Boosters Plan State Grid "Gateway Bowl" Champ Game at Morris Field Saturday, Dec. 9

To Determine Best High School Football Team in New Mexico With Annual Contests Staged at Artesia.

SIX POSSIBLE TEAMS

Carlsbad, Roswell, Silver City, Jal, Raton and Las Cruces Considered.

With post season college grid "bowl" games annually holding the sports spotlight throughout the country, the Bulldog Boosters Monday evening decided to inaugurate here a yearly intersectional high school contest to determine the champion football team of New Mexico in a contest to be known as the "Gateway Bowl" game.

Six possible candidate teams were named for the first such contest, which will be at Morris Field stadium Saturday evening, Dec. 9, all of which are to be contacted this week in order to determine whether they will consider a post season engagement of state-wide interest.

The Jal, Carlsbad and Roswell elevens stand out as possible candidates from this section of the state, the Boosters decided.

The Jal team to date is the only undefeated aggregation of the three. Carlsbad has but one losing game chalked up against her, that one having been won by Jal. And Roswell has not lost a game against another New Mexico team, but lost both to the strong Odessa and El Paso, Tex., gridgers.

Possible candidates against one of the three Southeast New Mexico teams are Silver City, with one loss, and Las Cruces and Raton, each undefeated during the 1939 season to date.

The New Mexico Sports Writers Association, of which Louis Blackburn of Artesia is president, will be asked to select the contesting teams, taking into consideration their relative strength and performance throughout the season.

It was planned by the Boosters to work out a percentage plan, by which both teams playing in the "Gateway Bowl" game will profit, the winner getting a larger cut than the loser. The local cut this year will go towards completing the bathhouse at the swimming pool, which as yet lacks a roof, for which there are no available funds.

Several advantages were pointed out by the Boosters for having an annual state grid championship game at Artesia. Morris Field stadium here is the finest high school grid field in the state and one of the best in the Southwest and will accommodate 5,000 or more sports fans in the permanent and auxiliary stands.

Ag Department Makes Available Loans on Cotton

The Department of Agriculture announced late Tuesday a government loan on cotton, which will make available many thousands of dollars to producers in the Pecos Valley within the next three weeks.

The basis was announced as 8.3 cents a pound f.o.b. interior points for middling 3/8-inch staple, with differentials for port delivery of about 50 points up for freight, Artesia McNally, manager of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers' Association, said he had learned.

The basis was not announced to cover grade and staple for better quality cottons grown in New Mexico. McNally said about half of the cotton in the association's yards, or approximately 3,000 bales, are being held for government loans to be turned over to the government on loan within the next few weeks.

The proportion of cotton being held for the government loans in other gin yards would be about the same, McNally said.

The government loans are much larger this year than for the last two years, he said, and should start money circulating.

Grid Much Better Than Battlefield, Burch Tells Club

Football Referee Speaks at the Rotary Luncheon on Tuesday

Hugh Donald Burch, one of the best informed football authorities in this locality, who has won an enviable reputation as an unbiased field official refereeing football games here this season, struck a responsive note Tuesday noon at the weekly Rotary luncheon, when he declared, "We are lucky our boys fight their battles which are won or lost on the football field, instead of being won or lost on the battlefield."

Burch's remark, at the conclusion of an interesting discussion on the duties and problems of grid officials, and an explanation of plays, showed his fervent love for good, clean sports, which his refereeing has reflected.

The principal duty of the referee at all times, Burch said, is to know where the ball is. But it is also his charge to protect players, the reason for the majority of penalties.

Rules makers, he said, set penalties to do away with dangerous plays. For instance, Burch pointed out, pushing, especially after a ball carrier is downed, easily might injure him. A penalty of fifteen yards is imposed for pushing, he said.

Not only is the referee kept busy, Burch said, but all other officials have their hands full.

The umpire has a problem keeping touch of substitutions, writing each down and ascertaining if any is illegal, Burch said. When there are many substitutions, the official said, it is confusing to record all and keep them straight.

The field judge is charged with the difficult task of watching the time, allowing for time out. And the head linesman not only must keep the ball spotted, but must watch for offside plays and other illegalities.

Mann Lived Most Of 25 Years on a Farm Near Artesia

Further information about Philip Pomroy Mann, 64, who died Oct. 29, which was not available last week, disclosed that the farmer and rancher, who lived east of town, had been in the county about twenty-five years, the greater part of the time at the place where death came.

His wife, the former Roxy May La Fevers, died about three years ago and was buried in Woodbine Cemetery. The body of Mr. Mann was buried by her grave.

They are survived by eight children, all of the Artesia locality: Nita, Mrs. Fred Savoie; Mrs. Vera Stovall, Mrs. Doris Holt, and Allen, Emery, George, Bert and Elery J. Mann.

There also survive eight grandchildren, a brother, J. E. Mann, of Iola, Kan., and a sister in Arkansas. The brother was here for the funeral services Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. W. T. Gissler Dies Suddenly at Home in Artesia

Mrs. William T. Gissler, 70, died at her home here suddenly at 1:15 o'clock Wednesday morning, about an hour after suffering a heart attack. Although she had been poorly the last two years, she had enjoyed unusually good health the last few weeks.

With their mother at the time of her death were her daughter and son, Mrs. Ed Kissinger and Howard Gissler, both of Artesia. Her other son, Ralph Gissler, of Houston, Tex., was to arrive here at noon today.

As Mattie Elizabeth Hawkins, a daughter of James and Dorcas Hawkins, Mrs. Gissler was born April 12, 1869, at Olney, Ill. There she married William T. Gissler fifty-one years ago last September.

To them were born three children, all of whom are living: Ralph Gissler, Houston, Tex., and Elsie, Mrs. Ed Kissinger, and Howard Gissler, Artesia.

There also survive a sister, Mrs. F. C. Congdon, Jersey City, N. J., and a brother, James Hawkins, Sparks, Nev., neither of whom could come to the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Gissler came to the Artesia vicinity about thirty years ago and made their home here since. Mr. Gissler died on Easter Sunday of last year, April 17, 1938.

Funeral services will be at the Methodist Church at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon by the Rev. John S. Rice, pastor. Burial will be in Woodbine Cemetery by the grave of Mr. Gissler.

Miss Mary Evans, daughter of Mrs. L. P. Evans, who has been attending the University of Southern California in Los Angeles since September, has returned to her home on account of illness.

Bulldogs Blank Capitan Tigers Friday 25 to 0

Artesia Gridders Deal Visitors Second Defeat of Season Here—Cinch Game in First Quarter of Play.

The injury weakened Artesia Bulldogs rolled none too gently over the highly-touted visiting Capitan High School gridders to hand the Tigers their second defeat of the season by a 25-to-0 score here at Morris Field Friday evening.

