The closing ritual was given by the group.

Rotarians, Guests are Mirthquake Ladies' Night

A psychoanalysis combined with a lie detector test caused an expected mirthquake during the night given by the Artesia Rotary Club Tuesday evening at the parish hall of the First Presbyterian Church. The party began with a Magic Circle, a device which got each arriving guest looking for an elusive partner. "Spoofing the Speech Makers" introduced a new and novel way of disposing of speeches, in which the audience enjoyed the spectacle as much if not more than the speakers. Rufus Stinnett, a member of the Kiwanis Club and a guest, and Charlie Bullock, president of the Rotary Club, extolled the virtues of their respective organizations to the accompaniment of much heckling, while Boone Barnett, with clever and witty "toasts," personalized club members. Irvin M. (Goldy) Goldstein was in charge of a test for the women, "IQ Cuties," a travesty on the current fad, in which a dozen of the Rotary Anns took part.

The party closed with everybody singing. "The Nifty 90's vs. the Fantastic 40's," under the direction of Neil B. Watson. The program was in charge of Andy Corbin as chairman, with him also serving as master of ceremonies.

The dinner was served by women of the First Presbyterian Church to about 60 Rotarians and their guests.

ON THE HOME FRONT

By BROWNIE EMERSON

Many a good yarn in Artesia dies because the blood of enough facts isn't given. I would like to have had a complete outline of the gymnastic exhibition program and a complete list of all the girls taking part but that information wasn't forthcoming. It would have improved the yarn 75 per cent if this data had been available.

Speaking of information available reminds me that I owe a cordial vote of thanks to Lucian Hodges, Roselawn fifth grade teacher, who noted my plea for information as to what had happened in the softball games that started last March.

He promptly got in touch with me and gave me the sixth grade tourney final. I thank you, Mr. Hodges. I sure thank you.

Wanted All Games

It's no slam at anybody but I regret there was no setup that would provide me with information on the games as they were played. Here was a bunch of husky, alert, keen youngsters competing as only youngsters can. It was life, action. And yet, not until the season is over, is there notice of their playing softball.

Dope On Drillers

I hope to be able soon to provide readers with team standings and some fielding and batting averages in the Longhorn League. So far no information has been put out from league headquarters or from any local source on this, but I am informed by Fred Brinard that periodically such data will be made available. Red Goodwin is the official Driller statistician.

I've worked closely with Red and he has been cooperative all the way and I'm sure we can work a deal for more information on our baseball team.

In this connection, a few persons in Artesia seem to have a concept of news gathering. One doesn't flit around like a butterfly hoping to "pick up a story."

You have to work and blast and dig to get the facts. You must have facts. You must have a source must know what he's talking about. He must be an authority.

You don't simply sit down and dream up a yarn. It has to have facts and those facts are obtainable only from the persons most affected and most interested.

I believe that in the majority of cases in Artesia when stories are missed it is 90 per cent due to the fact that those concerned lack either the energy, interest, or being on the ball enough to work with the press.

This, of course, is in connection with organizational news, not the spot type.

Applause Section

While not the type that belittles others, and a man who does his utmost to respect others, I have learned that there are times when if you don't stand up and fight you get shoved around but good.

The epilogue is not in a belligerent vein but simply because I'm proud of the letter I received from Harold V. Ratliff, sports editor, The Associated Press, Dallas.

I'm proud of it and I make no bones about it.

Putting it on the line: "You are doing a fine job for us on the Longhorn League coverage," is the way Mr. Ratliff begins his letter to me, dated April 30.

Concluding he says: "Glad to get the clips on the Drillers. You really went to town with that edition."

The AP sports editor referred to the Artesia Advocate issue of April 24, preceding the premiere game.

Pair of Chuckles

At the Driller-Rocket game here Wednesday night, got a kick out of talking to a young chap who came up to the press box. I supplied him with the batting order of the teams, then introduced myself. Turned out he was from Carlsbad.

"Oh, yes, we heard of you. Have clippings of your stories in our locker room," he rejoined. Suppose he was one of the Caveman grid squad. He never told me his name.

