WANT TO BE AN ASSISTANT FIELD DIRECTOR?

PERHAPS there is in North Eddy County someone who is qualified to become and might be desirous to be an assistant field director on that greatest of all humanitarian organizations, the American Red Cross.

C. J. Dexter, chairman of the North Eddy County chapter, wonders if there might be such a person who would like to become an assistant field director in foreign service, and he passes along this information for the consideration of those who might be qualified:

An assistant field director must be a friendly, tactful person of mature judgment, with a genuine interest in people and a sincere desire to be of service.

Experience has shown that men with college training and work experience in such fields as business administration, teaching, law, insurance, counseling, sales, and social welfare readily adjust themselves to the work.

Only American citizens from 30 years through the middle 40's may be considered for these positions.

The arduous nature of the work demands excellent physical health and therefore all candidates must pass the stringent physical examination authorized by the American Red Cross.

Employment will depend upon satisfactory clearance with the Red Cross by the United States Employment Service. All appointments will be contingent upon permission of the local Selective Service Board to leave the United States.

Salary is $225 a month plus a maintenance allowance.

NEVER MIND YOUR NECKS, BUT DON'T HELP ENEMY

WE ALL KNOW it is hard to keep automotive equipment up in the best of shape nowadays, but we have heard of no shortage of headlights on the market.

A friend, who has to be on the highways a night or two a week on official business, called our attention to the great number of cars with only one headlight, a serious hazard at best.

But what really surprises him is the number farmers' tractors, cotton trailers, and the like, which have no lights at all—not even reflectors.

Such are of great danger to motorists, who frequently cannot see the unlighted vehicles until they are nearly upon them, as well as to the drivers of the unlighted vehicles.

Even though there were no law requiring taillights, we would never venture on to a highway or byway without some sort of light showing, for our own protection, if for no other reason.

Certainly wartime is no excuse for taking unnecessary risks. Even though the drivers of unlighted tractors may not care anything about their own necks, they should consider the valuable equipment they are herding down the road, the loss of which would be playing right into Hitler's and Hirohito's hands.

FEW SEEM TO KNOW PRESIDENT'S NAME

NOW THAT HE has been re-elected for a fourth term and soon will have completed twelve years as the chief executive of the United States, it is about time the people of the nation learn the name of their president.

It does not rhyme with "snooze," or "booze," or "shoes," as so many people pronounce it.

And it is not "Roos-en-felt," or "Roos-en-feld," or "Roose-se-felt."

The first syllable of the name of our president rhymes with "rose" and the entire name properly has only two syllables, although there is a slight slur at the first of the second one.

Teddy Roosevelt used three syllables: "Rose-ze-velt."

But F. D. R. pronounces it: "Rose-svelt."

And so why in thunder don't 129 million of the 130 million people in the United States?

WE WONDERED MORE THAN TWO MONTHS AGO

WE WERE NOT particularly surprised a week ago, when a big hullabaloo started as to the whereabouts of Hitler.

We had a two-month jump on the press in general, when we used in the front-page "ear" for Sept. 7: "Wonder Where Hitler Is!"

Wool production is expected to be the lowest in eight years. It is forecast that there will be enough, however, to be pulled over some people's eyes some of the time.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Too many mothers are not on spanking terms with their children.—Carlsbad Current-Argus.

This is the time of year when men discover that friend wife used their vests last spring to patch their pants.—Gallup Independent.

No Postwar rehabilitation job, it is to be hoped, should go so far back as restoring the Colossus of Rhodes or even the Pharos of Alexandria.—Christian Science Monitor.

It's wise to put up all the fruit possible despite the fact that some prices are uncanny.—Abilene Reporter.

Professor: "Didn't I have your brother in this class last year?"
Student: "No sir, it was I. I'm taking the class over."
Professor: "Extraordinary resemblance."

"What, you in the Air Corps? I thought you were in the Cavalry."
"I got a transfer. Ya see, a plane may throw ya, but it can't walk over afterwards and bite ya!"

There is entirely too much worrying about unhappy marriages. Nearly all marriages are happy. It's living together afterwards that causes all the trouble.

