The governmental and social structures of many of the principal nations of the world have undergone a radical change within the past five or six years. The depression or the after effects of the world war, hit other nations as well as the United States in 1932. Governmental functions have been broadened in an effort to stem the effects of the depression. Many believe these functions have been broadened too much and that we have gone too far to the left; however, in viewing changes that have taken place in other leading nations, the governmental experiments inaugurated here have been mild. While the average citizen has found an increasing amount of red tape facing him in the transaction of business, we still have the right of free speech and a free press, which after all is the most sacred of liberties. We are not fed propaganda designed to create an ill feeling for peoples of other nations by a controlled government press. And while we pay an increasing amount of taxes, we can still buy and maintain automobiles and enjoy what the neighboring nations think are luxuries.

An AP correspondent who recently returned from Europe after several years sojourn there expresses the opinion that if the fascist nations there are able to harvest a good crop this year, leaders will start another war. The only reason one isn't underway there now he says is because leaders are afraid to launch a war with no more resources than they have at the present time. Thus, instead of a rich harvest bringing rejoicing as it should, it may bring destruction.

STAYING ON

Claude Simpson last week started his twentieth year as secretary of the Roswell Chamber of Commerce, a remarkable record. Coming to the Roswell organization during the World war in 1918, Simpson has managed to hold his job about a fifth of a century, a difficult thing to do. In public jobs of this kind there comes a demand sooner or later for new blood and whether new blood is needed the demand is often so insistent the public servant finds it necessary to yield, regardless of the kind of job he is doing.

In a position of this sort the old saying holds true that "A new broom always sweeps clean," but settling down to the routine usually required in service of this sort, the public servant finds that he has incurred the displeasure of this one or that one and pressure starts toward making a change.

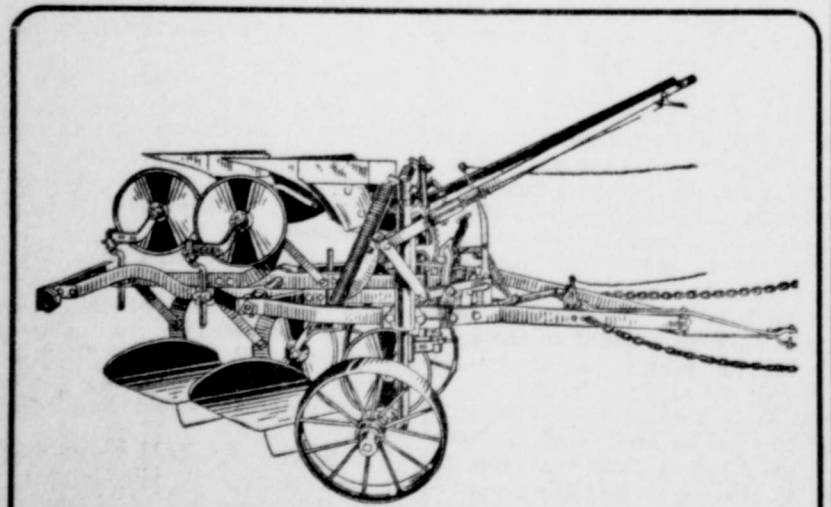

The longer a man lives in a community the better he should know it and the better job he can do to serve it. His services should be of more value to the community.

WARNS SPORTSMEN OF PROPOSED BILL

Hunting and Fishing, a magazine for sportsmen, has recently issued a warning to all sportsmen with reference to the measure proposed by Homer S. Cummings, attorney general on the registration of fire arms. Calling the proposed bill a piece of freak legislation, the magazine calls on all sportsmen to write their senators or representatives, protesting the measure which would require every fire arm in the possession of an individual to be registered, the owner's fingerprint and photographed. The proposed law would require all fire arms owners to report to the tax collector and according to reports the measure would require the owner of the gun to have the registration papers in his possession at all times. If a gun is borrowed, the borrower would have to go through the same fingerprinting, photographing process to get the gun. Registration usually means a fee and this would come out of the pocket of the sportsman.

