As soon as this information is available the office force is able to transfer the data from the 1934 contracts to the new forms and these will be all prepared in the office so that the producers will

Pneumonia Is Fatal To Mrs. Tom Shipp

Dies At El Paso, Texas, On Saturday; Funeral Held Here Tuesday.

The death of Mrs. Tom Shipp (nee Helen McCrary), at El Paso, Texas, Saturday afternoon was a distinct shock to the entire Artesia community. Mrs. Shipp suffered an attack from pneumonia about a month ago. She was removed from the hospital to her home when her condition had apparently improved, but last Thursday she suffered a relapse and all that medical science could do was not able to save her life. Mrs. G. U. McCrary, mother of Mrs. Shipp, went to El Paso at the beginning of Mrs. Shipp's illness and was at her bedside when the end came as was Judge McCrary, who went over last week.

Mrs. Shipp, aged 26, was well-known to all of the earlier residents. She was reared here and attended the public schools here. Later she attended the University of Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Shipp, former residents of Fort Worth, Texas, had lived in El Paso about five months.

Willis Morgan, former resident of Artesia, drove over with members of the family Sunday. R. M. McDonald of the McClay Funeral Home, returned with the body Sunday and funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, with the Rev. A. C. Douglas, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. W. B. McCrary. Interment was made in the Woodbine cemetery.

Mrs. Shipp leaves to mourn her loss a husband, Tom Shipp of El Paso, Texas, a daughter, Violet Louise, aged 6; her parents, Judge and Mrs. G. U. McCrary, and a brother, Keith McCrary of Springer, this state. The daughter, Violet Louise, will make her home with Judge and Mrs. McCrary here.

Out-of-state relatives and friends here to attend the funeral in addition to those mentioned above included Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shipp of Austin, Texas, parents of Tom Shipp, and two brothers of Mr. Shipp, Richard and Lee Shipp, with their families, of Fort Worth, Texas; W. W. Duckworth and daughter, Miss Betty Duckworth of Corpus Christi, Texas, brother and niece of Mrs. G. U. McCrary, and Mrs. Bob Allison of El Paso, Texas.

Oliver W. Holmes Dies Wednesday

WASHINGTON—Oliver Wendell Holmes died early yesterday. The death was announced by the "great dissenter's" former secretary, Mark Howe, who said that it occurred at 2:15 a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Death was caused by bronchial pneumonia. It ended a public service which began with the years of soldiering in the civil war and included 29 years spent as an associate justice of the supreme court where by almost universal accord he was known as the "great liberal." He retired in January, 1932.

Holmes would have reached 94 Friday. The illness which caused death of the age-weakened jurist developed from a cold contracted after an automobile ride February 23. Almost to the last Holmes retained the irrepressible spirit that characterized his active years.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Eddy county commissioners occurred at Carlsbad Monday. Only routine matters were transacted.

Board of Education Has First Session; Kerr Is Re-elected

The Artesia board of education met Monday night for the first time since the election February 12th. The board was organized, the new member, Charles Morgan, was sworn in and officers elected for the ensuing year. R. L. Paris was chosen as chairman of the board, Charles Morgan as vice-chairman, and Mrs. F. A. Manda was re-elected secretary.

W. E. Kerr was also re-elected superintendent of the city schools, but further selections of faculty members were deferred until a future meeting.

M. W. Evans, county FERA administrator, attended the board meeting and discussed the construction of the new gym building at Junior high. Construction on the new building is expected to get underway within about ten days and will be completed in ninety days from the start.

New Game-Fish League Is Formed

Organized only within the last ten days by a group of ardent hunters and fishermen, the Southern New Mexico Game and Fish League already boasts a record of nearly four hundred paid-up members, with only a few towns, as a preliminary, so far solicited.

The sole intent of the organization is to coordinate and unify the efforts of sportsmen of the fifteen counties in the southern half of New Mexico—to secure unto themselves the proportionate share of wild game and fish to accord with their percentage of license fees paid into the state in comparison to the northern section.

Temporary headquarters of the league are now in Hot Springs, though when a greater number of local chapters are formed the central organization's location shall be determined by vote of the chapter delegates.

Changes In Sales Tax Law Not Effective Until the 1st of July

No immediate action is being taken looking to plans for enforcement of the new features of the new sales tax law, it was said at the sales tax office in Santa Fe Monday, as the law does not become effective until July 1, when the present law expires.

One change in the law is that merchants may not charge more than the two per cent called for in the law. To accomplish this, the law authorizes the state tax commission to issue stamps, tokens or cards which may be traded like money—they begin in mill denominations. According to best information Monday, the bureau of revenue will handle that affair—though the law said tax commission. Under the bureau of revenue bill, the tax is collectible by the bureau. Lawyers will have to untangle that situation later.

Lea County Resident Fails in an Appeal to State Supreme Court

Simpson was convicted of voluntary manslaughter, having shot a man to death at Tatum, according to his conviction, which has been affirmed by the high court.

NEW NAZARENE CHURCH HOME TO BE ERECTED

Building To Be Erected At Corner of Quay and 5th Streets of Native State; Excavation To Start Tuesday.

