San Angelo and Big Spring Longhorn Pace

Artesia was in the cellar in both batting and fielding in the Longhorn League averages compiled by Buck Francis, Abilene, statistician. The report is as follows:

Sept. 2
Big Spring leads in batting with 99, Roswell is runner-up with 93, Artesia in eighth place with 83.

Fielding San Angelo leads with 964; Roswell again finishes runner-up with a 950; Artesia at 928.

Runs of Roswell is first in innings batting with 329; Stubby Malone, Artesia, 17th, 335; Paul Neale, Artesia, 29th, with a 317; Neal, Artesia, 34th, 313.

Strikeouts all pitchers with a percentage while Arenicibia of Big Spring has an 833 mark.

Week's leaders:
Batting — percentage, Johnny Neale, San Angelo, .382; runs, Eastham, Odessa, 142; hits, Neale, San Angelo, 184; two-base hits, Ken Wallace, San Angelo, 30.

Fielding — percentage, Indio Neale, San Angelo, 818 (184); runs, Dean Franks, Roswell, 158; strikeouts, Marshall Epperson, San Angelo, 158.

Drillers Enter Curtain-Dropper

Here comes the windup. Three games and the 1951 baseball season is history. One game against the Drillers on Wednesday, Sept. 5, and the second-place Big Spring Broncos Thursday, Sept. 6, completes the schedule.

Big Spring got the first lick at the Drillers by beating them 7-3 Thursday.

The Vernon Dusters took the sure of the Drillers by a score of 4-1 Friday. However, the Drillers could claim at least a moral victory, as they outthrew the Dusters and committed only two errors.

One of these errors, a wild pitch, proved to be the difference in the margin of victory.

Artesia's two runs came on a run homer by Manager Stubby Malone in the eighth inning, with Gene Daniels on base after a single, his third in four trips to plate.

Stubby Malone, winning pitcher, pitched four strikeouts, loser Gene Graham and Reliever Melvin Neale, a apiece.

On Saturday the Dusters again beat the Drillers by a score of 4-1.

The Sweetwater Swatters managed to engineer a shutout against the Drillers by a score of 3-0 Sunday. The Drillers were able to get two hits, a single by Ken Cluett and a double by Chick Neal.

The Swatters came back Monday to defeat the Drillers by a score of 9-3.

While the Drillers were unable to garner any wins, their alumni at the Borger team, Abe Fleitas and Gene Perez, while not getting wins either, were distinguished themselves somewhat.

In a game with Albuquerque, reported in the Albuquerque Journal Sept. 2, Perez, former Driller pitcher, scored a run, while Abe Fleitas, former first baseman with the Drillers, engineered a double.

California Buy New Mexico Fish

New Mexico fish are in demand in California it seems. The F. A. Bennett Fish Company, of Los Angeles, is withdrawing fish from the Butte Lake at the rate of 100 tons per day, according to the Springs Herald of Aug. 24.

The fish being taken out of the lake are rough fish including buffalo fish; carp will be taken at a later date.

Will nets are being used to trap buffalo fish and the carp will be cornered by means of seining operations.

The lake's elevations provides good conditions for removing rough fish, according to the Herald.

Veterans Rodeo Topnotch Event in State

Manuel Enos, noted bronc-riding and rodeo judge from Fort Worth, Texas, shown above making a good ride on a saddle bronc.

"Wild Bill" Elliott and Tommy Steiner have announced that their best horses and bulls will be featured here. "Wild Bill", famous as the star of more than sixty-nine Western pictures, announced that he and Tommy Steiner, his partner in the Elliott-Steiner produced rodeos, scoured the entire West to procure the outstanding bucking stock to be used here. More than $30,000 has been spent since the first of the year on Brahma bulls alone. They have been gathered from the coastal areas of Texas, as well as from places as far off as the Pacific Coast.

The horses in bareback and saddle bronc strings have been selected from the best in other rodeo producers' strings and from ranches all over the West. When interviewed, "Wild Bill" Elliott said, "I've always had an ambition to produce big-time rodeos, and last year when Tommy Steiner and I decided to form a partnership, that ambition materialized. We were determined to have the best rough stock in the West, and frankly, we've spent far more time and money than common sense should have allowed."

Continuing, he added, "Since specialty acts and crowds, spectacular grand entries and showmanship are so essential to the success of any rodeo, as far as the paying public is concerned, we both decided we'd spare no expense in equipping our company with the most colorful costumes, horses and equipment possible to get, and to contract for the very best trick riders and other specialty acts in the business. We have, in my opinion, the best rodeo clown and bull-fighter there ever was, in the person of Carl Sattafield of Cheyenne, Wyoming. Tom Hadley is our announcer, and I know of no better man to handle this important part of every show. Cullen Robinson is Arena Director, and everyone who knows Cullen knows there's no more capable man to handle both stock and cowboys."

