Huge War Savings Bond Rally On Next Wednesday

Primary Election Nominates Dempsey, Hatch, Hill, Thomas

Former Undersecretary Defeats Johnson, While Artesia's Candidate for U. S. Senate Bows to Incumbent.

SHERIFF RACE HOT

Local Man Wins Over Lee, Former Holder of Office in County.

John J. Dempsey, former undersecretary of the Interior, won the nomination for governor of New Mexico at the Democratic party primary Saturday by an unofficial and incomplete tabulation, which gave him 34,477 votes, as compared with 23,518 for Judge Bryan G. Johnson.

Dr. J. J. Clarke of Artesia and Hobbs, Southeast New Mexico candidate for Congress, was defeated by Senator Carl Hatch of Clovis, who was nominated for reelection. Representative Clint Anderson and Antonio M. Fernandez were nominated for the two seats in Congress.

In Eddy County the hottest race and the one most closely watched was that for the sheriff nomination, in which Deputy Sheriff Fred Hill of Lakewood, former sheriff, and Mike Sedberry of Carlsbad. Various tabulations gave Hill from 168 to 125 votes more than Lee.

Mrs. R. N. Thomas, wife of the incumbent county superintendent of schools, won the nomination for that office by a large plurality over F. R. Zumwalt and G. R. Spencer.

Joe Lusk and J. L. James were nominated for county commissioner respectively in districts Nos. 1 and 3, while J. J. Terry was unopposed for re-election in district No. 2.

N. M. Baird of Artesia and Eugene Allison of Lea County, candidate for the two seats from Eddy and Lea Counties for state representative, were unopposed.

Chamber By-Laws Changed at Meet Of Members Here

New Method of Conducting the Annual Election Is One Provision

A new provision for the annual election of directors of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce and other changes in the by-laws were adopted at a call meeting of members Wednesday evening.

The changes were proposed by the board of directors at its meeting Sept. 2, as of which date the new provisions were adopted by the members. Every change proposed by the board was adopted by the membership.

The new by-law in regard to the annual election provides that the board at the first meeting in November of each year shall name a nominating committee, which in turn shall nominate eight candidates for the four impending vacancies.

The secretary then is to prepare ballots bearing the eight names and blanks for write-ins and they shall be distributed among the members in good standing for voting.

The old by-law provides for an election of directors at a members' meeting the second Monday in January of each year. However, for the last few years the ballot system has been used, in order to reach all members and give them a chance to have a choice in the election.

The scope of membership likewise was broadened last evening to include any resident of the state of New Mexico, whereas heretofore it has been confined to Eddy County.

Another by-law change provides that any member in order to be eligible to vote must have paid his dues for the current year.

Mobile Unit of Red Cross Here Is Now Active

Mrs. Ralph G. Roberson, Jr., Red Cross first aid chairman, announced this week that a chapter first aid mobile unit has been established here and the members have been equipped with kits.

Each automobile has a sixteen-unit first aid kit, blanket and identifying tags attached front and back.

In order to belong to the mobile unit, Mrs. Roberson said, a person must be a Red Cross first aid instructor, have completed the teaching of at least one standard first aid class and be approved by Red Cross headquarters at St. Louis. It is the obligation of each member to help in any emergency, in the event of an accident, or when called upon.

Those having qualified and now equipped are Mrs. O. W. Samelson, Mrs. M. C. Francisco, Mrs. S. P. Yates, Mrs. A. L. Bert, Wallace Hastings and Ralph G. Roberson, Jr. Dr. H. A. Stroup is their medical advisor. Other first aid instructors hope to qualify for the mobile unit in the near future, Mrs. Roberson said.

The chairman announced that first aid classes are to start again soon. Standard, advanced and junior classes will be given, as the public demands. Anyone wishing to enroll in any type of first aid class may call Mrs. Roberson at 420.

JOE BILL FUNK PROMOTED TO FIRST LIEUTENANT

Joe Bill Funk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess I. Funk of the Cottonwood community who is in the army and stationed at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., has been promoted to First Lieutenant.

Oil Industry Given Preference Ratings By WPB on Tuesday

The War Production Board, acting on recommendations of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator, on Tuesday, assigned A-1-A and A-2 preference ratings to delivery materials used in the production branch of the oil industry and those used for maintenance and repair purposes or as operating supplies in other branches of the industry.

Harold Ickes, petroleum coordinator, said the new order should enable all branches of the industry to obtain necessary material quickly and without undue difficulties. It is believed the new preference rating assignments will step up operations in the fields of Eddy and Lea Counties.

Annual Poultry Show Date Set For Next Week

The annual poultry show sponsored by the Future Farmers of America in cooperation with the Artesia Chamber of Commerce as part of the boys' and girls' poultry project has been set for Saturday of next week, in the vocational agriculture department of Artesia High School.

At the conclusion of the show, the chickens exhibited will be sold at auction in order to raise funds to continue the project next year. The remainder of the project members' flocks will belong to the boys and girls.

The public is invited to attend, both to see the displays and to bid on the prize chickens.

Prizes, the list of which will be published next week, will be similar to those offered last season, in addition to others being offered by some of the businessmen of Artesia.

Charles Wallis, vocational agriculture teacher, said, "If you want some quality poultry either for breeding or table use, come to see the boys' and girls' poultry show and auction sale. If you only want to see what progress the juniors have made with their poultry, come anyway."

Can Write Prisoners

George King, home service chairman for the North Eddy County chapter of the American Red Cross, has announced good news for parents and other relatives of boys in the 200th; The Japanese at last have guaranteed passage of messages to prisoners of war.

He received Tuesday a number of official International Red Cross forms from Geneva, Switzerland, a sufficient number to accommodate everybody interested and served by the local chapter.

However, King must be seen at his home, 610 West Texas Street, where he will gladly assist in properly dispatching messages to the boys who fought in the Philippines, and take care of the local censorship as required of him. The messages, of course, will be subject later to censorship by the Japanese authorities.

Central Valley Coop Directors Elect Officers

Jack Kennedy, Past New Mexico Veterans' Commander, Is Dead

Death Comes Monday to Former Head Spanish War Group at Fort Bayard Hospital — Old Time Oil Well Driller.

MILITARY FUNERAL

Rites at Grave in Woodbine Cemetery — Services at Chapel.

J. W. (Jack) Kennedy of Artesia, 69, one of the first oil well drillers in Eddy County and a past New Mexico department commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, died at 6:16 o'clock Monday morning in the Veterans' Hospital at Fort Bayard, N. Mex., where he had been a patient since July 17.

His death was from complications after an automobile accident Jan. 17, 1941, when he and a party of veterans of the Spanish-American War were returning from Clovis, where they attended funeral services for the Rev. John D. Wagner, department chaplain of the United Spanish War Veterans, of which Mr. Kennedy at that time was department commander.

Mrs. Kennedy, who had gone to Fort Bayard over the week end, was with him when death came. Although he had been quite ill, his death was not thought to be imminent.

The body of Mr. Kennedy was to arrive on the southbound Santa Fe train today. It will lie in state at McClay Chapel until time for funeral services there at 2:30 Friday afternoon.

Lions Join Drive To Gather Scrap In North County

Begin Hauling From Oil Fields Friday—Kaiser Is Chairman

Indications this morning were that the Army's scrap metal collection campaign, which opened Wednesday, will produce many tons of heretofore unearthened junk, for the Artesia Lions Club has tied in with the North Eddy County conservation committee and is actively taking part.

Odus Holly, chairman of the conservation committee, said that under the direction of the Lions Club scrap chairman, G. E. Kaiser, members of the civic club are scouring the countryside and expect to have obtained at least 90 per cent of the ultimate scrap by the time the current drive ends Sept. 30.

STATE COP WARNS ABOUT BICYCLES

Bicycles are vehicles and must stay on the right side of the road in single file, Bill Lewis, state policeman, said this week, pointing out that students riding to and from school and other bicyclists have been violating the law, which must stop.

The officer said that if the practice does not cease, he will have to take steps.

Although pedestrians are supposed to walk on the left side of a highway, facing oncoming traffic, bicycles, being vehicles, are to remain in the right-hand lane and be operated the same as motor vehicles, as to signals and other regulations.

Also, being vehicles, they must proceed in single file, not, as Lewis says has been a common practice, two or more abreast.

Besides the noted practices being illegal, Lewis said, they are dangerous, both to the bicycle riders and drivers of vehicles.

