsbad area Monday. All of the checks have been received and the inspector found all farmers busy trying to make a crop. The inspector recommends that all farmers having loans should sell enough cotton to repay the loans, and a number of farmers report that they have already done this.

A meeting of the 4-H poultry club was held at the home of Cooper Malone on June 1st. Six members were present and poultry problems of interest to these boys were discussed.

The T. N. T. 4-H club met on June 1. The meeting was called to order by Minnie Opal Parker, president. A regular business session was held. Miss Veda Strong, acting home agent and W. A. Wunsch, county extension agent were present. Miss Strong examined the work and discussed topics which were of interest to them. This meeting was followed by a lovely program prepared by the program committee.

POTASH POSSIBILITIES

The development of the potash deposits in New Mexico is but one of an important series of events during the past 324 years or since the initiation of an effort to supply America's needs with a domestic supply of potash from wood ashes.

During each great war there has been difficulty in supplying the potash demands. At other times potash has been an important export commodity. Its production was our first chemical industry and for centuries may be considered one of our most important chemical industries. The potash industry has suffered many reverses and has been a means of raising capital of which much was ultimately lost.

Prior to 1860 the world depended largely upon virgin forest as its source of potash; about that time soluble mineral potash was discovered in Europe and its value as a fertilizer established. The wood ashes for American production came largely from the section around the Great Lakes where the trees contained several times as much potash per ton as was found in the southern forest.

In 1910 the geological survey began an intensive search for potash in brine, silicate rocks, and deposits of soluble potash minerals. This search led to sources that supplied an important part of our potash needs during the World War and led to the discoveries that now show a reserve in New Mexico of more than 100,000,000 tons of soluble potash salts of a grade equal to or higher than that of any other country. The reserve of salts containing 26 to 28 per cent K<sub>2</sub>O, or twice the content of the average German salts, is ample for many years.

The proven area of commercial salts in New Mexico covers 33 square miles, or one-half as large an area as the proven potash area of France. The area in which sylvite, carnallite, or langbenite has been found covers about 3,000 square miles, and the area in which some potash mineral is found covers about 40,000 square miles.

The three principal agencies involved in establishing the reserves are the United States government, which has drilled 23 core tests in the Permian basin under an appropriation of $500,000; the United States Potash Co., New York, which has drilled 27 core tests, and the Potash Company of America, Denver, Colorado, which has drilled fifteen core tests and several churn drill holes.

These reserves are contained in an area included in nine government potash leases, a number of state leases, a small area of fee land, and an additional area included under permits or lease applications. The first shipment of potash salts from New Mexico was made about two years ago and by this time next year the production capacity, with that of

Carveth Wells, explorer and Continental Oil Co., radio entertainer who says he saw fish climb trees in Malay and shivered in a snowstorm on the African equator, is scheduled to tell some tall but true stories about Montana and Glacier National Park, Wednesday night, June 14th, over 20 N. B. C. stations. Montana, according to Wells, would still be a great mountain playground if Glacier Park had never existed. But that doesn't mean that Glacier isn't a real phenomenon, he says. The Glacier Park lakes, for example, are the most beautiful in the world, and the streams that feed them appear milky. The Conoco program may be heard by local listeners Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

NEW GRAZING FEE ANNOUNCED LATELY

In accordance with the plan recently announced by the secretary of agriculture, the United States forest service has completed a study to determine the practicability of relating grazing fees on the national forests to the market prices of livestock. After a thorough consideration of the question, the forester's recommendations have been approved by the secretary of agriculture. In announcing his decision the secretary stated: "The price received by the producers during any one year appeals to me as being a fair index to use in the adjustment of grazing fees on national forest ranges. Accordingly, upon recommendation of the forest service, I have approved the following method of adjusting the grazing fees beginning in 1933."

That the average national forest grazing fees of 14.5 cents per head per month for cattle and 4.5 cents per head per month for sheep in effect during 1931 be used as the basis for making adjustments in the fees each year in accord with fluctuations in the livestock prices. That the grazing fees to be paid each year on national forests be adjusted so that the fees for any given year will bear the same ratio to the 1931 rate as the ratio which the average prices received by producers in the eleven western states for the year preceding the year for which the fees are to be adjusted bear to corresponding average prices during the period from 1920 to 1932 inclusive in the case of sheep, and during the period from 1921 to 1930 inclusive in the case of cattle.

That the cattle fees to be paid each year be adjusted on the basis of prices received for beef cattle as compiled by the bureau of agricultural economics and that the sheep fees be adjusted on the basis of prices received for lambs as likewise compiled by the bureau of agricultural economics. That in adjusting the grazing fees for 1933 in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, 4.13 cents be considered the average price per pound of beef cattle for 1932, and 4.18 cents the corresponding price for lambs; that the average fee for 1933 as thus determined will be 9.05 cents per head per month for cattle, or 37.6 per cent less than the average cattle fee determined by appraisal. For sheep the average fee in 1933 will be 2.05 cents per head per month, or 54 per cent less than the average sheep fee determined by appraisal.

