Government Students Presents Political Rally, Mock Election

Its election time once again and the senior United States Government students of Muleshoe High School, under the direction of Jean Allison, will present a Texas-style political rally and mock election on election day, Nov. 8 at 10 a.m. in the high school auditorium. "The public is given a special invitation to attend this educational presentation" said Ms. Allison.

"This will be an exciting, as well as informative affair, with patriotic music, a short skit, press conference, political speeches and some very unusual dignitaries. The senior students have spent many hours researching candidates and issues of this year's election. They then must participate as one of the candidates, press members, dignitaries, campaign chairpersons and workers, and many other duties. Every senior government student participates actively."

Candidates and their chairpersons in this years mock election are as follows: For President of the United States: V. President George Bush, Republican--Brandon Wilson; Campaign Chairperson--Lisa Noble, Governor Michael Dukakis, Democrat--

Chairperson--Esther Acosta. Mistress and Master of Ceremonies for this program will be Christy Mata and Joe Orozco. Among the dignitaries who will be making special appearances include Pres. Ronald Reagan (Jaime Reyes), Nancy Reagan (Krystal Angeley), Former President Jimmy Carter (Dusty Rhodes), Rosiland Carter (Debbie Brown), Tom Selleck (Salvador Olivarez), Roger Stauback (Brad Long), Rev. Jesse Jackson (Jaime Olivarez), and John Kennedy, Jr. (Tim Shipman).

"The senior government students suggest you go by the M.H.S. auditorium at 10 a.m. on election day and hear some of the issues of this election debated," Mrs. Allison continued. "It is hoped that when you go vote in the real election, you will be a little more informed. This presentation is being made to interest the students, as well as other, in America's unique political system, as this system is on which must be studied and cherished if it is to be kept for future generations."

Bradley Presents

Rotary Program

On Australia

Sam Harlan was in charge of the Rotary program Tuesday. He presented Barry Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who was among the nine local people who visited Australia July 20-Aug 2. Those making the trip from Muleshoe included: Sam and Jean Harlan, Royce and Fran Hamilton, Kent and Wanda Wiley, Barry and Jackie Bradley and Bobbie Johnson. Bradley told of their trip and also showed slides taken while they were there.

He stated that Baptist churches in the United States were paired with churches in other countries in what is called "Partnership Missions", the groups had corresponded for about a year before leaving Lubbock for Casino, Australia, a community of approximately 11,000 people 30 miles of the East Coast. "This is an agricultural community and is the beef capitol of the world."

While in Australia they visited civic clubs, teas among the church members, as well as a special men's night. The ladies had a night at the church. Although this was a religious orientated trip, they also visited the public schools. He stated that they have a religious services in the schools. Teas were held four times daily, with the local people visiting in the home of the church

Time To Take

Close Look

At Lawn

Fall is in the air and it is the time for a close look at your lawn as we go into the winter season, says a specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Fall is a critical period for both warm and cool season turf, but treatment that is good for one type may be bad for the other, notes Dr. Michael Hickey, Extension soil chemist at Lubbock.

Fall may reduce the curb appeal of bermuda grass and zoysia, but it allows the turf to get ready for winter, Hickey said. "Such warm season grasses require a three- to four-week hardening period to prepare for winter. In our area, this occurs at the end of September and into October."

During this period, shoot growth will decrease and the essential carbohydrates necessary to carry the turf through dormancy accumulate. Practices that promote lush growth prevent the hardening process and increase susceptibility to low temperature injury or possible winter-kill, the extension specialist said.

"Application of nitrogen-containing fertilizers and mowing

Cranes Arrive For Winter

With winter approaching, the skies will be filled with migrating birds. Ducks and sandhill cranes will soon be seen in large quantities in Bailey County. Of these, the sandhill crane is the only one that overwinters in any large number.

The largest concentration of the long-legged lesser sandhill crane in North America can be found at Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge. They congregate at the refuge, then spread out to other saline lakes.

The cranes start arriving as early as September 25. Bailey County is one of the largest overwintering areas in the southern high plains with as many as 250,000 birds being reported in one year.

Presently there are approximately 1100 cranes on the refuge. The population will continue to increase until it peaks between December and early February. They overwinter until late February at which time they begin their migration back to western Alaska and Northern Canada. By mid-March, the cranes are gone.

