For the first time in its 11-year existence, the Muleshoe Fire Department was summoned to the Muleshoe Housing Development on East Sixth Street.

Manager Jim Hartline said a fire was discovered in the kitchen of one of the apartments late on Tuesday afternoon.

Hartline had no damage estimates early Wednesday, as he was waiting for insurance representatives to arrive.

He said the apartment sustained considerable burn damage in the kitchen, and the apartments on either side of the burned apartment had smoke damage.

No one was injured in the fire.

MAC Selling Bagged Candy; Many Will Yield Prizes

Did you ever long for the good ole' days, and ole'-fashioned entertainment? Do you ever sit glued to the 'boob tube' and let your mind wander back to old-fashioned melodramas, good pickin' and singin'? Ready for something different, old but new, presented in a brand new style?

Feel like gamblin' a little? Do you ever take a chance?

Want to be able to take real pride in a down-country, old-fashioned evening of entertainment, along with a chance to win some fantastic prizes?

If you're ready -- be sure to be at the Muleshoe High School auditorium either Thursday or Friday night, June 29-30 -- or even plan to be there both evenings.

By being there, you can enjoy southern gospel music to modern sounds; along with singing along with some of the music. You can hiss and boo the villain in the old fashioned melodrama, "Wedded - But No Wife," with local actors and actresses, who have worked long and hard for director, Kerry Moore.

The melodrama features a young heroine, along with an aristocratic, and very wealthy society matron and her daughter, and another woman, who may just have a little villainess in her. And of course, the dastardly villain -- and to complete the picture, the strong and manly hero.

There will be a beginning performance by The Anchor Bros. Band of Sudan, well known throughout this area. They will be onstage to greet people as they arrive, performing as only they can.

With the doors opening at 7 p.m., the Anchor Bros. start performing around 7:15 p.m., followed by an hour or so of variety acts, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Local and area singers, dancers and entertainers will be onstage, and you will surely find many of the acts just right to 'suit your taste.'

Then, a special highlight of the evening!!

Under guidance of MAC coordinator and chairman, Harvey Bass -- an old fashioned candy sale will take place.

Now, not only will you be able to purchase a bag of candy -- many of the bags will contain numbered slips of paper. You can take your slip of paper with the number to the stage. There, you can claim the prize that has the corresponding number.

The candy will sell for 50 cents per bag, and who knows -- you just might go home with a good prize or prizes.

Selling the candy in the audience will be Terry Hutto, Ray Day, Bob Donaldson, Robert Montgomery, Dr. Tom Bonds, Tommy Gunstream, Joe Rhodes, John Stevens, Ron Montgomery, Dr. Mark McClanahan, Dr. Barry Cowart, Dr. Robert Lepard and Athletic Director and Head Football Coach Jim Stewart.

At the same time, onstage, 'Medicine Man' Dr. Lawrence Ward will be ballyhooping and urging the people to purchase the bags of candy.

Kay Mardis will be making change for the sellers and Tommie Bratcher will be the bank.

Olan Burrows will be handling prize sacks. Bill Bruce and Eddy Morris will handle the prizes on and off stage.

Also working onstage will be Darla Rhodes, Kay Mardis, Pat Prater, Norma Bruce and Sandi Robinson.

Any prizes not claimed by the time the candy sales are over on Friday night, will be auctioned off from the stage, according to Bass.

It should be fast and furious action during the candy sales -- so be sure to bring your change with you and try to take home one or more of the prizes.

This will be followed by the melodrama. Kerry Moore has really worked his actors and actresses to prepare them for the big evening. The setting will be 'Victorian,' and the acting crew

Duo Battle In Playoff For Second

Monday night was another exciting night Putt Putt Golf Course.

Brackets were set up for junior and senior individual play.

After two rounds of play, Todd Shipman, Doug Field and Larry Wauson went into final play in the junior division.

Joel Sinclair, Gary Shipman and Gary McDonald were in playoffs in the senior division.

Where were the ladies? They will be mentioned later in this article.

After the playoffs ended in the junior division, Todd Shipman placed first. A sudden-death playoff had to be played between Doug Field and Larry Wauson to determine the second place.

