Bulldog 1950 Grid Practice Starts Off in Earnest Today

Artesia Senior High gridgers were mobilized for the 1950 war as practice started in earnest today following issuance of uniforms on Wednesday afternoon.

The Bulldogs will play a dozen games this season, including St. Mary's of Albuquerque, Thomas Jefferson of El Paso and the traditional rival, Roswell.

There are five coaches, headed by Jack Tinson. The staff includes Ray Hall and Leonard Witche, from junior high, who will work with the varsity until opening of school. Others are Reese Smith and Cal Hall, the latter a brother of Ray.

The 1950 schedule:

- Sept. 8—Jal at Jal.
- Sept. 15—Tucumcari in Artesia.
- Sept. 22—Roswell in Artesia.
- Sept. 29—Lovington at Lovington.
- Oct. 6—New Mexico Military in Roswell.
- Oct. 13—Alamogordo in Artesia.
- Oct. 20—Las Cruces at Las Cruces.
- Oct. 26—St. Mary's (Albuquerque) in Artesia.

Nov. 3—Thomas Jefferson (El Paso) in Artesia.

Nov. 9—Eunice in Artesia.

Nov. 17—Carlsbad at Carlsbad.

Nov. 23—Hobbs in Hobbs.

Three-Season Record

Artesia Senior High football team accumulated 544 points against their opponents 418 in 32 games over three seasons, 1947, 1948 and 1949.

In 1948 the Bulldogs won only one game but came back strong next season to win seven out of 11 played.

Biggest win of the local eleven in the three-year period was the 72-0 walloping of Monument in 1948; biggest loss, 39-0, to Roswell, the preceding season.

Roswell and Tucumcari have been the Bulldogs' strongest opposition, each winning over the Artesia team each season of the three-year period.

Artesia has a 2-1 count over Jal and Lovington, but only one win and two losses, reversing the picture, against Hobbs, New Mexico Military Institute and Carlsbad.

Artesia Schools To Open Sept. 5

Kingdom of the three "R's" and of "VE" and "DO" will hoist its banners, greeting a new scholastic year as Artesia public schools begin the 1950-51 session on Sept. 5.

There will be preliminary steps, but Sept. 5 marks the day the future governors, presidents and masters of finance get down to the business of reading, writing, arithmetic, visual education and diversified occupations, in regular classes.

Artesia's pupils come from a 383-square mile area, the district ranges from five to 12½ miles in width by 42 miles long.

Within the district live 11,800 persons, grouped as 8115 within the city limits; 1885 immediately adjacent to the city limits; 1000 east of the Pecos in the Loco Hills-Oil field area and 800 west of the Pecos.

But that's everybody. Getting down to the "ruling class," the boys and girls for whom this empire exists, there were 2992 enrolled last year of whom 961 were in high school, grades 7-12. The top bracket school had an average daily attendance of 785.46 and for the whole system the A.D.A. was 2197.38.

The system will have 102 employees this session.

Administration

Heading the setup is the board of education consisting of five persons:

Artie McAnally, president; J. L. Briscoe, vice president; Mrs. Landis B. Feather, clerk; Fred Jacobs and Lloyd Simon, members.

The staff of administrators is headed by Tom J. Mayfield, superintendent; A. R. Wood, business manager; Vernon Mills, elementary schools supervisor; T. Stovall, senior high principal and Don Riddle, junior high principal.

Superintendent Mayfield began his fourth year in that office on July 15 this year. High School Principal Stovall is starting his third year.

Junior High Unfinished

It had been expected that the new junior high school building, located at 11th and Bullock, would be completed and ready to go on Sept. 1, but it now appears the school, newest in the system, will not be ready for pupils until sometime in October.

This will make a switch in the enrollment procedure of pupils who were to go to the building at the start of this session. Since enrollment is an involved process this matter is dealt with in a separate story on that topic alone in this issue.

Superintendent Mayfield summed up work going on now at the junior high school as plastering, cabinet making, painting, placing deck on the gym where steel has been set.

He added that floor covering for the entire building had been received.

Don Riddle is principal of Artesia's newest school.

There are six school in the system. By name, address principal and grades taught:

Senior High, kinsipin of the system, occupies a whopping big area, with its main building, administration offices, athletic field, library, gymnasium, vocational agriculture building and cafeteria, but has a lone address, 1006 West Richardson.

Principal is T. Stovall; grades, 9-12.

Junior High, 11th and Bullock, is not yet finished as has been explained. When it opens, it will serve four sixth grade classes and the seventh and eighth grades.

This plan will be for 1950-51 and 1951-52. For 1952-53 and thence on, it is planned to have the routine junior high grades, seventh, eighth and ninth, in the junior high building.

The 1952-53 objective can't be realized overnight because of present lack of building space.

Park school is at 1207 West Richardson, within hailing distance of its big brother, the senior high. Walter Short is principal. Grades are 1-6.

Listed in the telephone directory as "Artesia Grade" but generally known as Central is the building at 404 South Fifth, with C. A. Stalcup as principal, grades 1-5.

Regulations on Enrollment of Pupils Announced

Here are regulations on enrollment of pupils in Artesia municipal schools, applicable generally to pupils enrolling in any of the system's schools for the first time or to students making changes in schedule at Artesia Senior High School.