I kidded him about "hearing" of me, letting him know that while I was for Artesia all the way, and while I despised the point system and any yarn from any source that had opponents quaking simply because they were to meet the Caveman, I wasn't such a bad guy after all.

I got a boost to my vanity when a high school tennis player one of the best and a boy who could beat me 6-0 without half way trying, watched me get lucky in a set two Sundays ago.

Somehow my aging arm was working good and my serve was really clicking. The ball skimmed the net, hit the service court border, then did not bound more than a couple of inches.

"Gee," said the youth at the conclusion of one game of the set, "four straight aces!" And it was, too. Luck of the Irish was with me that day.

ers of the junior high, to Freddie Sanders, Don Lewis, John Riddle, Ernest Gumfory, Herman Florez, Wayne Westerman is Hornet manager.

Season Record

April 7—At Carlsbad, Carlsbad 67, Artesia 37, Hobbs 22.

April 14—Fox Relays at Fort Sumner, Albuquerque 51.1 Artesia finished in ninth place with 8.4. Eighteen teams in senior bracket, 12 in junior. In latter Artesia ranked fourth with 18.5. Fort Sumner won junior division with 30.7.

April 21—Hobbs meet. Fifteen teams, Carlsbad first with 48. Artesia in ninth spot with 5. In junior division, won by Portales, 48. Artesia rated third with 26.5.

April 28—District 5 Tournament, Artesia, Carlsbad first with 91%, Artesia runner-up with 60%, New Mexico Military Institute third, 32. Junior—Artesia first with 52, Eisenhower 49%, Alta Vista 28.

Summary

In four meets the Bulldogs have been runners-up twice, in ninth place twice, scored 110.9 points. For the junior bracket, three meets champions in one, one third place, one fourth, scored 97 points.

Significant is the proximity of other high time, distance, and other measurements to those attained by the Bulldogs in the district tournament, an indication that great track material is being developed for the Bulldogs in the junior division. Note also the closeness of the number of points scored by the juniors to that of the Bulldogs. Only 13.9 separates the totals.

Former Heavyweight Boxing Champ To Referee Artesia Wrestling Bout

A sequel to the first women's wrestling bout ever held in Artesia will be the Australian tag team match as the featured contest on the card for 8 o'clock Tuesday night in Veterans Memorial Building.

Teamed with this announcement is the salient listing of Max Baer, former heavyweight boxing champion, as referee.

Baer, says Promoter W. J. Stribling, Roswell, who is staging the series of wrestling matches here under the auspices of the United Veterans, has only recently signed contracts to handle "the refereeing chores in the wrestling business."

"He has appeared in all the large arenas in the United States and has contracts to work the big foreign cities this summer. He is guaranteed $100,000 for a year's wrestling officiating."

Title History

Baer won the heavyweight championship on June 14, 1934 in New York City when he knocked out Primo Carnera in an 11-round battle.

Carnera won the title in Gotham on June 29, 1933 when he kayoed Jack Sharkey, six rounds.

Sharkey had defeated Max Schmeling, 15 rounds, decision in New York City on June 21, 1932.

Baer lost his crown on June 13, 1935, lacking one day of a year after he had won it, to James Braddock, 15 rounds, on judges decision. The bout was also in New York City.

Specialty Explained

Stribling said that in Australian tag four wrestlers get into the ring at the same time. One team will be composed of Tony Falletti and Jack Terry matched against Verne of cauliflower ear fame and June Byers of Houston.

Black-garbed Ann won the match in 21 minutes, leaving the 5 foot 7 inch 150 pound Texas red head apparently dazed at the conclusion of the battle in which some hair pulling, biting, kicks, and elbow flinging were apparent.

Murderous Mike Winner

The final match pitted Murderous Mike London, 187 pounds, from El Paso, against Terrible Tony Falletti of Chicago, 190. It was a slam-bang affair with the gaucy El Pasoan coming out winner after being tossed out of the ring, the match being concluded almost in the spectators laps.

Mike took the first fall in 16 minutes, Tony the second in 13, then Mike poured on the coal to take the final and victorious round in eight minutes, half the time in which he won the initial tussle.