The construction of a new home for the Church of the Nazarene began Tuesday morning with the excavation for the basement. The building will be located on the corner of Quay and Fifth streets and will be a decided asset to Artesia.

The church proper will be forty feet wide and seventy feet long and will be constructed of native stone with beautiful stained glass windows. There will be a full basement with rest rooms, Sunday school class rooms and an auditorium for the young people. The main auditorium will be thirty-eight feet by forty-seven feet, equipped with oak pews, baptistry and choir loft.

The pastor, the Rev. J. A. Breece, hopes by the erection of a new church, to give work to the unemployed of the community; to give Artesia a handsome church, and already the people with "An Eye of Faith" have caught the vision of a new place of worship with some beautifully landscaped grounds.

The building is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy within the next sixty days. John Wake is the contractor.

Corn-Hog Papers Ready; Will Seek Signers March 9th

Meetings were held at Hope and Artesia Saturday, March 2nd, at which time the corn and hog contract signers elected the committee to serve for the year 1935.

As there are only a limited number of new contracts, it was decided that the county committee would serve as local committeemen. R. L. Paris of Artesia was elected chairman and Virgil Craig and Fred Chambers, members of the committee. A. B. Coll of Artesia and Oliver Scoggins of Hope were elected as alternates. A meeting was called by Ralph R. Will for the committee to meet at Roswell to study plans for 1935. A. M. Vance, assistant in the county agent's office, represented the extension service at this meeting. The signing of new contracts will most likely start Saturday, March 9th.

Miss June Carper accompanied Marshal Rowley to Portales today for a few days visit at the home of his parents.

Rapid Progress Being Made in Construction New Majestic Theater

Rapid progress has been made on the construction of the new Majestic Theater building at the corner of Roselawn and Main. Workmen started laying the foundation on the east side of the building Monday, after having completed the razing of the old Corner Pool Hall last week. The interior fixtures in the lobby of the present building have also been removed preparatory to beginning the razing of the old Majestic building.

Ray Bartlett, manager, stated Monday the Majestic would cease operation on March 20th and the daily shows will be suspended until the new building will be ready to move into. According to original plans, it would have been necessary to have suspended operations for a period of sixty days, but at the present rate of construction the time may be cut ten or fifteen days.

Nazarene Church Launches Crusade

Under the slogan, "A Crusade For Souls," the entire denomination of the Church of the Nazarene launches forth in a special revival effort in all local church and mission stations around the world.

It is a crusade promoted by all general and district leaders of the church in an effort to reach a large number of the vast unchurched masses of people within this nation and in other nations where their churches are located.

The purpose of the special effort is the salvation of souls. The Church of the Nazarene has had a phenomenal growth during the past twenty-five years due largely to her intense evangelistic fever. She is thoroughly orthodox in her doctrinal position. In this crusade she dares in a day of doubt and skepticism concerning revivals, to foster a real God-sent revival thru earnest and intercessory prayer and by the evangelistic ministry of revivalist and pastor.

The Rev. John Breece, pastor of the local Nazarene congregation, announces that his church will participate on Friday, March 8th, in the "World Day of Prayer," observed by all denominations but designed particularly within the Church of the Nazarene as the time in which to launch the prayer program of the crusade for souls. Prayer services will be held in the church beginning at 10:30 in the morning and continue through the day with the entire congregation gathering for the evening service. The public is invited.

Welch Caught In Black Dust Storm; Car Stopped For Thirty Minute Period

Van Welch, Sr., local oil operator, was caught in the black dust storm which swept over the panhandle of Texas Sunday afternoon near Stratford, Texas, as he was en route home from Illinois. Egyptian blackness prevailed for thirty minutes in that area as billows of black dust rolled over the plains, much like a fog. Car lights failed to penetrate the darkness and many motorists had to stop until the storm passed.

The dust cloud caused by a low pressure area over the plains was the first phenomenon of its kind experienced by the section, it was stated at Amarillo, although the territory has frequently experienced sand storms. The Pecos valley was out of the dust clouds, although the severe dust storm frequently hid the sun Sunday.

Luther Oldham, member of the state motor patrol, has been suspended from the organization by E. J. House, chief, after he fired on a car in Carlsbad, it was learned last week. Oldham, who has been with the patrol since the first of the year, was charged with disorderly conduct after he is alleged to have fired at a car without tail lights. One shot hit the car and another shot struck the sidewalk and glanced, striking a house.

Needy Families On Project Farm

Ten needy families of Eddy county will be placed on rehabilitation farms this week, Fred C. Huckleberry of Carlsbad, rural rehabilitation agent, announced Saturday.

Members of the county planning committee accepted Saturday the Gossett farm, two and a half miles west of Malaga. This property will be added to the Ennefer farm, already approved.

Each of the farms will care for five families, it was announced. The only thing that can delay selection of families to occupy the tracts is the failure of legal blanks to arrive from headquarters.

Several individuals, on their own initiative, have leased land under the rehabilitation program but no definite announcement has been made.

