Fifty-Seven Locations Staked

Surpasses All Records in Oil Fields of Eddy

Mad Scramble Made by Operators, Trying to Beat Deadline June 30, When Priority Order P-98 Expired.

 STORES HERE TO CLOSE ON FOURTH
 Closing of Artesia stores all day the Fourth of July is planned by the merchants, who will keep their places of business open Friday evening the hours customary for Saturday.
 This will give a two-day holiday, something which will be rare for the duration, but which business men believe can be enjoyed in this community without being in discord with the wishes of President Roosevelt that business in general go ahead on the Fourth.
 This is interpreted here to apply to industries necessary in the prosecution of the war and as there is no such vital industry in Artesia, the stores will close.

Oil operators in Eddy County staked fifty-seven new locations during the last week, the majority on Monday and Tuesday of this week, surpassing by several hundred per cent previous records, as the oil men rushed to beat the deadline of midnight June 30, when priority order P-98 expired.

Unable to guess what new drilling or priority order might be issued by the government, but positive that a sharp curtailment in drilling operations was in store, practically all operators staked locations and in many cases spudded.

The total number of locations staked in Southeast New Mexico was sixty-five, eight of which were in Lea County.

The mad scramble started Monday morning, after announcements from Washington indicated the War Production Board would give little material to the oil industry for wells after June 1. In order to be operating, the oil men staged the unprecedented rush to stake well locations.

Under P-98, the industry has obtained preference ratings on materials with which to carry on its operations, but those close to the situation feel that the new or revised order will not include anything other than for repair, maintenance and operating supplies.

The P-98 order was taking of new drilling which comes under the terms of M-68, regulation order of the Office of Petroleum Coordination for War. It has allowed A-8 ratings for drilling within the 40-acre spacing requirements and A-2 ratings for wildcats, as well (continued on society pages)

Scrap Rubber In North Eddy Is Fifty Tons

Holly Urges Renewal of Efforts as Drive Is Extended Ten Days by FDR—Chairman Hopes to Double Weight.

North Eddy County apparently is running ahead of the nation in the collection of scrap rubber, in the drive which was to have ended at midnight Tuesday, but which has been extended by President Roosevelt an additional ten days.

An incomplete survey Monday evening by Odie Holly, chairman of the North Eddy County conservation board, showed approximately fifty tons of scrap rubber already collected, whereas press dispatches for the nation showed a total of only 219,000 tons accounted for.

The survey by Holly, which took into account only rubber in the possession of gasoline bulk dealers in Artesia, showed a total of 99,047 pounds. Besides that amount there was considerable rubber at some of the service stations, yet to be delivered to the bulk stations, and many tons at rural and mountain stations.

In spite of the good showing made in North Eddy County, Holly issued an appeal for the people not to let down, but to hunt out every available ounce of the precious war material and give or sell it for the war program.

War Vet at Age 16, Willis Baker Released From Marine Corps

A veterans of World War II at the age of 16 years, Willis Baker, son of Mrs. J. L. Briscoe of the Woolley camp, is at home with an honorable discharge, because the Marine Corps discovered his true age.

The youth, who will be 17 years old this month, has been in Hawaii and was to have been sent to the Aleutian Islands.

Records Show 537 Finish Standard First Aid Course

Sixty-three Others Take Advanced—Thousand Hours of Work Donated

The tremendous amount of voluntary work done to July 1 by Red Cross first aid instructors is shown by a summary released by Mrs. Ralph G. Roberson, Jr., first aid chairman for the North Eddy County chapter of the Red Cross, in which she disclosed 537 persons have completed successfully their standard course work.

Besides this number, sixty-three have gone ahead and completed the advanced course, and of those another ten have their certificates for teaching, received after taking an instructors' course.

The totals include a standard class of eight on the Cottonwood and a standard class of eighteen and an advanced class of seventeen at Loco Hills.

Mrs. Roberson estimated that the lay instructors and Mrs. H. A. Stroup and L. F. Hamilton have donated about 1,000 hours of their time in the program. This includes the actual hours of teaching and about the same amount of time for preparation for their lessons. Besides this was the donated time of Mrs. M. C. Francisco necessary to drive to Loco Hills and back for classes there and the time of Wallace Hastings in reaching and returning from his classes on the Cottonwood.

The first aid chairman modestly did not report on the time she has given in Red Cross first aid work, (continued on last page, column 3)

Patriotic Program By Band Tonight In Central Park

Red, White, Blue Lighted Batons—Solos by Musicians From Carlsbad

The weekly band concert in Central Park at 8 o'clock this evening will be marked by a patriotic program and will honor the State Guard and the Artesia High School Cadet Corps. It will be sponsored by the American Legion.

The band will be assisted by W. E. Brady and Miss Beulah Mae Brady of Carlsbad.

