It was learned here yesterday afternoon that district court would be adjourned until Monday. Judge McGhee will pass sentence on the defendants convicted this morning. Up to the trial of Fred Coats, Seven River resident, on a charge of murder, nine criminal cases had been tried in the March term of the Eddy district court. One case scheduled for March 17th and styled the state versus Navidad Florez, charged with assault with intent to kill, was dismissed until a later date.

The case of the state versus Fred Freeman, charged with assault with intent to kill, is of local interest. Freeman is charged with having assaulted W. W. Freeman pleaded self defense, alleging that Nichols attacked him. Freeman was found guilty, the jury recommended clemency.

ELECTION RETURNS

Arrangements have been made to secure and tabulate the returns from the primary Saturday night as fast as they are available. A board showing the complete vote by precincts will be used Saturday evening. Results will be filed on the board to be placed in front of our office.

We ask the election officials in all north Eddy county precincts as far south as Lakewood to cooperate with us. Telephone No. 7 and give us the complete vote in your precinct, or if no telephone is available and the box is delivered here by messenger, please try to see that we get the returns promptly.

The office of the democratic chairman will be maintained at the Advocate office on Saturday evening. Any message to Mr. Truett should be phoned to No. 7. Thank you!

NOT NECESSARY TO REGISTER TO VOTE IN PRIMARY SATURDAY

A number of voters seem to be in doubt as to whether or not they must be registered to have a vote in the coming primary March 24th. For the information of those who are in doubt, the following explanation is made by Democratic County Chairman J. L. Truett:

"If you will be a legal voter on the day of the next ensuing general election, then you are eligible to vote in the democratic primary, and you are not required to be registered to vote in this primary. The qualifications of a legal voter for the general election as is fixed by the statutes of New Mexico, being a citizen of the United States, over the age of 21 years, a resident of the state of New Mexico for one year, of the county ninety days and the precinct in which you offer to vote thirty days next preceding the general election, which in this case will be November 6, 1934. If you will attain the age of 21 years prior to this date and meet with the above residential qualifications then you are eligible to vote in the coming primary.

It is not the purpose or the intention of the county democratic central committee to sponsor the ambitions of any particular candidate seeking nomination in this primary, but the democrats are urged to exercise their constitutional rights at all times and vote their own sentiments and not become apathetic in elections when the interest of governmental affairs for the people are at stake.

We trust that this will be the cleanest primary in the history of Eddy county and that the democrats will consider the best qualified candidate has been nominated by the results of the primary and let there be no ill feeling or dissatisfaction existing whatever in the ranks of the democratic party in this county."

TWO WILDCAT WELLS STAKED THREE SMALL WELLS COMPLETED

Locations Made in Curry and Roosevelt Counties; Noble Drilling Co. to Treat New Producer With Acid.

Two locations announced this week in Curry and Roosevelt counties may be of interest to the oil fraternity. These are the George Schoemaker et al, Hart No. 1, in the NE SE sec. 13-2-32, in Curry county, near Melrose. A total of 12,000 acres have been blocked for this test, according to reports, and the geology worked out by the magnetometer test by Taten and Caudill. The other test is located on what is known as the Kenna dome, near Kenna, this state, and is the Good No. 1, of the Conquistadores Oil Co., in the SE NE sec. 32-5-30. This is also to be drilled on a magnetometer test by T. J. S. Sur.

Three small producers were completed in Lea county the past week, one of which will be treated with acid. The Noble Drilling Co., State No. 1, sec. 24-18-37, was drilled to 4188 feet and production test made with well flowing open. This producer made seventy barrels in one hour and has been shut in to treat with acid. The Texas Company has drilled in a small well in its Lynch No. 2, sec. 27-20-34, although two different gauges failed to give satisfactory results. On the first gauge the well pumped seventy-five barrels in eleven hours. On the second test, the well pumped twelve barrels in twenty hours.

A small producer was completed in the Texas Company, Moberly No. 2, in sec. 8-25-37, drilled to 3400 feet. This test made 6 barrels of oil per hour with 7,000,000 feet of gas.

A report on other Lea county wells follows: Continental Oil Co., Ascarate No. A-24, sec. 24-25-36, coring below 3225 feet. Barnsdall Oil Corp., Forest No. 1, sec. 24-25-36, drilling below 3120 feet. Atlantic Production Co., State No. 1-B, sec. 8-21-36, drilling water well. Empire Gas and Fuel Co., Fowler No. 4, sec. 31-18-38, drilling below 2750 feet. Empire Gas and Fuel Co., Lindley No. 1, sec. 13-25-36, drilling below 3150 feet. Continental Oil Co., Myers No. 1-A, sec. 8-21-36, drilling below 925 feet. Tidewater Oil Co., Coleman No. 1, sec. 17-21-36, cellar dug.

The Eddy county report is incomplete this week. Leonard and Barnsdall, State No. 1, sec. 22-17-29, plugged back to 2312 feet has been completed as a gasser making 1,750,000 feet of gas. R. D. Compton, Inc., State No. 6, sec. 15-16-23, shut down at 952 feet. Spearow et al, McIntyre No. 1, sec. 35-23-25, shut down at 2812 feet. Spearow et al, McClelland No. 1, sec. 22-22-23, ran tubing to 3900 feet, pumping water.

MALONE CALF WINS PRIZE

A calf raised by Ernest Malone, Lake Arthur, won eighth place in the eastern New Mexico 4-H club livestock show Saturday at Roswell, W. A. Wunsch, county agent, reported.

Malone's calf weighed 720 pounds after the shrink and sold for $75.60. The calf entered by Ernest Ainsworth, Portales, first place winner, sold for 20 cents a pound, with others selling down to eight cents.

RICHARD WHEATLEY IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Richard Wheatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wheatley, who is attending Occidental College in Los Angeles, was in a serious automobile accident about two weeks ago, according to word received here. Twenty-three stitches had to be taken on his face and head, however, the doctors feel that there will be no permanent disfiguration.

NINE CARS ON LIVESTOCK TRAIN

ENGRAVING—THE ADVOCATE

250 WELL OWNERS GET A NOTICE TO COMPLY WITH LAW

Clifford Smith of Roswell, Artesia well inspector, was here yesterday on an official visit and informs us that notices have been mailed all well owners whose well does not meet the requirements of the state law. These notices were mailed to about 250 well owners and were the result of an inspection made of the Artesia basin which includes about 1,400 wells. Mr. Smith stated that the well owners who had been notified had shown a fine spirit of cooperation thus far. Another inspection will be made of the wells found to be leaky or wasting water on the first examination. The second examination will be made with a view of determining if the necessary repairs have been made.

A leaky well was repaired in this district yesterday. The well plugging crew now working south of Dexter is plugging the 22nd well.

APPLICATION BLANK SHOULD BE SIGNED FOR RENTED LAND

A supply of blanks have been received at the First National Bank to be used by cotton growers in applying for permission to use the acreage rented to the secretary of agriculture under the cotton production program. Our understanding is that any farmer or cotton grower who signed up the 1934 reduction program should sign the application blank regardless of what use the grower intends to place the land retired. When signed the application will be forwarded to Carlsbad to be approved by the county committee.

E. F. BOGARD TO BE BURIED PANGBURN, ARKANSAS TODAY

E. F. Bogard, aged 46, resident of the Artesia community for the past four years, died here Monday. The death of Mr. Bogard was due to Bright's disease. He had been seriously ill and his death, although a shock to members of the family, was not unexpected. Mr. Bogard is survived by a widow and two children, a son Lonnie, and a daughter, Miss Collene. The body was shipped back to the former home of Mr. Bogard at Pangburn, Arkansas, Tuesday. Mrs. L. E. Folkner accompanied the body and Mr. Folkner accompanied by Mrs. Bogard, Lonnie and Miss Collene, and daughter Mrs. Karl Foster, drove through. Burial will be made at Pangburn, Arkansas.

WILDCAT CAMPAIGN ON LARGE SCALE IS PREDICTED OVER AREA

An intensive campaign to enlarge their holdings of productive oil lands and begin "wild cat" drilling operations on a large scale has recently been undertaken by the major oil producing companies.

This search for more oil where already there appears to be plenty, is explained by persons closely connected with the industry as a necessity arising out of the fact that no new oil pools have been discovered in the last few years and to the expected increase in consumption of all types of oil as a result of the improvement in general business conditions.

The scale of which some of the larger companies have been buying up producing properties is indicated by the number of deals recently put through or pending, of which the sale of Slick-Urschel properties in the Oklahoma City field to the Carter Oil Co., a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, is an outstanding example.

Magnolia Petroleum Corporation, subsidiary of the Socony-Vacuum Corporation, is reported to be dickering for large properties in East Texas, and the recently released report of the Humble Oil and Refining Co. shows expenditures of $10,000,000 on new oil lands in 1933. In addition to expenditures for known oil lands involving many millions of dollars, the petroleum companies are expected to turn loose several millions more in their search for new oil pools by drilling "wild cat" wells in areas which show signs of oil deposits.

N. M. Baird drove over to Wink, Texas, Sunday to attend to business matters.

THE NEW MEXICO OIL ALLOWABLE BOOSTED 1,500 BBLs. APRIL 1

New Order Effective on April 1st Will Give the State 45,800 Barrels—Calls Allocation Meet April 4th.

The New Mexico crude oil allowable has been boosted 1,500 barrels, effective April 1st, according to an order issued by Harold L. Ickes, administrator for the national petroleum industry, and received here yesterday by C. J. Dexter, New Mexico production chairman. The New Mexico allowable, beginning April 1st, is 45,800 barrels, an increase of 1,500 barrels over the allowable in effect March 1st, which was 44,300 barrels. The national allowable at the same time was increased to 2,366,200 barrels daily.

Mr. Dexter, in commenting on the order received here yesterday, said that plans had been made to call another allocation meeting here April 4th.

The telegram from Secretary Ickes follows: 1934 Mar. 21 AM 8:18 KJ 17 53 Govt NI Washington D C Mar 20

C. J. Dexter, chairman, New Mexico Production Comm., Artesia, N. Mex. Effective April one I hereby certify the net national consumer demand for petroleum products during the months of April and May to total two million three hundred sixty six thousand two hundred barrels daily and that the net reasonable market demand for New Mexico during this period is forty five thousand eight hundred.

Harold L. Ickes, Administrator for the Petroleum Industry.

TO BROADEN LOANS TO LIVESTOCK MEN

WASHINGTON—The administrative board of the farm credit administration yesterday was considering broadening its policy to permit loans to western livestock men on the enhanced value of their properties.

The principle involved is one of recognizing the rights of livestock men in grazing of public lands as a contribution to the earning power of their establishments.

Representatives of Nevada have been particularly active in attempting to obtain from the farm credit administration an expansion of its policy to permit the negotiations of "adequate loans for the rehabilitation of the livestock industry" in their state.

JOHN F. SMITH DIES

John F. Smith, aged 78, who made his home with his son Forest Smith of the Cottonwood community, passed away Friday evening after a three months illness. Funeral services were held here Saturday afternoon at the Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Erwin G. Benson, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Smith lived in the Cottonwood community for four years. Previously he made his home in Kansas, Oklahoma and in Illinois, where he was born. Forest Smith was the only surviving child.

ATTRACTIVE SHOW WINDOW AT OASIS CAFE

Members of the publicity committee of the Women's club arranged a most attractive window advertising the Art Tea Wednesday afternoon, in one of the show windows of the Oasis Cafe.