"Did Clarice enjoy her date with Joe last night?"
"She was never so humiliated in her life. When he started to eat his soup, five couples got up and began dancing."

Some people never save money for a rainy day because they don't plan to go shopping when it rains.

Half the world's troubles come from saying yes too quickly; and half from not saying no quick enough.

Radios have taught mankind the blessings of silence.

Some men dislike women for no reason at all. Others like them for the same reason.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, Nov. 26.

The Golden Text is: "In the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities; but fear thou God." (Eccl. 5:7)
Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness." (11 Pet. 3:17)

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Evil thoughts and aims reach no farther and do no more harm than one's belief permits. Evil thoughts, lusts, and malicious purposes cannot go forth, like wandering pollen, from one human mind to another, finding unsuspected lodgment, if virtue and truth build a strong defense."

"Thanksgiving" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Thursday, Nov. 23.

The Golden Text is: "Thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place." (II Cor. 2:14)
Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say, Rejoice." (Phil. 4:4)

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "God is not moved by the breath of praise to do more than He has already done, nor can the infinite do less than bestow all good, since He is unchanging wisdom and Love."

Visitors always welcome.

AAA Offices in New Mexico Are Busy in October

New Mexico's thirty-one county AAA offices had a busy month in October, handling office calls, letters, and telephone calls totaling 3,744. But after an average of 4,815 requests for information in August and September, October looked like annual leave.

In October, most of the farmers and ranchers who wanted information from the AAA went to the office to get it just as they did in August and September, and 2,818 pushed open doors to ask questions about seventeen major programs, as compared to a measly 520 letters and 406 telephone calls.

There was an upsurge of interest in the protein meal program, as offices attempted to answer 190 questions, as compared with 122 in September and 44 in August. Most of the other questions concerned conservation practices, dairy feed payments, and gasoline applications.

OTERO RANCHER FINDS USE FOR JOHNSON GRASS

Gilbert Langford, a member of the Otero Soil Conservation District, has four fields of Johnson grass on his ranch south of Alamogordo. The fields, which are on a flood plain, provide grazing during the late spring and early summer, produce from 40 to 50 tons of hay every year, and then are grazed for two months before killing frost.

"You can bet your life more of these flooded areas will be planted to Johnson grass," Mr. Langford said. "From two to three tons of hay per acre come in mighty handy." When he planted the grass, the area was almost denuded, he said.

DEMAND FOR PRODUCTS WILL CONTINUE HIGH

The demand for farm products will probably be almost as high in 1945 as in 1944, USDA analysts believe, with supplies of most products averaging only slightly below current prices. While the national income will probably decline after the defeat of Germany, domestic demand for many farm products at ceiling prices may continue to exceed supplies.

Declining military and lend-lease demand, together with large agricultural production, may result in some reduction in the prices of farm products. But price reduction will be limited by the Stabilization Act of 1942, which provides price support at 90 per cent of parity for basic and "Stegall" commodities, 92.5 per cent for cotton, for at least two years after the end of the war. These commodities have accounted for about two-thirds of cash farm income in recent years.

Pix Rhapsody

By Mary Jane

King Vidor's Technicolor production of "An American Romance," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production to be shown at the Ocotillo Theater at a War Bond premier Thursday evening, Nov. 30, has been brought to the screen as one of the most timely, inspiring, and vital stories ever filmed. Its parallel themes are America's growth in spiritual and material strength through the blessings of a prolific nature and industrial power and man's everlasting striving toward a better life.

In Stefan Dangosbilibek, Slovenian immigrant, who becomes Steve Dangos, American, Brian Donlevy has been given the finest role of his career, following outstanding performances in "Stand By For Action" and "Wake Island." His portrayal of Steve is a masterful character study of an immigrant, who is moulded into an American during a lifetime of growing up with industry.

Woven through the picture is the love story of Anna O'Rourke, the Irish girl he married, their children, and their grandchildren, all proud of their heritage as Americans.

Ann Richards, lovely young American girl, who has lived most of her life in Australia, plays Anna, one of the most important roles ever won by a newcomer. Miss Richards was a noted star of the Australian stage and screen before coming to the United States.

