GTE Lowering Basic Rate Charges

Business, Residential Customers To Benefit

Residential and business telephone rate changes resulting from the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) ruling on GTE Southwest Incorporated's Docket 5610 rate filing will appear on customers' bills beginning July 19, GTE Southwest President E. L. 'Buddy' Langley announced Monday.

The rate changes will be effective February 23, 1989, the date of the commission's order. Most customers' basic local service rates and extended area service rates will be reduced approximately 17 percent. Customers in the Bangs and Weslaco exchanges will realize increases. Monthly rates for touch-calling will be reduced by 50 cents, while rates for all other custom-calling features will decrease approximately 10 percent.

As examples of the new rates, the average residential bill for basic local monthly service for a customer in Irving will be reduced from $18 to approximately $14.90; in San Angelo, from $10.40 to $8.60; in League City, from $17.55 to $14.55; and in Brownfield, from $10.15 to $3.40.

The rate changes also apply to local directory assistance calls and other services, including customer requests for operators to verify a line as busy or to interrupt a call, mileage charges for customers outside of the base rate area and rate-case surcharges.

Langley said there is "little doubt that reductions of this magnitude will have a dramatic impact upon the company. Undoubtedly, it will affect the timeliness of our response and the pace at which further service enhancements can be brought on line." But despite the commission's ruling, Langley said GTE Southwest's primary objective continues to be "to provide the very best service possible to all of our customers. We are committed to quality service at fair and reasonable rates."

To protect the company's financial health, GTE Southwest has reduced its 1989 capital investment program by more than $100 million and job positions in its Texas operations by 1,100. The company achieved the target job reductions, without employees having to leave the payroll involuntarily, by not filling 400 job vacancies, transferring some employees to other GTE units, offering a voluntary displacement program, releasing more than 200 contractors and offering an employee income assistance program for employees interested in early retirement.

Following is a list of the rate changes for each service as well as an explanation of the surcharge:

Local directory assistance - The PUC reduced from ten to three the number of calls that can be made without charge per billing period to local directory assistance. It increased the charge for calls exceeding the three-call allowance from 25 cents to 30 cents. This new rate becomes effective with customers' July 19 monthly statements.

Line-busy verifications or call interruptions - Customers requesting an operator to verify a line as busy will be charged $1.35 per request, according to the PUC's order, and $2.20 per request to interrupt a call. These new rates will be effective with the July 19 billing.

MHS Principal Resigns; Move Set To Idalou

The Journals learned on Monday of the resignation of Wayland Ethridge, as principal of Muleshoe High School.

Ethridge has been with the Muleshoe Independent School District for more than 25 years, with the last 20 years being as a principal.

He said he has accepted the position of high school principal at Idalou, 10 miles east of Lubbock.

He will be with the MISD until the end of July, as he completes some work.

Thus, Wayland Ethridge has joined an ever-growing list of top administrators who have chosen to leave the Muleshoe Independent School District at the end of the school year just completed. Also, most of the coaches resigned and left Muleshoe, leaving Athletic Director Jim Stewart with an aspect of having to hire almost an all-new coaching staff.

Ethridge indicated he was not planning to sell his home south of Muleshoe. He is also a graduate of Muleshoe High School, who moved back here to teach shortly after completing college.

He and his wife, Janet, have two children, Kristi and Steven, both graduates of MHS.

New Rotary District Governor Makes First Official Visitation

Bob (Tumbleweed Smith) Lewis, the new Rotary International District Governor, made his first official visit to the Muleshoe Rotary Club Tuesday at noon.

A longtime radio personality from Big Spring, Tumbleweed Smith has visited the Rotary Club in the past, presenting the program for Rotarian Gil Lamb.

Smith informed the packed meeting room at the Bailey County Coliseum that his theme for this year is "Enjoy Rotary."

He was very complimentary to Muleshoe and talked briefly about Gil Lamb and his 'Mule Train News.' According to the district governor, Lamb's 'Mule Train News' has been filmed by all the major TV networks, and people nationwide now know how to correctly pronounce 'Muleshoe, Texas.'