While the cranes are here, they roost on the exposed shoreline of playas. They prefer playas with three to four inches of water and away from any human disturbance. At first light, they will all take flight at once and then break into smaller groups to search for food. Normally, they travel 15 to 30 miles for food, but have been known to go as far as 50 miles from their roosting site. At dusk, the cranes return to the playas for the night.

According to Soil Conservationist Terry Walker, there are several conservation practices that are beneficial to the crans' food supply, as well as for other wildlife. By using minimum tillage management and crop residue, shattered grain left after harvest will supply a food source. Also, cover crops provide a good source of green shoots for browse.

Planting small grains or leaving small plots of unharvested grain such as grain sorghum are other suggestions for those interested in maintaining a food source for the cranes. Pumping water into a dry lake during a drought will provide a quality habitat.

A special permit along with a hunting license is required for those interested in hunting. The permit is required since the sandhill crane closely resembles the whooping crane which is on the endangered species list.

Hunting season usually runs from November to February.

McCamish Wins

First Place

In Football Contest

Barbara McCamish took first place in this week's Merchants Football Contest being the only contestant missing four games. She will receive 10 points and a check for $10.00.

Second place and six points went to Leland Brockman who missed six games. Since five contestants missed six games, the Journal Judge had to go to the tie breakers to break the tie. Brockman missed six games and was 24 points off on the tie breaker.

Third place and winner of 4 points, Jerry D. Gleason also missed six games and was 41 points off on the tiebreaker.

Other contestants missing six games and three tiebreaker scores included: J.E. McVicker, 42 points off; Roger Crosswhite, 44 points off; and Mrs. John Hayes, who was 60 points off on the tiebreaker.

There is still a few weeks left in the contest, so keep your entries coming in.

Hospitals Need Adequate Reimbursement For Services

Unless hospitals receive adequate reimbursement for services that allows for plant renovation, acquisition of new technology and attraction of necessary personnel, our nation's health care system will no longer be the best in the world, says Pamela Bailey, president of the National Committee on Quality Health Care.

Vital services will be cut, facilities will be substandard, and access to services will be rationed, adds George Atkins, vice president of Humana Inc. and a trustee of the national committee. The two discussed the report's findings with government and business leaders in Dallas, Houston and Austin this week.

The report, entitled "Critical Condition: America's Health Care in Jeopardy," was prepared by Lewin/ICF Associates for the national committee, a broad-based coalition of more than 100 health care providers and allied companies and firms. The 20-city nationwide tour to discuss the report is part of a campaign to enhance public awareness of the dangers of federal budget cuts to health programs.

Hospitals' costs for providing care to Medicare patients have increased more than payments, according to the Texas Hospital Association. The Prospective Payment Advisory Commission, created by Congress in 1983 to

L.S.U. And Georgia Favored To Win Their Contests

Clemson's upset loss to the North Carolina State Wolfpack two weeks ago was a huge blow to the Tigers in their romp to another Atlantic Coast championship. It was a particularly unhappy loss since NC State had upset Clemson last season 30-28, the Tigers' only loss in the conference. Clemson hosts North Carolina Saturday, and the Tigers shouldn't have a problem in this one. North Carolina State visits Virginia, and the Wolfpack is favored to remain just one-beaten in the conference.

When Wyoming won the Western Athletic Conference in 1987, the Cowboys joined Oklahoma, Nebraska and U.C.L.A. as one of only four division 1-A teams to score over 400 points during the season. This year, in leading the conference again, Wyoming has averaged 45 points a game in rolling up 360 points in its first eight games. The Cowboys are favored over Texas-El Paso in the feature game in the WAC Saturday.

In the Pac-10, Oregon poses a big threat to U.C.L.A. The Ducks upset both Washington State and Stanford early in the season before being drowned by Southern California a month ago 42-14. Heading for their sundown with the Trojans in two weeks, favored U.C.L.A. faces Oregon in Eugene, and the Ducks could make it very interesting.

If the Cowboys of Oklahoma State beat Oklahoma--and we think they will, we won't call it an upset. It's simply because we think that this year Oklahoma State has a better football team than the Sooners. And the Cowboys will be playing at home.

Our forecasts for Saturday, October 22nd, were further evidence that ye olde crystal ball is still bright and shiny. 80% of our selections were right--boosting the overall average to .757 - 1,121 right, 359 wrong.

In the red hot Southeast Conference race, Alabama is at home in an elimination contest with L.S.U. while Georgia plays Florida in Jacksonville. L.S.U. and Georgia are favored.

TWO THINGS TEXANS DON'T LIKE ARE BAD HIGHWAYS AND BROKEN PROMISES.