Mrs. Ford Dies Sunday Morning In the Hospital

Mrs. Emmitt J. Ford, 40, died in Artesia Memorial Hospital at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning after nearly a year of illness, complications since an operation for appendicitis last November 12 at Craig, Colo., where she was a patient two months.

Mrs. Ford and children came here May 8 to join Mr. Ford, an employee of San Sanders, who came here last January. She was hospitalized in Carlsbad May 17 and later was moved to the local hospital, where she had been a patient twenty-three days at the time of her death.

Funeral services were from McClay Chapel at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Fr. Constant, pastor of St. Anthony Catholic Church. Sisters of the Most Precious Blood sang. As Mr. Ford is a veteran of World War I, representatives of the American Legion post here attended in a body. Burial was in Woodbine Cemetery.

As Vera Leone Hou, a daughter of Frank and Ida Hou, Mrs. Ford was born at Cody, Wyo., Feb. 17, 1902. She married Mr. Ford at Greeley, Colo., June 3, 1922, and to them were born three children, all of whom survive her. They are Robert Allen Ford, Craig, Colo., and June Patricia and Karryl Ann Ford, at home.

Mrs. Ford is survived also by two sisters, Mrs. Don S. Wallace, Loco Hills, and Mrs. Thora Murphy, Greenwood, Colo.

TUESDAY DEADLINE FOR ANTELOPE APPLICATIONS

Antelope hunters have only until Tuesday to apply for permits for the special season, Elliott Barker, state warden said, and there still is plenty of room for hunters on the old Diamond A Ranch near Roswell and in the Alamogordo area.

The bear season opened Tuesday throughout the state, except in Lincoln and Eddy Counties, where the season will conform to the deer season dates. Hunting with dogs is permitted in all but those two counties.

Bulldogs on Their Toes for Rosewell Game Here Friday

Starts at 7, so as to Catch Bus—First Home Clash—Hobbs Wins 25-0

The Artesia Bulldogs are on their toes today, ready to meet the Roswell Coyotes on Morris Field at 7 o'clock Friday evening in the first home game of the season, after suffering defeat from the Hobbs Eagles there last Friday evening 25 to 0.

The game for tomorrow evening was set for 7 o'clock so the Roswell boys can catch the regular bus home, it being impossible to use a school bus or to charter one under the present regulations.

At Hobbs Friday the Bulldogs showed up well, the final score not giving a correct picture of the relative ability of the two teams.

Artesia had the advantage of the game in the first quarter, but Hobbs scored in the closing minutes of that period. The Eagles scored twice in the second quarter and once in the third.

The game was hard-fought throughout, but Hobbs had an advantage with passes, while Artesia played a great defensive game and stopped all running attacks. The Eagles likewise outweighed the Bulldogs by a few pounds.

Lack of experience showed in the Artesia boys, but Coach Wayne Riddle said this morning the Hobbs game contributed greatly in helping the Bulldogs be ready for the Coyotes. They all have good fighting hearts, he said, and at times looked very well.

"To lose to a good team like that of Hobbs," Riddle said, "is not discouraging and we will be after Roswell all the way."

NO NEW NEWS, BUT IT'S STILL GOOD

Although there's nothing to report by way of news of the pre-glider school here, the old adage, "No news is good news," maintains in this case, for as far as anyone in Artesia knows, the school is to be here and probably will be larger than previously announced.

In fact, unofficial information, which cannot be disclosed until it becomes official, all points in that direction.

Art Wintheiser, who was expected to return here the latter part of last week, still was at Santa Ana, Calif., early this week, conferring with officers of the West Coast Area in regard to the pre-glider school.

Carlsbad Man Is Killed in Wreck On Cottonwood

A Spanish-American father was fatally injured and his wife and three children were hurt about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in a truck collision at a blind corner on the Cottonwood.

Mike Chavez of Carlsbad, about 35, died a few minutes after the left side of his pick-up truck was struck by a 1½-ton truck driven by Orville Worley. The left side of his chest and back caved in, he died while being brought to Artesia Memorial Hospital.

The left thigh of Mrs. Chavez was broken and the children sustained minor cuts and bruises, none serious.

The accident was at the intersection of the old Roswell highway and the road west from Espuella. Worley was driving south and the Chavez family was going east, on the way home from a visit with friends a few hundred yards west of the corner.

Because of a hedge on the west side of the old Roswell highway, neither driver could see the other. Worley said he did not see the Chavez pick-up until an instant before the front of his truck struck the center of the side of the lighter vehicle.

He was uninjured, but the front of his truck was badly damaged, while the pick-up was a wreck.

Lynn Buford, Local Pharmacist, Reports To Navy Next Monday

Lynn Buford, a pharmacist employed at the Palace Drug Store in Artesia more than six years, is to report Monday in El Paso for assignment to some station for basic training in the Navy, after which he will be rated a pharmacist's mate second class. He enlisted Aug. 12.

He completed his employment at the drug store last evening, so as to have several days in which to get ready to leave.

Mrs. Buford and their little son, Eddie, will remain in Artesia.

Local Speedboat Racers Place in Denver Regatta

Two of the local boys stepped out Sunday and did themselves proud before a crowd of 45,000 spectators at Sloan's Lake, Denver, when they placed in five speedboat races at a big regatta, against some of the toughest competition in the West and Southwest.

Buford Gray, commodore of the Pecos Valley Boat Club, took first in the 16-horsepower service runabout class, second in the 22-horsepower service runabout and third in the 33-horsepower racing runabout.

His brother-in-law, Ralph Barr, was second in the 32-horsepower racing runabout race and third in the free-for-all.

The five trophies the local racers brought home are all beautiful and as fine as ever won before.

They raced against F. A. Turner, Utah state champion, and a number of professionals from Rock Springs, Casper and Cheyenne.

Duke City Air Base Band Is To Instill Pep

Prizes Will Be Offered in Auction, Planned to Step Up Purchases—All of North Eddy County Included.

STREETS ROPED OFF

Activity Will Center at Main and Roselawn in Artesia.

A huge war savings rally will be staged in Artesia next Wednesday afternoon, when the forty-piece 31st Army Air Force band of the Albuquerque base will be offered as the principal entertainment and War Savings Bonds will be offered for sale.

L. B. Feather, chairman, and his members of the North Eddy County war savings staff; Mayor Emery Carper and other city officials, Ray Bartlett, manager of the Artesia theatres, and others are cooperating in order to promote the greatest sale of War Savings Bonds in a single effort ever attempted here.

The rally will center on the intersection of Main and Roselawn, which will be roped off for the band, speakers and workers, and the streets adjacent to a half block each way will be closed to traffic, starting at 1 o'clock. The rally will start at 2:30 o'clock.

An inducement by way of stepping up the sale of War Savings Bonds and creating enthusiasm will be an auction, at which prizes, offered by Artesia business firms and individuals, will be placed on sale, bidding to be in the purchase of bonds. Each bidder will offer to buy a certain amount of bonds and the high bidder will receive the prize—as well as the bond he indicated.

Feather and his committee believe this will promote spirited bidding, hence the enthusiastic buying of War Savings Bonds.

Present and Past Champs to Meet In City Tourney

B. E. Spencer Draws E. N. Bigler—Bob Bourland Is Medalist Again

B. E. Spencer, the 1941 Artesia golf champion, is paired with E. N. Bigler, 1941 champion, and Bob Bourland, medalist both last season and this, is matched against Cliff Thomas in the first rounds of the 1942 city golf tournament of the Artesia Golf Club.

Matchings were made Tuesday evening, after Bourland and Virgil Millsaps, tied at 76-all for medalist play in the qualifying rounds, played off that afternoon, last year's medalist winning by two strokes.

Sixteen top-flight players' names appear in the championship flight, eight of whom will go to make up the first flight when they lose their first matches in the opening brackets. This method is different than ever has been used here before and was resorted to because the players are much fewer than heretofore. There also will be a second and third flight, in the latter of which there are two boys.

After the first rounds, those remaining in the championship flight and those going into the first flight will advance as in former tournaments, with consolation brackets provided. As one player put it, "I'll be able to lose three games this year, instead of two, before being eliminated." There also will be consolation play for losers in the first brackets of the second and third flights.

Pairings in the championship flight, with qualifying scores for each player, except for last year's champion, who did not have to qualify:

EXPRESSING OUR SENTIMENTS

We had thought of the matter, but it took someone else to express it.