The Bulldogs took the field to repeat their performances of the three previous games, by scoring twice in the first stanza of the contest, putting the game on ice and giving the challenging reserves and Pups, who have seen more action lately than the varsity, a sufficient 12-point lead.

Another pass to Burgess by Rice placed the ball on the Tiger 2-yard line after Rice passed from the 50-yard line to Kennedy, who was brought down on the visitors' 30.

The Bulldogs scored again later in the period, after a power drive down the field carried to the Capitan 15-yard line.

That pretty play which the Bulldogs used to score on the Jal boys, again proved too deceptive for the enemy, when Rice lugged it over unmolested after a three-man handling exhibition left the Tigers baffled.

The early third period touch-down pass, Rice to Juarez in the end zone from the one-yard line, tacked up the Bulldogs' third tally of the game.

To make an almost perfect aerial attack even more successful, Rice passed from the 18-yard line on the first play of the final quarter of the game to Captain Burgess, who took it on the 2-yard line and snaked his way over for the Bulldogs' final score.

The Bulldog reserves and Pups met the versatile Colts' junior squad on the Institute field at Roswell Saturday morning to lose to the much bigger and heavier Colts by a 31-to-0 score. Little

Hunting Season Brings Death to Nimrods as Well as to Bucks in New Mexico Mountains

Many Artesians Get Deer, But More Fail to Connect—Does Are Seen in Far Greater Numbers.

ARE FEW TURKEYS

List of Known Lucky Men and Women Who Bring in Venison.

A number of hunters from the Artesia locality have come in from the mountains with their bucks, but many more failed to make a kill. Very few found turkey, although it had been reported there were many in the Sacramento Mountains.

Does seemed to predominate, some hunters seeing no deer except the prohibited females. And they were seen by a number of parties in herds, unaccompanied by bucks.

So plentiful are does in the rugged Guadalupe that W. C. Bates, who operates the Panama ranch, favors a doe season next year in that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Folkner of Artesia scored a buck each and also brought in a turkey. However, they hunted more extensively than most other hunters, being in the Guadalupe, Sacramento and on the O. L. Miller ranch near Eagle, not far from Elephant Butte Lake.

Among others known to have brought in turkeys, chiefly those having them in storage at the Southwestern Public Service Company plant and those registered at the Brainard-Corbin Hardware Company Store was brought in by Mrs. Hamp Stephens and weighed 179 pounds dressed.

A. C. Kimbrough of Hobbs, formerly of Artesia, killed a 175-pound deer on the Prude ranch, southwest of Hope, the largest reported from that locality.

Armistice Day To Be Observed At Legion Hut

Armistice Day will be observed in Artesia this year with an appropriate program at the hut at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, to which the public is invited.

Plans for the meeting were made Monday evening at the regular monthly meeting of Clarence Kipple post.

S. A. Lanning, post commander, urged that all former-service men whether or not members of the Legion or any other veterans' organization, strive to attend, as the observation of Armistice Day this year is more significant than heretofore in view of the present European conflict.

Members of both troops of Boy Scouts were especially invited and are expected to attend in uniform.

On the program will be the recognized American Legion ritual written for Armistice Day exercises.

O. R. Jeffries Killed in the Guadalupe Sunday Morning—Los Angeles Hunter Shot in Range Near Socorro.

ANOTHER MAN DIES

Frank Pierce, Artesia, Is Victim of Heart Disease Saturday.

The 1939 deer season in New Mexico took its usual toll of human life, as well as of bucks, at least two hunters having been killed, one in the Guadalupe Mountains southwest of Artesia, O. R. Jeffries, 49-year-old Midland, Tex., oil man.

Also a victim of a bullet was Walter Scott Wilson, 39, of Los Angeles, at Sawmill Canyon between Socorro and Magdalena.

Jeffries was accidentally killed Sunday morning by a bullet fired by an unknown person, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury at Carlsbad Monday evening in the court of Justice of the Peace Charles Nealey.

There had been some speculation as to the death of Jeffries, who was found shot through the heart in the Frijole Tank region between the L. L. Prude and W. C. Bates headquarters in the Guadalupe Sunday morning.

Jeffries, it was established, was shot about 9 o'clock Sunday morning, shortly after which his body was found by his son, O. R. Jeffries, Jr., and other members of the hunting party.

After investigation, an earlier theory that Jeffries had shot himself was discounted, as there was no evidence of powder burns. It was said, however, he had climbed into a tree, probably to get a better view of the country, and it was thought at first the trigger of his gun might have caught on a limb.

The body was taken to Oklahoma City, Okla., by Mrs. Jeffries and the son for burial.

Besides the deaths in the mountain regions, anxiety for felt for a number of hunters throughout the state when they became lost. None, however, suffered privation and all reported lost up to this morning had been found.

Max Johnson of Hope, who wandered away from his car in the Guadalupe Saturday, caught a ride into Hope and was planning on getting another car to return for his own, when he learned an intensive hunt was being started for him after he had been missing thirty-six hours. He hurried back to his camp "to report himself found."

Bill Williamson of Carlsbad, hunting near Indian Tank, managed to get separated from his party, but, he declared, after showing up in good health, "I wasn't lost, but my car was."

W. C. T. U. DISCUSSES LOCAL OPTION HERE

Local option was discussed at a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at the Methodist Church Monday afternoon, with a good attendance present.

A business session was held and committees were appointed to help in the move to put temperance signs on the highways and posters in the schools.

STORES WILL CLOSE ON ARMISTICE DAY

It's been settled! Stores in Artesia—the majority of them at least—will close all day Saturday in observance of Armistice Day.

The decision was made at a meeting Monday evening of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, after an attempt to have all store managers sign up to close for the day had failed.

However, the majority wanted to observe the holiday, so the directors voted to make it a business holiday in Artesia.

ROLL CALL STARTS SATURDAY

Coincident with Armistice Day is the start of the annual Red Cross roll call, here and throughout the land.

It is a time everyone should look forward to, rather than dread that "here goes another dollar."

As little as we have to give to worthy causes, we would be hurt if we could not contribute our bit each year to the Red Cross, the one agency which is recognized by all nations as a neutral organization in times of war, the only agency which can be depended upon to come to the aid of any community when disaster strikes.

The Red Cross does not ask how much a community contributed. Rather it asks, "How much do you need to rehabilitate?"

Welcome the Red Cross roll call workers. Make their task as easy as possible. They receive nothing for their work, not even glory, for which they do not ask. They merely help you do that which you should do yourselves: Join the Red Cross!

IT'S TWENTY-ONE YEARS NOW

By request we are re-publishing our poem, "Twenty Years After! I Wonder, I Wonder!" which we used a year ago this week. War then was in the air; now it is a reality. But we cannot help wonder, as we did a year ago, if those who died "to make the world safe for democracy" and who are sleeping 'neath the poppies in France did not die in vain, as thousands of Europe's finest men are doing today.