Members of the county planning committee include W. A. Wunsch, county agent; Miss Helen I. Collins, social service secretary of Eddy county, and G. R. Brainard, C. A. Pierce and J. R. Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jackson drove over from Silver City Sunday for a visit with their home folks, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson and family. They returned the same day.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION IS NAMED MONDAY BY GOVERNOR TINGLEY

New members of the New Mexico highway commission were announced at El Paso, Texas, Monday by Gov. Clyde Tingley. They are: Clyde Oden of Albuquerque, Lea Rowland of Roswell, and Ed Sargent of Chama.

The governor was in El Paso in connection with the El Paso Electric Co., labor dispute. SANTA FE—Expenditures in highway construction work in New Mexico during 1935-36 may reach $16,600,000, according to an article in the March issue of "New Mexico" quoting Clyde Oden, chairman of the present five-man highway commission which now has expired by law.

CAGE TEAM LEAVES FOR STATE MEET

Nine members of the Artesia high school cage squad and a manager left this morning for the state tournament at Albuquerque, which gets underway at Albuquerque Friday. Drawings for places in the tournament will be made at 8:00 o'clock this evening and word will be wired back when the drawings are completed. The boys are hopeful that they may have an easier schedule than that drawn at the district tournament.

Coach Barton and Mr. Marshall, high school principal, drove over with the team members who went, including: Golden, Tidwell, Conner, Wilde, Champion, Johnson, Bivens, Dunn, Denton and Dick Burnett as manager.

The basketball season closed Saturday night for the schools of the fifth district with Carrizozo, a dark horse, as champion and the Artesia cagers as runner up. In going into the finals, the Artesia Bulldogs proved their right of contention by defeating three of the leading contenders in the Pecos valley and playing probably the hardest schedule of any team to enter the Roswell tourney. The local quintet had to play four games to earn the right to compete with the winners of the lower bracket. The locals went an extra period to defeat the Carlsbad Caversmen Friday afternoon after they had previously defeated Hondo earlier in the morning 22 to 14 and at 8:00 p. m. the same day, the Artesians met and defeated another strong team, Hope, 18 to 15. Saturday morning the Bulldogs earned the right to enter the final game by defeating Roswell 17 to 13.

Friday morning results: Artesia 22, Hondo 15. Hope 27, Lovington 26. Roswell won from Cloudfroft by forfeit. Lake Arthur 39, Dexter 31. Carrizozo 16, Hagerman 25. Capitan 24, Weed 21. Seismograph Survey Started North Clovis During the Past Week

While drilling at the Claudell Development company's Wilmes No. 1 is delayed awaiting the drying of cement, oil activity in this section took on a busy aspect with the start of a seismographic survey of this section and the reported blocking out of acreage northeast of Clovis for a test well.

Wirt Franklin of the Franklin Oil company of Texas, with Glen Grimes, chief geologist for the company, and G. C. Sweet, Oklahoma City secretary of the American Seismographic company, and equipment and crew arrived in Clovis Wednesday for the survey. Home F. Wilcox, an independent operator of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is blocking out the acreage for the test well.

The article says that $9,600,000 expenditure is contemplated in grade separation and secondary road construction from allotments of the federal government. The balance of the large expenditure is federal aid allotments and $3,000,000 from sale of debentures.

According to Oden, the article says, the bureau of public roads will insist that the first part of the program to be completed will be linking federal aid and transcontinental highways.

Work will be done in all parts of the state in federal aid, grade separation and secondary construction. Oden is quoted as saying, "While the program will be vast,"

STOP THAT DUST!

Our readers can write home and tell the folks we had a real dust storm Sunday: old timers say Sunday's wind was the worst in several years. We don't know how bad the winds were, say twenty years ago, but we do know that it was a very smooth-tempered person who could go through the day Sunday and never make a remark you would not like to have repeated in Sunday school.

When the wind blows the dust usually centers here because of the condition of our streets. There are few spots where the dust is more disagreeable than it is right in town. Sunday you might have driven a mile north or south of town and escaped the worst of the storm.

Some good work was done here two or three years ago in oiling the streets but the benefits from the oil have largely disappeared because the oil has dried out, leaving a black dirt. We are told by those who have experimented and observed that roads and streets built of oil with an asphalt base have stood the test of time and are still in serviceable condition, stopping the dust and providing a surface to turn water.

In addition to applying gravel to thirty-four blocks, which we understand will be done under a FERA project, why not embark on a street oiling program with the aid of the property owners and stop the greatest menace Artesia faces in the spring and early summer? We realize the difficulty in trying to oil every street and we know too that the dust could not be controlled without the assistance of the farmers and stockmen living west of town.

The cost of applying Getty oil or oil of a similar grade would be small if figured over a period of years. And improvements of this sort would be of a permanent nature because the asphalt forms a binder that does not easily dry out.

IN THE SENATE

The people of New Mexico are now learning from sad experience that it pays to play safe in their voting as well as in their business affairs. During the political campaign last fall Bronson Cutting was heralded from one end of the state to the other by his supporters as a friend and a follower of President Roosevelt and the promise was made by them that he could be relied upon to support the policies of the president, while the opposition warned the voters that they could not afford to take chances but should vote for a man who was known to stand with Mr. Roosevelt. The wisdom of that advice was clearly demonstrated last week when a decisive vote was taken upon the relief appropriation and the whole recovery program was placed in jeopardy by the adoption of the McCarren amendment in the senate by a vote of 44 to 43. Among those who took a decided stand against the administration and his recovery program was Senator Bronson Cutting.—Lovington Leader.