And we could have placed the expression of that someone else—W. E. Kerr, superintendent of Artesia schools—in some other portion of the paper, as a news story, a feature, or in "Vox Populi," but this way we allow him to express the thought both for himself and us. The letter of Mr. Kerr:

The Artesia Advocate:
A couple of issues ago there appeared an article summarizing the summer playground work carried on by the Junior Woman's Club and expressing the thanks of the club to organizations and individuals of the community for their financial and other kinds of assistance given the club.

It seems to me that the organizations and individuals of the community should thank the Junior Woman's Club and especially members of the committee which had this project in charge and who gave of their time in carrying it on.

I know of no service organization in this or any other community which has sponsored so many worthwhile projects as the Artesia Junior Woman's Club, and on behalf of the community I wish to express a public appreciation of the fine contributions which this club is making in the community.

Yours truly,
W. E. KERR, Supt.

WAITING FOR THE BELL

As has so frequently happened in recent weeks, as this is written there is a big story brewing, a story which cannot be told until and if it breaks.

Already an inkling of the facts in the case has leaked out somehow and are being whispered on the street.

We feel somewhat like the fire horses in the fire station near which we played as a boy.

They always were full of pep and anxious to go, for they loved the thrill of a run.

They were sustained in the knowledge that sooner or later there would be some excitement—but they did not know just when it would come.

HOPING FOR THE BEST—AND WORST

"When it does, God help Hitler, Hirohito and Mussolini," says Ray Tucker in his syndicated column, "National Whirligig," referring to the time the new "secret weapon" of the United States is brought into use.

Tucker says the instrument, for which no better term can be used without revealing its characteristics, might change the whole character of and shorten the struggle.

Having seen it, he declared it is more revolutionary than American Flying Fortresses, our finest and newest tanks or our biggest guns.

That is about the best news, national and international, we have heard in some time and we look forward anxiously to the time when the new instrument is put into action.

But we cannot agree with that prayer Tucker breathed, which we quoted in the first paragraph. On the contrary, we trust God will not help that unholy trio, but will place all of His help on the side of decency and liberty-loving peoples.

BUT IT WILL BE DONE

This is one of those weeks!
We cannot complain of the lack of news, for there is so much we hardly see how we can cover it all—both good and bad.

The prospects put us in a dither before we halfway get started with our labors.

As is our unfortunate method of doing things, we already have started to worry about the time element and the grueling work necessary in order to get out a passable newspaper this week, and the week has just started.

We went so far last night as to pitch and toss all night long, picturing the front page, where this story or that story should go, which ones should take precedence and how in thunder we could squeeze them all in.

And to make it worse, this week happens to come after last week—an unfortunate thing—for last week we had a two-section issue, no mean task for the force of a weekly newspaper shop.

But somehow we will come off the press in good order. We are sure of that, for this has happened many times before over the years and we never yet have failed to do it somehow. Afterwards we sometimes wonder how it was done. And that is why we always worry the next time, instead of taking comfort in the other statement, that we always pull through.

TALKING IN RIDDLES AGAIN

The State Guard company at Artesia was placed on the alert Friday, with the expectation that it would be called out Saturday to do some election day policing upstate.

Although some units were on the job, the Artesia company merely remained on the alert and the boys remained at home and voted.

We wonder if the absence of the Artesia and Carlsbad companies from home on election day would have made any difference in the ultimate outcome of the election in the county.

Of course, as they did not go, all anyone can do is to study a bit and wonder. As it was, we were happy.

Dere Folks:

Somewhere in Canada,
Aug. 12, 1942.

Dear Folks:

I suppose you have had some letters from me by now. Some have arrived here from Camp Claiborne, since I gave you my address by night letter recently. Our mail service has improved. We now have two mail trains per week, so please start the ball rolling.

Due to censorship there is very little I can write, other than to let you know I am well and O. K.

I don't suppose you would believe it if I told you. We have a fire in the tent all day, wear long-handled underwear, mackinaw coats all day and have sleeping bags.

I am as well and happy as you could expect of a CCC boy on a foreign WPA project.

Heard train last week was delayed sometime by a herd of caribou, estimated at 10 or 15 thousand.

Am not homesick but an A. T. & Santa Fe boxcar in the switchyard sure did stand out. First I've seen we were in St. Louis.

Last report. We have mail coming in on every train now, including freights.

No, we do not drill or train up here. We are working seven days per week.

Hope to hear from you three or four times a week now.

Lots of love,

Cottonwood Items (Ora Buck)

Oscar Moore, who went to Albuquerque two weeks ago to the Veterans' Hospital for treatment, has returned home.

A good sized crowd attended church at Cottonwood Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend services every second and fourth Sunday and Sunday school every Sunday.

Eugene Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chambers of Cottonwood, who is stationed in an Illinois U. S. Army training camp, was expected home Wednesday of this week for a visit with his parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Tom Terry and two daughters, Miss Tommie Terry and Mrs. Orvil Gray, and the latter's two children, have gone to Norman, Okla., where Tommie will enter the university. They also will visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. A. Clayton, Jr., and family there.

One of the loveliest affairs of the early fall season was a surprise party and bridal shower given Sept. 4 by Mrs. Garner and Mrs. John Lane and Misses Margaret and Alma Lane at the parsonage home of Mrs. Garner to honor Mr. and Mrs. Redmon Pate, who were recently married. After the couple had unwrapped the many gifts, refreshments of punch and a dark cake were served to a large crowd. Many persons will remember Mrs. Pate as Miss Mabel Jameson, a niece of the Rev. A. D. Jameson, formerly pastor of the Lake Arthur and Cottonwood Churches, who many times visited her uncle and family at Lake Arthur.

Joe Richards and his son, Joe, Jr., were not hurt Monday, when their car overturned about fifteen miles south of Artesia. When Joe, Jr., fell asleep, his hat blew off and Joe, Sr., grabbed at it and the car swerved and overturned. Both were pinned underneath, but fortunately sustained only a few cuts from the broken windshield.

Forest fires delay victory.

HOW CIGARETTES START FOREST FIRES

If you thoughtlessly flip a burning cigarette from your car while driving through the forest, you are a "drive bomber," for that cigarette may start a forest fire as damaging as if an enemy plane had dropped incendiary bombs.

Last year, careless people started 170,000 forest fires. According to the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, the loss from those fires was enough to buy two Flying Fortresses every day!

Write the Boys Often by V-Mail; It Will Get There Much Faster

"Send it V-Mail and get it there faster" is the motto of soldiers and sailors overseas who are using the Army and Navy's fastest and newest postal system.

V-Mail is a new type of postal service available to and from the armed forces stationed outside the United States. It has priority with the Army and Navy over all other classes of personal mail and is faster by days and even weeks than any other type of postal service, including air mail!

Letter sheet forms for V-Mail are now available, free of charge, in every post office and on every rural mail route in the United States. Complete instructions for use are printed on the sheets; and only ordinary postage is required. The uniform and distinctive V-Mail letter sheets used are a combination of letter and envelope, allowing the largest possible space for the message.

At the port of embarkation, V-Mail letters are sorted, opened by an automatic cutting machine, and then passed through a photographing device at the rate of 2,500 an hour. This operation places the message on microfilm and takes place in total darkness. Mail to and from soldiers, sailors and marines is read by censors but because of the mechanical process of photographing, senders of V-Mail are assured of complete privacy.

The roll of film is then placed in a small carton and put on board the first available plane going overseas. At their destination the letters are printed from the film negative and then placed in small envelopes for delivery to the addressee.

V-Mail senders can be assured of positive delivery for the first time in history, too! The original of a V-Mail letter is not destroyed until the photographic copy has arrived overseas. If through accident or enemy action the film is lost in transit, the original is re-processed and delivered.

Men of the service are enthusiastic about V-Mail. At the present time they are sending home five times more V-Mail than they are receiving. The post offices, located in cities of embarkation have the facilities for handling ten times more V-Mail than is at present being sent.

ODT BANS THE TIRE USE FOR SIGHT SEEING TRIPS

The Office of Defense Transportation has banned the use of any vehicle using rubber tires for sightseeing service. The ban was effective Sept. 10 and affects all busses, autos, trucks, taxicabs, drive-yourself cars and privately-owned automobiles.

