Broken Water Lines Keep City Very Busy

Tuesday night, the Muleshoe Mulettes narrowly edged the Dimmitt Bobbies, 47-45.

But, the significance of the win is even bigger than a narrow victory.

This was the first time the Mulettes had defeated Dimmitt in many, many years -- a definite victory for Muleshoe.

In the Mules' game against Dimmitt, the Mules lost out 88-54 to the Bobcats.

Friday night, the Mules and Mulettes will travel to Floydada to close out basketball for 1989.

Frank Ellis, who was taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock on Saturday, underwent an angiogram Tuesday morning.

Just before lunch on Tuesday, his son, Todd, said the doctor had not come by with a report on the test. Frank was said to be resting very well in the CCU at Methodist.

Muleshoe Young Homemakers will sponsor skating Friday night at the Bailey County Coliseum 7-9 p.m.

Admission will be $1 per skater and the Young Homemakers will be giving away balloons.

Parents of the Senior Class of 1990 will be sponsoring a youth dance on Saturday, February 11, at the American Legion.

Scotty Snipes will provide music for the dance which will be 8 p.m.-midnight.

A Muleshoe student has been added to the fall 1988 Dean's Honor Roll at Wayland Baptist University, Plainview.

Named to the list was Deborah Lackey, who posted a 3.57 grade point average (GPA) for the recently-completed term.

A freshman, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lackey of Muleshoe.

Students and parents interested in the Lee Palmer Memorial Scholarship fund will meet Monday, February 13 at 7 p.m. in the Superior Medical Supply building located at 623 West Second in Muleshoe.

Cardiopulmar Resuscitation classes are scheduled to be held in Muleshoe, beginning February 16, according to Starla Ellis.

She also said another night will be scheduled for the second half of the lessons.

For further information, contact her at 272-4390.

Following is a list of officers as selected during the meeting: Mickey Merriott, president; Tom Ladd, secretary/treasurer; Doug Buie, reporter.

Future meetings will be held on the first Sunday of the month at 1:30 p.m.

Other charter members attending were: Rich Magby, Mike Hanna, Richard Ronek and Billy Tosh.

An open invitation is extended to all R/C pilots and prospective pilots.

HE'S THE BUSIEST MAN IN TOWN--Ramon Sanchez, who started working for the water department for the City of Muleshoe last September, really got his 'Baptism' during the last several days. Over the weekend, when most people get to stay home, Sanchez was out in near-zero weather checking frozen water lines, and cutting off water to homes where water lines had partially thawed and burst. This type activity has continued into this week, with little sign of letting up. (Journal Photo)

Unrelenting Bitter Cold Holds Firm Grip In Area

Who's the busiest man in town these days? That's very simple to answer -- Ramon Sanchez of the water department for the City of Muleshoe.

Late last Thursday afternoon, an Arctic cold front slammed into the area, and by Friday morning, the local temperature had skidded to zero after being springlike all during the prior 8-10 days.

But, it was an unrelenting, bitter front, and daytime temperatures stubbornly refused to move even into the 'teens.'

Many local residents and businesses found their water lines frozen, and little did they realize their woes were just about to begin.

Over the weekend, the weather did start warming slightly, and many people started processes, by various means, to thaw out frozen water pipes and lines.

Many lines started bursting, prompting frantic calls to the Muleshoe City Police Department to get water turned off in a hurry. In many instances, the broken lines were literally spraying inside homes, and flooding carpets.

By Monday morning, from Saturday, Sanchez had spent the entire weekend in his pickup, speeding from one location to another to help distraught residents with major water problems and broken lines.

He started receiving calls fairly early on Monday, and the same trend continued through Tuesday as slowly rising temperatures started a thawing process, and broken water lines were really beginning to show up.

By Tuesday afternoon, he had received more than 50 calls since Saturday, and it was to become just a way of life -- one call right after another.

Plumbers were also running hither and yon, trying to get local residents back with water again, knowing that the very cold weather was expected to continue throughout the week.