The money we send to Washington every time we fill up our cars comes back to Texas. The government promises that this money will be spent to build, repair and maintain our highways.

Diverting those Federal Highway Trust dollars to some other purpose could devastate our highway system for years to come.

- It would halt vital road construction;
- Cancel needed safety improvement;
- End repairs to roads and bridges.

Texans can stop this threat by voting for Proposition One which makes certain that highway dollars are spent on highways. Let's keep the promise to Texans.

On Election Day look at the bottom of your ballot and find Proposition One, the Highway Amendment. Proposition One continues the Texas plan for good jobs, economic growth and safe roads without raising taxes and most importantly . . . keeps your family safe.

A lot is riding on the promise of good Texas roads.

Keep highway money for highways and the jobs they create. Proposition One is endorsed by the Texas Highway Commissioners, local and state-wide officials of both political parties, and hundreds of civic groups because they know that building good roads keeps Texas moving.

too closely are two practices to avoid at this time of year," Hickey said.

Cool season grasses, such as fescue and Kentucky bluegrass, tend to suffer from heat stresses during High Plains summers, the soil chemist said. "As fall approaches, their growth will increase through November."

"These grasses will respond nicely to a nitrogen fertilizer application in late September," Hickey said. He cautioned that care should be taken to apply no more than five pounds of ammonium sulfate per 1,000 square feet. Applying higher amounts will leave the grass susceptible to damage by very cold weather.

Both warm and cool season turf will benefit from an application of potassium in late September, the Extension specialist said. Potassium can improve winter-hardiness, wear tolerance and disease resistance in turf.

For bermuda grass and zoysia, the suggested rate is one to two pounds of potassium per 1,000 square feet. This should be applied as a potassium - only fertilizer, and no nitrogen or phosphorous should be applied, Hickey said.

Fescue and Kentucky bluegrass will benefit from a two-to-four-pound application of potassium, he said.

"For the cool season grasses in West Texas, a complete fertilizer such as 10-10-10, containing nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium, can be used only if a soil test suggests the application of phosphorous. Otherwise, the individual elements are best," the Extension soil chemist said.

A total of 630 Baptist from Texas, the largest mission ever put together, visited the Baptist Union of South Wales."

Bradley stated that he would like to visit Australia again at a more leisurely pace since this trip was on a very tight schedule.

Next week Delbert Watson will present the Rotary program on his trip to Russia, this was arranged by Kenneth Henry.

Guests present were Noe Anzaldua, Jerry Hicks, Carrol Cox and Cindy Purdy.

study and advise on Medicare payment rates, found that the difference between Medicare payments and costs was an average two percent for hospitals in 1987. This makes it almost impossible for hospitals to make needed renovations and acquire beneficial new technology. Estimates are that more than 40 percent of the nation's hospitals will lose money on Medicare patients in 1988.

Rural and public hospitals are hardest hit. For the past two years, Texas has led the nation in the number of hospital closures. From 1984-87, Texas lost 52 hospitals. Only two had more than 100 beds, and 28 were located in rural counties, according to Karl Shaner, Dr. P.H., vice president of research and information services for the Texas Hospital Association in Austin. Through Sept. 30, 15 hospitals have closed in 1988.

The number of uninsured Americans is also growing. Almost 18 percent of Americans have no insurance, and of these, 32 percent are children, the committee reports. From 1981-85 the number of uninsured Texans rose by one million. The 2.7 million uninsured Texans in 1985 represented 16.9 percent of the state's population, according to the Texas Department of Human Services. In Texas, only 25 percent of the population living at or below poverty are eligible for Medicaid benefits.

Coupled with the rising numbers of uninsured patients and inadequate payments are the shortages of personnel in hospitals, Texas Hospital Association officials note.

The National Committee for Quality Health Care is calling for an open debate about our nation's commitment to ensuring success to quality care and the resources necessary to maintain that availability.

Sandhill Crane

Hunting Permits

Being Issued

On Monday, approximately 14,300 sandhill cranes were using the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge. More are arriving almost every day. The majority of the cranes leave the Refuge lakes at daybreak each day often flying several miles to feed in the cornfields. They begin returning to the Refuge throughout the evening until dark.