Many have admired this display and the club is very grateful to Mr. Mount for the favor extended to them for the use of the window on this occasion.

LOAN APPLICATIONS SLOW

Applications for loans through the Roswell Credit Production Corporation have been slow thus far. Mrs. Clint Cole, local clerk, reports. About five have been made through the Artesia office and seven through the Carlsbad office. The loan committee will meet next Tuesday. It has also been announced that the interest rate on these loans has been cut from six to five and one-half per cent.

Mrs. Stewart Compton, her mother Mrs. Ben Wilson, and Miss Margaret Frisch were Roswell visitors Tuesday.

HEAVY VOTE EXPECTED

Unless all signs fail, the heaviest vote in the history of the Eddy county democratic organization will be cast over the county Saturday. J. L. Truett, democratic chairman, yesterday estimated the total probable vote of the county between 5,500 and 6,000. If the primary runs true to form, it will attract more interest than the general election.

Voting possibilities of the county's two largest boxes, Carlsbad and Artesia, can only be estimated. Artesia's city registration is yet incomplete, but from the showing made at Carlsbad in the city registration, the total vote should run between 2,500 and 2,800. A total of 8,700 ballots have been printed and are now in the hands of the precinct committeemen.

Any voter eligible to vote in the general election can vote in the primary.

PRESENT FREIGHT RATE IS IN EFFECT ON THE ROAD OIL

Representatives of the Artesia, Roswell and Carlsbad chambers of commerce and the representatives of the two local refineries and the Getty Oil Co. met here Thursday afternoon to discuss freight rates on road oil with H. H. Nye, assistant freight agent of the Santa Fe, and W. H. McEachern, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe, both of Amarillo. Mr. Nye, who conducted the discussion on the present rates on road oil, showed how the rates were arrived at and explained the meaning of the term "differential," around which the rates were built.

Part of the discussion centered around the road oil rate from competitive points in Texas, Oklahoma and California. The rate from Colorado City, Texas, to Albuquerque is the same as from the Getty spur to Albuquerque or 39 cents. The present rate from Dayton to Albuquerque is 37 1/2 cents. From Wynnewood and Ardmore, Oklahoma, the rate to Albuquerque (used because it is a central point in the state) is 47 1/2 cents. From these points in Oklahoma to Clovis the rate is 32 1/2 cents against 24 cents from the Getty spur to Clovis and 22 1/2 cents from Dayton. The rates from California points to Albuquerque are 44 and 49 cents.

Aside from exchanging viewpoints, nothing definite was accomplished at the rate meeting. Mr. Nye said he could not authorize a rate reduction. C. J. Dexter of Artesia presided over the meeting. Present from other points in the valley included Claud Simpson, secretary of the Roswell Chamber of Commerce; Victor Minter, secretary of the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce; Don I. Gahagan, of the Getty Oil Co., and Artesia were: C. O. Brown, W. B. McCrory, M. E. Baish, Ralph Shugart, Chas. Morgan, J. H. Jackson, Col. A. T. Woods and E. B. Jones.

CITY DUMP GROUNDS IS BEING MOVED

Work has been started on moving the city dump grounds west of the Morning side addition, to a location two and a half miles northwest of Artesia. Four trucks started the moving operations Tuesday which will probably be extended over a period of several weeks. The project will be under the supervision of the local welfare board and the number employed will vary from time to time. Residents of the Mexican hill are cooperating in the movement.

NO CHANGE IN PERMIT RULES REPORT

Harry Leonard of Roswell, secretary of the New Mexico Oil and Gas Association, informs us that it has been learned from unofficial sources that rules and regulations governing the development of oil and gas on federal permits would remain unchanged. Members of the association have previously been disturbed over the proposed change in the regulations promulgated by the department of the interior, which would eliminate the five per cent royalty to individuals as a condition for extending the permits.

C. W. Beeman of Loving spent a short time here yesterday attending to business matters.

Hockenhull Calls Twelfth Legislature For Monday, April 9

Asks Special Session of Legislature to Convene to Consider Fifteen Measures Including the Primary Law.

SANTA FE—Saying he could not see how schools could be kept open, Governor A. W. Hockenhull Tuesday announced the call of the 12th session of the New Mexico legislature, a special session, to convene in Santa Fe April 9.

In his call, which embraces fifteen subjects, the governor includes the primary, new revenue measures and a special commission to study the governmental organization and recommend to the next legislature a coordination of departments, codification of revenue measures and modern methods of assessment of all properties.

"No doubt," the governor wrote, "I have left out some matters that to you seem vital, and if so I now ask you, or any interested citizen, to call same to my attention. My request is that we eliminate all political and controversial matters, so far as possible, from our program. Our economic condition compels us to effect every saving and hold a brief session, devoted with a high purpose to emergency relief. Our slogan should be, hard work, sacrifice and full cooperation. May we unitedly arise to the occasion and not disappoint our fair state at this critical time."

- Readjust our tax burdens, reaching the untaxed, and providing new sources of revenue.

TWO POTASH TESTS COMPLETED 1 CORING

Included in this week's potash developments in Eddy county, the Texas Potash Co. is moving a coring machine on its No. 2 well, the Modisett permit, SW sec. 34-17-30, after drilling to the salt with a standard drill. Considerable delay has been experienced in this second test, due to machinery troubles.

Additional potash tests have been completed by two other companies. The Potash Company of America has completed its Harris No. 16 in the SE SE sec. 32-19-30, around 1,100 feet according to reports. The New Mexico Potash and Chemical Co. has also completed its Lammonson No. 1 in the NE NW sec. 5-22-30, around 980 feet.

ROACH REGISTER U. S. LAND OFFICE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Roosevelt Tuesday named Paul A. Roach as register of the land office at Las Cruces, New Mexico.

An Early Day Street Scene In Carlsbad

Mrs. Lusk Promises Efficient Administration If Elected Clerk

In this issue an earnest plea is made by Mrs. Thelma Lusk of Carlsbad for your support on March 24th, as a candidate for county clerk. Mrs. Lusk believes that a public official should be selected on the same basis as in any private enterprise. On March 24th you are asked to select someone to operate the county clerk's office which is a very important one. If you selected an individual to operate some particular job for you, it would be natural that you would look first to their qualifications and experience.

In a statement today Mrs. Lusk said: "Since it will be impossible for me to see each of you personally, I would like to have you consider the following factors in making your selection for the clerk's office: I have spent thirty years in Eddy county, which has enabled me to get a better grasp on the local needs. I have had seven years experience in the county clerk's office, four years of which were spent as county clerk. I am a taxpayer and all the adult members of my family pay taxes in Eddy county. I promise, in the event that I am elected, that no partiality will be shown in the service rendered to the public. Since it is customary to give references in applying for a position, I refer you to anyone who has conducted business with the clerk's office during my former administration."

Mrs. Roy Phillips drove to Fort Worth with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Martin and was a visitor at the Fat Stock Show. She also visited Mr. Phillips, who has been in the city for several weeks. Mrs. Phillips returned in her own car last Saturday.

Pekingese Dogs

Show dogs of the Pekingese breed have one paramount feature, the characteristic "rolling gait." Another is the "bashed-in" face with the nose extremely small. A broad, flat skull, ears placed on a line with the top of the same and well fringed, are other features.

Height of Pinon Tree

The pinon tree attains a height of 10 to 35 feet, or more, and a diameter of 12 to 30 inches. It is a desert-foothill tree occurring on mesas and mountain slopes and sides of canyons at elevations between 5,000 and 9,000 feet.

Shell Fish Family

The term shell fish includes crustaceans and mollusks. Crustaceans are crabs, lobsters, crayfish, prawns and shrimps, while mollusks include oysters, mussels, scallops, clams, cockles, whelks, etc.

Traffic Accidents Costly

Traffic accidents cost this country 30,000 lives a year. Accidents and congestion combined account for $3,000,000,000, an annual per capita tax of $24 for each man, woman and child.

1933 WOOL CROP NEARLY EQUALS THE PEAK YEAR OF 1931

The production of wool in the United States in 1933 amounted to 428,930,000 pounds of which 364,730,000 pounds was shorn wool and 64,200,000 pounds pulled wool, according to the estimate of the division of crop and livestock estimates. In 1932 the total production was 412,540,000 pounds of which shorn wool was 345,440,000 pounds and pulled wool 67,100,000 pounds. Total production in the peak year of 1931 was 438,328,000 pounds consisting of 372,228,000 pounds shorn wool and 66,100,000 pounds of pulled wool.

The estimated numbers of sheep shorn in 1933 was 44,771,000 head or about one percent more than the number shorn in 1932. The weight of wool per sheep shorn in 1933 was 8.15 pounds compared with 7.77 pounds in 1932.

The increase in the final estimate of shorn wool for 1933 over the preliminary estimate prepared in July 1933 was caused largely by the marked increase in fall shearing in Texas and California over what was estimated in July and in the increased amount of wool shorn at commercial feeding plants. The estimated amount of wool shorn in the fall of 1933 in Texas is 14,850,000 pounds, compared with 5,050,000 pounds shorn in the fall of 1932. The estimated amount of wool shorn in California in the fall of 1933 is 3,387,000 pounds compared with

STATE OIL SERVICE EXPANDS IN SPITE OF THE DEPRESSION

One Eddy county business institution has expanded in spite of the so-called hard times. This record is so remarkable in many respects that it should command county-wide attention, since it contains many phases of human interest. Steve Lanning, proprietor of the State Oil Service Co., ascribes the unusual success of his concern to service. Starting three years ago with a small filling station, the State Oil Service Co. has grown to be one of the largest independent retail oil concerns in the Pecos valley.

Each year the State Oil Service Co. has branched out in some way by adding major improvements to their plant. Added equipment has enabled the State Oil Service Co. to give the latest type of service to both the motorists and to the farmers and to others using petroleum products. This company was the first to equip the plant with a water softener to wash and clean cars and a steam pressure plant to clean automobile motors.

Recently construction was started on a grease manufacturing and compound plant, which will be a model for this particular line of business and the first plant of its kind in this section. The present demand has already caused an enlargement of the original plant. This new unit will be in operation this month.

Insects Trick Flyers

Dragonflies, bees and other insects can fly backward without altering the position of their bodies, they can dart to the right or to the left in a horizontal plane or remain stationary in the air, even against a slight breeze.

City Has Odd Characteristics

Water and silence are two outstanding characteristics of Salt Lake City. Most of the street cars run on noiseless pneumatic tires, while the gutters of uptown streets are filled with streams of rushing water.

2,333,100 pounds shorn in the fall of 1932. The amount of wool shorn at commercial feeding stations during 1933, as reported by these stations, was 3,834,000 pounds compared with 1,270,000 pounds in 1932. As a result of the large proportion of Texas sheep shorn in the fall of 1933, and the small proportion in the fall of 1932, the amount of wool per sheep shorn in 1933 of 9.5 pounds was unusually large.

EXTENSIONS OIL AND GAS PERMITS END WITH 1934

WASHINGTON—No extension of oil and gas prospecting permits will be granted beyond December 31, 1934, Representative Carter (R-Wyo) was advised Tuesday by the solicitor's office of the Interior Department.

Under the previous policy extensions were granted for at least two years upon a satisfactory showing of geological equities and compliance with regulations set forth by the Interior Department.

The information received by Carter from the solicitor's office indicates no new regulations are planned at present except the limitation of extension.

