The accident occurred about noon Thursday and when an X-ray picture was taken of the child's chest, her parents prepared to rush her to a specialist, first taking her to Roswell and later to El Paso, where the pin was successfully removed after an operation. Patsy Ann was able to be returned home Saturday and has recovered from the effects of swallowing the pin and the operation.

The book contains pictures showing correct playing position, fingering charts, diagrams, detailed instruction and music to fifty selections to be learned during the course. Watkins Bound To District Court After Trial Here

Bradford Watkins, employee of the Cross Roads Filling Station, eight miles south of Roswell, was bound over the action of the Eddy county district court at a preliminary hearing held here Saturday afternoon before Justice W. H. Ballard. Watkins is charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of Victor Buel, Artesia farmer, on the north highway the night of September 14th. Watkins plead not guilty to the charge of involuntary manslaughter in the death of Buel and for failure to stop and render assistance to Buel in violation of section 11828, the statutes of New Mexico.

Testimony of Stanley Jones, J. C. Floore, Fred Hill, Irvin Martin and Dwight Lee was heard at the preliminary trial. The defendant was represented by Caswell Neal of Carlsbad. Lake Frazier of Roswell, assistant district attorney, represented the state.

Grazing Meeting Held At Roswell

Approximately 150 stockmen attended a grazing meeting held at Roswell Friday and Saturday and heard R. F. Carpenter, director of grazing, explain the Taylor act. At a business session Friday officers were elected for the ensuing year, all former officers being reelected, including: B. C. Mossman, Roswell, president; J. Frank Joyce, Carlsbad, vice president, and Martin Boswell of Roswell, secretary-treasurer.

Several speakers gave short talks relating to the Taylor grazing act Friday. Mrs. Antoinette Funk, assistant secretary of the department of the interior, spoke on the administration of the act. Director Carpenter told of the uphill fight to have some sort of regulation passed to protect the grazing rights of southwestern livestockmen. Senator Floyd Lee, president of the New Mexico Wool Growers association, also made a short talk. Henry Grisham, Chaves county rancher and president of the Stockmen's Protective association, presented his complaint to the grazing board and to Mr. Carpenter, stating he had not been fairly treated by the board and further that he did not believe the administration was competent of settling the question. He also claimed the grazing board had not acted sincerely in his grazing license and had underestimated the grazing potentialities of his grazing land. J. E. Stabelin, regional director, was asked to clarify the question of Mr. Gresham. Carpenter described all phases of the grazing act and declared his field men were rapidly learning the facts of the district. He announced a meeting of all field men in Salt Lake City, Utah, on October 4, 5 and 6. Reports from various districts will be heard at this time.

Rodeo Postponed For Lack of Fair Weather After One Day Show

A respite in the week-end rains enabled the Artesia rodeo management to hold the rodeo for one day only, this being Saturday. The event was definitely postponed until more favorable weather after a cold rain set in Sunday morning. Miller Ammons, arena director, said the three-day event would be held, beginning probably about October 5th. The rodeo grounds are ready to start the rodeo as soon as Mr. Ammons gives the word. Contestants were paid off in the various events the only day the weather permitted the rodeo to be held.

Usual Activity Experienced In Oil Area Lately

Locations for Twelve New Wells Made; Nine Wells Finished; A Lovington Wildcat Shut Down.

Steady activity is noted in the southeastern oil area the past week where twelve new locations were staked and nine wells added to the production column. Monument, in Lea county, a comparatively new field, continues to lead development with eight new wells staked and five wells completed. The Eunice field now connected with the Monument was next in order with two locations for new wells and four wells completed.

The largest well of the period, with an initial production of 7,460 barrels daily, was finished in the Monument area. At a depth of 3861 feet, the Laughlin No. 1 of the Empire Gas and Fuel Co., SE sec. 5-20-37, tested at the rate of 310 barrels an hour making a natural flow through open casing, with 5,000,000 feet of gas.

Other Monument producers now ready for the pipe line include the Culp B-1 of the Gulf Production Corp., SE sec. 31-19-37, drilled to 3895 and made an initial production of 190 barrels in five hours with 1,250,000 feet of gas. Also the McGrail No. 1 of the Ohio Oil Co., SW sec. 26-19-36, which flowed at the rate of ninety-one barrels an hour with 2,000,000 feet of gas from a depth of 3990 feet. Bulldogs Meet Tatum Friday

Play First Home Game On New Grass Gridiron Near High School.