Tumbleweed Smith said "I enjoy Rotary, and I think everyone will enjoy Rotary this year."

"Rotary has a very high visibility in Muleshoe, in fact, more visibility than in most communities, which proves that Rotary is doing something."

He talked about Rotary International setting up new Rotary Clubs in Poland and Hungary this year, and said with Pres. George Bush currently in Poland, the only service club he has mentioned while speaking has been the Rotary Club.

From talking about Rotary Clubs moving more worldwide than in the past, he talked about visiting Beijing, China, while returning from the Rotary International Convention in Seoul, Korea. He said he visited Timmimie Square and saw the thousands of Chinese students who packed the square protesting for Freedom of Speech, Freedom of the Press and the end of corruption in their government.

Lewis said he interviewed one

Aerial Measurement Deadline Approaching

Danny Noble, county executive director of the Bailey County ASCS office, reminds that several very important dates are 'just around the corner' for area producers.

Some of these reminders include:

FINAL CERTIFICATION
The final date to certify or request aerial measurement service on all spring seeded crops, conservation use acreage (CU), and ACR is July 17, 1989. A complete acreage report must be filed including all program crops, sunflowers, soybeans, alfalfa, vegetables, partial CRP contracts, etc., by this deadline.

An accurate certification is very important, so don't guess. The reported acreage cannot differ from the measured acreage by more than the larger of 1.0 acre or five percent or the farm could be ineligible for program benefits.

MEASURING SERVICE
As soon as the ASCS gets your farm measured, you will be notified of the measured acreage and you have only five work days in which to adjust (if any) and certify your acres in the ASCS office. Please notify them if you have to adjust prior to plowing anything up.

FAILED ACRES
Any program crop that has failed due to drought, excessive moisture, hail, or for any other reason beyond the producer's control, MUST be certified and an ASCS-574 (Disaster Application) filed before the crop is disturbed and/or replanted to a different commodity. All required ACR must be maintained for the failed acreage. These requirements must be met for program crops to be eligible for program benefits.

MAINTENANCE OF ACR
The ASCS office is beginning to receive several complaints about the maintenance on ACR and CU land. They said they are aware of all the rains, planting, and replanting. There is a lot of set-aside that needs plowing NOW. Spot checks are being made now, so don't jeopardize your farm program by neglecting your lay-out land -- NO WEEDS.

CRP WEED CONTROL
Since the recent rains, a lot of CRP ground is beginning to have a weed problem. It is the Texas flag, telling him Texas was 'behind' the youths' quest for freedom. He said tears streamed down the young student's face as he thanked the Texan for the flag and the support.

Within 24 hours, soldiers opened fire on the students in the square, killing many.

The speaker said he is a firm believer that all six billion members of the human race want 'peace.'

"What is this thing called 'Rotary?'" he asked. It stands for enough food, health, clean water, self-esteem, clothing, housing, warmth and many other things," he added. "Rotary is the hope for the future, a personal dedication to helping others."

"Rotary can build friendships. Rotary operates on volunteerism. You pay for the privilege of being a Rotarian. It doesn't come free. But, few things have a greater return than being a Rotarian."

As he praised the Muleshoe Rotary Club, Lewis said "Muleshoe is dedicated to the ideals of Rotary. Rotary is the individual Rotarian. With 474 Rotary districts in the world, Rotary is first and the most International of all Service Clubs, with more than one million members, and growing."

He also suggested that the Muleshoe Rotary Club consider women members. "Women are making the best members," he added. "They work hard and there is even one woman Rotary president in the district now."

In recruiting in this year, he suggested to new Rotary President Terry Hutto that the membership should be increased by 10 percent this year. "Share Rotary with someone, you and they will be better for the experience. Recruiting in Rotary is by invitation, and on a person-to-person basis."

He concluded by saying, "Rotary represents freedom -- freedom of movement and expression of views. And more than anything else, Rotary means friendship. Rotary -- an open door to understanding."

Dist. Gov. Lewis and his wife, Susan, were presented gifts from the Muleshoe Rotary Club. Dist. Gov. Lewis received a set of "Jennyslipper" mule shoes in a denim bag.