H. R. RODGERS, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

RURAL SCHOOLS TO RUN NINE MONTHS --ON A CASH BASIS

On the heels of the announcement of neighboring counties applying for federal relief for maintaining public schools, and other counties faced with the problem of an early closing, the announcement from the office of County Superintendent H. R. Rodgers that the schools of Eddy county now have sufficient funds on hand for the operation of a full term of nine months comes as a welcome relief to taxpayers and school patrons alike.

The wholesome condition of the schools of Eddy county can be directly attributed to the fine spirit of the taxpayer and to the administrative acumen and watchdog policies of the school boards and superintendents of the rural and municipal school systems of the county.

Eddy county in the spring of 1931 was the first county of New Mexico to realize the seriousness of conditions confronting taxpayers and those to whom the public schools must look for support, and to begin a curtailment of school expenses. The fact that today schools of Eddy county are debt free, operating on a budget of 40% less than that of four years ago, is ample proof of the wisdom of the policies of the present school authorities.

Credit should also be given to the county superintendent of schools for the present day condition in the rural schools. Careful planning of school budgets and the reduction of expenses wherever possible has enabled the county to maintain its educational standards in the face of a decreasing revenue.

Cousin Joan

By JANE STEWART

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

THE train came to a stop in the big station as if glad to reach the end of the journey.

Joan felt terribly alone in the big railway terminal. What if her Cousin John Browning should fail to meet her? And how would he recognize her?

He was to wear a blue tie, and to have a handkerchief with a blue edge sticking out of his pocket.

Some one touched her on the shoulder, and at the same instant a voice inquired—"Are you my Cousin Joan?"

The newly arrived traveler turned quickly. The owner of the voice was younger and more prosperous in appearance than she had expected Cousin John to be, but he wore a blue tie, and out of his pocket peeped a handkerchief with a lavender edge. The thought flashed through her mind, "That's just like a man to get colors mixed."

The girl smiled. "Yes, I'm your Cousin Joan," she admitted, "and I was really beginning to be frightened for fear I was lost."

The young man took her by the arm.

"This way," he directed to the red cap, steering his newly acquired relative to the right. "My car is parked out on the cross street."

Her escort proceeded to point out the places which he thought would interest her.

"That is the public library," he explained, "and this thoroughfare is said to be the most famous in the world—Fifth avenue itself."

It was all a marvelous experience to the girl from the small town in the Mid-West. But when the car drew up a few moments later in front of an imposing home and the chauffeur turned with a query, "Shall I wait, Mr. Herbert, 'an' take you down to the office again?" Joan was alarmed.

"No," her companion said, "I'm going to stay at home for the afternoon."

Joan shuddered.

"I'm—I'm afraid there's been a mistake," she said. "I'm Joan Bedford and I've come from Iowa expecting to be met at the station by my cousin, John Browning. I'm afraid," she added with an attractive smile, "that you've got the wrong girl."

Herbert Randall looked thoroughly bewildered. Then his face broke out in a broad grin. "How extraordinary!" he said. "But don't worry—I wasn't trying to pick up a nice girl. You see I was expecting to meet my cousin, Joan Freeland, who was expected on that train from the South. I've never seen her and I doubt if she could be more charming than you, 'Cousin Joan.'"

"Isn't it funny," she laughed, "that two Joans should have been expected at the same time this morning and both intent on meeting respective cousins?"

Herbert Randall admitted it was and added, "It surely is. If it's all right with you, let's return to the Grand Central and see if we can't locate that lost cousin of mine. After the mystery is solved—as I hope it will be without the aid of the police or Traveler's Aid—I'd be glad to take you to your destination."

Back at the station there was no sign of the Joan from Texas. Herbert decided perhaps inquiring at the Traveler's Aid desk might help matters. It did, and they learned that Joan Freeland—described as a woman with several bundles and a Scotch terrier—had taken a taxi to an address which was Herbert's home.

The young man uttered a sigh of relief.

"That's Cousin Joan, all right," he declared. "I had forgotten she had promised Mother a new Scotty pup. You see, she raises them. Well, now that the mystery of her whereabouts is solved, it's high time you were taken to your cousin's safely."

"I've been enough trouble to you already," Joan Bedford declared. "I'll follow the other Joan's example and take a taxi. It's been terribly nice of you to take care of me and—"

But Herbert interrupted. "You're not going to escape from me so easily, young lady. Think of what might happen if I left you to find your own way about this huge city. I'd never forgive myself if you got lost or stranded. Now, what is Cousin John's address?"

Joan realized with pleasure that it was useless to insist on going off alone in a taxi. So she took her cousin's letter from her purse. "Here's the address, Sir Galahad," she smiled to Herbert.

"Thanks. It won't take long to get there. And once you've had a night's rest in the city, how about a drive with me tomorrow?"

In spite of her family's strong advice before leaving for her visit, she found her companion's suggestion extremely agreeable. "Why, certainly," she said. "And am I to continue as 'Cousin Joan'?"

"For a little while, anyway," said Herbert. "at least until we can find some other status that will be more mutually acceptable."

AUTOS IN SIX PRICE RANGES AVAILABLE AT GUY CHEVROLET CO.

Plans connected with the sales and distribution of motor cars have been changed radically with the past few years, with an added convenience to car purchasers living outside of the population centers. Motorists of the Artesia section today can buy any of the General Motors line, including the highest priced car without going out of town for either the purchase of the car or to have it serviced. The Guy Chevrolet Co. at the corner of Main and First streets, is fully equipped to sell and service any automobile made by General Motors.

Besides offering one of the best car values in any price range, the Guy Chevrolet Co. also distributes other nationally known auto accessory lines and petroleum products, Goodyear tires, Exide batteries, and Texaco products. Starting seven years ago as manager of the Lowery-Keyes Auto Co., Mr. Guy branched out in business for himself in 1932 under the name of the Guy Chevrolet Co. During this time he has had opportunity to select the offerings of a nationally known automobile manufacturer as well as dependable and well known petroleum product and auto accessories.

Years of experience in the sales and service end of motor car distribution, Mr. Guy as a distributor, can pass the benefits of such experience on to the prospective purchaser. This service through experience is no less important to the motorist than the knowledge gained in building motor cars year after year by the manufacturer.

The following figures are given for your information. They are taken from the files of the State Budget Auditor and may be verified by referring to copies of the budget in the office of the County Treasurer or the County Superintendent of Schools.

BEAUTIFUL CLUB TEA HONORING MRS. ATWOOD

More than one hundred attended the beautiful Women's Club Art Tea Wednesday afternoon at the new club home, honoring Mrs. Jefferson D. Atwood of Roswell, state president of the New Mexico Federated Women's Clubs.

Members of the Art committee with Mrs. J. B. Atkeson, chairman, and Mmes. R. D. Compton, F. G. Hartell, W. E. Flint, W. B. McCrory and G. R. Brainard, hung a beautiful collection of pictures. A number of Carl Redin's paintings were on exhibit, of the local artists the largest exhibit was that of Mrs. J. B. Atkeson, others were by Mrs. Owen Campbell, a portrait by Miss Emily Woods, a historical map of Indiana dating back to 1680 by Noble Brainard, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Brainard. A number of pictures, both paintings and prints, were loaned by individuals for exhibit, completing a most interesting collection.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Martin Yates, president of the local club, Mrs. Jefferson D. Atwood, honored guest, and Mrs. Arden Boellner, vice-president of the Women's club of Roswell. The beautiful tea table with a gorgeous lace cloth was centered with a lovely bowl of pink and white sweet peas with tall pink tapers burning from silver holders. They were seated on the stage which was flanked in front with a lovely collection of ferns in pots decorated in pink and white.

Mrs. Atwood spoke briefly to the club members and visiting guests, congratulating them on their new home, built during a period of depression. She called attention to the weekly art programs which come over the national broadcast each Saturday evening at six o'clock. Those who desire a better type of programs were urged to tune in their radios at that hour. She brought to them a few high points in both national and state club work.

Malco Refinery Distributes Products In Ten States

Substantial progress has been made toward developing the natural resources of Eddy county in the past ten years. Among the noteworthy developments which have occurred in this period has been the erection of a refinery at Artesia by the Malco Refineries, Inc., to care for crude oil produced principally in Eddy county. The refining industry has not only brought an added pay roll to the community, which in this case was seventeen employes, but it has supplied an outlet for many producing wells in the county. In addition this refinery has furnished a number of field workers employment.

The Malco Refineries, Inc., is an outgrowth of the Maljamar Oil and Gas Corporation, which started operation in 1924 in Eddy county. In the years 1925 and 1926 this company pioneered the Maljamar field in western Lea county. When marketing facilities ceased and a number of wells faced the possibility of a shut down, the idea of a refinery was conceived which resulted in the erection of a refinery plant at Artesia, that started its operations on August 19th, 1931. The plant has been in continuous operation since that time and recently new equipment has been added to care for expanding market as well as to manufacture a better product. The Malco is supplying an outlet for twenty-five wells located mostly in this county and owned by independent oil operators.

Like other industrial concerns, the Malco Refineries has not only provided a pay roll but the concern has contributed a substantial sum in state and county taxes and further furnishing a market outlet that it does, the New Mexico common schools and other state institutions have profited through royalty payments made to the state by the various well owners.

MRS. FRANK LINELL ENTERTAINS PEPPER CLUB

Mrs. Frank Linell very charmingly entertained members of the Pepper club which is a membership organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, at her home last Friday afternoon.

The Saint Patrick motif was used in the clever Irish invitations which bore both a red and green pig, in the house decorations and the menu. Festoons of red and green peppers also added a note of color to the house decorations.

Each member of the local Legion Auxiliary who secured a new member for the unit became a member of the Green Pepper club, those securing five new members became members of the Red Pepper club, those securing ten or more new members belong to the Salt of the Earth club. There were representatives of each of the three divisions present on this occasion. Through the efforts of the above club the membership of the local unit increased from forty-five members to sixty-two.

There was a round table discussion of business and Irish games and contests. The hostess served refreshments at quartet tables with red and green covers, centered with a tiny pig pen. The first course was bowls of steaming hot chili, angel food cake and ice tea was served as a second course.

The MALCO REFINERIES Plant at Artesia, New Mexico

In three years the reputation of the Malco Products has grown until now distribution from our plant is made to ten different states. We do not ask the people of Eddy county to purchase Malco products because we happen to be located in Eddy county, but we do feel the following facts may be of interest to every citizen of the county:

In 1933 the Malco Refineries ran 273,565 barrels of crude oil, principally from Eddy county. From this amount of crude oil we sold 4,420,504 gallons of gasoline, 1,141,828 gallons of kerosene, 5,050,990 gallons of fuel oil and 916,261 gallons of gas oil, making a total of 11,529,583 gallons of petroleum products manufactured by us in 1933.

Also in 1933 we paid the state and federal government a total of $258,560.43 in gasoline taxes alone. This is in addition to other state and county taxes we pay.

Malco Products can be purchased from the following jobbers in the Pecos Valley:

D. Lee Says He Needs Office Of The Co. Sheriff

Dwight Lee of Carlsbad, candidate for sheiff, subject to the action of the primary March 24th, today issued the following statement:

I know that there is a number of you whom I have not seen because of the short length of time I have had to make my campaign and I am taking this means of asking for your vote and influence in my race for Sheriff of Eddy county. If you do not know me I invite you to ask any one who does, any questions you wish about me. I need the job and am qualified to handle it.

