Travel Agent Speaks About Lost Battalion Of WWII

"The Lost Battalion" was the program for members of the Muleshoe Rotary Club on Tuesday, as presented by Gene Linn

Lazbuddie Horns Continue To Win In Friday Football

Unrelenting Lazbuddie Longhorns are continuing their 'march' toward official district playoff action this year, as they downed another opponent last Friday night, 57-36.

In the first quarter, Michael Williams made the first 'Horn TD on a 10 yard run. Then Scott Miller received a pass from Kevin McGehee to add the extra point.

Whitharral came back when Manuel Sanchez made it in from the one yard line, and Kevin Driver kicked the PAT.

Kevin McGehee then completed a four-yarder to Eddie Zamora good for another 'Horn touchdown, with Brian Glover making the extra point.

Kevin Driver then made it in for Whitharral and at the end of the first Lazbuddie was on top, 15-12.

Starting out the second, Kevin McGehee found Michael Williams.

Coming back in the second, Eddie Zamora galloped for 40 yards and paydirt, with Scott Miller passing to Eddie for the PAT.

Michael Williams latched onto a Kevin McGehee pass, good for 25 yards and a touchdown. Then Scott Miller passed to Kevin McGehee for the extra point.

It was a 29-12 game at halftime.

It was Michael Williams again, in the third quarter, when he received a Kevin McGehee pass and made it in on a 50 yard TD. The PAT attempt failed.

But, Michael Williams again scored, this time from 15 yards out and Brian Glover kicked the PAT.

Would you believe it was Scott Miller who scored on a Michael Williams pass for 15 yards, and again Brian Glover's toe booted in the PAT.

Manuel Sanchez scored again for Whitharral from two yards out with Kevin Driver kicking the EP.

Final score for Lazbuddie's Longhorns came on a 50-yarder from Kevin McGehee to Scott Miller and the PAT failed.

of Linn Travel Agency in Lubbock.

Linn explained in a commentary, along with a slide presentation, that he became interested in 'The Lost Battalion' when area members of the Battalion came into the Travel Agency to book trips back to re-visit the countries where they were lost in World War II.

He said the 'Lost Battalion' was made up of members of the 131st Field Artillery, 36th Division, of the Texas National Guard.

A group of men from Fort Worth, Wichita Falls area, the Panhandle and South Plains joined the 131st Field Division and were sent to Camp Polk, La. for training.

From there they went to San Francisco and on to Honolulu. They left San Francisco on November 21, 1941, and were to go to the Philippines. Shortly after leaving Hawaii, they were informed about the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

They were diverted to Brisbane, Australia, and from there, were to go to Indonesia and Java.

They landed on the south side of Java and went inland about 35 miles to a permanent base. At this time, there were 587 men.

In the meantime, the Japanese who were very active in the Pacific landed on the north side of Java and started working their way across the island.

As the soldiers heard about the Japanese steadily working their way toward the base, they were told that ships had come in to remove the Americans.

Abandoning the base, their arms and ammunition, the undermanned soldiers tried to get to the ships in the harbor.

However, upon arrival on the beach, they found only open water -- the ships had been a rumor.

Unarmed and outmanned, the Americans had no choice but to sit and wait for the arrival of the Japanese.

Surprised Japanese soldiers found the 587 Americans and put them on a train for Jakarta. From there, they were shipped to Singapore to a prison and then were sent to Burma to build a railroad. The railroad became known as the Railroad of Death as so many allies, including approximately one-third of the American prisoners lost their lives during construction of the railroad.

The railroad connected with the very famous 'Bridge Over The River Kwai,' which the allies did not build, but did build the railroad to connect on each side of the bridge.

From March 9, 1942, the 131st Battalion was out of touch with the rest of the world and became known as 'The Lost Battalion.'

Their first contact with the world outside Burma came on August 3, 1944, when some families got 'generic' postcards from members of the battalion.

Linn told of a China man who had left San Francisco for Texas "to learn how to be a cowboy." He ended up in the Seminole area and later joined the Texas National Guard. He was a member of the Lost Battalion. Eddie Fung, the Chinaman, contrived a sarong, and at night, would sneak out of the prison

Lt. Governor Hobby Visited In Muleshoe

Monday evening, Muleshoe was one of six South Plains and Panhandle locations singled out for Texas Lt. Governor Bill Hobby to visit.

In a one-day swing through this area, the Lt. Governor accompanied Democratic Candidate Mel Phillips in his bid for the State Senate, District 19.

Levelland was the last stop for the group. Before coming to Muleshoe, they visited in Lubbock, Amarillo, Plainview and Friona.