TIRE CONSERVATION MORE NECESSARY THAN EVER

Regional OPA Administrator Clem W. Collins has called on all vehicle operators to intensify tire conservation efforts as the only way to make sharply reduced tire and tube quotas for September serve even the essential needs provided for in the tire rationing regulations.

Prospects for the Duck Hunting Are the Best in Number of Years

In northern woodlands the wild ducks are breaking up housekeeping with the healthiest prospect in years of reaching Miami or wherever they're planning to spend the winter.

This fall a greater number of birds will wing over a lesser number of hunters equipped with enough ammunition, but not enough time, tires or gasoline. The ducks can thank the war for this break.

The Izaak Walton League estimates well more than 100,000,000 birds will lam it south the next few months. This would be 30,000,000 more than last season and three times as many as in 1935. Good weather and water conditions for breeding are responsible for the big flocks.

Though figures are unavailable, the league guesses that 500,000 hunters are using Uncle Sam's guns this season to blast another kind of fowl. Of these probably 50,000 are duck hunters.

Then there are untold thousands who won't have the time to leave their defense work benches to spend a few days in the marshes. Those who find time probably won't have tires or gasoline to take them to their favorite blinds.

Last year 1,400,000 duck stamps were issued to hunters. The Izaak Walton League figures the 1942 total may not exceed 1,900,000.

Hunting doesn't clash with patriotism, as shotgun powder is different from that used in military arms. Priority demands on brass and copper are the cause for a curb in production.

ENGRAVING—THE ADVOCATE.

A new high efficiency unit for producing gas from coal for the operation of trucks and motor cars developed by Hsu Cru-fei, Chinese engineer, has passed initial tests. The new converter produced gas so rapidly that the tests car was put in motion in fifty-six seconds after the fire in the converter furnace was started. According to the designer, the unit will produce ten per cent more power than any existing converter unit. Hsu said the average truck equipped with his converter unit would be able to travel approximately 120 kilometers without refueling.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 61 ★ Some grand ideas on preparing Fall produce ★ Safeway offers low advertised week-end prices Tuesday thru Saturday ★ A lesson on having fun

Here are some wonderful ways to prepare Fall fruits and vegetables

They come from the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau and every one has been tested and proved in the Bureau's kitchens.

APPLES. Want a different kind of applesauce? Pour 3 cups unsweetened sauce into a well greased 1 1/2 qt. casserole. Combine 1 cup finely rolled graham cracker crumbs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 tsp. cinnamon, and 1/4 cup finely chopped walnut meats. Sprinkle crumb mixture over applesauce. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 20 minutes, or until crumb mixture is brown and crisp. Serve hot or cold with whipped or pour cream. Serves 6.

GRAPES. To vary familiar desserts, fold seedless grapes or halves of seeded table grapes into cooled blanc mange, custard, gelatin whip or rice pudding.

PEARS. If you like baked apples you'll vote for baked pears, too. Wash 6 pears. Leave whole; do not pare or core. Make syrup by combining 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, and 2 tbsps. lemon juice in saucepan; stir well until completely blended; boil rapidly 5 minutes. Or substitute 1 1/4 cups maple-flavored syrup for sugar syrup. Place pears in baking dish; pour syrup on top; cover dish. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) until almost tender, about 30 minutes. Remove cover; increase heat to 450° F. and bake 10 minutes longer, basting frequently to glaze. Serve warm or chilled. Serves 6.

SQUASH, PUMPKIN, AND SWEET POTATOES. These vegetables are closely related and each may be used for the same type of recipes—baked, in puddings, pies, cookies, custards, and the like. Squash makes unusually delicious custard. Mix 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. ground cloves, 1/4 tsp. ginger, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg, and 1/2 tsp. cinnamon. Beat 2 eggs slightly. Add 1 1/2 cups milk and 1 tsp. grated orange peel; add to sugar-spice mixture, blending well. Add 1 cup sieved steamed Hubbard squash; stir until combined and free from lumps. Pour into individual custard cups; sprinkle with nutmeg or cinnamon. Set in pan of hot water; bake in slow oven (325° F.) 1 hour, or until set. Cool and serve plain or with whipped cream or maple-flavored syrup. Serves 6.

BANKS AND THE WAR

The Ordeal of the Family Budget

PITY the poor budget! Even under peacetime conditions he leads a strenuous life, but now he's really under fire. Ten percent for War Bonds, a big slice for taxes, ever-growing pressure from the rising cost of living—and on top of it all provision must be made for regular bank deposits. Impossible? No it isn't, if you face the grim facts that this is war, and that you must make sacrifices and give up things you thought essential. Organize our budget for victory without delay.

Miss Lanning Bride Curtis Bolton In Church Ceremony Friday Evening

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony held at the First Christian Church in Artesia, Miss Bettynelle Lanning, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Lanning, and Curtis Doyle Bolton, the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon D. Bolton, members of prominent families of the city, were married at 8 o'clock Friday evening, with the Rev. Dr. Oren Oranhood officiating at the double-ring service. Invitations were issued for more than 200 relatives and friends.

Vows were exchanged before an altar banked with a background of greenery, flanked on either side with floor baskets of zinnias of unusual beauty and lighted with tall white tapers in seven-point candelabra. Seven small white tapers burned in each of the church windows, which were banked with flowering silver lace vines.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Mrs. Wallace Gates at the piano. Mrs. I. L. Spratt sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Gates played "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" for the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional. During the ceremony she played "Because" from "Jocelyn," by Godard.

Miss Sybil Pior, maid of honor, was gowned in an informal sheer wool frock of light blue color, styled in the same fashion as the bridal gown. She carried an arm bouquet of white asters tied with white tulle.

Miss Marilou Lanning, a cousin of the bride and bridesmaid, wore a sheer pink wool frock and carried an arm bouquet of white asters, tied with white tulle.

Ray Lewis was best man and Clyde Dunn and Bill Trimble were ushers. The men of the wedding party wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a sheer white wool informal frock, designed with becoming lines. She carried a small bouquet of white gardenias and bovardia, tied with a shower of white satin streamers, which fitted over a small white prayer book. In her hair she wore a halo arrangement of gardenias and bovardia. For something old she carried a lace-trimmed handkerchief, which had belonged to her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. S. A. Lanning, Sr., and which has been used by all the Lanning girls and sons' wives in the family. For something new, a new coin in her shoe, and something borrowed, a white prayer book, which belonged to her maid-of-honor, Miss Pior. Her only ornament was an old-fashioned gold bracelet, which had been handed down for generations in the Lanning family.

Mrs. Lanning chose for her daughter's wedding a brown crepe afternoon frock with brown felt hat, and with which she wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Bolton, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a two-piece aviation blue crepe suit with red blouse, with which she wore black and red accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

Mrs. C. Bert Smith was gowned for her granddaughter's wedding in a brown crepe afternoon model

Auxiliary Has Musical Program at Meeting

About thirty members of the American Legion Auxiliary met Monday at the hut for a covered dish luncheon and the regular September meeting.

The luncheon was served cafeteria style. Tables were decorated with many lovely garden flowers.

At the short business meeting it was reported that around 1,136 old records were collected during the record drive. Members voted to pay $5 a month on the kits which are being given to the boys who enter the Army.

A program of patriotic music was given with Mrs. Howard Whitson, chairman of the music committee, assisted by Mrs. M. C. Ross, Mrs. John Runyan and Mrs. Fred Cole.

Misses Joan Livingston, Joan Hardman and Hattie Ruth Cole, accompanied by Mrs. Runyan at the piano sang, "The Three Little Sisters," and "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree." Mary Margaret Whitson, dressed as a Red Cross nurse, and Eddie Jo Foster, as a soldier, did a pantomime to "I'll Be Back in a Year, My Dear."

Mrs. Cole read a paper on "The Meaning of the Flag," after which she sang, "I Pledge Allegiance to the Flag," accompanied by Mrs. Ross at the piano and Mrs. Whitson, on the violin.

Spencer-Murphy Are Married in Carlsbad

Miss Bonny Jean Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burch Spencer, and Elbert Murphy, both of Artesia, were married in Carlsbad Tuesday.

Mrs. Murphy graduated from the Artesia schools with the class of '42. Mr. Murphy, who came to Artesia from Louisiana, is also a graduate of Artesia High School.

