State's Biggest Gas Well Found In Eunice Field

Cities Service Well Is Estimated Making Over 250,000,000 Cubic Feet Gas — Make Fourteen New Locations.

Increased activity has been in evidence over the oil fields of southern New Mexico, especially in the Vacuum district of western Lea county. Fourteen new locations announced the past week will also add interest to the various districts.

The state's largest gas well in the Eunice district tops the oil interest for that area in the Cities Service, Closson 3-A, in the SE sec. 18-22-36. At a depth of 3,542 feet the well blew out and is estimated to be making 250,000,000 cubic feet of gas. Drillers are trying to kill the flow by squeezing 2,000 sacks of cement in the formation.

A well producing from a sand west of the west Cooper district in Lea county is also significant. The Gulf Production Co., Whitten 1, SW sec. 33-23-36 was drilled to 3,666 feet and given a nitro shot. Following the shot the well flowed 260 barrels in twenty-four hours through choke on tubing.

The Vacuum district got the major portion of completions for the week with a north extension finished in the Ohio Oil Company, Staplin 1 in the SW sec. 30-17-35. Drilled to 4,702 feet the Ohio well flowed at the rate of twenty barrels an hour through choke on tubing. The proven area is extended a quarter of a mile northward.

Other completions in the Vacuum field include the Continental State 1, NE sec. 35-17-34, drilled to 4,700 barrels and flowed at the rate of forty-four barrels an hour natural. Shell Petroleum Corp., State 1-A NE sec. 31-17-35, gauged 380 barrels in seven hours flowing through tubing. Texas Company, State 1-0, NW sec. 36-17-34, drilled to 4,720 feet and flowed at 173 barrels in twenty-one hours. In the Cooper field, Repollo Oil Company completed its Whitten 3-B, in the NE sec. 4-24-36 at 3,640 feet for 155 barrels in twelve hours.

Among the new locations are one for the Maljamar district in western Lea county, two for eastern Eddy county and one for Chaves county. The Maljamar Oil and Gas Corp., Wm. Mitchell 4, in the NE sec. 20-17-32, will be drilled by a rotary rig, the first rotary to operate in the field.

Eddy county locations include: Repollo Oil Co., Parke 3-A, NW sec. 22-17-30; Repollo, Keel 3-A, SW sec. 7-17-34. Locations by districts in Lea county are: Monument—Humble Oil and Refining Co., Fopeano 5, SE sec. 26-20-36. Sand Belt, Lea county: Repollo, Hair 2, NW sec. 9-24-37. Cooper area: Repollo, Whitten 4-B, SE sec. 4-24-36. ## Building Program Pior Rubber Co. Makes Progress

The building program of the Pior Rubber Company, located at Fifth and Main street, is rapidly approaching completion. All concrete work connected with the station driveway has been completed and customers are no longer inconvenienced in any way in securing gas, oils, tires, etc. The roof of the station driveway has been raised three feet and replastered. Plans have been made to move the washing and lubrication racks in the west part of the station building. The office and warehouse addition to the station is also rapidly taking shape. The walls of the one story tile building, twenty-five by seventy-eight feet, are up and workmen have practically completed the roof.

One of the features of the remodeled station is the addition of a new, modern and commodious ladies rest room, one of the most modern to be found in this section of the state.

Rites for W. T. Gissler Are Held Tuesday Afternoon

W. T. Gissler, aged 74, well known Artesia business man, died Sunday night at a Carlsbad hospital after a brief illness. Mr. Gissler, stricken with appendicitis, was taken to the Carlsbad hospital Friday where he underwent an operation from which he never rallied, according to reports.

Mr. Gissler was a native of Olney, Illinois. In 1910 the Gissler family moved to Artesia where Mr. Gissler operated a grocery store and meat market up until about five years ago. Although not actively employed since his retirement, he frequently assisted in the meat department of the Peoples Mercantile Company.

A widow and three children are left to mourn his passing: Ralph Gissler of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Ed Kissinger of Artesia and Howard Gissler, also of Artesia. Also a brother, Carl Gissler of Lincoln, Illinois and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Over of Indianapolis, Indiana, and six grand children, Palmer Gissler and Ralph Gissler, Jr., of Houston, Texas; Mrs. R. J. McKeown of Chicago, Illinois; Edward Kissinger of Artesia, and June Ann and John William Gissler, also of Artesia.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. John S. Rice, pastor, officiating. Burial was made in the Woodbine cemetery.

A son, Ralph Gissler, of Houston, Texas was the only out of state relative to attend the funeral. Business houses here closed an hour, from 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock out of respect for Mr. Gissler and to give their employes an opportunity to attend the funeral services.

NATIONAL COTTON WEEK

The south and southwest has been asked to observe National Cotton Week May 30 to June 4. The Chamber of Commerce here has received circulars on the observance of the week and Arba Green stated Tuesday the Central Valley State Bureau would likely have on hand a supply of circulars for distribution.

In 1790 when the first U. S. census was taken, the population was 3,929,214.