The law aimed at stopping criminals from getting fire arms would hit the sportsman full between the eyes, the magazine says and would only add more red tape and expense. Furthermore, if the registered gun is stolen, such an act might throw the owner in an embarrassing position.

Hunting and Fishing wants to know how the proposed law would keep the criminal from getting guns from stores, armories, etc., and asks why it would not be sensible to enforce the laws already on the statute books rather than cluttering up the books with more useless laws.

For genuine economy and efficiency the M-M TWO-WAY (Tumble-bug) Plow with SLAT BOTTOMS leads the parade. Built especially for the Pecos Valley.

Chislings

"You ought to brace up and show your wife who is running things at your house," a big, bossy man said to a hen-pecked friend. "It ain't necessary," replied his friend, "she knows."

Junior is now at college studying how to get fifteen freshmen into a Ford coupe.

"Do you think stocks will go up or down?" a man asked a big industrial magnate in the hope of getting a good tip.

"Yes," was the magnate's answer. "I'm sure they will. They never stand still for very long and they never go sidewise."

"Are you the judge of reprobrates?" said Mrs. Jones, as she walked into an office of a judge of probate. "I am the judge of probate," was the reply. "Well, that's as I expect," quoth the lady. "You see my father died detested and left several little infidels and I want to be their executioner."

"I'm losing my punch," she said, as she left the cocktail party in a hurry.

"What do you take for insomnia?"

"A glass of wine at regular intervals."

"Does that make you sleep?"

"No, but it makes me satisfied to stay awake."

"And what parable do you like the best?" the negro preacher asked Mose.

Mose: "The one about the multitude that loaf and fishes."

The following is an ode to a horse:

"Oh Horse, you are a wondrous thing. No horns to honk, no bells to ring. No license buying every year, with plates to stick on front and read. No sparks to miss, no gears to strip, you start yourself, no clutch to slip.

No gas bills mounting every day to steal the joys of life away. Your innertubes are all okey and thank the Lord they stay that way. Your spark plugs never miss and fuss, your motor never makes you cuss. Your frame is good for many a mile, your body never changes style. Your wants are few and easily met... you've something on the tractor yet."

We have been a bit worried about friend E. C. Higgins, a patient at the Eddy county hospital at Carlsbad, after sending him a prize story without getting a raise out of him. Most people are inclined to neglect their friends in sickness and we have been guilty with Hig as well as Col. W. B. Pistole, who is a patient at the William Beaumont hospital in El Paso. Both are reported doing fine and will be home again soon, we hope.

Jeff, why is it you never hear of a dorky committing suicide?"

"Well, Mr. Dallas, I reckon it's dis yer way: A white man gets himself into a passel of trouble an' he sets down an' thinks an' thinks about it until his trouble seems so big he shoots himself. A nigger man gets in trouble an' he sets down an' he thinks an' he thinks an' after a while he goes to sleep!"

—Irvin S. Cobb.

"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all societies and churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 30th.

The Golden Text is: "We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."—(1 John 4:16).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law."—(Rom. 13:8).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Divine Mind rightly demands man's entire obedience, affection and strength. No reservation is made for any lesser loyalty."

Kernels From An Old Nut

A few months ago it was our great privilege to visit Tuskegee Institute, the great school for colored people founded by Booker T. Washington. We had a short interview with that great scientist, Dr. George W. Carver—born a slave—who has produced more than 300 useful articles of food and household utilities from the peanut and the weeds that grow upon the impoverished hills of his adopted state. He has refused fortunes for the formulae, but, instead he gave them to the people of his state. He has been offered princely salaries to go to the greatest industrial laboratories of the land, but he chose to remain at the institute. He has appeared before committees of congress and has been accorded unusual recognition.

I said to him: "It is a great privilege and a great opportunity you have to teach the young people of your race." With a wistful look and an appealing tone in his voice, he said: "Yes, if they would only catch the vision." I said: "Maybe one in a hundred of them will." He replied: "Well, maybe."

He was thinking of the attitude with which the thousands of students would embrace the knowledge which they were acquiring.