President Hutto also reminded members of the District Conference scheduled next April 20 at Inn of the Mountain Gods near Ruidoso, N.M.

Guests at the meeting included Noe Anzaldua, Julie Cage, Ali Cage, Jay Cage, Lynn Campbell, Regena Clarkson, Dianne Nieman, Barak Harlan, Ric Peter-

Girlstown, USA

Plans Reunion

This Weekend

The second annual reunion for the Girlstown, U.S.A. Alumnae Association will be held Saturday, July 15, at the Whiteface, Texas campus of Girlstown.

Gathering for a day of fellowship and activities will be many women who share a common bond as former residents of Girlstown. Since the alumnae association was formed in 1988, members have returned to recall the home and family they enjoyed as children. Some women return with families of their own and as successful homemakers and businesswomen.

The reunion festivities will begin at 10 a.m. with registration and visits around the campus. A noon barbecue lunch will feature the presentation of awards followed by a general assembly of all members at 2 p.m.

A highlight of the day's fellowship will be an athletic competition such as volleyball or softball, with alumnae challenging the more youthful Girlstown residents.

The alumnae reunion officially began in 1988, and the event has also been open to the general public. Beginning at 1:30 p.m., visitors to the campus, which is 45 miles west of Lubbock, will have an opportunity to tour the facility. Girlstown became an affiliate of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch in 1987 and, since that time, the facilities and opportunities have experienced many improvements.

Information about the Reunion and Open House is available by calling 806/229-6361.

STATE CAPITAL

AUSTIN—Texas lawmakers, hoping someone will blink in the special session standoff, left for the holiday weekend trusting a hot July Fourth will cool frustrations. Most action was behind the scenes with little results as House panel members debated a controversial workers' compensation reform package deemed crucial to the Texas economy.

Earlier, acting quickly, the Senate approved and sent the House its liberal version, and then lawmakers crisscrossed the roundtable all week bent on hammering out a compromise, with little progress.

At week's end, House Speaker Gib Lewis said, "greedy special interests" who wouldn't give an inch have snarled this issue worse than any issue he has ever seen.

The key issue is the Senate's insistence that jury trials be allowed to settle disputes, while the House adamantly seeks a non-trial solution desired by pro-business groups.

Special Interest Players
Alliances among the lobbyists pit labor groups and the trial lawyers against business, insurance and medical groups which argue that jury awards are too expensive and drive up insurance costs. Newly entering the fray on opposite sides were the United Farm Workers and the Texas Farm Bureau, which seeks to cut protections for farm workers forged in a 1984 compromise.

Lame Duck Hobby
Pro-business groups want employers to be able to hire five employees before having to purchase mandated insurance. The 1984 deal limits farms and ranches to three workers without mandated insurance, but now the Farm Bureau wants it kicked up to five, same as other businesses.

Their proposal angered Mexican American Caucus lawmakers (who generally support the labor-trial lawyer position anyway), and drew concern from Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who helped craft the 1984 pact.

Hobby doesn't want changes in Mileage charges - Mileage charges will be eliminated for all customers outside the base rate area. However, customers located more than three-fourths of a mile from the base rate area will be charged a fixed monthly rate of $2 for one-party lines and 95 cents for multi-party lines.

Rate case surcharge - The PUC ordered that fees and expenses associated with the rate case be surcharged to all Texas residential and business telephone customers served by GTE Southwest. The commission's order allows both the municipalities that intervened in GTE Southwest's rate filing and the company to recover their fees and expenses associated with the rate filing.

Intervening municipalities' expenses will appear on all Texas customers' bills as a monthly charge of 2 cents per line over an 11-month period, beginning with July 19 telephone statements, and an adjusted surcharge of approximately 7 cents in the 12th month. GTE Southwest's expenses will be recovered by a single surcharge of 16-cents per line on the July 19 statements of all Texas customers.

The PUC ordered the surcharges as part of its final ruling on the company's Docket 5610 rate filing. Included in that order was an annual going-forward rate reduction of $59 million. Additionally, the commission ordered the company to pay $128 million in "retroactive refunds" and $10 million in interest on that amount.