Governor Hobby said he wanted to visit Muleshoe especially, because of the problems with the hospital. He said he was familiar with Muleshoe's problems trying to keep West Plains Medical Center open, and praised the local people who re-opened the hospital and have kept it in operation for almost a year.

He also spoke briefly about a possible Hospital District to help the financially-beleaguered hospital, responded to a question of how long it would take to have a Hospital District approved by the Legislature: "Oh, it would take almost a week for sure."

Phillips promised on Monday that if elected, he will personally introduce the bill for a Hospital District for West Plains Medical Center.

The Lt. Gov. termed the Senatorial race a very important race, saying the Senator elected in November will have an effect on all our lives.

"A State Senator doesn't get to decide on 'Star Wars,'" he

Sunday afternoon was a gala afternoon for members of 4-H Clubs in Bailey County, as the 4-H members, their parents and friends met at the Bailey County Coliseum for the annual 4-H awards banquet.

This year's theme was carried out in green and gold, with the theme "4-H is Full of Stars", and selected because of the number of notable people where were 4-H'ers in their youth.

In fact, letters were received from Rosalyn Carter and Orville Redenbacher, who give tribute to the 4-H organization nationwide.

Following a meal prepared by Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Adams, Rose Sain and Jaton Black, 4-H'er April Watkins acted as Mistress of Ceremonies. Colin Tanksley gave the invocation, Holly Huckaby led the Pledge to the Flag; Fara Black led the 4-H motto and pledge; Holly Huckaby gave the welcome and Carrol Copley, the response.

Kandy McWhorter, Bailey County Extension Agent-HE presented the Gold Star Winners for 1988, with the following words:

The Gold Star Award is the highest award that can be received on the county level. It is given annually to two Bailey County 4-H'ers who have shown outstanding leadership and citizenship abilities. We can be proud of this year's recipients.

"The Gold Star winners will be recognized, along with Gold Star recipients from the other 19 South Plains District counties at the District Gold Star Banquet on Monday, November 21, in Lubbock.

"Our first Gold Star recipient is a young lady who is attending Muleshoe High School and who has been an active 4-H member for six years.

"She has been active in the following projects: clothing, foods and nutrition, swine, electricity, leadership, health and arts and crafts.

"She is currently serving as the president of her 4-H club and on the Bailey County 4-H Council. This recipient of the Gold Star award is Melissa Toombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Toombs.

"Our next Gold Star recipient is also a student at Muleshoe High School. He has been a very active 4-H member for eight years. His major projects have been in beef, swine, sheep, electricity, leadership and safety.

"He has served on the county 4-H Council as a representative of his local club. This young man is also the sixth member of his family to receive the Gold Star Award. He is Wade Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wheeler."

The next award presented, also by Ms. McWhorter, was the Outstanding Leader Award for 1988.

Ms. McWhorter said the award goes to a 4-H leader who has devoted much time and energy to the 4-H program.

She has served as a project leader for clothing, foods and

4-H Applaud Volunteer Leaders

One of the most rewarding things an individual can do for tomorrow's leaders is to serve as a 4-H adult volunteer today.

Volunteers not only give leadership to 4-H experiences for youth, they keep the program relevant to local community needs and interests, said Kandy K. McWhorter, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H.

Today, 57 4-H adult volunteers in Bailey County work with 115 members from the third grade to 19 years old. These volunteers share their skills and experiences by assisting young people in a variety of 4-H projects and activities.

With National 4-H Week being held this week, this is a special time to recognize and applaud those volunteer leaders who give so much to the 4-H program, McWhorter said.

Volunteers do not have to be experts in specialized subject matter areas, said McWhorter. They can rely on the Extension Service staff in the county and at Texas A&M University, the state's land grant university, to provide them with training, educational materials and resources to use in the 4-H program. The land grant system makes 4-H uniquely qualified to meet both the constant and ever-changing needs of young and older people alike.

The 4-H volunteer corps is almost 620,000 strong nationwide; more than 30,000 volunteers support the program in Texas. Volunteers are the backbone of a basic and cost effective system which delivers practical educational experiences to some 4.5 million 4-H members in the United States, McWhorter said. The time, travel and support volunteers contribute is valued at $1 billion annually.

The 4-H program provides many opportunities for growth and stimulation for adults and helps them attain enjoyment and self-fulfillment, said McWhorter. So help prepare the young people in our communities for tomorrow by joining the ranks of 4-H volunteers, Ms. McWhorter continued.

For more information concerning the 4-H program and its many opportunities, contact the county Extension office in the Bailey County Courthouse or at 806/272-4583.

AMY SCOTT

Amy Scott Honored With Bridal Shower

The fellowship hall of the 16th and Ave. D Church of Christ was the scene of a bridal shower Saturday, Oct. 1 honoring Amy Scott, nee Amy Bean.