Of course, the poem—if such it can be called—is outdated today, but here it is:

Twenty years after! I wonder, I wonder
If they sleeping deep 'neath the poppies o'er there
Are peaceful, content, in the war's ceasing thunder,
And think all is tranquil in lands everywhere.

Armistice sounds at the stroke of eleven,
As fighting all stops on the vast Western Front;
And many brave souls in their new home in Heaven
Have found peace on Earth at the end of the hunt.

They fought and they died for Democracy's sake;
They gave up their lives in the name of advance,
Yet they sleep within earshot of strife, nor awake
From their slumber in peace 'neath the poppies in France.

Twenty years after! I wonder, I wonder
If they sleeping deep, in the battlefields there,
Are peaceful, content, in the war's ceasing thunder,
With Mars hov'ring o'er us and war in the air.

LET'S GIVE THREE CHEERS FOR THE MOUNTAINEERS

We have the greatest respect for the hardy ranchers in the Guadalupe Mountains after being in their stomping grounds the last week. Some of them are seen in town every week, at least once, which means a hard trip in and back over what are supposed to be roads, the kind it seems to us once a year would be plenty to travel.

We went in by one road, the worst we ever had seen. And we wouldn't have believed it if we hadn't seen it and traveled it, but the one by which we returned home had the other one stumped a half dozen times over.

Don't let anyone ever tell you the Guadalupe are not rugged in spots, or that those ranchers have a joy ride coming to town.

The ten miles this way from the Lit Prude ranch, until we dropped into a foothill canyon, took exactly one hour thirty-five minutes to travel.

This all may sound funny when we say the entire distance is a gravel road. But the gravel varies from the size of one's fist to his head!

Yep, we surely do have new respect for the hardy mountain ranchers.

TWO DAYS FOR THANKFULNESS

It is a coincidence that Armistice Day and Thanksgiving come so close together, but their proximity prompts Americans to pause and think of the blessings we have in this country.

This year, more than before, we should weigh our blessings and thank our Creator for our democratic republic, for our land of plenty in which even the poorest have comforts and modern day necessities our forefathers never dreamed of, for peace in the land and for two vast oceans at our doors, for the privilege of worshipping however, whenever and whomsoever we choose, for being Americans.

ARMISTICE DAY, 1939

With the second World War raging in Europe, every community throughout the land should celebrate Armistice Day this year with a renewed determination to keep this nation out of the conflict. November 11, 1939, is truly a time for all citizens to turn their thoughts to a program for peace. It is a day which belongs not to war, but to peace.

Armistice Day for the United States marks a victorious transition from a state of war to a state of peace—a peace unbroken for our nation for twenty-one years. This year the day should be one of rejoicing and thanksgiving that the people of our nation are not experiencing the chaotic conditions now being experienced by the peoples of Europe.—H. L. Chaillaux, director national Americanism Commission, The American Legion.

Winchell says British flyers were told to "trust in God and keep your pamphlets dry." Now, whoever read a pamphlet and didn't find it dry?—Albuquerque Journal.

Americans are those strange oafs who lack culture, polish, background and tradition and have learned to live together.—Senator Soaper in Amarillo News.

Famous Trails to Be Located by Old-Time Drivers of New Mexico

How many cattle trails did New Mexico have in the old days? Which was the most famous? Where did they run? Who originated them?

These are some of the questions that have been troubling the State Tourist Bureau and which Gov. John E. Miles is convinced can be answered only by the old trail drivers themselves or by men who were intimately associated with the cattle industry in the early days.

In order to settle these questions once and for all, the governor announced that he is asking the New Mexico Cattlemen's Association to name an old trail driver or businessman, who can qualify as both an old-timer and cattle expert, from each of the cattle counties to meet with him in Santa Fe on Nov. 20 to discuss the old trails.
The Tourist Bureau plans, as its souvenir piece for the Coronado Cuarto Centennial, to issue a historical map showing the trails of the conquistadores, the old stage lines, the Santa Fe trail and the famous cattle trails.
"Historians," Gov. Miles said, in calling the meeting, "aren't in accord just where the old cattle trails ran. We hope to reach a unanimous decision at the November meeting on the location of the cow trails."
"The historians can battle it out among themselves as to the exact location of the trails of the conquistadores."
Gov. Miles said he expected a spirited debate among the old trail drivers, but he said he didn't believe it would be necessary to ask the cow waddies to park their shootin' irons outside.

The historical map being prepared by the Tourist Bureau, the governor said, will show among other trails, the routes of Coronado, Espejo, Onate, Escalante, the Santa Fe Trail, the Butterfield Trail, the Chisum Trail, the Goodnight-Loving Trail, the Jim Stinson Trail, the Comanche Trail, Gregg's Trail and the Trail of the '49'ers.

Little Known Facts and Sidelights on Oil Industry

So Business Is Bad?

Business may be dull, but the investors and promoters are on their toes still! Here's a few of the new "numbers" — gadgets to you—now being readied for market:

Canned sliced bananas; motor car radio aerial which extends itself when you push a button on the dash; illuminated "billy" for cops; parlor games based upon love and baseball!

Baseball catcher's mit padded with cellulose sponge; electric razor with massage applicators; wiper for rear windows of sedans; socks with embroidered bugs; a mop which can be laundered!

Cocktail shaker equipped with bells; bristle-less brush; waterproof bag for carrying goldfish; brush for applying lip make-up!

Corn-and-ater-ology—
Petroleum chemists, taking a tip from a current best-seller have titled ethylene chlorhydrin, "Wake Up and Sprout!"

When sleepy potatoes are dipped in a solution prepared from this chemical, their eyes are opened to the folly of dormancy. Sprouting starts way ahead of schedule.

Some spuds sprout with only one whiff of ethylene chlorhydrin vapor. It depends on how sleepy a tuber is, what part of the country it hails from and whether it's headed for storage or planting.

De-worming corn on the cob is becoming merely a matter of squirting a few drops of highly refined petroleum oil on the corn-silk. It penetrates the silk, smothering the small worms and driving out the larger ones.

Training Trailers—
A trailer manufacturer has developed a training course for new trailer owners so that they can use the somewhat unhandy equipment immediately without delaying traffic.

Trailer purchaser is taught how to drive, back up, turn around, park and how to care for the vehicle. Trailer purchasers' wives may take a course not only in driving, but in trailer housekeeping, cooking, and the like.

Campers are not the only trailer-buyers, it appears, the manufacturers having found a substantial market among sales organizations which find the trailer convenient for showing and demonstrating goods right on the spot. Horsemen are using trailers to transport the nags between tracks, and huntsmen are finding them mighty convenient to transport their dogs. The office-on-wheels trailer long has been in use.

"Gushers" Are Gone—
"Gushers" are gaudy, but un-economical! They are passing from the modern oil field scene. Being wasteful of oil, they now are regarded as accidents, the result of poor operating technique, or carelessness.