FBI agents were puzzled over the plans of a suspect accused of the theft from the Miami Air Port of a life raft, three machete knives, seven K rations, a clock, an electric fan, six yards of canvas, thirty yards of nylon, and twenty yards of linen fabric.

The Topaz (Utah) Times, publication of the Central Utah Re-location Center, carried this front-page box: "There will be no weather reports until the thermometer which was sent to Salt Lake last week is returned here."

Latest evidence of the cigarette shortage: Two young girls tripped into a drug store in Aberdeen, Wash., for their usual soft drink, then lit up—stogies.

Miss Margaret West's landlord in Philadelphia told her "either you or the mice go." Miss West took her problem to the OPA and explained that her six pet mice "don't harm anyone." "I keep them in their cages," she said. "At night, I let three of the tame ones out to run around the floor." Anyway, Miss West added, she wants to keep her apartment until she catches them.

Upper Cottonwood

(Mrs. D. A. Bradley)
The regular November meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. E. Green. Mrs. Carl Manda had charge of the devotion, after which Mrs. James Thigpen, president presided at the business session. It was decided by motion that the organization send a Christmas offering of $10 to the Children's Home at Waco, Tex., as has been done the last several years. The nominating committee recommended that all officers be re-elected for the coming year. They are: President, Mrs. James Thigpen; vice president, Mrs. O. B. Montgomery; secretary, Mrs. Ralph Pearson. The president is to select other officers for 1945 and announce them at the December meeting, which will be at the home of Mrs. Jesse I. Funk Dec. 14, with Mrs. Thigpen hostess. That meeting will be a week earlier than usual because of Christmas. The meeting closed by prayer by Mrs. D. A. Bradley. During the social hour the hostesses served delicious apple pie topped with ice cream and coffee and tea.

Mrs. John Havins has received word from the War Department that her son, Capt. George Miles Murphy of the U. S. First Army has arrived safely in Paris, France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ryerson left last week to visit their daughter-in-law and grandson in Anthony, Tex.

The Rev. Chester Rogers will preach at Cottonwood Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and on Tuesday, Nov. 28.

Mrs. L. T. Boss was called last week to the bedside at Lamesa, Tex., of her mother, Mrs. Greer, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident near Lamesa. Mrs. Greer is getting along nicely, but will be confined to a hospital several weeks. Mrs. R. D. Porter, another daughter of Mrs. Greer, and her son, J. D., also were in the car, but neither was hurt badly.

Mrs. J. L. Taylor, who was confined to her bed most of last week from flu, is somewhat better and up part of the time. Mr. Taylor also has had a bad case of flu.

A large number of deer hunters from this community were in the mountains the first morning of the deer season and were returning Saturday night and Sunday of the first week with their deer, but reported there were more hunters and fewer deer than the last several years.

Mrs. Glenn O'Bannon has as her guest this week Mrs. Ernest Hester of Cisco, Tex. Mr. Hester accompanied Mrs. Hester to Artesia and went from there to the mountains to enjoy several days of deer hunting. Mrs. Hester, a former resident of Artesia, is also visiting friends there and on the Cottonwood.

S/Sgt. and Mrs. W. A. Wheeler and three children of Albuquerque came in Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Wheeler's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Chester Rogers and family.

She: What were you doing after the accident?
He: Just scraping up an acquaintance.

Shop Now! Mail in November! Is Plea of Post Office Department

Public response to the Post Office Department's "Shop Now! Mail in November" campaign is good, but needs to be better, according to Postmaster General Frank C. Walker.

"Extraordinary wartime conditions face us," Walker said. "Unless more people buy and mail this month the postal service cannot do its job of delivering all Christmas gifts on time."

"It is not pleasing to us to have to ask the American people to mail packages so far in advance of the delivery date. We do so only because it has to be done. The job is a tremendous one, but we are confident that it will be done because we know from experience that given sound reasons Americans cooperate magnificently."

"Unprecedented shortages of manpower and transportation facilities growing out of the war compel early mailing. The postal service has given 50,000 experienced employees to the armed forces and 300,000 railroad workers have gone to war. Equally serious is the fact that rail and other transport facilities are taxed to the limit with the great burden of war traffic which all of us know must take precedence."