Sir Francis Bacon was thinking of the same thing when he said: "Some think that the gratification of curiosity is the end of knowledge; some, the love of fame; some, the necessity of supporting themselves by their knowledge; but the real use of all knowledge is this, that we should dedicate that reason which was given us by God to the use and advantage of man."

That is what Dr. Carver meant by "Catching the vision." But the standard is not limited to college graduates. It applies to all men everywhere who can do some one thing better than those with whom they come in contact in their daily life. Would that we could all "CATCH THE VISION."

Bulldog Flashes

(By Reno)

High school has become a more compact and concentrated place as far as space goes since the dismantling of the east building has begun. Nearly all the students occupy one building all day and there is a tendency to have an excess of noise. Assembly programs have been cut out, ince the former assembly hall is now a study hall and has one corner partitioned off for shorthand and business science, not to forget that the stage is occupied by the library and real life dramas, more or less commonplace, are all that take place now.

A social hour is to be instituted in a short while that will promote education in social activities, which is what a great many timid and backward students need. Also it will be of educational value to those who are overdeveloped socially and have a supernormal ego. The scope of the programs will include dancing, games, refreshments and music.

The Board of Education has authorized the faculty to proceed with the plans for the program which will not, by the way, be confined wholly to high school but will include junior high, parents of the students, teachers and families, board members and families, and special guests.

On the faculty rules and regulations committees are Miss McCaw, Miss Dunlap, Mrs. Bildstone, Miss Felix, Miss Merrill, Mr. Branscum, Mr. Luke, Mr. Marshall and Supt. Kerr. Student members of this committee are Lela Bess Mann, Charles Baldwin, James Robertson and Bettynelle Lanning from high school, Charlene Martin and James Nellis from Junior high. The committee met on the twelfth and have started work on the official rules and regulations to govern conduct at the social hours.

Three teams now remain in the volley ball tournament. Miss Merrill's senior home room, Mr. Luke's freshmen and Mr. Reynolds' freshmen. The two freshmen teams meet soon to decide who will play the winner in the upper bracket, the seniors. The final game will be played as a preliminary to the basketball game with Hagerman the night of February first.

We beg to acknowledge and correct a slight misstatement made last week. The faculty is not the cream of the volley ball crop as in recent years. The Merrill home room trounced a faculty team 15 to 3 recently.

There is a possibility of a Junior Chamber of Commerce organization in Artesia. It would be a good thing for the students and it might be of aid to the Artesia Chamber of Commerce.

The "bests" of the 1937 semester have not been chosen yet. Just wait until next week and all will be revealed.

The gas pumps of the Buckner store and the Teel garage were broken Sunday night when thieves were attempting to steal gasoline. The Buckner store tank was empty, but fifteen gallons were taken from the Teel garage. Officers from Artesia were called to investigate the theft, but no arrests were made. He was crossing the bridge near the hour of sundown when three coyotes ran across the road. One of them, in his attempt to turn back, ran directly toward the oncoming car. The front wheel struck it, killing it. The animal was carried to the oil fields where it was skinned.

Bulldogs Continue Victory March
With 23 To 17 Win Over Hope

(By Pat Mickals)

Coach Joe Greeno's Artesia Bulldogs, led by sharp-shooting Johnny Rice, but slow to get started, blasted the Hope Yellow Jackets' hopes of a long time rivalry to pieces by a score of 23 to 17. The Bulldogs were trailing the Yellow Jackets through three periods, but Rice and Clendenen started the fireworks in the fourth quarter and the game ended with the Bulldogs still in possession of the ball. Rice amassed a total of 13 points for the Bulldogs and was high point man for the game. During the first period the Greenomen were trailing the Yellow Jackets by a score of 9 to 2 and at half time they were still in the red 11 to 3. But in the third period Clendenen and Rice started hitting the basket and the quarter ended with the Yellow Jackets out in front by a close 14 to 16 lead. Rice then began hitting the wicket with deadly accuracy and the Bulldog were headed west. With only three minutes to play the Bulldogs were in front 19 to 17 and Rice again started that deadly sharp-shooting and the game ended with the Bulldogs leading by 23 to 17. The Yellow Jackets just couldn't stop Rice and the Greenomen's great defensive play. Walker, Conner and Irby were covering the Yellow Jackets like a blanket of dew. Crockett, just couldn't get the shooting range during the second half, due to the stellar guarding of Irby and Walker. Those Bulldogs, if they continue this victory march, will be the team to beat in the district tournament, and

I. P. Johnson last Thursday. Mrs. Bryan Shoemaker and Mrs. Roy Ingram were visitors in Roswell last week.

Coach Joe Greeno has brought the squad up to a hard and fast working quintet.