If The Advocate accepted a fourth of the "canned stuff" reaching the news desk, our readers would have to use a can opener to start reading the paper every week. Would-be poets, news and editorial writers are flooding the mails with various offers to keep the dear public informed, ranging from nursery rhymes to Washington news letters and weighty national issues. One woman in California thinks we should start a poet's corner and offers to supply us with enough poetry to run a month absolutely free. Another congressman from California wants to furnish us with a low down on what the national congress is doing. This fellow who is sponsoring the Townsend old age pension probably hopes to establish an income outside of the salary the government pays him. Another editorial writer has some highly recommended home town editorials that the editor only needs to insert the name of his town and so on it goes.

While New Mexico does nothing to connect the Lea county oil fields with a paved road, west Texas towns are working and planning and getting road connections with southeastern Lea county. Not only Midland, but Pecos, Texas, is now bidding for the oil trade that belongs in New Mexico. The state may get around to locking the proverbial stable within the next few years, but we would suggest that it first take a peep to see if the horse is there.

What price are you willing to pay for social security as inaugurated by the government? The federal, state and local governmental expenses are five times as great as they were before the World War. The prices received by the farmers are two percent above the 1910-1914 level and the wages received by the industrial workers are but twenty-one percent above the same level.

Cuts $92,000 From Appropriation Bill

SANTA FE—Gov. Clyde Tingley, after cutting some $92,000 from the biennial appropriations bill, signed the measure Saturday as one of the last which will have his approval.

The bill calls for the expenditure of $53,033,507, an increase of $332,547 over two years ago.

He also signed bills for the appropriation of $15,000 for improvement of the middle Rio Grande, setting up of a bureau of criminal identification, permitting conservancy districts to issue refunding bonds, enacting a uniform narcotics law, regulating dealers in motor fuel and creating a new election code.

MANN DRUG CO.

Chislings

Forty years ago or less "Peck's Bad Boy" was a book taboed in the best society. You may have read "Peck's Bad Boy" but we'll venture the assertion that you never read anything about the boy after he grew up. If living, the boy as a man today would probably be dependent on the FERA or the PWA or some other governmental agency. In this he would be joined by the so-called bright boy of thirty years ago who used to sit on the front steps of the country store on Saturday afternoons and try to make witty remarks about someone.

We believe it was Babson who said that only three percent of the people in any community are classed as community leaders; those who do their own thinking. We have recently heard of some people who were supposed to be intelligent and who not only were willing to let someone else do their own thinking, but their own reading as well and who would repeat what somebody else was supposed to have read in their own home paper. It's bad enough to let the other fellow do your thinking for you, but for goodness sake, have energy enough to do your own reading and maybe increase your chances of getting the facts as they are presented.

We have at last found a real weather prophet. This man, T. J. Berry of Hope, has established a real reputation in the face of jeers and skepticism. If you don't want to lose your money, don't bet that he can't forecast the weather in the future. During the course of his predictions he has won three watermelons from Preston Dunn. Ask him how he does it and he'll tell you he does not read an almanac, but studies the moon and the stars. If the moon does not shine he gets up during the early morning. He is one hundred percent successful on his two public predictions here. On February 22nd he predicted snow or rain within three days and snow fell on the night of the 24th. On last Friday he said we would have a change of weather before Saturday night and that the weather would probably be cloudy and he was right.

"Well, what are your views on matrimony—now that you have been married a week?" a friend asked of the happy groom. The happy groom responded, "I've got far enough to discover that it is much easier to follow a woman than it is to lead her."

"Doctor," said the sick man, "the other doctors seem to differ from you in their diagnosis of my case." "I know," replied the medical man cheerfully, "but the post-mortem will show which of us is right."

Woman on crowded car said to friend, "Wish that good-looking man would get up and give me his seat." Ten men fell out of their seats.

It is rumored that the Dionnes, parents of the famous quintuplets, have started divorce proceedings. Or rather Papa Dionne has. He is alleged to have charged his wife with being overbearing. And this is one charge that has never been made in all of the Hollywood divorce proceedings.

Programs Helping Farmers-Stockmen

Agricultural and business leaders of New Mexico fully realize that the agricultural adjustment programs have been of great benefit to the farmers and stockmen of the state, according to R. R. Will, assistant director, adjustment programs, State College, New Mexico, who has recently contacted representative citizens in many New Mexico counties.

Not only have the various crop and livestock programs been instrumental in raising the prices of agricultural products, but many producers have benefited under the crop insurance features. Extreme drought during 1934 wiped out a large part of the state's agricultural production and unfortunate farmers in the areas affected have secured benefit payments under their adjustment contracts which represented, in many instances, the chief source of farm income.

It is generally realized that with the return of normal moisture conditions and good crops, the control of production will be necessary in order to prevent surplus production which, many times in the past, has depressed prices and lowered farm income.