The playoff went to Hole Number Four. While Judge Eddy Morris was sightseeing, or watching ground squirrels, or at least, not paying attention, it ended there. Both Doug and Larry were determined later to be winners since they played close all night and both received second place trophies for their efforts.

Meanwhile, Terry Nickell (who was paying attention) had finished with the senior division. Joel Sinclair captured first place with Gary Shipman, second and Wayne Wauson, third.

MAC said they would like to thank all players, MAC members, and a special Thanks to those non-MAC members who are always there to help. MAC added, "without them, it would be impossible to conduct the tournaments."

The Pop-A-Shot was introduced at the course and proved to be interesting to all.

Bryan Morris took high score in the Men's.

In the Ladies', Gayle Morris was high in warm-up, but was shot out in regular play by Sherri Shipman. Although the competition was close all the way

Coach Hagerman and his family have just moved to Muleshoe from San Angelo where he spent a year as a coach. Before that time, he was a coach at Plainview for six years. Originally from Spearman, he is married and has two children.

Other members of the coaching staff for junior high and high school include Bob Davis, who is coming to Muleshoe from Sanford-Fritch; Richard Albertson, from Amarillo; Paul White, from Wayland Baptist University; Tom Duncan; Ted Johnson, from Perryton and Leslie Castleberry, as junior high school seventh and eighth grade girls' coach.

He said the weight room is open not only for athletes, but for the general public. The public may use the weight room 6-9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and on Wednesday afternoon.

He said the gyms will be open to the public after the floors are refinished, and the track is open to the public at this time.

Coach Stewart also said boys' physicals will be given August 13 and girls' physicals on August 13

Miss Traci Hutton, Wilkinson United In Marriage

Miss Traci DeAnne Hutton became the bride of Lanny Lee Wilkinson on Saturday evening, June 3 in the First United Methodist Church in Canyon. Don Browning, Church of Christ minister, and the Rev. Robert Ford, pastor of the Methodist Church, read the double ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben A. Yeager of Canyon and Jerry Hutton of Muleshoe. Wilkinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Law, also of Canyon.

For the marriage service, greenery and candles in a large arrangement of white gladioli, white spider mums and white iris decorated the altar. Pew markers were candlelight bows with greenery accents.

Candlelighters were Malia Davis of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, and Dean Veasy of Dickinson, nephew of the groom.

Misty Evans of Canyon presided at the guest registry.

"Ave Maria" by Schubert, "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte were presented by vocalist, Dorian Woodruff. Piano and organ accompaniment was by Marilyn Dees and a Brass Quartet consisting of two trumpets and two trombones also provided selections.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, Ben Yeager, wore a candlelight regal satin wedding gown crowned with a high collar. The bodice was embellished with beaded embroidery and the sheath-styled slim skirt plunged to a low back design, centered with a designer bow. The all satin gown was accented with European cut-outs and handclipped laces with a chapel length train. She wore a designer halo fingertip length veil, accented with pearls, which flowed from a pouf headress. The bride's bouquet was a cascading arrangement of white lilies, white dendrobium orchids and English ivy.

Toinette Jolley of Amarillo was honor attendant to the bride and bridesmaids were Pamela Teagarden of Callas, Cindy Eller of Canyon, Dawn Samuel of Arlington, and Leslie Wilkinson of Canyon, sister of the groom. Junior bridesmaids were Jennifer Yeager of Canyon, sister of the bride, and Kristin Chitwood of Muleshoe, cousin of the bride.

The bridal attendants wore teal moire taffeta dresses with deep-V back accented with a large bow. The dropped waists cascaded into a swag-fashion shirt. They carried lilies with accented lace bows and English ivy.

Serving as flower girl was Lacy Davis of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, and the ring bearer was Ansley Davis of Lubbock, cousin of the bride.

Bob Law of Canyon, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Chris Wilkinson of Duluth, Ga., brother of the groom, Donnie Venhaus of Dallas, Lyan McClure of Dallas and Dwain Hutton of Canyon, brother of the bride. They wore full dress tuxedo with black ties and vests accented with ivory wing-tip collared shirts.