While Sept. 1 marks the beginning of the 1950-51 session, classes do not start until Sept. 5. However, pupils are advised to take note of the following:

1. Beginning Monday, Aug. 21, offices in all schools, except Oilfield and Carver, will be open for enrollment of new students.
2. Pupils of ninth, tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grades, registering for the first time, or those previously registered who wish to make changes in their schedule, should report to the high school principal's office between this date and Monday, Aug. 28.
3. Junior high—since the building will not be completed by Sept. 1, seventh and eighth grade pupils will report at the high school Sept. 5.
4. Pupils that attended the fifth grade at Central school last year and who were assigned to the sixth grade in junior high will report Sept. 5 back at Central.
5. Sixth grade pupils assigned to junior high from Park will similarly report Sept. 5 at Park.
6. Oilfield and Carver schools—new pupils will enroll Friday, Sept. 1.
7. Pupils traveling by school bus to school, and who are not previously enrolled, will report Friday, Sept. 1, for enrollment. Grades 1 to 3 will report at Central; 4-6 at Park.
8. Routes of the seven buses are the same as last year and will continue the same routes unless school administrators find adjustments necessary, Sept. 1 is the first day the buses run.
9. All elementary school pupils residing within the city limits of Artesia are to enroll in the school, within their respective zones. For Central, the zone is defined as east of Eighth and south of Chisum; Park, west of Eighth; North Side, North Side, north of Chisum and east of Eighth.
10. All pupils who were in Artesia municipal schools at the close of the 1949-50 session, except high school pupils wishing to make changes in their class schedule, need not report until Tuesday, Sept. 5.

POT POURRI

We heard a speaker the other day make a talk, part of which was on the record and part of which was off.

He saw us taking notes and knew they were for publication.

But not once did he direct a remark in our direction or to the listeners in general that such and such a statement was off the record.

We certainly appreciated his tacit admission that we have at least a small amount of intelligence.

It was much more refreshing than some experiences we have had, when a speaker not only has indicated during his talk that a remark is not for publication, but comes around afterwards and thinks he drives the point home by again telling us he was speaking off the record.

Of all people, Old Tack, the Tactless Texan of the Amarillo News, who claims that having lived in Texas more than 25 years, he can be classed as a real Texan, comes up with this startling information:

"What state has the most riding horses and the most riding clubs—Texas? No.

"When it comes to horses, Iowa leads the nation. Iowa has 172 saddle clubs and 202,150 riding horses—more such steeds than any other state."

Here's another from Old Tack:

"A story going the rounds is about someone from Texas who was visiting in Boston. And he was talking about chiggers.

"You mean chiggers not chiggers?" inquired his hostess as she looked at him intently, rather glaringly, with her frown.

We see by The Gallup Independent there is a young Zuni Indian up that way who doesn't mind fighting, but is sick of all the red tape connected with getting into the scrap, such as questionnaires as to marital status, dependents, correct address, and the like.

After receiving one questionnaire too many he wrote:

"Dear Sir:

"If you keep on sending in lots of this questionnaire you are making me to nuts.

"As of now I'm quitting the reserve. I ain't getting nothing from the reserve. So don't send me any kind papers.

"You don't have to force me in to this reserve. I know I have to go and I'm ready."

While we're in the mood for quoting others, here's one from "Blank Notes," house organ of the First National Bank of Amarillo:

"When God made the oyster, He guaranteed his absolute economic and social security. He built the oyster a house, a shell, to protect him from his enemies. When hungry, the oyster simply opens his shell and the food rushes in.

"But when God made the eagle, He said: 'The blue sky is the limit. Go build your own house.' And the eagle went out and built his house on the highest mountain crag, where storms threaten him every day. For food he flies through miles of rain and snow and wind.

"The eagle, not the oyster, is the emblem of America."

In this department a week ago we told the story about a young man, a stranger from another part of the country, coming into the office and asking about Arlee Reno, Artesia boy who was killed over Germany in 1944.

We related that we made our files available and that the young man informed us he and Arlee had been buddies and that they had gone through training together, but were separated in England, where they saw each other from time to time.

He had heard that Arlee was missing but had been unable to verify the fact, or to learn anything about his buddy, whose hometown name he could not recall. Then last week he was making a trip in these parts and was inquiring as he went along.

And here he learned the news which he feared, but which he had never known for sure.

We said in our story that after he had read our files he had grasped our hand, mumbled his thanks and departed.

But we did not name the visitor.

Nor did we know his name, although he had introduced himself when he arrived. But as is so often, we missed, and later when we became interested in him we thought the opportunity would come for us to ask him again and to ascertain where he was from.

However, when he made his dramatic (Continued on Page Eight)

Quarterbacks to Reorganize at Meeting Monday

Getting in step with the beginning of football practice and with the advent of the opening of the 1950-51 session of Artesia Senior High School, the Artesia Quarterback Club will hold its first meeting of the new year at 7 o'clock Monday night, Aug. 21, in the senior high auditorium.

At this session new officers will be elected and the year's work outlined. The club was formed one year ago. Membership is 85. Bill Keys is president and Fred Cole secretary-treasurer.

To Distribute Cards

One part of the initial meeting will be the issuance of "assistant coach" cards. These cards are also for members of the Bulldog Parents Club, entitle the holder to attendance at home football practice sessions.

Other persons may obtain the cards upon application to the high school office or to coaches, Jack Tinson, head coach, has announced.

The high school auditorium, an air conditioned place, was chosen for the first 1950 meeting. This will not be a supper gathering, but it is planned to have sessions of that kind later on in the high school cafeteria.

Last year the club met every Monday night at that place.

Realtor Speaker On Kiwanis Program

Work of the newly-formed Artesia Real Estate Multiple Listing Bureau was the theme of a talk by Wally Wallace of Southwestern Realty at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of Artesia Kiwanis Club at noon Thursday in Masonic Temple.

He brought out the effect of the bureau on real estate development in the city.

Guests at the luncheon were Lee Dowling, Southwestern Stationery, Dallas, and John Dixon, office manager, New Mexico Asphalt and Refining Company.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Eipper Will Be Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Ann Eipper, 85, a resident of Artesia since 1917, who died at 12:45 o'clock Thursday morning in the home here of a granddaughter, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the First Methodist Church. Rev. R. L. Willingham, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Woodbine Cemetery.

Mrs. Eipper was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Durbin and was born July 5, 1865, in Coe Township, Ill. She married Daniel Eipper in that township Sept. 7, 1887.

They came to New Mexico in 1911, to Artesia in 1917.

The couple was the parents of four children, three of whom are living. They are a daughter, Mrs. Grover Kinder, of Artesia, and two sons, Dan of Moline, Ill., and Ollen of Lomita, Calif.