Despite the bitter cold, very little moisture was received, with powdery snowflakes blowing down the streets, and the only accumulations could be found in gutters and secluded places.

Friday afternoon, the Muleshoe Fire Department was summoned to a home in northeast Muleshoe, where the resident had left a device to try to thaw out frozen water pipes. The kitchen of the home was partially burned before firemen were

Cites Strong

Holiday Sales

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday strong retail sales in the last quarter of 1988 and during the Christmas season will produce a multi-million dollar windfall for the Texas budget.

"The books are closed and Santa Claus was good to us," Bullock said.

He said the state's recovering economy, capped off by good Christmas sales, could give Texas a surplus this year of more than $300 million from state sales tax revenues.

Bullock said he's advised lawmakers he expects to be able to certify $150 million more than the $156 million surplus in the November 1988 biennial revenue estimate.

Bullock said sales tax collections reported to his office this month reflect December sales and will total about $670 million.

"That's an increase of more than eight percent over the $620 million reported in the same period last year," he said.

Until recently, retail sales have lagged behind the overall statewide economic recovery. However, recent signs show sales are coming back as consumers regain confidence in the Texas economy, he added.

Bullock said the surplus would be put in the state's rainy day fund unless the Legislature adopts proposed bookkeeping measures to obligate the money during the current budget period.

More Than 35 County Youth Set For Houston Stock Show

Sixteen FFA members from Muleshoe and Maple will be joining 4-H and other FFA members from throughout the state for showing competition at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show, February 16 through March 5 at the Astrodome.

These FFA and 4-H exhibitors compete in one of two divisions of the Houston Livestock Show - the junior show division. The other division, the open show, attracts its exhibitors from the world's agricultural industry in the form of professional breeders and ranchers.

Entries in both the open and junior shows combine with horse show entries to make the Houston Livestock Show the world's largest.

Muleshoe FFA youth in the show will be Jim Carpenter, Stacy Cisneros, Steven Debusk, Gary Freeman, Jeffery D. Noble, Johnny Mac Noble, Ross Parish, Jason Redwine and Jeffrey Wheeler.

Three Way School FFA youth, from Maple, will include Carrie Kindle, Chris Locke, Jarrod Sowder, Marc Tucker, Sheila Tucker, Melinda Turney and Chad Welch.

A total of 22 4-H youth from Muleshoe will also be entered in the show. They are:

Cynthia Bennett, Melissa Bennett, Jacen Claunch, Melanie McCall, Beckey Mowery and Joshua Tooley, all of the Three Way School District.

Representing 817 Texas 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show is expected to exceed 12,000 entries this year. A variety of animals are shown in the junior show division: market steers, market swine, market sheep, market poultry, beef and dairy heifers, breeding sheep, goats, commercial steers and breeding rabbits.

The four market animal categories represent animals raised by the exhibitor as food sources. Top animals in each of these categories are eligible for their individual market auctions. Total money paid in 1988 at the four junior show auctions exceeded $4 million.

"The highlight of the second week of competition is the junior show. These young 4-H and FFA exhibitors represent the future of this great state and nation. Behind all the hustle and bustle of the week's activities, you will find the greatest young people in the world," noted Steve Woodley, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo assistant manager.

"From the selection of the grand champion steer to the placings on a set of junior breeding beef heifers, the activities of the second week are at a feverish pitch. It all culminates in the junior auction sales," he added.

In addition to the upcoming livestock show competition, a series of lectures, seminars and live animal demonstrations again will be on the calendar for the month of February - the International Stockmen's School. Held February 15-18, 1989, at the Astro Village Hotel and the Astrodome complex, this school focuses on lectures and seminars delivered by agricultural experts from throughout the world.

A new junior market steer class has been designated for the 1989 show - the American Breed and Crossbred Steer class. This class will be made up of pure blood or crossbred Beefmaster, Bralers, Red Brangus, Simbrah, Brahmaine, Brahmousin, Gelbray and any other Brahman-derivative breeds and/or crosses.