GTE Southwest is appealing the commission's ruling on the "retroactive refunds" and portions of the $59 million rate reduction. On June 13, the Travis County District Court issued a temporary injunction on the "retroactive refunds" and associated interest. The court's action allowed GTE Southwest to defer making the "retroactive refunds" until the company's appeal can be heard and a decision issued on the legality of the refunds.

farm workers coverage, and some observers wonder if this is the first bona fide challenge to Hobby as a lame duck.

Hobby, who has wielded the gavel longer than any Texan, has said he will retire from politics next year, but he wouldn't be the first to get mad and jump back in.

"MIT on the Trinity"

Meanwhile, Gov. Bill Clements widened the agenda to permit lawmakers to consider repeal of a measure on crime victim identity, to expand three state colleges, create a Department of Transportation and allow physicians to prescribe drugs to some terminally ill patients.

The new law, which allows police agencies to withhold the names of felony crime victims, has angered news organizations and confused law enforcement departments.

A bill upgrading the two-year, upper division University of Texas at Dallas to full-university status passed quickly.

Sponsors dubbed the new school "MIT on the Trinity," a bow to famous Massachusetts Institute of Technology, to stress hopes it will become a world-class university in new technology.

Another Jim Wright?

An Aug. 12 special election was set by Clements to replace U.S. Rep. Jim Wright, who resigned his congressional seat last Friday. Democrats seem to be rallying behind Pete Geren, while the GOP leans to Dr. Bob Lanier, allergist and TV personality.

Meanwhile, James C. Wright 3rd, 44-year-old son of the former House speaker and a resident of Riconada, New Mexico, confirmed that he has been encouraged to return to Fort Worth and run for Congress.

Although he is not currently a Texas resident, the younger Wright could run for the office as long as he establishes a Texas residence by August 12, said Brad Galun, Texas assistant secretary of state.

The door is also open for several state legislators to run without giving up their present office, including Texas House Speaker Gib Lewis, state Sen. Hugh Farmer, and others, assuming the special session is over by then.

On another front, Houston businessman Tommy Fatjo threw his hat in the race for Comptroller on the GOP ticket.

Fatjo, a new face on the political stage, is a successful entrepreneur who has ample pro-business support as a base.

Memorial Services Held June 30 For Former Resident

Memorial services were held on June 30, 1989, at Truth or Consequences for Joe Young Hammons, 75, a former resident of Muleshoe.

He had resided at the New Mexico Veterans Center in Truth or Consequences. On June 24, 1989, he wandered from the Center and after an extensive search is presumed dead in the nearby river.

Joe Young Hammons was born April 15, 1914 at Center Point, AR to the late Claude and Mattie Hammons. He lived in Muleshoe for many years, where he was a mechanic, prior to his move to New Mexico. He served overseas with the Army during World War

II.

He was called 'Podger' by his family and friends, and is survived by two sisters, Claudia Millsap and Mary Katherine Robertson, both of Bowie, as well as many other family members.

A monument in his memory will be placed at Old Hurley Cemetery at Muleshoe, next to his parents, and brother, Lester, who preceded him in death.

'TEXAS' Hosts Second Million Visitor Tuesday

The Fourth of July started with a bang this year as the Paul Green musical drama "TEXAS" welcomed its two millionth visitor.

Delia Wilburn of Dennison, Texas, was the 251st person of the evening to pass through the "TEXAS" ticket gate at 8:05 p.m. on Tuesday, July 4th, to receive an assortment of prizes including a lifetime ticket to the outdoor drama.

"This is an honor for the State of Texas as well as for the show and myself," Wilburn said. "I hope it won't be long till 'TEXAS' reaches three million."

"This is my second time to see the show," Wilburn added. "I was here last year and liked it so much I came back."

Set beneath the 600 foot cliffs of Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo and Canyon, "TEXAS" is performed nightly except Sundays at 8:30 p.m. from mid-June through late August.

Look for action not only on stage but on the cliffs, rocks and background terrain. Indians appear from the shadows; cowboys ride horses; and surreys, wagons and even an authentic train lumber across the trails.