In order to prevent waste, every precaution now is taken to bring in every new oil well under complete control. Once in a while one gets away, but it is now an occasion for sympathy instead of congratulations.

Going North—
Captain Donald B. Macmillan, Arctic explorer, who returned recently from his seventeenth trip to the Arctic, brought interesting news about oil burners.

His latest sturdy little vessel, tough enough to break an ice pack nine feet thick, burns oil. He says it operates on petroleum, seal oil, whole oil, or walrus oil! Co-eds!

The petroleum industry is finding it wise policy to satisfy the feminine desire to join their husbands in vocational training, first aid, and other industrial courses. Latest proof-of the value of such co-education is Mrs. Don N. Pumphrey, of Sanford, Tex., who saved her husband, daughter and mother from asphyxiation by carbon monoxide gas three days after she had completed a course in first-aid training.

Mrs. Pumphrey, awaking one night to find her relatives unconscious and showing symptoms of asphyxiation, opened the windows, dragged the three from their beds, and used ammonia for stimulant. Within an hour her husband was able to seek aid from the neighbors. Before he had returned the others were restored to consciousness.

Shovel Your Path, Mister?—
Commuters discovered recently that snow plows stage a sit-down strike when flakes are sticky. Cheering news is an attachment for pneumatic-tired lawn mowers which convert them into gasoline-powered snow plows. Operation requires only enough elbow grease to hold the handles. Neighboring skating rinks can be plowed and swept at one swoop of an additional attachable revolving brush.

Petrolines—
A single gallon of gasoline will keep a new 10-pound outboard motor running at full speed for 10 hours.

Oil producers are planning new wells to be drilled to five-mile depth.

The librarian likewise suggested that those who have dropped the habit of reading good books during the summer renew their interest in fiction and other volumes during "National Book Week."

She has won three prizes as the result of her three years in the canning project. Miss Vernita Conley, county home demonstration agent, said, "It was only by the very keenest competition that she lost the trip to Chicago. The fact that the winner had three more projects to her credit kept Mary from winning the trip. Mary has ten projects to her credit, and this next year she plans to take food preparation. She and her sister, Helen, have outstanding records since entering the Cottonwood 4-H Club work in 1935."

WHAT'S WHAT in NEW MEXICO

News Briefs of the "Sunshine State," Gleaned from Many Sources

New buildings have been erected or are under construction at all but one of the state's ports of entry, Chief Earl Stull said. Work recently began on a new building at Chama, he said, and plans are being made to replace the old structures at Gallup and San Jon. Another step in sprucing up the ports has been the flying of the New Mexico flag.

Mrs. Grace Corrigan, state superintendent of schools, announced that New Mexico high school pupils would be eligible to compete in the nation-wide essay contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The essays, from 500 to 1,000 words in length, are to be written on "The Benefits of Democracy." A first prize of $1,000 and a like sum in other prizes are offered to national winners.

Since its establishment in Fort Worth, Tex., two years ago, the fifth region office of the Public Works Administration has handled 1,166 projects with an estimated cost of $232,032,849. In New Mexico there were forty-four projects costing $7,149,565. Thirty-six are completed at a cost of $4,696,058.

The European war was reflected in New Mexico's October severance tax collections, which brought the state's revenue from metals up to $1,284.20 from $303.62 in October, 1938. Revenue Commissioner J. O. Gallegos said the increase had been brought about by increased production in anticipation of possible repeal of the arms embargo. Total severance tax collections, however, dropped $4,645.28 from the October, 1938, figure, to $52,497.32, a drop of about 8 per cent. October receipts, nevertheless, were $21,403 or 68 per cent above those of September, when receipts dropped to $31,093.33, due to the shutdown of the state's producing oil wells.

October gasoline tax revenues totaled $420,175.06, P. E. Culver, division director, reported to the Bureau of Revenue. The figure represented an increase of $14,578.08 over last year's October receipts, Culver said.

The bear season in New Mexico comes in autumn, right after the bare season, The Albuquerque Journal quips.

This week has been designated "Veterans' Patriotic Week" by Governor Miles. The week is sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars.

New Mexico banks will observe the state's Thanksgiving Day—Nov. 30—as their legal Thanksgiving holiday, the attorney general's office decided. Whether they want to observe Nov. 23—the president's Thanksgiving Day—is up to the banks.

New Mexico sales tax revenue climbed to $327,954 last month, an increase of $47,340 over October, 1938, collections and the tenth consecutive monthly gain, Revenue Commissioner J. O. Gallegos announced. The increase, Gallegos said, was attributable to improved business conditions and more thorough tax collection methods.

The state's liquor consumption declined last month, dropping liquor tax revenue to $57,118, a decrease of $2,337 from October, 1938, collections, S. T. Jernigan, liquor control chief, announced.

State Engineer Tom McClure as president of the New Mexico chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers, announced he would appoint soon a five-man committee to investigate state highway specifications.

Farmers and ranchmen invested $116,318 in New Mexico land during the first ten months of this year when they purchased 72 farms and ranches through the Federal Land Bank of Wichita, according to a statement made by Roy S. Johnson, president.

Completion of preliminary surveys of a new 4-mile highway from Hot Springs to Elephant Butte Dam, which will cut the present distance almost in half, was announced by Highway Engineer Burton Dwyre.

The federal government brought an $813 damage suit in Federal District Court at Santa Fe against J. V. Morris as a result of a collision in 1937 on the Carrizozo-Roswell highway between a truck owned by Morris and a government truck.

AT LONG LAST HERE'S "MAN" WHO BITES DOG

The editor of The Washington Star received this letter from Mrs. George Barnett, Huntley, Va.:

In reference to your editorial, "Man Bites Dog," you may now stop the presses; the news is made. A man, though a very young one, has bitten a dog. On a recent sunny day my grandson, Baby George, was playing in the garden with, we hope, a prophylactic pup. Something appealing about the infinitesimal, almost invisible nose of the Pekinese roused the young man's appetite to an uncontrollable frenzy, and four tiny teeth met on the so-called nose, and history was made. First aid was given nthe Peke, and at last reports both delighted man and outraged dog were doing well. There's your news.

Several recessed cases, including proposed revision of proration formulas for the Hobbs-Monument fields will be heard by the state oil conservation commission Dec. 6, Land Commissioner Frank Worden announced.

New Mexico Women's Club Leaders Visit Artesia

State President Guest as Junior Group is Formed

It was a red letter day in the Artesia Women's Club Wednesday when Mrs. W. R. Goddard of Mesilla Park, president of the New Mexico Federation of Women's Clubs, visited the club.

Mrs. Dennis met with a group of young matrons at the club house at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and aided in the organization of a Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Dallas Gates was elected president; Mrs. Terry Hornaday, first vice president; Mrs. William Bullock, second vice president; Mrs. Arthur Paton, secretary, and Mrs. Wainright Miller, treasurer.