In many counties of the state, county treasurers report that benefit payments to farmers and stockmen under AAA programs have had a material effect upon the current percentage of tax collections. Many farmers would have been unable to pay their taxes had it not been for the income received from their benefit payments. Business men report that business conditions have been greatly strengthened because farmers have been able to buy needed supplies with their benefit checks.

An increase of respect for the soundness of the agricultural adjustment programs is apparent among the people of the state. A year ago it was the general inclination to regard them as emergency measures necessary for the time being only. There seems to be a growing belief that the principles back of agricultural adjustment are sound and that they should be incorporated in some kind of a permanent program.

Market meat for breakfast. It was right in the big middle of the sand storm as the preacher was struggling to make himself heard. Ed dreamed that the devil was driving him down a dark corridor with a wicked pitch fork and just as the devil started to drive the fork in his body, out came a window pane with a loud crash. And did Ed jump? Some say he cleared three benches, starting from a sitting posture, a local record never before equaled.

A story comes to light on Bunny Flint. When Bunny was federal feed and seed loan inspector a farmer wanted a loan, saying he wanted to buy shorts for his hogs. "Nothing doing," says Bunny. "If I make you this loan, the next thing you'll want to borrow money to buy your cows brassieres."

Perl Morris tells the best one on the sand storm Sunday. Perl was standing near a tin roof building when the sky suddenly darkened and he thought it began to hail. The noise was almost deafening for a short time. On examination he found it wasn't hailing, but sheep manure was blowing in from a neighbor's yard.

CAVE TRAVEL CONTINUES TO BREAK OLD RECORDS
The travel to the Carlsbad Caverns continues to break all previous records. There were 2,735 visitors during the month of February 1935 from forty-six states and twelve foreign countries. 17,600,000 Men Last Month On Payroll Of the Government

WASHINGTON—Although the exact information was unavailable, estimates in government quarters Saturday indicated that persons on federal payrolls last month or who had received payments by virtue of the FERA, AAA and PWA laws exceeded 17,600,000.

These figures included those who received direct or work relief payments, but not their dependents. The relief administration has estimated that 20,000,000 are dependent upon it.

Half a dozen departments had the payroll data in part, and none was in position to put it together to the satisfaction of all the others.

Compilation of figures at the relief administration, labor department and the civilian conservation corps showed checks went last month to 6,253,419 persons, as follows:

Work relief 2,250,000.
Direct relief 2,750,000.
Regular payrolls 954,719.
CCC 398,700.

Addition, the agricultural adjustment administration had dispatched 11,075,107 checks to date, the public works administration estimated 305,000 were employed at the sites of PWA projects in January and a government estimate of those employed then on projects resulting from direct congressional appropriation was 12,000. While those on PWA projects were not paid by the government, their wages were from the treasury—at least in part.

These latter figures totaled 11,392,107, which added to the 6,253,419 figure for a grand total of 17,645,526.

March Issue Of State Magazine Is Very Interesting

Four writers who have won a national audience enliven the pages of New Mexico Magazine for March, just published.

Kyle Crichton, formerly of Albuquerque and now on the staff of Collier's, The National Weekly, contributes "Lament of La Bajada," a sparkling story in humorous vein.

Earl W. Scott, master writer of mystery material, presents "The Lost Road," a short-story, new in type to New Mexico Magazine.

Under the title "The Kid Still Rides," Eugene Cunningham offers an arresting article on New Mexico's most famous bad boy, Billy the Kid.

S. Omar Barker, long a favorite of New Mexico Magazine readers, returns to its pages with a feature that leaves a laugh with every line, "Practically A Pal To the Squirrels."

How cowboy songs originated is told by Jules Verne Allen under the title, "Singin' Along;" in "Ghosts Walk in Georgetown." Alfred Roos reveals the evolution of ghost mining towns; Carl Livingston unfolds the story of McKittrick Canyon; while "New Mexico Santos" by Gilberto Espinosa and "Lump of Gold" by Hugh Bryan round out as varied an offering as the magazine has made in many a day. These, with the seven established departmental features and a wealth of pictorial material, make the March issue one that explains why the state magazine of national interest has added more than 1,900 new subscribers since December 1.

The Federal Work Relief Measure Is Passed By Senate

WASHINGTON—After rejecting the McCarran prevailing wage amendment and two moves to slash the big fund, the senate appropriations committee Tuesday gave quick re-approval to the administration's $4,880,000,000 work-relief bill.

Concessions were made by administration leaders, however, and despite these a new floor fight on the prevailing wage amendment was in prospect.

Chairman Glass of the committee had approved, on behalf of the administration, an amendment earmarking the $4,000,000,000 works fund, splitting it up to provide for eight different classes of projects, but with authority to transfer up to 20 per cent of the total fund from one class to another, if the president found it advisable. This was the first concession but it left the president with flexible powers over $800,000,000.

In a second concession, the administration group agreed to eliminate much of the bill's preamble describing the broad purposes of the measure.

Eight Types Projects
The allocations were:
Highway, street grade crossing, $800,000,000.
Rural rehabilitation and relief in stricken agricultural areas, $500,000,000.
Rural electrification $100,000,000.
Housing $450,000,000.
Projects for professional and clerical persons, $300,000,000.
Civilian conservation corps, $600,000,000.
Public projects of states or political subdivisions $900,000,000.
Sanitation, prevention of soil erosion, reforestation, forestation, flood relief and miscellaneous projects $350,000,000.

