Lubbock Doctor, Counselor Speak To Local PTA

A YACHT IN MULESHOE--That's right! This 66-foot long, 24-foot high yacht traveled through Muleshoe just after 8 a.m. Sunday. After clearing the crossroads, the yacht continued south on 214 and here has a traffic light bent upward as it passes. The yacht was being hauled down Highway 214 enroute to Houston, and the movers decided to take a slower day, and early, to move the yacht. Bill Ellis of Friona Star, said the yacht had cleared Friona shortly before 7:30 a.m. Sunday.

Monday night, the Muleshoe PTA had an added emphasis to 'Drug Awareness Week' being conducted at all four campuses of the Muleshoe Independent

Kerry Moore Noon Speaker For Rotarians

Tuesday at noon, Kerry Moore, Texas' 'Speech Teacher of the Year' was special guest speaker for the Muleshoe Rotary Club.

Moore, who spent 17 years as a member of the Rotary, brought the Rotarians up-to-date on what was going on in the popular department he heads up at Muleshoe High School.

He was asked how he was nominated and chosen for the honor he received last month and he said he was nominated by District XVII, District XVI and many colleges and universities for the honor.

The decision was made by 1,000 of his peers, and he was chosen over 4A and 5A schools from across the state for the honor.

He commented, "The key thing, I believe, for me to receive the honor, is my membership in professional organizations. I have been involved with the United Fund; the BAC (formerly Business Activities Committee); Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce; my church; and the Muleshoe Rotary Club before I had conflicts of scheduling at the school.

"The other candidates did not have community activities. Rotary had a great deal to do with me receiving the award," he added.

Moore spoke about the challenges facing the students, and the instructors.

"Every year you have a

School District, when they hosted two Lubbock speakers during a meeting.

Dr. Kitty Harris, from Charter Plains Hospital in Lubbock and Mollie Torrens, counselor for the Lubbock Schools, both spoke during the meeting to parents, teachers, school board members and students.

Preceding the discussion by the Lubbock visitors, PTA president Kay Graves conducted a business meeting and students from DeShazo Elementary presented four skits, all dealing with 'Just Say No' to drugs.

The imaginative play of an outstanding presentation of each of the skits.

Dr. Harris commented, "The kids did a good job! It was almost too realistic!"

Ms. Torrens said, "At one time, it was thought that drugs only affected a certain group of kids.

"We have now dipped that by proving that drug abuse affects all youth, in all walks of life. There is no set pattern. It (drugs) affects everybody."

She said kids of today have pressures that did not affect the older generations, and find it harder to cope with the pressure of today's living.

"It's hard for adults to realize the difference in how kids are growing up now. And, suggests that parents learn more by asking more questions.

Ms. Torrens said adults need to educate themselves about drugs, and the danger of drugs. She says they should watch for early warning signs, such as changes in the 'mode of living' for their own youngster.

"Scare tactics don't work," she emphasized. "Some 83 percent of students today have at least experimented with alcohol or other drugs."

Dr. Harris went into the reasons that youth use alcohol and drugs.

This included peer pressure,

Smiling farmers welcomed the first hard freeze for 1987 on both Tuesday morning and Wednesday mornings.

Tuesday morning, November 10, the temperature dipped to a bone chilling 17 degrees. This was followed by a low of 19 degrees on Wednesday morning, November 11.

Cotton harvest in full swing was expected to follow shortly behind the freezing temperatures.

Basketball season tickets for adults and students are now on sale in the business office of Muleshoe ISD, 514 West Ave. G.

Tickets are $7.50 for students and $15 for adults.

These tickets will enable the holder entrance to all home basketball games for junior high and high school, with it being a tremendous savings for those planning to attend several games.

Muleshoe Mules Close '87 Season; 5-5 Record

It's all over this year for the Mules, and they ended the season on an 'upbeat' 5-5 record, and lots of experience.