Other survivors are 12 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Rose Andrews, Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Edith Johnson, Cordova, Ill.

Arrangements are by Paulin Funeral Home.

Regulations for New Junior High Are Announced

Don Riddle, principal of Artesia Junior High School, now under construction, today announced the regulations for pupils of the junior high grades to observe because of the new building not being ready for occupancy by Sept. 1.

The junior high school will open this year in the high school building as the new building will not be completed. Seventh and eighth grades will occupy about the same rooms as they used last year.

The sixth grades will remain in the same buildings in which they were located last year. This plan is to be followed until the new junior high is completed.

Principal Riddle will have his office across the hall from the office of T. Stovall in the high school building. His phone number is 141.

Enrollment for the seventh grade at the present time is 215 and for the eighth 194. There will be 17 full-time teachers in the new junior high and four who will work half time in the senior high and half time in the junior high.

Three new teachers will be on the junior high staff. Ray Hall will be the boys' physical education teacher and coach. He is a brother of Cal Hall, who is on the varsity coaching staff.

Hall comes from the state of Washington where he has been teaching Patricia Sauer will be the girls' physical education teacher.

Kids of Today Are No Meaner Than Used to Be

"The kids of today are no meaner or better than they used to be, but they have a means of locomotion and money to spend, which helps get them into trouble, Gene Lusk of Carlsbad, assistant district attorney for Eddy County, declared Tuesday noon, when he spoke at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Artesia Rotary Club.

The assistant district attorney, speaking on delinquency among young people, said the present state statutes make it hard to get action, as they are made to take care of some types of cases, but overlook some others.

In New Mexico, he said actual action in cases involving juveniles is removed from the city and county governments and rests solely with district judges. And only four categories are covered, he said: Truancy from school, disobedience to parents, crimes and being "just plain ornery and mean."

When such cases must go to the district judge, it upsets the judicial system, Assistant District Attorney Lusk said. However, district judges may appoint juvenile referees and District Judge C. Roy Anderson has appointed several in Eddy County, among whom is Justice of the Peace J. D. Josey of Artesia.

These referees examine cases and determine whether a prank has been played, or something bad has been committed, which should be brought to the attention of the district judge. They handle some minor crime cases and traffic offenses.

Referring to recent morals cases in Artesia involving young men and boys, the speaker said parents are as much to blame as boys, that parents having knowledge of suspicions should report them, so they will not develop and get out of hand.

The accessibility of automobiles to boys and girls makes it easy for them to go places in a hurry, or when they have only a limited time, whereas if they had to walk they would be less likely to get into trouble, Lusk said.

Coupled with the automobile is the liquor problem, which is a big one, the assistant district attorney added.

Lusk discussed the case of Johnny, 10-year-old Spanish-American boy here, who has been in trouble and who is to become a citizen of New Mexico Boys Ranch through the co-operation of court officers, law officers, local civic bodies and others.

He said Johnny is a victim of environment and circumstances.

Bill McGinty, the chairman of the club youth committee, who introduced the speaker, said arrangements are coming along nicely in regard to Johnny and that he probably will get to go to Boys Ranch or the Flying BR, by Sept. 1.

County Is Listed In Charts of Finance Booklet

Eddy County is listed eight times in charts contained in "This Is How Public Schools Are Financed in New Mexico." The booklet, revised in July, 1949, was issued by the Taxpayers Association of New Mexico as a "know your government report."

Introduction reviews how financing was done in the past.

Prior to 1934 financing of public education in New Mexico depended almost entirely on property taxes. Experience during the first years of the depression showed the inadequacy and uncertainty of property taxes as a source of revenue.

In 1933 the people ratified a constitutional amendment limiting the property tax to 20 mills and a special session of the legislature provided for the income tax and sales tax to replace the property tax as the basis of school financing.

A large percentage of New Mexico school plants are sub-standard, says the summary of the report and "poor buildings and equipment are probably one of the reasons why the holding power of the state's schools ranks low.

"With 210 of the state's school districts having a tax production of less than $450 a year for direct charges and a total bonding capacity of only $6000 it is easy to see why there are sub-standard school plants."

Local Budget

Artesia is far above the $6000 mark and its schools are not in the sub-standard classification.

A maintenance fund report for the years 1947-48, 1948-49 and 1949-50, budget and expenditures, in order:

1947-48—$333,407, $316,712.51.

1948-49—$379,671, $379,430.72.

1949-50—$455,544, $448,493.68.

Direct charge fund:

1947-48—$43,250, $43,201.93.

1948-49—$36,835, $46,232.32.

1949-50—$55,977, $45,488.18.

Tables List Eddy

Returning to the taxpayers' booklet:

Distribution of state public school equalization fund, fiscal years ending June 30, 1948—Eddy County $600,588, fund total $14,287,285.

Services Held On Monday for T. S. Williamson

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Abilene, Texas, for Thomas S. Williamson, formerly of Artesia, who was killed Aug. 8 near Thermopolis, Wyo. in an explosion at the well on which he was working.

He and his father brought in two well-fruited bulls Wednesday from the same patch on which he won last year. However, it is not a contest patch this year.

Jerry said there are open bulls throughout the five acres and that some had been open several days. His father said that in his large field there probably was a bale or more open, but that the cost of picking the scattered cotton would be too great. However, he predicted the first bale would be brought in by someone within the very near future.

The first bale in the Central Pecos Valley was brought in last year by Moutray Brothers of Seven Rivers, eight days later than the (Continued on page six)

Police Station Has New Rustic Curb Signs

The new Artesia Police Department station—remodeled from the old fire station—was further dressed up this week with the erection of rustic curb signs, which announce not only that the place is "Police Headquarters," but warns the public, "No Parking."

The upright and "L" cross-arm of each sign is constructed from a six-inch pole, which was donated by the Central Valley Electric Co-operative, Inc.

Hanging below the cross-arm of each is the sign proper, with the letters in Scotchlite, so they can be read at night.

The signs were designed and built for the department by Patrolman Jack Enos.