In the prelim, Ace Freeman, 192, Chicago and Jack (Hatchetman) Terry, battled to a draw in the one-fall 20 minute opener.

Attendance at the matches was 500. Don Bush and Bill Dunnam were announcers.

If the water in the world's lakes was added to the oceans, it would raise the water level two feet, it is estimated.

Bulldog Thinclads Score 110.9 Points in Four Meets

Artesia High School tracksters will wind up the season with participation in the state tournament.

The Bulldogs have completed in four matches and have scored a total of 110.9 points.

A duo from the Bulldog track squad will carry the Orange and Black into the state tournament today and tomorrow at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque.

They are Doyle Cole, 100 and 220-yard dashes, and Kirk McCarter, broad jump.

Both finished in second place in the district tilt held here April 28, which was won by Carlsbad.

Cole ran the 100 in 10.3 seconds, the 220 in 23. Leap of McCarter was 19 feet 2 and 3/4 inches.

Artesia High School will send its tennis players an golfers to the state interscholastic meet, along with the trackmen. Howard O. Miller, tennis coach, will be the adult in charge. Group will total a dozen.

Good Backlog

Coach Reese Smith will have an experienced cadre of tracksters next season with 10 athletes returning from the 15 on the 1951 squad.

Returning will be James Baker, Bill Brown, Doyle Cole, W. L. Gray, Clarence Lamb, Charlie Nelms, Gene Parnell, Howard Price, Gayle Richardson, and James Sanders.

Other 1951 lettermen are James Briscoe, Clarence Connor, Kirk McCarter, Tommy McCaw, and A. L. Terpening. Managers are Leon Darst and John Green.

Then there will be four ninth graders eligible for numerals, Loren Gelwick, Roy Johnson, John McPhaul, and Lenton Woodside.

X-Ray Unit Is Damaged By Fire At Carlsbad

The State Health Department's mobile X-ray unit, which completed a campaign of more than a month in North Eddy County last Saturday, was swept by fire Wednesday afternoon at Carlsbad High School, as a similar campaign in South Eddy County was starting.

It is believed the fire started in a power unit housed in a trailer behind the larger vehicle in which the x-ray apparatus and camera were housed, as Fritz Reider, technician, was starting the motor.

The power unit furnished electricity for the x-ray truck, when it was on a one or two-day assignment, as it did throughout North Eddy County except the last two weeks, when it was located in front of the city hall in Artesia.

Reider was burned on his hands and face, when engulfed by flames, before he could move away.

Twelve students and a teacher were in the truck when the fire started, while 150 more students were lined up outside to be x-rayed. Screams from those on the outside warned the others, who got out of the truck laboratory without injury.

Reider and his daughter, Jean, his assistant, said that although the damage was great, none of the x-ray films which had been exposed earlier was damaged.

The unit was valued at about $22,000.

be flown in. While they were there crews of other planes reported they had seen life rafts near where the other plane had gone down, but found no survivors.

It was after the Anderson family was in the United States that Captain Anderson found the people "told off" a railroad man in the East, when he could not get some simple information, but rather got rudeness and indifference.

Although Captain Anderson owns a cottage on Cape Cod, he and his wife prefer the Southwest, where they came a few years ago, when he was stationed at Walker Air Force Base. In fact, it was that assignment which led to his father coming to Artesia, so as to be near his son and family.

Captain Anderson was stationed at Celle Royal Air Force Base near Hanover during the airlift, which closed in October 1949. He piloted one of the multiple-engine planes, which flew to Germany, one every three minutes around the clock, seven days a week, to take supplies to Berlin.

After the airlift was discontinued, Captain Anderson was transferred to Munich, Germany, from where he and his family came home.

And it was on that trip home that someone asked him what state he was from.

"Any state," he said. "It makes no difference, just so it's in the United States."

But he's since decided it does make a difference, that it must be in the Southwest.

Potpourri—

low the oil is a stratum of water, which is holding up the oil.

It is possible to suck the water to the casing, which would ruin the well for all time, for it would cap off the oil, once and for all.

The oil must migrate to the well before it can be removed. The permeability varies with different formations, but in general the oil at a distance will not permeate to the well rapidly enough that there would not be danger if it were pumped too rapidly.