During the year, the Mules gained a reputation as an aggressive, defensive team -- who allowed very few points to be scored.

Even with ten games behind them, the Mules ended up with 221 points to their opposition's total 170 points. Not bad for a team restructuring and learning new tactics.

Injuries plagued the team from before the season, but the players who went uninjured, or recovered from injuries are to be commended for their 'stick-to-it' attitude and continued to play just as hard as they could.

Muleshoe had the edge on rushing with 437 rushes for 2,024 yards, while holding their opponents to 370 rushes for 1,205 yards. In passing, the Mules completed 43-156 for 627 yards; while their opposition completed 48-132 for 694 yards.

Muleshoe punted 42 times for 1,309 yards and their opponents punted 53 times for 1,741 yards.

In first downs, the Mules had 137, with 106 being through rushing; 22 passing and nine through penalties. Their opponents had 110 first downs, 74 through rushing; 27 passing and nine through penalties.

For penalty yardage, the Mules show 57-572 yards to 56-512 yards for the opposition. And, the Mules lost 10 fumbles during the year, while their opponents lost 11.

In rushing, Michael Dunham carried 134 times for 656 yards; Armando Del Toro had 610 yards from his 129 carries; Daniel Olivas showed 87 carries for 510 yards; Shannon Simnacher carried 25 times for 108 yards; Jerry Mendoza, 13 times for 69 yards; Jeff Hicks, 26 times for 27 yards; Johnny Garcia, 16 times for 26 yards; Timmy Shipman, six times for 18 yards and Ronnie Perez carried one time.

Passing were Johnny Garcia, 19-80 for 318 yards, and intercepted six times; Jeff Hicks, 21-68 for 288 yards and intercepted five times; and Ronnie Perez, three for eight for 21 yards and no interceptions.

Daniel Olivas had 15 receptions for 255 yards; Estevan Sandeval, eight times for 112 yards; Jerry Mendoza, four times for 57 yards; Sergio Gonzalez, four times for 53 yards; Miguel Sanchez, four times for 40 yards; Armando Del Toro, three times for 29 yards; Michael Dunham, three times for 40 yards; Ramon Garcia, three times for 31 yards; Timmy Shipman, two times for 19 yards.

Daniel Olivas had 10 TDs and six extra points for 66 points; Michael Dunham, eight touchdowns and 1 extra point try for 50 points; Armando Del Toro, seven TDs for 42 points; Ronnie Perez, 21 points in PAT kicks; Jeff Hicks, two touchdowns for 12 points; Sergio Gonzalez, two TDs for 12 points; Jerry Mendoza, one TD for six points; and Shannon Simnacher, one touchdown for six points. Miguel Sanchez, Jaime Olivarez and Russel Brown each had a safety for two points.

This year, the Muleshoe Mules provided excitement and entertainment for the hometown people, fellow students and supporters. Next year, they should again be providing the 'very best' in Friday night entertainment.

Dutch LaRue Wins First Place For This Week

In the tenth week of the annual Merchant's Football Contest, C.O. LaRue, by virtue of using the tiebreaker scores, was the first place winner.

Upsets and ties really threw the contestants this week for a loop. Five persons missed seven games, including the top three winners.

LaRue, who missed seven games, was only 20 points off on the double tiebreakers.

Donnie McDonald, second place winner, missed seven games, and was 25 points off on the tiebreakers; and third place winner Keith Hicks, was 26 points wrong on the tiebreakers.

Also missing seven games, and their tiebreakers were J.E. McVicker, 27 points and John Graves, 34 points.

Kansas State and Kansas battled to a 17-17 tie, and Texas Tech narrowly edged out TCU, 36-35 for the tiebreakers in the contest.

Only one contestant predicted the defeat of Littlefield by Tulia, but unfortunately, the contestant failed to make the top three winners.