Apparent Endorsement of Housing Project By Chamber Threshed Out

Building contractors, realtors, building material suppliers and others met with officials of the Chamber of Commerce in the Artesia Hotel Wednesday night to "protest" an apparent endorsement of a new housing project by the chamber.

President Bill Siegenthaler, Vice President Clyde Guy, and Directors Bob Bourland and C. T. Gaskins were the only chamber officials in attendance.

Use of Office

For want of a quorum of directors, several business matters were deferred and a discussion was held on the use of the chamber office by Hiram Zee & Zee Realty & Insurance Company, Phoenix, Ariz.

A letter from the Artesia Board of Realtors served as a starting point for discussion, protesting use of the chamber office as "promotional headquarters for a housing program or any other type of business."

The letter pointed out that local realtors were supporting members of the chamber.

Much individual comment followed regarding "outsiders coming in and raking off the cream" and past chamber activities "directly affecting the pocketbooks of local builders and suppliers."

Zee then took the floor and explained his plans, which included a project of 25 houses ranging from $7700 to $15,000.

He stated that they would comply fully with F.I.A. requirements and that he felt certain his building materials would be purchased locally.

Nelson on Parade Committee for NM State Fair

Harry Nelson, president of the Artesia Junior Chamber of Commerce, has been appointed to a statewide committee to head up plans for the great opening day parade of the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque on Saturday, Sept. 23, it was announced by Pat Hill, fair publicity director.

Headed by Paul Smyer, president of the Albuquerque Jaycees, the committee includes in addition to Nelson, Bill Williams of Albuquerque; Max Edwards of Hobbs; Roy Beach of Roswell; William Klein, Jr., of Albuquerque; Howard Klein of Las Cruces and Cliff Ryan of Carlsbad.

"We've never had so much enthusiasm over the State Fair," Hill said, "and this year's parade promises to go down in history as the biggest and best ever staged."

The merchants of Albuquerque and surrounding towns will undertake a campaign to turn the residents of the area out in Western dress. All merchants in Albuquerque, through the Chamber of Commerce and the Albuquerque Retailers Association, have initiated a campaign to see that all their employees dress Western for the fair, and will hold a "Days of '49" promotion prior to and during the nine days of the state exposition.

Artesia individuals or organizations interested in participating are asked to contact Nelson.

Cotton Champ of 1949 Brings in Open Cotton

Jerry Simmons, young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Simmons, who was the Eddy County winner last year for cotton raised on five acres, may not have the first open cotton in the community, but he was the first to bring in samples to The Advocate office.

He and his father brought in two well-fruited bulls Wednesday from the same patch on which he won last year. However, it is not a contest patch this year.

Jerry said there are open bulls throughout the five acres and that some had been open several days. His father said that in his large field there probably was a bale or more open, but that the cost of picking the scattered cotton would be too great. Rainfall Wednesday Night of .64 Inch Comes in Downpour

A downpour here Wednesday night measured .64 inch on the gauge of the Southern Union Gas Company.

The rain, which started about 9:30 o'clock and lasted until after midnight, soon had many of the streets flooded, as the fall was heavier at the first part of the period.

It was the first rain of consequence since the last week in July, when 42 inch fell on two days.

The total through July for the year was 6.14 inches. With the additional .64 inch which fell Wednesday night, the total for the year on Thursday afternoon was 6.78 inches.

Guardsmen Called Up Protected for Re-Employment

Members of National Guard units which are called into federal service are automatically brought under coverage of the veterans' re-employment rights law, according to an announcement from Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin, which has been received by the New Mexico State Employment Service office in Artesia.

It was pointed out there have been many inquiries on this since the calling of four National Guard divisions and two regimental combat teams into federal service.

Secretary Tobin said that under the provisions of the Selective Service Act, members of such units who leave other than temporary positions in private industry or with the federal government, will be eligible for reinstatement in their old jobs upon release from the service if they comply with the provisions of the act.

In addition to the requirements of the act, Secretary Tobin said, guardsmen called into service should advise their employers in writing as to the reason for their leaving.

The major provisions of the re-employment laws, which must be complied with for a veteran to obtain reinstatement, include the following:

Satisfactory completion of military service and receipt of certificate to that effect.

Application for re-employment within 90 days after relief from duty or from hospitalization continuing after discharge for a period of not more than one year.

First enlistment since June 24, 1948, for a period of not longer than three years, or if a reservist, service for a period of not longer than three years or as soon after this period as he is able to obtain orders relieving him from active duty.

If the position left was in the employ of a private employer, the employer's circumstances must not have so changed as to make it impossible or unreasonable to reinstatement of the former serviceman.

The $1 Hair Cut Coming To Artesia

Hair cuts will cost $1 and barber-shop shaves will go up to 75 cents Monday in Artesia, local barbers have announced.

These will be raises from 75 and 50 cents, respectively.

The new prices are in line with those established at Carlsbad last Monday and probably will be reflected over the state, Artesia barbers said.

John Boren, a barber here many years, said Thursday, the hike in the prices for hair cuts and shaves are being made because of the "increased cost of living."

The prices of 75 cents for hair cuts and 50 cents for shaves were established here in 1943.

Senior High Pupils To Buy One Ticket For All Activities

A simplified and compact system of financing school activities, ending a constant dribble of ticket sales, is the school activity ticket plan to be started this session at Artesia Senior High School.

When students register they will purchase a ticket for $5 that will entitle them to admittance to activities including:

Athletic contests, junior play, band and choral concerts, special assembly programs, canteen, subscription to the Beacon, school newspaper, Leash, school literary magazine.

The tickets will be purchased

Artesia Schools Enrollment Gained 14.5 Per Cent in '48

Artesia has five schools with a new $400,000 junior high school to be built in 1949. So reads a Chamber of Commerce bulletin, "Factual Data on Artesia," undated but likely issued back in 1948.

"The opening week of school, 1948," says the report, "showed an increase in enrollment over last year of 14.5 per cent.

"There are 81 teachers, salaries highest in the state, and its system is recognized as one of the finest in New Mexico.