Shirley Bean, mother of the bride, and Shug Killough, grandmother, greeted the guests as they arrived between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. Guests were registered by Janice Claybrook.

Caroline Liles and Joey Heathington served apricot punch, apricot iced white cake and mints from iced white cake.

The serving table was covered with a white lace table cloth and accented with an arrangement of apricot and navy blue silk flowers in a smoked glass vase.

The hostesses gifts were a vacuum cleaner and the floral arrangement from the serving table.

Special guests were Shug Killough of Christoval, grandmother; and Ann Killough, aunt, from Farwell.

Hostesses for the occasion included Neats Foster, Anna Gonzales, Janice Claybrook, Tona Simmacher, Alice Liles, Yolonda Bell, Cindy Barrett, Barbara Marlow, Diannc Wiedebush, and Shelley Carver.

In Fashion

With the air becoming brisker, one can sense a touch of fall is not far away. Thoughts turn to sweaters and the styles and colors are unlimited.

The mini skirt is giving way to the walking shorts suit. Jacket and shorts features a multi-colored button-front vest and rayon shirt.

Children from age 4 to 12 are choosing sweaters adorned with circus animals and balloons. These slip-over and cardigan styles will be a "hit" at school.

Sweet Simplicity

Young Bride (telephoning grocer)—That pumpkin you sent me isn't any good, it's all hollow inside. Please send me a solid one.

Creative Living

By Sheryl Borden

When it comes to success, creativity is the key for Sheryl Borden. She does more than teach others how to live more creatively—she lives it! Sheryl Borden is a home economist and a former New Mexico Extension Home Economist who has turned her interest in the home arts into a successful television series "Creative Living with Sheryl Borden."

Sheryl, herself, is very creative and has abundant energy. She maintains a beautiful balance of personal and family life, productive professional career and active community service, with more time than most for new ventures.

"Creative Living" is now in its tenth season and continues to attract guests from all walks of life and from all parts of the country. Viewers often comment that meeting these people via their television set has opened a new world for them. The show is carried by over 100 PBS stations in the continental United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, Colorado.

Sheryl is a busy wife and mother of three (a son who is 17 and a son and daughter, 9-year old twins), who knows the importance of applying to her own life the organization principles she preaches. She has served two terms as president of the local Women's Club, is presently serving as Vice President of the Chamber Board of Directors, past President of her local sorority, is an active member of various other civic organizations, serves as room mother for the twins' school and serves on a number of advisory committees. Professional associations include membership in the American and New Mexico Home Economics Association and Home Economists in Business.

She has been selected as an Outstanding Young Woman of America and has been named among the Outstanding Young Women in American Colleges and Universities. She was recently selected as one of the "10 Best Dressed Businesswomen in New Mexico" and was featured in the October issue of the New Mexico Business Journal. The most recent honor has been her selection as recipient of the prestigious Governor's Award for Outstanding New Mexico women. She has also been nominated as an Outstanding Alumni candidate for her alma mater, Eastern New Mexico University. Sheryl serves as a spokesperson for several businesses, and presents numerous speeches, seminars and workshops each year on a variety of topics.

Having worked in many other aspects at the Broadcast Center, Sheryl recently took on the position of Marketing Director which presents exciting challenges in addition to producing and hosting "Creative Living".

The saying: "If you want something done right, ask a busy person to do it", certainly applies to Sheryl Borden. She enjoys the challenge of producing and hosting "Creative Living" and enjoys hearing from viewers as to how they feel about the show. Her fan mail confirms that "Creative Living" meets the needs of today's active and involved families. This year the staff and crew of "Creative Living" will celebrate 10 very successful years on PBS. So, as they say: "The show must go on!"

PHONE TO SOUTH AMERICA

According to an announcement made by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, plans are now being formulated for radio-telephone service linking North and South America. The initial service will be between New York and Buenos Aires, and it is expected it will be in operation during the spring or early summer of 1929.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR POST OFFICE

Since the Muleshoe post office has been given higher classification, A.J. Gardner, postmaster, is becoming quiet high brow because of the manner in which Uncle Sam is pouring in modern equipment for his use.

Recently he has received a new Royal typewriter, automatic parcel post scale and individual stamp cabinets. There is a rotary stamp canceling machine, and A.J. says as soon as the future location has been definitely decided upon he expects to receive an entirely new set of customers mail boxes and other furniture of fixtures to complete the new equipment.

TO THE DEAR FOOTBALL BOYS OF GOOD OLD MULESHOE

Maybe someone should tell you that we are not feeling half as bad about these conference games as you are.