New European Peace Move Seen

ROME — Diplomatic moves in Rome Tuesday foreshadowed a new European setup. On the heels of the Italian-British friendship accord of Saturday, Italy and France agreed to start negotiations to reestablish their traditional friendship, shattered by the Ethiopian war.

At the same time, responsible diplomatic sources said, Italy was sounding out Yugoslavia on a military alliance to make the Adriatic and Italian-Yugoslav sea.

The two steps were seen as an attempt by Premier Mussolini to make Italy less dependent on his working agreement with Reichsfuehrer Hitler. Officials asserted the Italian-German alliance was as strong as ever and would remain the keystone of Italy's foreign policy, no matter what other friendships were formed.

Diplomatic quarters felt the goal of Di Duce's present diplomacy was a five-power pact among Italy, Germany, Britain, France and Poland as an adjunct to the Rome-Berlin agreement—and as a shock absorber if at some future time that agreement should break.

Mrs. Margaret Ellis and Mrs. George Williams were Roswell visitors Saturday.

Cattle Market Is Holding Up Well At Present

The cattle market is holding up well, according to Joe Nunn, local cattle buyer. However, the country has been pretty well cleaned of cattle to be sold. Ranchers generally have sold down to their breeding herds. The prevailing top price for fat cattle is around nine and a half cents per pound, he said. Mr. Nunn moved a car of cattle Tuesday from Avalon. These went to wheat fields near Salina, Kansas, he said.

The best estimates available say there is a calf crop of about seventy-five percent. The calves are in good condition and growing off nicely. The range, good up to now, is getting very dry in spots and moisture is needed.

Eddy County in Best Financial Shape of History

Eddy county is in the best financial condition in its history, according to Harry Christian, county treasurer of Carlsbad. April, of course, is the big month for the payment of the second half of the county taxes and final tabulations on the amount of taxes delinquent will not be available until after the first of May. Taxes collected up to March 31st amount of sixty-three percent of the total tax due for the past year. Also of interest, according to Mr. Christian, is the fact that ninety-seven percent of the 1936 taxes have been collected and a more remarkable fact is that since the inception or start of Eddy county, ninety-seven percent of the taxes have been paid, including the 1936 taxes.

The record established in the office of County Clerk Rude Wilcox for the month of March also reached a new high with total receipts amounting to $770.25 in fees, etc.

Mrs. J. P. Parks returned Sunday from a visit with relatives at Fort Sumner and Estilline, Texas.

Lambing Season Is Well Underway Over the District

The lambing season is well under way in this section with the season practically ended on a number of farms and ranches. Losses have been comparatively light thus far, but due to poor range conditions in places, heavy feeding may be necessary. This crop so far has probably averaged ninety percent or better. Farmers and ranchers in this vicinity are about sixty-five percent through the season, but toward the foot hills and in higher altitudes the season is not so far along.

A number of sheepmen are also in the midst of the shearing operations and a few have finished. Shearing has been done a little earlier than usual this year due to the fact that an early shearing leaves the animals in better condition and losses are fewer.

Tingley Sets April 30 Governor's Day Carlsbad Caverns

Governor Clyde Tingley Saturday named Saturday, April 30th, Governor's Day at Carlsbad Caverns.

The governor set the date, now an annual affair and the biggest day of the year at the Caverns, in a telephone conversation with Col. Thomas Boles, superintendent, Saturday.

Tingley authorized Colonel Boles to issue invitations to all senior classes of New Mexico to accompany him and Mrs. Tingley through the cave.

Senior classes from schools of any other state also will be welcome to attend the big cavern party, the governor said. The governor requested that the first official invitation be sent to Miss Elizabeth Garrett of Roswell, author of the state song, "O, Fair New Mexico," and ask her to lead in singing the song at the Rock of Ages on Governor's Day.

"Be sure and invite her 'seeing eye' dog, too," said the governor. Boles said he now has about 150 letters on his desk from schools in New Mexico and neighboring states, announcing that probably more than 2,000 will be in the cave on Governor's Day.

In 1934, the then Governor Hockenhull proclaimed April 7 as Governor's Day and suggested to Boles that invitations be sent to schools in adjoining states, especially to schools in the border territories. This was a great success, as 2,817 students accepted the governor's invitation. Two thousand were from New Mexico, 500 were from Texas, but the surprise of the day was a group of more than 100 that came over from Juarez, Old Mexico.

Governor's Day, when school groups are joint guests of the United States government and the state of New Mexico, originated on January 12, 1929, when Governor Dick Dillon invited thirty Carlsbad high school students to accompany him on the underground trip.

Artesia Host

Artesia is proud to be host to three conventions during the next week. This is a signal honor that has never before come our way within so brief a time. Artesia, however, is equal to the occasion and will be ready to greet the hundreds of visitors expected for the three events.

The New Mexico convention of the Spanish-American war veterans will convene here Saturday with sessions in the American Legion hut. Business houses are asked to put out the flags. Veterans of the World War are requested to wear their caps during the day.

On Tuesday evening, April 26, the Pecos Valley Odd Fellow association will hold its 28th annual meeting, commemorating the 120th anniversary of that order with a banquet and program at the Legion hut beginning at 6:30 p. m.