Thank you,
DWIGHT LEE.

Birches of New England
There is an Indian legend that accounts for the origin of the white, yellow, gray and black birches of New England, says the American Forestry association. They are believed to have been created by the Great Spirit to symbolize the developments affecting his people in New England after the white people came to this country. The yellow and white birches were created first, according to the legend.

Members of Arum Family
The skunk-cabbage known to the Indians as "Indian turnip" may be found in northeastern United States south to North Carolina and west to Iowa and Minnesota. The pinkish-lavender flowers are set inside a green and purple hood and are a very attractive member of the Arum family. Jack-in-the-Pulpit is another religious member of the Arum family and resembles the old pulpits which had hoods over them.

Flowering Dogwood Trees
Contrary to popular belief, flowering dogwoods are not native only to the more temperate districts, but may be found growing in most of the acid soil districts except possibly the extreme northern states. Soil acidity, or sourness, is a necessity for proper growth. They will live in a neutral or limestone soil, but are unhappy and show it by poor growth and infrequent flowering.

Fresh Fish From Volga
Fish that have been frozen in dry ice may be shipped over long distances and then completely and quickly revived upon plunging them into water. Surgeon from the Volga may be shipped to the United States and consumed as fresh fish and the roe prepared and made into caviar in this country.

Kraft Paper for Building
A new thin, flexible insulating material consists of kraft paper faced on each side with waterproofing compound and bright metal foil. It is said to insulate to the same extent as 20 to 40 inches of concrete, to be fire-retardant, wind and vermin proof.

To the Voters of Eddy County:

The report has been circulated, for political purposes, that I shall become a candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

While it is true that I have been solicited by a large number of the representative school people of New Mexico to become a candidate for the state superintendency, I am not a candidate for such office.

If Mrs. Rodgers receives the nomination for the County Superintendency, and is elected, I shall devote my full time and energies in co-operating with her to continue the present policies of this office. In this capacity I shall serve as Assistant County Superintendent of Schools, without the cost of one penny to the Tax Payers of Eddy County.

Most sincerely,
H. R. RODGERS,
County Supt. of Schools.

This is my first venture into politics, my first request for any political office and I am absolutely unencumbered by political or other obligations and am free to direct the policies of the sheriff's office without favors to anyone should I be elected.

Your Vote and Influence Will Surely Be Appreciated

America here they are!

CHEVROLET factories are breaking records, trying to give America all the cars it wants. 4000 units a day are rolling off the assembly lines. In fact, more Chevrolets are now being produced than any other make of automobile in the world.

Naturally, Chevrolet is proud of the record its factories have made this year. Especially so, in view of the fact that the 1934 Chevrolet is not merely last year's model improved, but a basically new automobile throughout. Producing so many of these cars so early in the season, and producing them all up to Chevrolet high standards of quality, is nothing short of a real accomplishment!

Chevrolet takes this opportunity to thank the American public for the wonderful way it has received the 1934 Chevrolet car. And Chevrolet is happy to report, that with over 4,000 cars a day being built, dealers everywhere will soon be in a position to make immediate deliveries.

COUNTRY IS CLOSELY UNITED AS RESULT OF MODERN INVENTIONS

At the present time in the highly developed industrial age, people take modern conveniences as a matter of course. Not until we go back to the primitive, where labor-saving devices are not used and the old time kerosene lamp is placed in service, do we fully realize the progress which has been made in the past twenty years through the removal of so much drudgery. Today if we press a light switch we expect an instant light. The older residents, however, can recall the days when it was no uncommon occurrence to have to do without lights, while doing some repair work on the electric plant or perhaps the power was cut short in the middle of some job, until repairs could be made.

Today it's a different matter, we have come to expect good service. Industrial companies such as the Southwestern Public Service Co. make it their chief concern to see that twenty-four hour service is given at all points. If a line goes out, the entire force of employes at Carlsbad, Artesia and Roswell are concentrated if necessary until the trouble is found and repaired and repairs are made regardless of the hour of the day.

Good Service at Lower Rates In 1925 when the Southwestern Public Service Co. purchased the municipal properties in Eddy county, one of the first acts of the company was to reduce the electric rate to 18 cents per kilowatt. In May of 1929 another two cent reduction was made, making a total rate of 16 cents, and in July of 1930 another cut was made to fourteen cents and in December, the residential rate was reduced from 14 to 13 cents and the commercial rate from 14 to 12 cents and in February of this year another one cent reduction was effected, leaving a top rate of 12 cents. In all, the power and light rate has been reduced about thirty-three and a third per cent, which is a step ahead of price reduction in other commodities.

The first youngster signed for the Cincinnati Reds by Bob O'Farrell, the new manager, was Stanley Zalubowski of Kenosha, Wis. Stanley made his mark as a pitcher in a single season. He is eighteen years old, 6 feet 6 inches tall and weighs 200 pounds.

Development of the electric appliance industry has served to bring the different parts of the nation in closer touch as well as to remove much of the drudgery from the home. Today many rural sections can and do enjoy practically the same advantages as the urban residents. There is no question but that the electric industry has played its part in stabilizing the population and in checking the drift to the larger cities, which thinking men agree is the basis of much of our social unrest and financial troubles.

ENGRAVING—THE ADVOCATE

New Employment Plan To Replace The CWA Soon

The new federal employment plan, which will be organized after the CWA is suspended on March 31st, should be of interest to our readers. The facts connected with the new plan are submitted thru the New Mexico relief bulletin and are as follows:

With the suspension of civil works administrations, effective March 31, 1934, a work division will be organized by each state relief office.

The creation of the work division means that needy persons left without employment, with the reduction and eventual suspension of CWA, will be given work if they are residents of cities and towns of 5,000 population or more. The 1930 census gives eight communities in New Mexico with population over 5,000: Albuquerque, Clovis, Gallup, Las Cruces, Las Vegas, Raton, Roswell and Santa Fe. According to information received from Washington by Miss Margaret Reeves, State Relief Director, the rural program will follow later.

Until the suspension of civil works on March 31, reductions in number of employes will be made in accordance with the national orders of February 28, which were quoted in the last bulletin.

Projects All desirable local and state civil works projects in operation on the date of the suspension of civil works may be transferred to the work division of the New Mexico Relief Administration. All federal projects and emergency educational projects are exempted from this order, and separate instruction are to be given later concerning them.

The New Mexico Relief Administration will approve all projects for New Mexico, which must be of a public character, of economic

TWO FACTORS CITED FOR GROWTH OF THE PIOR RUBBER CO.

Fourteen years of selling and servicing one line of merchandise should enable one to know his merchandise fairly thoroughly, according to Ben F. Pior of the Pior Rubber Co. Starting fourteen years ago in Artesia, Mr. Pior built the first service station to be erected in Artesia. Mr. Pior began the study of the tire industry shortly after this and states that he has bought, sold and serviced more tires than any dealer in southeastern New Mexico. Mr. Pior also believes his knowledge of the tire industry is as extensive as any other individual in this section. In 1928 Mr. Pior established tire houses at Carlsbad, Hobbs and Roswell and opened both wholesale and retail sales and service at these places.

The present business of the Pior Tire and Rubber Co. was built by handling good tires and satisfying the customers. Every store of the Pior Rubber Co. except Hobbs is under management of men with ten to twelve years experience.

Speaking of the Seiberling tires, Mr. Pior says the Seiberling Company has made the biggest advance of any other tire concern in 1934. This company is using a new vapor cured process in the manufacture of tires, which is patented. 1934 tires now sold by Seiberling are new out and out.

Every store of the Pior Rubber Co. carries a complete stock of tires in two or three price ranges to fit the individual need of the purchaser.

The store of the Pior Rubber Co. at Carlsbad is the most up-to-date tire store in that city. It was established five years ago and is now in charge of M. D. Pior. Complete vulcanizing is maintained at every store.

J. L. Truett, chairman, and J. R. Attebery, secretary of the Eddy County Democratic Central Committee, have successfully guided the affairs of the democratic party the past two years in Eddy county. They have given their time unstintingly to promote unity and the welfare of the party organization. Incidentally, although Eddy county is only a fractional part of the democratic national vote, these men have seen their party heads swept into the national administration, something few democratic county officials witnessed in the history of the county.

A new DAY--A new NEED

In this fast moving mechanical age of ours, motor cars and tires have undergone radical changes in the past five years, in fact, 1934 will undoubtedly mark the most pronounced changes in motors, tires, designs and materials of any single year during this period—greatly increased power, higher speeds, quicker getaway, causing increased temperature in your tires on the road—places demands on tires undreamed of even as late as 1927.

Seiberling announces a new method—Vapor Curing—and is building a new tire to meet this demand, and they cost you not a penny more. Compare these prices. See the new Seiberling before you buy.

Here is a plain and truthful story of greater tire safety. Other tires are vulcanized at the factory with scorching dry heat—rubber and cotton devitalized. Only Seiberling tires are Vapor Cured—vulcanized by soaking in low temperature steam vapor—are welded by this exclusive method into a single unit of live rubber, live cotton with NO WEAK SPOTS. NATIVE EDDY COUNTY WOMAN ASKS TO BE NEXT COUNTY CLERK

In casting your ballot in the county and district clerk's race Mrs. Ethel Highsmith of Carlsbad asks your support. A daughter of New Mexico and a native of Eddy county, Mrs. Highsmith asks for the privilege of rendering a public service to the citizens of Eddy county in the office of county and district clerk. As to her qualifications, Mrs. Highsmith refers you to the fact that she served in the county clerk's office in 1925-1926 and in the past year she has been employed in the clerk's office and has made abstracts for the regional agricultural credit corporation.

From the time of her graduation in the Carlsbad high school in 1923, she served as stenographer in several Carlsbad attorneys' offices, except for the time she was employed in the county clerk's office. She has worked as a court reporter in the district clerk's office for three years, which has familiarized her with the duties of the district clerk. Mrs. Highsmith states that she is also familiar with the various legal documents and this knowledge will aid her in the prompt dispatch of the duties connected with the operation of the district court.

SPEAKER TO CHECK UP ON ACTIVITY OF DEMO CONGRESSMEN

WASHINGTON—With old-time regulars breaking away from the administration in droves on veterans legislation, Speaker Rainey has ordered a detailed check to show why democrats voted "wrong" on 21 different occasions.

Rainey and other leaders are unwilling to admit that they plan any action against the outstanding irregulars. They say that nothing tangible can be done.

"But we'll have the information showing how many men have voted against us and on what occasions," the speaker said.

Many things could be done with the tabulation. If, for example, Postmaster General Farley, democratic patronage dispenser, should telephone the speaker, it would be a simple matter for Rainey to refer to the list and see what the record showed.

Rainey classes 21 bills and resolutions as "administration." A glance at the list would show:

Hoeppel of California has opposed 12 of them, Terrell of Texas 11, Connery of Massachusetts, chairman of the labor committee, eight, and Crosser of Ohio, chairman of the democratic steering committee, seven.

The 21 roll calls extend back to the opening of this congress just after President Roosevelt took office. Among the propositions being tabulated are:

The first economy bill and a resolution on senate amendments; legalization of beer; the farm adjustment act; farm mortgage act; federal emergency relief administration; Muscle Shoals and a conference report on that; the home owners loan corporation; economy legislation on the independent offices appropriation bill of last session; the public works administration and the first gold bill.