The junior club will be sponsored by Mrs. Hollis Watson and Mrs. A. E. Rain.

It has been one of the aims of the club for a number of years to organize a junior club, but not until this year have their aims and plans materialized.

Mrs. Goddard, who went on a tour of Alaska with a group of old women this summer after the convention held in San Francisco, took her listeners on an imaginary trip to Alaska, giving a detailed description of the scenery, the clubs visited and her impressions of the territory at a meeting held at the clubhouse in the afternoon.

She told what the club work means to Alaska where tuberculosis is so hard to fight and the diseases of the natives which are equally as hard to control.

This was the first visit of Mrs. Dennis to the local club. She was impressed with the activities of the club and especially was interested in the organization of the junior club.

Mrs. Lewis, who is stressing the fundation fund in the third district, urged the Artesia club to do its part in making the district 100 per cent.

The three visiting guests which presented a gift from the club. The presentation was made by Mrs. R. Blocker.

At the close of the afternoon a luncheon was served from a lace covered table with a handsome silver service at each end. The centerpiece consisted of gorgeous autumn leaves, reflected in a mirror with tall yellow tapers in triple holders on either side.

Dainty sandwiches, in which the autumn colors were reflected, frosted grapes and dainty cakes were served with coffee and a by the following entertainment committee: Mrs. Pat Gormley, Mrs. Tom Sively, Mrs. Wainright Miller, Mrs. Arthur Paton, Mrs. P. V. Morris, Mrs. Dale Thomas, Mrs. Edward Stroup, Mrs. E. J. Foster and Mrs. J. D. McMahan.

Mrs. M. Story and Mrs. C. R. Blocker presided at the first hour and Mrs. John Lanning and Mrs. Fay Hardeman at the second hour.

Adding to the glamour of the hour were the colorful floor length frocks worn by the entertainment committee and those who resided at the tea table.

The three visitors, Mrs. Goddard, Mrs. Dennis and Mrs. Lewis were complimented when a 1 o'clock luncheon was served in their honor at the Artesia Hotel Coffee Shop, preceding the afternoon meeting. Refreshments were laid for the visitors by Mrs. Arthur Lewis of Laredo, ex., daughter-in-law of Mrs. John Lewis and Mmes. Fay Hardeman, John Lanning, Jeff Hightower, J. L. Story, Jesse L. Truett, B. B. Daniel, Fred Cole, C. R. Blocker, Dallas Gates and Dale Thomas.

OTHER COMPLIMENTS DAUGHTER ON BIRTHDAY

Mary Katherine Martin was complimented by her mother, Mrs. Irvin Martin, with a party Saturday evening celebrating her ninth birthday.

The youngsters enjoyed games and were given whistles and colorful balloons for favors, after which refreshments were served. For the refreshments and the birthday cake, a pink and green color theme was used and pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the room.

Enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Katherine were Sue Booker, Ruth Rice, Mary Dixon, Alice Ray Martin, Rosemary Martin, Elmira Perry, Johnny Bert Lanning, Jacielyn Runyan, Nevin Baird, Irvin Richard Martin, June Ann Islesler, Marilyn Runyan, Shirley Le Feather, Clarence Carrol Conner, Annette Conner and Kay Booker.

Tom Runyan returned to his home on the Penasco Wednesday for a visit of a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Irvin Martin. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Brainard are expected to return within a few days from a visit with their son, Jay Reed Brainard, and Mrs. Brainard and children, in Nome, Alaska.

No Wonder She Was 'Queen of Hearts'

That certain Royal Highness who concocted pastries "upon a summer's day" may—to use a current phrase—"have had something there." Remember, it was tarts she made; note well her title was Queen of Hearts. There is a sequitur worth pondering: Tarts still have a winsome way with appetites (which is to say hearts!) A tart must start life with a pastry base of dainty proportions—a tender, flaky shell. Into this just-so foundation must go the most luscious of filling. On its top should perch a fluff of whipped cream or a foam of meringue. And somewhere along the line—decorations

Tart Shells

1½ cups flour, 1½ teasp. phosphate baking powder, 1 teasp. salt, ½ cup shortening, ice water. Sift flour the phosphate baking powder and salt together. Cut in shortening. Slowly add enough ice water to form a ball of dough. Toss onto floured molding board; roll out dough and cut into pieces about 3 inches by 3 inches. Fit dough over inverted muffin tins. Prick with fork. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Cool, remove and fill. Six to eight shells.

Banana Chocolate Cream Tarts
1½ sqs. unsweetened chocolate, 2 cups milk ¾ cup sugar, 5 teasp. flour, ½ teasp salt, 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten, 1 tsp. butter, ½ teasp. vanilla, 3 ripe bananas, baked tart shells.

Use ripe bananas (yellow peel flecked with brown.) Add chocolate to milk in top of double boiler. Heat over rapidly boiling water until chocolate is melted. Beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Mix together sugar, flour and salt. Stir slowly into chocolate mixture. Cook until well-thickened, stirring constantly. Cook 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Stir small amount of hot mixture into egg yolks; then pour back into remaining hot mixture while beating vigorously. Cook 1 minute longer. Remove from heat and add butter and vanilla. Cool. Peel and slice bananas into tart shells, allowing ½ banana to each tart. Cover immediately with cooled filling. Top with meringue or sweetened whipped cream. Fills 6 to 8 tart shells.

Florida Chiffon
2 cups grapefruit section, 1 pkg. lemon gelatin, ½ cup hot water, ½ cup heavy cream, ½ cup powdered sugar, 1 egg white.

Drain the juice from the canned grapefruit, reserving juice. Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add 1 cup grapefruit juice. Chill until syrupy. Beat until light and foamy. Beat egg white stiff. Beat cream. Fold egg white, cream and sugar into gelatin. Pour half this mixture into baked pastry shells. Arrange half the grapefruit sections on top mixture, a few to each shell. Cover with remaining gelatin mixture; arrange a few grapefruit sections on top.

Coffee Creme Tarts
2/3 cup sugar, 5 tsps. cornstarch, ½ teasp salt, 1 cup evaporated milk, 1 cup double-strength, freshly made coffee, 1 egg, slightly beaten, 1 teasp. vanilla.

Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt. Heat milk and coffee together. Add gradually to cornstarch mixture, stirring constantly. Cook over boiling water until thick and smooth, stirring frequently (about 15 minutes.) Pour part of mixture over egg, blending thoroughly. Return to double boiler and cook 2 minutes longer. Remove from fire; cool. Add vanilla. Turn into tart shells; top with whipped cream.

Peanut Butter Holiday Tarts
½ cup peanut butter, 2 cups skim milk, ½ cup sugar, 1 teasp salt, ½ teasp. cinnamon, ¼ teasp. nutmeg, ¼ teasp. all-spice, 2 egg yolks, well beaten, 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten, 1 teasp. vanilla, 6 unbaked 3½-inch tart shells.