On Wednesday, April 27th, the delegates from all parts of the state will gather here for the P. E. O. convention. The convention will end Friday the 29th. All sessions of the convention will be held in the roof garden of the Artesia hotel except the luncheon next Thursday and the business to follow. This will be held in the American Legion hut. Let's give the visitors the warm handclasp of welcome.

Hospital Project To Start Soon

The City hospital project is expected to start soon, it was learned here this week. Transcription of the bond election proceedings have been prepared and sent to the attorney general for his approval. If approved, the city will advertise for bids on the bonds, which will require two weeks. City officials hope to get started on the construction of the hospital, or rather resume construction of the hospital sometime between May 1 and 15.

If the building gets started as scheduled, it will be fall before the hospital is ready for occupancy.

Big Winter Wheat Crop Is in Prospect Over Nation—State

A large winter wheat crop is in prospect both in the state and the United States, according to a crop report issued at Las Cruces last week. The winter wheat crop for the state is estimated at 2,829,000 bushels compared with 2,277,000 bushels for a ten year average. The United States wheat crop was estimated at 725,707,000 bushels, compared to a ten year average of 546,396,000 bushels.

Pastures in the state began the season with seventy-seven percent of normal for April and a seventy-one percent for a ten year average.

Vets of Spanish American War Gather April 23

Encampment of State Convenes Here Saturday Morning —Over 100 Visitors Are Expected.

The U. S. S. W. V. encampment will be held here Saturday, April 23rd. This annual state convention of the Spanish War Veterans will have as their distinguished speaker of the day Colonel Charles Reynolds, of Albuquerque, past state commander of the U. S. S. W. V. Welcome will be extended for the town by the Mayor, Hollis Watson, for the Legionnaires by S. A. Lanning and for the Auxiliary unit by Mrs. Irvin Martin, unit president.

At 11:30 the veterans, their wives, the Legionnaires, Auxiliary members, school band and fire department will parade thru the business section of the city which will be decorated with flags and bunting of patriotic nature. The parade will start at the hut and return there for a barbecue, a courtesy of the Legion boys to the convention. Then the afternoon will be devoted to the convention proper.

There have been plans and hopes that the women attending this encampment will unite together in an auxiliary unit to the U. S. S. W. V. During the time that the veterans are in convention, this organization will be in order and if it is the will of the visitors present a unit will be formed. If not, the ladies will be entertained with a picture show.

The evening hours will be taken up in a banquet, entertainment and dancing. All past presidents of the Auxiliary, past commanders of the Legion and past department officers of Artesia are invited to be guests of this convention. A large number of visitors are expected and the usual Artesia hospitality will make them welcome.

A picture of President McKinley is wanted by the Legion committee in charge of decoration. If one is available, please call Oscar Samselson. Business men and local residents are urged to decorate the premises of each with flags and other patriotic symbols. Let your welcome to these veterans be the customary one of Artesia and the Pecos valley.

A barbecue will be served at the Legion hut at noon for members of the encampment, their families and visiting delegates, Jack Kennedy, commander of Clay Green Camp No. 7, announced yesterday. The barbecue will be served immediately after the parade, he said.

Over 100 visitors are expected from various points in the state.

Lest We Forget

The saddest reminder of war is the continuing parade of those for whom there is no peace.

These are the wounded, the sick, the lame and the blind.

The war ended where they fell. But that was not peace. There is not peace in pain that lingers as long as life, in sightless eyes, in the perpetual agony of lost health and broken bodies.

These are the living dead. We cannot forget them, because they intrude on whatever inclination toward forgetfulness we have.

Their misery and suffering, most of all their patient and uncomplaining and unaccusing endurance of the blight put upon them by war, give us an awareness of them not to be forgotten.

Death has its peace. Those who made the supreme sacrifice of life in the war profited only by its mercies. No more for them than for the wounded and sick was it necessary to wait for an armistice to end the war. For them, too, the war ended where they fell.

They found what peace there is in war.

Less fortunate are the loved ones who mourn them. Who can fail to believe, in contemplation of the mothers whose sons fell in battle, that the armistice passed them by? So we have no need of the admonition, "Lest We Forget!" in our contemplation of the wounded, for we can't forget the living dead.

And we need not to be told, "Do not forget!" in our reverences for those who died in battle or have since gone beyond the border, for the recollection of the heroic dead is made vivid by passing years.

We have terrifying need, as the tortured world about us today in (continued on last page, column 2)

LOOKING AHEAD

Those who may be looking hopefully as to which way the political wind is blowing so far as state offices go, have found little or no encouragement thus far, since in most counties politics haven't begun to warm up yet. There are individuals who would no doubt accept cheerfully the task of taking up the campaign and the democrats and republicans will not have to beg for candidates for state office.

Many are wondering if the Tingley-Chavez feud in the democratic party will be carried through the general election, whether J. J. Dempsey will be or can be switched from congressman to candidate for governor and whether Tingley will take active part in the fall campaign and if he does, will he be influential?