The couple will make their home in Carlsbad, where he is employed at defense work.

and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride was born and reared in Artesia, receiving her public school education in the city schools and attended the University of New Mexico. The bridegroom was born in the state of Kentucky, attended public school in Artesia and New Mexico State Teachers' College in Silver City. He is engaged with his father in the distribution of Phillips 66 products in the Artesia district.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Sally Runyan Lanning, with about 150 guests attending.

Colorful fall dahlias were used in decorating the beautiful home of Mrs. Lanning.

A three-tiered white wedding cake, beautifully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was served with coffee from a beautifully appointed table. Pouring at intervals and assisting in serving were Miss Marilou Lanning, Miss Sybil Pior, Miss Ann Crouch, Miss Charlene Martin, Miss Betty Jo Brainard, Miss Helen Jean Evans, Miss Bernice Marie Baldwin and Miss Peggy Brainard.

For traveling, Mrs. Bolton wore her wedding frock with a large black hat and other black accessories. The gardenias were detached from her bridal bouquet and worn with her traveling costume.

After the reception, the couple left for a two-week wedding trip on which they expected to visit different points in New Mexico and probably return by El Paso, Tex. Upon their return to Artesia, they will be at home in the Smith Apartment at 511 Quay Street.

Classes in Home Nursing to Start Here Next Week

Mrs. Phillip Kranz, chairman of Red Cross home nursing, reported this week that three instructors, Sister Walburga, Sister Scholastica and Mrs. Ray Bartlett, are now ready to start classes in home nursing.

Classes will be taught both afternoon and evening two days a week over a period of six weeks.

There is a vital need for home nursing, because of the scarcity of doctors and nurses at this time. A recent survey shows that at least one person out of every family should have home nursing. In order to take care of the needs of North Eddy County, seventy classes should be taught this year, Mrs. Kranz said.

Under the new home nursing program 75 per cent of the time will be spent on practical training, with complete information on making all kinds of improvised equipment. The only cost of this course will be for the textbooks.

The first class will start at 3 o'clock Tuesday at the high school building, with Sister Walburga as instructor and will meet each Tuesday and Friday. Only thirty persons may enroll in a class. Those who are interested may enroll by calling Mrs. Jess Shildneck, phone 481, or Mrs. Kranz, phone 234.

Other classes will be started in the near future, Mrs. Kranz said.

Caroline Cox Honored On Sixth Birthday

Caroline Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cox, was honored on her sixth birthday anniversary Wednesday of last week.

The patriotic colors of red, white and blue were carried out in decorations. The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served after several amusing games were played to Jim and Susan Hool, Jimmy and Francis Cobble, Gayle Hopkins, Sandra Seymour, Mansey Lane and Mariam Stroup.

Miss Joan Wheatley, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wheatley, who has been studying voice and piano in New York City for more than two years, since her graduation at Columbia University, has received a contract to sing in grand opera this coming season.

Miss Wheatley who sang light opera during the summer season, has a contract with The Opera Company of New York City, a grand opera company of only a few seasons.

Navy Men Would Rather Fight to Stay Free Than Live as Slaves

Sabu, who is starred in the role of Mowgli in Alexander Korda's Technicolor production of Kipling's "Jungle Book," which starts a run at the Ocotillo Theatre on Sunday was born in the Karapur Jungle, forty-five miles from the city of Mysore in Southern India. His father, Sheik Ibrahim, was a mahout in the service of the Maharajah.

Sabu became a sensational screen star when he was discovered by Korda in this jungle and was given the title role in "Elephant Boy." At the time the youngster couldn't speak a word of English but a teacher was secured and in an incredibly short time he learned the language with only a slight trace of an accent. His intelligence and brilliant mind amazed all who met him.

Sabu continued his education in London and later made the highly successful "Drums" and "The Thief of Bagdad." Kipling's "Jungle Book" is his first Hollywood-made film. In the film colony the young star lives in a charming house with his brother and his teacher. After mastering the English language, Sabu went to work on slang which he picked up with amazing speed. Sabu drives his own car, but his pride and joy is a new station wagon he recently acquired. Although he is sold on American clothes, he will not give up his turban for an American hat. Winding his turban is almost a ceremony with him.

(This is the fourth and concluding article of a series designed to give the readers of this newspaper a clear, concise picture of the naval service and to aid the men eligible for military service in making their decision as to which branch can best use their talents.)

Never in all history has the call for defenders of freedom been so urgent as at this moment. Brave men are needed—stout-hearted men—men who would rather fight to stay free than live to be slaves.

If that's the way you feel about it, your place right now is in the Navy—your Navy—in America's first line of attack—shoulder to shoulder with the red-blooded men of action who are determined to defeat the Axis, who are not only remembering Pearl Harbor—but are doing something about it.

It's your war as well as theirs. And the Navy needs your help to win it. All the warships, all the fighting planes America can produce count for nothing without the men to man them. Skilled men who know their jobs—fighting men who want action—patriots who love their country, and serve it as true Americans should.

Ask any man why he volunteered in the Navy. He'll tell you: "I want to do my part in winning the war. I want action—and you get it in the Navy!" The kind of action Bulkeley got when he and his heroic PT boat crews took on a Jap fleet single-handed. The kind of action O'Hare met when he took off in his long Navy fighter, waded in and licked a whole squadron of Jap bombers. The kind of action the Pacific Fleet got when it helped smash the Japs at Midway Island. That's real action You'll get it in the Navy.

As our Navy is great, so are its men. Red-blooded Americans who have got what it takes to fight for their country. Men who are physically fit, mentally alert; men of action; men of responsibility; men who live up to the glorious traditions of courage and heroism that has made the United States Navy the finest in the world.

That's the kind of officers and men who serve in the United States Navy. That's the service you can join today. Remember, even though you have received your orders to report for induction under Selective Service, you still may volunteer your services for the Navy. You can do so right up to the actual moment of your induction. Make your decision carefully, but make it up while you still have time. Choose a service that will give you action, thrills, adventure, travel. A service where you'll live a rugged, healthy life that will build you up physically. Take a step you will be proud of all your life—volunteer now for the United States Navy.

At Camp Blanding, Fla., "I want my money back," loudly complained Sgt. Garland Morris of Black Mountain, N. C., after he had put a dime in a juke box at a non-commissioned officers' club. "Either I hear those two songs or I get my dime back," he threatened as he shook the box. Out popped a quarter. Before Sgt. Morris could pick up the quarter, out fell $1.05. Jackpot, maybe!

Pvt. Johnny Campbell, who was a star on the Franklin (Ind.) High School basketball team in 1939, still knows how to score a goal. As he was riding through Franklin on a train he wrote a note, wrapped it around a pocket comb and tossed it out a window. His parents picked it up in their backyard.

A benign gentleman, warmed by artificial good cheer, dropped his penny into the scales outside a West Seattle store. He seemed startled to observe a snake waving back and forth inside the glass. A. P. Layman, store manager, said the customer shuddered slightly as he departed after emptying his flask into the scale. A humane society agent finally removed the snake, Layman said. It has been there several days, amazing no end of persons.

ROAD TO VICTORY!

OUR VALLEYS OF DECISION
By Louis Bromfield

This is a new kind of war, a war for which we have as yet been unable even to find a name. It marks a turning point in world history, the most enveloping and decisive turning point there has ever been, because for the first time in the world's history the entire world is involved and because the decision involves the whole future of civilization.

The future of civilization is a vague and tremendous and oratorical phrase. Interpreted and broken down, it means the freedom of yourself and myself, whether we shall be allowed to live in a decent fashion, enjoying liberty and prosperity and human dignity, involving the future of the very house we live in, the happiness and well-being of our children, the opportunities of young people and all the comfort and security of the old. It affects how we shall worship God, and how and whether we can live in decency with our neighbors. We can help, all of us, by fighting, by working, by keeping our courage high. We can help too, enormously, by lending to ourselves the money which is necessary to win this war, by testifying to our confidence in our own country, our own battle. War Bonds and Stamps are weapons exactly as tanks and guns are weapons. Buy now, not tomorrow or next day, but now — to save what God gave us and what we have fought for since our country became a Nation—BUY WAR BONDS

WEBB SON ARRIVED SAFELY

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webb received notification Monday of the safe arrival of their eldest son, 1st Lt. James M. Webb, at an unnamed destination. The second son of Mr. and Mrs. Webb, Homer, who enlisted for service in the Army four years ago is stationed in Mississippi. A third son, George, a junior at Eastern New Mexico College in Portales, has received a pilot license and expects to continue his training as a flyer when old enough for service in the Army.