Although hunting is not allowed on the Refuge, Sandhill Crane hunting permits are again being issued at the Refuge office this year. Crane hunters are required to have the federal crane hunting permit in addition to the state hunting license. Office hours are from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. There is no charge for the permit. Hunters may also call during office hours at 946-3341 and have the permit mailed to them. The sandhill crane season for this area, Zone A, is November 12 through Feb. 12. A daily bag limit is three and possession limit is 6.

The Muleshoe Wildlife Refuge does not issue state hunting licenses but they are available at nearby locations.

Leadership Class Receives A Boa Surprise

The Muleshoe High School Leadership class experienced a unique surprise Friday, Oct. 28th. Ms. Malia Pye, a fourth grade teacher, shared her pet boa constrictor named Kimo with the class. Kimo, a four year old, seven and half foot, 11 pound boa constrictor was a hit with some students, but others were reluctant to get acquainted. The class learned many interesting facts. Mr. Pye explained that Kimo has no fangs and does not squeeze his prey. Instead he wraps around the prey and each time he swallows it cuts off the victims air until it suffocates. Kimo is fed one live mouse a week. On special occasions he is fed a guinea pig. A boa constrictor's growth can be controlled by how much he is fed. Mrs. Liles would like for her leadership class to have the opportunity to experience happenings not usually available to the ordinary person. The introduction of Kimo was a fun, educational, and very unusual surprise.

This article was written by April Watkins, a freshman at MHS.

Speech Dept. Looks Forward To A Successful Year

On Saturday, October 22, the speech departments at MHS began a successful speech circuit. The Muleshoe speech team had 19 Muleshoe High School students competing at the annual Amarillo Tascosa tournament. Only one person, Brandon Wilson, who is a three-time regional qualifier in Lincoln-Douglas debate, qualified for TFA state. Wilson, a senior placed in L-D and thus qualified for state for the second year. Also highlighted at the Tascosa tournament from Muleshoe were Norma Jean Del Toro and Kimberly Chance, breaking to semi-finals in poetry; Steve Garcia and Audree Anzaldua, breaking to finals and semi-finals, respectively, in extemporaneous speaking.

Annual Staff Working Diligently On Annual

The Muleshoe High School Annual staff is working hard to make this year's annual a rockin' one! Hours of imagination and preparation are required to capture the years memories in an interesting and entertaining way. The students take the pictures, develop the pictures, create the page format, and develop the theme. It is a great responsibility, but with juniors, and seniors, that make this year's annual staff, it will be worth the twenty-five dollars! The annual staff works hard, but they still manage to have a good time. The hard work is worth it; the more work the better the annual. This year the annual promises to be one of the best. With the cooperative staff and the excellent sponsors, Mrs. Adrian and Mrs. Watson, it will be an annual worth having.

Gifted Talent Class Films TV Program

The Gifted and Talented class of Muleshoe High School has started a monthly television program. G/T/E is sponsored by John Gulley. These G/T students filmed and produced the program with the help of Magann Reynolds from Channel 6. Each month a special department is chosen.

The English department was the spotlight of October. The English teachers along with some of their students were interviewed. Mrs. Wrinkle's honors English IV class presented a Pilgrimage from Canterbury tales. The students dressed in flamboyant costumes and created their own iambic poems. Mrs. Wrinkle directed the Pilgrimage and her character was the inn keeper Harry Bailey.

Teachers and students of the week were also interviewed. November's production of G/T/E

November's production of G/T-TV will be seen right around Thanksgiving on Channel 6.

The MHS Rocks article is a humorous article, which allows students to voice their opinions.

What are the requirements for student of the day?

If school is suppose to teach students responsibility and should be treated like a job, then when do we get paid?

The tardy policy, does it exist?

And how about that junior skit... What about it?

NHS Holds First Meeting Of The Year

The National Honor Society held their first meeting of the new 1988-89 school year. The members met at the home of Lisa Noble. Lisa's mom deserves a big thanks for all the wonderful refreshments that were served throughout the meeting. The main issues of discussion for the evening were projections to raise money and new ideas that the NHS members might want to do throughout the year.

Officers for the year were chosen. The new officers for the 1988-89 year are as follows. Lisa Noble, president; Andrew Espinoza, vice president; Carrol Copley, secretary; Justine Hanes, reporter; Christy Mata, chaplain; Julie Crittenden, student council rep.; Brandon Wilson, parliamentarian.

They also decided to meet once a month on the fourth Monday of each month. It was also decided where the next meeting would be. The next month's meeting will be held at Michelle Cox's house at 7:30 p.m.

Human nature is what encourages individuals to find an excuse for what they happen to desire.