Junior breeding beef heifers are no longer confined to junior show competition. They may be entered in both the open and junior shows.

New shows and sales scheduled for the open show division of the 1989 Houston Livestock Show are the Brahmousin Open Cattle Show, the Red Brangus Open Cattle Show, the Select Llama Sale and the Breeding Swine Sale. The Angus Cattle Sale and Appaloosa Horse Sale also will return to the show schedule.

Horse show activities officially kick off the upcoming Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo beginning Thursday, February 16. A special National Cutting Horse Association celebrity cut-

Administrator Gives Update On Hospital

How many of you believe we need a hospital in Muleshoe? That was the opener for John A. Chisholm when he spoke to the Muleshoe Rotary at noon on Tuesday.

He informed the Rotarians that Muleshoe has "an awful good basis for a sub-regional medical center" citing the more-than-adequate facilities here to be designated as a sub-regional center, and to be recognized and utilized as such.

In the meantime, Chisholm told Rotary they were looking at different ways to increase the income and cash flow for the hospital.

He said he was in the process of creating new hospital files, as files for the hospital are nearly non-existent and says he is getting very good support from the personnel at the hospital.

Then he threw in a real shocker. The new hospital administrator told the group West Plains Medical Center has over $400,000 on the books to be collected.

He says he is in the office of drawing up a new business office program, which will be fair about accounts, but people will know exactly where they stand.

He also said he is working toward getting the hospital re-certified for Medicare. However, a lot of major things need to be done, as the Medicare inspectors will remember what 'looks good.' He is working closely with

Methodist Hospital of Lubbock, and "anything and everything pertaining to Medicare will be studied."

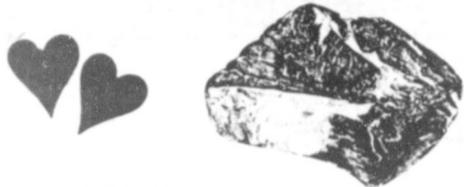

If the hospital can again become certified for Medicare, it

Gunstream, Outlaw United In Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wayne Outlaw (nee Miss Tonda Gunstream)

Miss Tonda Jeanine Gunstream became the bride of Stephen Wayne Outlaw on Friday, December 23, 1988, in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Muleshoe. The Rev. David Hamblin of Abilene read the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Tommy and Jeanine Gunstream of Muleshoe, Don Outlaw of Lake Elslnor, CA and Ann Outlaw of Midland.

Jeremy Bruns, pianist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Joan Lewis as she sang "The Wedding Song" as the candles were lit, and "The Wedding Prayer" as the bride and groom performed the unity candle ritual.

Two brass spiral candelabras formed an archway in the chapel. They were decorated with red poinsettias, Christmas greenery and red velvet bows and streamers. The unity candle was atop a brass stand and the pews were marked with brass candelabras, all decorated with the red poinsettias, greenery and red velvet bows and ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length St. Martin gown of white satin, featuring a sweetheart neckline with various lace and pearls. The cut out back featured five strands of pearls draped across. The floor length veil consisted of a head band designed to match the dress.

She carried a spiral cascading bouquet featuring red poinsettias, greenery and baby's breath, entwined with red velvet ribbon. For something new she chose her wedding ensemble, something blue was the traditional garter, something borrowed was the pearl earrings from her aunt, and something old was a white beaded purse given to her by her great-grandmother.

Joanie Holt of Lubbock served as matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of emerald green satin, featuring puffed sleeves and bustled back. She carried a bouquet of red poinsettias and greenery accented with red velvet streamers.

Brittany Puckett of Canyon served as flowergirl. She was attired in a floor length gown matching the matron of honor. She carried a basket filled with potpourri.

Mica and Cade Stevens of Kingsland, cousins of the bride, served as ringbearers. They were attired in black suits and carried the rings atop heart shaped satin and lace pillows.

Tommy Outlaw of Midland served as his brother's best man. Chaun Gunstream, brother of the bride, and Pete Hernandez of Abilene served as ushers.