Place peanut butter in bowl, add ½ cup of the milk, beating with rotary beater or electric mixer until smooth. Add remaining milk; beat until blended. Mix together sugar, salt and spices. Add to egg yolks, beat until light. Combine with peanut butter mixture. Add vanilla. Fold into egg whites. Pour into tart shells. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 15 minutes; then decrease heat to slow (325 degrees F.) and bake 30 minutes longer. Serve plain or topped with whipped cream. Yield: six tarts.

Market Only Birds In Best Condition Service Advises

Unusually Large Turkey Crops in Prospect in State This Year

With an unusually large turkey crop in prospect this year, producers may expect low prices unless the birds go to the market in good condition, says E. E. Anderson of the New Mexico Extension Service. While many growers will doubtless be disappointed in the prices they receive for their best birds, it will certainly be unprofitable to place thin birds on any market where turkeys are purchased on grade. Where the supply is plentiful, the market demand for quality is apt to be exacting. Birds lacking condition are severely penalized.

Experience of the more successful turkey growers seems to indicate that the best practice is to sell the birds when they are finished and ready for market, being careful not to sell individuals that are thin, piny and immature. Any that are not ready at a given time should be held over until they are in proper condition.

Before marketing, catch each bird and examine the flesh. If finished, the breast will be broad and full, with the breast bone well covered. The back, hip and pin bones will be fully covered. When the feathers are separated, the skin appears light in color, the dark meat being covered with fat. A bluish appearance of the skin and short pin feathers on the breast, and especially over the back and hips and under the wings, are indications of immaturity and lack of finish.

Turkeys that have received a liberal ration of both grains and mash all summer and fall usually reach good market condition without going through a fattening process. On farms where they have not been kept on full feed, it is usually advisable to feed more heavily of grain, and possibly a growing mash, for a month or more in advance of the time they are to be marketed. It is also worth while to restrict somewhat the area in which the turkeys are being finished for market, as those on free range will not add weight as rapidly as birds kept on a somewhat restricted area. Care should be taken, however, not to confine them too closely.

WOULDN'T HITLER HAVE FUN IN DAMASCUS CITY?

Damascus is six miles in circumference and there are three well developed sections of Mohammedans, Jews and Christians. The Street Called Straight, spoken of in Acts, is one mile in length, has a corrugated roof, and runs from east to west.

The city has 200 mosques, many Christian churches and Jewish synagogues, and a large export trade.

Brazilian Butterscotch Tarts

3 eggs, slightly beaten, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup dark syrup, ¼ teasp. salt, 1 cup coarsely chopped Brazil nuts, unbaked pastry shells. Mix eggs, sugar, syrup, salt and Brazil nuts together. Pour into muffin tins which have been lined with the pastry. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 minutes, then reduce heat to 325 degrees F. and bake until filling is firm, about 50 minutes.

Want to Feel like a Big Shot?

WHAT we mean is, how'd you like to feel like you used to think a big shot must feel, cruising along in his big brawny Buick, envy of every youngster in town?

Fact is, a big brawny Buick — this year's beauty of a Buick — is within your reach right now.

A husky headlong 107-horsepowered giant valve-in-head straight-eight can be yours to command—you can roll around town in the staunch and steady carriage that's sure big, beautiful and a bearcat in action when its boss gives the word!

Yes, you can ride in the gentle lap of Foamtex-cushioned luxury—shift gears with a finger-flick, take bumps in BuicCoil Springing's "full float" comfort, even signal your turns by a touch on a lever.

And what do you pay for all this — budget-bursting prices?

Ix-nay! On the contrary, you can buy a Buick for less than some sixes! And you'll find when you look into what's included in these prices that they cover many an item that you will be asked to pay extra for elsewhere.

So lift your sights. This year, go after the car you really want—which means talking with your nearest Buick dealer—right now!

Here's How to Keep The Well Baby Well

Most babies are well when they are born. The greatest desire of all parents is to keep them so. The Children's Bureau, in a folder, "Keeping the Baby Well," says the baby should be fed according to the doctor's advice, taught good health habits, and, with the doctor's help, safeguarded against disease.

The folder gives the following four recommendations for avoiding disease: Start immunization against diphtheria when the baby is 9 months old and immunize him against smallpox before he is 1 year old.

Keep him away from anyone who is ill. A person who has "only a cold" or "just a cough" may infect a baby and make him seriously ill. Never take the baby into crowded places, such as stores or theaters. Keep flies and other insects away from him and from his food. Boil his milk and drinking water and, unless the doctor orders otherwise, cook all his other food except fruit juices and cod-liver oil.

Miles Endorses Campaign Birth Registration

Gov. John E. Miles has called upon citizens and public agencies of New Mexico to cooperate with the State Department of Public Health in a campaign to secure more complete registration of births.

The campaign is educational in nature and will be carried on in every county of the state until the close of the year.

The governor said, "The registration of births is one of the many important services rendered the individual by the state. Official proof of age, place of birth and parentage are safeguards for the citizens which the state protects by means of a birth certificate."

"Every child can be so protected if the proper steps are taken. This campaign undoubtedly will bring about the registration of many children who otherwise would never possess an official record of birth. "Along with its work in promoting child health, the public health service of the state is to be complimented for concentrating upon this other important aspect of child welfare."

Colds Invited By Overheated Homes, Offices

Thermomaniacs — persons who accustom themselves to room temperatures higher than 70 degrees — will lead the country in picking up common colds this winter, according to Dr. William De Kleine, medical adviser of the American Red Cross.

Dr. De Kleine points out that many factors of the common cold are still a mystery to the medical profession, yet certain conclusions have been reached as to their cause. Most cases are a direct result of dry, overheated offices and homes, he says.

Those who bundle themselves in heavy underwear and rush to the furnace thermostat to create an arid and unnatural temperature with the onset of cold weather are inviting a series of colds for the winter, Dr. Kleine says. Surveys show that persons engaged in outside work are less susceptible to colds than the office worker, regardless of weather conditions.

To minimize the chances of coming down with a cold, those who spend most of the day indoors should wear ordinary clothes, Dr. De Kleine advises. The weight of the clothing should not be regulated by the 20 or 30 degrees outside but by the 70 degrees which should reign indoors.

The demands of the colder temperature outdoors can best be met with an overcoat of a weight best suited for the season. Last year, the Red Cross official explained, 20 per cent of all absences among working people and school children resulted from colds.

State Capitol Notes

From
New Mexico Bureau of Revenue
J. O. GALLEGOS, Commissioner

The tenth consecutive gain in total tax collections was reported by State Revenue Commissioner J. O. Gallegos who said October collections had totaled $327,954.43, an increase of $47,340.60 over October 1938 when collections were only $280,613.83.