In Muleshoe, football is offered as a part of your education, and "When the Great Recorder comes to write against your name, it won't be that you won or lost, but how you played the game." You are competing with other very good teams. They want the score as much as you do and one team must lose the game. If they beat, you take lessons from their tactics and conduct. You are not weakened by defeat but made stronger and wiser. It takes much more courage to be a good loser than to win.

Lose or win you always give your best and the fan gets his money's worth in fun. Life is not all gain, nor all loss and football is just another pleasant way of learning to live.

Muleshoe will be seeing you.

CLEAR RIGHT OF WAY FOR WIDENING U.S. 84

Stain Brothers, contractors of San Angelo, have started clearing off right of way along highway 84 east of Muleshoe, preparatory to widening the road from Muleshoe into the Lamb county line area.

Heavy equipment has been slow coming in, according to officials of the contracting firm, but work is expected to begin along highway 70 toward Plainview by next week.

The work is part of three highway improvement projects slated for this area. They include four-laning 70-84 within the city limits to 1.8 miles in Lamb County; and widening and improving U.S. 70 northeast on

As the new barber nicked the one-armed stranger for the second time, he said, "You have been here before?"

"No," said the stranger sadly. "I lost this arm in a sawmill."

'Be What You Want To Be'

Youth in Bailey County can take part in the 4-H program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in a number of ways, said Kandy K. McWhorter, county 4-H program coordinator.

Many youth are in community 4-H clubs that meet in the communities with local volunteer leaders. They study various projects and carry out group activities in community service.

Some youngsters are in special interest groups or project groups that study one special subject, such as horsemanship, livestock, photography or leadership, said McWhorter.

School curriculum enrichment programs on health, safety, careers, embryology and energy reach many children in public and private schools each year.

All this means that any interested youth between the third grade and 19 years of age can be a 4-H'er. He or she can choose how to participate based on individual interests and desires. 4-H allows members to be whatever they want to be in a way best suited to their individual needs and desires, said McWhorter.

4-H has many things to offer for today's youth, and the 4-H program can help shape the future of each 4-H member.

More information on the 4-H program is available at the county Extension office in the Bailey County Courthouse.

Slight Increase Shown In Texas Major Crimes

The number of serious crimes reported in Texas during the first half of 1988 showed a slower rate of increase than experienced during the first six months of 1987, statistics compiled by the Department of Public Safety indicate.

From January 1 through June 30 of this year, a total of 635,894 major crimes -- including murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, theft and motor vehicle theft -- were reported in the state, compared with 627,433 crimes reported in the first half of 1987. That amounts to an increase of 1.3 per cent.

"We never like to see any increase in crime in Texas, but a 1.3 per cent increase is certainly better than the 6.3 per cent increase reported for the first six months of 1987," DPS Director Col. Joe Milner said.

The crime rate, which is the number of crimes reported per 100,000 population, increased even less -- only by 0.7 per cent, Milner noted. During the first half of 1987, the crime rate jumped 4.4 per cent.

No category of crime declined during the 1988 six-month period, however. Violent crime increased overall by 4.9 per cent. Murder was up 1 per cent, rape was up 8.4 per cent, robbery 1.7 per cent and aggravated assault, 6.6 per cent.

The picture was much better in the property crime category, which increased overall by only 1 per cent. Burglary, a perennial law enforcement problem, showed the smallest increase of all, only a half-per cent. Theft was up 1.3 per cent and motor vehicle theft was up by 1 per cent.

"Another bright spot in the crime statistics is that the clearance rate, the number of cases solved by arrest or other means, has held steady at 20 per cent," Milner said. "In murder and in motor vehicle theft, the clearance rate increased, from 73 to 75 per cent for murder and from 16 to 17 per cent for motor vehicle theft."

Though the clearance rate for the seven major crime categories combined remained the same, the total number of arrests made in Texas decreased by 3.4 per cent compared to the first half of 1987. Arrests for driving while intoxicated were down 14.2 per cent while drug offense arrests were down 1 per cent, Milner said.

"law enforcement in Texas was not without a high price during the first half of the year. Five Texas peace officers were killed in the line of duty by criminal action and three others died in duty-related accidents, compared with only three officers killed and two fatally injured in accidents in the first six months of 1987."

The DPS statistics are based on reports submitted by 815 Texas law enforcement agencies.

Beautification Projects Awards Given In State

Steven L. Ferguson's commitment to see wildflowers bloom along roadsides throughout Crosby County has won him the 1988 Lady Bird Johnson Award for Highway Beautification.

Ferguson, the state highway maintenance supervisor for Crosby County in the Lubbock highway district, on Sept. 27 received a plaque and $1,000 in cash from the former first lady in ceremonies at Lyndon B. Johnson State Park. This is the 19th year for the annual award, which is presented to a highway maintenance worker who excels in beautification.