Brady, formerly with the U.S. Army band at Washington, D. C., for eighteen years, will play the piccolo part in "The Stars and Stripes Forever," by Sousa, and Miss Brady will play a special arrangement of "American Overture" on a vibraphone with four mallets.

The Artesia High School major-ettes will twirl red, white and blue lighted batons while the band plays a patriotic number.

Commissioner Terry Seeking A Second Term

J. J. (Judal) Terry of the Cottonwood community, Eddy County commissioner for district 2, this week announced his candidacy for nomination subject to the Democratic primary Sept. 12 to succeed himself.

He is running on his record of service and fair dealing with all the people of Eddy County during his first term and is soliciting the support of the voters of the county on this record.

A Cottonwood farmer, Terry has taken an active part in the activities of the farmers of Eddy County a number of years and is a member of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association and the Central Valley Farm & Livestock Association.

He has been a resident of the Cottonwood community the greater part of the time since coming to the Pecos Valley in 1913 from Toyah, Tex., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Terry. He attended school in Artesia, where he was prominent in athletics, especially in football and track. (continued on last page, column 3)

Sisters Operating Hospital

Take Over Wednesday—Lease Contract for Five Years, With Options for Additional Periods—Is Dated Today.

The Sisters-Adorer of the Most Precious Blood of Wichita, Kan., took over operation of Artesia Memorial Hospital at noon Wednesday, while the lease contract is to bear date of today, according to a final agreement between representatives of the order and the city council at a meeting Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Johns, superintendent of the hospital since it was opened in September, 1939, terminated her contract Sunday, June 21, but remained in charge until the sisters could take over.

Mayor Emery Carper, representing the city council, has made a statement to the public, asking for cooperation and explaining the action taken by the city. His statement appears in full on this page.

The lease contract is for a five-year period, with options to extend for four successive terms of five years each, twenty-five years in all, with a provision that the sisters may terminate it by giving a sixty-day notice in the event that they are unable to further operate it through lack of cooperation or any other circumstances making it impossible to continue.

The terms of the contract likewise give the city the right to terminate the contract for gross mismanagement or failure to operate according to recognized standards.

The sisters are given full control of the hospital, but the mayor may appoint an advisory board to consult and advise with them in reference to operation and matters of policy, according to the contract. (continued on society pages)

Currier Asks for Cooperation of All Sugar Consumers

Says Industrial Users Should Register at Once for July and August

George E. Currier, local member of the Eddy County rationing board, this week called attention to several facts pertaining to sugar rationing, among which is the fact that industrial users should register at once for July and August.

This is very important, Currier said, and urged that commercial users see him at the earliest possible moment.

He said there still is some misunderstanding in regard to ration stamps Nos. 5 and 6, not only among consumers, but merchants as well.

Each is good for two pounds of sugar, but for a period of four weeks, instead of one pound during two weeks, as was the case with the first four stamps.

No. 5, he pointed out, will entitle the holder to purchase two pounds of sugar any time up to and including Saturday, July 25, and No. 6 will be good after that day and up to and including Saturday, Aug. 22.

Currier said that although there is no set time for interviews with (continued on last page, column 2)

Statement by Mayor Carper Regarding Artesia Hospital

The city council determined Tuesday to enter into a lease contract with the Sisters of the Most Precious Blood of Wichita, Kan., for the operation of the Artesia hospital. The existing hospital contract had been mutually released as of July 1, and it was necessary for the council to take some immediate action to prevent the closing of the hospital.

The members of the city council during the time the hospital was being built, and since the time it has been in operation, have spent a great deal of time to try to keep it open and maintain it as a going concern without having to place any tax levy or extra tax burden on the citizens. After considerable study and time, the council determined to enter into the contract with the sisters' organization, believing it to be the best solution from every standpoint.

The citizens of Artesia and vicinity made considerable contributions to the establishment of the hospital, and the council feels all of the citizens should be justly proud of the joint efforts. It is hoped that the new management may have whole-hearted cooperation from the citizens of Artesia and its trade territory, so that the sisters' organization will be able to obtain the recognition of our hospital as an approved institution.

All local members of the Eddy County Medical Association were consulted by the council before the lease contract was agreed upon and they expressed unanimous approval of the action.

EMERY CARPER, Mayor of Artesia

The Artesia depot location of the New Mexico Transportation Company was moved as of July 1 from the W. E. Ragsdale building, 511 West Main Street, to the Crile building at 118 South Roselawn and at the same time the agency was transferred from Harold Hannah to Agnes (Mrs. C. O.) Fulton.

J. M. Patterson of Roswell, passenger agent for the company, was in Artesia Tuesday in connection with the change of location and agents and said Mrs. Fulton, well-known local business woman, would take over the next morning.

A number of changes have been made in the Crile building for its use as a bus station. As the buses will not stop in the street, but at the south side of the building, a south door for passengers has been built.