These and other political questions will be heard before the state conventions next fall. One thing seems certain that neither party has, up to the present time, set the stage for certain candidates. Rather, it looks as though we might have quite a number of so-called dark horses on both tickets, which will of course add interest to the election.

AND SPEAKING OF ELECTIONS

And speaking of elections, did you ever notice the apparent lack of interest in any election where the personalities of the various candidates was not a factor? Take the personality of the candidate out of the election and the affair is without an issue about nine times out of ten. The court house issue held over the county recently proved the point and especially so far as north Eddy county was concerned. The north half of Eddy county, including Lakewood, polled less than 200 votes in this election and the more recent city election where voters were asked to approve or reject a $30,000 bond issue was almost as uninteresting.

Such elections vitally affect the taxpayer or should affect him, but unless a personality issue is at stake, the taxpayer rarely takes the trouble to vote. But in a contest where men and women are running against each other, the issue is quite different. The voter can either vote for or against someone, and usually the pleasure of voting against someone is far greater than that of voting for someone. Thus we are governed largely by our dislikes.

DON'T BE A NINCOMPOOP

As a boy I remember peering into a nest of young jay-birds. They were all neck and mouth with a pair of wings and legs thrown in for purposes of identification. When I touched the nest five gapping mouths balanced on spindly necks eagerly received pebbles, which I mischievously deposited, and gapped for more.

The world is full of human jay-birds and there is always someone around with a handful of pebbles. Don't try to be the first to pass on the next pebble of gossip that comes your way. It is true that the early bird got the worm but what about the worm? . . . He was early too.—Tucumcari American.

NATURE'S WARFARE

It was one of those superb afternoons in spring when nature seems to be doing her best to make everything beautiful and peaceful. The sun was still well above the horizon and its warmth was caressing. A plot of grass in my garden had been sprinkled and several robins were hopping about. If I were a poet, I could have composed some pretty verse.

Close observation, however, revealed that the robins were not dancing about for their own amusement. They were looking for worms, and any worm that was so unwise as to stick its head above the ground was quickly seized and devoured.

Lurking in the shrubbery was our cat and when one of the robins was busy with a worm, the cat stole up on it. If I had not interfered, the robin would have been the cat's supper, just as the worm had been the robin's supper.

This kind of warfare goes on in nature at all hours. There is really little peace, despite the poets.—Exchange.

RED BLUFF POWER WORK PROGRESSES

Work progressed rapidly the past week on the Red Bluff rural electrification construction program.

Judge J. E. Starley, general manager of the Red Bluff Water Power Control district, said the foundation for the power plant being constructed at Grandfalls was about completed.

Workers began clearing the right-of-way this week for the approximately fifty-six miles of 33,000 volt transmission lines. The poles and other supplies were being distributed.

Work on the power plant, which began last week, is expected to take about three months. The total cost of the electrification program will be about $185,000.—Pecos Enterprise.

15 Years Ago

(From the files of the Advocate, April 20, 1923)

Thornton Ferson this week bought the A. L. Schuster home in the south part of Artesia.

From reliable sources, the Advocate has received word that a California company has leased several thousand acres of land for oil across the Pecos river and south-east of Artesia.

A heavy rain storm visited Artesia yesterday afternoon, accompanied by some hail.

Mrs. Reed Brainard was hostess to the Chat and Sew club last Friday at her home southeast of town.

Mrs. Homer Dunagan entertained the 500 club at her home Wednesday night. The affair was in honor of Mrs. John Lanning and Messrs. Albert Richards and Homer Dunagan, who were celebrating their birthdays.

Edgar Williamson and his sister Jeanette have gone to Alamogordo for the summer.

The Rev. S. A. Lanning will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church next Sunday.

Irvin Bishop of Floydada, Texas is here visiting his sister, Mrs. M. A. Cox.

R. L. Paris returned Wednesday from Kansas City, where he took a car load of cattle.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses issued at the office of County Clerk Rude Wilcox in Carlsbad last week were to: L. A. May and Christeen Clark, both of Goldsmith, Texas; William Howell Riggins and Edith Pauline Norman, both of Midland; Claude E. Swift and Jeanette Herget, both of Carlsbad, and Jose Pelalz of Carlsbad and Maria Marquez of Artesia.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson of Estancia and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moorehead and family of Tucumcari spent the Easter holidays with the parents of Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Moorehead, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wilson of the Cottonwood.

Kernels From An Old Nut

Listening in, over the radio, a few nights ago to a sermon by Bishop A. Frank Smith, I heard him outline the qualifications for the man capable of meeting the distracting problems of this age. These are the qualifications:

"To keep his feet upon the ground,
"To keep his head clear,
"To keep his hands clean, and
"To keep his heart pure."

There are people all over the world who appear to believe that it is more important to have their heads in the air than to have their feet upon the ground. One must hold his head up but it must be firmly connected with the ground.

A few days ago a young technician wheeled an electro-cardiograph machine to the side of my bed to get a graph of my heart action. When he turned on the current it flashed and sputtered a little, but it registered nothing. Finally the operator detected that the ground connection was bad.