"Matter" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 25th. The golden text is: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." (Exodus 20:7).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the bible: "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding." (Prov. 4:7).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "If materialistic knowledge is power, it is not wisdom. It is but a blind force. Man has 'sought out many inventions,' but he has not yet found it true that knowledge can save him from the dire effects of knowledge."

CLAYTON PIONEER RESIDENT WANTS TO BE NEXT TREASURER

Joe A. Clayton of Artesia, candidate for county treasurer, is asking a public honor at the hands of the voters. Mr. Clayton is a pioneer resident of Eddy county and the son of one of the founders of Artesia. He is a contractor by trade and has constructed buildings in practically every town and community in the Pecos valley. During his residence in the county he has acquired a reputation as a conservative business man with sound business judgment.

Mr. Clayton is at present serving a term as mayor of Artesia. He has been a taxpayer of Eddy county for over thirty years. During his residence here he has contributed both his time and efforts to worthy causes. He has made many friends over the county and is well known to all of the old timers.

Believing in the democratic principle of rotation in office, Mr. Clayton asks your support and influence for the office of treasurer in the coming primary.

As this is written May stands at 12.12, a very satisfactory price for those who have carried their cotton until now and none should complain that they had no chance to sell at the higher figures should the market recede some from here. For more than a month May has ranged between 12 cents and twelve fifty.

Sellers have been waiting for the passage of the Bankhead bill which has had the president's sanction for some time. It passed the senate and was amended by the house and passed this week without any apparent effect on the market. It therefore seems judicious to suppose as has already been suggested that this measure has been fairly well discounted.

But there are present in the market plenty of bullish factors for the long pull; eventually cotton should sell higher, but a sizeable decline could easily occur from

MONTGOMERY SAYS SHOULD OBSERVE LAW IN HOLDING OFFICE

W. O. Montgomery of Carlsbad, candidate for county tax assessor, today issued a public statement of interest to the voters of Eddy county. He believes that his knowledge of real estate and other taxable property will enable him to render a real service to the taxpayers in Eddy county. His statement with reference to serving the usual two terms in office follows:

"There is a law in this state that when a person serves two terms in office he is through with elective office for at least one term and I am of the opinion, as well as many others, that it is not the intent of the law for a person and his or her family to succeed each other.

The law may be a foolish one and if it is then it should be repealed, but so long as it is in effect, it should be lived up to, both in reality and in spirit and if I am the successful candidate for the Tax Assessor's office, no member of my immediate family will be a candidate to succeed me."

Slave Breeding Continues

Slaves are actually bred in certain parts of Arabia and Africa. Some of the mothers are sold from one owner to another and rarely see their children again. The total number of slaves in the world exceeds 5,000,000, more than the population of Scotland. These were among the startling statements made by the secretary of the Anti-Slavery society, at a public meeting in Glasgow, Scotland, to commemorate the abolition of slavery in British possessions 100 years ago.

Six Different Vitamins

The term "vitamin" is considerable of a mystery to the average individual. As a matter of fact six different vitamins have been identified, namely vitamins A, B1 (or F), B2 (or G), C, D and E. The apparent conflict in these designations has arisen as a result of simultaneous discoveries and Christenings in this and in foreign countries. Vitamin E is the one most recently isolated and its most prolific source is the wheat germ.

Indian Reservations

Almost every state contains non-reservation Indians who have adopted the customs of civilized life. The reservations are territories set apart as homes for the Indian charges of the nation, where they are protected and taught. Those on the reservations are not permitted to pass the boundaries of the reserve except on proper business or by consent of the agent in charge. As rapidly as possible the Indians are induced to abandon tribal relations and adopt the habits of the white race.

Indiana's Fourth Governor

Kentucky, like Virginian, provided some of Indiana's early governors, among them James Brown Ray, who twice was elected to the highest office in the state. Ray, fourth Indiana governor, was born in Jefferson county, Kentucky, February 19, 1794, and was only thirty-one years of age when inaugurated into the governor's office. He studied law at Cincinnati and then went to Brookville, where he took up legal practice.

WOOD CITES RECORD IN ASKING FOR THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Tom Wood, veteran peace officer of Carlsbad, asks the democratic voters of Eddy county to elect him sheriff at the democratic primary March 24th. In seeking your support, Mr. Wood cites six points which should aid you in arriving at a decision in casting your ballot in the sheriff's race. These are: Experience, honesty and sobriety, age, interest in community as a citizen, the confidence of the community in which a candidate lives and the service of the candidate to his party. Mr. Wood believes that he measures up to any six of the factors.

Mr. Wood, who is forty-five years of age, has lived in Eddy county for twenty-six years. For sixteen years he has held a commission as a deputy sheriff and for the past eleven years he has served Carlsbad as chief of police.

Mr. Wood rightfully believes that a peace officer is not born, but is made one through years of experience. And experience at this time will help a peace officer to render a distinct service to the citizenship of Eddy county and to society.

Mr. Wood has never before asked for a public office. He will appreciate your support at the primary.

Things to Consider in Voting For Nomination For Sheriff

The selection of a candidate for Sheriff of Eddy County, New Mexico is one of the most important matters for the consideration of the voters at the coming primary. Many things render Tom Wood's candidacy entitled to favorable consideration among which are the following:

1. Experience
2. Honesty and Sobriety
3. Age
4. Interest in community as a citizen
5. The confidence of the community he has served as an officer for the past 11 years.
6. Service to the party.

I.
The office of Sheriff may be filled by a man who has had experience in dealing with crime. A man is not born a peace officer. He is made one by years of experience. Tom Wood has spent the past 11 years as Chief of Police of the City of Carlsbad, New Mexico, and he has held a commission as Deputy Sheriff in Eddy County for 16 years and has learned how to be an efficient officer in that time. It will not be said that he is not an efficient officer.

II.
The office of Sheriff offers many opportunities for using unjust authority and acceptance of money for failure to enforce the law. Tom Wood has lived in Eddy County for 26 years and his honesty has been proven. He has never been known to exercise his past authority unjustly, nor to let friendship or other consideration prevent his enforcement of law.

HE DOES NOT USE INTOXICATING LIQUOR

III.
The office of Sheriff calls for the mature judgment and discretion of a man of at least middle age. The use of such discretion saves the lives of innocent people at times when the law must be enforced and saves the taxpayers money. Tom Wood is 45 years of age and 16 years of his life have been spent in law enforcement.

IV.
Tom Wood has an interest in his community as a citizen and taxpayer. He promises the people a fair business administration of the office of Sheriff of Eddy County.

V.
Tom Wood enjoys the confidence of those whom he has served as an officer. He has been Chief of Police in Carlsbad continuously for 11 years under 5 different mayors. This term of service is the best endorsement of confidence that Carlsbad citizens can give him.

VI.
Tom Wood has served the Democratic Party all the years he has been in Eddy County. He has served as County Chairman of the Democratic Party in Eddy County. He has never asked for and has never held an elective office.

BULLS AVERAGE OVER $100 EACH HEREFORD SALE AT ROSWELL

The third annual Hereford Breeders Association sale at Roswell Saturday was outstanding in many respects. One hundred bulls sold at auction brought $102.00 as compared with $97,000 for the same sale of last year. The average price of 11.2 cents per pound established at the 4-H calf club sale was said to be a world's record, the highest previous price was 10.2 cents per pound.

The top price paid in the bull sale was $325.00, two bulls bringing this figure according to a computation by the Roswell Record, approximately $12,365 was the total price paid for all the cattle sold at the auction, including the 4-H club calves. The 100 bulls sold for $10,200, 13 cows for $725 and the 17 4-H club calves for $1,440.

Ten bulls were offered for sale by Austin Reeves of Elk. The highest price paid for any of the lot was $200. Herbert Lowrey was the purchaser. Boyd Williams, also of Elk, purchased four of the Reeves herd and made two additional purchases from other herds. Other stockmen to buy one or more bulls from the Reeves stock included Taylor Ross of Lakewood and Edgar Watts of Hope. John Fanning of Lakewood was probably the heaviest buyer among the local cattlemen, purchasing eight bulls. Charley Martin, another local stockman, purchased three bulls.

GENERAL NEWS BRIEFS

Woman Swallows Hardware
NEW YORK—Perplexed physicians who found 1,203 separate items of hardware in the stomach of Miss Mabel Wolf of Brooklyn were told Monday night by their patient that "I did it to be funny."

Bankhead Bill Passes House
WASHINGTON—A rigid limitation of ten million bales for this year's cotton crop was set by the house Monday in passing by the top-heavy vote of 251 to 114 a bill that would impose a tax of fifty per cent of its value upon all additional lint ginned.

The bill was sent to the senate, where advocates said they expected early favorable action. It has the approval of both of the administration and of the senate agriculture committee.

Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.), a co-author, said the house bill was acceptable to him and indicated it would be substituted for the senate measure.

The bill had been before the house a week. Amendments adopted included one striking out a section to authorize the president to enter trade agreements with foreign cotton producing countries on how much of the staple could be exported.

The measure is designed to prevent an increase in production by fertilizing and other methods under the voluntary acreage reduction program.

Representative Bankhead (D-Ala.), co-author with his brother, Senator Bankhead, said that 95 per cent of the cotton farmers favored the legislation.

The central committee of the auto workers union, meeting at Pontiac, Michigan, unanimously accepted President Roosevelt's request for a truce.

A few hours later nearly 7,000 automotive parts workers in Cleveland took similar action and agreed to postpone strike action pending outcome of Washington negotiations.

1,483 J. C. PENNEY STORES SERVING THE NATION AT PRESENT

The story of the continued growth of the J. C. Penney Co. from one store founded in 1902 to a nation-wide institution of more than 1,483 stores is a story of the modern business romance. The first Penney store was established by J. C. Penney at Kemmerer, Wyoming, in 1902. Two foundation principles, the golden rule and potential partnership have been largely responsible for the success of this institution. Four distinguishing characteristics of Mr. Penney and his early associates continue to be the characteristics of the J. C. Penney Co. operation. These are expressed by the words honor, confidence, service and cooperation—directing and inspiring qualities charting individual character development and company growth.

In response to public demand, the company opens new stores rapidly, as men are prepared for management. Each store establishes itself and continues operations on the principles inaugurated by the founder. Golden rule service to the communities which the company stores serve manifests itself primarily in the quality with saving merchandise, which all J. C. Penney stores provide.

The Artesia store of the J. C. Penney Co. was opened five years ago under the management of M. G. Schulte. Since the opening date the store here has enjoyed a profitable business and has not only served a number of people in this immediate area, but numbers of people from the mountain sections.

W. S. Patterson, oil man from Santa Fe, C. S. Peterson, also of Santa Fe, president of the Conquistadores Oil Co., and Tom Peterson of Holywood, California, were here yesterday on business.

PECOS VALLEY GAS CO. IMPROVES AND EXPANDS ITS SERVICE

"Helping to build New Mexico" is the motto adopted by the Pecos Valley Gas Co., a company which pioneered New Mexico and is now serving more than six cities and communities in the Pecos valley. This company has striven to live up to its motto by constantly improving its service until now it is able to give twenty-four hours of uninterrupted service. Like other pioneer individuals and concerns this company has witnessed a rapid change in the development of this valley area, but has been able not only to improve its service to its customers, but a better quality of fuel as result. Few people have realized the tremendous task in supplying good fuel and at the same pressure in all kinds of weather. This task, however, is not longer a promise but a fact through the installation of modern equipment, additional gas lines and regulations to insure an even pressure in the coldest weather.