In the other games, it was (Washington)/ Arizona) Brigham Young/ (San Diego State); (Tulane)/ Mississippi State; Floydada (tie) Friona; (Texas El Paso)/ Utah; (Arizona State) /Oregon; (Southern Cal)/ Stanford; (Pittsburgh)/ Rutgers; LSU/ (Alabama); Kent State/ (Bowling Green); (Florida State) / Auburn; (Muleshoe)/ Dimmitt; Florida/ (Georgia); (East Carolina)/ Temple; Duke / (Wake Forest); (Colorado) / Missouri; and (Clemson)/ North Carolina.

There are three more weeks in this years contest. You still have time to become the grand prize winner -- so get those entries in.

MHS Mighty 'M' Band Strives For Excellence

Each year the Mighty "M" Band strives for excellence. What helps them to achieve this excellence is hard work and determination. Being in band is an excellent opportunity for students to set goals and work toward them.

The band participated lately in the Texas Tech Marching Festival in which they received a Division II rating. A week following the festival the Mighty "M" Flag Corps participated in a flag contest at Coronado High School. They also received a Division II rating.

After receiving the two scores, the band members showed their willingness to do better by having marching rehearsal at 7:45 AM also by having night rehearsals.

Two weeks after the Tech Festival, the band competed in Planning Ahead For Future

Getting senior students to plan ahead for their future education was the theme of the program Mrs. Marr presented to each of the Government classes recently.

The seniors were given information in the following areas:

Admission and Housing Information

Students should start the admission process now for the college or colleges they are interested in attending next year. Students were encouraged to write each school and request an admission packet and housing information. Mrs. Marr distributed a "sample letter" the students could use to make these requests. Although most colleges and universities will not complete the student admission process until graduation, students should start the procedure immediately. The deadline dates for acceptance differ from school to school and to insure that a student will be able to make the admission deadline requires immediate attention.

Financial Aid and Scholarships

Each senior student received a copy of Need a Lift? Educational Opportunities, Careers, Loans, Scholarships, Employment. This book provides information on a multitude of scholarship money available to qualifying students. Students also received a copy of a sample letter to use when writing for information concerning departmental scholarships at different universities/Schools.

The federal financial aid program was explained, briefly to the students. Each student received a booklet entitled, "Power of Choice" which further explained this program. The key to financial aid is "to remember that scholarships and grants are often awarded on a first-come, first-served basis to those who qualify. Therefore, it is important to begin application early in your senior year." The financial aid forms for the 1988-89 school year can't be mailed until January 1, 1988. The new forms are not in the counselor's office yet but should arrive soon. Students may pick them up as soon as they arrive.

The booklet "Talbot's Student Planning Book" was distributed to the students. This contains various articles on planning for higher education and also includes a personal planning section.

To assist students in finding out deadline dates for admission, financial aid, and other relevant information, a college profile sheet was provided to each of them. This included information on area colleges, their entrance requirements, financial aid and admission deadline dates. It also included the name of a contact person on each campus for additional information.

According to Linda Marr, this senior class has been "on the ball" in requesting assistance with information concerning their future. They are asking questions early and planning ahead which will be to their benefit next year.

Parents that have questions concerning any of the information their student received are encouraged to contact Linda Marr at Muleshoe High School.

The District competition and received a Division I rating for their performance and placed first runner-up out of the thirteen bands competing. Going up an entire division in only two weeks shows what hard work and determination can do.

The 1987-88 Band Officers are: President-Brandon Carpenter, Vice-President-Christy Mata, Secretary-Kelly Conklin, Chaplain-Elizabeth Posadas, Historian-Ramon Garcia, Librarian-Rachel Pineda, Senior Representative-Greg Garcia, Junior Representative - Jimmy Cisneros, Sophomore Representative-Michelle Finney, Freshman Representative - Marsha Williams. These students were elected by their fellow classmates for their leadership and responsibility in performing their duties.

Three interesting topics will be featured on "Creative Living" on Saturday, November 14 at 2:00 pm on KENW-TV. (All times are Mountain).