When that was remedied the machine worked perfectly and the experienced physician can read and correctly interpret the record that it made.

So, too, the man who undertakes to bear his part of the world's burdens must have his feet upon the ground for his burden bearing ability is in direct ratio to the stability of his footing. If, like the machine, he is to correctly record the heart beats of this old world he must see that his ground connections are good.

No one will undertake to minimize the necessity of keeping one's head clear. Every day one has been forcibly impressed upon him the tragedy of beclouded thinking. It may result from lack of training, from lack of experience, confusion or a thousand and one things. It may even be self imposed.

A few years ago a new and wonderful building in a midwestern city collapsed when it was filled with merchandise. Its strength and the weight of its load were each capable of accurate computation but someone failed to think clearly and thousands of dollars were lost as a result of it.

Keeping one's hands clean does not involve freedom from the dirt and grease of honest toil. Courts of equity have a rule that to obtain relief the man seeking it must come into court with clean hands.

In some parts of the land there are men whose business it is to buy stolen property for a fraction of its real worth. Such a man acquires property in an unclean way and his hands are therefore necessarily unclean. Whatever a man gains either by wealth or position in an unfair way leaves his hands unclean.

I commend these qualifications to the thoughtful consideration of every person who hopes to stand four square to every wind that blows.

Bulldog Flashes

(A. Reno)

The skip day for the 1938 seniors is now a matter of history, but there will remain behind many memories of the day. Black River Village was an ideal spot for the festivities and everybody had a great time. There were boats, horses, swimming, dancing, baseball, swinging and many other kinds of games, etc., to be enjoyed. Cameras were constantly clicking and there were many pictures taken to commemorate the happy day.

The picnic was educational in a way because several people learned how to row a boat and some rode a horse for what appeared to be the first time. Although accidents were few, one boy fell into the river and came out dripping. The whole outing was great fun while it lasted and the meals were excellent. So thanks for the memories and we hope the seniors to come have as much fun as the boys and girls of the 1938 class.

Playing without the majority of the senior talent, the Bulldog diamond squad captured its first victory of the year when they defeated Hagerman 11-10 in a thriller. Eddie Walker held the Bobcats for seven innings until he was relieved. The Artesia team did not break the tradition made by the famous teams of the '20s. Another game is scheduled with Hagerman for Friday and the Bulldogs are favored in our book to come back with a more decisive win than before.

Tuesday morning Dr. Gossard of New Mexico Normal University at Las Vegas talked to the seniors, urging them to attend college, whether at Las Vegas or not. Dr. Gossard's talk was interesting and informative.

The new school building is looking like a million dollars from any point around it. Artesia will soon have an institution of learning to be rightly proud of. We will not hesitate in saying that it will be the best looking high school we have seen anywhere. Our only regrets are that the seniors of 1938 will not be able to attend classes in the new building.

Public Welfare In New Mexico

(Issued by the New Mexico Department of Public Welfare)

Two hundred six blind persons in New Mexico are receiving aid from the state in the form of payments authorized by the New Mexico Department of Public Welfare.

As in the case with other public assistance payments, half of the money is received from state revenues and the other half from the federal government. Payments are made by the New Mexico Department of Public Welfare.

The Welfare Department, in authorizing the payments to the blind, recognizes that a person without eyesight is particularly handicapped in the present-day world. Almost all jobs, from farm work to bookkeeping, require eyesight.

True, a few blind persons have risen above their handicap, and become leaders in fields normally restricted to seeing people—such as music and writing. Many blind, by plying a skilled trade as basket making, have become self-supporting. But even this takes training which many blind, handicapped by lack of funds, are unable to secure.

A blind person must be in need of the payments, and must have lived in New Mexico for five of the nine years preceding his application, before receiving his payments. He must also have lived in the state continuously during the year preceding his application. No person receiving old-age assistance can qualify for the aid-to-the-blind payments. Neither may a person living in an institution receive them.

Applications in Eddy county for aid to the needy blind are made to Mrs. Charidee Donaldson, County Director of Public Welfare.

A. D. Garten, head coach and physical director of the Eastern New Mexico Junior college at Portales, has been appointed football coach of the Hobbs high school, it was announced at Hobbs last week.

SIDELIGHTS OF INDUSTRY

Good Luck And Bad—

Sombody who had the misfortune to drill a "dry hole" near the producing Edmond oil pool, Oklahoma, a few years ago made a real contribution to today's operators. By installing about five miles of pipe they are able to move salt water, into the abandoned 7,000 foot hole, thus solving, with some economy and little trouble, this ubiquitous problem of the oil fields.

Petroleum Incubator Babies—

Propane and butane, the liquefied petroleum gas twins, were just laboratory curiosities a few years ago.

After graduating from the scientific incubator, they were used for cutting steel. A few years ago the petroleum industry hit on the idea of packaging them in metal cylinders and selling them for domestic heating and cooking use in isolated areas.