"In a great number of our 43,000 postoffices the manpower situation is critical. The 200,000 extra workers whom we normally recruited to handle the swollen Christmas volume of mail were able to work long hours of overtime and to do heavy work. This cannot be expected from the women and high school boys and girls to whom in large part we must look this year to meet the situation."

"The way in which everyone responded in making it possible for us to handle a volume of 70,000,000 parcels for the armed forces overseas leaves no doubt in my mind that the November Christmas mailing will be equally successful. I ask for the help of the press, radio, business advertisers, civic groups, and all Americans in making it possible for the postal service to do its work."

"We urge everyone to buy now, mail in November and mark gifts 'Do Not Open Until Christmas'."

Distinguished Speakers Discuss Vital Subjects on Saturday, as Midyear Auxiliary Meet Closes

Mrs. Harry Owen Holt of San Francisco, Calif., vice president of the Western division of the American Legion Auxiliary, made her first official visit in the division at the fifteenth annual Midyear Presidents' and Secretaries' Conference of the New Mexico Auxiliary in Artesia Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Holt, in her address at a banquet Friday evening at the Carper Terrace, urged units of the New Mexico Auxiliary not to be unmindful of the twenty-five years of preparation and experience which the organization has in facing responsibilities in the world today and in the days ahead. She also urged that wives, mothers, daughters, and sisters of veterans of World War II not only be taken into the organization, but into the hearts of those with years of experience, as they are now sorrowing, many of them for those who will never return. Give the new members a place to serve, she said. Mrs. Holt stressed a note of warning lest the purpose of War Bond drives be defeated, as statistics show that more bonds were cashed in the month of October than were bought. "Buy bonds and keep them," she said.

Mrs. Holt discussed briefly in her address, "Universal Military Training," a movement which is being backed by the American Legion, as one of the most vital questions to confront mothers today. National defense must be built within and must begin with youth, at home and in our schools. We must build a defense so strong that no nation will ever again attack us, she said.

Col. J. D. Atwood of Roswell, a veteran of World War I and a past national vice president of the American Legion, used for his subject of address at the banquet hour "Legion and the Peace."

There is too much talk of peace and not enough about war, Colonel Atwood said. It is almost criminal to talk about peace and not war, yet there is something about peace which must be discussed, he said. It is time to discuss preparedness in order that we not make the same mistake we made after World War I. There are now 12,000,000 men in uniform instead of 4,000,000, and the world with robot bombs, which may span an ocean, has grown smaller, so we must be prepared, he said.

Colonel Atwood read parts from a speech which he delivered at a Rotary Club meeting in this city in 1941, in which he pointed out our unpreparedness at that time, when war clouds were gathering. It is going to be part of the job of veterans to see that this does not happen again, that our shameful state at the time of Pearl Harbor is not repeated, he said.

The colonel told of a speech which he delivered before a Rotary International convention in Washington, D. C., ten years ago, in which he was accused by some as being dangerous, because of his convictions of our nation facing another war in which we were going to be unprepared. "We must prepare both morally and materially and the moral preparedness must come from the home by mothers," he said in closing, and added, "there is safety in might, not in slight."

"National Defense" was the theme of the banquet hour, in which stampbooks were used for placecards and miniature soldiers with flags decorated the tables. Mrs. O. H. Ichelbarger of Albuquerque was toastmaster. Mrs. Fred Cole rendered two vocal numbers. Mrs. Glenn Caskey was pianist and Everett Dean O'Bannon, violinist.

Twelve of the thirty-nine units were represented. The registration was about fifty delegates, which was considered very good with travel difficult and weather bad.

Nurses' Aide Class Now Open to Women For Enrollment

Women in the city who meet the requirements for registration in a class in nurses' aide to begin Friday, Nov. 24, are urged to register by calling Mrs. L. B. Feather, phone 134, or Mrs. S. E. Chipman, phone 126-M.