"The total value of all public school buildings in Artesia exceeds $900,000."

After quoting the 1948 population figure as 10,150, the bulletin says "this reflection in the growth of our city (1920 population 1115) can be seen in the following schedule of our schools . . .

1830-31, 936; 1940-41, 1714; 1941-42, 1624; 1942-43, 1643; 1943-44, 1772; 1944-45, 2062; 1945-46, 2273; 1946-47, 2369; 1947-48, 2506.

It's Now Time to Consider Effects Selective Service

It's time for Artesia employers to consider the effects of the Selective Service Act on their business, to set up ways to replace employees who may be called into military or naval service.

That is the admonition contained in a letter from Russell C. Charlton, state director of the selective service system, which had headquarters in Bruns Hospital Area, Santa Fe.

Director Charlton is careful in his letter, dated July 28, sent to Bob Koonce, manager of Artesia Chamber of Commerce, to eliminate any note of alarm, but the warning is still present.

"I believe that reasonable persons," writes the director, "will agree that the time has arrived when preliminary plans should be considered in order that the users or employers of civilian manpower may fortify themselves against the shock by planning the replacement of persons employed by them who are or will be inducted into the armed services."

"Since your members are the chief employers of manpower in your community, I request that this matter be brought to their attention together with the information that the state director and his staff are available at all times to confer and explain the provisions of the current selective service law and the plans proposed for its expansion should the present world trends develop into a more serious emergency."

Telephone number of the state director of selective service is 2147.

HAROLD TAYLOR

A Lordsburg, N. M. player that is due to "go places" this year on the Hardin-Simmons University football team at Abilene, Texas, is Harold Taylor, 5 feet 10 inches, 170 pound left halfback. "He is a powerful runner and needs only to obtain more polish in the broken field department," says George Hine, Jr., sports publicity director at the Texas school. Taylor is a former New Mexico all-states, clean cut 19 year old player who led the Cowboys ground attack for a net of 672 yards in 143 tries last year, and counted six touchdowns. He runs dashes on the track team. Can circle ends or go through the middle. A junior at Hardin-Simmons.

Tommy Welch Is Learning Nature With Geology

Tommy Welch of Artesia is one of 20 junior and senior geology students at Sul Ross State College, Alpine, Texas, taking a summer field course from a camp located at Old Fort Pena Colorado near Marathon, Texas. A release from the college says they not only are learning much practical field geology and having the time of their lives, but are picking up considerable natural history from first-hand observation.

Deer and antelope are so numerous that even those students who at first watched them until they were out of sight pay little attention to them now. The first day in the field one party saw two panther kittens feeding on a deer which had been killed by the mama panther. All parties have killed one or more rattlesnakes. Skunks are all too frequent visitors around the camp at night. One party found an elephant—at least part of one in the form of a fossilized tusk.

This six-week course in the field is designed to let the students learn by doing. It presents an opportunity for them to use much of the theory that has been "dished out" for three years, and demonstrates effectively how the various phases of geology fit together to make up the science of geology.

Cook's Cues

Plump, sweet, juice-filled SUNKIST Oranges are abundant in Food Mart's Garden Basket around the calendar. This time of year they're especially flavorful and economical. An 8-ounce glass of their delightful, wonderfully healthy nectar should be an important breakfast rule in your household.

Sunkist oranges, unpeeled in thin slices, make ideal garnishes for pork, veal, lamb and poultry. Try the orange slices spread with cranberry sauce, currant jelly, mint jelly, paprika and salt, chili powder, minced parsley or mint. Ummm H'mmmmm!

Juice isn't the ONLY talent of the versatile orange. It lends itself to an endless variety of appetizing, refreshing appetizers and salads. Here are a few recipes direct from Sunkist's kitchens to prove it:

The Sunkist Ginger Flip is a real pepper-upper for summer. Just combine 2 cups Sunkist orange juice; 1/2 cup Sunkist lemon juice; 1/4 cup sugar and 1 pint ginger ale. Stir well, adding ginger ale last. Serve over cracked ice in frosted glasses. Serves 6.

Remember - "Sunkist" trademarked on the skin is always your guide to top quality. Sunkist oranges are fully tree-ripened, thoroughly washed, individually inspected.

This was the largest attendance in the history of the state.

The university gymnasium was transformed into a "Garden of Friendship" for the informal opening. The throng which attended the colorful public ceremony filled all available seats and there were many visitors standing.

The flag ceremony was presented by the Melrose Assembly.

Mrs. Becker then presented the grand officers, who were escorted to their stations. All wore formal evening gowns of rainbow hues and their stations were under arbors entwined with roses. A white picket fence with baskets of flowers enclosed the area. The worthy advisor of the Portales Assembly, Miss LaVon McCormack, formally welcomed the Grand Assembly and Miss Hensley responded.

matic exit we were speechless. But at the moment we had not thought of writing about the visit. That idea was born later.

Now we see where we erred as a newspaper man, for someone sent a clipping of the story to Arlee's mother, Mrs. C. A. Reno, at De Leon, Texas.

The former Artesia woman called us by telephone immediately upon receipt of the clipping, hoping we could identify the visitor. Then she wrote us, in hopes that we could find someone else here who talked to Arlee's former buddy while he was in Artesia.

So this is an appeal to any such person to notify us immediately if he knows the boy's identity.

In her letter Mrs. Reno wondered if it might have been Arlee, whom she has always believed to be alive and would someday come home. But we knew Arlee well; it was not he.

Because we permitted emotion to get us for a moment and to forget we are first of all a newspaper editor, we feel we have let our old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Reno, down.

So by all means, we must have that boy's name and address, if they can be found.

This is about another GI, also unnamed, but by request.

He is 20 years old, just back from Germany, where he was stationed three years, and is now stationed at Walker Air Force Base, Roswell.

His mother lives in Artesia, and he came down Saturday to visit her and see the rodeo, the first he has ever seen. In fact, this is his first time in the Southwest.