When asked about his own personal appearances, "Wild Bill" assured us that he would be at every performance, with Thunder, his famous movie horse, and that children in the audience would have a big part in helping him put on his part of the show.

The cutting horse contest, which will be one of the highlights of the United Veterans Rodeo, is one event in which "Wild Bill" will compete, using his Reserve World's Champion Cutting Horse, Red Boy. "Wild Bill" and Red Boy are already familiar figures at every major cutting horse contest in the Southwest; the famous movie hero is also a director of the National Cutting Horse Association.

This year's Elliott-Steiner produced United Veterans Rodeo which will have its first performance at 8:00 p. m. on Sept. 13, promises to be the wildest and wooliest this community has ever witnessed. More rodeo stars have

Bulldog Parents Schedule First 1951-52 Meeting

The kick-off for the 1951 season of the Artesia Bulldog Parents Club will be held in the home of the club president, Mrs. George Beadle, 1114 South First street at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. All members and prospective members are urged to attend.

The club voted in its final session last year to include all sports in the future and with this in mind the president is eager to have representatives of each sport present at this initial meeting so that a comprehensive year-round program may be mapped out.

Parents and all interested persons willing to help actively in the club program are extended a hearty invitation to attend the meeting.

Officers for the year aside from the president are Mrs. Bernice Golden, vice-president; Mrs. Harlan Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. Jimmie Dew, treasurer.

already entered the cowboy contests than ever before, and the rough Elliott-Steiner stock should make this contest between man and best one Artesia will never forget.

Here and There

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Wise and son, Mel, Jr., and Mark of 1408 Yucca Avenue, apartment D, have returned from a visit with Mr. Wise's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wise of Big Spring, Texas. Also guests there at the same time were Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Wise and son, Hal, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wise of Big Spring. This was a family reunion for the Wise family, being all the sons, their wives and grandchildren. The group returned to Artesia for a several days visit and a trip to the Sacramento mountains and White Sands.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Russell spent last week-end in the mountains.

Plenty of Rigs Doesn't Mean Plenty of Oil

Only one oil well in 991 produces enough oil to meet domestic consumption for more than a week; one out of every 330 wells brings in sufficient oil for two days to a week, and only one out of nine produce any oil at all.

These figures are contained in a 16-page brochure entitled, "Oil, Key to Progress and Security," put out by the American Petroleum Institute, 50 West 50th St., New York 20, N. Y.

The subhead on the cover reads: "Percentage Depletion: The Story of an Industry's Experience."

The cover also carries a picture of a drilling rig, a diesel engine, tank truck, and other vehicles powered by oil and its derivatives.

Subjects discussed in the pamphlet include the role of oil in food production, in transportation, to meet the needs of war.

The booklet also features charts showing how hourly earnings of oil workers have kept ahead of those in other industries, and how the price of crude oil has been below that of other commodities.

Other charts show how oil producers have paid a greater share of taxes than other industries, and that reserves of oil are now greater than at any time since 1926, when the percentage depletion law governing taxation in the oil industry, went into effect.

Petrol and Mars

How oil contributes to success in war, and the role of intelligent tax legislation to govern the oil industry is told in the following excerpt from the brochure:

In war, oil powers the attack. Ethiopian spear-throwers were hardly a match for modern armies—even the otherwise ineffective one of Mussolini; and everyone remembers the gasoline shortage that helped the collapse of Rome in Africa during World War II.

The American oil industry has been able to supply unflinching the enormous volumes of oil consumed by our ultra-modern army, navy and air equipment.

In war and peace, on the farm, in the factory, on the highway and in the street, in the home and the office—everywhere—oil has been, and is, the indispensable ingredient. We in the United States have progressed because wise tax legislation has maintained the economic climate which has enabled us to have enough oil, of the right kinds, at the right places, at the right time.

On world wool consumption, the Commercial Economics Committee reports a 1950 record wool use of nearly 2.7 billion pounds clean basis, up 10 per cent over 1949 and up 30 per cent over the five-year pre-war average. In this reckoning, the United States slightly led Great Britain as the leading world consumer.

Game Bureau Lists Bird Hunting Dates

Long-awaited dates on the hunting season for dove and quail and other game was received by The Artesia Advocate in the state game and fish department in its newsletter received Friday, Aug. 31.