William Kennedy of Denver, discovering his watch and ring stolen from the basement washroom where he had left them, sped upstairs to tell the police desk sergeant about it.

Adrian (Slim) Herrin of Palestine, Tex., was thinking about joining the Navy—until he cranked his boat motor. The cranking rope caught in the flywheel, its handle knocked him unconscious, and he decided to study the life at sea more fully, before enlisting. Next day his draft board called him.

Mrs. C. W. Felix of Seattle didn't mind when a neighbor's four-year-old son greeted her with a cheery "Mrs. Felix, I used your hose." "Did you?" she asked. "Yes'm—to sprinkle the flowers on your rug." The nozzle was thrust through a window. The rug floated by as she opened the bedroom door.

Mrs. Aston and Mrs. Lloyd are members of the club.

Mrs. H. C. Golden gave a birthday party in honor of the seventh birthday of her son, Sammy Joe, Sunday of last week. A patriotic color scheme was carried out in all the decorations. The cake had a flag in the center, with seven small red, white and blue candles around it. The favors were red, white and blue balloons and red, white and blue candied popcorn balls. The best game of the afternoon was "Silence is Golden," which requires an "all-quiet" for fifteen minutes. All the little guests won prizes for this game. Those attending the party were Joyce Hardesty, Bonnie Wise, Florence Huck, Mary Ann Marshall, Evalyn Marshall, Francis Ellinger, Carolyn Huck, James Briscoe, Ronald Rogers, Tommy Marshall, Frankie Brown, Frank Marshall, Bobby Morgan, Everett Hardesty, Buddie Vandiver, Bobby Boyd, Mack Chase, George Chase, Billy Chase, Tommy Wilcox, Don Golden and Jigger Golden. Christine Wise and Louise Brown assisted in the entertaining.

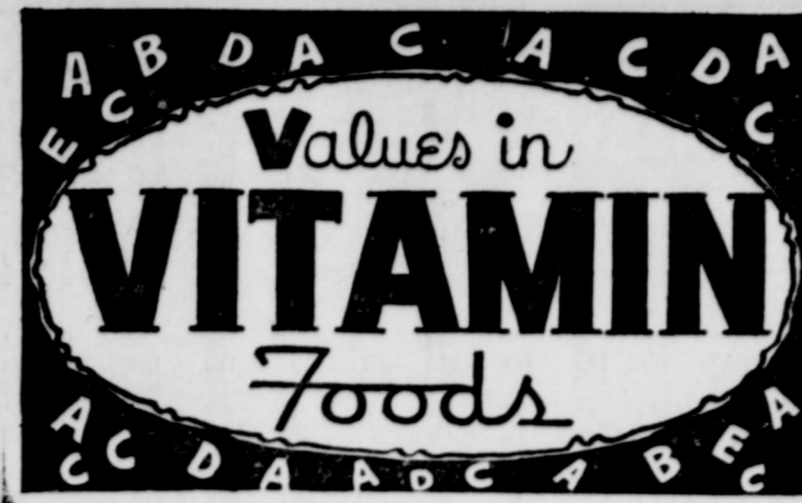

Other visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Huck, Mrs. Rogers, Laverne Rogers and Vera Evans.

WORLD NEWS -in- BRIEF FORM

From Near and Far, Some Timely, Some of Human Interest

During New York's Labor Day air raid alert, caused by a briefly unidentified Army bomber, an Eighth Avenue hotel reported its desk received many calls for Bibles. One woman, who insisted on one being sent up immediately, was told that there was a Bible in her room. "I know that," she countered, "but my husband is reading it."

Balboa, Calif., dimout restrictions won't hurt the seacoast town. It has been decided to leave its business-district light ablaze. No violation, though; and not a ship will be silhouetted at sea against the glare. The town's already seven feet below the beach dunes—and the council has authorized building an eight-foot fence to shield the lights still further.

Federal Rent Director John A. Arvin received 16,000 requests from San Diego landlords who want more rent. He granted the change requested by No. 16,001—who wrote: "The legal maximum rent on my property is $35 a month. My tenant is a Navy man in the lower pay brackets and $25 is all he can afford to pay. And I am satisfied with the $25." So was Arvin.

Rationing no longer impresses Harold Lamberth, 20, Los Angeles, store clerk. A bandit robbed the market of $300—after knocking Lamberth down and burying him under 100-pound sacks of sugar.

Sgt. J. R. Westmoreland of the Midland Army Flying School, with two brothers lighting on foreign fronts, decided he wasn't doing enough to win the war. So he drove to Midland County's scrap metal and rubber salvage headquarters, parked his automobile, yelled, "There she is," and flipped the keys to the worker in charge. The car had nice tires, too.

An Ionia, Mich., draft board reported it had deferred a class 3-A registrant, married and the father of twelve children, but said the action theoretically cost him more than $800 a year. Under the service man's dependency act, the board said, the registrant would receive an annual soldier-family income of $2,136, including pay as a buck private. The man's questionnaire listed a current annual civilian income of $1,300.

In Cincinnati the prosecutor had a good case, but the evidence was dwindling. Two men are charged with stealing three cases of butter. One pound of the loot was put in the prosecutor's property vault to show the grand jury. Informed of this, Assistant Prosecutor L. F. Britten investigated and found the evidence melting away. He decided the butter carton alone would convince the jurors—and called for a mop.

Last spring the White Plains, N. Y., board of education closed "forever" a one-room schoolhouse in an outlying district on the ground it was out of tune with modern education trends. Now the board has ordered it reopened because nineteen pupils otherwise would be hindered by gasoline rationing in reaching bigger schools two miles away.

Mrs. Bill Lovan, wife of a Fort Bliss soldier, was visibly impatient as she waited and waited in a downtown El Paso beauty parlor. Then Pvt. A. R. Kuehm dropped in. He used to be a hair-dresser back east,

How to utilize that 20-minute train stop at Yuma, Ariz. Well, Cpl. Martin A. Miss Alicia Lara, a native of Mexico City, came all the way to Tulane University's school of social work in New Orleans to learn first hand of social reform from none other than Hernando Cortes, who conquered south of the border, in the early 1500's. The original manuscript of the first laws written on the American continent by the white man—a program of social reform drawn up by Cortes in 1524—is housed in a steel box in the library of the Middle American Research Institute at Tulane. The humane side of the character of the great Conquistador, one of the most colorful and romantic figures in all history, was found by Miss Lara to be clearly brought forth in the laws which removed obstacles in the way of well-organized government and provided for further exploration and discovery.

In Los Angeles, Cowboy musician Jack D. Hogg, his wife told the judge, lost $10 in—not on—a horse. She and her husband were discussing money matters, she testified, when Hogg fed a $10 bill to his horse—and the horse ate it. The court awarded her $7.50 weekly pending trial of her divorce action, so she, too, can eat.

Indians Soon Will Start Harvest Of the Annual Crop of Pinon Nuts

The pinon season is not far away. Indians of New Mexico and Arizona use these delicious nuts for food, and in years when large crops are available, they pick thousands of pounds, which they sell or trade to commercial buyers who ship them east in carload lots. White people also gather pinons, but regard them less as a staple food than as a delicacy. This year, the rubber situation will deter many who used to enjoy Sunday pinon picnics, but that will hardly affect the original Americans, who still rely mainly on their ponies and wagons.

According to estimates by the Southwestern Forest and Range Experiment Station, Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, the pinon crop will be light this year. That is not unusual, though, because heavy yields occur only at intervals of several years. Good crops are, however, reported from limited areas in many localities. Prospects are best in the Chuska and Carrizo Mountains of the Navajo Indian Reservation, where the total "good" bearing area is estimated at more than 500,000 acres. In the Apache, Carson, Cibola, Concho, Gila, and Kaibab National Forests are areas varying from 2,000 to 20,000 acres on which the crop is reported as good. In addition, there are hundreds of thousands of acres on which the crop, though light and scattering, may yield considerable quantities of nuts.

The Southwestern Forest and Range Experiment Station issues annually a mimeographed circular summarizing pinon crop conditions in various localities of New Mexico and Arizona. Estimates are compiled from reports submitted by forest rangers and Indian Service officials. This circular may be obtained free of charge by addressing The Director, Southwestern Forest and Range Experiment Station, Box 951, Tucson, Ariz.