The purpose of the Volunteer Nurses' Aide Corps is to train women to serve because of the ever increasing shortage of nurses. Conscious of the shortage of nurses and the gravity of the international situation as early as 1940, the American Red Cross turned its attention to establishing a course for training volunteer nurses' aides. In this manner it is hoped to train those who may give valuable service in their respective communities in normal circumstances and to the nation in time of emergency. The emergency is here now, it is said by officials of the Red Cross.

Artesia is fortunate to have an approved instructor in the city. Requirements for an instructor are high and Sister Scholastica at Artesia Memorial Hospital has met those requirements. She taught two classes before coming to the city and is to be instructor of the class now being organized.

Requirements of those who register for training are thirty-five hours of classwork and forty-five hours of supervised practice in the hospital after finishing the course. One must also be willing to give 150 hours of service yearly, which means only three hours a week unless one wants to work more often and not over such a long period. One may also express a preference for the day and hours for services and will not be subject to call any hour day or night.

Classes are to be held beginning at 1:30 each Tuesday and Friday afternoon, holidays excepted.

Artesia is about four hours behind schedule in this national Red Cross program. Let us not wait longer in doing our part for our community and our country, said Red Cross officials in the city.

Taxpayers' Association Report Show Trend in New Mexico Municipalities

In order to indicate the trend in property taxation, the Taxpayers' Association of New Mexico publishes annually a statement of property tax rates for state, county, municipal, and school purposes in the sixty-four incorporated cities, towns, and villages in New Mexico. Tax rates for each year are shown in comparison with those of the previous year.

The total 1944 tax rates for state, county, municipal, and school purposes in these sixty-four municipalities show a decrease in forty-eight. In thirty-one there were decreases for municipal purposes, three have the same rates as in 1943, and in eleven there were no levies for municipal purposes in either year. For school purposes thirty-five municipalities show decreases and in four others the school rate is the same for 1943. The deductions in several municipalities are due also to decreased rates for county purposes, all but four of the thirty-one counties having lower tax rates for county purposes exclusive of schools than for 1943. There is also a small reduction in the state rate.

In eight municipalities the total rate for all purposes is more than $50 on each $1,000 of assessed valuation, in four between $40 and $50, in nineteen between $30 and $40, in thirty between $20 and $30, and in three less than $20.

All rates in excess of $20 are due to rates levied for the payment of interest on and retirement of bonds voted by the people, which means that the bonded indebtedness of the state and its local units are making substantial debt reductions each year.

The average property tax rate for all state, county, municipal, and school purposes for 1944 is $23.45 for each $1,000 of assessed value

—Courtesy The School Musician

The picture originally appeared in the October issue of The School Musician and the caption says the picture was taken at Fort Stotsenburg in the Philippines. The members of the band are all prisoners of war, or have been reported dead or missing in action.

Corporal King is in a prison camp in Japan, from where he has broadcast many times over short-wave radio and has been heard over the United States.

When he was in grade school in Artesia, Tony one time played a French harp solo at a high school assembly and gave such an outstanding performance the director contacted his parents and persuaded them to have him study clarinet.

He was one of the best clarinet students in the class and finally played the instrument well enough to be considered one of the best high school musicians in this part of the Southwest.

WLB Eases Restriction on Holiday Hiring and Bonuses to Employees

Acting to simplify holiday problems of employers and workers, the National War Labor Board has eased restrictions regulations affecting Christmas or year-end bonuses and seasonal or holiday hiring, J. Glenn Donaldson, chairman of the Ninth Regional Board, announced.

Employers do not need WLB approval to give Christmas bonuses up to $25 in cash or value. If the employer has a wage schedule under General Order No. 31, the WLB also will permit him to hire temporary Christmas workers at rates higher than the minimum of the rate ranges for jobs being filled, without being counted among the 25 per cent of regular employees. However, rates for these temporary workers cannot exceed the midpoint of the rate ranges.

During the last two Christmas seasons, the War Labor Board and the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor have received thousands of applications for approval of small year-end bonuses. Now, employers will be able to carry out simple bonus plans without the necessity of coming to WLB for approval. Policies on year-end bonuses are:

Employers may give annual or Christmas bonuses up to $25 without WLB approval, even if no bonuses were given in the past.

No approval is needed if the bonus of more than $25 is the same in amount as that given last year or if the method of computation is not changed.