The Artesia high school Bulldog squad will meet the Tatum football team here Friday, October 2nd, at 3:00 p. m., on the field at the high school. This is the first home game for the Bulldogs as well as the first time they have met an opponent on the new turf grid near the high school buildings. Admission is 25 and 35 cents. No pre-season dope is available on the Tatum squad as this is written, except the northern Lea county town boasts of a well-balanced team. Despite the stingy defeat administered by the Roswell Coyotes at Roswell Friday, Coach Maudsley is hopeful of whipping his charges into a winning team before the close of the season. Coach Maudsley has a wealth of material, the greatest number ever assembled on a football field, drawn from the Artesia high school and with a little seasoning the boys should give a good account of themselves. The squad has been practicing hard, perfecting plays for the visitors and according to advance information should be able to take Tatum's measure.

Enrollment At Local Schools Still Climbing

Enrollment of the three Artesia schools continues to increase, W. E. Kerr, superintendent, reported Tuesday, the total of the three schools was given at 990 at this time, or 105 pupils more than at the corresponding period of last year. By schools the enrollment is: High school, 220; Junior high school, 270; Central or grade school, 500. Last year the total enrollment ran to 1,109 before the close of school. On the basis of the present increase, Supt. Kerr estimates the enrollment should reach at least 1,200 before school closes next spring.

Four candidates, Senators Carl A. Hatch, Dennis Chavez, Congressman John Dempsey, and Governor Clyde Tingley were scheduled to appear on the platform together at Santa Fe, but Governor Tingley was called to Ohio on account of the death of his mother. The other party, headed by Attorney General Frank Patton, addressed a rally at Belen. The Patton party will be joined in Raton October 8th by Senator Hatch.

Following the meeting in Santa Fe, the top four candidates split up and either in pairs or singly will head a speaking party. "Our campaign will be short but instructive," Chairman Miles said. "The accomplishments of democratic state and national administrations have been so valuable to New Mexico that it is going to be a pleasure to conduct this campaign. We are going to push forward in a hard, clean fight that will carry our message to every community in the state. We are going to seek office on our own strength, rather than the weakness of our opponents."

May Dredge Pecos River Channel

Unofficial information is to the effect the reclamation service may dredge the Pecos river from the Dayton bridge south to Lake McMillan. The purpose of dredging the channel would be to prevent wastage of water in the bogs. Much of the water now running down the river never reaches the lake but spreads out in the tamaracks and creates standing pools and bogs. If the river is dredged, a new channel will probably be run south from the Dayton bridge and west of the present river bed which has practically filled with silt.

Harper in Hobbs last May. Sentence was deferred. Moore had pleaded not guilty to charges of murder by reason of insanity. Testimony had been introduced at the trial to show Harper and Mrs. Moore, the defendant's wife, had lived together the week prior to the shooting on the downtown streets of Hobbs, and that the defendant was made temporarily insane because of this.

3.75 Inches of Rain Falls In 10-Day Period

Biggest Rain of Season Falls Here, While Snow Falls in the Mountains; Low Temperature of 33 Degrees Reached Here.

About a third of the supposedly annual normal rainfall fell here over a ten-day period from September 19th to 28th, inclusive. The total moisture measured 3.75 inches. The heaviest rainfall occurred here on last Thursday. From last Thursday through Sunday the precipitation measured 2.61 inches. Clear weather Saturday morning brought a sharp drop in temperature as wintry clouds scurried southward. Winter weight clothing felt very comfortable Saturday night. Sunday a cold rain fell here until noon. The low temperature reached here Sunday night was thirty-three degrees above zero. Because of the recent heavy rains the near freezing weather did little or no damage to growing vegetation. The moisture measurements were divided as follows during the ten-day rain period: September 18 and 19.....1.14 September 24.....1.46 September 25......84 September 26......10 September 27......21 Total.....3.75

While a cold rain fell here Sunday morning, snow fell in the hill and mountain district. Snow fell at Weed, Pinon, Cloudercroft and the intermediate mountain section, starting Saturday night. Sunday afternoon the snowfall measured six inches at Pinon and nine inches at Cloudercroft, according to reports. Seven inches of snow was reported at Vaughn and about six inches at Clovis. Estimates say over a foot of snow fell in the mountains, but melted rapidly as it fell. The storm extended as far east as the Y. O. Crossing. Mountain roads were practically impassible in places Monday.