A cast of 80 tells the dramatic and romantic story of the settling of the area using a touch of humor and tons of colorful song and dance. The latest sound and light equipment wakes nature and causes crowds to pop umbrellas as thunder crashes against the canyon and lightning sizzles down the wall to strike a tree in its path.

Coyotes howl and hazy flames rise in a wild prairie fire ballet as nature pounces on the unsuspecting pioneers.

"TEXAS" opened to audiences in 1966. Thanks to Margaret Harper and the first directors of "TEXAS", Bill and Margaret Moore, a little known canyon has opened its walls to thousands of visitors each summer.

Harper realized the potential for an area that needed an economic boost and saw a means of preserving the area heritage. After reading an article about Paul Green and his outdoor dramas in a 1960 edition of READER'S DIGEST, Harper wrote a letter to the Pulitzer Prize winning author that so charmed him that he responded immediately by letter and in person.

Six years later Green had completed the script. In the meantime Harper and friends founded the non-profit foundation that still produces the show, raised funds and built the Pioneer Amphitheatre, and "TEXAS" became a reality.

Green called "TEXAS" his "happy show" and often visited Palo Duro Canyon until his death in 1982. When he saw a slow spot in the script, he perfected it until it flowed.

Much of the innovation for the production emerges from Director Neil Hess and sound and light designers D. Scott Linder and Lynn Hart, but the original concepts and ideas came from Paul Green.

Green had said, "Using sound and light, it will be possible for us in the audience to experience the blizzards they suffered, the sand storms they faced."

People come from all over the world to see Green's masterpiece. In 1988 audiences traveled from every state and 113 different foreign countries to "TEXAS."

Surveys indicate that 80% of these persons journey over 100 miles to the production and that half the audience has previously seen the show.

Near full houses every night draw cast members this year from 12 states and two foreign countries (Thailand and Japan). "TEXAS" plays to average audiences of 1,600 persons or 90% capacity in the 1,742 seat theatre.

Visitors from other countries have said to Mrs. Harper, "Now I know why your country is as it is; now I understand you better."

"This," Mrs. Harper says,

"is the best praise we can receive."

Other prizes awarded to the two millionth visitor during an intermission ceremony included: a cowboy hat from Boots N Jeans Western Wear, two Cowboy Morning Breakfasts served on the rim of Palo Duro Canyon, $25 in beef from the Texas Cattlfeeders, an Arrowhead Mills Product Packet, a free room at one of the Fifth Season Inns in Amarillo, "TEXAS" tee shirt, a "TEXAS" music cassette, a "TEXAS" promotional video, an Amarillo bandana and a banner.

"TEXAS" plays nightly except Sundays at 8:30 p.m. in Palo Duro Canyon State Park through August 26th.

For reservations to "TEXAS," write P.O. Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-2181. Tickets are $10, $8 and $6 for adults and $10, $4 and $3 for children under 12 years old.

Do It Yourself Brings Caution Of Safety Rules

With summer projects in mind, do-it-yourselfers who plan to mix and pour concrete for home improvement should practice safety rules, said Spencer Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Basic rules are to wear protective clothing and keep the concrete away from bare skin, Tanksley advised.

Wet concrete is caustic and can irritate or chemically-burn skin, eyes and clothing, the agent said.

"If you do get wet concrete in your eyes, on your skin or soaked into your clothes, wash it away immediately with fresh water," Tanksley said.

The agent said people should wear waterproof gloves, long sleeves, trousers and rubber boots if they will be standing in the concrete during placement. "You could get third-degree chemical burns if wet concrete spills over your work boots and remains on your ankles for any appreciable amount of time."

The agent said concrete normally is quite safe for experienced construction workers. "The problem occurs when someone who isn't aware of the potential danger handles it," Tanksley said.

LUBBOCK, Friday, July 7, 1989

The quest for clues to the size of this year's cotton price deficiency payment is off to an early start. And High Plains' producers are into the hunt with a heightened sense of urgency.

The deficiency payment rate will be determined by subtracting the calendar-year weighted average farm price from the 1989 target of 73.4 cents per pound. Higher prices mean lower payments, lower prices mean higher payments. In theory, one offsets the other on the farmer's bottom line.

