The 4-H emblem was engraved on the bracelet. Miss Katherine Whitchurch, extension agent, of Carlsbad, awarded the prize. Refreshments of cider and cake were served to the guests. About one hundred attended.

SALES TAX TOTALS MOUNT

SANTA FE—New Mexicans paid $325,508 sales tax during September, nearly $100,000 more than collected during the month last year.

R. B. Waggoner, deputy commissioner of the bureau of revenue, said the total was slightly under the August figure.

Gasoline tax collections for the month were $434,769 as compared with $396,351 a year ago. This sum also was slightly less than the August collections.

Leaves on oil, gas, timber and mineral under the new state severance tax brought in $64,367, about $800 less than collected the previous month.

Wild Duck Crop Is Best In Years

NEW YORK—The largest migration of wild ducks in three years will be heading southward as duck hunting seasons open in northern states on October 9, according to a survey by the More Game Birds foundation.

The webfoot increase, however, will be nothing for duck hunters to become excited about, the foundation warns. America's wild ducks hit the bottom of the worst worldwide depression in history in 1934 and almost any turn for the better can now be recorded as an increase.

Heavier rainfall in the north central states which reflooded drought-stricken sections of the great mid-continental "duck factory" brought large duck crops during the summer breeding season. Minnesota records a fifty per cent increase, mainly of teal; Nebraska and North Dakota, 25 per cent, and South Dakota fifty per cent.

Aiding the waterfowl comeback in this hard hit duck producing section have been $21,769,337 of federal funds and $1,248,851 of "Duck Stamp" fees used for waterfowl refuge establishment the past three years.

"However," the foundation points out, "drought and agricultural reclamation of over 70,000,000 acres of wild duck areas have relegated the United States to a minor status as a duck producer. Eighty-five per cent of our waterfowl now have been driven into Canada to breed—principally in limited sections of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta."

DR. R. T. MAXWELL LOCATES HERE

Dr. R. T. Maxwell, formerly of Denver, Colorado has located here and will be associated with Dr. C. H. Hemphill in the practice of medicine and surgery. Dr. Maxwell came down a few weeks ago and cared for the patients of Dr. Hemphill while Dr. and Mrs. Hemphill were on their vacation. It was during that time that he made his decision to locate here.

He is a graduate of the University of Colorado medical school and spent his internship at the Denver General hospital. At the present time he is residing at the home of Dr. Hemphill.

LONGER COTTON STAPLE ADDS TO FARM INCOME

One thirty-second of an inch is hardly discernible to the eye, but just that much added to the average staple length of cotton should mean in excess of $8,000,000 more in the pockets of the growers in one year. No accurate record of cotton quality was kept in this country before 1928, reports the United States Department of Agriculture. From 1928 to 1934 the average increase in staple length amounted to about one-thirty second of an inch. It is estimated that the increase in staple length of one thirty-second of an inch added more than $8,000,000 to the value of the 1934 cotton crop.

Today's Taxogram

By ELLIS PARKER BUTLER
Said Statesman A to Statesman Z: "What can we tax that is not paying?"
We're taxing every blessed thing—Here's what our people are defraying:

- "Tariff tax, income tax, Tax on retail sales, Club tax, school tax, Tax on beers and ales.
- "City tax, county tax, Tax on obligations, War tax, wine tax, Tax on corporations.
- "Brewer tax, sewer tax, Tax on motor cars, Bond tax, stock tax, Tax on liquor bars.
- "Bridges tax, check tax, Tax on drugs and pills, Gas tax, ticket tax, Tax on gifts in wills.
- "Poll tax, dog tax, Tax on money loaned, State tax, road tax, Tax on all things owned.
- "Stamp tax, land tax, Tar on wedding rings, High tax, low tax, Tax on everything."

Said Statesman A to Statesman Z: "That is the list, a pretty bevy; No thing or act that is untaxed: There's nothing more on which to levy."

Said Statesman Z to Statesman A: "The deficit each moment waxes; This is no time for us to fail—We will decree a tax on taxes."

Beware Coughs

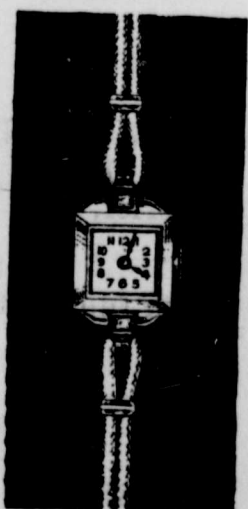

from common colds
That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Facts To Remember In The Observance of Fire Prevention

Here are a few facts worth remembering in connection with the observance of fire prevention week, October 3 to 9:

A $263,000,000 pile of ashes that wasn't worth a dime to anyone but the junk man—that's what fire gave the United States last year.