Busses will enter the property from Quay street, where a new drive was built, and will be driven adjacent to the new door. The busses will leave by the same driveway.

Mrs. Fulton and Patterson pointed out the improvement in this method over the old one, by which busses were required to park in the street, an inconvenience to passengers and traffic alike.

John J. Dempsey Will Meet Friends Here Wednesday Next Week

John J. Dempsey, candidate for governor of New Mexico, is to be in Artesia next Wednesday, when he will meet friends at the Artesia Hotel.

The former congressman from New Mexico and undersecretary of the Interior possibly will appear at a public meeting in the afternoon, to address the people of the community.

A number of friends are planning to have an informal dinner for Dempsey, after which he will be "at home" to any of his friends.

Study Traffic Safety Here to Begin Tuesday

Interest in Four-Week School at Woman's Club Is Increasing—Has the Backing of Officials and Local Organizations.

As the time grows nearer for the traffic safety school in Artesia under the sponsorship of the New Mexico Safety Council, interest is growing and indications are that there will be a larger attendance than was anticipated by Ingram B. Pickett, New Mexico safety director.

The school will start at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening at the Woman's Club building and will run four successive Tuesday evenings for two and a half hours each evening.

It has the local backing of Mayor Emery Carper and other city officials, the Chamber of Commerce and about a dozen civic clubs and other groups.

The majority of them were represented at a meeting Tuesday of last week with Pickett, at which time it was indicated the community wants a traffic safety school. The time and place were established at that meeting.

"Sound Driving Practice," a booklet, will be used for text, but there also will be talks and discussions.

Pickett warned that the course is "stiff" and that in order for one to receive a certificate at the conclusion of the classes, it will be necessary to study the booklet. The state safety director himself will be here for the opening session next week and for the fourth session on July 28. At the first he will discuss how to save (continued on last page, column 3)

Barbecue, Dance, 'Son-of-a-Gun' at Hut the Fourth

The American Legion's Fourth of July barbecue and dance at the hut Saturday will be the most extensive such affair the post ever has attempted, according to the committee, headed by Charles Morgan.

It will start off at noon with the serving of "son-of-a-gun," with barbecue next on the program, at 4 o'clock. There will be dancing during the afternoon as well, but the main dance will start at 9 o'clock in the evening.

Major Loren E. Neeley, who is in charge of the food preparation, has secured many pounds of choice meat. And he reported that the traditional cowboy stew, "son-of-a-gun," should be of the best, for he will have the assistance of the best cooks the Legion claims in its membership.

Morgan said the affair is being given for the benefit of the Legion's civilian defense program fund.

Atwood Says People Of America Do Not Want News Tempered

Col. J. D. Atwood of Roswell, a guest Tuesday noon of the Artesia Rotary Club, pointed out that he believes the sale of War Bonds and Stamps would soar if the people were always told the whole truth in regard to the war, that the American people can take it and do not care for the bad news to be tempered.

America, he said, will be the deciding weight in the world conflict and that the United States high command, because of the wide spread of activities, understands the problems better than does any other nation.

M. G. Schulze, retiring president of the club, who will step aside next week for A. P. Mahone, expressed his thanks for the cooperation of the club the last year and told how he has enjoyed serving.

Lumber Mill at Edge Town Is Coming Nicely

Construction on the new sawmill here of the New Mexico Eastern Lumber Company is progressing nicely and operations should begin before many weeks.

The mill, situated north of the Conoco refinery and just north of the Artesia city limits on the Joe Nunn property, is being built by a group of Kansas City businessmen, who plan to ship their finished lumber to Kansas City after the emergency. For the present they will cooperate with the defense building program, but will transfer their output to civilian use after the war, according to H. C. (Bert) Bidwell, vice president and manager, who is here supervising construction of the plant.

Bidwell said the potential output of the sawmill will be 2,000,000 lumber feet.

The present building will be 60x60 feet. There also is under construction a dry kiln, with a capacity for handling the better grades of lumber.

The mill will saw lumber from the Sacramento Mountains, Bidwell said.

Robert Gurley Is Victim of Heart Attack Wednesday

Services Awaiting Word From Son, Roy, Who Is in the Navy

Robert Elunzo Gurley died suddenly at his home here at 11:05 o'clock Wednesday morning of a heart attack, three days after his sixty-ninth birthday. He died almost immediately when stricken.

Mr. Gurley had suffered from leakage of the heart since coming to Artesia in 1937 and had been quite poorly the last year.

The time for the funeral was not immediately announced, as the family is waiting for a son, Roy Gurley, who is in the Navy, attending radio technical school at Los Angeles. The services will be from the First Baptist Church, probably Friday or Saturday. They will be in charge of the Rev. S. M. Morgan, pastor of the church, and burial will be in Woodbine Cemetery.