The idea worked like a charm. Sales of "bottled gas" jumped nearly a hundred million gallons in seven years. Farms struggling along on wood or coal in the kitchen range blossomed out with hot water heaters, refrigerators and gas lights—all the comforts of home—at a reasonable cost. Besides utilizing a by-product of gasoline manufacture, the industry finds these gases useful raw material in the manufacture of many chemical products.

What's the "Dope?"—

Oil scouts are the eyes and ears of the petroleum industry. They cover vast distances by car and on foot. They sit up all night with "wildcat" tests, stick close when wells come in. They blaze their own trails; scout in all weather; hear all and see all. Best of all, they seldom come back without the "dope."

"Dope" is scout for news. Accurate news, covering all the technical data essential to intelligent decision on oil-producing possibilities. As they go their rounds, scouts constantly are alert for news of "wildcat" tests, lease plays, pipe line surveys, and other preliminary developments.

Scouts once carried binoculars, hid under floors to get the "dope." They were good boxers, wrestlers, and runners. Had to be—to escape the wrath of drilling crews who caught them snooping!

Snooping went out when organized development came in. Scouts of all companies now cooperate; exchange "dope" regularly at "check" meetings.

Modern scouts know more about geology and law than fighting. They're wise on leases, contracts, and other legal forms. They can spot a geological formation at fifty paces; scent drilling activity ruses away. Tact has supplanted toughness in dealing with busy drillers. Good will, dependability, and cooperation have superseded the binoculars in getting the "dope."

In the Spring—

In the spring a chemist's fancy turns to thoughts of perfume. That's lucky for the family budget, for without his skill in creating synthetic perfumes a primrose by the river's brim would be just a primrose—and never a perfume!

Tons of primroses would be needed to manufacture a single ounce of natural primrose essence. But with coal tar aromatics as a base and aldehydes from petroleum as a stabilizing agent, the chemist can create natural flower fragrances with perfect artistry at low cost.

Years ago, perfumers paid thousands of dollars for a pound of musk, obtained with trouble and expense from musk deer. Today, synthetic musk is the blending agent for many perfumes.

Still Going Strong!—Model T Fords have been turned out to pasture, but Model T gasoline still is going strong! Just to prove it, ten gallons of 1920 vintage were tried out in a streamlined roadster recently. The ancient fuel responded without a sputter. Well—hardly a sputter! A demonstration proved the stuff was potent, in kick—and aroma! Definitely reminiscent of ripe Limburger!

Petrolines—Carbon black, a petroleum product, is being used to darkened concrete pavements and cut the glare of electric lights. About $67,000,000 worth of anti-freeze for automobile radiators, much of it made synthetically from petroleum products, is sold every winter.

Three special tankers were sent out to Trinidad, Rio de Janeiro and Fort de France, Martinique to rest the Normandie on her last cruise; service de luxe! . . . Petroleum asphalt is being used to surface the airplane runways at hangars. . . . Petroleum supply equipment companies are among the leaders in a campaign to establish health benefits for workers in small plants.

General News Briefs

Italy and Great Britain Saturday signed an agreement which paves the way for a possible four or five power peace line-up in Europe. Italy must carry out her promise to withdraw her combatants from Spain.

Japan has accepted the invitation for holding the 1940 Olympic games in Tokyo, Dr. Shigoro Kano, member of the international committee announced Saturday.

The state highway department opened its summer road building program with nine projects last week, including the surfacing of seventy-three miles on U. S. highways. Projects of interest locally are the surfacing of twelve miles between Alamogordo and Las Cruces, elimination of fifteen miles of grade crossings between Roswell and Clovis and gravel surfacing of eleven miles between Roswell and Vaughn.

Cattle shipments out of New Mexico totaled 32,769 for the month of March, compared with 19,801 head during February.

George Martinez was landed in the Eddy county jail at Carlsbad Thursday charged with stealing three pearl handled revolvers from the Cavern bar at Carlsbad.

President Roosevelt Monday issued a pardon for Dr. Francis E. Townsend, old age pension advocate as he was about to enter a Washington jail to serve a thirty day jail sentence for contempt of a house committee.

Hobbs won the invitational track meet held at Roswell Saturday with 54½ points. Roswell and Carlsbad tied with twenty-five points each and were closely followed by Dexter and Hope with twenty-three and 20½ points.

Republicans took the lead Monday in denouncing Roosevelt's $5,500,000,000 relief recovery program, apparently giving up the strategy of letting the anti-administration democrats take the lead in such matters.

SPRING WEATHER

Spring like weather prevailed over the Easter holidays here with seasonal flowers in evidence. The cold wave which hit here the 9th was evidently the usual weather expected around the Easter season. On that date the mercury dipped to twenty-two degrees above zero and since that time the high mercury reading has reached eighty-six degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hams and family of Lakewood were shopping and visiting friends here Saturday.

Quality in Eggs By Proper Feeding

Poultrymen of New Mexico are exercising more care with their poultry feeding operations in an effort to improve the quality and price of eggs, according to W. M. Ginn of the New Mexico Extension Service.

Thru experiments conducted several years ago by the State Agricultural College, it has been demonstrated that cottonseed meal is an undesirable ingredient to include in a laying mash because of its harmful effect on egg quality. This information has prevented the majority of poultry raisers from using cottonseed meal in the laying mash.