Gallegos said October collections in excess of $300,000 indicated that the school tax division will maintain monthly collections in excess of that figure, considering that out of the first ten months of 1939 there have been six months in which collections were in excess of that figure.

These increases," the commissioner pointed out, "are not imposing an extra burden upon the individual purchasers — the houses and heads of homes—but are arising from a more rigid policy of auditing and collecting the tax from those who collect it from the individual."

Now that all business houses reporting on the same basis," he added, "we can look forward to continued increased collections."

Best statistical information available shows that business during the last 10 months in New Mexico has increased about 9 per cent over the same period of 1938," Director G. S. Carter of the school division said. "That accounts for some of the 17 per cent increase in October collections, and, added to the results we are obtaining in our active auditing and checking program, brings about the total of 17 per cent."

It is interesting to note," the director said, "that our program producing helpful results for the school children and the taxpayers, considering that we issued during October approximately $100 in credits covering overpayments of the school tax by the taxpayers."

Governor Miles has been most active in his instructions to us to be as ready to issue credit vouchers for overpayment as we are to issue debit vouchers for underpayment and this policy has been approved by all business men who report and remit school tax."

Nothing gives me more pleasure than to announce that the Compensating Tax Division has transferred to the Department of Public Welfare, earmarked for the elderly old folks, more than $50,000 during the first ninety days of the life of the so-called use tax law," Gallegos said when reporting October collections of $24,729.4, an increase of $4,704.73 over September.

"Carter has accomplished these results in spite of extreme criticism of the law by many not familiar with its purpose and the destination of the funds collected," Gallegos said, adding that "we look to the future in the certainty that we will be able to provide about $250,000 per year, which when matched with federal dollars, will give New Mexico's needy old people $500,000 per year from this tax source."

Stating that he had met many major and independent oil men who operate in New Mexico while at Fort Worth representing the governor at the Independent Petroleum Association convention, Carter said "not one had any criticism to make regarding our administration of the law, which is significant in view of the fact that the oil industry is paying from 50 to 60 per cent of this tax."

"Add to this the important fact that the public utilities, railroads and contractors, who are paying 25 to 30 per cent of this tax, have cooperated with the division to the utmost and we have reason to show that those who are paying the tax are not complaining about it," Carter said.

"Like all new tax laws," the director pointed out, "its critics are those who do not pay the tax but are found in the cheering section making it a little tougher for the tax collection authorities to get the job done."

New Mexicans did not drink as much last month as they did in October of 1938.

The report of S. T. Jernigan, liquor control division chief, showed receipts of $57,118.29, $2,337.22 under October, 1938 when receipts totaled $59,455.51.

According to the report, wine drinking more than doubled with receipts from wine stamps totaling $13,809.90 as compared with $6,014.92 in 1938. Liquor stamp receipts dropped from $6,574.02 in 1938 to $36,812.29 and malt beverages from $6,866.57 to $6,495.57.

An increase of $14,578.08 in October gasoline tax receipts was reported by Director P. E. Culver. The report showed receipts of $420,175.06 as compared with $405,596.98 in October of 1938.

The license of R. W. Long, proprietor of the Lakeview Bar at Eagle Nest Lake, has been revoked by the liquor control division.

Long was charged with selling liquor to a minor and had been convicted in district court at Raton.

Although severance tax collections in October decreased $4,645.28 as compared with October of 1938, there was a jump in tax collections on metals from $303.62 to $1,284.20, Gallegos said.

He said the increase in metal taxes was significant in view of the war in Europe and an increased demand on production resulting from the possibility of repeal of the arms embargo.

Receipts totaled $52,497.32 as compared with $57,142.60 in October of 1938, a drop of 8 per cent.

October receipts, however, were $21,403.99 or 68 per cent over September when receipts dropped to $31,093.33 due to loss in revenue from the oil industry resulting from the shutdown in August.

Facts About 4-H Club Work Found In State Survey

Former Members Interviewed in Three New Mexico Counties

The results of a survey made in three representative New Mexico counties by Dr. E. H. Shinn, senior agriculturist, Survey and Reports Section, U. S. D. A., in cooperation with the New Mexico Extension Service, just have been received. The purpose of this survey, during which 235 men and women who were 4-H Club members during the period 1920-26 were interviewed, was to find out what 4-H Club members do after they have finished with club work.

In conducting the survey, a questionnaire was filled out by each club member containing information on the 4-H Club record, the school attendance and the various positions held by that person.

The average age of the individuals interviewed was 25 years. It was found that 92.2 per cent of the men and 81.2 per cent of the women were reared on farms which their parents owned; 62.1 per cent of the men are farmers at present. Of this number, 31.2 per cent are farming as owners and 37.5 per cent as tenants. It also was determined that 66 per cent of the men and 66.2 per cent of the women are married and that 33.8 per cent of the men and 23.9 per cent of the women married former 4-H Club members.

The largest percentage of women are homemakers, 57.9 per cent being in this group; 19.5 per cent are professionally employed as teachers, extension workers, or office workers.

The average number of years in club work was 2.8 for the men and 3.2 for the women. The most popular project with the men was gardening, while clothing was carried by the majority of the women. Of the men, 32 per cent entered college and completed an average of 2.8 years; 52 per cent of the women attended college for an average of 3.4 years.

In completing the questionnaire, each person was asked to indicate whether or not any training had been received in club work which proved beneficial in later years. In reply, 70.2 per cent of the men and 64.3 per cent of the women stated that club work had helped them to improve their personality, education and citizenship.

WINTER DISARMED

90-hour threat
ended by OIL-PLATING
your engine today

You can probably agree that these are certainly conservative figures . . .

- 4 or 5 months of nasty weather right ahead of you now
- 8 or 10 daily cold starts for your car
- 6 to 8 minutes per start, till your engine's near-warm

And yet even that can run up your engine's cold-weather "starting-stretch" to right around 90 hours! . . . The foulest 90 hours that Gangster Winter could fire at your engine—your battery. And don't ever hope to halt him with motor oils whose biggest brag is "fast flow." That's not enough—and it's not your money's worth, considering that "fast flow" is mighty slow Winter lubrication compared to OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING in your engine will lubricate before any oil can circulate. That's because the minute you start up with patented Conoco Germ Processed oil it makes OIL-PLATING "magnetize" to all inner engine surfaces, so that it cannot drain down again. It cannot retire to the crankcase as you park the car. Like any other good plating, OIL-PLATING stays right where it's plated by Germ Process action—all over the working parts. They've "got on" their OIL-PLATING all the while you're indoors. They never "take off" their OIL-PLATING. When you come out to start then, your OIL-PLATING can't be delayed even 90 seconds—or one-ninth of a second! And away you go. The battery hardly knows it was working. And it's a good long while before the gauge-stick calls for an added quart of Germ Processed oil. Your Mileage Merchant has your right Winter grade. Change today—to that Conoco station of his. Continental Oil Company

Treaties of World War Might Have Brought New One

Bruce Discusses Late Conflict in Armistice Day Talk to Lions

J. Clark Bruce, Artesia High School social science teacher, raised the question at the weekly Lions Club luncheon Wednesday noon in an Armistice Day talk as to whether the objects for which the World War was fought, "to make the world safe for democracy" for one thing, have been accomplished, or whether the treaties formed at its conclusion have not tended to bring on the present war.