Mr. Gurley is survived by his widow and nine children: Mrs. Raymond Phillyow, Golden, Colo.; Mrs. Opal Carter, Guyton, Okla.; Mrs. Ona Gunn, Brooks, Ore.; Mrs. Jewell Blackston, Brooks, Ore.; Mrs. Ruby Williamson, Guyton, Okla.; Mrs. Jettie Robinson, Galesville, Wis.; Roy Gurley, U.S. Navy, and Ralph and Delbert Wayne, at home.

There also survive a brother, E. O. Gurley, Alamogordo, and three sisters and fourteen grandchildren.

Robert Elunzo Gurley, a son of Judson and Della Gurley, was born at Dexter, Tex., June 28, 1873. At Dawson, Okla., on Aug. 20, 1905, he married Maud Ross and to them were born the nine children mentioned as surviving.

The family moved to Guyton, Okla., in 1906 and lived near there on a farm until 1933, when they moved to Carnegie, Okla. Mr. Gurley farmed there four years and then in 1937 brought his family to Artesia.

A CHALLENGE TO EVERY DRIVER

You can? Are you positive? Think hard, now! Well, perhaps you can answer those few questions, and furthermore you have been driving twenty-three years come Grandma's birthday in October, but we'll bet you a pretty that there are many things you don't know about driving.

You'd be surprised how many people think they know all of the answers about traffic and traffic safety, until they take the course offered under the sponsorship of the New Mexico Safety Council. That's what Ingram B. Pickett, state safety director, discloses. And he further discloses that the vast majority of persons who took the course in Albuquerque flunked—much to the surprise of the students, but not of the instructors.

However, "Your Seven-Foot Traffic Friend"—that's Pickett—maintains that the percentage should be the other way round, if an average person taking the course will devote some time to study. The school in Artesia, you know, will start next Tuesday evening at the Woman's Club building and we recommend it very highly to the average Artesia driver.

Not that we are an expert, or claim to know all the answers, or that we can pass the course without studying a little bit more than the average humber, but we do get around and we are somewhat observing. If we weren't, we would have passed from the newspaper field years ago: it's our business to have a photographic eye, after a fashion, then retain what we see and report accurately on what we have seen. Therefore we believe we could be classed as an observer of almost everything, including traffic violations, bonehead driving and blissful ignorance.

And, having so observed, we believe there are few drivers in this community who could not profit by some carefully-planned traffic instruction.

Ladies and gentlemen: We give you the traffic safety school, at the Woman's Club building at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening.

NOT THAT WE CARE, BUT IT'S THE LAW

It's mighty hard to teach an old dog new tricks. Likewise it is mighty hard to change old habits.

That is why a number of local business establishments sent out their statements prior to the first of the month, just because they have been doing that for years, after closing their books several days before the first.

But it just can't be done anymore! Under the new credit set-up, statements will have to be for the last calendar month. Otherwise it will be impossible to live up to the regulation, whereby bills must be paid by the tenth of the second month, or further credit may not be given.

If books are closed on the twenty-seventh, for example, then there remain either three or four days in that calendar month unaccounted for until the first of the second month, giving purchasers of items for those three or four days an extra month in which to pay.

Not that it would materially upset the applicant to do that and not that it makes one whit of difference to us, but we thought we would pass the word along to all the good brethren of the Artesia trade territory, just to protect them in the future.

INDEPENDENCE DAY—166 YEARS AFTER

One hundred sixty-six years is but the twinkling of an eye in time, a mere tick in the clock of the Universe, but we doubt if ever a people lived more happily in any similar span of years that have those of the United States of America since July 4, 1776.

The century and two-thirds have seen their days of strife—many of them—and the whole distance has been one of struggle. But the joy and happiness that the people have enjoyed because of their liberties have far offset the heartaches, bloodshed and setbacks.

This is true because the people had—and have—an ideal. Our forefathers founded this nation because of an ideal. Thousands of others came from foreign countries to live here and raise their families because of that ideal. Their children have carried on the principles of the same ideal and today are fighting in all quarters of the world for it.

Never in all of our history have we labored and slaved for a political crackpot form of government, one in which we as individuals lost our identity and our privilege to work for ourselves, as have the peoples in many countries today.

United we never will, but we wonder if we are as united today as we should be. Certainly, you say, we are united in our love for our country and in our belief in the principles for which our forebears have fought, but it will take more than that.

As yet we are losing the war! And we can lose the final battle, if we do not change our ways! We must forget our personal animosities, our political differences, our love of the almighty dollar and we must go all out.

Let us pledge ourselves anew on this Independence Day to make this a war of all the people, not just our boys on the fronts, and to guarantee ourselves and our posterity that liberty and justice will live for another one hundred and sixty-six years—yea, forever.