Every year 7,000 persons, half of them children, are killed in burning homes. A third of America's annual fires consume dwellings.

The National Safety Council, which announced these figures, says that fire losses in private dwellings can be lessened if a few simple rules are followed.

If your house does catch fire, a rug or heavy garment may smother a small blaze; a fire extinguisher easily put it out. If the fire is large, the council advises:

1. Notify the fire department.
2. Do not open your closed door at once if you smell smoke at night. Flame and smoke rushing in might be fatal. Feel the door; if it is not warm, open it cautiously.
3. If there is dense smoke but no flame, crawl to safety on your hands and knees (the air is purer at the floor level.)
4. If your path to exits is cut off, make a rope of bed sheets or clothing and let yourself down from a window.

Local Ginnings

Movement of cotton to gins continues rapid aided by fair, warm weather. Ginnings up to date are almost a thousand bales ahead of the corresponding period of last year, according to the tabulations compiled at the Advocate office from reports of six gins serving this territory. Tabulations made yesterday morning give a season's total of 3,245 bales against a total of 2,362 at the same time last year. Thirteen hundred and eighty-two bales have been ginned since the report last week.

Ginnings are divided as follows:

Lake Arthur gin	85
Cottonwood gin	945
Association gin, Espuella	517
Association gin, Artesia	370
Farmer's gin, Artesia	453
Association gin, Atoka	875
Total	3,245

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Blocker left Thursday for Kenna where they will visit Mrs. Blocker's relatives there. Mrs. Blocker will attend the Woman's Club convention in Portales, driving from Kenna.

Private reports for the crop indicate generally an upward revision of the crop, some as high as 16,900,000 bales, and it is generally expected that the official figures will be higher, all of which has now been discounted and we know pretty well what to expect by way of market action if a slightly smaller than expected estimate should issue.

There is no outside interest in cotton now and with farmers being in position to take loans of eight or nine cents the market is largely influenced by what they decide to do.

The near position is strong while while deferred months weaken thus indicating that the government is expected to pay the carrying charges on the loan cotton. This condition is unhealthy in any commodity market because it DOES cost money to carry actual cotton when a future month can be bought for even less than the actual can be purchased, processors will buy the future month instead.

There is this one significant observation to be made: Very generally, farmers have turned bearish. Nuf sed.

E. B. Bullock will ship out a car of cattle tonight for the Kansas City market. P. Moody, local cattle buyer, will accompany the cattle to market and plans to return to Wichita, Kansas, where he will visit for a few weeks.

The Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Massie returned yesterday from Haskell, Texas where they went to visit two brothers of the Rev. Massie Thomas Massie, of Mineral Wells, Texas, father of the Rev. Massie, accompanied them home and will visit here for a while.

Probabilities Never Wrong

The quotation from Aristotle to the effect that, probabilities are never wrong is a translation of the Greek which is practically as follows: "In regard to the confirmation of evidence and the law of probabilities, when a man has no witnesses he can say that the decision should be given in accordance with probabilities and that this is the meaning of the oath according to the best of one's judgment. For . . . probabilities cannot be bribed to deceive and neither can they be convicted of bearing false witness."

Most Desperate Blood Feud

The most desperate blood feud in the history of the West was the Tewksbury-Graham feud which raged in Gila county, Arizona, from 1887 to 1892. It started with a dispute over stolen cattle and quickly involved all the men and boys in three big families and a number of their friends, the battles at times having twenty men on a side. With one exception, every man who took an active part in it was killed in these five years.—Collier's Weekly.

Paper-Making

Paper is made from various plant fibers, obtained by disintegrating wood, jute, bamboo, hemp and alfalfa grasses of Spain and North America. In the early days of the industry, paper was made almost invariably from one of the discarded textile fabrics, particularly cotton and linen, technically called "rags," and including worn-out garments, cuttings and waste from looms.

One of Oldest Cities

Benares, "by the still-flowing Ganges," is said to be one of the oldest cities in the world. Abode of sanctity and resort of religious teachers and philosophers, it is the center for thousands of pilgrims from all parts of India. Down on the Ganges river-front are the famous ghats, especially the Mansankarna Ghat with its sacred pool.

Sighing and Yawning

Sighing and yawning are emotional forms of inspiration, the latter associated with stretching movements of jaws and limbs. They appear to be efforts of the nervous system to correct, by an extra deep inspiration, the venosity of the blood due to inactivity produced by ennui or grief.

Goddess of the Rainbow

In the classical mythology, Iris is the goddess of the rainbow. She is the swift-footed messenger of Zeus and Hera, in the Iliad. Iris was the daughter of Electra and the attendant of Juno. It was her duty to cut the thread which detained expiring souls.