300 LIQUOR CASES

SANTA FE—U. S. District Judge Colin Neblett Monday reminded a grand jury, which started work, that the government refuses to give "whiskey money" to Indians. The judge said he is opposed to giving Indians money to buy whiskey to get evidence in liquor cases.

The grand jury was sworn in with L. E. Ruffin of Albuquerque as foreman and began Monday what may be a two-weeks session. It was estimated there are 200 liquor to Indian sales cases, and 100 other cases. Some 500 witnesses are expected here during the next fortnight to appear before the grand jury.

NORTHERN DIVISION N. O. P. H. N. ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETS

The northern division of the N. O. P. H. N. advisory committee met at the Central school building Tuesday afternoon. Representatives were present from Hope, Artesia and Atoka.

Mrs. Frank Wilson, president, presided. Mrs. Edith Hardy of Carlsbad, county health nurse, gave her narrative report for February, emphasizing the work in the northern part of the county and the Artesia community. Dr. O. E. Puckett, county health officer, who is recovering from pneumonia, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Wilson, the president, gave a summary of the 8th biennial report of the State Bureau of Public Health which has been recently sent out. The following statistics were given in the summary: Dr. Rosslyn Earp, director of Public Health, stated that New Mexico still ranks very high in infant mortality. However, the death rate has declined since 1930. The health survey held last year showed that there are 10,000 or more cases of tuberculosis and 21,000 cases of syphilis in the state with only 1,000 of the syphilis cases under treatment. New Mexico heads the list of states in the death rate from diarrhea, it was found that three-fourths of the population of the state use privies for human waste disposal and less than 10 per cent of these are fly proof.

The report further showed that three sanitary engineers and a supervising nurse have been added by the U. S. Public Health Service. In the report of Dr. C. H. Douthit, director of county health work, he reported six counties in the state have full-time health officers, the other twenty-five counties have part-time health officers. His report on communicable diseases shows a great work has been done, with much more to be done.

Miss M. Greenfield of the Public Health Laboratory, reported an over-crowded condition in her department.

Miss Eleanor Kennedy, R. N., reported on the nursing service. The report stated that all but two of the thirty-one counties of the state are employing a public health nurse and some counties have more than one, making a total of 37 nurses employed in the state work at the present time.

Paul S. Fox of the department of sanitary engineering and sanitation gave in this report an interesting resume on water supply, sewage, milk activities and malaria control.

In the report Miss Milly Tober stated that there has been better birth reporting this year, due to the slips which were sent out last year. These were enclosed with the license certificates. Miss Tober has charge of the bookkeeping department.

The reports sent out from the state department of health were very cleverly gotten up and printed in both English and Spanish.

Corbin, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred Cole, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. C. Martin, treasurer; Mrs. G. R. Brainard, chaplain, and Mrs. Leslie Martin, guard. Mmes. Miss Alice Moore was the honoree guest at a surprise pre-nuptial shower given for her by Mrs. Roy Langston and Mrs. Connelly Baldwin at the home of Mrs. Hugh Burch Tuesday afternoon. Miss Moore will become the bride of Mr. Lynn Buford on March 17th.

There was no doubt of the affair being a complete surprise when she was ushered in before the assembled guests.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, with Mrs. J. K. Wallingford presiding at the coffee service at one end of the dining table, adorned with a beautiful hand-made lace cloth and Miss Moore, cutting the wedding cake, which was beautifully decorated and topped with miniature bride and groom, at the other end of the table.

McMILLAN TO HAVE PLANTING OF 40,000 BASS

Scientific Plan of Planting Fish to be Adopted by State Department; Fish to be Taken From the Dexter Hatchery.

An equitable and scientific planting of fish in the warm waters of New Mexico is the plan of the state game and fish department for this year, according to an announcement made by Elliott S. Barker, state game and fish warden, who last week spent several days in the Pecos valley.

The right species of fish in the proper waters is to be the program of the department, Barker said. The cold water hatcheries of New Mexico have for many years been on a budget basis. At the beginning of each production season the state has estimated how many fish the various hatcheries will produce and then has allocated those fish to various public waters where they are best adapted.

The fish for stocking of various public warm waters of New Mexico will be taken from the federal fish hatchery at Dexter, it was announced. The bass production from this hatchery this year is estimated at 600,000 and under present plans of the state game department 500,000 of these bass will be planted in 130 waters of New Mexico. These waters will not include several private waters.

The allocation by species from the Dexter hatchery during the year 1935 is as follows: Black bass 500,000; bream 120,000; crappie 18,000; catfish 40,000.

This makes a total of 678,000 fish which will be planted in the various warm waters of the state. Barker highly praised the work of T. F. Nelson, superintendent of the Dexter hatchery, and said that the state game and fish department had always had the greatest support from Nelson.

It was also announced that the heaviest bass planting in the state this year would be at Elephant Butte lake and Lake McMillan, the former being allocated 100,000 bass and the latter 40,000.