If you are a home sewer, you know that buttons are one of the last things to sew, but one of the first things to think about. Buttons were originally thought of as being only functional, but over time they became decorative as well. Eloise Wagers, Sales Manager for JHB International, Denver, CO. will tell us how buttons and all other notions should be an integral part of a garment's design -- not an afterthought. She will share with us some new ideas for using buttons.

Another guest will be Teresa Farney, Director of Consumer Affairs for the National Turkey Federation, Reston, VA. She will prepare Turkey Wellington, and elegant and versatile turkey entree that is also nutritious and easy to prepare.

Janet Wood will be the first guest, and she will share some information on selecting and fitting patterns for making little girl's frilly dresses. Janet will show how to measure a child and then explain how to determine the correct size pattern to use. Janet is from Riverside, CA.

Janet Schirn, past president of the American Society of Interior Designers will explain how consumers should go about selecting and working with an interior designer. She will also explain how the design process works. Janet is also from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Farmer of Woodrow, formerly of Muleshoe, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kimberly Ann Farmer to Allen Loyd Bownds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Bownds of Shallowater.

Vows will be exchanged on Friday, December 11 in the Cooper United Methodist Church.

Miss Farmer graduated with honors from Muleshoe High School, in 1983, where she was active in FFA, Flag Corps and a number of other activities. She is employed at Coca Cola in Lubbock in the data processing department.

Bownds is a 1983, graduate of Shallowater High School and is self-employed as a brick mason.

Following their marriage, the couple will reside in Shallowater.

discuss colon cancer and tell how to treat it. Stefen is from Emmaus, PA.

Three additional topics will be featured on "Creative Living" on Thursday, November 12 at 12 noon. About 15 years ago, American housewives wanted to learn to prepare classic French dishes. Then Chinese cooking came along, following by many other ethnic recipes. Today, people are realizing that the traditional cooking of America has a great deal to offer. Lynne Tolley, proprietress of Miss Mary Bobo's Boarding House in Lynchburg, TN will share some of her favorite recipes for southern cooking -- in fact, these are some of the same recipes she serves at the boarding house.

As adults, we may think that only children need to be taught about electrical safety, but that's not true. Vickie Jones, Marketing Home Economist with Southwestern Public Service Co. in Roswell, will share some very interesting basic facts about electricity and electrical safety.

Finally, Jeanne Kohler with the National Dairy Board will demonstrate nacho pie, which is an easy-to-make delicious pizza with a Mexican twist. This recipe is an excellent source of getting additional calcium into the diet, which is especially important for teenage girls.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show airs on more than 100 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, CO. Viewers can request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KENW-TV's toll-free telephone lines between 8 am and 5 pm, Monday through Friday. Discover Buttermilk: Dairy Goodness For Light Eating Buttermilk...don't let the name mislead you. Contrary to what many people believe, a glass of buttermilk is as low in fat and calories and as loaded with calcium as a glass of skim milk.

Surprised? Buttermilk, in its original form, is the liquid left after churning butter. The fat goes into the butter, not the milk. Today's buttermilk is slightly different, though still low in fat. Nowadays it's made by adding a special bacterial culture to milk which produces the characteristic tang.

How high buttermilk stacks up nutritionally depends on the milk on which it's based. In the United States, buttermilk is most often made from skim milk. So, just like an 8-ounce glass of skim milk, a glass of buttermilk provides about a third of an adult's dairy calcium requirement with only 90 calories and less than .5 percent milk fat.

For low-fat drinking, read the carton. The calories and fat increase in buttermilk when low-fat or whole milk is used instead of skim milk. A glass of buttermilk made from low-fat milk has 120 calories (2 percent milk fat); from whole milk, it has about 150 calories (3.25 percent milk fat).

Ingredients are listed on the carton in descending order by weight. If the label says that the buttermilk contains "skim milk, milk and salt," the buttermilk has more skim milk than whole milk. Because it contains some whole milk, however, the fat and calorie levels will be slightly higher than if it has been made from skim milk alone.