Two years ago the New Mexico experiment station completed experiments which showed that green feed, or its substitute, was essential in maintaining a healthy condition of the poultry flock. However, the experiments also proved that an unlimited use of green alfalfa thruout the day caused the egg yolks to be mottled in appearance. Now all leading poultry raisers feed a measured amount of green feed, usually in the form of a good grade of green colored alfalfa meal. But in order to protect the quality of the eggs, they do not allow the hens to range on green alfalfa early in the morning.

Altho not often practiced, it has been found that the feeding of too much codliver oil, or highly scented fish meal, or meat scrap, will affect the quality of eggs adversely. If the hens receive a good commercial feed, or their laying mash is mixed by a formula that has been tested and recommended by the State Agricultural College, there is no need to worry about bad eggs caused by improper feeding. The majority of leading egg producers are doing a fine job of feeding for both poultry health and quality eggs.

TYPICAL WEEKLY FOOD COST IS $2 TO $3 A PERSON

What is reasonable food cost per person per week? The Bureau of Home Economics in a study of levels of living found wide differences in food expenditures the country over. Only nonrelief white families were included in the study.

Some families spend less than $1 per person per week for food. Others spend that much or more per day. Leaving out the most lavish fourth and the least expensive fourth of the families, representative homes in the two middle groups reported expenditures between $2 and $3 per person per week.

What sort of diets were obtained at these levels of living? At the $2 spending level, about one-seventh of the families for the whole country obtained first-rate diets, but as many as one-third had diets which, if long-continued, would undermine health and vitality. Fewer than one-tenth of those who spent as much as $3 per person per week for food were buying very poor diets. About one-fourth were obtaining first-rate diets which would promote physical well-being. Apparently with more money to spend, families are more likely to make wise food choices, says Dr.

Hazel Stiebeling, who directed the dietary study.

Levels of living, she believes, could be raised by wiser spending. Although additional income would help, better food choices would enable many to achieve adequate diets without increasing their food expenditures.

Wool Market Outlook Better

The domestic wool price situation was strengthened in March by the announcement of a federal government loan program for domestic wool and by slightly higher prices in foreign markets. In view of the relatively large carryover of wool into the new season, domestic prices, the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics says, are not likely to show a material increase until there is a marked improvement in the wool manufacturing situation.

Mill consumption of apparel wool in the United States in February showed some increase over the unusually low level of the previous three months. The February consumption, however, was less than half as large as in February, 1937 and was the smallest February consumption in the past twenty years of record.

United States imports of wool thus far in 1938 have been negligible compared with the large imports in the early months of 1937. In view of the present small mill demands and the relatively large stocks of domestic wool, imports in the first half of this year, according to the bureau, no doubt will be much smaller than in the corresponding months of 1937 and 1936.

Exports of wool from the five principal southern hemisphere producing countries for the 1937-38 season through February were twenty-three percent smaller than in the same period of 1936-37 and smaller for that period than in any of the ten-years 1927-28 to 1936-37. Chiefly as a result of the small exports, apparent supplies in the southern hemisphere countries on March 1 were estimated to be twenty-seven percent larger than a year earlier, and they were twenty percent larger than average March 1 stocks for the five years 1932-36.

State May Furnish Text Books in All Grades Next Year

H. R. Rodgers, state superintendent of schools, disclosed Monday at Santa Fe that if funds hold up when school opens in September, 1939 all textbooks for grade and high schools will be provided by the state.

His assertion was made following a meeting of the state board of education which authorized him to submit a plan of textbook purchase for the coming school year.

The board, meeting in an all-day session for the annual accrediting of high schools dropped two schools at La Joya and Encino, warned three others. Normal university high at Las Vegas and St. Michael's high at Santa Fe and New Mexico Military Institute high school department at Roswell.

Rodgers said La Joya and Encino were dropped because of the "general tone of the schools."

The warnings to the three other schools were made because instructors do not hold valid New Mexico certificates, he said. He explained the instructors have the necessary requirements but do not have the certificates.

The board also approved bond issues in nine school districts including Albuquerque's $250,000 issue. Others approved were for Springer, Farley and districts in Lea, Torrance, San Miguel and Rio Arriba counties.

J. M. Jonas of Lubbock, Texas spent a few days here the past week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dell Walters and family and attending to business matters.

Can Payment Be Stopped On A Bank Check?

If you should lose a check; or have it stolen; or send a check with an order for goods which you find not as represented, you can protect yourself by "stopping payment" on the check at your bank. This is one of the advantages of paying by check.

The bank should be notified at once in writing before the check is presented—giving the number, date, amount and payee of the check. However, never issue a check with the deliberate idea of stopping payment, as that might make you guilty of fraud.

Shots From The Rough

On the Artesia Golf Course

This column is intended to be a regular feature to be a regular feature, and will be concerned with any or all events pertaining to the Artesia golf club.