December property tax collections totalled $754,238.09 in twenty-nine of the thirty-one counties, amounting to 49.4 in terms of percentage, said State Treasurer James J. Connelly Thursday. At this time last year the percentage received was 48.9.

The two counties yet to report are Taos and Rio Arriba. Eddy county topped the counties in collections with a percentage of 58.7 and Grant was second with 57.5. Lea county was low with a percentage of 37.3 and Quay was just above it with 38.7.

Paul Robinson of Lake Arthur was transacting business here Saturday.

J. T. Reese of Albuquerque, director of state school bus transportation recently made a tour of the Eddy county schools and has informed the county superintendent at Carlsbad that three new school buses must be purchased to replace old equipment.

There is one best way
TO CHOKE IN WINTER

Through no fault of your own, during past winters, you may have formed a bad habit of "too much choke." Perhaps your gasoline absolutely demanded overtime choking—harmful and wasteful. No need to continue that way with Special Winter Blend Conoco

Bronze. You could scarcely keep it from starting quickly, even if you wanted to. But you'll take pride in your skill, you'll save gasoline, and you'll make sure of top-notch starting speed, by using your choke—and Conoco Bronze—in this approved way:

(You may want to tear this out and keep it in the car for the next few days)

Leave ignition OFF.*

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Methodist Missionary
Mrs. J. E. Robertson was hostess, in her home, Thursday afternoon to the members of the Methodist Missionary society as they held their regular literary program and special pledge service for the year.

The meeting was opened with a short business session over which Mrs. Reed Brainard, president, presided. The program followed immediately, with Mrs. I. C. Dixon as leader. The topic of the pledge service was "Our Gift for World Wide Missions." The scripture of corollative significance was read by Mrs. W. S. French. Then the following topics were discussed by the following members of the society: "Our Gifts Buy Salvation for Individuals," Mrs. A. P. Mahone; "Our Gifts Help Transform Society," and "Dollars Invested in Education," Mrs. Pat Gornley; "Accepting the challenge," Mrs. John Rice; "Putting Our Money to Work," Mrs. George Frisch. Pledge cards were signed by members present and a delightful social hour followed. Refreshments were served at the time by the following hostesses for the day: Mrs. Reed Brainard and Mrs. J. E. Robertson.

The Episcopal Guild
The Guild, society of the Episcopal mission, met at the home of Mrs. A. T. Woods, with a splendid attendance of members, Thursday afternoon. The study book for the day, "The Divine Commission," was led by Mrs. J. K. Wallingford, who reviewed the chapter for consideration quite capably.

Following a short business session, the Guild had the pleasure of a delightful social hour, during which time the hostess served light refreshments.

Presbyterian Missionary
The literary program of the Presbyterian Missionary society was led by Mrs. William Linell.

Thursday afternoon as the group met at the home of Mrs. Hugh Kiddy, hostess.

"New American Neighbors" was the theme for the day and Mrs. Linell gave a short discussion of the mission schools in the United States under this thought. An inspiring devotional service was in charge of Mrs. Gus Hoagland.

Fifteen ladies were present for the meeting and had the pleasure of the social hour which followed the program and business meeting of the day. During this time refreshments were served by the hostess. Announcement of the all day study meeting of the group to be held in the church the first Thursday in February was made. This meeting promises to be a very interesting one. With the study for the day, "What Is This Moslem World," in mind, the committee on arrangements has planned an interesting meeting. Customs of the country in discussion and food of the same folk will be observed and served at the meeting. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Homemakers' Circle
The Homemakers' circle of the Baptist church met at the church, Thursday afternoon, for their regular work day program and covered dish luncheon. Seventeen members and two visitors were present for the day. During the work hours for the ladies the time was spent quilting.