Dove season began Sept. 1, will end Oct. 12. There have been a half dozen calls at The Advocate for this information but nothing official was put out until the state game commission met Aug. 27 and wound up its business.

The information was received too late for inclusion in a story preceding the Sept. 1 dove season opening.

At its scheduled August meeting Monday, the state game commission approved recommendations governing the fall hunting seasons on waterfowl, upland game birds, elk, antelope, and bullfrogs.

Reports from department fieldmen indicated an abundance of game birds in most areas and a good season is expected. Taking these reports into consideration, the commission has allowed maximum season lengths and bag limits wherever possible.

Final announcement of waterfowl season bag limits cannot be made until a final schedule is received from the Fish and Wildlife Service.

Dove season is Sept. 1 to Oct. 12, inclusive, with 10 birds being the bag and possession limit.

Quail season is Dec. 1 to 23, inclusive, with an eight bird bag and possession limit. The season limit is 48 birds.

Setting of the prairie chicken season was deferred at this time.

Pheasant season will be Dec. 1 to 3 with a season limit of two cock birds.

Grouse season is Sept. 14, 15, and 16 with a season limit of three birds.

Shooting hours on all species of birds are noon opening day to sunset and thereafter, from sunrise to sunset.

Bullfrog season was set from Sept. 12 to 30, inclusive, with a bag and possession limit of eight frogs. Fishing regulations apply in the taking of bullfrogs.

The game department will issue approximately the same number of elk and antelope permits as last year. Deadline for receipt of applications for specific permits will be announced in an official release. Applications may be submitted at anytime.

Two Game Refuges

The commission discussed the possibility of leasing or purchasing various properties and water rights in order to assure minimum water for aquatic life and spawning purposes.

Bonito, Alamogordo, and Eagle Nest waters were considered and the subject will be given further attention after more extensive investigation.

Two game refuges were abolished while two others were created. The Chupadero Mesa Refuge, south of Mountainair, and Salvation Peak Refuge, northwest of Beaverhead were thrown open.

Chupadero Game Refuge, southeast of Las Vegas on the W. C. Culbertson, Jr., Ranch and the Hudson Lake Refuge for waterfowl, northeast of Tucumcari were created.

The game commission gave its approval to a recommendation granting three to four hundred permits for deer of either sex in the San Andres Federal Wildlife Refuge. The number of permits in this area will depend upon the ability of the Fish and Wildlife Service to arrange for hunting the east slopes of the range.

Approval was also granted for a special season for deer of either sex in the Organ Mountain area. Dates were set at Dec. 15, 16, and 17 and three hundred permits will be issued.

The commission adjourned until its next regular meeting on Nov. 26.

Spotlight Law Violated

It shall be unlawful for any person to throw or cast the rays of a spotlight or other artificial light into any field, pasture, woodland, forest, or prairie wherein big game or domestic livestock may be, or may be reasonably expected to be, while having in his possession a firearm or other implement whereby these animals could be killed.

This new "Spotlight Bill" (House Bill 321), passed at the last legislature, landed two Mayhill men in trouble recently and cost them heavy fines.

District Wardens Orville Luttrell and Tom Rogers saw a pickup directing spotlights into fields along Water Canyon and making a thorough inspection. Several registered horses and livestock, as well as game, have been killed in this area. At James Canyon and Penas-

Clovis End Lone New Mexican on Miner Grid Squad

Only one New Mexican is on the Texas Western College 1951 football squad, according to the El Paso institution's booklet, "Facts About the 1951 Texas Western Miners."

He is Curtis Wells of Clovis. All of the other 28 players are Texans, 12 of them lettermen.

Wells, a squadman last season, says considerable action on offense. He is an end, weighs 170 pounds, is 6 feet 1, 20 years old, a junior, and is majoring in physical education.

Texas Western is in the Border Conference. Winner of the title last year was West Texas State, Canyon.

Last year the Miners played 10 games, won seven, lost three, took third place in the nine-school conference, with a percentage of .667.

1951 Schedule

Sept. 22—North Texas State at El Paso.
Sept. 29—New Mexico Aggies at El Paso.

co road the game officials stopped and searched the pickup. They found two spotlights, one hand light and one dismounted car spotlight, a 300 Savage rifle and a .22 automatic rifle with a scope. The car's occupants, Bob McWhorter and Lloyd Posey, both of Mayhill, denied knowledge of the law but were cited to court in Clouderoft. Judge Hoyer, justice of the peace, fined the men $50 and $25, plus costs.

Chief Comments

Ray Bell, chief of law enforcement, said of the case:

"Cases of this nature will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. It is a flagrant violation not only of the law but of good sportsmanship. We have needed this law for some time and it will be put to good use."