Occasionally buttermilk contains flecks of added butter for a churned buttermilk appearance and buttery flavor. Adding these flecks of butter increases the fat content slightly, although it's still generally less than 1 percent milk fat. You can often identify a buttermilk with added butter by the words "contains butter particles" or "churned" on the label.

Five Delicious Ways to Enjoy Buttermilk

Chilled buttermilk is refreshing alone or used in cooking. It has a distinctive tang similar to yogurt and a smooth, thick consistency. Here are just a few ideas for making buttermilk part of your diet.

- Make a refreshing low-fat, low-cal drink by combining buttermilk with juice from oranges, pineapples or tomatoes. Or, make a slush-like drink by combining some buttermilk with frozen peaches, strawberries, raspberries, or bananas in a blender or food processor.

- Buttermilk adds lightness and flavor to pancakes, scones, muffins and cakes. If you're substituting buttermilk for fresh milk in a recipe, use baking soda instead of baking powder. Use 1/2 teaspoon baking soda for every 1/2 cup of buttermilk.

Lazbuddie Young Homemakers

Lazbuddie Young Homemakers held their monthly meeting on Thursday, Nov. 5 in the homemaking department of the school. Kay Hailey was their special speaker.

Mrs. Hailey manages Kay's Crafts located inside Ben Franklins in Muleshoe. She showed a few of the many craft items and kits from within the store. She demonstrated some of the new cloth dyes on a shirt. These dyes can be painted with brushes, sponges, or directly from the applicator bottles. She also took several sweatshirts using other techniques.

The business meeting began with Lana Copp, president, reporting on the October costume contest and the Halloween Carnival which she stated was a success and everyone had a good time.

Other business discussed was the upcoming Book Fair on November 12 and 13 in the school library. With Christmas around the corner, a Book Fair seemed a good way to fill everyone's Christmas list, stated Pat Randolph. The group also planned the annual Homemakers Christmas party for Friday night, Dec. 4 and their children's shopping spree for December 7.

JoAnn McDonald won the door prize and the meeting was closed with refreshments.

"The Homemakers enjoyed having one visitor, Eula Dale." Homemakers attending were: Reta Mimms, Pat Randolph, Lana Copp, Debbie Magby, Mandi Seaton, Lorinda Bodiford, JoAnn McDonald, Tonya Scisson and Barbara Lust, advisor.

It's hard to believe but there are less than 100 days left in 1987.

A little confidence in a person can often produce great results.

Getting an early start is just as important in life as it is in racing.

Moore told the Rotarians how he teaches at West Texas State University in Canyon each summer to keep current on all the changes taking place in debate and other aspects of the speech classes.

This year's debate topic is on "Latin America," and the efforts to stabilize that country.

He praised the students for their use of libraries at colleges and universities such as WTSU at Canyon and Texas Tech in Lubbock.

The speaker also explained the Lincoln-Douglas debates, which deals with 'values' and how the program helps the students.

According to Moore, the number one fear in the world is Giving a Speech. He said that now, with Speech becoming an academic requirement, much of this fear can be abated.

He also said that 106 of the 385-390 students in Muleshoe High School are enrolled in the speech class.

Another aspect Moore discussed was the intensive research that must be done by the students--research which will help them on down the line for such occupations as doctors, or even farmers, who must do intensive research in order to keep up with the world today.

Larry Hall was in charge of obtaining the program for the Tuesday meeting.

Presiding over the business meeting was President Tommy Gunstream.

He said the Rotary Club would be giving an $1,800 37-inch television away on Saturday, December 19. Tickets will be on sale next week at $3 each or two for $5.

He also told the Rotarians to be ready to man a booth at the Arts and Crafts Fair on December 4-5 to sell tickets for the TV.

Paul Poyner was winner of the Polio+ drawing, but it was not announced whether or not he donated his part of the winnings back to the Polio program being conducted this year by Rotary International.