It's going to seem strange in a few weeks not to be punching out palaver as this to the readers of The Advocate, but it is a fact we intend to write only four more Potpourri columns after this one!

For the benefit of those who do not care for our galls, we have been offered not just one, but two, good propositions, one of which we have accepted. It is quite foreign to newspaper editing.

And we have resigned!

This news will be received with great glee by some readers. We hope that it will be received with regret by the vast majority, as we believe it was by our publisher. It was, we are certain, received with astonishment, as a letter from him indicates.

After all, it was 13 years ago this week that we edited our first Advocate.

Until little more than a year and a half ago, it was published weekly, since that time, semi-weekly. And if we figure correctly, there have been in that time 764 issues of The Advocate published, of which we put out 743—all but one, and that was in mid-July, 1938, which week we took off for a vacation!

Figuring further, if we had written only 10,000 words for each issue—but the figure would average much more than that—we have typed for your reading seven and a half million words of good news, bad news, laughs, tragedies, human interest, features, civic advancements, publicity, and what-not.

Yes, it'll seem funny not writing this column and the glad and the sad of the Artesia community.

But we have so elected. For in our new capacity we will be able to be out more, to take an occasional vacation, perhaps to feather our nest.

And before we get up from this typewriter for the last time, we'll tell you what we're going to do. After all, if we can't slip in a little free advertising for ourselves after all these years, when no one is looking, we've lost our subtle touch—which we don't think is so.

But we'll be around, except when we've gone fishing!

All of which means you readers will have to get on the ball in this license-plate game, if we are to write the final chapter of it, and not leave that for someone else to do.

At this moment, we do not have a single new state or county to add to the growing list.

But we do have Hawaii, which Jim Heald spotted Monday.

And we do have a combination, such as has not been reported before.

Although Pete L. Loving previously had reported Newfoundland, Mrs. John Lively called up Saturday and said she saw a car bearing both Texas and Newfoundland plates.

The Texas plates were 1951 No. C/V-8389 and the Newfoundland plates were No. 5559. But Mrs. Lively said there was also a "49" on the plate, which might indicate the car was licensed in Newfoundland in 1949, but since it is being driven in Texas by Texans.

A Chinese philosopher is credited with the saying, and an American songwriter has used it: "Enjoy yourself—it's later than you think."—A.L.B.

Increase of Efficiency Is Planned By CAP

At a meeting Tuesday evening, plans were discussed for increasing efficiency and membership of the Artesia squadron of the Civil Air Patrol.

Mobile radio support unit was discussed. This would consist of two or more cars or pick-up trucks equipped with radios which would be in contact with the home station.

In case of emergency or a matter of civil defense, these mobile units would be equipped with first aid equipment, stretchers and possibly a medical team. In emergencies, the CAP units would be at the disposal of the Artesia civil defense set-up. The necessary equipment would be provided by the New Mexico wing, as requested.

Tentative plans for enlarging the cadet program were discussed. More qualified persons are very definitely needed to help train the cadets. Maj. Mervon Worley, commanding officer, said. Any offers of assistance will be appreciated, he added.

For a forthcoming communications conference scheduled for the May 4-5 in Oklahoma City, Lt. Ted DeMars was chosen to attend. He is the public information officer and chief radio operator of the squadron. He plans to leave Artesia municipal airport at 8 o'clock Friday morning in a Hazel Flying Service aircraft for Albuquerque. From Kirtland Air Force Base, communications officers from all over the state will be flown in an Air Force plane to Oklahoma City.

National Guard Problem to Be Held at Airport

Artesia municipal airport will be the scene of a junior sized invasion this week end.

There will be 150 National Guardsmen of the four batteries comprising the 697 Anti-Aircraft Artillery, Automatic Weapons Battalion, in Artesia on Saturday and Sunday for a "battalion problem of defending the airport."

The exercise is in conjunction with the extra dozen week-end drills authorized not long ago and will double up two drills in the one maneuver.

All units, Battery C, Artesia; A, Roswell; B and headquarters, Carlsbad, and D Hobbs, are due to arrive by 1700 hours Saturday and to bivouac at the airport.