Reed Brainard, a farmer living southeast of Artesia, has kept a record of the rainfall, which has amounted to seven and a half inches in the past thirty days, he says.

TO THE VOTERS OF EDDY COUNTY

I entered the race for the office of County Treasurer, in a clean and square way, because I wanted the job.

Four years ago I was employed as Deputy Treasurer because I was capable of doing the work.

During these four years I have given my entire time to the duties of the office and have worked faithfully.

Having had this experience I felt that I was in a position to ask the voters of Eddy County for the office of County Treasurer, so I entered subject to the action of the Democratic Primary and feel that I am entitled to the support of every member of that party and ask for the support of my other friends.

It has always been customary, and the legal right, for an official to appoint and choose his own Deputy. If I am elected I feel that I have that right, and in taking advantage of this right I will do it with the assurance to the voters and tax payers of Eddy County that a deputy will be appointed who will assist me in running the office efficiently and give service to the public in every way.

I am asking you for a square deal, not as a politician, but as a loyal Democrat, a public-minded citizen and a business man. My record is an open book and I feel that I am entitled to your confidence and your vote.

Respectfully,

H.F. (Harry) Christian

Imports Into U. S. Not Alarming

Government statistics on the importations of beef, lard, etc., into the United States reveals there is nothing to be alarmed over. Here are some recent facts on the situation:

Consumption of beef, pork, lard, and mutton in the United States amounted to 53 pounds per person during the first seven months of 1936. Imports of beef cattle into this country, in terms of meat, during this period amounted to approximately one pound per person and the net imports of fresh, cured, and canned meat amounted to one-fifth of a pound. Meanwhile, we exported slightly more than one-half pound of lard per capita.

Imports of cattle from Canada, Mexico, and other countries were large—319,349 head—during the seven month period, January thru July, 1936, or 28 per cent more than during the same period in 1935. Also, during the first seven months of 1936, we imported sixty-two million pounds of fresh, cured, and canned beef, and twenty-one million pounds of pork. But, we exported seven and one-half million pounds of beef, twice as much pork as we imported, sixty-eight million pounds of lard, and a couple of million pounds of sausage.

Total consumption of beef, pork, lard, and mutton in the United States exceeded a billion pounds during July, 1936, and averages close to that figure monthly. Don't let livestock import figures scare you. To be sure, we have temporarily shifted from a large export meat nation to an import basis. Net imports of livestock, meats, and lard amount to less than one per cent of production or consumption so far this year or about one thin, five-cent hamburger per person every third week.

New Mexico has 448 state-owned passenger cars and trucks, a detailed report of state-owned cars submitted to Governor Clyde Tingley this week shows.

The report was requested by the governor after he had read newspaper reports that republican campaign speakers were telling audiences that the state has more than 1,000 state-owned cars.

"The statement was about as reliable as most of the other campaign charges," the governor said. "In their effort to 'get something on' the present administration, republicans are manufacturing their stuff as they go along."

The report showed that the highway department, which is the biggest user of automobiles and trucks, has two fewer passenger cars than a year ago and sixty-four fewer trucks.

For all departments there are only 110 passenger cars, of which the highway department has 31. There are a total of 125 half-ton pickups, of which the highway department owns 118, and 215 trucks, of which the highway department has 192.

"The Modern Light"

The most comfortable and easiest position for reading at home is near a portable lamp with light sources screened from the eyes—but not from the book.

A combination of "DIRECT LIGHT" from the lamp and "INDIRECT LIGHT" from the ceiling and upper walls is the most nearly perfect kind.

These lamps comply with all the rigid specifications of the Illuminating Engineering Society and carry their tag of approval.

Glare, with all its harmful effects, is completely eliminated by the opal glass diffusing bowl, which combines direct with soft indirect light for greatest eye ease.