A matching Christian Dior full dress tuxedo with ivory tie, vest and ivory tipped shirt was worn by the groom with a complementary boutonniere of white dendrobium orchids and greenery. Ushers were Lonnie Tillinghast of Canyon, David White of Dallas, Craig Allen of New York, Steven Phelps of Dallas, and Doug Chitwood of Muleshoe.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The wedding table, laid with a candlelight lace cloth, held a silver punch service and silver andelabra with an arrangement of white lilies, dendrobium orchids and alstromeria. The wedding cake was topped with fresh lilies and springerina fern with a miniature figurine of the bride and groom sat in the midst of the four layered cake.

A three layered Bavarian chocolate cake with chocolate swirl decor on top was served at the groom's table which held a brass coffee service and Italian candelabras holding teal candles. The table, laid with a candlelight cloth and topped with teal, also held fresh chocolate-dipped strawberries.

Serving at the reception were Cindy Muzyka of Arlington and Joni Rickel of Canyon, who attended the bride's table, and Christi Wilkinson of Duluth, Ga.,

Girl Scout Troop Holds Sleep Over

Fun is the only way to describe the sleep-over that was held at the Girl Scout Hut for Junior Troop No. 152.

Everyone lent a helping hand in preparing a chili-dog supper, what was followed by a discussion covering Camp Rio Blanco, which the girls will be attending June 25-30. Minor First-Aid Kits were put together for the girls to take with them to camp. "Dump-bags" were made to put their eating utensils in to hang up for camp also.

The "high light" of the evening was making "Tin-can" ice cream. The girls had a lot of fun "shake-rattle-and rolling the cans of ice cream and the reward of home made ice cream was delicious."

Bedtime finally came around but pillow fights and ghost stories were in order first.

Morning came around all too soon, but when spudnuts were delivered around 7:30 a.m. that got them out of their sleeping bags.

All the troop members were able to attend the sleep over and they included: Kimberlee Vaughn, Tiffany Bond, Leslie Radford, Lacy Morris, Aimee Hugg, and Margret Olvera. Special guest was DeeDee Morris, Lacy's sister.

The overnight meeting was adjourned at 8:30 and everyone returned home tired but happy.

sister-in-law of the groom, and Vicki Davidson of Lubbock, who presided at the groom's table.

The couple departed for a wedding trip to New Orleans, Louisiana and will make their home at Tallahassee, Florida.

The bride graduated from Canyon High School and received her degree in finance at Texas Tech University in December 1988. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and Finance Association and most recently was residing in Atlanta, Georgia, where she received certification as a paralegal in May. Upon return to Tallahassee, Florida, she will begin working with Cummings, Lawrence and Venzina, Attorneys at Law.

Wilkinson also graduated from Canyon High School and received his degree in accounting at Texas Tech University in August 1987, where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Beta Alpha Psi and Golden Key honor fraternities. For the past year he has resided in Tallahassee, Fla., where he is employed as a sales representative for CIBA-GEIGY.

Dress rehearsal was held the first of the week, and everyone appeared to be ready for the big event on Thursday and Friday nights.

In the play will be Barry Wilson, who it is rumored, is making a very realistic villain; Roger Clarkson as the strong and manly hero; Dawn Pederson, the true southern belle who is deserted at the altar; snobbish and aristocratic Mrs. Moneycracker is portrayed by Jan Pierce; and Susie Sterling (her daughter in real life) plays her very obtuse daughter; while Janet Gracey is the slightly sneaky and perhaps a villainess on her on right.

Five Students At Seminar On Citizenship

Attending the Texas Farm Bureau's 27th annual Citizenship Seminar in San Angelo June 12-16 were Kristyl Albertson, Tisha Young, Greg Combs, Brenda Mudford and Heidi Bohler.

Kristyl Albertson is the daughter of Twila Albertson and Gary Albertson; Tisha Young is the daughter of Pat and Hugh Young; Greg Combs is the son of Berta and Larry Combs; Brenda Mudford is the daughter of Pat Mudford and Jerry Mudford; and Heidi Bohler is the daughter of Terri and Jim Bohler. All are students of Muleshoe High School.