VEGETABLES IN THE DESERT

The "I Saw" column in last week's Portales Tribune said, among other things, "I saw corn tasseling in the garden of Carl Case." Shucks—either corn or otherwise—we had sweet corn out of our own garden Sunday and the stalks were in tassel June 1. Furthermore, Hugh Kiddy tells us he had ripe tomatoes from his garden Sunday.

And back where we came from they used to think it a fine thing if they could say, "Corn knee high on the Fourth of July."

GOOD NEWS: THE WAR WILL END WITHIN TWO MONTHS

Maj. George R. Ferrill, officer at state headquarters for Selective Service, has just received an inside tip that the war will end within two months.

The tip-off came in a letter from a Selective Service registrant who wrote that his brother-in-law has just been inducted into the Army.

"Everybody knows," the registrant wrote, "that my brother-in-law never held a job more than two months in his life."

Mrs. E. V. Haisley and her sister, Miss Grace Fowler, left Saturday for their former home in Fowler, Kan. Mrs. Haisley sold her residence property at the corner of Ninth and Quay to Artie McAnally. Mrs. Haisley has lived in Artesia about fifteen years and Miss Fowler about ten years.

Miss Helen Meredith Gates, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Gates of Artesia, and A. L. Maxwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Maxwell of Elberton, Ga., were married at Elberton at the home of his parents at 3 o'clock Tuesday, June 30.

The announcement of Miss Gates' marriage came as a surprise to her family and friends here since plans for a fall wedding had been made. Miss Gates, after returning from California, visited her parents here for a few weeks before leaving for Elberton to visit Mr. Maxwell and his parents, en route to Durham, N. C., where she had expected to enroll at Duke Nursing School.

Miss Gates, a member of a prominent Artesia family, was graduated from the Artesia schools. She then attended Occidental College, Los Angeles, Calif., for three years and last year entered Stanford University for nurse's training, which applied on her A.B. degree at Occidental when she graduated this spring.

Mr. Maxwell received his A.B. degree at Atlanta, Ga., and has completed two years of his theological seminary work at Duke University in Durham, N. C. He now has a student pastorate of three churches on the seacoast of North Carolina, where he and Mrs. Maxwell will make their temporary home until fall, when Mr. Maxwell will re-enter the university to work toward a Doctor of Divinity degree for next June.

Miss Miriam Higbee And Oscar Syme Are Wed in Albuquerque

Miss Miriam Higbee, daughter of Mrs. C. C. Higbee and the late Rev. Mr. Higbee, a former pastor of the Methodist Church in Artesia and Albuquerque, and Oscar Syme of Albuquerque were married Tuesday evening at the Central Avenue Methodist Church in Albuquerque. The Rev. Thomas Raper officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother in the absence of male relatives, chose for the semi-formal rite a floor-length gown of white organdy with a lacy woven-in design over taffeta. She wore a fingertip veil. Mrs. T. S. Bright of Los Angeles, Calif., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Miss Higbee is a graduate of the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, where she was a member of Phi Sigma. She has been employed as secretary at the Army Air Base sub-depot in Albuquerque.

Mr. Syme also is a graduate of the university. He was a member of Phi Sigma, Phi Kappa Phi and Kappa Mu Epsilon. The couple left Wednesday for New York, where Mr. Syme holds a resident fellowship at the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Columbia University.

After a number of appropriate games, Miss Mann was taken on a treasure hunt, which took her from place to place throughout the home, the backyard garden and to the Baptist Church, where she found instructions to return to the Bolton home. Upon her return she was ushered to a table decorated in white and laden with beautifully wrapped gifts. Packages were placed around an upright, large, pink heart, from which a cluster of silver white wedding bells was suspended. Dainty pink and white wedding-bell and heart-shaped sandwiches and individual white cakes decorated with pink floral sprays were served by Miss Hattie Ruth Cole and Miss Juanita Russell. Mrs. J. C. Jesse presided at the punch bowl.

About sixty-five guests, of whom most are members of the Baptist Church, in which the bride-elect has been reared, called during the tea hours.

Weekly Playday Last Thursday Brings Out 115

The weekly playday sessions for youngsters up to 12 years, which started two weeks ago today at the high school building and municipal swimming pool, have been quite successful, and last Thursday morning's session set a record, with 115 boys and girls present.

Last season the largest number ever to enjoy the fun was in the nineties.

Members of the sponsoring club were greatly encouraged last week by the turnout.

Mrs. Stanley Carper has composed a song, "Thank You," which the children sing each Thursday morning, thanking the organization, business or individual, who is responsible for refreshments at that particular playday. At the first two sessions two weeks ago, it was "Thank You Lions" and last week it was "Thank You Rotary."

Mrs. Hugh Parry, project chairman, said that the club wishes as many children to come from 9 to 11 o'clock each Thursday morning. Those who wish to swim must bring 10 cents. However, Mrs. Parry said, as this is the regular children's admission to the pool, the club members cannot order the children out at 11 o'clock. Parents who wish the sponsors to exercise jurisdiction and see that the children leave the pool and go home with the others at 11 o'clock should send notes to that effect, she said.