Having a membership of nearly one hundred, we feel that sufficient transpires in the club to be of interest to the entire community. The past year has seen a gratifying growth in membership and interest in our ranks. The executive committee has outlined an extensive improvement plan which will help the course greatly. New roads, new tee boxes, and continuing good care of the trees and picnic grounds are this summer's projects.

Summertime is tournament time, and last Tuesday night several of the wise-heads met and discussed plans for a "Blind Bogey" tournament. Here's the idea: Upon payment of the nominal fee of twenty-five cents, each player draws from a board a hidden number (one to twenty-five) which will be taken as his handicap. Having drawn, the players, in pairs or foursomes, play nine holes. Each player's net score is then doubled and his drawn handicap is added. That total which equals a hidden number at the top of the handicap card (the "Blind Bogey") wins the tournament. However, suitable prizes have also been arranged for the low net shooter and the high net shooter. Here's one we all have a chance to win. No tournament is a success where only a faithful few participate. Let's all be there, new and old members alike. The date has been set for May day, Sunday, May 1. For further information see the bulletin board, Joe Hamann, or any of the club "brain-trusters," Hamann included.

TAXES

Taxes are paid in the sweat of every man who labors, because they are a burden on production.

If excessive, they are reflected in idle factories, tax-sold farms, and hence in the hordes of hungry tramping the streets and seeking jobs in vain.

Our workers may never see a tax bill, but they pay in deductions from wages, in increased cost of what they buy, or (as now) in broad cessation of employment.

Expenditures of Government from Pres. There is not an unemployed man—there is not a struggling farmer—whose interest in this subject is not direct and vital.

Many Localities To Observe Nat'l. Air Mail Week

Many localities in this section of the state will observe "National Air Week" May 15th to 21st, J. L. Truett, postmaster, announced here Monday. The week will start with the observation of the twentieth anniversary of the inauguration of air mail service on May 15th.

This air mail service was modestly begun twenty years ago with small planes capable of making only eighty miles per hour on a short mail route of 218 miles and has grown into the world's greatest air mail system with 62,826 route miles over which it was necessary for modern planes to fly last year over 70,000,000 miles transporting not only mail but passengers and express at the present high rate of speed.

Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, the birthplace of aviation and Dayton, Ohio, the home of Orville Wright and where the first plane was constructed will be the only two post-offices for which cachets will be furnished by the postoffice department and such cachets will be post-marked only on May 19th.

Local cachets may be mailed on any mail to various points at any time during the week of May 15 to 21 if full rate of air mail is paid. "Wings Across America" will be the subject of an essay contest by all high school students wishing to enter and while there are many prizes offered to the winners of this contest, the first prize is an airplane trip to Washington, D. C. and return from the nearest airport to the home of the contestant. Mail by air during this week of celebration and observe closely the added speed in service resulting in time saved.

30,000 Lambs Have Been Shipped From Chaves County Area

Approximately 30,000 head of fed lambs have been shipped from Chaves county during the spring season, it was reported by Harry Thorne, of Roswell, inspector for the sheep sanitary board, Saturday.

This figure is one of the best that has been reported for this section of the state, and represents practically all the fed lambs from Roswell, Dexter, Greenfield, and other points in the immediate vicinity of Roswell.

Approximately 1,000 head of lambs remain to be shipped from the vicinity, Inspector Thorne reported. He also stated that there was a large amount of fed stock near Dexter, and other points down the valley, yet to be shipped this spring.

The feeding of lambs and cattle in the Pecos valley has been active during the winter season, and it is probable that more stock has been fed in this section of the state than in any past year.

forms us, of the admonition, "Lest we forget!" Forget what? Not men, wounded or the dead, for the memory of these is imperishable. But the lesson war taught us. If we can forget war taught us its own futility, its own needless-ness, its own tragic moral of avoidable disaster, what does it matter about men who have died in past wars? Because if we forget that lesson, what is to keep us from going on to new wars in which more men will die and more battalions of the living dead will intrude upon the consciousness of a nation that can't forget? Lest we forget what might get us into war again, let us remember the disaster we invited in the last war by not making adequate defense the indestructible structure of our desire for peace. Lest we forget how alliances with foreign powers and involvement in international intrigue may draw us into future wars, let us remember our helplessness to avoid war when other alliances and involvements bore their bitter fruit. If we ever forget, the instruments of our forgetfulness will not be callousness for the wounded or irreverence for the dead, but heedlessness of the mistakes which, made again, will bring war again.

NO MORE FLAT TIRES FROM PUNCTURES!

A large object ruptured the tread of this tire and cut into the outer wall of the Seiberling SEALED-AIR tube. Notice how the puncture-sealing gum flowed into the injury and prevented a blowout. If this tire had been equipped with an ordinary tube it would have blown out and probably caused a bad accident.

Hundreds of motorists are killed each year and thousands more severely injured because of tire failure due to sudden flats caused from punctures and blowouts. Take no chances. Equip your car today with Seiberling SEALED-AIR tubes-the most successful puncture sealing tube on the market. Come in today and let us show you its patented construction. This tube can be driven full of nails and still not go flat. See us today for a demonstration.