Sponsored by the Bailey County Farm Bureau, they were among approximately 400 high school junior and senior students from 162 counties across the state.

Purpose of the seminar is to provide the students with a better understanding of their American heritage and the capitalistic free enterprise system, according to Ronald Scott of Muleshoe, county FB president.

Speakers at this year's seminar and their subjects are as follows:

Jack Jackson of Fort Worth, president of Jackson, Associates, "Price of Free Enterprise;" Dr. Lynne Thibodeaux of College Station, an Extension 4-H specialist, "Becoming a Winning Citizen;" Dr. Calvin Kent of Waco, director of Baylor University's Center for Private Enterprise, "Free Enterprise and You."

Also, Steve Pratt of Washington, D. C., national field director for the Center for Constitutional Studies, "Freedom in the Nineties;" Basilio Bachor, a Polish immigrant now living in Corpus Christi, "Selling America;" Michael Broome of Charlotte, N. C., "You and America -- Two Great Champions."

S. M. True of Plainview, president of Texas Farm Bureau; and Vernie R. Glasson of Waco, TFB executive director, also addressed the students.

Data Released On Farm Acres

Early data from the 1987 Census of Agriculture show that the U. S. had 2,087,759 farms, 1,059,573 of which had annual product sales of $10,000 or more. Land in farms totaled 964,470,625 acres, 86 percent of them in farms with $10,000 or more in sales, the Commerce Department's Census Bureau reported.

The census showed that the U.S.'s farmers and ranchers sold $136 billion in agricultural products and that farms with $10,000 or more in sales averaged $125,187 per farm.

Other findings: $58.9 billion or 43 percent of total agricultural sales were for crops, while $77.1 billion or 57 percent came from the sale of livestock, poultry, and their products.

The agriculture census obtains information on all identified farm and ranch operations in the United States. The Census Bureau defines a farm as any place where $1,000 or more of agricultural products were produced and sold or normally would have been sold during the census year. Sampling is used to collect data for selected items and to account for nonresponding farm operations.

Dance Therapy Used In Rehabilitation

For most people, dance is probably not something that springs to mind as a rehabilitation technique for survivors of head injuries.

But dance--or, more specifically, dance movement therapy--is believed by some health-care professionals to be one component of a multifaceted rehabilitation regimen for head-injury patients.

Among those professionals are Dr. Catherine F. Bontke and Dr. Rebecca R. Clearman, both rehabilitation physicians at Baylor College of Medicine.

They have brought dance movement therapy to The Institute for Rehabilitation and Research (TIIR), one of Baylor's primary affiliated teaching hospitals, following its successful application elsewhere.

"For years and years, dance movement therapy has been used successfully in treating schizophrenia and depression," said Bontke, who is director of TIIR's Head Injury Program.

Bontke and Clearman are certain that dance movement therapy has much to offer head-injury survivors.

"With head-injury patients," Bontke said, "you have not only social and psychological problems but also the problem of memory impairment. Dancing and choreography can actually help them with their memory."

DPS Troopers Patrol Heavy During Holiday

The Director of the Department of Public Safety has challenged Texas drivers to show that the DPS traffic death estimate for the long July 4th period is far too high.

"The DPS Statistical Services bureau has indicated that as many as 52 persons could be killed on Texas roadways during these hours," Colonel Joe Milner said. "But the number will be lower if more drivers will slow down, avoid drinking alcohol and use a well-known safety precaution--seat belts."

Col. Milner mentioned that the July 4th period will include the weekend before Independence Day.

"The DPS Public Information Office will conduct the traffic fatality count for 102 hours, beginning at 6 p.m. Friday, June 30 and continuing until midnight on Tuesday, July 4th," he said.

"As before, we'll be keeping this count with the assistance of local law enforcement agencies along with DPS troopers and communications personnel."

The final count for the 1988 July 4th period, which was 78 hours in length, totaled 32 fatalities.

Col. Milner said as part of his agency's "Operation Holiday," additional troopers will be deployed to help minimize the risk of driving on all roadways in rural areas.