Quite fittingly these lamps may be termed a double feature attraction for the modern woman buyer who appreciates the value of better light, but demands decorative beauty as well.

Scout News

In a tabulation of the 100 rural Boy Scout councils (i. e. councils with not over 10 per cent urban population) in America, the Eastern New Mexico Area Council ranks high in status and progress. The ratings given are as follows: (Out of the 100 councils):

Total Scouts, 39th; total troops, 29th; new troops, 12th; new Scouts, 29th.

Compared on a basis of councils with approximately the same population the record is even better. It follows:

Total Scouts, 6th; total troops, 4th; new troops, 1st, new Scouts, 1st.

Despite the high rating in these four items the Eastern New Mexico Area Council is now engaged in a vigorous campaign to organize a large number of new Scout troops, Cub packs, and Sea Scout ships.

WHAT IS BONDED WHISKEY?

For your information, bonded whiskey must meet two exacting requirements:

- 1—It must be aged in wood four years or more.
2—It must be exactly 100 proof.

The ageing process requires four full years of ageing in charred oak barrels, without an admixture, adulteration or blending.

The United States is the only country in the world which has such a rigid standard for whiskey to which it permits attachment of its official seal of approval.

Squad Smothered Under 55 To 0 Defeat On Friday

The Artesia high school football squad might have covered themselves with mud, but no glory in the initial game of the season when the squad met the Roswell Coyotes under the lights at Roswell Friday night, coming home with the light end of a 55 to 0 score. Fans were at a loss to account for the poor showing made by the Bulldogs, except for the fact the locals did not seem to be able to solve the lateral passes thrown by the Coyotes and the fact the Coyotes tore holes through the Bulldog line almost at will. As ground-gainers, Artesia practically equaled the Roswell team. Johnson and Womack made the best showing for the locals, while the entire Roswell squad seemed to have clicked as a unit.

Artesia held Roswell to one touchdown for the first quarter.

Payments totaling $82,281.66 have been made in Eddy county since January 1, by the resettlement administration, Larry Emerson, supervisor, said at Carlsbad last week.

Of these payments, Emerson said, loans totaling $81,631 were made to 103 persons, and $650 in grants to 13 persons were disbursed.

An additional activity of the resettlement administration, that of farm debt adjustments, showed that in Eddy county seven cases had been adjusted through May, 1936, involving an original indebtedness of $11,218, with resultant savings of $2,197.

The state of New Mexico had received rehabilitation loans thru June 22, 1936, amounting to $1,645,556, which were actually certified for payment. There remained the sum of $256,913 in unpaid commitments. Rehabilitation grants during the same period were advanced in the sum of $112,444. A total of 4,762 persons in New Mexico received loans while 2,587 persons were the recipients of grants.

How About These Matters Gov. Tingley?

WE ASKED you a number of the questions below during your New Mexico state convention in Albuquerque. They all have to do directly with the public's business. No doubt you were too busy with your effort to elect Mr. Dempsey on the political scrapheap to answer. So, as you take the platform in your campaign for re-election, we ask them again:...