There will be two meals eaten by the battalion, Saturday supper and Sunday breakfast, in charge of Wayne Griffin, sergeant first class in the Artesia battery.

Maj. William C. Thompson, Jr., of Artesia is chief officer of the battalion, while the Artesia battery is led by Second Lt. Allen Mills.

CAP Film Shown Students at High School Wednesday

Approximately 100 high school students gathered in the education room at Artesia high school Wednesday to see "CAP in Action," a film depicting the history of the Civil Air Patrol from its inception under the Office of Civilian Defense in 1941, to its present-day mission as an official auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, it was announced by Maj. Mervon Worley, commanding officer of the Artesia CAP squadron.

The film was brought here from Albuquerque in an Air Force plane piloted by Capt. Joe R. Bridges, Air Force CAP liaison officer. Captain Bridges was accompanied by Lt. and Mrs. Van L. Dyson, who have charge of the New Mexico wing cadet enrollment and training program.

T. Stovall, Artesia High School principal, announced plans for introducing the high school CAP coordinated aeronautical course into the school for the coming year as a full academic subject.

Rev. R. L. Willingham gave a short talk expressing his interest in the CAP and cadet training program.

Mrs. Dyson explained the course and advantages of early technical training.

Captain Bridges further outlined the program and its advantages to students completing these courses if they later enter the Air Force. Captain Bridges also urged enrollment in the cadet corps of the CAP in order to take advantage of the opportunities the Air Force has in the program.

Country Club Matter

By Jack Fauntleroy

The Carlsbad golfers and a Southwest wind defeated Artesia golfers in the inter-city match last Sunday in the City. Artesia golfers were deeply handicapped, as they have the chance to play against the best in our ideal climate in North County.

It is understood from reliable sources that this particular wind was obtained by the Carlsbad Country Club through a special act of the State Legislature. In spite of this, Harry Plowman first low net; Cliff Loyd won second low net; and A. W. Harrell fourth low net. Each of these golfers received a half dozen balls as prizes.

The match was played on a nine-hole basis: One point for nine holes and a point for the 18. Carlsbad won the match 30 1/2 to 22.

Other golfers playing for Artesia were Bill Angley, Bob Berg, Bob Bourland, Bill Bullock, Crawford, Ed Gore, Richard Jack Holcomb, Phil Kranz, Sam Laughlin, Jim Miller, Char Murphy, Earl Plowman, Donnie, John Shockey, John Short, and Rufus Springer, and Rufus Stinson.

Just wait until we get 'em up to see the fellows!

Welcome to Virginia Estrada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Estrada. Joe the Pro is probably ready grooming her to be the lady of 1970. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. E. and Virginia for picking out such nice gifts.

There have been two holes-in-one on the new course. Hugh Burch made the first one, and the second was made by Bob Burch, the Blond Bomber. That was on April 27, 1950—more than a year ago. I could have made three or four by now, but have had the misfortune of playing with "best" witnesses.

The Board of Directors meeting last week was postponed, so the new driving range, etc., will have to wait until the meeting can be held.

Met with the entertainment committee Monday afternoon. Marshall Burch, the chairman of this committee, gave me the complete list of the committee, which has several new members. Besides Rowland, other members are Mary Jo, Georgia Crawford, Zanaida, Ida Carper, Mildred Hudson, Bryn Fanning, A. W. Harrell, and Waldrep, Leslie Martin, and Bourland.

The next family night is to be held tonight, May 4. Been having a lot of fun. Buffet supper and games on each Saturday and third Friday nights each week. You'd be surprised if you didn't win. Better go out and find out about it tonight.

A lucky party and dance is to be held Saturday night, May 26. It's everything, and no one has a handicap (not being familiar with the libel laws, I can't call names).

The last Wednesday in each month is ladies golf luncheon day. On Wednesday a "Bundle Tournament" was held. Each lady brought a bundle, which was numbered, and numbers were drawn to determine who got which bundle. The bundle drawn had to be worn during the round of golf. Range and fantastic things happened.