Leatherneck Jargon Becoming Familiar to Civilians Near Posts

Ante meridiem and post meridiem, more familiarly known as "a. m." and "p. m.", are absent in Marine Corps designations of time, and civilians residing near military centers are learning to become accustomed to what is meant when a leatherneck or soldier sets a date for 1945.

The official military method, eliminating all chances of confusion, clocks time on a four-figure 24-hour system instead of the customary 12-hour style used by civilians.

Military time of day begins a minute after midnight, known as 0001, instead of the usual 12:01 a. m. First call at Marine Corps bases is sounded at 0555 and reveille is heard at 0600 instead of 5:55 a. m. and 6 a. m. At noon it's 1200 and 1700 is 5 p. m. When it's 2200 it's bedtime or 10 p. m. Midnight is 2400.

So when a leatherneck informs a girl friend that their date is set for 1945, he really means that he'll be all set to go places at 7:45 p. m.

Men Who Quit Their Essential Jobs to Be Given New Listings

The Selective Service system will cooperate in carrying out the War Manpower Commission's order freezing employment in the metal and lumber industries in New Mexico, Brig. Gen. R. C. Charlton, state director of Selective Service, announced.

Selective Service registrants who leave essential jobs covered by the order, to accept non-essential jobs will face reclassification and will automatically lose their occupational deferment status, he said. The usual right of appeal is permitted.

Those in the Class II deferment classifications will face reclassification for immediate service, and those in III-B will be reclassified into III-A.

He called attention of employers in the mining and lumber industries to the requirement that local boards be notified whenever a registrant changes his occupational status.

BAN ON TYPEWRITER RENTALS IS INVOKED

The OPA has announced a ban on the rental of new typewriters and used non-portable machines manufactured since Jan. 1, 1935, and has ordered the return by Sept. 15 of typewriters manufactured subsequent to date which are now on loan. Persons eligible to purchase machines under existing regulations are not affected by the order.

OPA officials warn that all sales of used typewriters by individuals or firms, even though not regularly engaged in the sale, rental or repair of typewriters, are specifically covered by a maximum price regulation.

WHAT'S WHAT —in— NEW MEXICO

News Briefs of the "Sunshine State" Gleaned From Many Sources

New Mexico cotton production for 1942 was estimated by the Agriculture Department at 131,000 500-pound bales, compared with 106,000 bales last year and an average in the 10-year period, 1931-40, of 103,000 bales. Based on conditions of Sept. 1, the agricultural statistician, Fred Daniels, at State College reported an average yield of 478 pounds an acre was indicated. This compared with 433 pounds last year and a 10-year average of 460 pounds. The 1942 prospects, the report said, was for a harvest of 132,000 acres, representing an abandonment of 4.7 per cent since July 1. He placed the condition of the crop Sept. 1 as 90 per cent of normal as compared with 86 per cent last year on the same date.

An increase in manufacturing activities in the state was noted last week by John J. Ginner, WPB district manager, who reported twenty-five firms have filed estimates of their metal needs for the quarter year starting Oct. 1. The number of firms was the largest thus far to submit estimates under WPB's production requirements plan, Ginner said. Ginner said that Gustave W. Voelzel of El Paso, WPB mining technical adviser, visited fluorspar developments near Coyote Canyon after closing his conferences with mining operators.

The attorney general held that a candidate defeated in the primary election cannot be a candidate for the same or any other office at the general election unless selected by his political party committee to fill a vacancy. The opinion for District Attorney Claron E. Waggoner of Socorro was by Assistant Attorney General Harry L. Bigbee. Waggoner had asked whether a candidate might file as independent after the primary election for the general election. In answering to another query, Bigbee held that the office of a county clerk must be kept open continuously for twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls in a primary, as well as a general election.

Gustave W. Voelzel of El Paso, mining technical advisor of the War Production Board, said the development of new mineral deposits in New Mexico and the construction of access roads to outlying operations were the agency's objectives in New Mexico. Voelzel conferred with mining men of the Albuquerque area, explaining priority regulations, government loans and other aspects of the situation. He planned to be in Santa Fe Saturday for further conferences. He said roads are needed to many isolated properties. These, he added, would be built by the Forest Service and State Highway Department after projects are approved by the U. S. Bureau of Mines and the WPB.

The Rev. W. H. Martin, rector of the Episcopal Churches of Fort Stanton and Alamogordo for several years, has been appointed archdeacon of the Big Bend District of the Rio Grande, with headquarters at Marfa.

Stanley Holder, 1942 graduate of Las Cruces High School, and Miss Martha Bascope Vargas, student in Colegio Otto Braun in La Paz, Bolivia, have been awarded four-year scholarships, valued at $6,000 each, as winners in the essay contest sponsored by Pan American Union. The scholarships provide that all expenses during four years at college of the winner's choice. Condition of the awards is that the students study at least two years in a country other than their own.

Unless reduced by early frosts, a record crop of 21,632,000 bags of dry beans may be produced this year, the Agriculture Department said. The Sept. 1 estimate is 15 per cent greater than the 1941 crop of 18,788,000 bags. Indicated 1942 production and yield per acre, included: Colorado 2,086,000 bags and 650 pounds; New Mexico 954,000 bags and 380 pounds.

State liquor, beer and wine taxes brought in $106,957.41 during August, the largest month's revenue since the liquor control division was created, Director S. T. Jernigan reported today. The figure compared with $73,152 for August, 1941, and $71,323 for last July.

Attorney General E. P. Chase announced that the state-owned song, "O Fair New Mexico," had been released for nation-wide use after long being withheld by the American Society of Composers and Publishers. "Numerous legal problems," said Chase, have had to be worked out between his office and the publishers, Gambia-Hinged Music Company of Chicago, by reason of the ASCAP ban against our song. "Now," he added "O Fair New Mexico" can be played and used by all of the radio stations in the state and nation and by all others who desire." The state purchased rights to the song several years ago from its composer, Elizabeth Garrett of Roswell.

Two more New Mexico high schools, Estancia and Socorro, have abandoned plans for football this year. Transportation difficulties were blamed by Coach "Duck" Donnell of Socorro and Principal Minnie Laws of Estancia for the action—a move previously taken by Clovis and Taos high schools. Intramural contests will be conducted at Estancia instead. The action was taken in line with a recent ruling by the New Mexico athletic board of control which cancelled previously arranged schedules and made their re-negotiation optional.

Establishment of an office of defense transportation state headquarters in Albuquerque is planned with a recent ODT decision to assume control of virtually all commercial vehicles. Details are expected to be announced next week at a regional meeting of carriers' representatives in Denver.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The New Mexico department of public education plans to place greater emphasis on vocational training to aid in the war effort.

Mrs. Grace Corrigan, education superintendent for that state, outlined a plan while attending a national conference called by Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator. She said New Mexico's entire school population "from staff to students" must consider itself as "members of the government's army."

Filing fees of $12,210.15 for state primary candidates have been distributed to counties in amounts varying from $1,769.39 to Bernalillo county to $96.71 to De Baca, the secretary of state office announced today. The distribution was on the basis of the vote cast in the counties at the 1940 election. The money is to be used to meet primary election expense. Santa Fe county was second with $848.06 and San Miguel next with $729.42.

New sales tax licenses were issued to 218 firms during August, compared with 310 license suspensions, making a net loss for the month of 292, Director G. S. Carter announced. During the first eight months of 1942, there were 3,694 licenses suspended, compared with only 1,658 issued.

A three-hour course in news and feature writing will be given at New Mexico Highlands University during the fall quarter, provided there is sufficient demand, President Edward Eyring announced today. Students taking the course would be given practical experience in staff positions on The Candle, Highlands student newspaper, under the supervision of John R. Whitaker, the instructor. Interested students should see either Dr. Quincy Guy Burris, head of the English Department, or Mr. Whitaker during registration at Highlands Monday morning.

The state board of barber examiners closed the fiscal year ending last June 30 with a cash balance of $493.39 after spending $6,697.61 during the 12-month period, an audit released by State Comptroller C. R. Sebastian showed today. The expenditures compared with the board's budget for the year of $7,130.

The state corporation commission today chartered a new mining company, a non-profit cemetery and granted authority to a Delaware drug firm to operate in New Mexico. The companies were the Fierro Manganese Corp. of Silver City, the Cemetery San Marcos Association of Artesia and Sterling Drug, Inc., which named John C. and John T. Watson, Santa Fe attorneys, as its statutory agents.