The groom was attired in a white tuxedo with white tie and cummerbund and the best man and ushers were all attired in black tuxedos with emerald green accents.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table featured a three-tiered wedding cake, nuts and punch were served with all brass appointments. The cake and table featured fresh red poinsettias and Christmas greenery. Melissa Puckett of Canyon and Sherri Bessire of Mesa, AR served.

Pep Ex-Students Holds Twenty-Ninth Reunion

Pep's 29th annual Ex-Students homecoming was held on January 28 in the Pep Parish Hall. "The Journey Home Starts With One Step" was the theme.

Father George Thekkedam, pastor of St. Philip Ncri Church, led the opening prayer.

The hall was decorated in blue streamers, blue balloons and each graduate being honored had a white foot print with their name printed in blue attached to the wall in class groups.

Ninety-six registered for the banquet dinner, which consisted of barbecue beef and sausage and all the trimmings.

Master of ceremonies, Anthony Albus of Pep asked the class of 1988, to give the welcome, this was given by Corey Dueterhaus. Response was given by Linda (Franklin) Sehon of Levelland, class of 1971.

Albus introduced the speaker, Curtis Chatham of Odessa, where he is teaching. He taught at Pep High School in 1960-61, coached the high school boys and taught American History and Social Studies. His talk was on the time he spent at Pep, and this being his first school to teach.

Business meeting was conducted by Gary Franklin, president, of Levelland. Minutes were read by Lydia Green, secretary of Pep, she also gave a treasurer's report.

The $300.00 Scholarships were awarded to Amy Dueterhaus, daughter of Ernest and Vinney Dueterhaus of Pep, and Tim Prado, son of Joe and Onesima Prado of Levelland.

Amy Dueterhaus was crowned Homecoming Queen by Allen Edwards, who also presented her a bouquet of red roses.

Recognizations were made by Robert Smotherman of Whiteface schools, former teachers, School Board members, and employees. Also all former Pep School Board members present. The student coming the furthest distance, Alvin Wilson of San Antonio; eldest graduate, Ida Sinnacher of the class of 1932; and Maynard Miller of Levelland, class of 1942.

Classes of 1942, 1952, 1962, and 1982, held reunions and reported a good time.

Elections of officers was held, Gary Franklin agreed to be the president for another year. Nancy Demel, is vice president; and Cynthia Green is secretary/treasurer. A motion was made that the president appoint a committee to decide on Homecoming Queen for 1990.

The president presented gifts to the master of ceremonies and the speaker. He thanked all the committees for a job well done.

Gaulbert Deme invited everyone to stay for the dance.

The Alma Mater was sang by everyone present and Gary Franklin led the benediction.

The next homecoming will be the last Saturday in January 1990. "If you have a friend or relative that attended Pep School, or a former teacher, please let them know so that we can make our homecoming bigger and better" said Ida Sinnacher.

WANT ADS ARE A SOURCE OF PROFIT TO PEOPLE WHO READ AND USE THEM

There is no advertising that pays greater on the amount invested than want ads. A little want ad has been known to bring big returns, with but little pocket change invested. The want ads is often the means of finding a buyer or a seller of some article, perhaps of little or it may be of great importance, just at a time when the sale or purchase meant a great deal to one or both parties effected. Remember you can insert a 3-line want ad in the Journal for the small sum of 25 cents. A great many times no more than three lines are required for advertising some article that you wish to sell or buy, and there is seldom ever a want ad that doesn't get results. It pays to use and to read the want ads. Try it!

JUDGE WILTERDING

REALIZES $1,818 FROM 12 COWS

Anyone who thinks good milk cows or the South Plains area don't pay should talk with Judge W.E. Wilterding who during the past year kept careful records of 12 milk cows, and during those 12 months they returned to him a total of $778.34 in cream sold besides all the cream, milk and butter used by two families composed of eight people.