In addition, the Pecos Valley Gas Co. has expanded its facilities to the farming communities of the valley and is supplying power for the operation of pumping plants. The new fuel for the farmer has meant added economy, which has cut the cost of production on farms irrigated by pumping plants.

Recently the company has added a line of gas appliances, including gas heaters, hot water heaters and furnaces. A service department is maintained to test your gas appliances to give better service at a lower cost. The Pecos Valley Gas Co. will also make a survey of your fuel problem with recommendations as to the appliance best suited to your individual needs.

CONFESSION ENDS TRIAL OF FOUR IN TORTURE SLAYING

CARRIZOZO—The trial of four men held for the torture murder and injury of R. A. Hunnicutt and his son William in January 1933 came to an abrupt close last Thursday when one of the four men pleaded guilty and caused the case to be continued until April 2.

O. P. Vanhorne, Fred Dougherty, Connie Humphrie and J. A. Jackson were arrested last December and charged with torturing the 78-year-old rancher and his son to find the hiding place of $400 on the Hunnicutt ranch south of here. The father died several days afterwards from injuries received when he resisted the attempts of the men to compel him to give up the money, and the son was on crutches for six months after his feet had been badly burned by the robbers. Only when the son was tortured did the father give up.

Vanhorne caused the sudden continuance of the case when he pleaded guilty. The defense had claimed that Vanhorne was in Texas at the time the crime was alleged to have been committed. Charges against the four men in the first place were based on an alleged confession made by one of the quartet whose name was never revealed by the officers.

LOCALS

The Rev. Z. B. Moon of La Mesa, this state, and former resident of Artesia, arrived Tuesday for a visit with friends.

Mrs. A. L. Mount has been a guest of Mrs. Frank Sewell of El Paso since Thursday of last week. Mr. Mount expects to drive over for her Sunday.

W. H. Withington of La Pyor, Texas, arrived Wednesday and will be at the homes of his daughters Mrs. Rex Wheatley and V. L. Gates. Mr. Withington had the misfortune to break a bone in the elbow of one of his arms which is giving him a considerable amount of trouble.

Inhibited by any authorized officer upon request.

NEWS BRIEFS OF THE CHAMBER COMMERCE

The potash road project has been completed and the men have been allocated to other projects of constructive nature out of the city of Artesia. The road to the Potash Company of America is now in much better shape, making the property much closer in driving time.

The latest local CWA project got under way Monday when work on the Junior high school building roof was started.

A freight rate hearing was held in Artesia under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce with President Dexter presiding. Much valuable information was brought to light through the discussion and a better understanding of the real situation was achieved. We still feel that New Mexico is not being treated fairly but the procedure to effect a remedy has not yet been determined. We are not through, however.

As this is being written, a real honest to goodness cleanup is going on up in the Artesia Heights. The rubbish which was recently piled up, is now being hauled out to the new city dump ground.

Among our callers the past week was an official visitor, Mr. Hunter, who was representing R. M. Howard, state CWA engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jernigan of Hobbs visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jernigan over the week end.

ELMORE TAYLOR WRITES

Many local people will remember the five Taylor children, sent back to Coal Creek, Tennessee, some three weeks ago. A letter from Elmore Taylor, the oldest boy, to E. B. Bullock, may be of interest to our readers:

THE PRIMARY

Results of the primary will soon be known. For some of the candidates the suspense will be over whether it will bring satisfaction or disappointment. Only twelve out of the twenty-nine candidates can be successful, the others must be eliminated. If it is any consolation, the defeated might reflect that he or she is not the first one defeated in the innumerable races that have been run. Any candidate with opposition is running the risk of defeat. And if you will take it from one who has experience both the sensation of defeat and of victory, you will not let the results of the election spoil a short period of your life. Be prepared for any eventuality and disappointments will be easier to stand.

The present campaign has been exemplary in one respect and this respect is cleanliness. So far as we have heard there has been very little mud slinging. Candidates, like individuals, will find that the public is not particularly interested in their troubles, if the troubles are too personal.

We have heard too that there is already evidences of irregularities. We hope these reports are magnified and that each precinct will adhere to the rules and regulations as laid down by the central committee regardless of how the favorites may fare. Nothing but a state law will stop these alleged abuses and we hope a primary law is another measure that will receive favorable consideration from the state legislature.

THE HOUSING SHORTAGE

Several weeks now Artesia has experienced a shortage of desirable rent houses. There are vacant houses but these do not meet with the demand of the class of renters who are usually good tenants. We are told that quite a few houses over town are undesirable because they have been permitted to deteriorate. In this respect Artesia is no different from other cities of like size, especially in view of the financial stress of the past few years.

This article is not meant for a sales talk for the lumber yards, but we do believe the wise property owner will find it profitable to keep his property in repair, even though he finds it necessary to borrow the money to do it with. The wisdom of borrowing money depends on the purpose for which the money is borrowed.

Some classes of property will run down rapidly and in many instances the longer repair is neglected the greater will be the depreciation. It occurs to us that it would be much wiser to spend a few dollars and get a fair return on the investment than to let the property stand and get a poor one. A good start can be made toward solving the housing problem by timely repair.

THINGS ONE REMEMBERS

By R. M. Hofer

I was feeling particularly depressed after reading the morning paper at breakfast—murders, scandals, the air mail imbroglio, was threatened, the dollar of uncertain value, stock market shaky and the worried citizen facing the greatest taxes and the greatest federal debt in history—when in came four young people, past voting age.

"Is Bim married this morning?" asked all four.
"Who in the world is Bim?" said I.
"Benjamin Gump," said they.

And, lo and behold, the thing they were most interested in was whether Benjamin Gump and his lovely little sweetheart of the comic strip were safely wedded. And there I was worried about the condition of the country.

I decided that as long as the young people and voters had such a sense of humor, the man-made troubles of our nation would probably be solved in due course and in spite of the politicians, speculators and war promoters.

CLEAN UP

It ought not to be necessary for any community in Eddy county to wait on the recommendations of the health department before starting the spring clean up. Unsightly garbage, piles of junk and piles of waste paper are not only a menace to the health of any community, but these things are anything but beautifying. It may cost something to follow out some of the suggestions of the health service, such as tying on to the sewer and abolishing the open toilets, but the matter of keeping one's premises clean is largely a matter of effort. As long as people have energy there is no excuse for dirt and filth.

An eastern New Mexico writer the other day was lamenting the fact that something could not be done to encourage more western traffic through the Pecos valley and possibly divert some of the traffic from the Broadway of America route. There is a logical competitor of the Broadway of America route and this is highway 83. If you don't believe this, get your map and ruler and place one point of the ruler on Fort Worth and another one at El Paso and see which is the shortest route. Highway 83 has been drawing an increasing amount of traffic and would draw more if the proper cooperation was evidenced by other sections of the southeastern part of the state off this route. There is no reason to believe a traveler could not be induced to visit several points of interest if he came this way, but this chance is eliminated as long as he travels the Texas route.

"It complicates business, interferes with employment, prevents investment and industry, and retards the return to prosperity."—Detroit Times.

A farmer died possessed of a herd of cows, of which he willed his wife one-half, his son one-third, and his daughter one-ninth. The executor of the will was stumped but called a mathematical shark to his aid, with this happy result.

A cow was borrowed from a neighbor, making 18. The widow was given 9, which was one-half; the son got 6, which was his one-third; then the daughter received 2, or one-ninth. This totalled 17, the number to be divided, while the borrowed cow was left. She was returned to her owner, and everybody was satisfied.

Pearl Fishers Have No Fear of Hungry Sharks

Fifty thousand naked men diving for pearls in shark-infested waters form the nucleus of an industry upon which depends the existence of about two million people, observes Tit-Bits Magazine.

Unfortunately most of these men, encumbered by old debts to the dhow-owners, make a mere pittance, but it is a lucrative trade for many, and for the ruling sheiks on the Persian coast an important source of income. Each sheikdom sends its quota of ships, and each fleet, under an "admiral" in the biggest dhow, sets sail after a ceremony of prayer.

Nearly half a million men are engaged in one way or another, and four times that number depend ultimately on prices offered by merchants in Paris, London and New York. Each dhow carries from 24 to 35 divers, who go over the side naked, with a basket slung about their necks. When their breath is exhausted they are pulled up by rope-men. Normally the sharks do not molest them.

The scene of this picturesque spectacle is the Bahrain pearl banks of the Bahrain Islands, a British protectorate in the Persian gulf. The gulf pearl markets are little coffee-shops or rooms in thick-walled Arab houses, and through transactions run to thousands of pounds the merchants look poor, carrying their pearls in pieces of rag which they produce from the folds of their voluminous garments.

Bible Scenes Carved on Old Boxwood Staff

A boxwood staff, once part of a Thirteenth century crozier, containing Old Testament history, has been acquired by the Victoria and Albert museum of London. The staff is divided into 20 horizontal bands, each of which contains in carved high relief scenes from the Book of Genesis. At the bottom of the staff are some beautiful reliefs of the creation of the world, and of councils in heaven. From the division of the firmament from the waters, the story is pursued to the creation of Adam and Eve, and a delightful series of animals and birds. The stories of Cain and Abel, of Noah and the Ark, and of the Tower of Babel follow. The series of reliefs end with the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. There is a very similar handle, carved with scenes from the New Testament, known as the Pastoral Staff of St. Gaudier, in the Musee de Cluny, Paris. Both staves appear to date from the Thirteenth century, and to be associated with the carvings of northern France.

Where Stars Originated
The origin of stars is still a matter of speculation, but numerous theories have been advanced. One of the most recently suggested is that by Jeans, who believes that stars originated in the nebulae, which having assumed a rotating movement gradually assumed the form of an oblong spheroid and eventually separated.

BUDGET AUDITOR ANNOUNCES ITINERARY

Conservative school budgets, such as have been made in the past, are suggested by State School Auditor R. H. Grissom in a letter to all boards of education, announcing his budget itinerary.

"—we shall do our best to raise the necessary revenue for such a budget," he adds.

Calling attention to the 20-mill amendment, he says about half of the counties are not using that amount for school purposes "so you can see that unless we have some other source of revenue the school term is going to be very short." He says: "We do not know at this time just how the schools will be financed or what allocation is going to be made of the 20-mill levy, but we expect to put forth every effort to have a normal term of school."

Grissom is starting later than he usually does on his budget-making tour, having waited to see what was going to be done about a special session.

His itinerary for this side of the state follows:

Fort Sumner—April 30.
Clovis—May 1.

Lovington—May 5.
Carlsbad—May 7.
Roswell—May 8.
Alamogordo—May 10.

YOUR VOTE FOR

Howell Gage —FOR SHERIFF—

Will assist in the election of a man who was born in 1901 and reared in Eddy county, who has made no campaign promises except that of an honest and efficient administration and if elected will appoint capable home men as deputies, also a man as jailer.

I ask no favors, but in all sincerity, solicit your support and influence.

H. GAGE PLEDGES HONEST SERVICE IF ELECTED SHERIFF

Howell Gage, an Eddy county product, is asking the voters of Eddy county to elect him the next sheriff. Mr. Gage has thought well enough of this county to make his home within its borders practically all of his life and in seeking the sheriff's office he feels that his long residence in Eddy has enabled him to become acquainted with local conditions, which should better fit him to discharge the duties of this office.