Whether the United States is drawn into the conflict or not, Bruce declared, it would be well to consider on the anniversary of the signing of the armistice such treaties as might be drawn up at the conclusion of the struggle.

The tendency at the end of the World War, especially on the part of France, was to keep Germany weak, which left a feeling of injustice and gave rise to the Nazi party in opposition, in order to "get a place in the sun," Bruce said.

Germany demanded the return of her colonies and other territory taken from her in 1918. And she went about to regain them under the leadership of Hitler, Bruce said.

He said he wonders if a similar treaty should be made at the end of the present conflict, no matter who wins, whether a similar situation might be forthcoming in twenty years.

In order to give the Lions something about which to think, to point out the uselessness of war and the fact no one gains, Bruce gave figures showing the great cost and debts of the World War. The debts alone, he said, totaled 100 billion dollars, the interest on which would pay for a $1,000 scholarship for each college student in the world every year.

And Now Come Quail and Duck Seasons Next

Many hunters will shift back from rifles to shotguns Friday, when the quail season will open, to remain open until Dec. 15.

Then next in line will be the duck season, which will be from Nov. 15 to Dec. 29.

Ten quail may be killed each day, with a maximum of fifty during the season.

The migratory water fowl season, set by the Biological Survey, allows hunting only from 7 o'clock in the morning to 4 o'clock in the afternoon each day.

The daily bag limit on ducks has been set by federal regulations at ten, with not more than three of one kind or in the aggregate of canvasback, bufflehead, redhead or ruddy.

The bag limit on geese is four a day and the possession limit on either ducks or geese is two days' bag.

Twenty-five coot may be shot a day or in one's possession, while the daily kill and possession limit on Wilson snipe is fifteen.

Besides a state hunting license, a hunter must have in his possession a duck stamp in order to legally hunt waterfowl. Stamps may be purchased at any postoffice at $1 each.

Son of Nazarene Pastor Dies at Home Wednesday

William Lee Phillips, 10-year-old son of the Rev. and Mrs. Lee P. Phillips of the Church of the Nazarene, was found dead in his bed at the parsonage about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, after an illness of about two weeks. He had called his mother about 6 o'clock and attempted to talk to her. His death was sometime between that time and the time he was found dead.

The boy's tonsils were removed two weeks ago, at the time the illness began, since when he had been in school but one day and during which time he had complained of a chronic headache.

The body was shipped this morning to Waco, Tex., where both his father and mother were reared and where services will be held at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Friday afternoon by the Nazarene pastor of Waco, the Rev. F. M. Bugh. Burial will be at Waco. The Rev. and Mrs. Phillips left for Waco by automobile last evening.

Surviving the little Phillips boy, besides his parents and grandmother, are a brother and sister at home here, Carroll Jackson and Mary Elizabeth Phillips, and a sister a Waco, Virginia Fern. Another brother, Horace Layman Phillips, preceded him in death.

William Lee Phillips was born Aug. 19, 1929, at Houston, Tex. He came here last May from Coleman, Tex., with his parents, when his father became pastor of the Artesia Nazarene Church. The Rev. Mr. Phillips was pastor at Coleman five years before coming here. William Lee was in the fifth grade at Central School.

Mrs. Lewis Cole underwent a major operation in a Carlsbad hospital Wednesday and is reported as getting along nicely. Mrs. Buford Gray, a sister-in-law, is staying with Mrs. Cole for a few days.

MRS. GREEN'S MOTHER DIES IN DALLAS, TEX.

Mrs. W. G. Rushing, mother of Mrs. B. E. Green of Artesia, died in Dallas, Tex., Thursday of last week. Mrs. Rushing, who was past 70 years of age, had been ill for about two months. Mrs. Green, accompanied by her son and daughter, Harold Green and Mrs. Garland Rideout, had returned to Artesia on Wednesday, the day before the death of their mother and grandmother. They had spent about a week in Dallas. Burial was made at the family burial grounds in Noonday, Tex. Mrs. Green did not return for the funeral.

Mrs. Taylor Montieith of Lovington, known by many of the Artesia folks, is recovering from pneumonia, according to an announcement made by Mrs. George Williams, who visited in the Montieith home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arba Green expect to leave some time next week for Murray, Ky., where they will visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. LaFollette and two daughters, Mary Sue and Margaret. They will be accompanied on the Kentucky visit by Mrs. Green's sister, Miss Effie Green of Alba, Mo.

Mrs. G. U. McCrary, who was called to Santa Fe the latter part of last week on account of the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Keith McCrary, returned home Monday, bringing her grandson, Keith McCrary, with her. Mrs. Keith McCrary, who was seriously ill of pneumonia, expects to be brought to Artesia Saturday to recuperate from her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Conner and children, Billie Lou and Jerry Ross, left Saturday for Klamath Falls, Ore., where they will make their future home. Mr. Conner is employed with the California & Oregon Power Company.

Bulldogs to Face Heavy Portales Rams on Friday

The Artesia High School Bulldogs will face Portales there Friday evening with a great weight advantage against them, the Rams averaging approximately 186 pounds while Artesia's top average for the season was 165 pounds. The Rams' 210-pound running fullback will be the big man in the Portales offense that the Bulldogs will have to stop.

The Rams took the Institute Colts in a breeze Friday, playing the third string in the greater part of the game, while the best the Bulldogs could do was hold the Colts to a tie earlier in the season.

Coach Joe Green's boys will leave here at noon Friday in order to get a brief rest before the game after the long trip.

Green said the Rams are undoubtedly the biggest and toughest aggregation in this part of the state, but that they would have a harder time beating the Bulldogs, who are showing up better in every game, than they did the colts.

Lions Here Are to Eat Steak Sooner Or Later, Announced

The Artesia Lions are planning a steak fry, but they don't know who will pay for it, except that it will be those who fail to attend meetings regularly.

Each absent member during an attendance contest, which was announced at the weekly meeting Wednesday, will be fined 25 cents, to be used towards the steak fry. Probably the contest will end when the Lions have enough in the "kitty" to buy the steaks, which will be a long ways off if the purpose of the contest takes effect. Only members who are out of town or are ill will be excused, it was announced.

Leland Price and "Whitey" Roberts, captains of the opposing attendance teams, read lists of the members of their groups.

W. D. Burks reported that shrubbery ordered by the club to be used in landscaping the grounds at Artesia Memorial Hospital have been shipped and that they should be here by Armistice Day, when members will help plant them.