The GI was not only greatly pleased with the rodeo, every minute of which he enjoyed, but he told his mother he liked the way the three veterans' organizations making up the United Veterans Club—the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Disabled American Veterans—have cooperated in their rodeos and other activities.

And he was impressed by the way the other local organizations stepped in to help the veterans.

The 20-year-old GI summed it all up: "That is the secret of success." So between that co-operation and the friendliness he found here and the future he reads into Artesia, that young Air Force boy is transferring his funds to an Artesia bank. And he and his mother are going to buy a home here!

The contractor added that building costs in general were higher in Artesia than in Phoenix. Siegenthaler encouraged all those in attendance to speak their minds fully, at the same time bearing in mind the fact that the function of a chamber of commerce was to act in the over-all interest of the community. "We might make mistakes," he added, "but we're working at it."

Asks Policy Statement
Directors of the organization were absolved of blame by Bob Koonec, manager, who admitted that he had, without consulting anyone, consented to use of the room by Zee for a period of a few days at the request of Charles E. Currier, which was corroborated by Currier.

Koonec pointed out that a policy was needed to avoid future mistakes, and said that many people who do not support the chamber "come in and use our services, from stenographic work to mimeographing."

The manager then recounted various current projects from which he said building contractors would benefit as much as any other businessmen, if not more in some cases, and asked why local contractors were not chamber members. Of some 20 contractors only B. G. Robinson was a member, Koonec said.

Mayor Oren C. Roberts stressed the need for pulling together in community effort aimed at building a better Artesia. Others, including Billy Albert and Clyde Gilman, defended the new housing project on the grounds of beautification and price.

No definite conclusions were drawn and no action was taken during the meeting. Siegenthaler announced that the matter would be given attention at the next board meeting and a policy laid down.

Among those in attendance besides the chamber representatives were H. W. Kiddy, Clyde Dungan, Lowe Wickersham, Mayor Oren C. Roberts, Don Teed.

Charles E. Currier, Bill McGinty, Don Jensen, T. C. Stromberg, Jack Clem, W. W. Ports, Milt Losee, George L. Spurgeon, Ralph Hayes, J. A. Richards, Homer Campbell, Harold R. Strand, B. G. Robinson, Ray Thompson, Sam Nichols, and C. W. Stroud.

Guardsmen—

If disabled during military service and not physically qualified to perform the duties of the position he left, the former serviceman is to be restored to such other position as he is able to fill.

Members of state units of the National Guard not called to federal service do not have re-employment rights under the federal statutes when they perform active duty in their respective units. Some states, however, do have statutes protecting their rights. Employees of states and municipalities who enter upon active duty in a National Guard unit called to federal service or with other units of the armed forces, have re-employment rights only if such rights are provided by state statutes and local ordinances.

Further information can be obtained by addressing inquiries to Robert K. Salyers, director, bureau of Veterans' Re-Employment Rights, Room 7318 Department of Labor Building, Washington 25, D. C. or to the New Mexico State Employment Service, Ward Building, Artesia.

GENE McDONALD

"Needs varsity experience." That's what they said about the 210-pound Lordsburg tackle when they issued the 1950 press book at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, Texas.

Now, George Hine, Jr., sports publicity director, writes: "I guess you know that Gene McDonald will not be back. I understand that he is going to do his drills on a parade ground rather than on a football field. He is with the national guard."

McDonald, 6 feet 4 1/2 inches tall, was the tallest man on the Cowboy squad. He earned a frosh letter last season. He's rugged and good on defense.

Dexter Hatchery Men Inspect Ponds In Artesia Sector

L. Q. Carman and J. M. Miller of the Dexter fish hatchery were in Artesia Tuesday following a trip inspecting seven fish ponds between Lake Arthur and this city.

They found two of the ponds dried up. The seven ponds were ones were stocked with fish back in 1948. Carman said it was planned to restock some of the ponds.

He also told how the state game and fish department is now killing gar and carp at Lake McMillan and Lake Avalon and of government plans to restock with bass.

There will be 15,000 bass sent from San Angelo, Texas, he said, with 10,000 to be put in the Dexter ponds.

In the first game, played at Mescalero, the Eagles swamped the Indians 18 to 5.

To date the Eagles have played 18 games, winning nine, losing eight, tying one.

Tinson Reports To Lions Club On Coaches' Meet

Jack Tinson, head football coach for Artesia Senior High School, gave a report Wednesday noon at the weekly meeting of the Lions Club on the annual coaches' convention in Albuquerque last week, which he and other Artesia coaches attended.

He also recounted highlights of the North-South all-star football game there Saturday, in which Junior Russell played on the South team. Russell, who graduated from high school here in May, was an outstanding guard on the Bulldog squad and did most of the kicking for the local team last year.

President Floyd Springer announced Herbert C. Petry, Jr., of Carizo Springs, Texas, president of Lions International, will be in Albuquerque Sept. 30 and urged as possible to plan to be there to hear him speak.

Besides Coach Tinson, guests at the meeting Wednesday were L. E. Chaney of Roswell and W. W. Byers and Harry B. Gilmore of Artesia.

Refrigerator Short Causes Some Damage At Caudle Home

An electric refrigerator was badly damaged and there was smoke damage throughout the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Caudle, 610 South Roselawn, from a short in the refrigerator about 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

There was no one home at the time and the fire was discovered by neighbors who saw smoke filtering out.

The alarm was incorrectly reported as being at 610 North Roselawn, which caused several minutes of delay in the arrival of fire apparatus and firemen, but as there was no active blaze there was little additional damage because of the time lost.

Wife Preservers

The best way to cook potatoes is in their skins. If you don't want to do that, put new potatoes first into hot water for a minute or two, then scrape and place in cold water to wash before cooking.

Farm Facts

Calcium is one of the chief minerals in bones and teeth. About 99 per cent of the calcium in the body is used for framework. Small but important, the other one per cent remains in body fluids, such as blood. Without this calcium, muscles can't contract and relax, and nerves can't carry their messages. For calcium to be used properly, other substances are needed in right quantities — vitamin D and phosphorus, for example. The outstanding food for calcium is milk. The body can hardly get enough calcium without using a good deal of milk in some form. Next-best foods for calcium are some of the leafy green vegetables — notably turnip tops, mustard greens and kale.