A special interest of Ferguson's is beautification of the only roadside park in Crosby County, the Silver Falls Comfort Station. Continued improvements, including planting of native cacti and blue bonnets, enhance the natural beauty in Blanco County. Flower beds in the park are accented by native rock, grass planting, and careful pruning of trees.

Ferguson has worked for the department for 18 years.

Runner-up for the award is Cresenciano "Chano" Falcon Jr., maintenance supervisor in Aransas County in the Corpus Christi District. Falcon, a 16-year department employee, received a $500 cash award for his beautification program that included the use of the "Bonnet Bucket." Falcon uses a 55-gallon drum with welded teeth to gather seeds in areas of good wildflower stands for distribution along roadsides where blooms are lacking.

Four other finalists were honored at the annual awards event: Louis E. Phelps, roadway maintenance supervisor in Martin County in the Odessa District; Donald J. Rejsek, Fort Bend County maintenance supervisor for the Houston District; James L. Souther, in charge of highway maintenance in Grayson County in the Paris District; and Charles Spence, maintenance supervisor in Daingerfield in the Atlanta District.

Employees of the Pharr highway district received the Lady Bird Johnson Scenic Preservation Award for their efforts to preserve the natural environment of the coastal wetlands of South Padre Island and to protect endangered animals of both the wetlands and the arid brushland of Starr, Webb, Duval, and Zapata counties.

Vinceat Landry, roadway maintenance supervisor in southern Jefferson County in the Beaumont District, was recognized by the former first lady for propagating fall colors. Landry received a $500 cash award for his efforts in directing a beautification program that includes the "Beach Highway" (Texas 87). Landry's efforts at controlling sand erosion problems along Beach Highway resulted in colorful displays of fall wildflowers.

U.S. Considers Several Changes For Immigrants

Considered changes in immigration laws could favor Northern and Western European immigrants over those from Asia and Latin America. A bill proposed to the United States Congress this year would require all immigrants to have a certain proficiency in English. If this change in legal immigration statutes is approved in its original form, there is likely to be a shift back in the direction of more Europeans coming into the country, according to Texas Christian University history professor Dr. Don Coerver.

During the last 10 years, there has been a marked change in the origin of most U.S. immigrants, said Coerver.

"One reason for the switch away from European immigrants was the international situation that prevailed during the late 1970s and early '80s which brought about a swell in Asian immigration based on political emergencies," explained Coerver. "In addition, a large number of Hispanics were allowed into the country under the family provision of immigration, which allowed family members of aliens in the United States to take up legal alien status."

Following the recent swell of immigration, the United States must now decide what type of changes, if any, are going to be made in the legal immigration statutes, he added.

"The proposed move to require a certain level of English proficiency among immigrants is basically unfinished business from our efforts to deal with the country's illegal immigrant problem," Coerver concluded.

Family Tree Planting Gets P.O. Boost

According to Anthony M. Frank, Postmaster General of the United States, "The Postal Service is part of the fabric of American life. We do more than deliver the mail, we deliver ideas and dreams that help preserve our heritage."

"In order to help people learn about their past and develop a sense of history and tradition, we are urging people to plant a family tree," announced Muleshoe Postmaster Abel Arguello.

"Our post office will provide a fill-in family tree form to customers upon request to help trace their family's history," Arguello said. "Learning more about family history can help bind us more closely to our family, our past, and our country."

"Begin to make your own history by writing letters to your grandparents, family and your friends. Letters written and shared provide a piece of history that you can hold on to for generations."

Comptroller Says Ads Misleading

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday accused a Houston marketing firm of deceptive trade practices for using printed envelopes that look similar to those he uses to collect taxes and for official state business.

"The Comptroller's office isn't in the business of marketing vacation time-share property, and IDMM Inc. of Houston should stop this misleading practice," Bullock said.

Bullock said he had received complaints about the firm because the envelope touting vacation property has the Comptroller's five-point star seal and the words, "Controller of Public Accounts" in boldface type in the location normally used for the return address.

"In spite of the fact that the name of my office is intentionally spelled differently, there is enough confusion and misunderstanding to make it appear that the state is somehow connected to this sales venture."

"It isn't and I demanded the firm stop this practice. I've also asked Attorney General Jim Mattox to investigate the matter," Bullock said.

The state has no association with this firm despite obvious attempts by these promoters to make it appear so, Bullock said.

He said sales material being mailed by the firm, which is located at 15518 Silver Ridge, was headlined "1988 Fiscal Audit--2nd Notice."

Texans need to be wary of firms who try to wrap the authority of the state around their products, Bullock said.

Taxpayers who have questions can always call the Comptroller's office toll-free at 1-800-252-5555 for straight answers, he said.