Hospital

By its terms the sisters agree to assume all responsibility of operating expense and to take good care of the building, grounds and equipment and to carry adequate insurance.

The hospital, as soon as possible, according to the contract, is to be operated according to the standards of the Fellowship of the American College of Surgeons.

In the agreement the order agrees that out of the income derived it will keep the hospital in good repair and will replace worn out or depreciated equipment, which will remain the property of the city.

The hospital is to be open at all times to patients without regard to religious beliefs, without discrimination because of race, creed or color.

By agreement with Mrs. Johns, the order is buying some of the equipment and supplies which belonged to her.

Mother Aloysia, mother superior of the Sisters-Adorers of the Most Precious Blood, of Wichita, has written Mayor Emery Carper that she is happy for her sisters to serve the people of the Artesia community by operation of the hospital.

The sisters started off yesterday with a staff of eight, which is to be increased later. Sister Julitta, superintendent of St. Francis Hospital, Carlsbad, is here and will remain about ten days helping to get under way.

The present staff: Sister Alicia,

Jean Parker is one screen actress who never "pursued a career." In Jean's case, the career pursued her! When Jean was 14, she was one of the "most beautiful school girls" chosen to pose for posters advertising the Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Each girl was to typify a different sport. Jean, clad in a bathing suit and poised on a diving board, heralded the swimming events. Her likeness was seen all over the country, and received special attention from the casting director in the film studios.

Then one morning she received a call from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, asking her to come to the studio for an interview. Thinking it merely a publicity stunt, Jean refused at first, but finally relented.

The interview began with an offer to launch her on a motion picture career. Jean replied that she wasn't interested, but to be obliging agreed to take a screen test. Immediately she was offered the part of the little "Duchess Maria" in "Rasputin and the Empress," which was to star the three Barrymores. The prospect of playing with such screen greats changed Jean's opinion of motion pictures. She accepted the role.

Since that time Jean has been starred in many important films. Her latest is Republic's "Girl From Alaska," which the Ocotillo Theatre will present for one day, Saturday only.

Miss Marynette Reed of Carlsbad spent from Friday until Monday as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Blocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie McAnally and family moved Tuesday to the residence at 812 West Quay, which they recently purchased from Mrs. E. V. Haisley.

Locals

Cowboy Jack Marsh has disposed of his saddle, boots and spurs and left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., where he hopes to secure employment in a defense plant.

Mrs. Beecher Rowan, who is in California with her children and who was ordered to bed a few weeks ago for a rest period of six or eight weeks, is considered much improved. Mr. Rowan is with her.

W. F. Daugherty, who has been on the West Coast at the home of his son and who, for the last seven months, has been a bed patient, is reported to be up again and able to get around a bit and is improving.

Harold Hannah, who for the last three and a half years has been manager of the Artesia bus depot, and Etheridge Smith expected to leave today for Memphis, Tenn., where they will secure employment.

Frank Atencio's house in Santa Fe is shingled with 4,100 New Mexico automobile license plates of 1938 vintage. "They were stored down in the capitol basement and taking up a lot of room, so they told me to take them home," said Atencio, former Motor Vehicle Division employee.

At Albuquerque, A. J. Malchar woke up in the night and found another man in bed with him. Assuming he was a member of his own work crew, Malchar grudgingly made room for him and went back to sleep. The morning found the visitor and Malchar's billfold containing $40 gone.

Quite a few of the farmers in the community are cutting their oats. The cotton this year is well advanced and prospects are good for a good cotton crop.

BANKS AND THE WAR
"...a vital force for Victory"

A NEWSPAPER editorial recently stated: "In this war banks are doing more than provide financial services . . . they are a vital force for Victory." The nation's banks are doing much to help win the war. They aid in financing, in war production, in keeping the economic machine running and other ways. Banks ask for no praise or special credit. We are proud to be of help, and anxious to be still more helpful in the future.

Service Men's Claims Handled By Vet Groups

Brig. Gen. R. C. Charlton, state director of Selective Service, has announced that inquiries regarding claims and allotments for men now in the armed services are being directed to veterans' service organizations.

The American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans are prepared to advise anyone needing assistance, he said.

The New Mexico Veterans Service Commission in Santa Fe and any chapter of the American Red Cross is prepared to assist persons in filing claims for allotments, he declared.

Gen. Charlton said that relatives of men now in the services should be acquainted with the fact that most of the benefits secured by men of former wars have been extended to those now in service, and that the older service organizations are ready to assist in the present emergency.

He said he would give his personal assistance in passing along all available information on men of the 200th Anti Aircraft Regiment, most of whom are missing in action on Bataan and Corregidor.