Red spiders can be controlled in evergreens by a three-quarter to 1-per cent rotenone dust, or by spraying with nicotine sulfate. The latter is the practical spray where there are quite a few trees and shrubs. The nicotine sulfate mixture is made by mixing two tablespoons of 40 per cent nicotine sulfate with one ounce of laundry soap — not soap powder — per gallon of water. By large plantings, a cheaper spray is two gallons of liquid lime sulfur in 98 gallons of water. Wettable sulfur diluted according to directions on the container also may be used as a spray, and where more convenient a dust using dusting grade of sulfur will give fairly good results.

Farming has moved up from fourth to third place as the most dangerous way of making a living. About 55 of every 100,000 workers engaged in agriculture are killed accidentally every year. Only the construction industry, mining and quarrying had higher occupational death rates.

'Good Humor Man' Is Zany Comedy Hit

Columbia Pictures, which examined with hilarious results the strenuous routine of "The Fuller Brush Man," has now followed in the fun-packed footsteps of last season's top comedy hit with a joyous romp called "The Good Humor Man." Starring Jack Carson as a Good Humor ice cream salesman, the new Columbia movie coming to the Landsun Theater Sunday and Monday, is a rib-tickling, blues-chasing affair.

"The Good Humor Man," the only comedy that comes in 10 assorted flavors, all of them delicious, starts its merry-go-round of comically funny situations when Jack is unceremoniously stuffed into the freezing compartments of his truck by a band of gangsters pursuing a luscious blonde. Although his heart is true to pretty Lola Albright, Jack, always anxious to please his customers, agrees to guard the blonde, Jean Wallace, for the night and awakes in the morning to find her a "corpse."

When Jack returns with the cops, the "corpse" has disappeared and with it the ice cream man's good luck, for he is next implicated in a murder and robbery. His only chance to escape nomination—and election—as chief suspect prompts Carson to undertake a riotous search for the blonde in order to sustain his alibi that he was with her during the night of the crime. But the blonde, it turns out, is really in league with the thugs, and Carson, in company with Miss Albright, finds himself reversing the field and running to escape their vengeance. The climactic chase sequence, which is a riotous scene of hilarious slapstick, takes place in a school, and sets back the cause of education a long, long time. Finally, Jack and his girl are rescued from the desperate killers by the young members of the local Captain Marvel club.

Carson, mugging his way through this bedlam of comedy, is priceless at its star, Miss Albright, pretty and panting, in an effort to keep up with the tireless Carson, has top feminine honors; Miss Wallace, as the disappearing blonde, is suavely menacing; George Reeves is the bewildered heavy; Peter Miles is the kid who rallies the Captain Marvel cohorts and Frank Ferguson is a dazed detective.

Chamber Topics

By BOB KOONCE

(Manager Chamber of Commerce) National Chamber has made study of television its anticipated effect on advertising, education and so on. It is slated to change our lives considerably, they say.

Biggest recent development in Artesia is expansion by New Mexico Asphalt & Refining Company. It will mean, among many other things, additional employment for new workers here. It also meant a lot of publicity for Artesia, since AP wired the story all over.

We never pass an opportunity to "plug" NuMex and often go out of our way to do so. Officers of the company are doing more to help build a greater Artesia than most people realize. Also, C. L. Withers is assisting in a statewide effort on the Freight Rate Board which will improve conditions for the entire state. You will share the benefits.

American Legion baseball tourney was good stuff, too. Helped put us on the map. Jack Easley, John Simons, Jr., and probably others, brought it to Artesia.

Tourist courts, restaurants, filling stations, might like to know that Highway 83 Association is still active and will, when in operation, bring new money into town. Your manager is secretary of association and has been too busy to get at it. Should have another meeting Aug. 23.

We get about as much junk mail as the next one. Latest is from Hollywood booking agency wanting us to sponsor lady wrestling tourney. They say, "Imagine the reaction of your members and audience when they see these truly beautiful gals toss each other through the ropes in the most thrilling and exciting matches ever staged." The strong expression we can use in print is too watery for such tripe, but we say it: Baloney.

Another personal contact tour will be made by the manager before long. The aim is to, see as many of you as possible and get your ideas. Also, we have been up to some things which have taken a lot of our time lately. You will be told about them when the tour is made.

Concluding thoughts: We can be as big as we want to be, almost. When a community stops growing—even a little bit will do—it starts going backwards. Natural resources, men and capital build cities. The greatest of these is men. Therefore, the men must be pulling together or everyone loses.

Inside WASHINGTON

MARCH OF EVENTS

B-36s May Soon See Action in Korea War. B-50s, 'Super B-29s,' Sent to Fight Korreds.

WASHINGTON—No top officials will say it, but more and bigger bombers—possibly including the mammoth B-36—are scheduled for Korean action.

B-29s are being thrown into the aerial attack on the North Korean forces as fast as the Allied "Sunday punch" of World War II can be gotten out of mothballs and across the Pacific.

Air Force ordered B-50s to the Orient. The B-50 is a bigger, faster, tougher B-29 and such squadrons had been assigned to United States bases from which they would take off on long-range retaliatory missions.

Now, however, some of these planes—one of which circled the globe non-stop—have been sent to help in the fight against the Korean Reds.

The other bomber in the United States long-range striking force is the 10-engine B-36. There are three squadrons in operation and one forming. Look for some of these giants to go next.

GUIDED MISSILES—There's still a lot of doubt in military circles about whether the American guided missile program measures up to Russian development of these types of weapons.

But one thing is sure. The Germans will be responsible indirectly for most of the progress that either the United States or Soviet Union makes in developing guided missiles.

Most of the American program is based on research on the deadly V-2 rockets Germany fired at London during World War II. The Russians, on the other hand, are believed to hold captive scores of German scientists and are putting them to work on the same type weapons they developed in the last war.