Your 1934 platform pledged you to "continue the economical administration of the late Governor Arthur Seligman." Have you done this? Do you consider the highest appropriation ever made by a New Mexico legislature, which was made by your legislature, keeping that pledge? Your "New Mexico Relief and Security Authority," up to June 30, had spent $107,000 for salaries, and about $62,000 for traveling and other expenses; while the aged and needy, the blind, etc., had received but $19,000. Do you consider that an even break between the needy and the blind, and your political henchmen? In your 1934 campaign you promised on the public platform, if elected, to devote your salary as Governor to charity. Have you done so? If so, to what charity or charities? How much of the money spent on your continuous travels about the state, organizing partisan political clubs, was your personal money? How much was from funds belonging to the public? Will you make a TRUE statement to the public how you have used your contingent fund? On September 23, Mr. Harry Hopkins, WPA Administrator, visited New Mexico, and was in conference with you. We asked him if he approved of your 1934 campaign statement that our people must "vote right in order to obtain relief," and if he, Hopkins, would approve a similar policy being adopted by you and your associates in this campaign. Hopkins declined to answer publicly. Did he indicate his policy to you privately? Are the people who refused to take your orders transmitted through Bob Miller in Albuquerque and Charley Roehl, Johnny Michaels and others in Santa Fe, to be denied work relief unless they take your New Deal pledge? Is it true that you have demanded and enforced a monthly assessment upon all state employees for the benefit of your political machine, and that Johnny Miles, your New Deal State Chairman, has been the collecting agent? Do you approve of the constant use of state-owned cars for the partisan political purposes of your machine? Is it true that your Motor Vehicle Commissioner, Diego Salazar, has since his appointment, and with your knowledge, used a state car and state gas, etc., in daily trips, 26 miles, to and from his home in Espanola? Your highway engineer says the state only owns 459 cars, but your Motor Vehicle Commissioner says he has issued to Conroy's department 700 sets of license plates. Which official, if either, is telling the truth? Do you consider it good public policy under existing conditions for the state to have purchased 200 new cars during your administration? Were these cars bought on bids, or from your political favorites and henchmen? Have you interfered in the management of practically every educational institution in the state, in some cases replacing experienced educators with political agents or unqualified persons? Is it a fact that Johnny Miles, while acting as your New Deal State Chairman, was for a considerable part of your administration on the payroll of the State Tax Commission, while devoting his time to helping you build your machine? Is it a fact that you had two members of the last state Senate put on the state payroll in order that they might travel about the state at public expense in the interest of your personal political machine? Is it true that you have used state employment on state time, in organizing your political campaign? Do you agree with a letter by Senator Charetore published, that the OK of Bob Miles of Albuquerque is necessary to obtain a relief job? Did you get ALL the allotments for school buildings in New Mexico, or did you get some help from Congressman Dempsey? Do you still think Congressman Dempsey is the kind of a man you said he was when you ordered your Attorney General to sue him for "trying to trap him" with your so-called asphalt paving trade of 1934? You have said repeatedly that you would run on the same ticket with "that son of a bitch Dempsey." Were your reasons for this opposition to a Tammany Congressman, did you just enter into your considerations, or were you just trying to bluff somebody? Your 1934 platform pledged you to assist organized labor. You did not help any of the measures offered in your legislature. On the contrary, every piece of labor legislation killed by that legislature. Were you just kidding the boys who work for a living? You and your Interstate Stream Commission attorney (salary, $4,000 a year) A. T. Harney, along with Senators Hatch and Chavez, approved a compact with representatives of the State of Texas regarding division of the waters of the Pecos River, and you are reported to have ordered your Attorney General to have a suit ready to be rushed through the legislature proving that compact. Do you and your associates, Hannett, Hatch and Chavez, realize the compact, if approved, will deprive users of the Pecos River waters from San Miguel and other Counties, of rights they have enjoyed for centuries? Did you, in many instances, for centuries, do you know anything about what you were doing when you assured the Texas people of your cooperation with their plan? Do you realize that if Texas-New Mexico Pecos River compact should be approved by our legislature, it would favor Texas on the basis for a suit that might deprive Middle Rio Grande Conservancy District of rights to the use of the waters of your current Or is this just another case of your home phone? Do you, if defeated in this election, intend to move to Texas and run for office there? You have boasted of having raised more money for state purposes than any other New Mexico governor. Do you think that increasing the salary of the gentle art of raising the burden of taxpayers, as practiced by you and your associates, is good public policy in times like these? There are several hundred other questions affecting the public welfare which you should have asked, and which you should answer before your term expires. The time is short. We will ask you many of these as possible. Is the existence of this mass of questionable public activity on your part the reason you and your dependents on a short campaign? Are you depending on the record as governor of New Mexico and the record of Hatch, Chavez and Charley Roehl to carry you through, or on the fact that the New Mexico still has $3,000,000 allotted to New Mexico projects of various kinds, with which you expect to lure the taxpayers into another two-year term?