The costume prize was won by Georgia Crawford, who wore a lovely evening gown, circa 1920, with white kid gloves. The evening gown did not hinder her, since the length was quite reasonable for 1920—somewhere between the waist and knees.

Low medal was won by Evelyn Williams and Edith Harrell, each bringing a bundle that was probably meant for Briton. Mary Jo, resident in a pair of pants and sport shirt belonging to Bill Keys, and Claudine Jones, wearing a chic pair of the latest red flannels from Bangor, Maine, the famous long underwear capital, won the blind bogey prize.

It is understood that three male golfers, from Roswell, visiting our club and unaware of the tournament, have taken the pledge.

CC Receives State's 1951 Maps and Charts

New promotional literature on the state has been received by Artesia Chamber of Commerce from the New Mexico Tourist Bureau and from the New Mexico Highway Department.

Each of the folders, one titled "Historical Trails Thru New Mexico, The Land of Enchantment," the other New Mexico 1951 Official Road Map," contains a foreword by Gov. Edwin L. Mechem.

The folders are not new but are up to date copies of material issued in past years.

In "Historical Trails," the governor says:

"New Mexico was the first of the present 48 states of our Union to be fully explored. Here history was in the making long before the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth Rock.

"I got the story on
50,000 Miles-No Wear
 and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says Arnold B. Bangerter, Jr.
 Owner, Radio Cab Company
 Salt Lake City, Utah

"Since I changed my 14 cabs over to Conoco Super, I've cut oil consumption almost 50 per cent. With at least 85,000 miles on each, there's no sign of needing new engines yet!"

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that Conoco Super can keep your new car new.

NEW CAR DEALER
 "It's a pleasure to have satisfied customers, thanks to Conoco Super," says Walt Winters, Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer, Westside, Iowa. "My customers depend on my judgment about the oil to use in their cars, and Conoco Super is the one I recommend."

TRAVELING SALESMAN
 "When I purchased my new Pontiac, I put in Conoco Super," says Melvin L. Beyer, Traveling Salesman, Pampa, Texas. "I average about 4,000 miles a month and Conoco Super has given me the best of service—even helped to increase the miles per gallon of gasoline."

Who said You can't Afford a Fine Car?

WHEN you look at everything a ROADMASTER has to offer, it's natural to conclude that it's priced with the rest of the fine-car field. Sweeping proudly past you, it has a distinction that few cars can equal. Stepping nimbly away from a stop light, it has the willing surge of power that the very exclusive combination of a 152-horsepower Fireball engine and Dynaflo Drive* delivers.

It rides the road with majestic smoothness, and comes to a smooth and gentle halt, in response to the finest brakes that Buick engineers ever developed. Inside, it has spacious room, from side to side and front to back and seat to roof—plus a softness of cushions and a richness of fabrics which bespeak the custom standards to which it is built. All you could want in a fine car is here in abundance. But don't let that mislead you into deciding "it's too rich for me." If you've looked into 1951 car prices generally, you'll discover this: You can own a ROADMASTER for just a shade more than an ordinary car will cost—and for several hundred dollars less than the price tags usually found in "the fine-car field." Why not look into this today?

 Herb Cavett, soil conservationist and for Roosevelt County, says that on last Friday the wind came up from the valley, at an occasional velocity of 50 miles per hour, and visibility of one city block, 900 feet. He also says that by the time the wind died down, the sand had drifted enough to give that the worst sand fight in its history, which is covering a whole lot of ground.

Believe it or not, Will Harrison, former patrol of the Santa Fe Mexican is on vacation, and is in the mountains and abuse has been deleted from the paper until his return. After why shouldn't he have a "stabilizing spell?" With all of his faults, Harrison is a good man and deserves a good deal more than he normally gets.

Competition is invited from persons who would like to be postmaster of Las Cruces' No. 2 office, west of the tracks. The term of operation will be for one year preceding June 30, and the bidder will have to furnish sufficient space for the operation of business, which is the sticker is.