In addition the Judge says he fed 5,500 gallons of skim milk to pigs and calves which, placed at the common market value of three cents per gallon, was easily worth $165.15.

From these 12 cows he sold five bull calves at an age of three months for $55.00 each, keeping six heifer calves, some of which he refused $100 each. One calf died.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

CAN LOWER THE PROPERTY TAXES ON YOUR HOME

A homestead Exemption

lowers the property taxes on your home by lowering its taxable value. For example, if your home is valued at $50,000 and you receive a $5,000 homestead exemption, your home will be taxed as if it were worth only $45,000.

You qualify for a homestead exemption if you owned your home on January 1 and used it as your primary residence on January 1. It doesn't matter whether your home is a house, a condominium or a mobile home.

Exemptions are available to all homeowners on their school taxes. Additional exemptions are available to homeowners who are disabled or age 65 or over. Other exemptions may be offered to homeowners by school districts, counties, cities, and special districts. All taxing units offer exemptions to disabled veterans.

Apply to your local appraisal district office at the address shown

Bailey County Appraisal District

104 E. Ave C

below for all exemptions you may qualify for. Application forms are available at this

If you received a homestead exemption on your present home in 1988, you won't need to apply again for 1989 unless the chief appraiser requires you to reapply.

However, if you passed your 65th birthday or became disabled before January 1, file a new application to receive the additional exemptions.

If you haven't received an exemption on your present home, or if you've moved to a new home, make a new application for 1989.

The deadline for applications is April 30, 1989. Contact your appraisal district before then if you need more time.

For more information, get a free copy of the pamphlet, Taxpayers' Rights, Remedies, Responsibilities, at your appraisal district office or from the State Property Tax Board in Austin.

Vehicles in and around this area also felt the full fury of the wintry blast, as batteries failed and many vehicles refused to start during the cold weather.

A common sight around town was a raised hood, and battery cables stretched from one vehicle to another.

By Tuesday afternoon, for the first time in nearly a week, the high temperature went slightly above freezing, at 33 degrees.

However, National Weather Service personnel said another cold front was slipping into the area from the north, promising clouds and light snow late in the day on Wednesday. Little accumulation was expected from the latest arctic blast from the north.

Northerly winds were expected to move into the area by late Wednesday morning, adding to the woes of the recent cold.

Windstrips Will

Meet Guidelines Of Government

By: Warren Givens
Soil Conservationist

Windstrips applied according to Soil Conservation Service guidelines will meet the Conservation Compliance provision of the Food Security Act of 1985.

Annual or perennial windstrips can be rotated across the field with other crops and also help save topsoil, moisture and protect seedlings from blowing sand.

Sandfighting is reduced 50-75 percent where grass windstrips are established. Windstrips take an average of 2-6 percent of the acreage out of a field.

The soil type determines the distance between the windstrips and 160 inches is the minimum width.

Weeping lovegrass may be an overwintering spot for boll weevil during mild winters. However, the majority of winters are no problem, windstrips can be chemically treated or shredding is an alternative to get rid of the pest.

Producers must be implementing an SCS certified conservation plan by January 1, 1990 on all cultivated highly erodible land. The conservation plan must be in full operation by January 1, 1995.

Windstrips may be an alternative producers should consider for Conservation Compliance and to remain eligible for USDA programs.

Gold and silver matched necklaces and earrings are necessary to some wardrobes, but one will find these are bigger and bolder than the small chains of the past seasons.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Some of Gov. Bill Clements' Republican appointees

are facing tough times from Democratic senators angry at his exclusion of minorities and women.

But this controversy is lukewarm compared to what some lawmakers want to do to his secretary of state, Jack Rains.

Incensed at what they considered Rains' partisan meddling in November elections in South Texas, three Hispanic lawmakers want his office to no longer oversee elections in Texas.

Alex Moreno, D-Edinburg, Juan Hinojosa, D-McAllen, and Renato Cuellar, D-Westlaco, want to create a three-member elections panel to oversee state elections, saying Rains has taken partisanship to new heights.