THE CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY 613 W. Main Street

10:15 a. m. Sunday school. 11:00 a. m. Sunday services. "Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 10th. The golden text is: "The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way." (Ps. 37:23).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile." (1 Pet. 3:10). The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Life is eternal. We should find this out, and begin the demonstration thereof. Life and goodness are immortal. Let us then shape our views of existence into loveliness, freshness and continuity, rather than into age and blight."

CHURCH OF CHRIST Corner 7th and Grand Ave. A. G. Hobbs, Jr., Local Evangelist.

The meeting is still in progress with the interest and attendance growing. All are invited to attend. If you have not been coming, it is not too late to begin now. Bring your friends and come; also bring a pencil and paper if you would like to take Bible references. We are going to be judged by the word in the last day (Jno. 12:48); therefore, we should study it diligently and live by it daily. "Blessed are they that do His commandments that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." (Rev. 22:14).

4,000 MAYTAGS GO TO COAST

NEWTON, Iowa—(Special)—Officials of the Maytag Company recently announced the shipment of a trainload of washing machines to dealers in the Pacific coast states. The train consisted of forty-four carloads containing more than 4,000 Maytag washers, valued at nearly one-half of a million dollars. This is the largest single shipment from the Maytag factory since 1928.

In commenting on this trainload shipment, F. L. Maytag, chairman of the board of The Maytag Company, stated that the order for the trainload was placed by T. A. Moler, president of the Maytag Pacific-Intermountain Company, distributors, with headquarters at Portland, Oregon. Mr. Maytag further stated that improved business conditions and the desire of both dealers and consumers to take advantage of present prices had increased demand to the point where a trainload shipment was needed to take care of dealers' immediate needs.

Included in the train were approximately 1,000 washers for California dealers. The train will proceed as a unit to Salt Lake City from which point distribution of the cars will be made to dealers.

CHECK YOUR CHILDREN'S EYESIGHT BY THE 14-INCH RULE Watch your children while they read or study in the evening. If they hold their books closer than fourteen inches from their eyes, it is a danger sign, a warning that vision is hampered. The reason is obvious. Ordinary type is designed to be read at a distance of fourteen inches, the normal reading distance. When light is inadequate, however, it becomes more difficult to see clearly at this distance, and the eyes may be permanently injured. The remedy is better lighting. It costs but a few pennies a month... and may save many dollars in opticians' bills.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. BELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education

Snow and Ice Play

Schools located in the snow and ice regions of the country are fortunate. Materials for building and sculpturing piled up at the door, and how young children like to work out ideas with their hands!

The impulse is inherited of course, and is therefore significant in education. The urge to create something is powerful. From such little beginnings come bridge builders and sculptors. We should recognize in this desire to construct, our opportunities for bringing out the artistic, for encouraging children to work out their thoughts, and to strive for the best result. It is a case where the imagination can end in actual accomplishment.

For the older children, there is no better health-building exercise than good outdoor ice skating, snow-shoeing, skiing, and tobogganing. These are social occasions too, when the whole group feels the spirit of fun. How well many of us can remember! But there is more to this educational opportunity. Remember the wet clothes and cold feet? Remember the appetite—how good a glass of warm milk tasted, and how well we slept? I'm trying to point out a duty to both teacher and parent.

Encourage these sports, not alone for the wonderful exercise and fun, but that you may teach a little more purposefully the correct diet for that appetite, the hours of sleep needed, the importance of changing into dry clothes, the prevention of frostbite, the pleasant sensation of a good bath and rub down, and how clean and interesting outdoor sports may be.

Attack the Home

The home is the citadel of vice. The forces of vice in the city streets are hotly contested. We have established juvenile courts and reform schools, play grounds have been built, recreation organized. There are Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Boy Builders and Big Brothers. At school we have medical examinations and clinics for corrective work. We provide hot lunches and social ideals.

The homes from which these children come are private, but some of them have recently come under the scrutiny of the U. S. Public Health Service at the request of the Housing Division of the Public Works Administration. "A third of our population" it is found, "lives in structures unfit for human habitation." Contributing to the higher sickness and mortality rates in these unfit homes are impure water supply, insanitary toilets, overcrowding, lack of light, lack of adequate ventilation, excessive dampness, dilapidation and lack of screening against flies and mosquitoes.

American homes have supplied to the school system in recent years 15,000 children who are blind, and over 50,000 more whose sight is so poor that they should be in special classes; 340,000 whose hearing is impaired to such an extent that they should be taught lip reading; 300,000 cripples; about a million children with speech defects that need treatment and so on. Many many children do not survive to school age. In New Mexico more than 10 per cent succumb before they have lived in the home for a year.

One sixth of our homes are wrecked by divorce. How many more founder because of death, desertion, or invalidity of the bread winner we do not know.

More fatal accidents occur at home than in automobiles. In 1934 there were 369 fatal accidents in New Mexico. Of these 124 were due to automobiles, 140 happened in the home.

It is unsafe to be drunk and disorderly in the streets. In the home where only the children can see what happens to your wife, or your wife can see what happens to the children it is much safer. Why? The home is private.

Is it not time for action? Not as critics and inquisitors, but as friends and neighbors—aiming not to destroy but to rebuild—we must attack the home.