According to the Aggie statistics the yield of honey in these states this year will run at seven million pounds, and the man will draw 10 cents per pound bonus or whatever you get from the government. Very few of you didn't know that Uncle Sam has been "stabilizing" the honey business for several years, and that that dime a pound

Thanks are due to Statistician Davis of the Department of Agriculture for an extension of figures used herein the other day about the progress of artificial cattle breeding in these states. According to Mr. Davis more than four million dairy cows in nearly half a million herds are now in artificial breeding associations, which indicates that one out of six dairy cows are bred artificially in 1951. Artificial breeding associations have 112 herds and 2433 cows enrolled.

Ed Roberts is the new commander of the American Legion post at Portales. With his former staff, he will eat the fried chicken at a public luncheon on Friday evening, May 11, at this time an auxiliary will be organized also.

A little while anyhow, the boys of Clovis won't have to go to Fort Sumner to fish. The new state fair park, which will be between Portales and Clovis is now open to fishermen. There are eight smart of bass in the lake, whose water level is maintained by pumps and has been up for several years. A regular fishing license is required and season expires on Oct. 31.

Four delegates and four alternates among Portales High School have been named by the state class and the faculty to represent the state on the E.N.M.U. from June 8 to 15. The delegates are Mary Kay Cissell, Laurence Cooper, Peggy Jo Randolph, and Peggy Ann Stinnett. The alternates are Madge Brown, Betty Clark, Chloe Garten, and Covette ent of schools caused the celebration of Arbor Day last Thursday, with the planting of trees, speeches 'n' everything. The 13 schools in Santa Fe County pried it open and put a chunk under it. Incidentally every school participating has a Spanish name and only one of the orators was an Anglo. Many of the trees planted were Chinese elms!

James Cullen Long of Albuquerque is confident that Hawaii now has a governor that is all wool and a yard wide. The new boss, selected by President Truman, is Oren E. Long, since 1946 a secretary of the territory. The two Longs are cousins, but have never met up with each other.

In 1950, Portales Valley farmers harvested 6204 acres of peanuts, of which 85 per cent, or 5273 acres, were of the Valencia type, if you know what that means.

"I got the story on
50,000 Miles-No Wear
 and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says Arnold B. Bangerter, Jr.
 Owner, Radio Cab Company
 Salt Lake City, Utah

"Since I changed my 14 cabs over to Conoco Super, I've cut oil consumption almost 50 per cent. With at least 85,000 miles on each, there's no sign of needing new engines yet!"

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:
 After a 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 95.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that Conoco Super can keep your new car new.

NEW CAR DEALER
 "It's a pleasure to have satisfied customers, thanks to Conoco Super," says Walt Winters, Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer, Westside, Iowa. "My customers depend on my judgment about the oil to use in their cars, and Conoco Super is the one I recommend."

TRAVELING SALESMAN
 "When I purchased my new Pontiac, I put in Conoco Super," says Melvin L. Beyer, Traveling Salesman, Pampa, Texas. "I average about 4,000 miles a month and Conoco Super has given me the best of service—even helped to increase the miles per gallon of gasoline."

Brown, Booker Razzle-Dazzle Contest Victors

A sophomore and a senior reign as royalty in Artesia High School. Bill Brown, sophomore, was elected king and Kay Booker, senior, was named queen in the school's annual razzle-dazzle contest. The month long competition ended at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in a special program in the high school auditorium.

The unique contest provides the revenue for paying for many school activities. This year's contest rated the most money ever raised, $639, in the annual event. The money will be used for films, film strips, and records for the audio-visual course.

Earl Grabhorn, teacher of visual education, general science, and American history, supervised the contest in which eight candidates a boy and a girl from each of the four high school classes, competed on the basis of a penny a vote.

Coronation of the king and queen was by Supt. Tom Mayfield which followed the final balloting for candidates and the announcement of the winners by Grabhorn. Managers presented their candidates in a portion of the program directed by A. L. Terpening. Inroductions, second items on the program, was by Grabhorn. There was music by the high school band, directed by Russell Lewis Jr., opening and closing the program.

Judges in the contest were R. M. Parham, Hubert Burke, Alma Sue Felix, and Linna McCaw, of the faculty. Teachers who are class sponsors are Margaret Harston, freshmen; Margaret Bildstone, sophomore; William Bennett, junior; F. L. Green, senior.