Shoppers Don't Pay State Tax On Coupons

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that shoppers who use discount coupons don't have to pay state sales tax on their savings.

"Tax is collected only on the actual amount you pay for a taxable item, not on the pre-discount price," Bullock said.

According to Bullock, the amount of tax paid on items bought with coupons used to depend on the type of coupon being redeemed.

As a result, businesses and customers were sometimes confused about the correct amount of tax due.

"I can't find one good reason to tax items at the full price if they're being paid for with a discount coupon. This is a simple issue that somehow got complicated, and I hope I've cleared it up for once and for all," Bullock said.

Bullock said that with the new rule, store owners will find it much easier to collect the right amount of sales tax due on purchases made with coupons. Bookkeepers will also find it easier to keep track of taxes due to the state.

Taxpayers with questions about this or any other state tax may call toll-free 1-800-252-5555 from anywhere in this state.

Amarillo Begins New Industry In Filming

A new industry is emerging in Amarillo, the film industry. In the past two (2) months, the Chamber of Commerce / Convention and Visitor Council has received six (6) requests for information and photos from film companies, both domestic and international. The most recent include Austria, Germany and California.

In an effort to develop a photo file and portfolio to answer these requests, the Convention and Visitor Council is sponsoring a "F-STOP AMARILLO," a how-to seminar on October 21st and a photo scavenger hunt on October 22nd.

Tom Copeland, Assistant Director of the Texas Film and Music Office at the Department of Commerce in Austin, is the keynote speaker for the session on "Film as an Economic Development Possibility for Amarillo" on Thursday, October 21, from 9 to 10:30 a.m. at the Fifth Season West.

Copeland plans to cover the economic impact on an area, how the film industry works, local promotion and why Amarillo has great potential.

A breakfast, sponsored by the Big Texan Steak Ranch, will kick-off the photo scavenger hunt at 8 a.m. on Friday, October 22nd.

Photographers will spend the day capturing area sites (within a 50-mile radius) that might appeal to film companies.

The day will end at 4 p.m. with a "thank-you" reception sponsored by Sutphen's at their downtown location.

Copeland sees Amarillo as a great film location. Dollars spent in the area often reach the millions and locals are used as "extras" in the shooting.

"Palo Duro Canyon is a natural," Copeland says. He also gets calls for vacated buildings, period architecture, old churches and schools, huge wheat fields and flat vast ranch land.

Copeland is a theatre arts graduate of Southwest Texas University. His experience includes three years with Public Broadcast System, several years in freelance work in motion pictures and commercial production, and five years with the Department of Commerce.

Sponsors for "F-STOP AMARILLO" include: Fifth Season West of Amarillo, Big Texan Steak Ranch and Sutphen's Barbecue.

For information on the seminar or photo scavenger hunt, call the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce at 374-1497.

Michigan, Michigan State College Game Of Week

The series stands, Michigan 52, Michigan State 23, 5 ties. But the Spartans have won two of the last four meetings between these intra-state rivals. The Wolverine advantage will be its 101,700-seat stadium in Ann Arbor as it will be the host. Michigan has clashed with two Powerhouses to date, losing to Notre Dame 19-17 and to Miami 31-30. Michigan State was also beaten by Notre Dame 20-3 as well as Florida State 30-7. The Spartans, defending Big Ten champions, face a Michigan team that is anxious to rebound from being a three-time loser in the conference last season. Picking a winner in this annual fracas is always suicide.. Michigan.

In 1987 when they finished one, two in the Southeast Conference, Auburn and L.S.U. do-in Baton Rouge. The only do-in Baton Rouge. The only common opponent has been Tennessee. Auburn beat the Vols in Auburn 38-6 while L.S.U. whipped Tennessee in Knoxville 34-9. Nothing proved. We're picking the Tigers (of Auburn) to win.

Pittsburg was one of three teams to beat Notre Dame during the 1987 regular season. The Irish lost 30-22. The Panthers have already hosted two toughies in Ohio State and West Virginia, coming away with a big win over the Buckeyes and an equally big loss to the Mountaineers. In this one they're home again. We like Notre Dame, but so close.

Here are the forecasting statistics through the month of September: 534 right, 178 wrong, for an even .750 average. Oregon travels to Southern California in a major confrontation in the Pac-10 conference. The Ducks beat the Trojans last season 34-27. A 1988 comparison? Stanford lost to Oregon 7-3 and to Southern Cal 24-20. Revenge will undoubtedly be a factor, and this is another forecasting suicide venture. Southern California.

Why Contras?

Americans have been arguing for years whether aid to the Contras in Nicaragua is justified, whether the Contras are suitable allies, whether military opposition is the best approach to the Sandinista problem in Nicaragua, etc.