Traffic fatality totals for Texas will be tabulated and released three times daily from the DPS, at 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. The first report will be made at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 1.

Also, using music the patients may have known before their injuries can stir their memories, Bontke said.

She related a dance therapist's story of a patient who was being encouraged to walk using parallel bars for support.

"He was trying to walk and they were saying, 'Move your right leg. Move your left leg.' Then some cha cha music came over the radio--and the patient could cha cha. His body's 'memory' of how to cha cha was stronger than his 'memory' of how to walk," Bontke said.

Another benefit, she said, is boosting self-image.

"A lot of times patients with head injuries are not only self-conscious about the way they move but also the way they look. Just getting people moving and thinking about themselves in a positive way is good medicine for them."

Clearman, who is project director of the Sports Arts Center at TIIR, is enthusiastic about dance movement therapy because it offers patients the opportunity to physically express what's going on inside them.

This is important for head-injury survivors who have a lot of frustration and anger resulting from their new physical limitations. The therapy is also valuable for adding an expressive quality to the patients' lives.

"There's more to life than functional skills, and dance movement therapy helps head-injury survivors return to full and active lives by getting them involved in an art form," Clearman said.

"Despite their catastrophic injuries, they can participate in an activity that helps them value their bodies and their ability to move."

More to Be Done

In 1988 various reforms were suggested for stock trading. Some were implemented and markets themselves instituted new policies and safeguards.

But 1988 was an election year and none of the proposed overhauls of the financial system, as related to stock trading, were implemented in their entirety.

"Today most stock trading is done by institutions and many use complex formulas, tied to computers. Millions of dollars worth of securities can be traded in seconds.

This accounts for the increased volatility in the markets, and often causes abnormal price changes--which other sharp observers seek to cash in on.

Congress should enact legislation designed to reduce gambling as much as possible. Normal markets, which react normally to economic trends and the economy's direction, will do more to broaden investor interest and participation in stock trading than anything else.

An astute politician can see an opportunity four years ahead of time.

Heat Stress Danger Showing Increase

Recent sporadic rains, coupled with the early onset of hot weather in Texas, have created a weather hazard usually expected later in the year -- heat stress, or hyperthermia.

Even people accustomed to the Texas climate sometimes fail to realize the dangers posed by the combination of high humidity and heat. The affect of humid heat can be most dangerous for the very young, the elderly, and persons already weakened by illness.

Dr. Clift Price, Associate Commissioner for Personal Health Services at the Texas Department of Health (TDH) said a recent report shows that in an average year, 200 people in the U. S. die as a result of hot weather.

The report stated that overall mortality rates increase dramatically during severe weather. The National Center for Health Statistics has calculated that since an extreme heat wave was the unique factor during the summer of 1980, when mortality rates jumped sharply, as many as 1,700 deaths nationally may have been heat related.

Dr. Price said that high temperature alone is physically tolerable to most people, but in combination with humidity, it can cause a person's cooling mechanism, perspiration, to work overtime. "If one fails to replace the fluids and salts lost through perspiration, dehydration can follow," he said.

Symptoms of dehydration are muscle cramps, nausea, dizziness, headache, and low blood pressure. If fluids are not replaced, heat stroke can ensue, causing sudden weakness, severe headache, loss of consciousness, brain damage, and death if the victim is not quickly treated.

"To avoid danger of overheating," Dr. Price said, "people should dress in light-colored, loose-fitting clothing. They should drink more than their normal intake of water, and be sure to have water available if they need it. They also need good ventilation, and perhaps as important as anything else, they should take stock of their own physical conditions.

"Persons with heart or respiratory problems, and those taking certain medications, are especially at risk," he said.

Dr. Price said that in recent years, meteorologists have begun using the term, "heat stress index," referring to the relationship between temperature and humidity.

The heat stress index is a numerical table by which the National Weather Service rates the degree of discomfort a person may feel at a given temperature and humidity. Although the table does not allow for the variables of wind and shade, which can influence an individual's tolerance of heat and humidity, the index reading, like a thermometer reading, is useful in helping persons take needed precautions against hyperthermia.