How to Get a Social Security Duplicate Card

The Federal Security Agency, Roswell, discloses how to obtain a duplicate Social Security account number card:

Some workers are under the mistaken impression that when a social security account number card is lost, a duplicate may be obtained by writing a letter or sending a telegram to the field office of the Social Security Board from which the number was originally secured. If a worker wishes a duplicate account number, Form SS-5, which may be secured from a post office or a Social Security Board office, should be completed exactly as the original was completed with an additional statement that a duplicate number is desired.

This statement is made because of the requests, particularly telegrams, which have been coming into the field offices of the Board from persons needing duplicate account number cards.

Form SS-5 is easily completed and need not be mailed to the office from which the number was originally secured since any Social Security Board field office will take the proper steps for securing the duplicate. It is necessary to have the same information as originally given in order that the worker's account will not be confused with those of others having the same or similar names.

Methodist Caravan Here July 4-11

The Methodist Youth Caravan Movement has become a definite part of the youth program of the Methodist Church. This year more than 100 caravans, made up of carefully selected and carefully trained young people, will be working in local churches in every part of the nation, from the middle of June until late August. Artesia will be one of more than 700 American communities, that will have the happy privilege of having one of these caravans for a week.

The caravan movement is now only four years old to be exact. But already the results in communities which have had caravans are such as to convince youth and their leaders that the movement is worth while. It is presents the program of the Methodist youth fellowship is more than a superstructure of organization; that it is a vital force at the heart of the Methodist Church.

The caravan will be in the Artesia Methodist Church from July 4 to July 11. It is made up this year of four young women and their sponsor. The sponsor is Miss

Hazel Melass, head of the English department in Carlsbad High School. She is a graduate of the University of North Dakota, and has also taken work in the University of New Mexico.

Other members of the caravan are: Thelma Bradshaw of Grape-land, Tex., a student at Southwestern University, Georgetown; Bonnie Warren, Greenville, Tex., a student at East Texas State College; Mary Louise Pardue, Paris, Tenn., a pre-medical student at the University of Tennessee, and Susan Miller of Decatur, Ill., who has had three years of work in Millikin University in Decatur.

The young people in the local church have been planning for some time for the coming of this caravan, and they extend an invitation to the youth of other churches to attend the classes and fellowship meetings conducted by the visiting youth people.

The members of the caravan will be in charge of the Sunday school and will speak at the morning church services in the Methodist Church next Sunday.

Jean Parker is one screen actress who never "pursued a career." In Jean's case, the career pursued her! When Jean was 14, she was one of the "most beautiful school girls" chosen to pose for posters advertising the Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Each girl was to typify a different sport. Jean, clad in a bathing suit and poised on a diving board, heralded the swimming events. Her likeness was seen all over the country, and received special attention from the casting director in the film studios.

Then one morning she received a call from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, asking her to come to the studio for an interview. Thinking it merely a publicity stunt, Jean refused at first, but finally relented.

Miss Marynette Reed of Carlsbad spent from Friday until Monday as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Blocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie McAnally and family moved Tuesday to the residence at 812 West Quay, which they recently purchased from Mrs. E. V. Haisley.

Locals

Cowboy Jack Marsh has disposed of his saddle, boots and spurs and left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., where he hopes to secure employment in a defense plant.

Mrs. Beecher Rowan, who is in California with her children and who was ordered to bed a few weeks ago for a rest period of six or eight weeks, is considered much improved. Mr. Rowan is with her.

W. F. Daugherty, who has been on the West Coast at the home of his son and who, for the last seven months, has been a bed patient, is reported to be up again and able to get around a bit and is improving.

Harold Hannah, who for the last three and a half years has been manager of the Artesia bus depot, and Etheridge Smith expected to leave today for Memphis, Tenn., where they will secure employment.

Frank Atencio's house in Santa Fe is shingled with 4,100 New Mexico automobile license plates of 1938 vintage. "They were stored down in the capitol basement and taking up a lot of room, so they told me to take them home," said Atencio, former Motor Vehicle Division employee.

At Albuquerque, A. J. Malchar woke up in the night and found another man in bed with him. Assuming he was a member of his own work crew, Malchar grudgingly made room for him and went back to sleep. The morning found the visitor and Malchar's billfold containing $40 gone.

Quite a few of the farmers in the community are cutting their oats. The cotton this year is well advanced and prospects are good for a good cotton crop.

Service Men's Claims Handled By Vet Groups

Brig. Gen. R. C. Charlton, state director of Selective Service, has announced that inquiries regarding claims and allotments for men now in the armed services are being directed to veterans' service organizations.

The American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans are prepared to advise anyone needing assistance, he said.

The New Mexico Veterans Service Commission in Santa Fe and any chapter of the American Red Cross is prepared to assist persons in filing claims for allotments, he declared.