That the forester be authorized to refund any amount collected for the year 1933 in excess of the adjusted fee, or to apply any such excess to the payment of any fees due or to be due, and to collect such additional payments as may be required to secure full payment of the fees as adjusted for the year 1933.

That no adjustments in fees be made when the application of the above formula would affect the fees by less than one-half cent for cattle and one-quarter cent for sheep per head per month, and that in the establishment of all fees they be rounded off to the nearest cent for cattle and the nearest quarter cent for sheep per head per month.

That the forester be authorized to make such adjustments from time to time as may be necessary to establish equitable fees between allotments, forest, regions or states.

SPECIAL SESSION OF CONGRESS POSSIBLE

With referenda thundering from all sides, stopping for the time being at least the operation of some of the chief money-producing acts, Governor Seligman Friday admitted the possibility of a special session of the legislature.

"If I thought it would save money to justify the cost I would call it," he said.

However, the governor pointed out a decision is not required of him just yet. Court action is to be taken with the aim in view of blocking some of the referenda and if the court's decision is favorable to the administration forces planning the legal attack, some if not all of the laws believed to be necessary to the state and schools will be operative. The governor said he would await the outcome of the contemplated suits at least before determining upon his course.

If the chain stores and crude petroleum severance taxes are permitted to remain suspended until the next regular election, nearly a year and a half, there will be the problem of having to raise money to keep the state running and the schools open.

The problem will be even graver than it is now if the people of the state ratify SJR 21 at the special election of September 19th. It would limit property taxes for most purposes to 20 mills.

It is contended in some quarters that the Lane liquor law will help if the state goes "wet." No revenue can be expected from this, however, much before the closing weeks of 1933. And then nobody can say how much it is likely to produce. Some persons high in the councils of the state administration are skeptical of it; they say the license fees are too high.

There is a belief in some parts of the capitol that the governor will not act on the special session question until after the September 19th election. One reason is that the liquor issue will be decided at that time; another that the fate of SJR 21, the proposed constitutional amendment, also will be voted upon.

If the people of the state ratify the 20 mill limitation, it is pointed out it will be necessary to determine how the 20 mills is to be divided—how much of it the state is to have, how much the schools, how much the county, etc. It is believed it will be necessary to pass a law to do this. The average tax rate now is considerably in excess of this limit.

RIISING PRICES HAMPERED BY RELIEF PLANS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Secretary of Agriculture Wallace told representatives of cotton interests in informal open conference that the rising prices of commodities presented difficulties to formulating a concrete relief program.

Wallace assured the cotton men the government had no definite plan to force on anyone but would make its action on recommendations of parties actively engaged in the industry.

Chester Gray, of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said any relief program should employ the rental plan of retiring cotton land from production as well as the so-called Smith option plan which would grant to farmers an option on government cotton to replace stocks sacrificed to control measures. Gray recommended cotton acreage be reduced as much as 30 per cent.

Fred Brenckman, representing the National Grange, said control was imperative but that public opinion opposed crop destruction. He said the price of cotton had a direct influence on national welfare.

If it were not for the fear of political news that would again boost prices we would strongly advise sales of next season's crop. There is nothing bullish on the cotton horizon at the moment, however the country is so completely under the influence of Washington that no one knows when new political influences will make their appearance. One of these days liquidation will set in and a decline take place but at what level we hesitate to predict.

Present indications are for a considerable increase in acreage. Unless the government succeeds in its efforts to reduce this by some sort of leasing program we could easily produce several millions of bales of cotton more than last season. The crop is doing well over most of the belt.

On the other hand encouraging reports are being received from the dry goods markets and bulls are looking with confidence to the president's foreign conference for further upward swings in the market. The loan of $50,000,000 to China for use in buying cotton and wheat is slightly bullish but seemingly had but slight effect marketwise. Since none of these bullish items have moved the market up we are still suggesting sales for the present.

"Cold" Light Secrets of Firefly Worth Knowing

When electric light has been switched on for a few minutes the bulbs become too hot to handle. In other words, light has never been produced by any man without the attendant heat. Yet light without heat is possible, as proved by the firefly, the glow worm, and other luminous insects and bacteria. They are far more efficient makers of light than mankind, because they know how to utilize chemical reactions to produce cold light—that is, illumination without heat, which saves 90 per cent in the consumption of energy.

At present the best we can do in light production is represented by the very best electric lamp, but of the rays sent out, all of which require a supply of energy for their production, only 10 per cent are of any use to the human eye as light; the rest are heat radiation, the infra-red rays which we can feel but not see, and therefore pure waste so far as illumination goes.