In the afternoon Mrs. C. E. Mann, president of the W. M. U., was in charge of that time set aside for the business and Bible study of the group. She discussed topics concerning the work of the W. M. U. during this time.

Christian Women's Association
Mrs. John Jones was hostess to the members of the Christian Women's association as they met at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Nathan Kelly, newly elected president was in the chair for the afternoon. She also led the devotional service for the day.

The meeting was taken up in discussing plans for the coming year. Each year it has been the custom of these ladies to draw a name for a mystery friend and then remember this friend anonymously with small kindnesses. It was decided this year that this practice would be discontinued in favor of making a definite effort to remember and call on people who are confined to their home because of illness or other misfortunes.

Following the business of the day the hostess served very delicate refreshments. Announcement was made of an all day meeting to be held the first Thursday of February at the home of Mrs. Ed Conner. Members are urged to keep this date in mind and attend.

RUSSELL-GATES WEDDING HELD IN WYOMING CHURCH

In a ceremony of beauty, sincerity and dignity, Miss Vergine Russell, of Rawlins, Wyoming, and Wallace Gates of Artesia, were united in marriage January 16th at the France Presbyterian church in that city at 4:00 o'clock, with the Reverend Hugh K. Fulton reading the ring service.

The marriage, which culminated a college romance, began when both were students at Occidental College in Los Angeles, California, was performed before a large number of friends and relatives. The altar, lighted by the soft glow of two single and exceptionally tall candleabra beneath the lovely stained glass window, had as a background a tiered candleabra flanked with fern, huckleberry and floor baskets of white snap dragons and stocks interspersed with palm.

The bride was attired in a white gown of cut velvet which fell in natural lines to form a train. Her finger tip veil was gathered gracefully in a tiara of cut velvet, seed pearls, and orange blossoms that made a perfect frame for her dark beauty. She carried a white Bible and a single gardenia. She was given in marriage by her father, E. A. Russell. Her attendants were Miss Milder Gray of Casper, Wyoming, maid of honor, whose floor length frock of salmon taffeta added to the flower effect of the four bridesmaids who were dressed in taffeta frocks of the same design in yellow and aqua blue. All wore Juliet caps of flowers and carried bouquets to match their costumes.

The petite ring bearer, Patricia Clause was charming in a short skirted shell pink taffeta frock and carried a white rosebud pillow on which lay the ring. The groom had as his best man, his brother, John Gates. The ushers were Kirk Jensen, of Cheyenne, and Charles Retzke of Chicago, Illinois, both of whom were fraternity brothers of Mr. Gates. Their boutonnières were gardenias, while the groom's was a spray of lily of the valley.

Appropriate music was played by Miss Amy Whitson, organist, and sung by Mrs. J. J. McQuade, soloist. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Parco hotel, where a hundred and twenty guests, friends and relatives attended.

tended. The young couple left for a short honeymoon trip to Denver after the reception. The bride's going away costume was of wool tureen in tobacco brown with raccoon collar. Her accessories were rust and brown.

Mrs. Gates is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen Russell of Rawlins, Wyoming and was a very popular member of the younger set of that city. She is a graduate of the Natrona high school at Casper, Wyoming and attended Occidental College in Los Angeles the past two years. She is an accomplished musician and studied organ at the Lamont School of Music in Denver. She will be remembered to the Artesia friends as the delightful young lady who visited here this summer and played the piano so beautifully at a tea given in her honor by Mrs. Rex Wheatley.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Gates of this city. He graduated from Occidental in 1936 and since that time has been connected with the J. C. Penney company in Laramie, Wyoming, where the couple will be at home at 512 Lewis street. He is a member of a very prominent and highly respected family of Artesia as well as a popular member of the younger set.

Attending the wedding from here were Mrs. V. L. Gates, mother of the groom, who wore a black velvet gown for the affair and had as her corsage lilies of the valley combined with white narcissus, and John Gates. Mrs. Gates and John visited with Wallace in Laramie before the wedding and returned here soon afterward.