A heat stress index of 105 is considered very dangerous.

The Asthma Riddle

The death rate from asthma has doubled in the last ten years. The increase is greatest among blacks and Hispanics and in urban areas. But the frequency of occurrence is up among all ethnic groups.

Medical experts are baffled by this trend. They fear most people now consider asthma a non-fatal illness and assume that new medications have lessened the threat.

But asthma is a growing threat.

The most generally accepted theory is that growing pollution of the air is causing more severe attacks. This is not yet proven. What is proven is that fatal attacks of asthma are increasing. Medical experts tell us that fatal attacks most often occur after a sufferer has experienced difficulty breathing for hours, and his usual medication hasn't brought relief.

Deficit: How Big?

President Bush hopes the current forecast of Lawrence Kudlow, former economist in the Office of Management and Budget, proves correct. That's because Kudlow now sees the 1990 fiscal year deficit dropping below $100 million.

Fiscal 1990 begins in three months. Kudlow says economic trends and government reports reveal rising federal revenues. Figures through April show collections now $16 billion above projections. Strong individual and corporate incomes are responsible.

Budget outlays are running lower than projected--by $18 billion. Outlays are still growing, but growing slower than had been anticipated. One of the reasons is reduced defense spending.

President Bush recently suggested the time has come for the U.S. to reduce its ground forces in Germany by 30,000. If the proposal is implemented, further savings will result in fiscal 1990 and in years to come.

The only development which might offset the encouraging trend is a recession. But fewer and fewer economists see a recession any time soon. The latest figures on production and inflation indicate the economy is still healthy, and growing.

It's good budget and deficit news for Mr. Bush, and the nation.

The trouble with vacations is that most of them end too soon.

Little-town society often gets as rotten as big town corruptions.

Letter To The Editor

June 26, '89
Dear Editor,
I can understand why so many people voted to keep our hospital and nursing home. I understand the dear people in the nursing home were in fervent prayer that they wouldn't lose their nursing home in the town they had lived in so long and had paid much money in taxes that has helped the town keep going. I believe God answered their prayers and certainly I wouldn't want to vote against God. I can't understand why some think more of their property than they do the lives of God's humble, afflicted people. May God forgive them for surely they know not what they do.

Sincerely,
Lutishia Watson

Congressman Releases Operational Expenses

U.S. Representative Larry Combest (R-Texas) spent fewer tax dollars on the operation of his Congressional offices during the first quarter of the 101st Congress than the 24 other incumbent Texans in the House of Representatives, according to the report of the Clerk of the House.

Only two Texas representatives spent less than Combest during a period from January through March. Combest, a strong believer in fiscal restraint, has consistently returned tens of thousands of dollars to federal coffers on an annual basis since he was elected to office five years ago.

"I don't believe members of Congress need to spend all of the money earmarked for official purposes just because it is available," Combest said. "By carefully scrutinizing spending in the 19th District Congressional offices, I have been able to return substantial funds allotted for official expenses back to the treasury. At the same time, I believe we have been able to do a good job of providing services to the residents of the District."

"I strongly believe in maximum efficiency at a minimum of cost, and have been able to operate this office in that manner," Combest continued. "Congress as a whole should put this method of fiscal restraint into effect and apply it to the national budget."

Combest spent $94,340 for salaries and $24,948 for other official expenses during the first quarter reporting period, for a total outlay of $119,289. The following is a list of spending by other Texan U.S. Representatives in Congress:

Joe Barton, $105,891, salaries, $63,584 official for a total of $169,425; Martin Frost, $107,533 salaries, $51,836 official, $159,370 total; Albert Bustamante, $111,974 salaries, $45,467 official, $157,254 total; J.J. Pickle, $110,175 salaries, $45,467 official, $155,613 total; Charles Wilson, $108,060 salaries, $46,787 official, $154,848 total; and Michael Andrews, $109,353 salaries, $44,193 official, $153,547 total.