Who is going to discover the firefly's secret of "cold" light, since all the light produced by the firefly lies in the range visible to the human eye? A fortune awaits the discoverer of a means of separating light from heat, for the same supply of energy will produce a light ten times more powerful, and only a tenth of the energy expended at present will be required to attain our present standards of light production.—Tit-Bits.

Should Men Wear Shawls, as in Days of Lincoln?

Should men wear shawls? The suggestion comes from Carolyn Wells, in the New York Sun. If women are to wear Victorian costumes or costumes of the gay nineties, is it fair to say that men should not wear shawls? Lincoln wore a shawl, but nature designed him so that he would not look ridiculous in one. His opponent in the Lincoln-Douglas debates would have made a less impressive figure in a shawl. Like all questions having to do with wearables, Miss Wells' provocative question admits of no positive answer. Should women wear hats that were in style 50 years ago? The one question is as answerable as the other. If enough men want to wear shawls or are persuaded that there is no escape from wearing shawls, then men will wear shawls, in the Twentieth century just as they did in the Nineteenth. There will be grumblers and dissenters and rebels, just as there are those who flout current customs, but the matter will not be determined altogether by propriety or usefulness of the article itself.

STATE OFFICERS IN QUANDARY OVER THE REFERENDA PETITION

SANTA FE — Collapse of the state's tax collecting machinery, lack of budgets and general chaos is feared by Chief Tax Commissioner Byron O. Beall who Monday asked Attorney General E. K. Neumann what relief or recourse there was to referenda against revenue raising measures of the 11th legislature.

Neumann will tell Beall in an opinion in the next few days that the laws are enforceable, that the referenda petitions were illegally accepted and have no place in obstructing the laws. There can be no referenda against some of the laws, Neumann will say, and he will instruct proper enforcing agencies to proceed.

Beall's letter to Neumann calls attention to article 4, section 1 of the state constitution which says no measure carrying an emergency clause or applying to schools, can be attacked by referenda, as being in conflict with the action of Mrs. Marguerite P. Baca, secretary of state. Mrs. Baca accepted the referenda petitions and issued certificates suspending operation of the lubricating oil tax, severance tax, chain store tax, state purchasing bureau act, highway debentures and delinquent tax collection law.

The situation "leaves us in a quandary" Beall wrote, in the matter of tax collections, preparation of budgets and where the matter stands at the moment. An estimated return of $600,000 was anticipated for budgets in the 21st fiscal year, he wrote, but what can be done about the 22nd fiscal year and how can it be figured, he asked?

"Do we collect under SB144, the new law, or under the 1929 collection law," he asked. If under the 1929 law, how about delinquent tax collectors as provided by that statute but abolished by the 1933 legislature? he further asks.

Already, Beall said, with the rumpus over SB144, he has had one application from a man who wants to be a delinquent tax collector.

An anticipated million to million and a half dollars revenue in the state is concerned in the delinquent tax, chain store tax and severance tax, Beall wrote Neumann, and he asks for some idea of what to do and how to proceed. The biggest question is what becomes of SB144, the tax collection law. The questions are: does it go on despite the certificate of suspension? How can treasurers be made to enforce the law if it is suspended? is it suspended?

Action might be taken against treasurer's bonds if they failed to comply with the 1933 tax collection law, it was said, but on the other hand, the matter is very simply at rest since the constitution provides the secretary of state shall suspend the law if it is properly petitioned, as this one apparently has been, and consequently no notice is required when a law is stopped.

The conflict between the attorney general's opinion and the act of the secretary of state remains one for court determination in the event all hands are not satisfied. Presumably none will be and the next step is to throw the matter into court. The state can seek a mandamus to force enforcement of the laws, while the petitioners can seek an injunction to restrain such enforcement. Then the cases may be carried into the state supreme court. All of this would require time. It would therefore be several months before any action could be certain either way, what with appeals and other litigation. Neumann has contended all along that the people are supreme and has said he is in hearty accord with that view. On the other hand, he points out, the people reserved only certain rights to themselves and delegated others to legislative and judicial bodies. The people thus have no power over those rights they have delegated to

MAN! WHAT TIRE VALUES GOODYEAR OFFERS!

WHEN you buy a Goodyear you get KNOWN VALUE. Today this value is the biggest ever.

This new Pathfinder has FULL CENTER TRACTION, for complete non-skid safety. And 20 per cent thicker tread, for bigger mileage. And a still stouter long-life body of Supertwist Cord.

Yet look at the prices for this improved "quality tire within the reach of all."

And think of buying an All-Weather Goodyear, the world's acknowledged top-quality tire, for no more money than an off-brand, "nobody's tire" might cost!