Rains, you may remember, ordered election inspectors to take a close look at South Texas boxes, orders he withdrew after Valley officials sued and charged racism.

Campaign Reform Proposed

If Rains backed away then, he's in more deeply than ever now, chairing a campaign reform panel as the governor's man.

The panel seeks to limit the size of campaign contributions for all offices, not just the Supreme Court races which brought the issue to a head amidst allegations of justice for sale.

Rains said the present system is a "daisy chain" which allows plays of shifting and hiding money and compared it to Columbian drug money tactics.

Contributions made by political action committees give no clues as to the original contributor.

Rains seeks reforms limiting individuals to no more than $5,000 per candidate and no more than $25,000 per election. The PACs could give no more than $10,000 to any candidate.

Tax Tips To Help!

WHAT IS THE ADDITIONAL STANDARD DEDUCTION FOR AGE?

If your 65th birthday was on or before January 1, 1989, you can take an ADDITIONAL STANDARD DEDUCTION for age.

• If your filing status is "Single" or "Head of Household," the dollar value of this deduction is $750.

• If your filing status is "Married Filing Jointly," "Married Filing Separately" or "Qualifying Widow(er)," the dollar value of this deduction is $600 for each eligible taxpayer.

These additional amounts are added to your regular standard deduction to obtain the total standard deduction you can claim.

Do you have questions about how the tax laws affect your return? Call your local H&R Block office.

Problems

People who are trying to live within their means may be lousing up the poverty program.

—Record, Columbia, S.C.

Senators Rake Loeffler

Rains said only a couple of weeks ago that he would probably run for governor, and a potential Republican opponent, former Congressman Tom Loeffler, isn't being treated any nicer by Democratic senators.

Loeffler was raked over the coals by state senators Carlos Truan, Hector Uribe and Kenneth Armbrister in the confirmation hearing on his appointment as UT regent.

State Sen. Craig Washington, D-Houston, threatened to block Loeffler and two other regent nominees, all white male Republicans, and said he had 15 votes to back up his threat.

He and others want Clements to loosen up and make more minority appointments.

Only time will tell whether these three hostages die politically during negotiations with Clements.

Chain Saws Injure Thousands Each Year

Think safety when handling chain saws, since injuries caused by them send about 23,000 people to hospitals annually. A safety expert with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service said a chain saw potentially is one of the most dangerous power tools on the market today. Thomas D. Valco, an agricultural safety engineer, said people who use lightweight chain saws for trimming trees, cutting firewood or clearing brush from land should be aware of hazards associated with their use.

"Two of every three chain saw injuries to operators and bystanders are caused by inadvertent direct contact with the blade of the saw resulting from failure to follow recommended operating procedures," Valco said.

He said chain saw accidents occur in many different ways. For instance, the operator may reach across or hold work too near the moving saw or may lose control of the saw through loss of footing, sudden turns, climbing above ground level, or shifting the saw's weight while cutting at or above waist level," he said.

The safety specialist said another problem is chain saw "kickbacks," which can occur when something touches the top of the saw blade, causing the saw to jump or kick at the operator.

"Kickbacks also occur when the chain is misfiled or loose, when a cut is started too slowly, or when the blade nose strikes another object," he said. Research shows kickback is responsible for about one-third of all serious chain saw injuries each year.

"For safety's sake, one should hold the saw securely with both hands and close to the body to provide maximum control. As a minimum precaution, study and understand the owner's manual before making the first cut," he said.

Valco said protective equipment is important to safe operation of a chain saw.

"Protect the eyes, head, ears, feet and hands from injury by use of protective eyewear, a bump cap, heavy shoes and light non-slip gloves. Ear protectors also are a good investment for prolonged use of a chain saw," Valco said.

International Stockman School Set February 15-18

Stockmen in Bailey County are reminded that the 1989 International Stockmen's School is coming up soon.