"It should be stated that all game and livestock officers and landowners and lessees, while on their own lands in connection with legitimate activities are exempt from the Act's provisions. I wish to emphasize that this law isn't going to get anybody in trouble while carrying on legitimate and lawful activities."

New Public Relations Director

Mark H. Bearwald of Santa Fe has replaced Rohn Hawke as director of public relations and education for the state game and fish department.

A former employee of the United Press Bureau in Santa Fe, Bearwald has recently been engaged in advertising and public relations work here. The new director came to New Mexico two years ago from Mexico City where he had been in newspaper work.

Hawke, who has served in the publicity post since last February, has resigned to return to radio and television work in California.

New Mexico Aggie 80-Man Grid Squad Working Under New Coach

Football practice at New Mexico A&M College began Saturday morning. More than 80 candidates reported to Joe Coleman, new football mentor. Of this number, only 11 are lettermen; the rest included many promising freshmen who bring fine high school records, but who are unproven in college competition.

Coleman and his assistants, Jim Patton, Ray Evans and Harvey Gabriel, will have only two weeks to prepare the Aggies for their opener in a game at Tucson with the potent University of Arizona Wildcats, Sept. 15. Two practice periods a day are planned.

Returning lettermen are headed by "Slinging" Sam McGowan, who led the nation's small college passers in 1949. Others include Fred Haiman, top ground gainer for the Aggies last season; Dick Andrews, rugged tackle and end; Bill Mounce, stout line backer.

Bill Parkman, guard in the Aggie line that set a strong defensive record last season; Ben Boykin, who played some good defensive ball last season; Jerry Mayfield, who should be a greatly improved end.

Bill Shaffer, stout guard; Fred Jones, who played at both tackle and end; Omar Parker, who saw double duty as an end and as a back; and Bob Pufal, veteran center.

Five former Las Cruces high school players are among the newcomers seeking berths on the 1951 Aggie eleven. Russell Parsons, all-state end; Ed Boykin, a quarterback in high school, but who will be groomed for an end post; Artie Robertson, little speedster; Jon Adlerholt, member of the all-state third team last year; and Jimmy Bradley, who starred as Las Cruces won three district titles.

Following is a list of some of the highly touted freshmen who have promised to report for Saturday's Texas Center.

Center candidates are Gerald Matthews, 6' 180 pounds, member of Pampa, Texas, team that won district championship for two years, member of all-district team, and given honorable mention, on all-state team; George Skinner, 5' 10", 190 pounds, member of New Orleans city championship eleven, and all-city center 1948; and Jime Jefferes, 6' 1", 190 pounds, member of Cathedral High School city championship team, 1950.

Among the guards are Raul Armagmac, who won all-district honors while playing for El Paso high school; Vernon Duncan, 6' 190 pounds, all-district guard for three years from Coahoma, Texas; Richard Gantz, 5' 11", 195 pounds, member of Pampa, Texas, district championship team for two years; Hugh Howard, 5' 9", 185 pounds, Highland high school, Albuquerque, named to the all-state second team, and played in annual All-Star game.

Tackles

Promising tackles include: Jimmy Graves, 6' 3", 189 pounds, all-state district and all-regional tackle while a member of Wellington, Texas, eleven; William Hill, 5' 11", 210 pounds, member of Lubbock, Texas, district champs in 1949-50, named to all district second team, 1950.

Edwin Leshiker, 5' 9", 200 pounds, member of the 1949 Deming undefeated team, member of all-state second team in 1949, named to all-southern team in 1950.

John Thompson, 6' 2", 225 pounds, member of Phillips, Texas, perennial district champs; and Calvin Ward, 6', 184 pounds, Santa

District Sports Forum Will Be Held in Artesia

A council on District 5 sports will be held at a supper meeting at 6:30 p. m., Sept. 5, in the high school cafeteria.

The two-part 10 section program is for "the smoothness of the program of athletics in District 5 for the coming year."

Athletics directors, coaches, principals, press and radio have been invited to attend. Cost of the meal is $1.00 a plate.

Only local persons on the program will be Rusty Ayers of Radio Station KSPV, and Don Riddle, junior high principal. Others are from Carlsbad, Roswell and Dexter.

Morris W. Ward, Roswell, executive president of the New Mexico High School Athletic Association, will explain "New Football Rules."

Head of the district setup is Travis Stovall, Artesia High School principal, and District 5 vice-president, chief official of the district.

Andrew Jackson was the oldest President of the United States. He was almost 70 years old when he retired from the White House on March 4, 1837.