Citizens of New Mexico -- -- The above questions are not asked in any spirit of levity. They are serious matters affecting YOUR pocketbooks. Tingley should answer them. Probably he will try to substitute loud noise and ugly charges for plain, sensible answers. If he fails to satisfy you with his answers, you will know that your best, safest, wisest course is to elect Jaffa Miller governor, and the entire Republican ticket, to support his policies of good government. Mountain Fruit Is Damaged by Cold; Cotton is Also Hurt

The cold weather prevailing over this section the first two days of the week did some damage to cotton in the upper valley, according to reports reaching here, but all crops, even tomatoes, escaped damage here. In the Roswell territory, where two white frosts occurred, cotton in low places lost some of the top leaves and some bolls were damaged, it was learned.

The mountain fruit crop was damaged, but the extent of the damage could not be learned. The damage was more severe to apples and pears in the higher altitudes where the heaviest snow fell.

Goat raisers in the Pinon and Weed sections, who have recently completed the fall shearing operations were fortunate in saving all of their animals, at least no losses have been reported here.

ELEVEN FOUND GUILTY BLACK LEGION SLAYINGS

DETROIT—Eleven of the twelve men charged with plotting the Black Legion "execution" of Chas. A. Poole, on an isolated suburban road last May 12th, were convicted Tuesday in circuit court.

Of the eleven convicted, all but four were convicted of first degree murder. The jury of nine men and three women held two of the others guilty of second degree murder, and Judge Joseph A. Moynihan returned a second degree murder conviction against the two defendants who waived a jury trial.

The jury, which had listened to the prolonged testimony in the case since September 10th, required an hour and twenty-five minutes to reach its decision.

The acquittal of Hershell Gill, the only defendant freed of the charges by the jury, had been suggested by Assistant State Attorney Chester P. O'Hara.

NEW ROBOT RECORDS DATA ON COSMIC RAYS

SWARTHMORE, Pennsylvania—Cosmic rays have been measured at an altitude of approximately 14 miles by equipment carried aloft by a cluster of three small balloons released by scientists of the Franklin Institute's Bartol Research Foundation.

Automatic radio broadcasting equipment carried by the balloons transmitted cosmic rays and barometric signals throughout the course of the flight.

C. E. Notes

(Wayne Rowland, Reporter)

A union meeting was held Sunday evening. The young people from all the churches took part in the program. Harold Hannah, from the Methodist church, had charge of the meeting. Several matters were discussed and it was decided that a union meeting would be held the fourth Sunday of each month. The next meeting will be held the 25th of October at the Methodist church. All young people are cordially invited to attend Christian Endeavor and the union meetings.

Eddy County Farm News

Fifteen farmers attended a program planning committee meeting at Carlsbad Monday in the office of County Agent Barham. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the soil conservation program for 1937. Similar meetings are being held in each county of the United States, called by Henry Wallace, secretary of agriculture. The state extension service was represented by E. E. Anderson of State College.

The committeemen of 1936 and officials figured that approximately eighty per cent of the farm land in the county was cooperating in the present soil conservation program. Little or no changes should be made in the principal crops planted another year. It is interesting to note that there has been a decided increase in alfalfa acreage during the past eighteen months, primarily because of its soil building qualities, but it is the opinion of the planning committee that alfalfa acreage in the county has reached its limit so far as profitable returns are concerned.

The percentage of the various crops which will likely be in about the same proportion for another year follows: Cotton, fifty-five per cent or 28,600 acres; alfalfa, thirty per cent or 16,600 acres, and feeds, fifteen per cent or 7,800 acres.

The present ratio of payments from the department of agriculture was approved by the planning committee. The present ratio of payments are made seventy-five per cent for soil conservation crops and twenty-five per cent for soil building crops.

The committee also recommended that attempts should be made to simplify the soil conservation rulings so that the farmers might understand the program better.

This year the program was made difficult due to the fact that it was so late in getting underway. County Agent Barham said he doubted if the number of farmers participating in the program next year were as large due to the present prices of farm commodities.

Local Ginnings

Cotton harvesting operations have been practically at a standstill since last Thursday evening. Some fields are drying out enough to permit pickers to resume work, but the ground is still too wet to pick in many places.

A total of 191 bales have been moved to the gins since the last report for a season's total of 1,163 bales for the six gins serving this trade area. The near freezing weather did little or no damage to the cotton in this part of the valley. Growers said the cool nights would stop the rank growth, but without freezing weather the small bolls would mature.