FOOD FOR FIGHTERS—The vets of World War II who objected to the "K" ration will be happy to know that the GI in the Far East are getting a new assault food package that is billed as being highly palatable as well as nourishing.

Meat units in the package, for example, may contain any of six types of meat put up in five and one-half ounce tins. They may be beef and corn, beef and pork loaf, chopped ham and eggs, hamburger, chicken or cheese with bacon.

Along with the can of meat is one B-unit, consisting of an oatmeal cookie and two round crackers, and an "accessory unit."

The "accessory unit," which is packed in a plastic bag, contains a pack of humidity resistant matches, two bars of sweet chocolate or a starch jelly bar, two candy-coated chewing gum tablets, two packets of soluble coffee fortified with vitamin C, two packets of granulated sugar, a folding can opener, 12 water purification tablets, two fuel tablets for heating rations, a disposable plastic spoon and four cigarettes.

REDS AND PEACE—Republican John Foster Dulles, special adviser to the Secretary of State, is one of those foreign policy leaders who believes there is a good legal ground right in the United Nations charter for not seating the Chinese Communist government.

Dulles, who helped draft the charter in San Francisco in 1945, is very mindful of the section which requires UN members to be "peace-loving" countries willing to fulfill their obligations in the world organization.

As Dulles pointed out in a recent San Francisco speech, Communist China can hardly qualify. He told his listeners:

"We are bound to be concerned about seating a Chinese Communist regime which openly preaches violence as an instrument of international policy and which encourages the North Korean regime to act in flagrant defiance of the expressed will of the United Nations."

Mrs. Shortes of Big Spring, Texas, her cousin, Mrs. Lewis Folk, and family of Seminole, Texas, and her niece, Mrs. Franklin, and Mr. Franklin of Midland, Texas.

Wilburn Davis and Charles Wier entered the calf roping event during the V-J rodeo at Artesia. A number of local people were in the parade on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. G. C. Whitefield and son, Douglas, left Monday for Wickett, Texas, to visit Mrs. Whitefield's mother, Mrs. W. B. Bryant.

After a long search for a parking space he found an opening that barely sufficed between two imposing limousines, and after a great deal of jockeying, succeeded in wedging his car therein. When he alighted, however, he found that the rear right wheel was a good two feet up on the sidewalk.

MARINE BIG GUN BARKS AT THE ENEMY IN KOREA

UNDER A CAMOUFLAGE NET in Korea, a veteran U. S. Marine gun crew loads and fires a 155-mm. gun. Opening the long-awaited American offensive against the enemy, Marines and infantrymen attacked on the southern Chindong sector, pushing northward. Your State Government

By Thomas G. Mabry
GOVERNOR

"We are inheritors of the past; the future is yours to keep." — Benjamin Franklin.

Never believed much in the futile job of assessing fault, or the useless one of bragging when things turn out your way. We all know what a terrific fight was made by some of the major oil company lobbies, assisted by many people of good intention, to defeat the extra 2-cent gas tax assessed by the last Legislature.

The object of the extra tax was to start cleaning up our 13-year-old highway debt and get on a pay-as-you-go basis in road building. We got the legislation and we have achieved fine results.

We issued no more bonds and we got on a pay-as-you-go basis, the first time in many years. And, we have already saved an interest on early retirement of bonds (or debentures) not yet matured, $182,500!

Now a war has struck and we face the almost certain prospect of gasoline rationing which may cut our tourist travel by two-thirds, and thus would have crippled our road building program beyond repair but for these accumulated savings secured when we had tourist travel and large gas consumption.

So, I think I may be pardoned if I say again that I have never known a debtor who regretted paying his debts in prosperous times and ahead of maturity, but I have known many who regretted that they could not pay when they had to. We have paid while we are prosperous and have had the out-of-state tourist to carry a large share of the burden. We are fast getting paid a debt contracted many years ago.

Lets take a look at the record:

At the beginning of the last fiscal year, July 1, 1949, there was outstanding $21,805,000 in highway debentures, issued during the past 13 years. During the last fiscal year we retired a total of $2,653,000 of the outstanding debt. Of this amount, $1,150,000 represented debentures which had several years yet to run before reaching maturity. By retiring these bonds ahead of the maturity date, the state has, as I have said, already saved a total of $182,500 in interest.

At the present time, we have in the sinking fund accumulated from the 2-cent tax, a total of $1,000,195.30. Of this amount, $493,340 is pledged to meet outstanding indebtedness. This leaves which are not yet due and payable, and thus save additional interest; or, if not invested, to keep us on the pay as you go basis if gas rationing comes.

Some people felt at the time the law was passed that 1-cent a gallon additional tax would have been sufficient to retire the debentures as they became due. The records of the first year show, however, that this would not have been the case. A 1-cent per gallon tax would have produced a net of only $1,906-

Local Battery Starts Training At Fort Bliss Camp

Under the broiling sun of Fort Bliss, national guardsmen of Artesia and of other parts of New Mexico, along with men from Louisiana are going through rigorous training today.

It's all a part of the annual training camp, which opened Sunday ends August 27.

Artesia, Roswell, Carlsbad, and Hobbs are parts of the anti aircraft artillery battalion taking training at the Texas camp.

Artesia guardsmen left here Sunday morning, ate breakfast in Carlsbad between 6 and 7 o'clock, left Carlsbad at 7, not 1, as was incorrectly stated in a story in the last issue.

Coffee and doughnuts were served the Artesia battery and medical detachment by the United Veterans Club as the men assembled in the Centre Street armory.

Johnson Brothers Start Creamery

Announcement was made today of a new creamery business started by Wallace and Max Johnson, brothers. Their present location from Artesia is one mile north on the Roswell road thence a half mile west on the country club road.

Phone number is 095-NI-6. Employed as deliveryman is Norman Huffman.

They will market Johnson's Grade A pasteurized milk processed in their Artesia plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Johnson and their two children reside at 1113 West Bullock. Max is a World War II air force veteran, in which he served four years, 18 months of which was overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Johnson and their three children reside west of Artesia.
