Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible:
"Love fulfills the law of christ-ian science, and nothing short of this divine principle, understood and demonstrated, can ever furnish the vision of the Apocalypse, open the seals of error with truth, or uncover the myriad illusions of sin, sickness, and death."

No Provision Is Made For Counting Clerks In The New Election Law

No provision is made in the new election laws which will be in force during November for the appointment of counting clerks, according to the interpretation of the state attorney general's office, a letter to County Clerk Rude Wilcox discloses, says the Eddy County News. In view of the failure of the law to so provide, it is the opinion of the attorney general that poll clerks will be required to assist with the tallying and counting of ballots, "so long as it does not interfere with their other duties." Extracts from the letter are:
"1. In all precincts three judges of election are to be appointed by the Board of County Commissioners on the third Monday next preceding any election. Only precincts or election districts where more than 200 votes were cast for governor at the last preceding election shall be appointed three counting judges at the same time by the Board of County Commissioners.
"2. I find no statutory provision now in force providing for the appointment of counting clerks. Section 41-315, 1929 Code, which provided for the appointment of such counting clerks has been repealed by Section 67, Chapter 147, Laws of 1935. I have carefully searched the new election law adopted by the 1935 legislature but can find no provision relating to the appointment of the counting clerks. . . Since so far as I can find, no provision has been made for the appointment of counting clerks in any voting divisions, it would appear to me that it would be the duty of such poll clerks to assist in the counting and tallying of the ballots in all voting divisions to the extent that this would not interfere with their other duties.
"3. Two poll clerks are appointed by the Board of County Commissioners on the third Monday next preceding the election for each precinct and election district in the

New Mexico Needs a GOVERNOR

(Not a Whip-cracking Political Boss)

Isn't it about time that sympathetic understanding of the people of this great state and their problems, and an intelligent and economical conduct of their affairs, sup- planted fear-inspiring, rule-or-ruin, political machine tactics in the statehouse at Santa Fe?
The record of the present administration is ample proof that the only way New Mexico can bring about a return of government for the benefit of all, instead of only for those politically subservient, is to and the Republican Ticket on November 3rd.

Jaffa Miller NEVER has said:
"VOTE RIGHT OR STARVE"
—that is the vote-coercing threat of the Farley-Tingley gang to intimidate the unfortunate and needy.

Jaffa Miller ALWAYS has said:
"‘No matter how they vote, every citizen, county or community in New Mexico is entitled to fair, unbiased service—a square deal—from the chief executive, and I will give it.’"

BORN, REARED, EDUCATED IN NEW MEXICO

The Republican candidate for governor, stockman, businessman and public official, whose record as head of the State Industrial School at Springer for six years is unquestionable proof of his executive ability, his honesty, intelligence, efficiency and unwillingness to play politics with human misery, pledges to the people of the state that he will—

- Restore the Bureau of Child Welfare to non-political administration.
Reduce the costs of state government by eliminating political pensioners and parasites from the public payrolls, and stop the use of public funds for building a personal political machine.
Put an end to expensive and indiscriminate personal use of state-owned motor vehicles, and reduce the number of those vehicles to those required only by absolute necessity of governmental function.
Abolish the $132,000-a-year Port of Entry bureau as a "collecting" agency and turn the policing and protective duties over to the State Police, where they properly belong.
Put the State Police back on a non-political basis and stop the practice of having them serve as valets and bodyguards to the governor.
Keep politics out of the state's higher educational institutions, as well as out of the common schools and all relief activities in New Mexico.
Seek amendment of the gasoline tax law so that farmers, ranchers and others, who wait weeks and months for refunds, will buy gasoline tax-free on making proper affidavit.

In Business for Yourself

Since 1903 the First National Bank has backed many young merchants, farmers and manufacturers in this community who have prospered and made good.
Every young man aspires to be in business for himself. When the time comes to realize on that ambition he will almost inevitably be confronted with these questions which he must be prepared to answer:
How much cash can you command?
What deposit have you in bank?
What credit can you obtain?
Ten chances to one in America any young man can eventually head his own business if he prepares financially.
You cannot go into business for yourself on desire only. You cannot wish for that opportunity and expend all your earnings on yourself without anticipating the opportunity to enter business in your own name by having something to start on.
Opportunities in this country are always presenting themselves. Usually those who complain for lack of chance to go forward are those who have not laid the groundwork for the opening when it appears.