The New Mexico salvage industrial committee plans to round up 48,000,000 pounds of scrap metals by the end of the year. That was the goal set at a meeting last night. The state was divided into eight areas for the campaign which will handle only industrial salvage. House-to-house drives and special salvage projects are to be left to other agencies. Arthur Prager of Albuquerque is committee chairman.

The addition of seven West Texas counties, including El Paso, to the New Mexico naval recruiting district was announced today by Lieut. B. G. Manley, officer in charge of the district recruiting stations. The counties were El Paso, Culberson, Brewster, Huds-peth, Jeff Davis, Presidio and Reeves, whose total population of 26,000 is expected to supply some 200 additional recruits a month.

Only twenty-six cases of smallpox were recorded in Canada in 1941, all but one appearing in the province of Saskatchewan.

COST OF WAR MOUNTS RAPIDLY DURING MONTH

War costs in August set a new record of $4,882,498,435.

This was a pace of about $158,000,000 per day, and indicated that September would fulfill the budget's estimates of a $5,000,000,000 month.

The August total, as reported by the Treasury, compared with $4,494,460,686 in July and $1,129,557,189 in August of last year. The public debt went to a new peak of $86,277,118,919.

H. C. LAWYER, AN OLD TIMER, VISITS HERE

H. C. Lawyer, of Columbus, Ohio, a former resident of Artesia, is here this week visiting old friends. Mr. Lawyer, who has not visited in Artesia for twenty-eight years, was with the Pecos Valley Emigration Company when he first lived here in 1907.

"Company, Attention!" bawled the top sergeant to the awkward squad. "Company, lift up your left leg and hold it straight out in front of you."

By mistake one member held up his right leg, which brought it side by side with his neighbor's left leg. "And who is the galoot down there holding up both legs?" bawled the hard-boiled sergeant.

RUSH ORDER! COOKED BY GAS!

The little blue flame that cooks your meals, that warms your house . . . is a roaring giant in war time.

It is helping turn steel into weapons of war . . . at a rate that's smashing all records for speed.

It is "cooking" whole battleship turrets at one time in ovens as big as a five-room house.

It is helping make 155 mm. shells three times as fast as formerly. Tanks and guns and bombs and bullets . . . torpedos and planes and gas-masks and ships . . .

Gas is used to make them all!

And for the very same reasons 85,000,000 Americans prefer Gas for cooking.

Because it's fast, saves time. Because it's economical and clean. Because it's flexible, instantly adjustable to exact temperatures.

Because it's famous for greater dependability!

GAS IS SAVING time, money and food in every cooking operation. It is helping preserve food safely in silent Gas refrigerators. But don't forget that it is vital to war production. Use what you need for cooking, refrigeration, water heating and house heating—but use it wisely, don't waste it.

Plans for Year Made by Rotary Tuesday Evening

Plans for the conduct of meetings of the Artesia Rotary Club and for programs the next few months were made and discussed Tuesday evening at an assembly of committee chairmen and members at the city hall, called by A. P. Mahone, president.

Ideas brought home from the recent district conference at Alamogordo were adapted to the local club and committees in planning the year's work.

The Rev. Dr. I. L. Morgan, program chairman, outlined the programs being assigned for the next few months.

At the club's regular weekly meeting on the Roof Garden of the Artesia Hotel Tuesday noon, Neil B. Watson discussed "Fellowship and Attendance," in which he said the latter cannot be had in any group without the former.

Miraculous Escape Of Frank Ashley As Tank Truck Wrecks

Frank R. Ashley, truck driver for E. J. Foster, miraculously escaped serious injury about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, when one of the heavy tank trailer-trucks of Foster, which he was driving, went out of control and was badly wrecked on the Seven Rivers bridge south of Artesia.

The steering column of the truck locked while he was crossing the bridge, Ashley said, and the left front wheel struck the railing, buckling the tractor part of the truck. Its rear wheels were torn loose and they went into the river bed.

Foster said the truck and trailer were damaged badly enough, but what made it worse was that two tires were ruined.

Ashley sustained two broken ribs and a badly skinned shin.

Bond Drive—

Groundwork for the huge rally was laid Friday evening, when Lt. Howard K. Finch, public relations officer and commanding officer of the 31st Army Air Force band; Charles Alsop, publicity director of the state war savings staff, and Emery A. Neilson, deputy state administrator, were here for a meeting with Feather and his staff.

At that time and at subsequent meetings the entire plan was devised.

The band should attract people from a wide territory for it is one of the best of the Army bands. Lt. Finch said the band will be under the direction of S/Sgt. Bennett A. Shacklett. In the personnel are men who in civilian life were members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Radio City Orchestra, and the orchestras of Horace Heidt, Freddy Martin, Paul Whiteman, Henry Busse and others.

M. G. Schulze, a member of the North Eddy County war savings staff, is in charge of obtaining prizes for the auction bidding and Steve Lanning will be in charge of the auctioning.

Ray Bartlett, also a member of the staff, announced that the Ocotillo and Valley Theatres will be closed during the rally. He and Feather said that in about a month the band from the Roswell Army Air Base is expected here for another rally, which will be staged at the Ocotillo. At that time the entire gate receipts of the theatre will be donated to the USO, Army Emergency Relief, or some similar cause, while bonds will be sold in the theatre.

For the rally next Wednesday the American Women's Auxiliary Services members will assist in the crowd, bringing successful bidders to the staff booths, where bonds will be issued immediately, as well as to solicit other purchases of War Savings Bonds. The State Guard will assist in the handling of traffic.

Feather said an effort is to be made soon to put into effect more generally the payroll savings plan for the purchase of bonds. Assisting in this effort will be the members of his staff, Mrs. Henry Patton, M. G. Schulze, M. E. Baish, C. J. Dexter, Ray Bartlett, Zane Smith and Howard Whitson.

Chamber Laws—

In keeping with the times, the by-law in regard to committees was streamlined, cutting to four the number of regular committees, although other committees may be named. The four regular committees are those on finance, membership, public highways and agriculture.

Another new provision was the cutting from two to one meeting each month, to be "at some suitable time."

BEGINNERS' BAND TO START REHEARSALS

E. L. Harp, elementary school band music director, has announced the beginners' band will have its first regular rehearsal at 12:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Central School gymnasium.

March practice will be at 12:30 o'clock Monday. This practice also will be held in the gymnasium, because of the street traffic and so much confusion and noise during the noon hour.

Parents and friends of the beginners are invited to attend rehearsals, which are not for public demonstrations, Harp said.

Lions Club—

The Lions will start their pick-up in the oil fields Friday, where they already have located many tons of old iron and steel. A number of operators have been contacted and all have shown their willingness to cooperate. The operators have been held up because of the tire situation and a shortage of labor, so have been unable to bring in the scrap themselves.

The current drive comes on the heels of the junk rally, which ended Saturday, and during which a large amount of scrap was brought in directly or indirectly through the conservation committee's efforts. J. A. and G. E. Fahey, who are providing the outlet at the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association yard, have reported more than 170 tons of scrap shipped so far in August.

This is on top of 241.31 tons in August, for which accomplishment the government, through the War Production Board, has awarded the Fahey brothers a large emblem poster. It was awarded for the large amount of steel moved into war production and a message to the men pointed out that the old iron and steel is needed each day.

The poster reads: "Cooperating with War Production Board—Scrap Producer—Scrap metal produced and sold last month 241.31 tons." At present is on display in one of The Advocate windows.

Kaiser said the Artesia Lions Club plans to use the funds raised through the collection and sale of scrap for the organization's sight conservation program, in which it has been outstanding in the past.

J. A. Fahey expressed the thanks of himself and his brother to the War Production Board, Holly and the people of North Eddy County for their cooperation in the war effort, by the splendid response in turning up scrap metals.

Election—

Other unopposed Eddy County candidates: R. A. Wilcox, for county clerk; J. R. (Dick) Attebery, for treasurer; Richard H. Westaway, for assessor; John W. Lewis, Sr., for surveyor, and J. T. Hardin, for probate judge.

In Artesia Police Judge J. D. Josey defeated Justice of the Peace W. H. Ballard for justice of the peace by 612 to 218.

Few Republican primary ballots were voted in Eddy County, as there was but one candidate for any state office and none for any county office. Only in a few up-state counties were there contests.