Court justices may retire, at the age of 70 after ten years of service, and receive full pay of $20,000 a year. Cordozo, who is 67, has served since 1932.

Bulldogs Trounce Lake Arthur Panthers By Score of 29 To 21

Rice, Irby and Clendennen Star For Greenomen In Victory.

(By Pat Mickals)

Coach Joe Greeno's Artesia Bulldogs, paced by Rice, Clendennen and Irby, and playing the best game of the season, trounced the favorite Lake Arthur Panthers, Friday night at Central gym. The Bulldogs were never in danger during the game. At the end of the first period they were holding a 5 to 0 lead and at half time were in front by 14 to 6. During the last few seconds of play the Panther coach sent in Alexander for Derrick and the din was so loud that the officials did not hear the timekeeper's horn, and Johnny Rice sank two beautiful baskets in succession. Moore, the Panther coach got excited and called his boys off the floor but it was too late and the game goes as a win for the Bulldogs and not as a forfeit. This is getting to be a habit with the teams through the valley. Hobbs pulled the same trick at Carlsbad. This seems to always happen when the team behind does not have a chance to win. But the deal that the Panthers pulled Friday night just won't work. They lost the game to a better team and the showing that they made was a poor brand of sportsmanship. This is the first time any team has ever walked off the floor on Artesia gymnasium. The Bulldogs played the greatest game that they have ever played this season. Rice played the brand of ball that he has played the past season and his floor work was something to watch.

The Bulldogs passing game was the best they have showed. Their passes were accurate, but at times they were a little off. Irby and Walker played an air-tight defense at guards. At the end of the first quarter the Bulldogs were enjoying a 5 to 0 lead and the half found them out in front by 14 to 6. The Panthers were rated as ten or more points better than the Greenomen. They boasted victories over Carlsbad, Dexter, Roswell and Hagerman, but they just were not there against the Bulldog defense. When the district tournament rolls around the Bulldogs, if they continue their improvement, will deal out a lot of headaches to the other entries. Coach Greeno and his Bulldogs showed the finest brand of sportsmanship that could be given to the Panthers, and the Panther team wanted to finish the last fifteen seconds of play, but Coach Moore was a little too excited to consider that. The Lake Arthur scorer admitted that the time keeper blew his whistle at least three times, so it was just one of those things. However, Lake Arthur will be dropped from the Bulldogs' schedule, which will be better for all concerned. In the meantime—watch those Bulldogs!

The line-up:

Bulldogs	Pos.	Panthers
Rice	F	Nihart
Clendennen	C	Taylor
Irby	G	Cummins
Walker	F	Nelson
Referee, Herbert; umpire, Stout.

When epidemics occur, as they did this year in Chicago and other cities, they must be stamped out. The need for preparation, scientific research, education and helpfulness to the front line attack—the doctors, nurses, and hospitals everywhere—in your own community—is tremendous and it can only be met by the great resources of a national Foundation.

Won't you do your bit in this great nation-wide fight?

Conoco Credits Newspapers

Giving due credit for the best year in its history to the heavy use of newspaper advertising, the Continental Oil Company has announced that its 1938 advertising appropriations for newspaper space will be increased by seven percent over the 1937 expenditures.

Continental during the coming year will allot to the daily and weekly press about sixty-six percent of all that is spent on consumer media and will place advertising in approximately 1,250 newspapers. The new advertising will continue to deal with Conoco Bronze Gasoline and Conoco Gern Processed Motor Oil and the actor of this lubricant, due to the presence of a product of the research laboratories, in forming an abnormally tough film that stays on metal surfaces even while the motor is idle, instead of draining off.

The new campaign, which has been carefully checked for reader response in selected test areas at Colorado Springs, Colorado, and in Richmond, Virginia will also stress the position of local Conoco dealers as "mileage merchants" who are independent of the company and must deal with the customer on the basis of their own ability and standing in the community; they serve.

Friends of Mrs. Lawrence Goodell of Roswell may be interested to learn that she is recuperating at the Presbyterian hospital in Albuquerque from a major operation Mr. and Mrs. Goodell formerly lived here.