But higher prices mean nothing to the producer with nothing to sell. So the theory becomes myth to the thousands of producers on the Plains with hailed-out, droughted-out or washed-out crop prospects, note officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture last fall projected a payment rate of 21.4 cents per pound, indicating expectations of a 52-cent farm price for the year. But PCG calculations show an average farm price of 55.2 cents for the first five months of the year. And the market, bolstered by falling world production prospects and rising demand, continues to exhibit solid strength. "So I think it's safe to say that any hope for a payment rate even close to 21 cents has already gone by the board," says Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President.

On the opposite side of the question, Johnson also thinks it unlikely that the payment rate will drop below 8.56 cents. That's the amount of the total advance payments producers already have received. Any part of that amount that isn't justified by final price calculations would have to be repaid. For that to happen, PCG reckons, the average farm price for the last seven months of 1989 would have to be around 69 cents per pound on heavy marketings.

A total of 4.563 million bales were marketed through May of this year, almost 44 percent more than the 3.173 million traded in the same period last year. A continuation of that pace would bring the total 1989 marketings to about 15 million, up from 10.415 million in 1988.

Assuming the year's marketings at 15 million bales, PCG has made purely speculative payment projections at various price levels. For example, if the weighted average price for the 10.437 million bales yet to be traded equals the 58.8 cents recorded in May, the annual weighted average would be 57.7 cents, leaving a payment rate of 15.7 cents.

The payment rate would drop to 14.8 cents at an average price for the rest of the year of 60 cents, to 14.2 cents at a 61-cent price, to 13.5 cents at 62 cents, 12.8 cents at 63 cents, and down to 11.4 cents if the final seven months average price comes in at 65 cents. At 69 cents the payment rate would be 8.6 cents, just above the 8.56 cents advanced.

Preliminary marketings and price figures through May for 1989 appear in the chart below.

B.J. CROWLEY'S HOROSCOPE

Week of July 10, 1989
CANCER-June 21 to July 22-Stand your ground if you know you are right, especially with your spouse. You could keep someone from exercising faulty judgment.
LEO-July 23 to Aug. 22-Give your best to your work this week. Volunteer to accept heavier responsibilities. Then plan to rest during the weekend.
VIRGO-Aug. 23 to Sept. 22-Good news may be expected this week. You see or hear from someone for a distance. Spend time with friends you enjoy.
LIBRA-Sept. 23 to Oct. 22-Don't allow yourself to become pressured into overextending yourself in financial undertakings. Friends could talk you into a position of being exploited.
SCORPIO-Oct. 23 to Nov. 22-Be patient with associates. Teach them rather than feeling resentful about their lack of knowledge. Do your part in instigating harmony in your work situation.
SAGITTARIUS-Nov. 23 to Dec. 21-Strive for promotion or advancement now. If someone comes to you with a speculative financial deal turn him down.
CAPRICORN-Dec. 22 to Jan. 19-Avoid becoming overextended. Take it easy this weekend for a change. Read and relax. You can then start a new week with renewed vigor.
AQUARIUS-Jan. 20 to Feb. 18-If children are involved in your life, make plans now for their future education. Try to help them towards building a bright future.
PISCES-Feb. 19 to March 20-Put the needs and wishes of others above your own, especially this week. Keep your temper under control.
ARIES-March 21 to April 20-Concentrate on home improvement. A beautification program could lift your spirits to a high level. Business undertakings should prove highly successful.
TAURUS-April 21 to May 20-Recognition for some outstanding endeavor performed by you should soon be forthcoming. Enjoy the prestige.
GEMINI-May 21 to June 20-If you seem unable to complete the tasks at hand, make a list by order of importance. Then set about completing each one, one at a time.

Don't Drown
Each year thousands of Americans drown because sensible precautions are not followed.
The following rules are proven:
1. Use supervised pools for young children.
2. Stay ashore in heavy weather.
3. Keep children and non-swimmers out of boats not equipped with life-preservers.
4. Teach children to swim at an early age.
5. Use extra caution fishing after dark, especially in strange waters.
6. If deathly afraid of water, stay away from it.