He especially believes that his experience in this office will be of value at this particular time; a time when capable and honest peace officers are needed in the line of duty over the entire county. He rightfully feels that the office of sheriff has grown to be a very important one in the last decade. The protection of the citizenship and the property of the citizenship rests to a large degree within the hands of the sheriff, the highest officer in the county.

Mr. Gage has made no promise other than an efficient and honest administration, if elected, and is pledged to appoint home men as deputies and a main jailer. He says he is willing to let his claims to this office rest with those who know him and to the newcomers who may not be personally acquainted with his requests that you make inquiry into his character and ability.

Money Market Terms

The term "cables" is a money market term for cable orders or cable transfers, also a money market report term under which the rates of exchange for such orders or transfers are quoted. According to "Escher's Foreign Exchange Explained," the prices of sight drafts and long bills are fundamentally based on the price of cables. The first thing in the morning the foreign exchange banker, say in New York, receives a cablegram from his correspondent in London, telling him just what the rate on New York is over there. With this information on hand, he is in a position to commence buying and selling. The rate for cables having been established, it is easy enough to fix the price of demand drafts, the latter being cheaper by an amount corresponding to ten days' interest. When a banker sells a cable he makes immediate payment out of his balance abroad. When, however, he sells a sight draft, his balance abroad remains undisturbed for eight or nine or ten days, which is the quickest time in which the draft he has sold can be presented for encashment. Naturally he will charge less than when he sells a cable and loses the use of his money at once.

Famous Tower 500 Years Old

STATE BOARD ADOPTS TEXT BOOKS FOR 1934

After three days of discussion and balloting the state board of education Saturday finished the adoption of spelling, arithmetic and geography texts for the six-year period beginning the next school year, Raymond Huff, chairman, announced at Santa Fe.

The Stanford spelling pad, published by Laidlow Brothers, was selected for spelling; the Triangle Arithmetic, published by John C. Winston Co., for mathematics. In geography, a split was adopted; third grade, Home Folks, published by John C. Winston Co.; fourth, fifth and sixth grades, Atwood-Thomas books, published by Ginn & Co.; seventh and eighth grades, "Our World Today," published by Allyn & Bacon.

No prices were given out. Huff said the reason was that bids had been asked for on four different plans of distribution, a different price had been quoted for each plan and the plan had not been decided upon as yet by the state board.

"We did not sacrifice quality for price," said he, "but we were fortunate in getting books in most cases with lower prices than the present quotations, no matter what plan is adopted. It will mean a considerable saving in the state."

Baltimore Oriole's Colors

The Baltimore oriole, known also as the firebird and the golden robin, with black and orange-flame-colored plumage and with the ability to mock the yelping Toucan of South America or the plaintive call of the yellow cuckoo, stole the honors for brilliant plumage from the redstart.

Where Miners Are Fed From Skies

Snowbound miners, at this outpost 15 miles from North Bend, Wash., depend in winter on airplanes for food, and were it not for aviation these men would perish, since all trails are blocked to the outside world. The food is put in sacks, to which long red streamers are attached, so that they may be found in the deep snow, and then the sacks are dropped overboard, as landing is impossible.

SALIENT FACTS IN COTTON COMPARISON

The profits of cotton growing are determined on each farm by the price received above a given cost of production, says G. R. Queenberry of the New Mexico State College. This cost may vary from farm to farm, but each additional dollar above that cost adds to the profits and comfort of the particular farmer.

A complete summary of all cotton produced from registered seed was compared with that grown from foundation seed released by the college, and also with the state totals of all cotton grown in New Mexico, to get the value of registered seed to the individual farmer.

The cotton grown from foundation stocks of seed all graded strict middling and better. The first year releases, or cotton grown from registered seed, classed 97.56% strict middling and better; the state totals 90.1% in this class. This shows conclusively, as in the past, that College Acala is storm proof and does not readily string or drop, as many varieties do.

Of the first year release, or cotton from foundation stock, 65% stapled 1 1/8 inches and longer, while only 5% of the state totals ran this length. Some individual farmers growing registered seed showed every bale grown by them in the strict middling and better class, also 1 1/8 inch class and better. All registered seed growers showed almost 100% in this highest class up to December 15.

The actual value of cotton grown by registered seed growers was approximately $3.75 per bale more than that grown by other New Mexico farmers.

Pure seed is now reflected in all cotton produced in the state. On the May market, middling 7/8 inch cotton is worth 11.16 cents per pound, f. o. b. Las Cruces; strict middling 1 1/8 inch cotton, which will take in the bulk of the cotton produced by the registered seed growers, on the same market is worth 12.16 cents per pound, or $7.25 more per bale according to figures released by the Southwestern Irrigated Cotton Growers' Association. This added price pays well for a few extra cents paid for planting seed.

COX FRIENDS SAY HE IS QUALIFIED TO REPRESENT DISTRICT

Sponsors of the campaign of Thos. (Sid) Cox, for state representative, have issued the following statement with reference to Mr. Cox's candidacy:

"Thos. S. (Sid) Cox, candidate for state representative, is highly qualified to efficiently serve the people if elected to this office. Sid Cox has been a resident of Eddy county for the past fourteen years and in the meantime has been interested in legislative affairs in the interest of the Pecos valley. His interest in better government has brought him in personal contact with the most active citizens throughout the state of New Mexico and he no doubt enjoys a broader acquaintance and knowledge of legislative affairs than does the average citizen.

Mr. Cox is interested in no one particular business and if elected will have no special piece of legislation to sponsor, but will offer his services to the best interests of his constituents and the people of New Mexico for their general good. Mr. Cox is a member of no faction or group to sponsor or defeat any specific interest or person, but will best serve the masses most impartially. You can make no mistake in giving your utmost support to such men as Thos. S. Cox for state representative."

RACKET PICKS COIN OFF FAMILY TREES

Despite Warnings Hundreds Fall for Swindle.

London.—Americans in search of a family tree should take warning from the latest of many statements about bogus genealogists issued by the United States consulate general in London.

For, according to the consulate general's office, these fly-by-night gentry this year are reaping a richer harvest than ever from the United States at the expense of those people who believe they are missing heirs to vast fortunes or have claims to noble birth.

Sixty letters a week are being received at the consulate general from Americans who believe they are missing heirs. As usual, most of them have no legitimate claim to any fortune and are told so by return mail, but for those who write to the consulate general there are hundreds of others who place their claims—and their dollars—in the hands of bogus genealogists.

At the consulate general's office there are hundreds of cases on record of people who have been defrauded of their hard-earned coin by these men.

Only recently a trickster living in London started—or claimed to have started—to compile the history of the Bennett family. Hundreds of Bennetts in America and Britain were circled by this man, who said he thought they were associated with this "noble family." He promised to have a record of all the Bennetts privately printed. The dollars rolled in, but the subscribers are waiting for their book.

The Ancient Society of Genealogists is up in arms at this traffic which, they contend, is dimming the fair name of all latent genealogists but the authorities have a hard time in catching the swindlers, who move from one address to another with great rapidity.

ANNUAL GOVERNOR'S DAY AT CARLSBAD CAVERNS ON APRIL 7

CARLSBAD—Saturday, April 7, has been designated the sixth annual governor's day at the Carlsbad Caverns and 1,500 high school seniors are expected to visit the caverns with Governor and Mrs. A. W. Hockenull.

The tour of the caverns will last from 10:30 in the morning until 4:00 in the afternoon. Guide fees will be waived and the only charge will be the required 15 cent federal tax.

Governor's day was instituted in 1929 and has been held annually since that time.

Total Ages of London Family Thousand Years

London.—That he has the biggest family in London is the claim of Frederick Henden. Henden has had 21 children, 10 of whom are still living, 61 grandchildren (as far as he can remember), and 10 great-grandchildren.

Himself one of twins, Henden had 23 brothers and sisters, and as far back as the family history can be traced the Hendens have always had large families. His children are carrying on the tradition, for one daughter has 15 children and another 12.

Next year the total ages of the family will reach 1,000 years, and Henden, who will be seventy-three, has only had one ambition—to give a party and invite all his family, so that they could all be together. The Hendens have the distinction of being the biggest family mentioned in the London Roll of Honor, for 41 sons and grandsons are mentioned as having fought in the World war.

R. A. WILCOX ASKS YOUR SUPPORT IN COUNTY CLERK'S RACE

R. A. (Rude) Wilcox of Artesia, was the first candidate to announce for office in Eddy county this year and is seeking the office of county clerk. Although he has spent practically all of his life in the county, he has never before asked for a public office.

If elected, Mr. Wilcox feels that the office of county clerk will be a promotion in the business world and is frank to admit that he is looking first to the remuneration which the position carries, not unmindful that the clerk's office also carries with it definite responsibilities which must be met. However, he feels fully qualified to perform the duties of this office and pledges his best efforts toward conducting the clerk's office in a business-like and efficient manner.

Having lived at both Carlsbad and Artesia, Mr. Wilcox is well known to many of the older residents and needs no introduction. To those who may not be personally acquainted with him, Mr. Wilcox invites a personal investigation of his character and ability. He has endeavored to play his part as a citizen of Eddy county and has contributed his time and energy to more than one worthy cause. He will appreciate your support on March 24th.

A VIEW OF ARTESIA FROM THE CLOUDS

Pioneer Firm Is Featuring Nationally Advertised Lines

One of the best evidences that better times are here is that the manufacturers are now manufacturing a quality into their products rather than trying to compete to see which concern can make the cheapest product. Herein lies the difference between good and bad times, according to Joyce-Pruit Co., pioneer dry goods merchant of Eddy county. Three years ago makers of dry goods began to manufacture goods for the price, now they are making goods with the quality of the goods the first thought in mind.

In thirty years of serving the public, Joyce-Pruit Co. has found the old adage to be true: "The quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten." Thirty years of service too has given this company the advantage of selecting the best lines of merchandise. Today this firm is featuring nationally known, nationally advertised merchandise.

Less questions are asked in the transaction where the customer buys standard brands of dry goods and wearing apparel. The customer knows what he is getting, he knows the quality of the product and he knows further that if the goods do prove unsatisfactory, the manufacturer will make them good. In the dry goods and ready-to-wear line, as in other commodities, you get what you pay for; there is a lot more satisfaction in buying materials you know will give service.

Style Show at Carlsbad
Joyce-Pruit Co. dry goods department at Carlsbad has arranged an Easter style show to be staged at Carlsbad beginning at 9:00 o'clock Saturday evening. Live models will parade the display windows, showing the latest in Easter wear for the ladies. In addition, Joyce-Pruit Co. has arranged to post the returns from the primary as fast as they are received.

OTERO HOLDS ZINN WRONGFULLY HELD TAX CASE MONEYS

GALLUP—District Judge M. A. Otero Thursday reaffirmed his original findings in the H. L. Williams tax case to the effect that Associate Judge A. L. Zinn of the state supreme court had wrongfully held funds paid him while special delinquent tax attorney.

The judge's supplemental findings of fact followed a second airing of the sensational case on the reopening of "the matter of taxes of H. L. Williams" in district court here.

In the rehearing the judge appointed Attorney Hugh B. Woodward of Albuquerque to act as "friend of the court" to make a complete investigation.

Judge Otero found the $500 telegraphed by Williams, New York oil man, September 15, 1932, might have been applied by Zinn either on account of delinquent taxes or on account of judgment of the Carbon City Investment company, or might have been allocated between the tax claim and judgment claim, but that Zinn did neither.