Gen. Charlton said that relatives of men now in the services should be acquainted with the fact that most of the benefits secured by men of former wars have been extended to those now in service, and that the older service organizations are ready to assist in the present emergency.

He said he would give his personal assistance in passing along all available information on men of the 200th Anti Aircraft Regiment, most of whom are missing in action on Bataan and Corregidor.

How to Get a Social Security Duplicate Card

The Federal Security Agency, Roswell, discloses how to obtain a duplicate Social Security account number card:

Some workers are under the mistaken impression that when a social security account number card is lost, a duplicate may be obtained by writing a letter or sending a telegram to the field office of the Social Security Board from which the number was originally secured.

If a worker wishes a duplicate account number, Form SS-5, which may be secured from a post office or a Social Security Board office, should be completed exactly as the original application with an additional statement that a duplicate number is desired.

This statement is made because of the requests, particularly telegrams, which have been coming into the field offices of the Board from persons needing duplicate account number cards.

Form SS-5 is easily completed and need not be mailed to the office from which the number was originally secured since any Social Security Board field office will take the proper steps for securing the duplicate. It is necessary to have the same information as originally given in order that the worker's account will not be confused with those of others having the same or similar names.

Methodist Caravan Here July 4-11

The Methodist Youth Caravan movement has become a definite part of the youth program of the Methodist Church. This year more than 100 caravans, made up of carefully selected and carefully trained young people, will be working in local churches in every part of the nation, from the middle of June until late August.

Artesia will be one of more than 700 American communities, that will have the happy privilege of having one of these caravans for a week.

The caravan movement is new—only four years old to be exact. But already the results in communities which have had caravans are such as to convince youth and their leaders that the movement is worth while. It presents the program of youth. It is theirs to tell that the Methodist youth fellowship is more than a superstructure of organization; that it is a vital force at the heart of the Methodist Church.

The caravan will be in the Artesia Methodist Church from July 4 to July 11. It is made up this year of four young women and their sponsor. The sponsor is Miss

Hazel Melass, head of the English department in Carlsbad High School. She is a graduate of the University of North Dakota, and has also taken work in the University of New Mexico.

Other members of the caravan are: Thelma Bradshaw of Grape-land, Tex., a student at Southwest-ern University, Georgetown; Bonnie Warren, Greenville, Tex., a student at East Texas State Col-lege; Mary Louise Pardue, Paris, Tenn., a pre-medical student at the University of Tennessee; and Susan Miller of Decatur, Ill., who has had three years of work in Millikin University in Decatur.

The young people in the local church have been planning for some time for the coming of this caravan, and they extend an invitation to the youth of other churches to attend the classes and fel- lowship meetings conducted by the visiting young people.

The members of the caravan will be in charge of the Sunday school and will speak at the morning church services in the Methodist Church next Sunday.

applicants for sugar with which to can fruits, he must limit his time for that purpose to 2 to 6 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Canning permits will be issued as long as there are fruits on the market to can.

The board member asked the public please to cooperate in this matter, as he is giving of his time to take care of applicants, sometimes to the disadvantage of his private affairs and business.

He stressed that sugar for canning may not be used for jams, jellies, butters, preserves or vegetables.

In order to facilitate the filling out of the proper forms and to save as much time as possible during interviews, Currier asked that every applicant cooperate and come with a list showing:

The number of quarts of fruit—and fruit only—canned in 1941; the number of quarts of all fruit now on hand; divide this year's canning into a definite number of quarts of each kind of fruit to be canned.

Actual volunteer teaching hours credited to the instructors: Professional men—Mrs. Hamilton and Stroup, 50 hours each. Lay instructors—Wallace Hastings, 60; Mrs. A. L. Bert, 55; Mrs. M. C. J. J. Terry—

Terry's business experience includes working in a general store at Altus, Okla., in the Peoples Mercantile Company store in Artesia and as manager of the Pior Rubber Company store in Hobbs. He also served as a night officer in the New Mexico state penitentiary at Santa Fe.

The commissioner is a staunch Democrat and has a large following, not only on the Cottonwood, but throughout Eddy County.

Terry realizes that under prevailing conditions it will be impossible to make a thorough canvass of the county in behalf of his candidacy and he—like everybody else—wishes to conserve rubber on his automobile. He therefore is seeking through his announcement in the press of Eddy County the support of all the voters at the Democratic primary Sept. 12 and, if nominated, at the general election in November.

John Kennedy, traffic safety engineer of the State Highway Department, will be here July 14 and will give an examination, based on the booklet. His principal discussion will be on highway signs.

State police will conduct the session July 21, when they will give a second examination.

The final examination will be given July 28, when Pickett returns here. Prior to the examination, he will explain blackout driving and evacuation, both of which are considered of value in New Mexico because of the location of the state in regard to the course the enemy might choose should he be able to invade this country.

Charles Emmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Emmons, returned to Fort Bliss Tuesday, after being home on furlough.