Stringent requirements under the wage stabilization program will make it possible to obtain approval for new or revised bonus plans above $25, except in rare cases.

An employer planning to give bonuses for the first time in excess of $25 must obtain WLB approval. So must the employer who wishes to institute changes in an existing bonus plan. Applications must show that such plans meet the following requirements:

Conform to the practice prevailing in the industry and area before October, 1942.

Cause no appreciable increase in cost.

Do not furnish the basis either to increase prices or to resist an otherwise justifiable reduction in prices.

Do not create inequities in existing rates paid for similar work. Are not based on general claims of increased work or duties for all employees.

Lt. and Mrs. Chandler Mathis were here from Friday night to Monday morning visiting his father.

Mountain Lions Are Gaining in Ranges of State

State Game Warden Elliott Barker said he feared that game animals were suffering from predatory animals "to what may be a serious extent," despite the best efforts of his department under wartime handicaps.

Barker said he had not been informed since the start of the big game season of losses among the deer population of the Black Range area as the result of mountain lion attacks. He said he had "been afraid" such a situation would develop "because lions have gotten a little start in the Black Range country in the last two years. We've been doing all we can, but we've been handicapped by a shortage of manpower."

Carlsbad hunters reported they were told by checkers in the Black Range that lions were numerous in the region.

The lions probably are thickest in the Mogollon Mountain and Gila Forest area, which includes the Black Range, Barker said.

"You can't estimate the deer losses to lions without an estimate of the lion population," he added. "But a lion will take from 40 to 50 deer a year; usually accounting for about one a week."

He estimated his department's predatory animal hunter in Southwest New Mexico has been averaging about three lions a month.

Mrs. Ethel Vaughn who moved with her daughters to Pueblo, Colo., a few months ago, was here the first of the week attending to business and visiting her uncle, F. M. Privett.

MOTOR OIL CONOCO

War forced closest attention to every motoring detail. And this fine habit of thoughtfulness has grown on car owners.

You'd only be testing human kindness by changing to a half-flat spare and setting out for the next air hose. Where a forgetful man actually tries it, a good Samaritan generally drives up alongside, pointing a helpful warning. America has become as thoughtful as all that toward her indispensable cars. And of all the examples of car-care the greatest single one you can follow is to have your engine OIL-PLATED. In that way—by changing to Conoco Nth motor oil for Winter—by changing to this patented oil that OIL-PLATES—you'll give your engine's insides the nth degree of protection from acid corrosion.

All engine combustion creates corrosive acids. They're bad enough even when "exhaled" fairly well, but from now on they won't be! Winter's extra-low mileage and cool operation mean acids at their worst. Patented Conoco Nth oil, however... thanks to costly pioneer research... brings the special ingredient whose magnet-like action OIL-PLATES the fine inner engine finish, to cope with corrosion. Attached as closely as protective chrome plating could be, the internal OIL-PLATING keeps up its steadiest possible hindrance to direct contact between acids and engine parts... Then down go the chances of corrosion, just as soon as you change to popular-priced Nth oil for Winter, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

THE JOB IN THE PACIFIC IS STILL TERRIFIC!

THERE ARE STILL MILLIONS OF TOUGH, BRUTAL JAPS TO LICK.
EVERY JAP WE KILL MAKES
MY CHANCES OF GETTING HOME
BETTER, AND IT COSTS PLENTY TO KILL A JAP

IF YOU think Japan is a pushover—you're fooling yourself, mister. Millions of fanatical Japanese are prepared to die for their country. Every American soldier, marine and sailor in the Pacific knows that he has a tough fight on his hands. You can't tell them their war is over! Even as you read these words, American men are dying in the fight against Japan.

Look into your heart and ask yourself honestly: "Have I stopped fighting? Have I stopped buying War Bonds because I think the war is about over?" You're not a quitter; your answer is "No!"

It costs billions of dollars a month to fight Japan

The fight in the Pacific calls for a highly specialized type of equipment. B-29 bombers that cost $600,000 in War Bonds; M-4 tanks with bulldozer blades that cost $67,417; "alligators" that cost $30,000; millions of gallons of gas. We need more and costlier equipment than any war has ever called for. And that's the reason for the 6th War Loan Drive. Just as long as a single Japanese aims a gun at our men—we must continue to buy War Bonds.