Visitors at the Rotary meeting were Johnnie Actkinson, Billy James, James Hancock, Phil Lemons, Howard Watson and Clea Williams.

Community Thanksgiving To Feature Choir Effort

The Bailey County Ministerial Alliance says it is pleased to announce this year's Community Thanksgiving Service will be on November 22 at 7 p.m. (Pre-Service music begins at 6:40 p.m.).

Services will be hosted by the First United Methodist Church, and Paul Brigham, pastor of the Progress Baptist Church will bring the message.

There will be a reception for everyone attending following the service. The reception will be held in the fellowship hall of the church.

A change for this year is that the musical leaders of some area churches are working to form a community choir for the service. People interested in being a member of this choir should plan on rehearsing November 15, and again on November 22.

Child care will be provided. If you have questions concerning the community choir, please call the Methodist Church office at 272-5517.

The Bailey County Ministerial Alliance made the following statement: "We urge everyone in the community to take part in this worship service. We have much to be thankful for, so let's get together and express praise to our God as a community."

Four SC Teams Vie For Football Title

With only three weeks remaining in the 1987 college football season, the hair is getting painfully short in almost all conference races. Indiana, Michigan State and Ohio State are the front-runners in the Big Ten. Texas, Arkansas, T.C.U. and Texas A&M are fighting for the top spot in the Southwest Conference. U.C.L.A. and Southern California control the Pac-10 while Clemson and North Carolina lead the Atlantic Coast Conference. Who else but Oklahoma and Nebraska sit atop the Big Eight and a host of teams including L.S.U., Auburn, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee dominate the Southeast Conference.

One elimination match-up takes place Saturday in College Station, Texas, where Texas A&M battles Arkansas. The Southwest Conference defending champion Aggies are just slightly favored, but they still must face T.C.U. next week and Texas on Thanksgiving Day. And in Austin, Texas meets T.C.U. The Longhorns should escape.

U.C.L.A. and Southern Cal are home favorites against Washington and Arizona, but the league champion will probably not be known until next week's traditional finale between the Bruins and the Trojans.

There are two possible elimination contests in the Big Ten where Michigan State entertains (?) Indiana and Ohio State hosts Iowa. Michigan, the 1986 league champion, is out of the 1987 title picture, but the Wolverines could have something to say about their successor. The Buckeyes play Michigan in Ann Arbor next week while Indiana meets Purdue. This week's winners: Michigan State and Iowa.

Freshmen End Football Year

In Second Place

In a heartbreaker game last Thursday night, for the district championship, the freshmen Mules lost out to the Dimmitt Bobcats, 28-6

In the first quarter, John Orozco slammed through on a three yard blast to paydirt, and the team held the Dimmitt players scoreless.

Retaliating in the second, the Bobcats scored 14 points; followed by six in the third and eight in the fourth to take the championship.

Coach Andy Gamble's Mules ended the season 5-4, and were 4-1 in district, taking second place.

The coaches and players expressed appreciation for the continued support from parents and fans during the completed football season.

The pleasure of criticism deprives us of that of being deeply moved by beautiful things.

to escape problems, to try to be an adult, and the most important reason of all, "They like the way it makes them feel."

She said if alcohol and drugs did not work, there would be no problem.

The doctor also delved into the ages such abuse starts and says that today, it starts as early as nine years of age.

Alcohol is the most abused drug in the nation today, followed by marihuana and then cocaine, added Dr. Harris.

She also said that cocaine is a very 'scary' drug as anyone can become physically addicted in as short as two weeks time, while it takes up to six months to become physically addicted to alcohol.

She also warned of over-the-counter drugs, such as the inhalants, cough syrup, liquid paper, paint thinner, butane, freon and glue or paint.

Students with good grades, and who actively participate in school and outside activities are not generally involved in drugs, she added.