The school is 15-18 at the Astro Village Hotel and is aimed at helping stockmen with problems they face in making a profit, said Spencer Tanksley county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

This year's school will feature in-depth concurrent sessions in beef cattle, dairy, horses, range, pasture and wildlife management, futures and options marketing. Also, there is a special section for international guests. The school is designed to address the needs and meet the challenges of those who will make their living in the livestock business in the years ahead, said Tanksley. It is a joint effort of the Extension Service, the Hoston Livestock Show and Rodeo, and the Agriservices Foundation of Clovis, California.

The beef cattle program will focus on how a cattle producer can balance fertility, growth, milk, muscle and frame in his production environment. Particular emphasis will be on the importance of size in assuring genetic progress.

A special session dealing with improving beef production on marginal lands will be presented in Spanish.

The dairy section will explore the best management practices for super herds with cows that produce more than 20,000 pounds of milk annually.

There will be a special session on biotechnology for both beef and dairy producers, Tanksley said.

The main focus of the horse program will be on new developments in the horse racing industry.

Speakers from several brokerage houses and the Chicago Mercantile Exchange will be on hand for the session on livestock futures and options.

In the sessions on total ranch management, ranchers will deal with setting goals, evaluating enterprises and understanding overall ranch management principles to help them keep their operations profitable.

Information on registration, including the cost of the overall school as well as the separate sessions, is available from Dr. L.S. Pope, Director, International Stockmen's School, 129 Kleberg Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843; telephone 409-845-380.

USDA Referendum Set On Watermelons

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has set Feb. 6-21 for watermelon growers and handlers to vote on a proposed research, advertising, and sales promotion program to improve the position of watermelons in the marketplace.

J. Patrick Boyle, administrator of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, said the program would operate at no cost to the federal government. It would be financed by an assessment of up to 2 cents per hundredweight on watermelons, paid by farmers who grow five or more acres of watermelons and by first handlers—the dealers who buy directly from farmers. Those growers and handlers are eligible to vote in the referendum, Boyle said.

A grower of five or more acres of watermelons who also handles watermelons would pay assessments for each function. Producers and handlers assessed under the program could request and receive refunds.

A 29-member board representing watermelon producers, handlers, and the general public would administer the program. Twenty-eight members of the board would be appointed by the secretary of agriculture from nominations originating in the industry; one would be a public member appointed from outside the industry. Industry representatives would be divided evenly between handlers and growers. As in similar research and promotion programs, the board would develop plans with approval by the secretary of agriculture, and would oversee a small administrative staff managing the program's daily work.

Projects developed under the program would favor no particular production region or variety of watermelon grown in the contiguous 48 states.

To pass, the referendum must be approved by either two-thirds of those voting or majority of producers and a majority of handlers accounting for at least two-thirds of the volume of watermelons represented in the referendum.

The National Watermelon Association originally proposed the plan, in accordance with the 1985

Watermelon Research and Promotion Act.

Notice of the referendum will be published in the Dec. 20 Federal Register. Ballots, copies of the proposed program, and summaries of its major provisions may be obtained from county extension agents where watermelons are grown. Copies also are available from Richard H. Matthews, Marketing Order Administration Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, AMS, USDA, Rm. 2525-S, P.O. Box 96456, Washington, D.C. 20090-6456; telephone (202) 475-3916.

KNOW THE WEATHER

What is the troposphere? Is it in the atmosphere? The troposphere is the comparatively thin layer of gases which surround the earth—the first outer layer—in which all our weather occurs. It is the part of the atmosphere nearest the earth. In thickness, it's about 40,000 feet up. But half of the earth's life sustaining air is found within 18,000 feet of the earth. The next outer layer of air, on top of the troposphere, is the stratosphere, and that layer is several times (height) greater than the troposphere. Above the stratosphere is the spacious, almost endless ionosphere, in which we see meteors which have fallen from outer space and are encountering their first thin atmosphere, thereby getting red hot. But for all practical purposes, weather is determined by movement, temperature and moisture in the gases in the initial 40,000 feet up into space, in the troposphere.