Matches in the past have been known variously as locofocos, pocket luminaries, congreves, light boxes and lucifers.

Little Smokey To Get Picture On Mail Trucks

Smokey Bear, forest fire mascot of the U. S. Forest Service, will be on the streets of every city and town in the United States during the month of September.

Through a cooperative arrangement between The Advertising Council, Inc., the Forest Service and the Post Office Department every mail truck in the country will carry posters bearing Smokey's likeness and a plea for greater care with fire in the woods.

Smokey is represented in the flesh by the bear cub with burned feet picked up last year on the large Capitan fire in the Lincoln National Forest, New Mexico, and placed in the national zoo at Washington.

A large part of the 2,000 or more forest and range fires which occur in the Southwest each year are man-caused and could be prevented by a little more care on the part of the public, according to Kenneth O. Wilson, fire chief for the Southwestern Region of the Forest Service.

Many lightning fires could also be held to small size, Wilson believes, if persons discovering them

Cooperation between the Forest Service and postal officials in forest fire control is of long standing, Wilson reports. For many years rural mail carriers have kept a lookout for fires along their routes and this is the third year that mail trucks have been devoted to carrying fire prevention posters. In some cities cancellation discs carrying a fire prevention message are used in post offices during the fire season.

Baptist Troop Wins Water Derby

Troop 27, sponsored by First Baptist, was the winner of the annual Boy Scout water derby, held Thursday night at the municipal pool. The troop, of which John Simons, Jr., is scoutmaster, won 138 points to take top honors.

In second place was Troop 28, First Methodist; third, Troop 29, Veterans of Foreign Wars; fourth, Troop 70, Atoka.

There were 70 boys taking part in the water tournament. Events included 50-yard side, 20-yard backstroke races, 50-yard free style, candle relay, glide, flag, balloon, wade relay, disrobing, and diving contests.

A watermelon feed, provided by Artesia Rotary, concluded the trophy program.

Officials were W. H. McNeill, council camping-activities chairman; Ormand Loving, Bob Dugham, clerk; Bill McKee, Carlsbad field executive, Charlie Bullock, and O. H. Syferd.

tered breeder, an educator, and possibly representatives of other segments of the meat industry.
 Each of these judges will give his reasons for his placing of the cattle, thus showing what his branch of the industry is seeking in beef animals. Differences of opinion will be pointed out.
 "We hope that this clinic will bring us closer together in determining the needs of the beef industry in the state," Flint said.
 The afternoon session of the clinic will be spent in a panel discussion. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Ranchers to Meet In Three Cities During September
 Three coming events of interest to beef cattle producers of New Mexico are scheduled for September. W. E. (Bunny) Flint, assistant animal husbandman at New Mexico A. & M. College, said today.
 The first beef cattle clinic ever held in New Mexico will take place in Roswell Sept. 6. A morning feature of the clinic, sponsored by the Southeastern New Mexico Hereford Association, will be the judging of several classes of beef cattle by a commercial producer, a regis-

Cattle Growers Association will hold its quarterly meeting in Gallup. Roy Forehand, president of the association, has arranged a varied program including marketing and prices, state lands, and public lands. About 600 members are expected to attend.
 The third date on the stockmen's calendar next month is Sept. 10-12, when the New Mexico Hereford Association invites all stockmen to the first annual Hereford Ranch Tour. The tour starts at Clayton Sept. 10 and ends Sept. 12 at the Philmont Ranch near Raton. Thirty-five ranches in Union and Calfax counties will be visited on the tour.

SAILORS RETURN
 A trio of Artesians—Pat Snoddy, Dick Galatian, and Jim Tipps—were recent guests at the Lobby Cafe in Juarez. The three celebrated the return of Snoddy, U. S. Navy, from Guam.
 Students may carry a machine shop-auto mechanic combination course at New Mexico Western College, Silver City, which prepares them for civilian trades as well as armed services technical positions.

FAMOUS BUSCHBOMS AND THEIR LIBERTY HORSES

The famous Buschboms and their celebrated Palomino Liberty horse act will be one of the featured contract acts at the Fifth Annual United Veterans Rodeo, Sept. 13-15. Bill Buschbom, the master horseman from Cassville, Wis., and his daughter Beverly, stage a thrilling and inspiring performance with their highly trained liberty Palominos. Miss Buschbom, herself an outstanding horsewoman, puts the Buschbom high-schooled horses through their repertoire of graceful and intricate tricks. This is the same family of Buschbom from which Jack Buschbom, of international rodeo fame stems . . . Captain Bill and Beverly are Jack's father and sister . . . horsemen all!