Once again you are asked to buy at least one extra $100 War Bond. Buy more if you possibly can. Not only is it for the final Victory—it's for your future. Sign up for extra War Bonds on the Payroll Plan. Welcome the Victory Volunteer when he or she calls at your home. Remember—the job in the Pacific is still terrific. We're out to get Japan in the 6th War Loan Drive!

Safety Awards Made at Valley Meeting Tuesday

Safety awards were made to four local employees of the Southwestern Public Service Company here Tuesday evening at a safety meeting for the Pecos Valley district, when H. E. Samson of Roswell, district manager, made similar awards to a number of employees from throughout the valley.

The meeting, which was held at the Artesia Woman's Club building, was attended by about a hundred employees and wives. Guests included Victor Shawgo, head of the personnel division, and Norvell Washburn, safety director, both from the Amarillo office of the Southwestern Public Service Company.

Employees of the Artesia office who received safety awards, representing the six-month period ending last June 30, were J. D. Smith, manager, and L. E. Naylor, H. A. Jordan, and J. W. Brown.

After the meeting, stunts were enjoyed and refreshments were served by members of the Women's Council of the First Christian Church. Dancing concluded the evening's fun.

retary, such as filing claims and explaining various matters relative to a veteran's rights.

However, the committee members would stand ready to advise the veteran on many matters pertaining to change-over to civilian status and as to his future. The secretary could direct the veteran to the proper committee for specialized information. And should some official question arise, or the member "bog down," it could then be referred to Brainard in his official capacity as a Selective Service appointee.

Baird said the task assumed by the local men "is the most important undertaking here in eighteen years," the length of time he has lived in Artesia. C. J. Dexter, chairman of the Red Cross chapter, termed Monday's meeting the "most serious" he ever had attended, and Kerr declared the men present were not concerned with anything other than "doing the job ourselves for our North Eddy County boys."

James Jay Joyce, who recently graduated from Aviation Ordnance School at Norman, Okla., has been transferred to the Naval Air Training Center at Corpus Christi, Tex.

the majority of the tackles for Artesia.

The Cavemen have renewed hopes of sharing in the mythical state championship because of a game scheduled between the Hobbs Eagles and Gallup, the contenders, while the Cavemen are out for a win over the Lea County boys, which they feel would give them the edge in case Hobbs defeats Gallup.

The Bulldogs will play their final game of the season on Morris Field at 2:30 o'clock Thanksgiving afternoon against the Roswell Coyotes, who won over Artesia at Roswell in the season opener 21 to 0 on Sept. 15.

Coach F. L. Green announced the probable starting line-up for the game against Roswell:

Line—Ends, Everett Lapsley and Joe Watson, tackles, Jimmie Watkins and Gerald Clay; guards, Billy Feather and Elzy Swift; center, Bill Phillips.

Backs—Izzy Juarez, Jimmie Evans, Fred Pool, and Cruz Juarez.

Sounds Like a Silly Way to Get Job Done

The tall stack on top of the hull burner of the cotton gin of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association, which began to buckle some days ago and had been leaning "towards Gabe's house," attracting considerable attention, has been lowered, separated as to the buckled and unbuckled parts, and replaced—but not as simply as that.

The intense heat from the burner had taken out the temper from the lower portion of the stack, which was about thirty-five feet tall, allowing one of the three lower five-foot joints to start to cave in.

While Artie McNally, association manager, looked on Monday morning, the derrick truck of Jack Scuderi was backed up to the burner and the boom was raised to its peak, where a sling was attached more than half way up the pipe.

Then, while a crew of men kept four guy wires taut, the cable to which the sling was attached was tightened and the pipe was raised, preparatory to removing the three bottom sections and replacing the four top ones.

Sun Carnival—

Her expenses also will be paid. The two will be houses at one of the better hotels in El Paso during the carnival.

Members of the board of directors of the Lions Club will serve as judges and will be responsible for all computations, interpretations of the rules, and unforeseen circumstances arising during the course of the contest.