The same argument involved the first communist takeover in this hemisphere decades ago, in Cuba. There was a time when minimum military opposition could have pushed Fidel Castro and the communists out. Jack Kennedy lost his nerve and wouldn't commit that force.

The result: after a steady military buildup for twenty five years a recent A.P. study estimates Cuba now has 250,000 soldiers constantly under arms and another 1.5 million in a well-trained militia.

The country has almost a thousand good battle tanks and 250 combat aircraft, mostly advanced MIG fighters—all supplied free by the Soviet Union. Thus Cuba has an armed force stronger than any other country in the area, and much stronger even than Canada, a country with twice its population. It has sent 60,000 troops to Angola.

This is exactly the direction in which Nicaragua is headed as U.S. idealists continue to have their way and bar military support to the Contras. The Democrat majority in the House is, in effect, writing off Nicaragua, just as Czechoslovakia was written off by the democracies in 1938.

The third communist regime is also in the making—in Panama. Given time—and secret financial and military aid is now flowing to the anti-American regime in Panama—this country too will become a military power capable of intimidating free nations in Central America.

The fatal mistake was when John Kennedy lost his nerve and didn't allow U.S. forces to support Cuban freedom fighters. Kennedy made mistake number two when he pledged this country would never help overthrow Castro (in return for removal of the missiles).

Mistake number three in Washington was in not supplying enough military power to the opposition early to topple the regime of Daniel Ortega in Nicaragua. The massive military buildup in Nicaragua is now probably beyond reversal, and the U.S. might as well accept the fact that a second, steady growing communist military power is here to stay.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—On the surface they're trying not to acknowledge its significance, but Capitol Democrats are privately seething over former favorite jurist John Hill and his endorsement of the Republican candidate for chief justice.

And Hill, who has always been controversial and gutsy, has put a lot on the line.

Hill, a Democrat, has held two statewide offices and narrowly missed winning the Governor's Mansion, but he rocked the Democratic establishment last week by endorsing his successor to the High Court.

The whole thing is puzzling to politicians who operate in the Capitol mode, yet it's clear if one knows that John Hill is a man who isn't afraid to take the heat for what he believes is right.

There are plenty of reasons why he shouldn't endorse Tom Phillips, at least according to the Democrats.

For starters, when Hill resigned last winter, Phillips was appointed by the governor who defeated Hill in a 1978 upset that turned Texas into a two-party state: Bill Clements.

Still A Democrat

Then consider that Hill served as attorney general before the thumping and as Supreme Court Chief Justice after it, riding to victory both times as a popular, party-backed Democrat.

But once on the court, Hill fell out with the Democratic justices, just about all eight of them, liberal or conservative.

Finally, fed up with behind-the-scenes politics and contributions, and the justice-for-sale scandals which befell some of his fellow justices, Hill resigned to campaign for an appointed court.

He said last week he's still a loyal Democrat, but party insiders don't consider him one, including Texas Democrat Party chairman Bob Slagle, who called Hill "a bitter old man" who is striking back at Democratic colleagues on the court with whom he had personal differences.

That's just the nice things they are saying about him.

Others consider him a party turnout, and whether Phillips wins or loses, and whether the endorsement helps other Republicans at the ballot box next month, Hill is likely to feel vindictive consequences for a long time, perhaps even in the private sector.

But to his credit, Hill has always done what he believes is right, even when the majority advises against it, does it. Many voters know him and respect him for that.

Texas Growth Fund

A little-hailed proposed constitutional amendment on the November ballot is coming to the forefront. Amendment No. 3 would allow four huge state endowment funds to divert one percent of their assets to job growth and economic development in Texas.

The proposition would create the Texas Growth Fund and jumpstart it with assets from the Permanent School Fund, the Teachers Retirement System and the Employers Retirement System.

The four currently control about $28.5 billion in assets.

Those favoring the amendment want a sliver of the money steered into small and medium-sized businesses wanting to build or expand in Texas.

Several top state officials, lesser state officials and board members overseeing those funds favor the proposition.

Opponents fear the funds could be weakened by the risk factors involved.

Hispanic Switch to GOP?

In a week of surprising endorsements, the mother and siblings of the late Willie Velasquez, the hero credited with forging Hispanics into a powerful voting bloc with his Southwest Voter Registration Project, endorsed the Republican opponent of veteran San Antonio Congressman Henry B. Gonzalez.

Twenty-seven years ago, Gonzalez became the first Hispanic congressman from Texas, but last week the Velasquez family called him a "patron" and backed Lee Trevino, a San Antonio community college trustee.