Dr. Harris also cited statistics involving youth and drugs -- including car wrecks, DWI, dropping out of school, and poor relations with families.

"When they become involved with drugs, kids just stop growing" said the doctor.

She briefly discussed the youth division of Charter Plains Hospital and said they have no empty beds.

Sightseers Get

Warning

From Officers

Bailey County Sheriff Bob Henderson and Muleshoe Police Chief Wayne Holmes have joined together in an effort to try to express their concern about sightseers who are packing emergency sites.

In many instances, such as the Wednesday evening wreck northwest of Muleshoe on a county dirt road, so many sightseers packed the roads around the intersection crash, that emergency vehicles had a difficult time making their way to the wreck to remove the injured.

Fortunately, none of the three victims received serious injuries, but it would have been all the same if they had received critical injuries.

Both the sheriff and chief reminded that stiff penalties can be assessed persons who have no business being at an emergency site, whether it be wreck, fire or otherwise, showing up and impeding any legal emergency vehicle.

They said, "Please stay away from wreck or emergency sites. If this trend continues, law enforcement officers will be instructed to start handing out tickets, or take other measures."

The sheriff and chief, along with the fire chief and director of the Bailey County Ambulance Service also asked that the public please refrain from calling any of the emergency agencies when they hear sirens.

All the agencies are very busy during an emergency, and do not have the time to answer questions to satisfy the curiosity of the general public.

Your telephone call may hinder any given emergency situation.

A good rule of thumb would be, if you hear sirens, or see flashing red or red and blue lights, pull to the far right side of the street or highway, and allow the emergency vehicle or vehicles to pass -- then DON'T follow them. Stay out of their way, they have an emergency function to perform, and are trained to do their job. You will only be in their way.

And, usually, if there is one emergency vehicle, police, ambulance, or fire, there will be others. Keep a watch for them -- it is also illegal to not give way to an emergency vehicle. You may save not only a life -- but keep dollars in your billfold that COULD be spent before the judge as a fine.

DECA-HECE

Hold Meetings

For Projects

The HERO (Home Economic Related Occupations) organization met Tuesday night, November 3, for their installation ceremonies.

Laurie Lindt, president, opened the meeting, spoke to the group and led the ceremonies.

Receiving pins and roses were officers, Laurie Lindt, president; Beth Sanders, first vice president; Catrina Kain, second vice president; Tonya Copley, third vice president; Ruth Riley, secretary/reporter; Mandy Robertson, and Nancy Jaramillo, historian; Roxanne Richards, parliamentarian.

Certificates were presented parents who helped with the HERO pre-game dinner.

HECE class members conducted a Morning Meeting to discuss the Christmas float, a pizza party and the installation of officers.

A pizza party was held to discuss Money Making projects. HECE members began a project which ended Wednesday, November 11, according to reporter, Ruth Riley.

KNOW THE WEATHER

Why does cold weather sneak up on us, while warm weather, or warm fronts, usually give ample warning of their approach?

There are two reasons why cold snaps in fall and winter catch us off guard. First, the cold front moves faster than a warm front. It can pass in and over you more rapidly and change the weather in less time.

Second, and even more important, is that cold fronts move across the surface of the earth with a backward slant. That is, the cold air mass reaches us on the ground before that same cold air is overhead. This slant sometimes extends back, at high altitude, for many miles.

Therefore, when cold air is approaching there are no telltale clues in the sky above, as with a warm front, which slants forward. The first we know of it is when it reaches us at the ground level, and it is usually moving rapidly (thirty or fifty miles an hour).

In Fashion

Buying an attractive garment or accessory without planning your seasonal wardrobe can prove to be expensive.

The first requirement is to check last year's garments for possible use this season. A new sweater, blouse, or scarf can update many favorite items.

Compulsive buying without proper thought can wreck a budget and often rob you of a sense of pleasure when you wear that purchase.

With the wise variety of sweaters, blouses and accessories, one basic suit and an extra skirt can give one several outfits.