SATURDAY NIGHT COLD

Saturday night was one of the coldest on record here as the tail end of a blizzard swept the Pecos valley. A severe dust storm rode a stiff north wind, which grew bitter toward nightfall. A light snow fall was reported in spots of the west Texas panhandle and in Oklahoma. Sunday night the thermometer at the government station dropped to 18 degrees above with a comparatively hard freeze as result. The freeze, however, did not seem to injure the buds on the shade and fruit trees. Many believe that this was the Easter spell for this section.

TAXES Versus DISSATISFACTION

Property owners who have paid taxes for any length of time realize the matter of equalization of property tax payments rests largely in the hands of the county assessor. Taxes may be hard to pay, but the taxpayer will pay his taxes with better grace, if he knows his valuations are in line with similar classes of property and if he knows systematic efforts have been used to get all possible property on the tax roll.

My experience in this office has not only qualified me to boast of reasonable judgment in the matter of valuations, but also the value of impartiality in arriving at valuations and to make diligent efforts to get all possible taxable property on the tax roll.

If you are a taxpayer you know as well as I know that every piece of property added to the tax roll means less taxes for the individual taxpayer and you also know that a knowledge of valuations will help to equalize the burdens of taxation.

If you feel the facts above stated are important to you as a citizen and taxpayer of Eddy county, then I want your support for this is the only way I know how to conduct a campaign for this office, in a straight and business-like manner.

VOTE FOR Richard H. Westaway FOR TAX ASSESSOR

R. WESTAWAY SEEKS REELECTION ON BASIS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Mr. Westaway is conducting a campaign solely on his own merits and asks your vote, if you believe his services in the past have been well rendered and if you believe a knowledge of the duties connected with this office is important to you as a citizen and a taxpayer.

Romans Made First Road Map
The Romans made the first road map as such. It showed the pathway of travel from England to the mouth of the Ganges in India, the forerunner of the motorists' guide. Later these same "road maps" were made for the benefit of the Crusaders, one of the best being by the St. Albans monk, Matthew Paris.

"Klondike"
"Klondike" is a corruption of the name of a stream, a tributary of the Yukon, in extreme northwest Canada in the Yukon territory. The word is in one of the Athabaskan dialects prevailing in that region. In the literature of the day, "Klondiker" and even "to Klondike" occur.

R. H. WESTAWAY OF CARLSBAD IS SEEKING REELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF COUNTY TAX ASSESSOR.

R. H. Westaway of Carlsbad is seeking reelection to the office of county tax assessor. Mr. Westaway, known to practically every voter in Eddy county, believes that he can render a real service to the citizens and taxpayers of Eddy county during the next two years, if reelected to this office, because of his experience in tax matters. In his service to the taxpayers of the county, Mr. Westaway has familiarized himself with every detail relative to the renditions and to the property valuations. His knowledge of county affairs has enabled him to equalize the tax burdens in many instances and in others to add property not previously on the tax rolls. Conscientious service to the public in these instances has undoubtedly distributed tax payments more equally and has lightened the tax burdens during the trying years when all the relief possible was needed.

It has been difficult to execute the duties of the tax assessor's office in an impartial manner and with a modern ladies' and men's rest rooms. The entire building will be air conditioned and made comfortable for all kinds of weather. Construction is to be completed within about 4 months. The new structure is a joint enterprise of the Griffith theater interests and C. W. and May Bartlett of Artesia.

The Nobel Prizes
The Nobel prizes were instituted by Alfred Bernhard Nobel (1833-1896) the Swedish inventor of dynamite, blasting, gelatine and smokeless powder. His fortune amounted to about $5,000,000. With it he established a foundation from which, since 1901, have been awarded international prizes for the most important discoveries in physics, chemistry, physiology or medicine, for the most remarkable book of an idealistic tendency and for the greatest service to peace during the year. The judges are the Swedish Academy of Science, the Stockholm Faculty of Medicine, the Swedish Academy of Literature and a committee of the Norwegian storting or parliament. The prize amounts to a little more than $40,000. All the prizes are not necessarily awarded each year, but only when a work of sufficient importance is accomplished.

EDDY COUNTY COURT HOUSE - CARLSBAD, N. M.

Editor's Note: We felt that a bit of the early history of the court house and Eddy county might be of interest and accordingly we requested William T. Reed, veteran editor of Carlsbad to prepare a story, which is presented herewith. Incidentally Mr. Reed is the county's oldest newspaperman from the standpoint of continuous service, having edited the Carlsbad Argus for more than thirty years. Mr. Reed is familiar with the county's history from first-hand information.

The half-tone cut shown above is an excellent picture of the first court house built in any one of the three counties taken from the county of Lincoln in 1889, when enough territory was sliced from this huge county to more than equal any three of the populous eastern states, and still leave Lincoln the biggest county in any state in the union.

The Eddy county court house was built in 1891, on the huge sand and mesquite square, which occupied the exact center of the town of Carlsbad, then known as "Eddy," named for one of the original three men who took a leading part in the segregating of territory from Lincoln to create the three counties of Eddy, Chaves and Lea—C. B. Eddy, Chas. W. Greene and Pat F. Garrett.

The building is constructed of brick and rock—the basement being of the last mentioned material and the two stories of brick, burned by a pioneer named Weldon, well remembered by old timers. Mr. Weldon not only burned the brick, but together with his son and several other bricklayers, put them into the walls. The construction of the building was under the direction of G. W. ("Boston") Witt, still a citizen of the Pecos valley, living in Lovington. "Boston" was assisted by Ed. Wilson, still a citizen of Carlsbad, but incapacitated by age and an accident which confines him in the Eddy County hospital. So much for the early history of the court house.

The picture shown above is a splendid and true likeness of the first court house of Eddy county and has housed many men and women who have taken a leading part in the history of the Pecos valley. The county jail, at first located in the stone part, and the county offices on the first floor, the third story being given over to the court officials—court room, judge and jury rooms and clerk's office.

The county clerk occupied the first room on the right as you enter the building from the south, and on the same side was the office of the assessor, directly opposite being the office of the county treasurer, the sheriff having office directly opposite that of the county clerk.

It is hard to remember names of people for almost a half century, but the writer remembers hazily; the first board of county commissioners, which authorized the issuing of bonds for the construction of the court house—J. O. Camerson, from the first district; R. H. Pierce, the second, and—I forget the name of the man from the third.

Later on, in 1915, an addition not shown in the above picture, was built and the county offices were moved to the new part—one of the finest and most substantial buildings in the state, being absolutely fire-proof, being built of brick, steel and stone, with marble floors and stairways.

But before I mention the new part it would be well perhaps for me to say something of the present jail, which is built across a little driveway directly north of the old building. I do not remember the year, but it was early in the nineteen hundreds that the basement of the old building was abandoned as a jail, because of its insecurity and the desperate character of its inmates—among whom were several of the noted outlaws of the southwest. About the time the new jail was built, Judge Wm. H. Pope was the chief magistrate of the Fifth Judicial district, and this splendid man and judge, despite the desperate character of many of those appearing before him for trial, soon filled this small and insecure basement jail, and through his efforts and influence this new jail was built.

The new part of the Eddy county court house consists of a basement and two floors, the basement being given over to the offices of the treasurer and assessor, with a small room between for the use of abstractors and the filing of records of the assessor.

On the first floor are the offices of the sheriff, county clerk and commissioners room, while the third floor is occupied by the judge and jury rooms and two or three rooms for other offices.

The history of the Eddy county court house is coincident with that of the county and columns could be written about the men and women who have occupied it as officers and the noted criminals who have been housed in its jails (without even an escape), but space forbids even a brief mention of these.

Spring Showing of Frigidaires To Start Soon

H. S. Durrance, Eddy county dealer for Frigidaire, a product of General Motors, received word from Dayton, Ohio, today that the 1934 models have been shipped and will be shown on March 26.

As advanced in the refrigeration field as the 1934 line of General Motors automobiles are in the automotive industry, the 1934 Frigidaires meet the requirements of every purse and purpose, according to the information sent Mr. Durrance by H. W. Newell, vice-president of Frigidaire, and will offer American housewives hitherto unknown refrigeration efficiency and conveniences in the home.

"The entire refrigeration industry has been watchfully waiting for the unveiling of the 1934 Frigidaire line," Mr. Durrance said, "because every year Frigidaire has introduced each year the best refrigerator of that year."

"Frigidaire's two huge plants in Dayton—the largest refrigerator plants in the world—have been humming with activity for weeks to make ready for the unveiling simultaneously in 6,000 showrooms spanning the continent from coast to coast.

To The Voters Of Eddy County

It will be impossible for me to see each of you and express to you individually, my desire for your support for renomination as County Commissioner from District 2. I am therefore taking this means to reach as many as possible.

Important tax changes are coming up, and it is really necessary to have someone to handle these who is conversant with the tax situation.

Upon this ground alone I am justified in asking for your support in the coming Primary, Saturday, March 24th.

If I am reelected, I promise you that I will look after your interests in the future as I have done in the past. Thank you.

OTTS WANTS TO LIVE IN EDDY--ASKS FOR THE PROBATE JUDGE

In his last public appeal to the voters today, Paul A. Otts of Artesia, addressed the following statement to the voters:

Dear Voters:
I have made my campaign for Probate Judge and I know that there are some that I haven't had the opportunity to meet. If you will turn to page 3, upper right hand corner, I have had my picture inserted so that you may see what I look like and give me consideration as though we were talking face to face. I am thirty-seven years old, married, and have two children. I am a disabled veteran, having served with the Rainbow division during the World war, receiving my disability in battle. I have been City Clerk of Artesia for the past four years and have been meeting the public for twelve years. I conscientiously believe that I can serve you in a business-like manner in this office and promise always to be courteous and willing to do anything in my power to help make Eddy county a better place in which to live. Should the good voters choose to elect me in this election, I shall always try to conduct myself in office as a probate judge should and try to be appreciative of the honor bestowed upon me.

SCOUT NEWS

According to the present plan of thorough organization in scouting, it is intended within the next ten year period to enlist more participating citizenship, that is, to enlist more men in scouting as well as to enlist more boys. The immediate goal is one in every four male citizens in the United States a four-year scout-trained man. During the coming ten year period it is hoped to enlist a much greater percentage in scouting.

Scouting is not only training for citizenship, but training in citizenship. Each year in well-organized Scout centers, the municipal government and business houses are turned over to the Scouts to be run by them for a stated time, one hour or one day, thus giving the Scouts actual experience in citizenship.

Our country needs more of the spirit of democracy and brotherhood. Scouts are trained in unselfish service for others, so are "friends to all and a brother to every other Scout." In our growing "big" as a nation, commercially and otherwise, we have lost our brotherliness of the smaller groups of the earlier days even in the "big hearted" west. Competition has been allowed to breed antagonism which is anti-democratic. Scouting is a brotherhood wherein a boy stands on his own merits—it is open to all boys of every creed or class. The spirit of scouting if kept alive and awake will ultimately be a means of friendliness among nations. Alas, it is too often lightly thought of or even forgotten. Train the boys up in the way they should go and they will not soon forget it. Are the boys, our future citizens, worth such training? We cannot afford as a nation not to give them the very best training and opportunities possible.

Emergency service may be needed at any time. Storm, fire and flood find Scouts trained in first aid, ready to serve when need arises, mobilizable in a matter of minutes, ready to go into action, "prepared" is the motto. This service is worth while and is a training that every boy should have.