Republicans were quick to point out that the stunning endorsement plus the showing of Roy Barrera Jr. in the 1986 attorney general race, plus the appeal of Bush, means that Texas Hispanics are coming over to the Republican Party.

Other Highlights

• San Angelo Sen. Bill Sims, D-Senate, drew praise from members of a Congressional panel when he tied a strong defense to a strong farm economy, calling it, "a defense food program rather than a farm program."

• In the wake of Hurricane Gilbert, Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro held another clean beaches rally which attracted some 2,000 volunteers to Galveston.

• A new school finance plan that would cost the state an additional $1.5 billion annually won praise from Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and Comptroller Bob Bullock. The plan was prepared by the 60-member School Finance Working Group.

Teams Test

Dates Released For October

Muleshoe High School has TEAMS registration packets available for out-of-school examinees, the school administration has announced.

Individuals who are no longer enrolled in school and have not previously passed both sections of the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) test, but have met all other graduation requirements may retake the section not passed.

During the October administration, the mathematics test will be administered on Tuesday, October 25, and the English language arts test will be administered on Wednesday, October 26.

It Is Not Necessary to retake at the high school attended. Persons who are no longer enrolled in Texas public schools and wish to register to retake the exit level mathematics and/or English language arts may pick up a registration packet at any high school campus.

Registration forms are available upon request by contacting Linda Marr, counselor, at 272-3080.

KNOW THE WEATHER
In more ancient times sailors and farmers were the best weather watchers. Farmers' livelihood depended on the weather; sailors' lives could depend on it. That's usually true in this hemisphere, because of the prevailing westerly winds in most areas. But one can be fooled by this sometimes, especially in summer.
Another saying: Dew is likely to indicate a good weather day while a dry morning without dew is often a sign shows are on the way. This observation proves right more often than wrong.

A Friend Worth Mentioning
by: Andrew Espinoza

I remember first hearing about him in the second grade. My cousin Estella had mentioned his name to me on the playground during recess, remarking that HE could do multiplication. I pondered over the words; I had never known anyone who was educationally ahead of me - especially in math. The idea struck me as funny and I did not feel as smart as I had before. I strayed quietly along the playground for the rest of the recess thinking about it; then, back in the classroom, the memory of his accomplishment soon slipped my mind and his name was forgotten for the time. It would occasionally pop up for the next few years after, but I didn't care. After all, I had never actually met him, so in my world, he didn't exist.

Then in the sixth grade, I met him at last. Mrs. Northcutt, the math teacher, had entered us both in a number sense contest, where he appeared to be a probable winner, and I seemed to be an also-ran. I became so discouraged from my horrible practice sessions that I told him I wanted to quit. He insisted that I shouldn't and weakly pleaded with me to try once more. After some consideration, I agreed to stay in and wound up going to Tulia for the contest.

Amid all of the contests, the unexpected occurred. When the results were given, I had placed second and he was sixth. Yet, when I asked him if he was angry with me or disappointed in himself, he said he wasn't; in fact, he said he was happy that I had done so well. We rode the bus together on the way home, and for the first time, we really talked. Our conversation concerned people, school, and other things. It was there that the true friendship began. We have been best friends for seven years now.

The great thing about my friend is the fact that he has never changed. He has stayed kind, generous, and always ready to listen. He is unique, no the stereotyped, regular teenage boy that a person might see any old day. One thing separates him from most others; it's not bad, just different. He never shows any malevolent emotion; he simply expresses friendliness, patience, and dependability. I still don't know why.

Most people see us as practically twins, since we are of the same race and size, and we have similar grades. Yet, if people would look further, which rarely happens, they would see the impressive differences between us: my fallibility to his sturdiness, his quietness to my loquacity, and his down-to-earth thinking to my creativity.

During the span of our friendship, he has taught me some valuable virtues. He has taught me trust, loyalty, understanding, and self-respect. However, I guess the greatest thing he has shown me is that I can be whoever I want to be regardless of what others think, and that I can be satisfied with myself. I think that is the greatest thing anyone can teach a friend.

Jimmy Seales demonstrates the Mechanics Backsaver.

Auto Mechanics Gets New Equipment

The High School Auto Mechanics were lucky enough to receive the mechanics backsaver. The equipment was donated to the Auto Technician class by Muleshoe High Alumnus, Bob Roark, owner of Clovis Diesel Injection Service, Inc. He is the inventor of mechanics backsaver. It is a creeper that is used when working under the hood of vehicles. You lay on the backsaver, chest down while working. It frees both hands to do the vehicle repair. It makes the job much safer and your back does not tire as much. It is especially handy for working on pick-up or larger vehicles.

The mechanics backsaver is another modern comfort from the new and improving minds of technology. A piece of equipment that should be in every repair shop.