And Ralph Hall $100,655 salaries, $51,649 official, $152,305 total; Jack Fields $109,035 salaries, $43,495 official and $152,118 total; E. de la Garza $115,982 salaries, $35,137 official and $151,119 total; Lamar Smith $106,211 salaries, $43,692 official and $149,903 total; Charles Stenholm, $116,304 salaries, $32,259 official and $148,564 total; John Bryant $106,772 salaries, $38,921 official and $145,694 total; James Wright $102,689 salaries, $41,961 official and $144,650 total; Steve Bartlett $110,330 salaries, $33,162 official and $143,492 total; and Mickey Leland $98,350 salaries, $42,634 official and $140,965 total.

Soloman Ortiz $106,114 salaries, $31,953 official and $138,067 total; Ronald Coleman $107,426 salaries, $30,279 official and $137,705 official; Jack Brooks $117,178 salaries, $17,412 official and $134,528 total; Tom DeLay $102,802 salaries; $27,832 official and $130,634 total; Jim Chapman $96,408 salaries, $33,707 official and $130,090 total; and Bill Archer $91,024 salaries, $36,160 official and $127,185 total.

Also Henry Gonzalez $116,822 salaries, $9,615 official and $126,437 total; Richard Arney $98,966 salaries, $25,740 official and $124,706 total; and Marvin Leath $87,785 salaries, $32,268 official and $120,053 total; Larry Combest $94,340 salaries, $24,948 official and $119,289 total.

Freshmen members Bill Sarpalius $86,083 salaries, $26,103 official and $112,186 total; and Greg Laughlin $86,330 salaries, $23,735 official and $110,066 total.

Combest, who has supported legislation in the past to control spending, continues to call for fiscal responsibility in the 101st Congress. During the current session, he has cosponsored several budget bills, including a measure calling for a Constitutional amendment requiring a balanced federal budget.

"A balanced budget amendment and allowing the President a line-item veto would take a tremendous bite out of the rampant spending practices seen in Congress today," Combest said. "I think responsible spending as it relates to office expenditures would be a good first step toward a national spending policy with which we could live."

Pine Tip Moth Can Be Handled

The pine tip moth can be a serious pest of young pine trees planted by homeowners on the South Plains. And, right now is one of the few times homeowners can effectively fight back, says Spencer Tanksley, Bailey County Extension agent for agriculture.

The larvae of this moth bore into the growing tips of the trees, causing them to turn brown. Severely infested trees develop a bushy appearance over time.

The tip moth passes the winter as a pupa within the injured terminals and twigs of the tree. Moths emerge in late March and early April and begin the first of several generations which will occur during the summer.

Female moths lay eggs on the needles and stems. After hatching, the young larvae bore into the tip and begin feeding. After several weeks of feeding and constructing a tunnel in the tip of the stem, the larvae pupate. The adult moths then emerge from their pupal cases, and a new cycle of generation begins.

Properly timed application of an insecticide is the best way to reduce pine tip moth populations and damage, the Extension agent said. "Since this pest spends most of its life cycle protected inside the pine tip, foliar sprays are most effective when the young larvae are just hatching from the egg," he said.

adult moths and determine when eggs are being laid and new cycles are beginning.

Traps in Lubbock have recently begun catching moths of the second generation, indicating it is time to apply an insecticide.

Rain, two tenths of an inch of rain was received Friday in some parts of town to one inch four miles south of Sudan. On Saturday afternoon and night, another inch to a little more fell as well as south and west of town. At that time there was damaging hail to crops and to homes in the Circle Back area when windows were broken and other damages were incurred. More hail and rain in the area fell later. The rain was welcome by most farmers.

Believe it or not, the average American has only just begun working for himself this year.

Every year the Tax Foundation calculates how many days work it will take the average American to pay federal, state, and local taxes. This year, "Tax Freedom Day" fell on May-4 the 124th day of the year.

Despite the large cut in income tax rates in recent years, "Tax Freedom Day" has never fallen later in the year.

That's because the value of the tax cut has been offset by other tax hikes at the federal level as well as higher state and local taxes, caused by cuts in federal programs.

So all of you who may have been sandbagging it at your place of employment for the first part of the year can now put your nose to grindstone form here on out; this pay is for you.