Roswell Meeting 25-26 Is Important To Local Stockmen

ALBUQUERQUE—With a number of the most vital problems the livestock industry has ever faced coming up for discussion at the annual joint convention of the two state associations in Roswell March 25-26, presidents of both organizations are urging the fullest possible attendance.

Because of many common problems the state Woolgrowers Association and the state Cattlegrowers Association will meet jointly.

President Floyd Lee of the former group and President Lee S. Evans of the latter association have issued an urgent call to all members of both bodies to make every possible effort to attend the Roswell meeting. They believe that the benefit the individual member will receive will compensate him richly for the expense of attending.

The new grazing districts being established under the recently enacted Taylor grazing law will provide one of the principal topics of discussion. The federal government is embarking on a radically new policy of public domain administration, and livestock leaders point out the necessity of being fully informed on this vital matter.

Direct marketing, federal loans, freight and trucking rates, Forest Service regulations and fees and tariff recommendations will all be gone into extensively at the meeting.

California Doctor Declares The Early Stage Cancer Is Curable

SACRAMENTO, California—Cancer, even in its advanced stages, is an arrestable disease, Dr. Charles A. Dukes of Oakland, president of the American College of Surgeons, said here Sunday in a bulletin published by the State Health Department.

Dr. Dukes said, however, there were but three reliable ways to treat the malignant disease—by X-ray, radium and the surgical knife.

"There are no secret cancer cures, no serums nor injections of value," he added.

"Cancer is a disease, personal to the individual who has it, and cannot be transmitted in any known way to another person," Dr. Dukes went on.

"Even if you have neglected treatment until the disease is well advanced, still it may be arrested. More than 1,000 advanced cases in one clinic, were treated during the past three years and definite arrestment was reported in more than 800 cases.

"This, and the reports from many other such clinics, warrant us in saying that advanced cancer is an arrestable disease.

"In the early stages, the cure of cancer rests largely with the individual. Prompt and adequate surgical attention is the very best insurance for the cure and against the spread of the disease.

"The medical profession has long preached the gospel of early treatment, but in spite of this, thousands have died through delay, or recourse to quacks, or self-medication."

Dr. Dukes said the reason there is so much pessimism and fear about cancer is that because until recent years, early diagnosis of cancer was rarely made and the disease was usually so far advanced before the patients sought treatment that nearly all of them died.

Eddy County Farm News

The rural planning committee met twice during the past week and approved the renting of three farms and the assistance of four other clients who have rented land. Only one farm has been offered for rent in the Artesia section. Budgets for the county were approved and sent to the Santa Fe office for both March and April. As soon as the approval is received work in allotting the land to individual clients will be completed.

H. C. Stewart, extension horticulturist, arrived in the county Tuesday and is holding a series of landscape demonstrations at the various Women's clubs. Through the cooperation of the Atoka Women's club a meeting was held at Artesia on Tuesday afternoon at the Artesia Women's club. Wednesday a meeting was held at the Black River Women's club at the home of Mrs. H. Ussery. Thursday a meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Terry, the Cottonwood Women's club, and Friday the Otis Woman's club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. K. McCall.

The landscape demonstration held Tuesday at the Women's club building at Artesia was well attended by representatives from both the Atoka and Artesia Women's clubs. Mr. Stewart gave an interesting demonstration on the general plans of outlining plantings of the yard both for the city and rural homes. Mr. Stewart stressed the point that the lawns were the most important part of the landscape and suggested that lawns be well fertilized and properly irrigated. He discouraged the old theory that light sprinkling would cause the roots to seek deeper moisture in the soil and recommended the practice of heavy sprinkling or flooding of the lawns at least two or three times a month. He outlined the varieties and kinds of trees and shrubbery that might be used in this locality. He demonstrated the complete plantings of the yard on a miniature scale, using a sand table, shrubbery and trees. He outlined one demonstration that was the wrong method to use and made changes showing the possibilities by using the same shrubbery, but putting them in different locations. Detailed instructions in printed form were distributed to all of the women.

Parties
In large sections of the country February is the "party month." It is because many states observe Washington's birthday and Lincoln's birthday, and always there is St. Valentine's Day.

I like to think of them educationally, for they do represent opportunities. In the first place, the party itself is an educative situation, since after all education is the acquisition of experiences. In turn, party experiences lead to habits, attitudes, and knowledges.
But the kind and influence of the experiences depends a lot upon the adults behind the scenes. There are the little deceencies and etiquette of behavior. To feel at ease at mixed social affairs is a blessing many times in life. The party offers the chance to give that feeling to children at an early age. Through games and stunts we can help build an attitude toward sportsmanship. We can make fun the primary object of playing. If we're very wise we can do more for the self-conscious, shy, retiring child than by any other means at our disposal.
The "eats" are always important of course. While we shouldn't talk health diets at parties, we can discover attractive and tasty combinations of fruits, custards, ice cream, and cakes. For beverages, fruit punches and iced chocolate milk drinks can't be beat. A pure sweet at the end is never objectionable. Finally, we can, as sponsors, observe the bedtime rule in the case of evening parties.
